27 MOREOVER JOB continued his parable, and said,

- 2 As God liveth, who hath put away my judgment;
And the Almighty, who hath imbibtered my life;
- 3 All the while my breath is in me,
Breath which God hath given me,
- 4 My lips shall not speak wickedness,

- Nor my tongue utter deceit.
- 5 Woe unto me if I should justify you :
Till I die I will not put away mine integrity from me.
- 6 My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go :
My heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.
- 7 Let mine enemy be as the wicked,
And he who riseth up against me as the unrighteous.
- 8 For what is the hope of the ungodly,
Though he grow rich, when God taketh away his soul ?
- 9 Will God hear his cry
When trouble cometh upon him ?
- 10 Will he delight himself in the Almighty ?
Will he call upon God at any time ?
- 11 I will teach you by the help of God :
That which is with the Almighty will I not conceal.
- 12 Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it ;
Why then are ye thus altogether vain ?
- 13 This is the portion of a wicked man with God,
And the heritage of oppressors,
Which they shall receive of the Almighty.
- 14 If his children be multiplied, it is for the sword :
And his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.
- 15 Those who remain of him shall be buried in death :
And his widows shall not weep.
- 16 Though he heap up silver as the dust,
And prepare raiment as the clay ;
- 17 He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on,
And the innocent shall divide the silver.
- 18 He buildeth his house as a moth,
And as a booth that the keeper maketh.
- 19 In wealth he lieth down, but it shall not be gathered :
He openeth his eyes, and it is not.
- 20 Terrors take hold on him as waters,
A tempest stealeth him away in the night.
- 21 The east wind carrieth him away, and he departeth :
Yea, as a storm it hurleth him out of his place.
- 22 It driveth upon him, and doth not spare ;
He would fain escape from its power.
- 23 It shall clap its hands at him,
And shall hiss him out of his place.
- 28 Surely there is a mine for silver,
And a place for gold which men refine.
- 2 Iron is taken out of the earth,
And copper is molten out of the stone.
- 3 Man putteth an end to darkness,
And searcheth out all perfection :
The stones of darkness, and the shadow of death.
- 4 He breaketh up the valley from the bottom of the mountains,
They descend not by the foot ;
They wander far away from men.
- 5 As for the earth, out of it cometh bread :
And under it is turned up as it were fire.
- 6 The stones of it are the place of sapphires :
And it hath dust of gold.
- 7 There is a path which no bird knoweth,
And which the vulture's eye hath not seen :
- 8 The lion's whelps have not trodden it,
Nor the fierce lion passed by it.
- 9 He thrusteth forth his hand upon the rock ;
He upturneth the mountains.
- 10 He cutteth out channels among the rocks ;
And his eye seeth every precious thing.

- 11 He restraineth the floods from overflowing;
And hidden things bringeth he forth to light.
- 12 But where shall wisdom be found?
And where is the place of understanding?
- 13 Man knoweth not the price thereof;
Neither is it found in the land of the living.
- 14 The depth saith, It is not in me:
And the sea saith, It is not with me.
- 15 Fine gold shall not be given for it,
Neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.
- 16 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir,
With the precious onyx, or the sapphire.
- 17 The gold and the crystal cannot equal it:
And the exchange of it shall not be for jewels of fine gold.
- 18 No mention shall be made of coral, or of pearls:
For the price of wisdom is above rubies.
- 19 The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it,
Neither shall it be valued with pure gold.
- 20 Whence then cometh wisdom?
And where is the place of understanding?
- 21 Seeing it is hidden from the eyes of all living,
And concealed from the birds of the air.
- 22 Destruction and death say,
We have heard the fame thereof with our ears.
- 23 God alone understandeth the way thereof,
And he alone knoweth the place thereof.
- 24 For he looketh to the ends of the earth,
And seeth under the whole heavens;
- 25 To make a weight for the winds;
And he establisheth the waters by measure.
- 26 When he made a decree for the rain,
And a way for the lightning of the thunder:
- 27 Then did he see it, and declare it;
He prepared it, yea, and searched it out.
- 28 And unto man he said, Behold,
The fear of the LORD, that is wisdom;
And to depart from evil is understanding.

29 MOREOVER JOB continued his parable, and said,

- 2 Oh that I were as in months past,
As in the days when God preserved me;
- 3 When his lamp shone upon my head,
And when by his light I walked through darkness;
- 4 As I was in the days of my youth,
When God set a fence about my tabernacle;
- 5 When the Almighty was yet with me,
When my children were about me;
- 6 When I washed my steps with buttermilk,
And the rock poured me out rivers of oil!
- 7 When I went out to the gate through the city,
When I prepared my seat in the street:
- 8 The young men saw me, and hid themselves:
And the aged arose, and stood up.
- 9 The princes refrained talking,
And laid their hand on their mouth.
- 10 The voice of the nobles was hushed,
And their tongue as cleaving to the roof of their mouth.
- 11 When the ear heard me, then it blessed me;
And when the eye saw me, it gave witness to me:
- 12 Because I delivered the poor who cried,
And the fatherless, and him who had none to help him.
- 13 The blessing of him who was ready to perish came upon me:

- And I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.
 14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me :
 My judgment was as a robe and a diadem.
 15 I was eyes to the blind,
 And feet was I to the lame.
 16 I was a father to the poor :
 And the cause of him whom I knew not I searched out.
 17 And I deprived the oppressor of his power,
 And made him restore that which he had taken wrongfully.
 18 Then I said, I shall die in my nest,
 And I shall multiply my days as the sand.
 19 My root shall be spread out by the waters,
 And the dew shall lie all night upon my branch.
 20 My glory shall be fresh in me,
 And my bow shall be renewed in my hand.

- 21 Unto me men gave ear, and waited,
 And kept silence at my counsel.
 22 After my words they spoke not again;
 And my speech dropped upon them as the dew :
 23 And they waited for me as for the rain;
 And they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain.
 24 Unless I smiled on them, they had no confidence;
 And by the light of my countenance they were not cast down.
 25 I chose out their way, and sat chief,
 And dwelt as a king in the army,
 As one who comforteth the mourners.

30 But now they who are younger than I, have me in derision,
 Whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock.

- 2 Yea, what to me was the strength of their hands,
 In whom manly age was perished ?
 3 For want and famine they were solitary;
 Fleeing into the wilderness but yesterday, desolate and waste.
 4 Who cut up mallows by the bushes,
 And juniper roots for their food.
 5 They were driven forth from among men,
 (They cried after them as after a thief;)
 6 To dwell in the cliffs of the valleys,
 In caves of the earth, and in the rocks.
 7 Among the bushes they brayed as wild asses;
 Under the nettles they were gathered together.
 8 They were children of fools,
 Yea, children of base men :
 They were viler than the earth.
 9 And now am I their song,
 Yea, I am their byword.
 10 They abhor me, they stand aloof from me,
 And forbear not to spit in my presence.
 11 Because he hath loosed my cord, and afflicted me,
 They have also let loose the bridle before me.
 12 Upon my right hand rise the youth;
 They push away my feet,
 And they raise up against me their destructive ways.
 13 They impede my path,
 They rejoice in my calamity,
 There is no helper against them.
 14 They came upon me as a wide breaking in of waters :
 In the desolation they roll on as waves.
 15 Terrors are turned upon me :
 They pursue my life as the wind :
 And my welfare passeth away as a cloud.

- 16 And now my soul is poured out in me ;
 The days of affliction have taken hold upon me.
 17 My bones are pierced in me in the night season :

- And my nerves take no rest.
- 18 By the great force of my disease doth my garment bind me :
It bindeth me about as the collar of my coat.
- 19 He hath cast me into the mire,
And I am become like dust and ashes.
- 20 I cry unto thee, and thou dost not hear me :
I stand up, and thou regardest me not.
- 21 Thou art become cruel to me :
With thy strong hand thou opposest thyself against me.
- 22 Thou liftest me up to the wind ;
Thou causest me to ride upon it, and dissolvest my substance.
- 23 But I know that thou wilt bring me to death,
And to the house appointed for all living.
- 24 Howbeit he will not stretch out his hand to the grave,
Though in its ruins there is freedom.
- 25 Did not I weep for him who was in trouble ?
Was not my soul grieved for the poor ?
- 26 When I looked for good, then evil came unto me :
And when I waited for light, there came darkness.
- 27 My bowels boiled, and rested not :
The days of affliction came quickly.
- 28 I went mourning without the sun :
In the congregation I rose and cried out.
- 29 I became a brother to dragons,
And a companion to owls.
- 30 My skin is blackened upon me by disease,
And my bones are burnt with heat.
- 31 My harp also is turned to mourning,
And my lyre into the voice of those who weep.
- 31 I made a covenant with mine eyes,
That I would not gaze on a maid.
- 2 For what is the portion of God from above ?
And what inheritance of the Almighty from on high ?
- 3 Is it not destruction to the wicked ?
And utter ruin to the workers of iniquity ?
- 4 Doth not he see my ways,
And count all my steps ?
- 5 If I have walked with vanity,
Or if my foot hath hastened to deceit ;
- 6 Let God weigh me in the balances of justice,
That he may know mine integrity.
- 7 If my step hath turned out of the way,
And my heart walked after mine eyes,
And if any blot hath cleaved to my hands ;
- 8 Then let me sow, and let another eat ;
Yea, let my offspring be rooted out.
- 9 If my heart hath been deceived by a woman,
Or if I have laid wait at my neighbour's door ;
- 10 Then let my wife grind for another,
And let others oppress her.
- 11 For this is a heinous crime ;
Yea, it is an iniquity to be punished by the judges.
- 12 For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction,
And would root out all mine increase.
- 13 If I did despise the cause of my bondman
Or of my bondwoman, when they contended with me ;
- 14 What then shall I do when God riseth up ?
And when he visiteth, what shall I answer him ?
- 15 Did not he who made me in the womb make him ?
And did not one fashion us in the womb ?
- 16 If I have withheld the poor from their desire,
Or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail ;
- 17 Or have eaten my morsel myself alone,

- And the fatherless hath not eaten thereof;
 18 (For from my youth God brought me up, as a father,
 And by him I have been guided from my mother's womb;)
 19 If I have seen any perish for want of clothing,
 Or any poor without covering;
 20 If his loins have not blessed me,
 And if he were not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;
 21 If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless,
 When I saw my help in the gate:
 22 Then let mine arm fall from my shoulder blade,
 And mine arm be broken from the bone.
 23 For destruction from God was a terror to me,
 And his majesty I could not endure.
 24 If I have made gold my confidence,
 Or have said to the fine gold, Thou art my trust;
 25 If I rejoiced because my wealth was great,
 And because my hand had gotten much;
 26 If I have worshipped the sun when it shined,
 Or the moon walking in brightness;
 27 And my heart hath been secretly enticed,
 Or my mouth hath kissed my hand:
 28 This also were an iniquity to be punished by my judge:
 For I should have denied the God who is above.
 29 If I rejoiced at the destruction of him who hated me,
 Or lifted up myself when evil overcame him:
 30 Neither have I suffered my mouth to sin
 By wishing a curse to his soul.
 31 Do not the men of my tabernacle say,
 Oh that we had of his flesh! we cannot be satisfied.
 32 The sojourner did not lodge in the street:
 But I opened my doors to the traveller.
 33 If I covered my transgressions after the manner of men,
 By hiding mine iniquity in my bosom:
 34 Did I fear a great multitude,
 Or did the contempt of families terrify me,
 That I kept silence, and went not out of the door?
 35 Oh that I had one who would hear me!
 Behold, my desire is, that the Almighty would answer me.
 And that mine adversary had written an accusation.
 36 Surely I would take it upon my shoulder,
 And bind it as a crown to me.
 37 I would declare unto him the number of my steps;
 As a prince would I go near unto him.
 38 If my land cry against me, or that the furrows likewise thereof complain;
 39 If I have eaten the fruits thereof without money,
 Or have caused the owners thereof to lose their life:
 40 Let thistles grow instead of wheat, and tares instead of barley.

The words of Job are ended.

SO these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes. 32
 Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the kindred of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified himself rather than God. Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found 3 no answer, and yet had condemned Job. Now Elihu had waited for their reply to 4 Job, because they were elder than he. When Elihu saw that there was no answer 5 in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled. And Elihu the son of 6
 Barachel the Buzite answered and said,

- I am young, and ye are very old;
 Wherefore I was afraid,
 And durst not show you mine opinion.
 7 I said, Days should speak,
 And multitude of years should teach wisdom.
 8 Surely the spirit of God is in man,

And the inspiration of the Almighty giveth him understanding.

- 9 Great men are not always wise :
Neither do the aged always understand judgment.
- 10 Therefore I said, Hearken to me ;
I also will show unto you mine opinion.
- 11 Behold, I waited for your words ;
I gave ear to your reasons,
Whilst ye searched out what to say.
- 12 Yea, I attended unto you,
And, behold, there was none of you who convinced Job,
Or who answered his words :
- 13 Lest ye should say, We have found out by wisdom
That God thrusteth him down, not man.
- 14 Now he hath not directed his words against me :
Neither will I answer him with speeches such as yours.
- 15 They were amazed, they answered no more :
They left off speaking.
- 16 I wait, and they speak not.
They are at a stand, they answer no more.
- 17 I will answer also my part,
I also will show mine opinion.
- 18 For I am full of matter,
The spirit within me constraineth me :
- 19 Behold, it is as wine which hath no vent ;
It is ready to burst like new bottles.
- 20 I will speak, that I may be relieved :
I will open my lips and answer.
- 21 Let me not, I pray you, accept any man's person,
Neither let me give flattering titles unto man.
- 22 For I know not to give flattering titles ;
In so doing my Maker would soon take me away.

- 33 Wherefore, Job, I pray thee, hear my speech,
And hearken to all my words.
- 2 Behold, now I have opened my mouth,
My tongue hath spoken in my mouth.
- 3 My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart :
And my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.
- 4 The Spirit of God hath made me,
And the breath of the Almighty hath given me life.
- 5 If thou canst answer me,
Set thy words in order before me, stand up.
- 6 Behold, I am like to thyself in God's estimation :
I also am formed out of the clay.
- 7 Behold, my terror shall not make thee afraid,
Neither shall my hand be heavy upon thee.
- 8 Surely thou hast spoken in my hearing,
And I have heard the voice of thy words, saying,
9 I am clean without transgression, I am innocent ;
Neither is there iniquity in me.
- 10 Behold, he inventeth accusations against me,
He counteth me for his enemy,
- 11 He putteth my feet in the stocks,
He marketh all my paths.
- 12 Behold, in this thou art not just :
I will answer thee, that God is greater than man.
- 13 Why dost thou strive against him ?
For he giveth not account of any of his matters.
- 14 For God speaketh once, yea twice,
Yet man perceiveth it not.
- 15 In a dream, in a vision of the night,
When deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed ;
- 16 Then he openeth the ears of men,

- And sealeth their instruction,
 17 That he may withdraw man from his purpose,
 And hide pride from man.
 18 He keepeth back his soul from destruction,
 And his life from perishing by the sword.
 19 He is chastened also with pain upon his bed,
 And the multitude of his bones with strong pain :
 20 So that his life abhorreth bread,
 And his soul dainty food.
 21 His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen ;
 And his bones that were not seen stick out.
 22 Yea, his soul draweth near unto the grave,
 And his life to the destroyers.
 23 If there be sent to him a messenger,
 An interpreter, one among a thousand,
 To show unto man what is his duty :
 24 Then will God be gracious unto him, and say,
 Deliver him from going down to the pit :
 I have provided an atonement.
 25 His flesh shall be fresher than in childhood :
 He shall return to the days of his youth :
 26 He shall pray unto God, and he will be favourable unto him :
 And he shall see his face with joy :
 For he will render unto man his righteousness.
 27 He looketh upon men, and if any say,
 I have sinned, and perverted that which was right,
 And it profited me not ;
 28 He will deliver his soul from going to destruction,
 And his life shall see the light.
 29 Lo, all these things
 Worketh God oftentimes with man,
 30 To bring back his soul from destruction,
 To be enlightened with the light of the living.
 31 Mark well, O Job, hearken unto me :
 Hold thy peace, and I will speak.
 32 If thou hast any thing to say, answer me :
 Speak, for I desire that thou shouldst be justified.
 33 If not, hearken unto me :
 Hold thy peace, and I will teach thee wisdom.

34

- Furthermore Elihu answered and said,
 2 Hear my words, O ye wise men ;
 And give ear unto me, ye who have knowledge.
 3 For the ear trieth words,
 As the palate tasteth food.
 4 Let us choose to us judgment :
 Let us know among ourselves what is good.
 5 For Job hath said, I am righteous :
 And God hath put away my judgment.
 6 Should I lie against my right ?
 My wound is incurable without transgression.
 7 What man is like Job,
 Who drinketh up scorning like water ?
 8 Who goeth in company with the workers of iniquity,
 And walketh with wicked men.
 9 For he hath said, It profiteth a man nothing
 That he should delight himself with God.
 10 Therefore hearken unto me, ye men of understanding :
 Far be it from God, that he should do wickedness ;
 And from the Almighty, that he should do perversely.
 11 For the work of a man shall he render unto him,
 And cause every man to find according to his ways.

- 12 Yea, surely God will not do wickedly,
Neither will the Almighty pervert judgment.
- 13 Who hath given him a charge over the earth?
Or who hath disposed the whole world?
- 14 If he set his heart upon it,
He could recall his spirit and his breath unto himself.
- 15 All flesh would perish together,
And man would turn again unto dust.
- 16 If now thou hast understanding, hear this:
Hearken to the voice of my words.
- 17 Shall even he who hateth right govern?
And wilt thou condemn him who is most just?
- 18 Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art wicked?
And to princes, Ye are ungodly?
- 19 How much less to him who accepteth not the persons of princes,
Nor regardeth the rich more than the poor?
For they all are the work of his hands.
- 20 In a moment shall they die,
And the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away:
And the mighty shall be taken away without hand.
- 21 For his eyes are upon the ways of man,
And he seeth all his goings.
- 22 There is no darkness, nor shadow of death,
Where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.
- 23 For he will not lay upon man more than right;
That he should enter into judgment with God.
- 24 He breaketh in pieces mighty men without number,
And setteth others in their stead.
- 25 Therefore he knoweth their works,
And he overturneth them in the night, so that they are destroyed.
- 26 He striketh them as wicked men
In the open sight of beholders;
- 27 Because they turned back from him,
And would not consider any of his ways:
- 28 So that they cause the cry of the poor to come unto him,
And he heareth the cry of the afflicted.
- 29 When he giveth quietness, who then can make trouble?
And when he hideth his face, who then can behold him?
Whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only:
- 30 That the ungodly reign not,
Lest the people be insnared.
- 31 Surely it is meet to be said unto God,
I lift up my hands to thee; let me not perish:
- 32 That which I see not teach thou me:
If I have done iniquity, I will do it no more.
- 33 Should it be according to thy mind? he will recompense it,
Whether thou refuse, or whether thou choose; and not I:
Therefore speak what thou knowest.
- 34 Let men of understanding tell me,
And let a wise man hearken unto me.
- 35 Job hath spoken without knowledge,
And his words were without wisdom.
- 36 My desire is that Job may be fully tried
Because of his answers like wicked men.
- 37 For he addeth rebellion unto his sin,
He clappeth his hands among us,
And multiplieth his words against God.

35 Elihu spoke moreover, and said,

- 2 Thinkest thou this to be right, that thou saidst,
My righteousness is more than God's?
- 3 For thou saidst, What advantage will it be unto thee?
And, What profit shall I have, more than from my sin?

- 4 I will answer thee,
And thy companions with thee.
- 5 Look unto the heavens, and see;
And behold the clouds which are higher than thou.
- 6 If thou sinnest, what doest thou against him?
Or if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him?
- 7 If thou be righteous, what givest thou him?
Or what receiveth he of thy hand?
- 8 Thy wickedness may hurt a man as thou art;
And thy righteousness may profit the son of man.
- 9 By reason of the multitude of oppressions the oppressed are made to cry:
They cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty.
- 10 But none saith, Where is God my Maker,
Who giveth songs in the night;
- 11 Who teacheth us by the beasts of the earth,
And maketh us wise by the birds of the heavens?
- 12 There they cry, but God answereth not,
Because of the pride of evil men.
- 13 Surely God will not hear vanity,
Neither will the Almighty regard it.
- 14 Even when thou sayest thou canst not see him,
Judgment is before him;
Therefore trust thou in him.
- 15 But now, because he hath not visited in his anger,
Nor noticed great arrogance;
- 16 Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain;
He multiplieth words without knowledge.

36

Elihu also proceeded, and said,

- 2 Suffer me a little, and I will show thee
That I have yet arguments on God's behalf.
- 3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar,
And will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.
- 4 For truly my words shall not be false:
He who is perfect in knowledge is with thee.
- 5 Behold, God is mighty, yet he despiseth not any:
He is mighty in strength and wisdom.
- 6 He granteth not strength to the wicked:
But giveth right to the poor.
- 7 He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous:
But as kings on the throne
He doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.
- 8 And if they be bound in fetters,
And be holden in cords of affliction;
- 9 Then he sheweth them their deeds,
And their transgressions which they have greatly increased.
- 10 He openeth also their ear to discipline,
And commandeth that they return from iniquity.
- 11 If they obey and serve him,
They shall spend their days in prosperity,
And their years in pleasures.
- 12 But if they obey not, they shall perish by the sword,
And they shall die without knowledge.
- 13 But the wicked in heart heap up wrath:
They cry not when he bindeth them.
- 14 They die in youth,
And their life is among the unclean.
- 15 He delivereth the poor in his affliction,
And openeth their ears in oppression.
- 16 Even so would he have removed thee out of the strait
Into a broad place, where there is no straitness;
And that which should be set on thy table should be full of fatness.

- 17 But thou art full of the striving of the wicked :
Judgment and justice shall be upheld by thee.
- 18 When there is wrath, beware lest he take thee away with his stroke :
Then a great ransom cannot deliver thee.
- 19 Will he esteem thy riches ?
No, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.
- 20 Desire not the night,
When people are cut off in their place.
- 21 Take heed, regard not iniquity :
For this hast thou chosen rather than affliction.
- 22 Behold, God exalteth by his power :
Who teacheth like him ?
- 23 Who hath enjoined him his way ?
Or who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity ?
- 24 Remember that thou magnify his work,
Which men behold.
- 25 Every man may see it ;
Man may behold it afar off.
- 26 Behold, God is great, and we know him not,
Neither can the number of his years be searched out.
- 27 For he maketh small the drops of water :
They pour down rain according to the vapour thereof :
- 28 Which the clouds do drop
And distil upon man abundantly.
- 29 Also can any understand the spreadings of the clouds,
Or the noise of his tabernacle ?
- 30 Behold, he spreadeth his light around him,
And covereth the bottom of the sea.
- 31 For by them judgeth he the people ;
He giveth food in abundance.
- 32 He graspeth the lightning in his hands ;
And commandeth it where to light upon.
- 33 He announceth his voice over man,
Over cattle, and over whatsoever riseth up.
- 37 At this also my heart trembleth,
And is ready to bound out of its place.
- 2 Hear attentively the noise of his voice,
And the sound that goeth out of his mouth.
- 3 He directeth it under the whole heavens,
And his lightning unto the ends of the earth.
- 4 After it a voice roareth :
He thundereth with the voice of his excellency ;
And deceiveth them not when his voice is heard.
- 5 God thundereth marvellously with his voice ;
Great things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend.
- 6 For he saith to the snow, Be thou on the earth ;
Likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength.
- 7 He sealeth up the hand of every man ;
That all men may know his work.
- 8 Then the beasts go into dens,
And remain in their places.
- 9 Out of the south cometh the whirlwind :
And cold out of the north.
- 10 By the breath of God frost is given :
And the breadth of the waters is frozen.
- 11 Also by fair weather he driveth away the thick cloud :
He scattereth his bright cloud :
- 12 Thus he turneth their courses by his counsels :
That they may do whatsoever he commandeth them
Upon the face of the world in the earth.
- 13 He causeth it to come, whether for correction,
Or for his land, or in mercy, he causeth the rain to come upon the earth.
- 14 Harken unto this, O Job :

Stand still, and consider the wonderful works of God.

- 15 Dost thou know when God disposed them,
And caused the light of his cloud to shine?
- 16 Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds,
The wonderful works of him who is perfect in knowledge?
- 17 How thy garments are warm,
When he quieteth the earth by the south wind?
- 18 Hast thou with him spread out the sky,
Which is smooth, and as a brazen mirror?
- 19 Teach us what we shall say unto him;
For we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness.
- 20 Shall it be told him that I speak?
If a man speak, surely he shall be swallowed up.
- 21 And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds:
But the wind passeth, and cleanseth them.
- 22 Fair weather cometh out of the north:
With God is terrible majesty.
- 23 Touching the Almighty, we cannot find him out:
He is great in power, and in judgment,
And infinite in justice: he cannot be answered.
- 24 Men do therefore fear him,
Who regardeth the wise of heart as nothing.

38 THEN the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said,

- 2 Who is this that darkeneth counsel
By words without knowledge?
- 3 Gird up now thy loins like a man;
For I will demand of thee, and answer thou me.
- 4 Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth?
Declare, if thou hast information.
- 5 Who hath laid the proportions thereof, if thou knowest?
Or who hath stretched the line upon it?
- 6 Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened?
Or who laid the corner stone thereof;
- 7 When the morning stars sang together,
And all the sons of God shouted for joy?
- 8 Or who shut up the sea as with doors,
When it broke forth, as if it had issued out of the womb?
- 9 When I made the cloud the garment thereof,
And thick darkness a swaddlingband for it,
- 10 And established my decree upon it,
And set bars and doors,
- 11 And said, Thus far shalt thou come, but no further:
And here shall thy proud waves be stayed?
- 12 Hast thou commanded the dawn since thy days;
And caused the dayspring to know its place;
- 13 That it might take hold of the ends of the earth,
That the wicked might be shaken out of it?
- 14 It is turned as clay to the seal;
And they stand as a garment.
- 15 And from the wicked their light is withholden,
And the high arm shall be broken.
- 16 Hast thou entered into the springs of the sea?
Or hast thou walked in search of the great deep?
- 17 Have the gates of death been opened unto thee?
Or hast thou seen the doors of the shadow of death?
- 18 Hast thou explored the breadth of the earth?
Declare if thou knowest it all.
- 19 Where is the way where light dwelleth?
And as for darkness, where is the place thereof,
- 20 That thou shouldst take a survey of it to the boundary thereof,

- And that thou shouldest know the paths to the house thereof?
 21 Knowest thou it, because thou wast then born?
 Or because the number of thy days is great?
- 22 Hast thou entered into the treasures of the snow?
 Or hast thou seen the treasures of the hail,
 23 Which I have reserved against the time of trouble,
 Against the day of battle and war?
- 24 In what way is the lightning parted,
 Which scattereth the east wind upon the earth?
 25 Who hath divided a watercourse for the overflowing of waters,
 Or a way for the lightning of thunder;
 26 To cause it to rain on a land where no man is;
 On the wilderness, wherein there is no man;
 27 To satisfy the desolate and waste ground;
 And to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth?
- 28 Who is the father of the rain?
 Or who hath begotten the drops of dew?
 29 Out of whose womb came the ice?
 And who begat the hoary frost of the heavens?
 30 The waters are hid as with a stone,
 And the face of the deep is frozen.
- 31 Canst thou bind the chain of Pleiades,
 Or loose the bands of Orion?
 32 Canst thou bring forth Mazzaroth in his season?
 Or canst thou guide Arcturus with his sons?
 33 Knowest thou the ordinances of the heavens?
 Canst thou establish a dominion even over the earth?
 34 Canst thou lift up thy voice to the clouds,
 That abundance of waters may cover thee?
 35 Canst thou send lightnings, and will they go,
 And say unto thee, Here we are?
- 36 Who hath put wisdom in the tempest?
 Or who hath given intelligence to the thunder storm?
 37 Who can number the clouds in wisdom?
 Or who can cause the bottles of the heavens to empty themselves,
 38 When the dust groweth into hardness,
 And the clods cleave fast together?
- 39 Wilt thou hunt the prey for the lioness?
 Or satisfy the appetite of the young lions,
 40 When they couch in their dens,
 And abide in the covert to lie in wait?
 41 Who provideth for the raven his food?
 When his young ones cry unto God,
 When they wander for lack of food.
- 39 Knowest thou the time when the wild goats of the rock bring forth?
 Or canst thou preserve the hinds when they calve?
 2 Canst thou number the months that they fulfil?
 Or knowest thou the time when they bring forth?
 3 They bow themselves, they bring forth their young ones,
 They cast out their sorrows.
 4 Their young ones are in good liking, they grow up in the desert;
 They go forth, and return not unto them.
- 5 Who hath sent out the wild ass free?
 Or who hath loosed the bands of the wild ass?
 6 Whose house I have made the wilderness,
 And the barren land his dwellings.
 7 He scorneth the multitude of the city,
 Neither regardeth he the crying of the driver.
 8 The range of the mountains is his pasture,
 And he searcheth after every green thing.
 9 Will the unicorn be willing to serve thee,

- Or abide by thy crib ?
 10 Canst thou bind him with a cord for the furrow?
 Or will he harrow the valleys after thee ?
 11 Wilt thou trust him, because his strength is great ?
 Or wilt thou leave thy labour to him ?
 12 Wilt thou confide in him, that he will bring home thy seed.
 And gather it into thy barn ?
 13 The wing of the ostrich is expanded :
 It is like a wing that flutters and quivers.
 14 She leaveth her eggs in the earth,
 And warmeth them in dust,
 15 And forgetteth that the foot may crush them,
 Or that the wild beast may break them.
 16 She is hardened against her young ones, as though they were not hers ;
 Her labour is in vain without fear ;
 17 Because God hath deprived her of wisdom,
 Neither hath he imparted to her understanding.
 18 What time she is provoked,
 She scorneth the horse and his rider.
 19 Hast thou given the horse strength ?
 Hast thou clothed his neck with thunder ?
 20 Canst thou make him leap as a grasshopper ?
 The glory of his nostrils is terrible.
 21 He paweth in the valley, and rejoiceth in his strength :
 He goeth on to meet the armed men.
 22 He mocketh at fear, and is not affrighted ;
 Neither turneth he back from the sword.
 23 The quiver rattleth against him,
 The glittering spear and the shield.
 24 He swalloweth the ground with fierceness and rage :
 He standeth not still at the sound of the trumpet.
 25 At the blast of the trumpets he saith, Ahah !
 And he smelleth the battle afar off,
 The thunder of the captains, and the shouting.
 26 Doth the hawk fly by thy wisdom,
 And stretch her wings towards the south ?
 27 Doth the eagle mount up at thy command,
 And make her nest on high ?
 28 She dwelleth and abideth on the rock,
 Upon the crag of the rock, and the strong place.
 29 From thence she seeketh the prey,
 And her eyes behold afar off.
 30 Her young ones also suck up blood :
 And where the slain are, there is she.

40

- Moreover the LORD answered Job, and said,
 2 Shall he who contendeth with the Almighty instruct him ?
 He who reproveth God, let him answer it.
 3 THEN JOB answered the LORD, and said,
 4 Behold, I am vile ; what shall I answer thee ?
 I will lay my hand upon my mouth.
 5 Once have I spoken ; but I will not answer :
 Yea, twice ; but I will proceed no further.
 6 THEN ANSWERED THE LORD unto Job out of the whirlwind, and said,
 7 Gird up thy loins now like a man :
 I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.
 8 Wilt thou also disannul my judgment ?
 Wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayest be righteous ?
 9 Hast thou an arm like God ?
 Or canst thou thunder with a voice like him ?

- 10 Deck thyself now with majesty and excellency;
And array thyself with glory and beauty.
- 11 Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath:
Behold every proud thing, and abase it.
- 12 Look on every one who is proud, and bring him low;
And tread down the wicked in their place.
- 13 Hide them in the dust together;
And bind their faces in secret.
- 14 Then will I also confess unto thee
That thine own right hand can save thee.
- 15 Behold now behemoth, which I made with thee;
He eateth grass as an ox.
- 16 Lo now, his strength is in his loins,
And his force is in the navel of his belly.
- 17 He moveth his tail like a cedar:
The sinews of his thighs are wrapped together.
- 18 His bones are as strong pieces of brass;
His bones are like bars of iron.
- 19 He is the chief of the ways of God:
He who made him hath furnished him with his sword.
- 20 Surely the mountains bring him forth food,
Where all the beasts of the field play.
- 21 He lieth under the shady trees,
In the covert of the reed, and fens.
- 22 The shady trees cover him with their shadow;
The willows of the brook compass him about.
- 23 Behold, should the river swell, he hasteneth not:
He is fearless should even the Jordan come up to his mouth.
- 24 Who can take him openly?
Or draw a cord through his nose?

- 41 Canst thou draw out leviathan with a hook?
Or his tongue with a cord which thou lettest down?
- 2 Canst thou put a reed into his nose?
Or bore his jaw through with a thorn?
 - 3 Will he make many supplications unto thee?
Will he speak soft words unto thee?
 - 4 Will he make a covenant with thee?
Wilt thou take him for a servant for ever?
 - 5 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird?
Or wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?
 - 6 Shall the companions make a banquet of him?
Shall they part him among the merchants?
 - 7 Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons?
Or his head with fish spears?
 - 8 Lay thy hand upon him,
Remember the battle, and thou wilt do it again.
 - 9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain:
Shall not one be cast down even at the sight of him?
 - 10 None is so fierce who dare stir him up:
Who then is able to stand before me?
 - 11 Who hath prevented me, that I should repay him?
Whatsoever is under the heavens is mine.
 - 12 I will not conceal his parts, nor his power,
Nor his comely proportion.
 - 13 Who can uncover his mailed face?
Or who can come to him with his double bridle?
 - 14 Who can open the doors of his face?
His teeth are terrible round about.
 - 15 His scales are his pride,
Shut up together as with a close seal.
 - 16 One is so near to another,
That no air can come between them.
 - 17 They are joined one to another,

- They stick together, that they cannot be parted.
 18 By his sneezing a light doth shine,
 And his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.
 19 Out of his mouth go burning lamps,
 And sparks of fire leap out.
 20 Out of his nostrils goeth smoke,
 As out of a seething pot or caldron.
 21 His breath kindleth coals,
 And a flame goeth out of his mouth.
 22 In his neck remaineth strength,
 And sorrow is turned into joy before him.
 23 The flakes of his flesh are joined together :
 They are firm in themselves ; they cannot be moved.
 24 His heart is as firm as a stone ;
 Yea, as hard as a piece of the lower millstone.
 25 When he raiseth up himself, the mighty are afraid :
 By reason of breaking forth they are beside themselves from fear.
 26 The sword of him who layeth at him cannot hold :
 The spear, the dart, nor the breastplate.
 27 He esteemeth iron as straw,
 And brass as rotten wood.
 28 The arrow cannot make him flee :
 Slingstones are turned back like stubble.
 29 Darts are counted as stubble :
 He laugheth at the shaking of a spear.
 30 Sharp stones are under him :
 He spreadeth sharp pointed things upon the mire.
 31 He maketh the deep to boil like a pot :
 He maketh the sea like a boiling pot of ointment.
 32 He maketh a path to shine after him ;
 One would think the deep to be hoary.
 33 Upon earth there is not his like,
 Being made without fear.
 34 He beholdeth all high things :
 He is a king over all the inhabitants of the waters.

42 THEN JOB answered the LORD, and said,

- 2 I know that thou canst do every thing,
 And that no thought can be withholden from thee.
 3 Who then is he that darkeneth counsel without knowledge ?
 Therefore have I uttered that I understood not ;
 Things too wonderful for me, which I knew not.
 4 Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak :
 I will ask of thee, and declare thou unto me.
 5 I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear :
 But now mine eye seeth thee.
 6 Wherefore I abhor myself,
 And I repent in dust and ashes.

AND after the LORD had spoken these words unto Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz 7 the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends : for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath. Therefore 8 take unto you now seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering ; and my servant Job shall pray for you : for him will I accept : lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Job.

So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, 9 and did according as the LORD commanded them : and the LORD accepted Job.

And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends : 10 also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before. Then came there unto 11 him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they who had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house : and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an earring of gold.

- 12 So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, 13 14 and a thousand she-asses. He had also seven sons and three daughters. And he called the name of the first, Jemima [DAYS UPON DAYS]; and the name of the second, Kezia [CASSIA]; and the name of the third, Keren-happuch [HORN OF 15 PLENTY]. And in all the land were no women found so beautiful as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.
16 After this lived Job a hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons'
17 sons, even four generations. So Job died, being old and full of days.

THE BOOK OF PSALMS.

PSALM I.

- 1 OH the blessedness of the man who walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly,
Nor standeth in the way of sinners,
Nor sitteth in the seat of scoffers!
2 But his delight is in the law of the LORD;
And in his law doth he meditate day and night.
3 He is like a tree planted by the water side,
That bringeth forth its fruit in its season;
Whose leaf fadeth not;
And whatsoever he doeth prospereth.
4 The ungodly are not so:
But are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.
5 Therefore the ungodly shall not be able to stand in judgment,
Nor sinners with the congregation of the righteous.
6 For the LORD approveth the way of the righteous:
But the way of the ungodly shall perish.

PSALM II.

- 1 WHY do the nations rage,
And the people imagine a vain thing?
2 The kings of the earth set themselves,
And the rulers take counsel together,
Against the LORD, and against his Anointed, saying,
3 Let us break their bands asunder,
And cast away their cords from us.
4 He who dwelleth in the heavens shall laugh:
The LORD shall have them in derision.
5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath,
And rebuke them in his hot displeasure.
6 Yet have I set mine Anointed
Upon my holy hill of Zion.
7 I will declare the decree:
The LORD hath said unto me, Thou art my Son;
This day have I begotten thee.
8 Ask of me,
And I will give the nations for thine inheritance,
And the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.
9 Thou shalt rule them with a sceptre of iron;
Thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

PSALMS.

- 10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings :
Be instructed, ye judges of the earth.
- 11 Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with reverence.
- 12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry,
And ye suddenly perish,
When his wrath is kindled though but a little.
Oh the blessedness of all those who put their trust in him !

PSALM III.

- 1 LORD, how are they increased who trouble me !
Many are they who rise up against me.
- 2 Many there are who say of my soul,
There is no help for him in his God.
- 3 But thou, O LORD, art a shield about me ;
My glory, and the lifter up of my head.
- 4 I cried unto the LORD with my voice,
And he heard me out of his holy hill.
- 5 I laid me down and slept,
And rose up again ; for the LORD sustained me.
- 6 I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people,
Who have set themselves against me round about.
- 7 Arise, O LORD ; save me, O my God :
For thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek-bone ;
Thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.
- 8 Deliverance is from the LORD :
Thy blessing is upon thy people.

PSALM IV.

- 1 HEAR me when I call, O God of my righteousness :
Thou hast relieved me when I was in distress ;
Have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.
- 2 O ye sons of men, how long will ye be hardened in heart ?
How long will ye love vanity, and seek after falsehood ?
- 3 But know that the LORD hath chosen for himself him who is godly :
The LORD will hear me when I call upon him.
- 4 Sin not in your anger :
Commune with your own heart
Upon your bed, and be still.
- 5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness,
And put your trust in the LORD.
- 6 The many say, Who will show us any good ?
LORD, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us !
- 7 Thou hast put more gladness into my heart,
Than they have in the time when their corn and their wine increase.
- 8 I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep :
For it is thou, LORD, only who makest me dwell in safety.

PSALM V.

- 1 GIVE ear to my words, O LORD, consider my meditation.
- 2 O hearken thou unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God :
For unto thee will I pray.
- 3 My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O LORD ;
In the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and look up.
- 4 For thou art not a God who hath pleasure in wickedness :
Neither shall evil dwell with thee.
- 5 The foolish shall not stand in thy sight :
Thou hatest all workers of iniquity.
- 6 Thou shalt destroy those who speak falsehood :
The LORD will abhor the man of blood and deceit.
- 7 But as for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy :
And in thy fear will I worship towards thy holy temple.
- 8 Lead me, O LORD, according to thy righteousness : because of mine enemies
Make thy way plain before my face.

PSALMS.

- 9 For there is no faithfulness in their mouth;
Their inward part is very wickedness;
Their throat is an open sepulchre;
They flatter with their tongue.
- 10 Destroy thou them, O God;
Let them fall by their own counsels;
Cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions:
For they have rebelled against thee.
- 11 All they who put their trust in thee shall rejoice:
They shall ever shout for joy, because thou protectest them:
They also who love thy name shall be joyful in thee.
- 12 For thou, LORD, wilt bless the righteous;
With favour wilt thou compass him as with a shield.

PSALM VI.

- 1 O LORD, rebuke me not in thine anger,
Neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.
- 2 Have mercy upon me, O LORD; for I am weak:
O LORD, heal me; for my bones are troubled.
- 3 My soul also is greatly distressed by thy wrath:
O LORD, how long wilt thou punish me?
- 4 Return, O LORD, deliver my soul:
O save me for thy mercies' sake!
- 5 For in death there is no remembrance of thee:
In the grave who shall give thee thanks?
- 6 I am wearied with my groaning;
All the night make I my bed to swim;
I water my couch with my tears.
- 7 Mine eye is consumed because of grief;
It waxeth old because of all mine enemies.
- 8 Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity;
For the LORD hath heard the voice of my weeping.
- 9 The LORD hath heard my supplication;
The LORD will receive my prayer.
- 10 All mine enemies shall be ashamed and greatly troubled:
They shall turn back and be suddenly put to shame.

PSALM VII.

- 1 O LORD my God, in thee do I put my trust:
Save me from all those who persecute me, and deliver me:
- 2 Lest they prey upon me like lions,
Rending me in pieces, while there is none to deliver.
- 3 O LORD my God, if I have done this;
If there be iniquity in my hands;
- 4 If I have rewarded evil unto him who was at peace with me;
Or have oppressed him, who, without cause, is mine adversary:
- 5 Let the enemy persecute my soul, and take it;
Yea, let him tread my life down upon the earth,
And lay mine honour in the dust.
- 6 Arise, O LORD, in thine anger,
Lift up thyself over the rage of mine enemies:
And awake for me to the judgment that thou hast commanded.
- 7 So shall the congregation of the people come about thee:
For their sakes therefore lift up thyself again.
- 8 The LORD is the judge of his people:
Judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness,
And according to the integrity that is in me.
- 9 Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end;
But establish the just:
For thou, O righteous God, triest the hearts and reins.
- 10 My defence is in God,
Who saveth the upright in heart.

PSALMS.

- 11 God is a righteous judge,
And God is angry with the wicked every day.
- 12 If he turn not, he will whet his sword ;
He hath bent his bow, and made it ready.
- 13 He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death ;
He ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors.
- 14 Behold ! he hath conceived iniquity,
And hath travailed with mischief,
And brought forth falsehood.
- 15 He hath digged a pit, and sunk it,
And is fallen into the destruction which he made for others.
- 16 His mischief shall return upon his own head,
And his violent dealing shall come down upon the crown of his head.
- 17 I will praise the LORD according to his righteousness :
And will celebrate the name of the LORD most high.

PSALM VIII.

- 1 O LORD our God !
How excellent is thy name in all the earth !
Thou hast set thy glory above the heavens.
- 2 Out of the mouths of very babes and sucklings
Hast thou ordained strength
Because of thine enemies,
That thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.
- 3 When I consider the heavens, the work of thy fingers,
The moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained ;
- 4 What is man, that thou art mindful of him ?
And the son of man, that thou visitest him ?
- 5 For thou hast made him for a little while lower than the angels,
And wilt crown him with glory and honour.
- 6 Thou hast given him to have dominion over the works of thy hands ;
Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet :
- 7 All sheep and oxen,
Yea, and the beasts of the field ;
- 8 The birds of the air, and the fish of the sea,
And whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.
- 9 O LORD our God !
How excellent is thy name in all the earth !

PSALM IX.

- 1 I WILL praise thee, O LORD, with my whole heart ;
I will speak of all thy marvellous works.
- 2 I will be glad and rejoice in thee :
I will sing praise to thy name, O thou Most High.
- 3 When mine enemies turn back,
They shall fall and perish in thine anger.
- 4 For thou hast maintained my right and my cause ;
Thou satest in the throne judging righteously.
- 5 Thou hast rebuked the nations,
Thou hast destroyed the wicked,
Thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.
- 6 The destructions of the enemy are come to a perpetual end ;
And as to the cities which thou, O God, hast destroyed,
Their memorial is perished with them.
- 7 But the LORD shall endure for ever :
He hath prepared his throne for judgment.
- 8 And he shall judge the world in righteousness,
He shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness.
- 9 The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed,
A refuge in times of trouble.
- 10 And they who know thy name will put their trust in thee :
For thou, LORD, hast never forsaken those who seek thee.

PSALMS.

- 11 Sing praises to the LORD, who dwelleth in Zion :
Declare among the people his doings.
- 12 For he who maketh inquisition for blood hath remembered them :
He forgetteth not the cry of the afflicted.
- 13 Have mercy upon me, O LORD ;
Consider my trouble which I suffer of those who hate me,
Thou who liftest me up from the gates of death :
- 14 That I may show forth all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion :
I will rejoice in thy salvation.
- 15 The nations are sunk down in the pit that they made :
In the net which they secretly hid is their own foot taken.
- 16 The LORD is known by the judgment which he executeth :
The wicked is snared in the work of his own hands.
- 17 The wicked shall be turned into hell,
And all the people who forget God.
- 18 For the poor shall not always be forgotten :
The expectation of the meek shall not perish for ever.
- 19 Arise, O LORD ; let not man prevail :
Let the nations be judged in thy sight :
- 20 Put them in fear, O LORD,
That they may know themselves to be but men.

PSALM X.

- 1 WHY standest thou afar off, O LORD ?
Why hidest thou thyself in times of trouble ?
- 2 The wicked in his pride doth persecute the poor :
They are taken in the devices of the ungodly.
- 3 For the ungodly boasteth of his heart's desire,
And blesseth the covetous, whom the LORD abhorreth.
- 4 The ungodly, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God :
God is not in all his thoughts.
- 5 His ways are always evil ;
Thy judgments are far above out of his sight :
As for all his enemies, he puffeth at them.
- 6 He saith in his heart, I shall not be moved :
For I shall never be in adversity.
- 7 His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and fraud :
Under his tongue is mischief and vanity.
- 8 He sitteth in the lurking places of the streets :
In the secret places doth he murder the innocent :
His eyes are secretly set against the poor.
- 9 He lieth in wait secretly as a lion lurketh in its den :
He lieth in wait to catch the poor :
He doth catch the poor, when he draweth him into his net.
- 10 He croucheth, and humbleth himself,
That the poor may fall into his hands.
- 11 He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten :
He hideth his face ; and he will never see it.
- 12 Arise, O LORD ; O God, lift up thy hand :
Forget not the afflicted.
- 13 Wherefore doth the wicked contemn God ?
Saying in his heart, Thou God wilt not require it.
- 14 Surely thou seest it ;
For thou beholdest mischief and wrong, that thou mayest take the matter into thine own hand :
The poor committeth himself unto thee ;
For thou art the helper of the fatherless.
- 15 Break thou the arm of the ungodly and the malicious man :
Seek out his wickedness till thou find none.
- 16 The LORD is King for ever and ever :
The heathen shall perish out of his land.
- 17 LORD, thou hast heard the desire of the poor :
Thou preparest their heart,

PSALMS.

- Thou wilt cause thine ear to hear ;
18 To help the fatherless and the oppressed,
That man may no more be driven from the land.

PSALM XI.

- 1 IN the LORD put I my trust :
How say ye then to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain ?
2 For, lo, the wicked bend their bow,
They make ready their arrow upon the string,
That they may secretly shoot at the upright in heart.
3 If the foundations be destroyed by them,
What can the righteous do ?
4 The LORD is in his holy temple,
The LORD'S throne is in heaven :
His eyes behold the poor, his eyelids try the children of men.
5 The LORD trieth the righteous :
But the ungodly and him who delighteth in wickedness his soul hateth.
6 Upon the ungodly he shall rain burning coals,
Fire and brimstone, storm and tempest :
This shall be the portion of their cup.
7 For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness ;
His countenance doth behold the upright.

PSALM XII.

- 1 HELP, LORD ; for the godly man ceaseth :
For the faithful fail from among the children of men.
2 They speak vanity every one with his neighbour :
With flattering lips and with a double heart do they speak.
3 The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips,
And the tongue that speaketh proud things :
4 Who say, With our tongue will we prevail :
Our lips are our own : who is lord over us ?
5 For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy,
Now will I arise, saith the LORD ;
I will set him in safety whom they puff at.
6 The words of the LORD are pure words :
Even as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified many times.
7 Thou shalt keep him, O LORD,
Thou shalt preserve every one of them from this generation for ever.
8 The ungodly walk on every side,
When the vilest men are exalted.

PSALM XIII.

- 1 HOW long wilt thou forget me, O LORD ?
For ever ? how long wilt thou hide thy face from me ?
2 How long shall I take counsel in my soul,
Having sorrow in my heart daily ?
How long shall mine enemy be exalted over me ?
3 Consider and hear me, O LORD my God :
Enlighten mine eyes in thy law, lest I sin and sleep in death ;
4 Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him ;
And those who trouble me rejoice when I am moved.
5 But I trust in thy mercy ;
My heart shall rejoice in thy salvation.
6 I will sing unto the LORD,
Because he hath dealt bountifully with me ;
I will praise the name of the LORD most high.

PSALM XIV.

- 1 THE fool saith in his heart, There is no God.
They are corrupt, they have become abominable in their doings,
Not one doeth good, no, not one.
2 The LORD looked down from heaven
Upon the children of men,

PSALMS.

- To see if there were any who would understand,
And seek after God.
- 3 They are all gone aside,
They are all together become filthy :
Not one doeth good, no, not one.
- 4 Have they no knowledge, that they are all such workers of iniquity ?
Eating up my people as they eat bread,
And calling not upon the LORD.
- 5 Then shall they tremble with fear :
For God is with his righteous people.
- 6 Ye have mocked at the counsel of the poor,
But the LORD is his refuge.
- 7 Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion !
When the LORD bringeth back the captivity of his people,
Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM XV.

- 1 O LORD, who shall abide in thy tabernacle ?
Who shall dwell in thy holy hill ?
- 2 He who walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness,
And speaketh the truth in his heart.
- 3 He who backbiteth not with his tongue,
Nor doeth evil to his neighbour,
Nor receiveth a reproach against his friend.
- 4 In whose eyes a vile person is contemned ;
But he honoureth those who fear the LORD.
He who sweareth to a friend, and changeth not.
- 5 He who putteth not out his money to usury,
Nor taketh a bribe against the innocent.
He who doeth these things shall never be moved.

PSALM XVI.

- 1 PRESERVE me, O God !
For in thee do I put my trust.
- 2 I have said unto the LORD, Thou art my Lord :
I have no good but from thee.
- 3 In the saints who are in the earth,
And in the excellent, is all my delight.
- 4 Their sorrows shall be multiplied who hasten after another god :
Their drink offerings of blood will I not offer,
Nor take up their names into my lips.
- 5 The LORD himself is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup :
Thou maintainest my lot.
- 6 The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places ;
Yea, I have a goodly heritage.
- 7 I will bless the LORD, who hath given me counsel :
My reins also instruct me in the night seasons.
- 8 I have set the LORD always before me :
Because he is at my right hand, I shall not fall.
- 9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth :
My flesh also shall rest in hope.
- 10 For thou wilt not leave my soul in the grave ;
Neither wilt thou suffer thy Holy One to see corruption.
- 11 Thou wilt show me the path of life :
In thy presence is fulness of joy ;
And at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

PSALM XVII.

- 1 HEAR, O righteous LORD, attend to my cry,
Give ear unto my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips.
- 2 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence ;
Let thine eyes behold the things that are right.
- 3 Thou hast proved my heart ;

PSALMS.

- Thou hast visited me in the night ;
Thou hast tried me, but found no evil design ;
I am purposed that even my mouth shall not transgress.
- 4 Concerning the works of men,
By the words of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer.
- 5 Hold thou up my goings in thy paths,
That my footsteps slip not.
- 6 I call upon thee, for thou wilt hear me, O God :
Incline thine ear unto me, and hearken to my words.
- 7 Show thy marvellous lovingkindness,
O thou who savest by thy right hand
Them who put their trust in thee
From those who rise up against them.
- 8 Keep me as the apple of the eye,
Hide me under the shadow of thy wings,
- 9 From the ungodly who oppress me,
From my deadly enemies, who compass me about.
- 10 They are enclosed in their own fat :
And their mouths speak proud things.
- 11 They have compassed us in our steps on every side :
Turning their eyes down to the ground ;
- 12 Like as a lion that is greedy of its prey,
And as it were a young lion lurking in secret places.
- 13 Arise, O LORD ! disappoint him, and cast him down :
Deliver my life from the ungodly, who are thy sword :
- 14 From men who are thy hand, O LORD,
From men of the world, who have their portion in this life,
Whom thou fillest with thy hidden treasure :
Their children are full ; and they leave the rest of their substance to their babes.
- 15 But as for me, I shall behold thy face in righteousness :
I shall be satisfied, when I awake in thy likeness.

PSALM XVIII.

- 1 I LOVE thee, O LORD ! my strength.
- 2 The LORD is my strong rock, my fortress, and my deliverer ;
My God, and my strength, in whom I trust ;
My buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.
- 3 I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised :
So shall I be safe from mine enemies.
- 4 The sorrows of death compassed me,
And the overflowings of ungodliness made me afraid.
- 5 The sorrows of the grave compassed me about :
The snares of death surrounded me.
- 6 In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God :
He heard my voice out of his holy temple,
And my cry came before him, even into his ears.
- 7 Then the earth shook and trembled ;
The very foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken,
Because he was wroth.
- 8 There went up a smoke out of his nostrils,
And a consuming fire out of his mouth devoured :
So that coals were kindled by it.
- 9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down :
And darkness was under his feet.
- 10 And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly :
Yea, he came flying upon the wings of the wind.
- 11 He made darkness his secret place ;
His pavilion round about him
Were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.
- 12 At the brightness of his presence the thick clouds passed away,
Into hail stones and coals of fire.
- 13 The LORD also thundered in the heavens,
And the Highest gave his voice ;

PSALMS.

- 14 Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them ;
And he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them.
- 15 Then the springs of waters were seen,
And the foundations of the world were discovered
At thy rebuke, O LORD,
At the blast of the breath of thy displeasure.
- 16 He sent from above, he took me,
And drew me out of great waters of affliction.
- 17 He delivered me from my strong enemy,
And from those who hated me :
For they were too strong for me.
- 18 They surrounded me in the day of my calamity :
But the LORD was my stay.
- 19 He brought me forth also into a large place ;
He delivered me, because he delighted in me.
- 20 The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness ;
According to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.
- 21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD,
And have not wickedly departed from my God.
- 22 For all his judgments were before me,
And I did not put away his statutes from me.
- 23 I was also upright before him,
And I kept myself from the iniquity I am prone to.
- 24 Therefore hath the LORD recompensed me
According to my righteousness,
According to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight.
- 25 With the merciful thou wilt show thyself merciful ;
With an upright man thou wilt show thyself upright ;
- 26 With the pure thou wilt show thyself pure ;
And with the froward thou wilt contend.
- 27 For thou wilt save the afflicted people ;
But wilt bring down high looks.
- 28 For thou wilt light my lamp :
The LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.
- 29 For by thee I have run through a troop ;
And by my God have I leaped over a wall.
- 30 As for God, his way is perfect :
The word of the LORD is tried :
He is a buckler to all those who trust in him.
- 31 For who is God but the LORD ?
Or who is a rock but our God ?
- 32 It is God who girdeth me with strength,
And maketh my way perfect.
- 33 He maketh my feet like hinds' feet,
And setteth me on high places.
- 34 He teacheth my hands to war,
So that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.
- 35 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation :
And thy right hand hath holden me up,
And thy goodness hath made me great.
- 36 Thou hast made room for my steps under me,
That my feet did not slip.
- 37 I have pursued mine enemies, and overtaken them :
Neither did I turn again till they were destroyed.
- 38 I have wounded them that they were not able to stand :
They are fallen under my feet.
- 39 For thou hast guarded me with strength unto the battle :
Thou hast subdued under me those who rose up against me.
- 40 Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies ;
That I might destroy those who hate me.
- 41 They cried, but there was no one to save them :
Even unto the LORD, but he answered them not.
- 42 Then did I beat them as small as the dust before the wind :

PSALMS.

- I did cast them out as the dirt in the streets.
43 Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people :
And thou hast made me the head of the nations :
A people whom I have not known shall serve me.
44 As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me :
The strangers shall submit themselves unto me.
45 The strangers shall fade away,
And be afraid out of their strong holds.
46 The LORD liveth ; and blessed be my rock ;
And let the God of my salvation be exalted ;
47 Even the God who avengeth me,
And subdueth the people under me.
48 He delivereth me from mine enemies :
Yea, thou liftest me up above those who rise up against me :
Thou hast delivered me from the man of violence.
49 Therefore will I give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the nations,
And sing praises unto thy name,
50 Who giveth great deliverance to his king ;
And sheweth mercy to his anointed,
To David, and to his seed for evermore.

PSALM XIX.

- 1 THE heavens declare the glory of God ;
And the firmament sheweth his handywork.
2 Day after day uttereth speech,
And night after night sheweth knowledge.
3 There is no speech nor language,
And their voice is not heard ;
4 Yet their rule is throughout all the earth,
And their signs even to the ends of the world.
In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,
5 Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber,
And rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.
6 Its going forth is from the end of the heavens,
And its circuit unto the ends of them :
And there is nothing hid from its heat.
7 The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul.
The testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the inexperienced.
8 The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart :
The commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes.
9 The fear of the LORD is pure, enduring for ever :
The appointments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.
10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold :
They are sweeter than honey and the droppings of the honeycomb.
11 Moreover by them is thy servant warned :
And in keeping of them there is great reward.
12 Who can understand how often he transgresseth ?
Cleanse thou me from unknown faults.
13 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins ;
Let them not have dominion over me :
Then shall I be upright,
And I shall be innocent from much transgression.
14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart,
Be always acceptable in thy sight,
O LORD, my rock, and my redeemer.

PSALM XX.

- 1 THE LORD hear thee in the day of trouble !
The name of the God of Jacob defend thee !
2 Send thee help from the sanctuary,
And strengthen thee out of Zion !
3 Remember all thy offerings,
And accept thy burnt sacrifices.

PSALMS.

- 4 Grant thee according to thy heart's desire,
And fulfil all thy counsels.
5 We will rejoice in thy salvation,
And in the name of our God we will set up our banners :
The LORD fulfil all thy petitions.
6 Now know I that the LORD saveth his anointed ;
He will hear him from his holy heaven
With the saving strength of his right hand.
7 Some trust in chariots, and some in horses :
But we will be strong in the name of the LORD our God.
8 They are brought down and fallen :
But we are risen, and stand upright.
9 O LORD! save the king :
And hear us when we call upon thee.

PSALM XXI.

- 1 THE king shall joy in thy strength, O LORD !
And in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice !
2 Thou hast given him his heart's desire,
And hast not withholden the request of his lips.
3 For thou dost anticipate his desires with the blessings of thy goodness :
Thou settest a crown of pure gold on his head.
4 He asked life of thee, and thou gavest it him,
Even length of days for ever and ever.
5 His glory is great in thy salvation :
Honour and majesty hast thou laid upon him.
6 For thou hast made him most blessed for ever :
Thou hast made him exceeding glad with thy countenance.
7 For the king trusteth in the LORD,
And through the mercy of the Most High he shall not be moved.
8 Thy hand shall find out all thine enemies :
Thy right hand shall find out those who hate thee.
9 Thou shalt put them in a fiery oven in the time of thine anger :
The LORD shall devour them in his wrath,
And the fire shall consume them.
10 Their children shalt thou destroy from the earth,
And their seed from among the children of men.
11 For they intended evil against thee :
They imagined a mischievous device,
Which they are not able to perform.
12 Therefore shalt thou put them to flight :
When thou shalt make ready thine arrows upon the strings against the face of them.
13 Be thou exalted, O LORD, in thine own strength ;
So will we sing and praise thy power.

PSALM XXII.

- 1 MY God! my God! why hast thou forsaken me?
Why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my complaint?
2 O my God! I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not;
And even in the night season I have no rest.
3 But thou art holy,
O thou who inhabitest the praises of Israel.
4 Our fathers trusted in thee:
They trusted, and thou didst deliver them.
5 They cried unto thee, and were delivered:
They trusted in thee, and were not confounded.
6 But as for me, I am a worm, and no man ;
A reproach of men, and despised of the people.
7 All they who see me laugh me to scorn :
They shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,
8 He trusted in the LORD that he would deliver him :
Let him deliver him, if he delighteth in him.

PSALMS.

- 9 But thou art he who took me out of the womb :
Thou didst keep me in safety when I was upon my mother's breasts.
- 10 I was cast upon thee from my birth :
Thou hast been my God ever since I was born.
- 11 Be not far from me ; for trouble is near ;
For there is none to help.
- 12 Many bulls have compassed me about :
Strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round on every side.
- 13 They gaped upon me with their mouths,
As a ravenous and a roaring lion.
- 14 I am poured out like water,
And all my bones are-out of joint :
My heart in the midst of my body is melted like wax.
- 15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd ;
And my tongue cleaveth to my jaws ;
And thou hast brought me to the dust of death.
- 16 For many dogs have compassed me :
The assembly of the wicked have enclosed me :
They pierced my hands and my feet.
- 17 I may tell all my bones :
They look and stare upon me.
- 18 They part my garments among them,
And cast lots for my vesture.
- 19 But be not thou far from me, O LORD :
O my strength, haste thee to help me.
- 20 Deliver my life from the sword ;
My desolate soul from the power of the dog.
- 21 Save me from the lion's mouth :
And from the horns of the unicorns.
- 22 I will declare thy name unto my brethren :
In the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.
- 23 Ye who fear the LORD, praise him ;
All ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him ;
And fear him, all ye the seed of Israel.
- 24 For he hath not despised nor abhorred the low estate of the poor ;
Neither hath he hid his face from him ;
But when he cried unto him, he heard him.
- 25 My praise shall be of thee in the great congregation :
I will pay my vows before those who fear him.
- 26 The needy shall eat and be satisfied :
Those who seek the LORD shall praise him :
Your heart shall ever be revived.
- 27 All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn unto the LORD :
And all the kindreds of the nations shall worship him.
- 28 For the kingdom is the LORD'S :
And he is the governor among the nations.
- 29 All those who are mighty upon earth shall eat and worship :
All those who go down to the dust shall bow before him :
And none can keep himself alive.
- 30 A seed shall serve him ;
It shall be accounted to the LORD for a generation.
- 31 They shall come, and shall declare his righteousness unto the next generation :
And unto a people who shall be born, what he hath done.

PSALM XXIII.

- 1 THE LORD is my shepherd ;
I shall not want.
- 2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures :
He leadeth me beside the gently flowing streams.
- 3 He reviveth my spirit :
He leadeth me in straight paths for his name's sake.
- 4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

PSALMS.

- I will fear no evil : for thou art with me ;
Thy rod, and thy staff, they comfort me.
5 Thou preparest a table for me in the presence of mine enemies :
Thou anointest my head with oil ;
My cup runneth over.
6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life :
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD to length of days.

PSALM XXIV.

- 1 THE earth is the LORD'S, and the fulness thereof;
The world, and those who dwell therein.
2 For he hath founded it upon the seas,
And established it upon the floods.
3 Who shall ascend unto the hill of the LORD ?
Or who shall stand in his holy place ?
4 He who hath clean hands, and a pure heart ;
Who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.
5 He shall receive the blessing from the LORD,
And righteousness from the God of his salvation.
6 This is the generation of those who seek him,
Who seek thy face, O God of Jacob !
7 Lift up your heads, O ye gates !
And be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors !
That the King of glory may come in.
8 Who is this King of glory ?
The LORD strong and mighty,
The LORD mighty in battle.
9 Lift up your heads, O ye gates !
And be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors !
That the King of glory may come in.
10 Who is this King of glory ?
The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory.

PSALM XXV.

- 1 UNTO thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul.
2 O my God, I trust in thee :
Let me not be ashamed,
Let not mine enemies triumph over me.
3 For none who wait on thee shall be ashamed :
But they shall be ashamed who transgress without cause.
4 Show me thy ways, O LORD ;
Teach me thy paths.
5 Lead me in thy truth, and teach me :
For thou art the God of my salvation ;
On thee do I wait all the day.
6 Remember, O LORD, thy tender mercies and thy lovingkindnesses ;
For they have been ever of old.
7 Remember not the sins and offences of my youth :
But according to thy mercy remember thou me
For thy goodness' sake, O LORD.
8 Gracious and righteous is the LORD :
Therefore will he teach sinners in the way.
9 The meek will he guide in judgment :
And the meek will he teach his way.
10 All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth
Unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.
11 For thy name's sake, O LORD, pardon mine iniquity ;
For it is great.
12 What man is he who feareth the LORD ?
Him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose.
13 His soul shall dwell at ease ;
And his seed shall inherit the land.

PSALMS.

- 14 The secret of the LORD is with those who fear him ;
And he will make known to them his covenant.
- 15 Mine eyes are ever towards the LORD ;
For he shall pluck my feet out of the net.
- 16 Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me ;
For I am desolate and afflicted.
- 17 The troubles of my heart are enlarged :
O bring thou me out of my distresses.
- 18 Look upon mine affliction and my pain ;
And forgive all my sins.
- 19 Consider mine enemies ; for they are many ;
And they hate me with cruel hatred.
- 20 O keep my soul, and deliver me :
Let me not be ashamed ; for I put my trust in thee.
- 21 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me ;
For my hope is in thee.
- 22 Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles.

PSALM XXVI.

- 1 JUDGE me, O LORD ;
For I have walked in mine integrity :
I have trusted also in the LORD ; therefore I shall not fall.
- 2 Examine me, O LORD, and prove me ;
Try my reins and my heart.
- 3 For thy lovingkindness is ever before mine eyes :
And I have walked in thy truth.
- 4 I have not sat with vain persons,
Neither will I hold fellowship with dissemblers.
- 5 I have hated the assembly of evildoers ;
And will not sit with the ungodly.
- 6 I will wash my hands in innocency :
So will I compass thine altar, O LORD :
- 7 That I may publish with the voice of thanksgiving,
And tell of all thy wonderful works.
- 8 O LORD, I love the habitation of thy house,
And the place where thine honour dwelleth.
- 9 Gather not my soul with sinners,
Nor my life with men of blood :
- 10 In whose hands is mischief,
And their right hand is full of bribes.
- 11 But as for me, I will walk in mine integrity :
Redeem me, and be merciful unto me.
- 12 My foot standeth in an even place :
In the assemblies will I praise the LORD.

PSALM XXVII.

- 1 THE LORD is my light and my salvation ;
Whom then shall I fear ?
The LORD is the strength of my life ;
Of whom then shall I be afraid ?
- 2 When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh,
They stumbled and fell.
- 3 Though a host should encamp against me,
Yet my heart shall not fear :
Though war should rise against me,
In this will I be confident.
- 4 One thing have I desired of the LORD,
And that will I seek after ;
That I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life,
To behold the beauty of the LORD,
And to inquire in his temple.
- 5 For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion :
In the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me ;

PSALMS.

- He shall set me up upon a rock.
6 And now shall my head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me :
Therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy ;
I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the LORD.
7 Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice :
Have mercy also upon me, and answer me.
8 When thou saidst, Seek ye my face ;
My heart said unto thee, Thy face, LORD, will I seek.
9 Hide not thy face from me ;
Put not thy servant away in anger :
Thou hast been my help ; leave me not,
Neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.
10 Should my father and my mother forsake me,
Then the LORD will take me up.
11 Teach me thy way, O LORD,
And lead me in a plain path, because of mine observers.
12 Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies :
For false witnesses are risen up against me,
And such as breathe out cruelty.
13 I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the LORD
14 In the land of the living. Wait on the LORD :
Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thy heart :
Put thou thy trust in the LORD.

PSALM XXVIII.

- 1 WHEN I cry unto thee, O LORD my rock, be not silent to me :
Lest, if thou be silent to me, I become like those who go down into the grave.
2 Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry unto thee,
When I lift up my hands towards the mercy seat of thy holy temple.
3 Let me not be drawn away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity,
Who speak peace to their neighbours,
But mischief is in their hearts.
4 Reward them according to their deeds,
And according to the wickedness of their endeavours :
Recompense them according to the work of their hands ;
Render to them their desert.
5 Because they regard not the works of the LORD,
Nor the operation of his hands,
He shall destroy them, and not build them up.
6 Blessed be the LORD,
Because he hath heard the voice of my supplications.
7 The LORD is my strength and my shield ;
My heart trusteth in him, and I am helped :
Therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth ;
And in my song will I praise him.
8 The LORD is the strength of his people,
And he is the saving strength of his anointed.
9 Save thy people, and bless thine inheritance :
Feed them also, and lift them up for ever.

PSALM XXIX.

- 1 GIVE unto the LORD, O ye mighty,
Give unto the LORD glory and strength.
2 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name ;
Worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.
3 The voice of the LORD is upon the waters :
The God of glory thundereth :
The LORD is upon many waters.
4 The voice of the LORD is full of power ;
The voice of the LORD is full of majesty.
5 The voice of the LORD shivereth the cedars ;
Yea, the LORD shivereth the cedars of Lebanon.
6 He maketh the mountains to skip ;

PSALMS.

- Lebanon like a calf, and Sirion like a young unicorn.
 7 The voice of the LORD scattereth lightnings.
 8 The voice of the LORD shaketh the wilderness;
 The LORD shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh.
 9 The voice of the LORD shivereth the oaks,
 And strippeth the forests:
 And in his temple doth every one speak of his glory.
 10 The LORD sitteth upon the flood;
 Yea, the LORD sitteth King for ever.
 11 The LORD will give strength unto his people;
 The LORD will bless his people with peace.

PSALM XXX.

- 1 I WILL extol thee, O LORD; for thou hast lifted me up,
 And hast not made my foes to rejoice over me.
 2 O LORD my God, I cried unto thee,
 And thou didst heal me.
 3 O LORD, thou hast brought up my soul from the grave:
 Thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.
 4 Sing unto the LORD, O ye saints of his,
 And give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.
 5 For his anger endureth but a moment;
 In his favour is life:
 Weeping may endure for a night,
 But joy cometh in the morning.
 6 And in my prosperity I said,
 I shall never be moved.
 7 LORD, by thy favour thou hast made my mountain to stand strong:
 Thou didst hide thy face, and I was troubled.
 8 I cried to thee, O LORD;
 And unto the LORD I made supplication.
 9 What profit is there in my blood, when I go down to the pit?
 Shall the dust praise thee? shall it declare thy truth?
 10 Hear, O LORD, and have mercy upon me:
 LORD, be thou my helper.
 11 Thou hast turned my mourning into joy:
 Thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness;
 12 To the end that thy glory may be celebrated, and not passed over in silence:
 O LORD my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever.

PSALM XXXI.

- 1 IN thee, O LORD, do I put my trust;
 Let me never be ashamed:
 Deliver me in thy righteousness.
 2 Bow down thine ear to me;
 Deliver me speedily: be thou my strong rock,
 For a house of defence to save me.
 3 For thou art my strong rock and my fortress;
 Therefore for thy name's sake lead me, and guide me.
 4 Pull me out of the net that they have secretly laid for me:
 For thou art my strength.
 5 Into thy hand I commit my spirit:
 Thou hast redeemed me, O LORD God of truth.
 6 Thou hatest those who regard lying vanities:
 But I trust in the LORD.
 7 I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy:
 For thou hast considered my trouble;
 Thou hast known my soul in adversity;
 8 And hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy:
 Thou hast set my feet in a large place.
 9 Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble:
 Mine eye is consumed with grief,
 Yea, my soul and my body.

PSALMS.

- 10 For my life is spent with grief,
And my years with sighing :
My strength faileth because of mine affliction,
And my bones are consumed.
- 11 I am a reproach among all mine enemies,
But especially among my neighbours,
And mine acquaintance are afraid of me :
They who see me abroad fly from me.
- 12 I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind :
I am like a broken vessel.
- 13 For I have heard the slander of many :
Fear is on every side :
While they take counsel together against me,
To take away my life.
- 14 But I trust in thee, O LORD :
I said, Thou art my God.
- 15 My times are in thy hand :
Deliver me from the hand of mine enemies,
And from those who persecute me.
- 16 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant :
Save me for thy mercies' sake.
- 17 Let me not be ashamed, O LORD ; for I call upon thee :
Let the wicked be ashamed,
And let them be silent in the grave.
- 18 Let the lying lips be put to silence ;
Which speak grievous things proudly
And contemptuously against the righteous.
- 19 Oh how great is thy goodness,
Which thou hast laid up for those who fear thee ;
Which thou hast prepared for those who trust in thee before the sons of men.
- 20 Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence
From the conspiracies of man :
Thou shalt keep them secretly in thy tabernacle
From the strife of tongues.
- 21 Blessed be the LORD :
For he hath showed me his marvellous kindness, as in a strong city.
- 22 For I said in my haste,
I am cut off from before thine eyes :
Nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my supplications
When I cried unto thee.
- 23 O love the LORD, all ye his saints :
For the LORD preserveth the faithful,
And plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.
- 24 Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart,
All ye who trust in the LORD.

PSALM XXXII.

- 1 OH the blessedness of the man whose transgression is forgiven, Whose sin is covered !
- 2 Oh the blessedness of the man unto whom the LORD imputeth not iniquity,
And in whose spirit there is no guile !
- 3 When I kept silence, my bones wasted away
Through my complaining all the day long.
- 4 For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me :
My moisture was like the drought of summer.
- 5 I acknowledged my sin unto thee,
And mine iniquity I hid not.
I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD ;
And thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin.
- 6 For this shall every one who is godly pray unto thee
In a time when thou mayest be found :
Surely in the floods of great waters
They shall not come nigh unto him.

PSALMS.

- 7 Thou art my hiding place;
Thou shalt preserve me from trouble;
Thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance.
- 8 I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way in which thou shalt go:
I will counsel thee; and mine eye shall be upon thee.
- 9 Be ye not as the horse,
Or as the mule, that have no understanding;
Whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle,
Lest they come near unto thee.
- 10 Many sorrows shall be to the wicked:
But he who trusteth in the LORD, mercy shall compass him about.
- 11 Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, ye righteous:
And shout for joy, all ye who are upright in heart.

PSALM XXXIII.

- 1 REJOICE in the LORD, O ye righteous!
For praise becometh well the upright.
- 2 Praise the LORD with harp:
Sing unto him with the psaltery and an instrument of ten strings.
- 3 Sing unto him a new song;
Play skilfully with a loud noise.
- 4 For the word of the LORD is right;
And all his works are faithful.
- 5 He loveth righteousness and judgment:
The earth is full of the goodness of the LORD.
- 6 By the word of the LORD were the heavens made;
And all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.
- 7 He gathered the waters of the sea together as a heap:
He laid up the depths in storehouses.
- 8 Let all the earth fear the LORD:
Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.
- 9 For he spoke, and it was done;
He commanded, and it stood fast.
- 10 The LORD bringeth the counsel of the nations to nought:
He maketh the devices of the people to be of none effect.
- 11 The counsel of the LORD shall endure for ever,
The thoughts of his heart to all generations.
- 12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD;
And the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.
- 13 The LORD looketh from the heavens;
He beholdeth all the sons of men.
- 14 From the place of his habitation
He looketh upon all the inhabitants of the earth.
- 15 He fashioneth all their hearts;
He considereth all their works.
- 16 There is no king saved by the multitude of a host:
A mighty man is not delivered by much strength.
- 17 A horse is a vain thing for safety:
Neither can he deliver any by his great strength.
- 18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon those who fear him,
Upon those who hope in his mercy;
- 19 To deliver their soul from death,
And to feed them in the time of famine.
- 20 Our soul waiteth for the LORD:
He is our help and our shield.
- 21 For our heart shall rejoice in him,
Because we have trusted in his holy name.
- 22 Let thy mercy, O LORD, be upon us,
According as we hope in thee.

PSALM XXXIV.

- 1 I WILL bless the LORD at all times:
His praise shall continually be in my mouth.

PSALMS.

- 2 My soul shall make her boast in the LORD :
The humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.
- 3 O magnify the LORD with me,
And let us exalt his name together.
- 4 I sought the LORD, and he heard me,
And delivered me from all my fears.
- 5 Look unto him, and be enlightened :
And your face shall not be ashamed.
- 6 When the poor man crieth the LORD heareth him,
And saveth him out of all his troubles.
- 7 The angel of the LORD encampeth round about those who fear him,
And delivereth them.
- 8 O taste and see how gracious the LORD is :
Oh the blessedness of the man who trusteth in him !
- 9 O fear the LORD, ye his saints :
For there is no want to those who fear him.
- 10 The rich may become poor, and suffer hunger :
But those who seek the LORD shall not want any good.
- 11 Come, ye children, hearken unto me :
I will teach you the fear of the LORD.
- 12 What man is he who desireth life,
And loveth many days, that he may see good ?
- 13 Keep thy tongue from evil,
And thy lips from speaking guile.
- 14 Depart from evil, and do good ;
Seek peace, and pursue it.
- 15 The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous,
And his ears are open unto their cry.
- 16 The anger of the LORD is against those who do evil,
To cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.
- 17 The righteous cry, and the LORD heareth,
And delivereth them out of all their troubles.
- 18 The LORD is nigh unto those who are of a broken heart ;
And saveth such as are of a contrite spirit.
- 19 Many are the troubles of the righteous man :
But the LORD delivereth him out of them all.
- 20 He keepeth all his bones :
Not one of them is broken.
- 21 Calamity shall slay the wicked :
And those who hate the righteous shall be desolate.
- 22 The LORD redeemeth the soul of his servants :
And none of those who trust in him shall be desolate.

PSALM XXXV.

- 1 PLEAD my cause, O LORD, with those who strive with me :
Fight against those who fight against me.
- 2 Take hold of shield and buckler,
And stand up for my help.
- 3 Draw out also the spear,
And stop the way against those who persecute me :
Say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.
- 4 Let them be confounded and put to shame
Who seek after my soul :
Let them be turned back and brought to confusion
Who devise my hurt.
- 5 Let them be as chaff before the wind :
And let the angel of the LORD scatter them.
- 6 Let their way be dark and slippery :
And let the angel of the LORD persecute them.
- 7 For without cause have they laid a snare for me,
Yea, even without cause they have digged a pit for my life.
- 8 Destruction shall come upon them unawares ;
The snare they laid shall catch themselves :

PSALMS.

- Into that very destruction shall they fall.
 9 But my soul shall be joyful in the LORD :
 It shall rejoice in his salvation.
 10 All my frame shall say,
 LORD, who is like unto thee,
 Who deliverest the poor from him who is too strong for him,
 Yea, the poor and the needy from him who spoileth him ?
 11 False witnesses did rise up ;
 They laid to my charge things that I knew not.
 12 They rewarded me evil for good
 To the discomfort of my soul.
 13 Nevertheless when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth :
 I afflicted my soul with fasting ;
 And my prayer rested in mine own bosom.
 14 I behaved myself as though he had been my friend or my brother :
 I bowed down heavily, as one who mourneth for his mother.
 15 But in mine adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together :
 Yea, the abjects whom I knew not gathered themselves together against me ;
 They did tear me, and ceased not :
 16 With hypocritical mockers,
 They gnashed their teeth at me.
 17 LORD, how long wilt thou look on ?
 Rescue my life from destruction,
 My desolate soul from the lions.
 18 I will give thee thanks in the great assembly :
 I will praise thee among much people.
 19 Let not those who are mine enemies wrongfully rejoice over me :
 Neither let them wink with the eye who hate me without a cause.
 20 For they speak not peace :
 But they devise deceitful matters against those who are quiet in the land.
 21 Yea, they opened their mouth wide against me.
 And said, Aha ! aha ! our eye hath seen it.
 22 This thou hast seen, O LORD :
 Keep not silence : O LORD, be not far from me.
 23 Stir up thyself, and awake to my judgment,
 Even unto my cause, my God and my Lord.
 24 Judge me, O LORD my God, according to thy righteousness ;
 And let them not rejoice over me.
 25 Let them not say in their hearts, Ah ! so would we have it :
 Let them not say, We have swallowed him up.
 26 Let them be ashamed and brought to confusion together
 Who rejoice at my trouble ;
 Let them be clothed with shame and dishonour
 Who magnify themselves against me.
 27 Let them shout for joy, and be glad,
 Who favour my righteous cause :
 Yea, let them say continually, Let the LORD be magnified,
 Who hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant.
 28 And my tongue shall speak of thy righteousness
 And of thy praise all the day long.

PSALM XXXVI.

- 1 THE wickedness of the wicked is in his heart :
 There is no fear of God before his eyes.
 2 For he flattereth himself in his own eyes,
 Although his iniquity be found to be hateful.
 3 The words of his mouth are impious and deceitful :
 He hath left off to be wise, and to do good.
 4 He deviseth mischief upon his bed ;
 He setteth himself in a way that is not good ;
 He abhorreth not evil.
 5 Thy mercy, O LORD, reacheth to the heavens ;
 And thy faithfulness to the clouds.

PSALMS.

- 6 Thy righteousness is like the great mountains;
Thy judgments are a great deep:
O LORD, thou preservest man and beast.
- 7 How excellent is thy lovingkindness, O God!
Therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.
- 8 They shall be abundantly satisfied
With the fatness of thy house;
And they shall drink of the river of thy pleasures.
- 9 For with thee is the fountain of life:
In thy light shall we see light.
- 10 O continue thy lovingkindness unto those who know thee,
And thy righteousness to the upright in heart.
- 11 Let not the foot of the proud come against me,
And let not the hand of the wicked remove me.
- 12 For the workers of iniquity are fallen:
They are cast down, and shall not be able to rise.

PSALM XXXVII.

- 1 FRET not thyself because of evildoers,
Neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.
- 2 For they shall soon be cut down like the grass,
And wither as the green herb.
- 3 Trust in the LORD, and do good;
So shalt thou dwell in the land, and assuredly thou shalt be fed.
- 4 Delight thyself also in the LORD;
And he shall give thee the desires of thy heart.
- 5 Commit thy way unto the LORD;
Trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.
- 6 And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light,
And thine integrity as the noonday.
- 7 Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently upon him:
Fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way,
Because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.
- 8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath:
Fret not thyself so as in any wise to do evil.
- 9 For evildoers shall be cut off:
But those who wait upon the LORD shall inherit the earth.
- 10 For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be:
Yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be found.
- 11 But the meek shall inherit the land;
And shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.
- 12 The wicked plotteth against the just,
And gnasheth upon him with his teeth.
- 13 The LORD shall laugh at him:
For he seeth that his day is coming.
- 14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow,
To cast down the poor and needy,
And to slay such as be of upright conversation.
- 15 Their sword shall enter into their own heart,
And their bows shall be broken.
- 16 Better is the little that a righteous man hath
Than the riches of many wicked.
- 17 For the arms of the wicked shall be broken:
But the LORD upholdeth the righteous.
- 18 The LORD knoweth the days of the upright:
And their inheritance shall be for ever.
- 19 They shall not be ashamed in the evil time:
And in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.
- 20 But the wicked shall perish,
And the enemies of the LORD shall be as the fat of lambs:
They shall be consumed; as smoke shall they consume away.
- 21 The wicked horroweth, and payeth not again:

PSALMS.

- But the righteous showeth mercy, and giveth.
 22 Such as are blessed of him shall inherit the land;
 And they who are cursed of him shall be cut off.
- 23 The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD:
 And he delighteth in his way.
 24 Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down:
 For the LORD upholdeth him with his hand.
 25 I have been young, and now am old;
 Yet have I never seen the righteous forsaken,
 Nor his seed begging bread.
 26 The righteous is ever merciful, and lendeth;
 And his seed is blessed.
- 27 Depart from evil, and do good;
 And long shalt thou dwell in the land.
 28 For the LORD loveth that which is right,
 And forsaketh not his saints;
 They are preserved for ever:
 But the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.
 29 The righteous shall inherit the land,
 And dwell therein for ever.
- 30 The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom,
 And his tongue talketh of judgment.
 31 The law of his God is in his heart;
 None of his steps shall slide.
 32 The wicked watcheth the righteous,
 And seeketh to slay him.
 33 The LORD will not leave him in his hand,
 Nor condemn him when he is judged.
 34 Wait on the LORD, and keep his way,
 And he shalt exalt thee to inherit the land:
 When the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.
- 35 I have seen the wicked in great power,
 And spreading himself like a green bay tree.
 36 Yet he passed away, and, lo, he was gone:
 Yea, I sought him, but he could no where be found.
 37 Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright:
 For the end of that man is peace.
 38 But as for the transgressors, they shall be destroyed together:
 The end of the wicked is that they shall be cut off.
 39 But the salvation of the righteous is of the LORD:
 He is their strength in the time of trouble.
 40 And the LORD shall help them, and deliver them:
 He shall deliver them from the wicked,
 And save them, because they trust in him.

PSALM XXXVIII.

- 1 O LORD, rebuke me not in thy wrath:
 Neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.
 2 For thine arrows stick fast in me,
 And thy hand presseth me sore.
- 3 There is no soundness in my flesh
 Because of thine anger; neither is there any health in my bones
 Because of my sin.
 4 For mine iniquities are gone over my head:
 As a heavy burden they are too heavy for me.
 5 My wounds stink and are corrupt
 Because of my foolishness.
 6 I am troubled; I am bowed down greatly;
 I go mourning all the day long.
 7 For my loins are filled with a loathsome disease:
 And there is no soundness in my flesh.

PSALMS.

- 8 I am feeble and sore broken :
I have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.
- 9 LORD, all my desire is before thee ;
And my groaning is not hid from thee.
- 10 My heart panteth, my strength faileth me :
As for the light of mine eyes, it also is gone from me.
- 11 My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my trouble ;
And my kinsmen stand afar off.
- 12 Those also who seek after my life lay snares for me :
And those who seek my hurt speak mischievous things,
And imagine deceits all the day long.
- 13 But I was as a deaf man, and heard not ;
And I was as a dumb man who openeth not his mouth.
- 14 Thus I was as a man who heareth not,
And in whose mouth are no reproofs.
- 15 For in thee, O LORD, do I hope :
Thou wilt answer for me, O LORD my God ;
- 16 Lest otherwise they should rejoice over me.
When my foot slippeth, they magnify themselves against me.
- 17 For I am ready to halt,
And my sorrow is continually before me.
- 18 For I will confess mine iniquity ;
I will be sorry for my sin.
- 19 But those who without cause are mine enemies are strong :
And those who hate me wrongfully are multiplied.
- 20 Those also who render evil for good are mine adversaries ;
Because I follow that which is good.
- 21 Forsake me not, O LORD :
O my God, be not far from me.
- 22 Make haste to help me,
O LORD God of my salvation.

PSALM XXXIX.

- 1 I SAID, I will take heed to my ways,
That I sin not with my tongue :
I will keep my mouth as with a bridle,
While the wicked is before me.
- 2 I was dumb with silence,
I held my peace, even from good words ;
But it was pain and grief to me.
- 3 My heart was hot within me,
While I was musing the fire burned :
Then spoke I with my tongue.
- 4 LORD, make me to consider mine end,
And the number of my days ;
That I may know how frail I am.
- 5 Behold, thou hast made my days as a handbreadth ;
And mine age is as nothing before thee :
Verily every man at his best state is altogether vanity.
- 6 Surely every man walketh in a vain show :
Surely he is disquieted in vain :
He heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.
- 7 And now, LORD, what is my hope ?
Truly my hope is in thee.
- 8 Deliver me from all my transgressions :
Make me not the reproach of the foolish.
- 9 I was dumb, I opened not my mouth ;
Because thou didst it.
- 10 Remove thy stroke away from me :
I am consumed by the blow of thy hand.
- 11 When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity,
Thou makest his beauty to consume away like a garment fretted by the moth :
Surely every man is vanity.

PSALMS.

- 12 Hear my prayer, O LORD,
And give ear unto my cry;
Hold not thy peace at my tears :
For I am a stranger with thee,
And a sojourner, as all my fathers were.
- 13 O spare me a little while, that I may recover strength.
Before I go hence, and be no more.

PSALM XL.

- 1 I WAITED patiently for the LORD ;
And he inclined his ear unto me, and heard my cry.
- 2 He brought me up also out of a horrible pit,
Out of the miry clay,
And set my feet upon a rock,
And established my goings.
- 3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth,
Even praise unto our God :
Many shall see it, and fear,
And shall trust in the LORD.
- 4 Oh, the blessedness of that man who maketh the LORD his trust,
And respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies!
- 5 Many, O LORD my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done,
And thy thoughts concerning us :
They cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee :
If I would declare and speak of them, they would be more than can be numbered.
- 6 Sacrifice and thank offering thou didst not delight in ;
But a body thou hast prepared for me :
Burnt offerings and sin offerings thou hast not required.
- 7 Then said I, Lo, I come!
In the volume of the book it is written of me,
- 8 I delight to do thy will, O my God :
Yea, thy law is within my heart.
- 9 I have preached righteousness in the great assembly :
Lo, I have not refrained my lips, O LORD, thou knowest.
- 10 I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart ;
I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation :
I have not concealed thy lovingkindness and thy truth from the great congregation.
- 11 Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O LORD :
Let thy lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me.
- 12 For innumerable troubles have compassed me about :
My calamities have taken hold upon me,
So that I am not able to look up ;
They are more than the hairs of my head :
Therefore my heart faileth me.
- 13 Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me :
O LORD, make haste to help me.
- 14 Let them be ashamed and confounded together
Who seek after my soul to destroy it ;
Let them be driven backward and put to shame
Who wish me evil.
- 15 Let them be desolate and rewarded with shame
Who say unto me, Aha! aha!
- 16 Let all those who seek thee
Rejoice and be glad in thee :
Let such as love thy salvation
Say continually, The LORD be magnified.
- 17 But I am poor and needy ;
Yet the LORD thinketh on me.
Thou art my helper and my deliverer ;
Make no tarrying, O my God.

PSALMS.

PSALM XLI.

- 1 OH, the blessedness of him who considereth the poor !
The LORD will deliver him in the time of trouble.
- 2 The LORD will preserve him, and keep him alive ;
And he shall be blessed upon the earth :
And thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies.
- 3 The LORD will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing :
Thou wilt make all his bed in his sickness.
- 4 I said, LORD, be merciful unto me :
Heal my soul ; for I have sinned against thee.
- 5 Mine enemies speak evil of me,
When shall he die, and his name perish ?
- 6 And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity :
His heart conceiveth iniquity within itself ;
When he goeth abroad, he telleth it.
- 7 All who hate me whisper together against me :
Against me do they devise evil.
- 8 An evil disease, say they, cleaveth fast unto him :
And now that he lieth he shall rise up no more.
- 9 Yea, mine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, who did eat of my bread,
Hath lifted up his heel against me.
- 10 But thou, O LORD, be merciful unto me,
And raise me up, that I may requite them.
- 11 By this I know that thou favourest me,
Because mine enemy doth not triumph over me.
- 12 And as for me, thou upholdest me in mine integrity,
And settest me before thy face for ever.
- 13 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel
From everlasting, and to everlasting. Amen, and Amen.

PSALM XLII.

- 1 AS the hart panteth after the water brooks,
So panteth my soul after thee, O God.
- 2 My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God :
When shall I come and appear before God ?
- 3 My tears have been my food day and night,
While they continually say unto me, Where is thy God ?
- 4 When I remember times past, I pour out my soul in me :
For I had gone with the multitude, I went with them to the house of God,
With the voice of joy and praise,
With a multitude that kept holyday.
- 5 Why art thou so cast down, O my soul ?
And why art thou so disquieted within me ?
O put thou thy trust in God : for I shall yet praise him
For the help of his countenance.
- 6 O my God, my soul is cast down within me :
Therefore will I remember thee from the land of the Jordan, and of the Hermonites,
From the hill Mizar.
- 7 Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterspouts ;
All thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.
- 8 Yet the LORD will command his lovingkindness in the daytime,
And in the night his song shall be with me,
And my prayer unto the God of my life.
- 9 I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me ?
Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy ?
- 10 My bones are as smitten asunder, while mine enemies reproach me,
And say daily unto me, Where is thy God ?
- 11 Why art thou so cast down, O my soul ?
And why art thou so disquieted within me ?
O put thou thy trust in God : for I shall yet praise him,
Who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

- 43 Judge me, O God, and plead my cause Against an ungodly nation :
 O deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.
 2 For thou art the God of my strength :
 Why dost thou cast me off ?
 Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy ?
 3 O send out thy light and thy truth :
 Let them lead me ;
 Let them bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy tabernacles.
 4 Then will I go unto the altar of God,
 Unto God my exceeding joy :
 Yea, upon the harp will I praise thee,
 O God ! my God.
 5 Why art thou so cast down, O my soul ?
 And why art thou so disquieted within me ?
 O put thou thy trust in God : for I shall yet praise him,
 Who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

PSALM XLIV.

- 1 WE have heard with our ears, O God,
 Our fathers have told us,
 What work thou didst in their days,
 In the times of old.
 2 How thou didst drive out the nations with thy hand,
 But plantedst them ;
 How thou didst afflict the people,
 But didst spread them out.
 3 For they got not the land in possession by their own sword,
 Neither did their own arm save them :
 But thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance,
 Because thou hadst a favour unto them.
 4 Thou art my King, O God :
 Command deliverances for Jacob.
 5 Through thee will we overthrow our enemies :
 And in thy name will we tread them under who rise up against us.
 6 For I will not trust in my bow,
 Neither shall my sword save me.
 7 But thou hast saved us from our enemies,
 And hast put them to shame who hated us.
 8 In God we boast all the day long,
 And praise thy name for ever.
 9 But thou hast cast off, and put us to shame ;
 And goest not forth with our armies.
 10 Thou makest us to turn our backs to the enemy ;
 And those who hate us spoil our goods.
 11 Thou hast given us like sheep for slaughter ;
 And hast scattered us among the nations.
 12 Thou sellest thy people for nought,
 And dost not increase thy wealth by their price.
 13 Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbours,
 A scorn and a derision to those who are round about us.
 14 Thou makest us a byword among the nations,
 And the people shake their heads at us.
 15 My confusion is continually before me,
 And the shame of my face hath covered me,
 16 For the voice of him who reproacheth and blasphemeth ;
 By reason of the enemy and avenger.
 17 All this is come upon us ;
 Yet have we not forgotten thee,
 Neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant.
 18 Our heart is not turned back,
 Neither have our steps declined from thy way ;
 19 Though thou hast smitten us in the place of dragons,

PSALMS.

- And covered us with the shadow of death.
 20 If we have forgotten the name of our God,
 Or stretched out our hands to a strange god;
 21 Shall not God search this out?
 For he knoweth the secrets of the heart.
 22 Yea, for thy sake are we killed all the day long;
 We are counted as sheep for the slaughter.
 23 Awake, why sleepest thou, O LORD?
 Arise, cast us not off for ever.
 24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face,
 And forgettest our affliction and our oppression?
 25 For our soul is bowed down to the dust:
 Our body cleaveth unto the earth.
 26 Arise for our help,
 And redeem us for thy mercies' sake.

PSALM XLV.

- 1 MY heart is inditing a good matter:
 I speak of the things which I have made touching the king:
 My tongue is the pen of a ready writer.
 2 Thou art more beautiful than the children of men:
 Grace is poured into thy lips:
 Therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.
 3 Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, O thou Most Mighty One,
 Arrayed with thy glory and thy majesty.
 4 And in thy majesty ride prosperously
 Because of truth and meekness and righteousness;
 And thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.
 5 Thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies;
 Whereby the people fall under thee.
 6 Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever:
 The sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre.
 7 Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness:
 Therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee
 With the oil of gladness above thy fellows.
 8 All thy garments are of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia:
 Out of the ivory palaces they have made thee glad.
 9 Kings' daughters were among thine honourable women:
 Upon thy right hand did stand the queen in gold of Ophir.
 10 Hearken, O daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear;
 Forget also thine own people, and thy father's house;
 11 So shall the king greatly desire thy beauty:
 For he is thy Lord; and worship thou him.
 12 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift;
 Even the rich among the people shall entreat thy favour.
 13 The king's daughter is all glorious within:
 Her clothing is of wrought gold.
 14 She shall be brought unto the king in raiment of needlework:
 The virgins her companions who follow her
 Shall be brought unto thee.
 15 With gladness and rejoicing shall they be brought:
 They shall enter into the king's palace.
 16 Instead of thy fathers shall be thy children,
 Whom thou mayest make princes in all the earth.
 17 I will make thy name to be remembered in all generations:
 Therefore shall the people praise thee for ever and ever.

PSALM XLVI.

- 1 GOD is our refuge and strength,
 An ever present help in trouble.
 2 Therefore will we not fear,
 Though the earth be removed,
 And though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;

PSALMS.

- 3 Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled,
Though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof.
- 4 There is a river,
The streams whereof shall make glad the city of God,
The holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High.
- 5 God is in the midst of her;
Therefore she shall not be moved:
God shall help her, and that right early.
- 6 The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved:
He uttered his voice, the earth melted.
- 7 The LORD of hosts is with us;
The God of Jacob is our refuge.
- 8 Come, behold the works of the LORD!
He who made desolations in the earth,
- 9 Maketh wars to cease unto the ends of the world;
He breaketh the bow, and snappeth the spear in sunder;
He burneth the chariot in the fire.
- 10 Be still then, and know that I am God:
I will be exalted among the nations,
I will be exalted in the earth.
- 11 The LORD of hosts is with us;
The God of Jacob is our refuge.

PSALM XLVII.

- 1 O CLAP your hands together, all ye people;
Shout unto God with the voice of triumph.
- 2 For the LORD is a God of awful majesty:
He is a great King over all the earth.
- 3 He shall subdue the people under us,
And the nations under our feet.
- 4 He shall choose our inheritance for us,
The excellency of Jacob whom he loved.
- 5 God is gone up with a shout,
The LORD with the sound of a trumpet.
- 6 O sing praises to God, sing praises:
Sing praises unto our King, sing praises.
- 7 For God is the King of all the earth:
Sing ye praises with understanding.
- 8 God reigneth over the nations:
God sitteth upon the throne of his holiness.
- 9 The princes of the people are gathered together,
Even the people of the God of Abraham,
Who is greatly exalted, and doth defend the earth as it were with a shield.

PSALM XLVIII.

- 1 GREAT is the LORD, and greatly to be praised
In the city of our God, even upon the mountain of his holiness.
- 2 Beautiful for situation,
The joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion:
On the sides of the north lieth the city of the great King.
- 3 God is known in her palaces as a sure refuge.
- 4 For, lo! the kings were assembled,
They passed by together.
- 5 They marvelled to see such things;
They were troubled, and hastened away.
- 6 Fear took hold upon them there,
And pain, (as upon a woman in travail,)
7 When thou breakest the ships of Tarshish
With an east wind.
- 8 As we have heard, so have we seen
In the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God:
God will establish it for ever.

PSALMS.

- 9 We have waited for thy lovingkindness, O God.
In the midst of thy temple.
10 According to thy name, O God,
So be thy praise unto the ends of the earth :
Thy right hand is full of righteousness.
11 Let mount Zion rejoice,
Let the daughters of Judah be glad,
Because of thy judgments.
12 Walk about Zion, and go round about her :
Tell the towers thereof.
13 Mark ye well her bulwarks, count her palaces ;
That ye may tell it to the generation following.
14 For this God is our God for ever and ever :
He will be our guide even beyond death.

PSALM XLIX.

- 1 HEAR this, all ye people ;
Give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world :
2 Both low and high,
Rich and poor, together.
3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom ;
And the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.
4 I will incline mine ear to a parable :
I will open my dark saying upon the harp.
5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil
The iniquity of those who lie in wait for me ?
6 Those who trust in their wealth,
And boast themselves in the multitude of their riches ;
7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother,
Nor give to God a ransom for him :
8 (For the redemption of the soul is precious,
And it ceaseth for ever :)
9 That he should still live for ever,
And not see corruption.
10 For he seeth that wise men die,
Likewise the fool and the brutish person perish,
And leave their wealth to others.
11 Their inward thought is, that their sepulchres shall be their houses for ever,
Their dwelling places to all generations ;
They call their lands after their own names.
12 Nevertheless man continueth not in honour ;
He is like the beasts that perish.
13 This their way is their folly ;
Yet their posterity approve their sayings.
14 Like sheep they are laid in the grave ;
Death shall feed on them ;
And the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning ;
And their beauty shall be consumed : the grave being their dwelling place.
15 But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave :
For he shall receive me.
16 Be not thou afraid when one is made rich,
When the glory of his house is increased ;
17 For when he dieth he shall carry nothing away :
His glory shall not descend after him.
18 Though while he lived he blessed himself,
(And men will praise thee, when thou doest well to thyself,)
19 He shall go to the generation of his fathers ;
He shall never see light.
20 Man who is in honour, and understandeth not,
Is like the beasts that perish.

PSALM L.

- 1 THE mighty God, even the LORD, hath spoken,
And called the earth

PSALMS.

- From the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.
- 2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
God hath shined.
 - 3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence :
There shall go before him a consuming fire,
And it shall be very tempestuous round about him.
 - 4 He shall call to the heavens from above,
And to the earth, that he may judge his people : saying,
 - 5 Gather my saints together unto me ;
Those who have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.
 - 6 And the heavens shall declare his righteousness :
For God is judge himself.
 - 7 Hear, O my people, and I will speak ;
O Israel, and I will testify against thee :
I am God, even thy God.
 - 8 I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices
Or thy burnt offerings, because they have not been continually before me.
 - 9 I will take no bullock out of thy house,
Nor he-goats out of thy folds.
 - 10 For every beast of the forest is mine,
And the thousands of cattle upon the mountains.
 - 11 I know all the birds of the air ;
And the wild beasts of the field are mine.
 - 12 If I were hungry, I would not tell thee :
For the world is mine, and the fulness thereof.
 - 13 Thinkest thou that I will eat the flesh of bulls,
Or drink the blood of goats ?
 - 14 Offer unto God thanksgiving ;
And pay thy vows unto the Most High :
 - 15 And call upon me in the day of trouble :
I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.
 - 16 But unto the wicked God saith,
What hast thou to do to declare my statutes,
Or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth ?
 - 17 Seeing thou hatest instruction,
And castest my words behind thee.
 - 18 When thou sawest a thief, then thou consentedst with him,
And hast been partaker with adulterers.
 - 19 Thou givest thy mouth to evil,
And thy tongue frameth deceit.
 - 20 Thou sittest and speakest against thy brother ;
Thou slanderest thine own mother's son.
 - 21 These things hast thou done, and I kept silence ;
Thou thoughtest that I was altogether such a one as thyself :
But I will reprove thee, and set before thine eyes the things thou hast done.
 - 22 Now consider this, ye who forget God,
Lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.
 - 23 Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me :
And to him who ordereth his conversation aright
Will I show the salvation of God.

PSALM LI.

- 1 HAVE mercy upon me, O God,
According to thy lovingkindness :
According to the multitude of thy tender mercies
Blot out my transgressions.
- 2 Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity,
And cleanse me from my sin.
- 3 For I acknowledge my transgressions :
And my sin is ever before me.
- 4 Before thee, thee only, have I sinned,
And done this evil in thy sight :

PSALMS.

- That thou mightest be justified when thou speakest,
And be clear when thou judgest.
- 5 Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity;
And in sin did my mother conceive me.
- 6 Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts:
In the hidden part therefore make me to know wisdom.
- 7 Cleanse me with hyssop, and I shall be clean:
Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.
- 8 Make me to hear joy and gladness;
That the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.
- 9 Turn away thine anger from my sins,
And blot out all mine iniquities.
- 10 Create in me a clean heart, O God;
And renew a right spirit within me.
- 11 Cast me not away from thy presence;
And take not thy holy spirit from me.
- 12 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation;
And uphold me with thy free spirit.
- 13 Then will I teach transgressors thy ways;
And sinners shall be converted unto thee.
- 14 Deliver me from bloodguiltiness,
O God, thou God my salvation:
And my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.
- 15 O LORD, open thou my lips;
And my mouth shall show forth thy praise.
- 16 For thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it:
Thou delightest not in burnt offerings.
- 17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit:
A broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.
- 18 Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion:
Build thou the walls of Jerusalem.
- 19 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness,
With burnt offerings and whole burnt offerings:
Then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

PSALM LII.

- 1 WHY boastest thou thyself in mischief, O mighty man?
The goodness of God endureth continually.
- 2 Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs;
Like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.
- 3 Thou lovest evil more than good;
And lying rather than to speak righteousness.
- 4 Thou lovest all devouring words,
And the deceitful tongue.
- 5 God shall likewise destroy thee for ever,
He shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling place,
And root thee out of the land of the living.
- 6 The righteous also shall see, and fear,
And shall laugh at him:
- 7 Lo, this is the man who made not God his strength;
But trusted in the abundance of his riches,
And strengthened himself in his wickedness.
- 8 But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God:
I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.
- 9 I will praise thee for ever, because thou hast done it:
And I will wait on thy name;
For it is good before thy saints.

PSALM LIII.

- 1 THE fool hath said in his heart, There is no God.
Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity:
There is no one who doeth good.

PSALMS.

- 2 God looked down from heaven upon the children of men,
To see if there were any who did understand,
Who did seek God.
- 3 Every one of them is gone back :
They are altogether become filthy ;
There is no one who doeth good, no, not one.
- 4 Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge ?
Who cat up my people as they eat bread :
They have not called upon God.
- 5 There were they in great fear, where no fear was :
For God hath broken the bones of him who encampeth against thee :
Thou hast put them to shame, because God hath despised them.
- 6 Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion !
When God bringeth back the captivity of his people,
Then shall Jacob rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM LIV.

- 1 SAVE me, O God, for thy name's sake,
And avenge me by thy strength.
- 2 Hear my prayer, O God ;
Give ear to the words of my mouth.
- 3 For strangers are risen up against me,
And oppressors who have not set God before them,
Seek after my soul.
- 4 Behold, God is my helper :
The LORD is with those who uphold my soul.
- 5 He shall reward evil unto mine enemies :
Cut them off in thy truth.
- 6 I will freely sacrifice unto thee :
I will praise thy name, O LORD ; for it is good.
- 7 For thou hast delivered me out of all my trouble :
And mine eye hath seen the fall of mine enemies.

PSALM LV.

- 1 GIVE ear to my prayer, O God !
And hide not thyself from my supplication.
- 2 Attend unto me, and hear me :
I mourn in my complaint, and am troubled ;
- 3 Because of the voice of the enemy,
Because of the oppression of the wicked :
For they cast iniquity upon me,
And in wrath they hate me.
- 4 My heart is disquieted within me :
And the terrors of death are fallen upon me.
- 5 Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me,
And horror hath overwhelmed me.
- 6 And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove !
For then would I fly away, and be at rest.
- 7 Lo, then would I wander far off,
And remain in the wilderness.
- 8 I would hasten my escape
From the stormy wind and tempest.
- 9 Destroy, O LORD, and divide their counsels :
For I have seen violence and strife in the city.
- 10 Day and night they go around the walls thereof :
Mischief also and sorrow are in the midst of it.
- 11 Wickedness is in the midst thereof :
Deceit and guile depart not from her streets.
- 12 For it was not an enemy who reproached me ;
Then I could have borne it :
Neither was it he who hated me who did magnify himself against me ;
For then I would have hid myself from him :

PSALMS.

- 13 But it was even thou, my companion,
My guide, and my familiar friend.
14 We took sweet counsel together,
And walked unto the house of God in company.
15 Let death come suddenly upon them,
And let them go down alive into the grave :
For wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them.
- 16 As for me, I will call upon God ;
And the LORD shall save me.
17 In the evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray,
And cry aloud :
And he shall hear my voice.
18 He hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me :
For many times the enemies contended with me.
19 God shall hear, and afflict them,
Even he who abideth from eternity.
- Because they have no changes,
Therefore they fear not God.
20 He hath put forth his hands against such as were at peace with him :
He hath broken his covenant.
21 The words of his mouth were smoother than butter,
But war was in his heart :
His words were softer than oil,
Yet were they drawn swords.
- 22 Cast thy burden upon the LORD,
And he will sustain thee :
He will never suffer the righteous to be moved.
23 But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction :
Men of blood and deceit shall not live out half their days ;
But I will trust in thee.

PSALM LVI.

- 1 BE merciful unto me, O God : for man would swallow me up ;
He fighting daily oppresseth me.
2 Mine enemies would daily swallow me up :
For they are many who fight against me, O thou Most High.
- 3 What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee.
4 In God I will rejoice, even in his word.
In God I have put my trust ;
I will not fear what flesh can do unto me.
- 5 Every day they wrest my words :
All their thoughts are against me for evil.
6 They gather themselves together,
They hide themselves, they mark my steps,
When they lie in wait for my soul.
7 Shall they escape by iniquity ?
In thine anger cast down the people, O God.
8 Thou tellest my wanderings :
Put thou my tears into thy bottle :
Are they not in thy book ?
- 9 When I cry unto thee, then shall mine enemies be put to flight :
This I know ; for God is for me.
10 In God will I rejoice, even in his word :
In the LORD will I rejoice, even in his word.
11 In God have I put my trust :
I will not be afraid what man can do unto me.
12 Thy vows are upon me, O God :
I will render praises unto thee.
13 For thou hast delivered my soul from death,
And my feet from falling,
That I may walk before God in the light of the living.

PSALMS.

PSALM LVII.

- 1 BE merciful unto me, O God! be merciful unto me :
For my soul trusteth in thee :
Under the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge,
Until these calamities be overpast.
- 2 I will cry unto God most high ;
Unto God who performeth all things for me.
- 3 He shall send from heaven, and save me :
He shall put to reproach him who would swallow me up.
God shall send forth his mercy and his truth.
- 4 I am among lions :
And I lie even among those who are set on fire,
Even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows,
And their tongue a sharp sword.
- 5 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens ;
And thy glory above all the earth.
- 6 They have prepared a net for my steps ;
My soul is bowed down :
They have digged a pit before me,
Into the midst whereof they are fallen themselves.
- 7 My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed :
I will sing and give praise.
- 8 Awake, my glory ; awake, psaltery and harp :
I myself will awake early.
- 9 I will praise thee, O LORD, among the people :
I will sing unto thee among the nations.
- 10 For the greatness of thy mercy reacheth unto the heavens,
And thy truth unto the clouds.
- 11 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens :
And thy glory above all the earth.

PSALM LVIII.

- 1 DO ye indeed speak righteousness, O ye mighty ones ?
Do ye judge uprightly, O ye sons of men ?
- 2 Yea, in heart ye work wickedness ;
Ye weigh the violence of your hands in the earth.
- 3 The wicked are estranged from their birth :
They go astray as soon as they are born, speaking lies.
- 4 Their raging is like the poison of a serpent :
They are like the deaf adder that stoppeth her ear ;
- 5 That hearkeneth not to the voice of charmers,
Charming never so wisely.
- 6 Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth :
Break out the great teeth of the young lions, O LORD.
- 7 Let them fall away as waters which run continually :
When they bend their bow to shoot their arrows, let them be cut in pieces.
- 8 As wax which melteth, let every one of them pass away :
Like the untimely birth of a woman, let them not see the sun.
- 9 Before your pots can feel the thorns,
He shall take them away as with a whirlwind, both living, and in his wrath.
- 10 The righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance :
He shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.
- 11 Then shall it be said, Verily there is a reward for the righteous :
Verily he is a God who judgeth in the earth.

PSALM LIX.

- 1 DELIVER me from mine enemies, O my God ;
Defend me from those who rise up against me.
- 2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity,
And save me from men of blood.
- 3 For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul :
The mighty are gathered against me ;

PSALMS.

- Not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O LORD.
 4 They run and prepare themselves without my fault :
 Awake to help me, and behold.
 5 Thou therefore, O LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel,
 Awake to visit all the nations :
 Be not merciful to any wicked transgressors.
 6 They return at evening :
 They make a noise like a dog,
 And go about the city.
 7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth ;
 Swords are in their lips ;
 For who, say they, doth hear ?
 8 But thou, O LORD, shalt laugh at them ;
 Thou shalt have all such in derision.
 9 O thou Mighty One, on thee will I wait :
 For God is my defence.
 10 The God of my mercy shall appear for me :
 God shall let me see my desire upon mine enemies.
 11 Slay them not, lest my people forget :
 Scatter them by thy power ;
 And bring them down, O LORD our shield.
 12 For the sin of their mouth and the words of their lips
 Let them even be taken in their pride :
 And for cursing and lying which they speak.
 13 Consume them in thy wrath, consume them, that they may perish :
 And let them know that God ruleth in Jacob
 Unto the ends of the earth.
 14 And at evening let them return ;
 And let them make a noise like a dog,
 And go about the city.
 15 Let them wander up and down for food,
 And grudge if they be not satisfied.
 16 But I will sing of thy power ;
 Yea, I will sing aloud of thy mercy in the morning :
 For thou hast been my defence and refuge in the day of my trouble.
 17 Unto thee, O my strength, will I sing :
 For God is my defence, and the God of my mercy.

PSALM LX.

- 1 O GOD, thou hast cast us off, thou hast scattered us,
 Thou hast been displeased ; O turn thyself to us again.
 2 Thou hast made the earth to tremble ; thou hast broken it :
 Heal the breaches thereof ; for it shaketh.
 3 Thou hast showed thy people hard things :
 Thou hast made us to drink the wine of astonishment.
 4 Thou hast given a banner to those who feared thee,
 That it may be displayed because of the truth.
 5 That thy beloved may be delivered ;
 Save with thy right hand, and hear me.
 6 God hath spoken in his sanctuary :
 I will rejoice, I will rule over Shechem,
 And mete out the valley of Succoth.
 7 Gilead and Manasseh have submitted to me :
 Ephraim shall supply me with valiant men ;
 Judah with men of prudence and wisdom ;
 8 I will reduce Moab to the vilest servitude ;
 Over Edom will I triumph ;
 And Philistia shall add to my glory.
 9 Who will bring me into the strong city ?
 Who will lead me into Edom ?
 10 Wilt not thou, O God ! who hadst cast us off ?
 And thou, O God ! who didst not go out with our armies ?

PSALMS.

- 11 Give us help from trouble :
For vain is the help of man.
- 12 Through God we shall do valiantly :
For he shall tread down our enemies.

PSALM LXI.

- 1 HEAR my cry, O God ;
Attend unto my prayer.
- 2 From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed.
Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.
- 3 For thou hast been a shelter for me,
And a strong tower from the enemy.
- 4 I will abide in thy tabernacle for ever :
I will take refuge under the covert of thy wings.
- 5 For thou, O God, hast heard my vows :
Thou hast given me the heritage of those who fear thy name.
- 6 Thou wilt prolong the king's life :
And his years as many generations.
- 7 He shall abide before God for ever :
O prepare mercy and truth, which may preserve him.
- 8 So will I sing praise unto thy name for ever,
That I may daily perform my vows.

PSALM LXII.

- 1 TRULY my soul waiteth upon God :
From him only cometh my salvation.
- 2 He only is my rock and my salvation ;
He is my defence ; I shall not be greatly moved.
- 3 How long will ye imagine mischief against a man ?
Ye shall be slain all of you :
As a bowing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering fence.
- 4 They only consult to cast him down from his excellency :
They delight in lies :
They bless with their mouths, but they curse inwardly.
- 5 My soul, wait thou only upon God ;
For my expectation is from him.
- 6 He only is my rock and my salvation :
He is my defence ; I shall not be moved.
- 7 In God is my salvation and my glory :
The rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.
- 8 Trust in him at all times ; ye people,
Pour out your hearts before him :
God is a refuge for us.
- 9 Surely men of low degree are vanity,
And men of high degree are a lie :
To be laid in the balance,
They are alike lighter than vanity.
- 10 Trust not in oppression,
And become not vain in robbery :
If riches increase, set not your heart upon them.
- 11 God hath spoken once ;
These two things have I heard ;
That power belongeth to God.
- 12 Also to thee, O LORD, belongeth mercy :
For thou renderest to every man according to his work.

PSALM LXIII.

- 1 O GOD ! thou art my God ; early will I seek thee :
My soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee,
As a dry and thirsty land, where no water is ;
- 2 To see thy power and thy glory,
So as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.
- 3 Because thy lovingkindness is better than life,

PSALMS.

- My lips shall praise thee.
4 Thus will I bless thee while I live :
I will lift up my hands in thy name.
5 My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness ;
And my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips :
6 When I remember thee upon my bed,
And meditate on thee in the night watches.
7 Because thou hast been my help,
Therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.
8 My soul followeth hard after thee :
Thy right hand upholdeth me.
9 But those who seek my soul, to destroy it,
Shall go into the lower parts of the earth.
10 They shall fall by the sword :
They shall be a portion for foxes.
11 But the king shall rejoice in God ;
Every one who sweareth by him shall glory :
But the mouth of those who speak lies shall be stopped.

PSALM LXIV.

- 1 HEAR my voice, O God, in my prayer :
Preserve my life from fear of the enemy.
2 Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked ;
From the rage of the workers of iniquity.
3 Who whet their tongue like a sword,
And bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words :
4 That they may shoot in secret at the perfect :
Suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.
5 They encourage themselves in an evil matter :
They commune of laying snares privily ;
They say, Who shall see us ?
6 They search out iniquities ;
They accomplish a diligent search :
Both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deep.
7 But God shall shoot at them with an arrow ;
Suddenly shall they be wounded.
8 So they shall make their own tongue to fall upon themselves :
All who see them shall flee away.
9 And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God ;
For they shall wisely consider of his doing.
10 The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and shall trust in him ;
And all the upright in heart shall glory.

PSALM LXV.

- 1 PRAISE waiteth for thee, O God, in Sion :
And unto thee shall every one perform his vow.
2 O thou who hearest prayer,
Unto thee shall all flesh come.
3 Iniquities prevail against me :
As for our transgressions, thou shalt take them away.
4 Oh, the blessedness of the man whom thou choosest,
And causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts !
We shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house,
Even of thy holy temple.
5 By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us,
O God of our salvation ;
Who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth,
And of those who are afar off upon the sea :
6 Who by his strength setteth fast the mountains ;
Being girded with power :
7 Who stilleth the noise of the seas,
The noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people.
8 Those also who dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens :

PSALMS.

- Thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.
9 Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it :
Thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water :
Thou preparest them corn,
When thou hast so provided for it.
10 Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly :
Thou causest rain to descend into the furrows thereof :
Thou makest it soft with showers :
Thou blessest the springing thereof.
11 Thou crownest the year with thy goodness ;
And thy paths drop fatness.
12 They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness :
And the little hills rejoice on every side.
13 The pastures are clothed with flocks ;
The valleys also are covered over with corn ;
They shout for joy, they also sing.

PSALM LXVI.

- 1 MAKE a joyful noise unto God, all the earth :
2 Sing forth the honour of his name :
Make his praise glorious.
3 Say unto God, How terrible art thou in thy works !
Through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee.
4 All the earth shall worship thee,
And shall sing unto thee ; they shall sing to thy name.
5 Come and see the works of God :
He is terrible in his doing towards the children of men.
6 He turned the sea into dry land :
They went through the flood on foot :
There did we rejoice in him.
7 He ruleth by his power for ever ;
His eyes behold the nations :
Let not the rebellious exalt themselves.
8 O bless our God, ye people,
And make the voice of his praise to be heard :
9 Who holdeth our soul in life,
And suffereth not our feet to be moved.
10 For thou, O God, hast proved us :
Thou hast tried us, as silver is tried.
11 Thou broughtest us into the net ;
Thou laidst a burden upon our loins.
12 Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads ;
We went through fire and through water :
But thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.
13 I will go into thy house with burnt offerings :
I will pay thee my vows,
14 Which my lips have uttered,
And my mouth hath spoken, when I was in trouble.
15 I will offer unto thee burnt sacrifices of fatlings and rams with incense ;
I will offer bullocks with goats.
16 Come and hear, all ye who fear God,
And I will declare what he hath done for my soul.
17 I cried unto him with my mouth,
And he was extolled with my tongue.
18 Had I regarded iniquity in my heart,
The LORD would not have heard me :
19 But verily God hath heard me ;
He hath attended to the voice of my prayer.
20 Blessed be God, who hath not turned away my prayer,
Nor his mercy from me.

PSALMS.

PSALM LXVII.

- 1 O GOD, be merciful unto us, and bless us;
And cause thy face to shine upon us.
- 2 That thy way may be known upon earth,
Thy saving health among all nations.
- 3 Let the people praise thee, O God;
Let all the people praise thee.
- 4 O let the nations be glad and sing for joy:
For thou shalt judge the people righteously,
And govern the nations upon earth.
- 5 Let the people praise thee, O God;
Let all the people praise thee.
- 6 Then shall the earth yield her increase;
And God, even our own God, shall bless us.
- 7 God shall bless us;
And all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

PSALM LXVIII.

- 1 LET God arise, let his enemies be scattered:
Let those also who hate him flee before him.
- 2 As smoke is driven away, so drive them away:
As wax melteth before the fire,
So let the wicked perish at the presence of God.
- 3 But let the righteous be glad;
Let them rejoice before God:
Yea, let them rejoice with gladness.
- 4 Sing unto God, sing praises to his name:
Extol him who rideth upon the heavens: JAH is his name:
Rejoice before him.
- 5 A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows,
Is God in his holy habitation.
- 6 God setteth the solitary in families:
He bringeth out those who are bound with chains:
But the rebellious dwell in a dry land.
- 7 O God, when thou wentest forth before thy people,
When thou didst march through the wilderness;
- 8 The earth shook, the heavens also dropped at the presence of God:
Even Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel.
- 9 Thou, O God, didst send a plentiful rain,
Whereby thou didst confirm thine inheritance, when it was weary.
- 10 Thy congregation hath dwelt therein:
Thou, O God, hast prepared of thy goodness for the poor.
- 11 The LORD gave the word:
Great was the company of those who published it.
- 12 Kings and armies did flee apace:
And she who tarried at home divided the spoil.
- 13 When ye lie down within your boundaries,
Ye shall be as the wings of a dove covered with silver,
And her feathers with yellow gold.
- 14 When the Almighty scattered kings and armies for his people,
Their enemies were as flakes of snow in Salmon.
- 15 The hill of God is the hill of Bashan;
A high hill is the hill of Bashan.
- 16 Why leap ye, ye high hills?
This is the hill which God desireth to dwell in;
Yea, the LORD will dwell in it for ever.
- 17 The angels of God are twenty thousand, even thousands upon thousands:
The LORD is among them, as in Sinai, in the holy place.
- 18 Thou hast ascended on high,
Thou hast led thine enemies captive:
Thou hast received gifts for men;
Yea, for the rebellious also, that the LORD God might dwell among them.

PSALMS.

- 19 Blessed be the LORD, who daily loadeth us with benefits,
Even the God of our salvation.
- 20 He who is our God is the God of salvation ;
And unto God the Lord belong the issues from death.
- 21 But God shall wound the head of his enemies,
And the hairy scalp of such a one as goeth on still in his trespasses.
- 22 The LORD said, I will bring again from Bashan,
I will bring the enemy back from the depths of the sea :
- 23 That thy foot may be dipped in blood,
And the tongue of thy dogs may feed on them.
- 24 They have seen thy goings, O God ;
Even the goings of my God, my King, in the sanctuary.
- 25 The singers went before, the players on instruments followed after ;
Among them were the damsels playing with timbrels.
- 26 Bless ye God in the congregations,
Even the LORD, from the fountain of Israel.
- 27 There is little Benjamin with their ruler,
The princes of Judah and their company of archers,
The princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali.
- 28 Thy God hath commanded thy strength :
Strengthen, O God, that which thou hast wrought for us.
- 29 Because of thy temple at Jerusalem
Shall kings bring presents unto thee.
- 30 Rebuke the company of spearmen,
The assembly of mighty men who boast themselves ;
Till every one fall prostrate with pieces of silver :
Scatter thou the people who delight in war.
- 31 Princes shall come out of Egypt ;
Ethiopia shall soon stretch out her hands unto God.
- 32 Sing unto God, ye kingdoms of the earth ;
O sing praises unto the LORD ;
- 33 To him who rideth upon the heavens, the everlasting heavens ;
Lo, he doth send out his voice, and that a mighty voice.
- 34 Ascribe ye strength unto God :
His excellency is over Israel,
And his strength is in the heavens.
- 35 O God! thou art terrible out of thy holy places :
The God of Israel is he who giveth strength and power unto his people.
Blessed be God.

PSALM LXIX.

- 1 SAVE me, O God ;
For the waters are come in unto my soul.
- 2 I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing :
I am come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.
- 3 I am weary of my crying : my throat is dried :
Mine eyes fail while I wait for my God.
- 4 Those who hate me without a cause
Are more than the hairs of my head :
Those who would destroy me, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty :
Then I was required to restore that which I took not away.
- 5 O God! thou knowest my foolishness ;
And my sins are not hid from thee.
- 6 Let not those who wait on thee, O Lord God of hosts,
Be ashamed for my sake :
Let not those who seek thee be confounded for my sake,
O God of Israel.
- 7 Because for thy sake I have borne reproach ;
Shame hath covered my face.
- 8 I am become a stranger unto my brethren,
And an alien unto my mother's children.
- 9 For the zeal of thy house hath eaten me up ;
And the reproaches of those who reproached thee are fallen upon me.

PSALMS.

- 10 When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting,
That was to my reproach.
- 11 I made sackcloth also my garment ;
And I became a proverb to them.
- 12 Those who sit in the gate speak against me ;
And I was the song of the drunkards.
- 13 But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, O LORD, in an acceptable time :
O God, in the multitude of thy mercy hear me, in the truth of thy salvation.
- 14 Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink :
Let me be delivered from those who hate me, and out of the deep waters.
- 15 Let not the waterflood overflow me,
Neither let the deep swallow me up,
And let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.
- 16 Hear me, O LORD ; for thy lovingkindness is good :
Turn unto me according to the multitude of thy tender mercies.
- 17 And hide not thy face from thy servant ;
For I am in trouble : hear me speedily.
- 18 Draw nigh unto my soul, and redeem it :
Deliver me because of mine enemies.
- 19 Thou hast known my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonour :
Mine adversaries are all before thee.
- 20 Reproach hath broken my heart ;
And I am full of heaviness :
And I looked for some to take pity, but there was none ;
And for comforters, but I found none.
- 21 They gave me also gall for my food ;
And in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.
- 22 Let their table become a snare before them :
And that which should have been for their welfare, let it become a trap.
- 23 Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not ;
And make their loins continually to shake.
- 24 Pour out thine indignation upon them,
And let thy wrathful anger take hold of them.
- 25 Let their habitation be desolate ;
And let none dwell in their tents.
- 26 For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten ;
And they talk to the grief of those whom thou hast wounded.
- 27 Add punishment unto their iniquity :
And let them not come into thy righteousness.
- 28 Let them be blotted out of the book of the living,
And not be written with the righteous.
- 29 But I am poor and sorrowful :
Let thy salvation, O God, set me on high.
- 30 I will praise the name of God with a song,
And will magnify him with thanksgiving.
- 31 This also shall please the LORD better than an ox
Or bullock that hath horns and hoofs.
- 32 The humble shall see this, and be glad :
And your heart shall live who seek God.
- 33 For the LORD heareth the poor,
And despiseth not his prisoners.
- 34 Let the heavens and earth praise him,
The seas, and every thing that moveth therein.
- 35 For God will save Zion, and will build the cities of Judah :
That they may dwell there, and have it in possession.
- 36 The seed also of his servants shall inherit it :
And those who love his name shall dwell therein.

PSALM LXX.

- 1 BE pleased, O God, to deliver me ;
Make haste to help me, O LORD.
- 2 Let them be ashamed and confounded
Who seek after my soul :

PSALMS.

- Let them be turned backward, and put to confusion,
Who desire my hurt.
- 3 They shall receive for their reward shame,
Who say, Aha ! aha !
- 4 Let all those who seek thee
Rejoice and be glad in thee :
And let such as love thy salvation
Say continually, Let God be magnified.
- 5 But I am poor and needy :
Make haste unto me, O God :
Thou art my help and my deliverer ;
O LORD, make no tarrying.

PSALM LXXI.

- 1 IN thee, O LORD, do I put my trust :
Let me never be put to confusion.
- 2 Deliver me in thy righteousness, and cause me to escape :
Incline thine ear unto me, and save me.
- 3 Be thou my strong habitation, whereunto I may continually resort :
Thou hast given commandment to save me ;
For thou art my rock and my fortress.
- 4 Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked,
Out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.
- 5 For thou art my hope, O Lord God :
Thou art my trust from my youth.
- 6 By thee have I been holden up from my birth :
Thou art he who took me out of my mother's bowels :
My praise shall be continually of thee.
- 7 I am a wonder unto many ;
But thou art my strong refuge.
- 8 Let my mouth be filled with thy praise
And with thine honour all the day.
- 9 Cast me not off in the time of old age ;
Forsake me not when my strength faileth.
- 10 For mine enemies speak against me ;
And those who lay wait for my soul take counsel together,
- 11 Saying, God hath forsaken him :
Persecute and take him ; for there is none to deliver him.
- 12 O God, be not far from me :
O my God, make haste for my help.
- 13 Let them be confounded and consumed
Who are adversaries to my soul ;
Let them be covered with reproach and dishonour
Who seek my hurt.
- 14 But I will hope continually,
And will yet praise thee more and more.
- 15 My mouth shall show forth thy righteousness
And thy salvation all the day ;
Though I cannot recount them.
- 16 I will go in the strength of the Lord God ;
I will make mention of thy righteousness, even of thine only.
- 17 O God, thou hast taught me from my youth :
And hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works.
- 18 Now also when I am old and grayheaded,
O God, forsake me not ;
Until I have showed thy strength unto this generation,
And thy power to every one who is to come.
- 19 Thy righteousness also, O God, is very high,
Who hast done great things : O God, who is like unto thee !
- 20 Thou, who hast showed me great and sore troubles,
Shalt quicken me again,
And shalt bring me up again from the depths of the earth.
- 21 Thou shalt increase my greatness,
And comfort me on every side.

PSALMS.

- 22 I will also praise thee with the psaltery,
 Even thy truth, O my God :
 Unto thee will I sing with the harp,
 O thou Holy One of Israel.
- 23 My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing unto thee ;
 And my soul, which thou hast redeemed.
- 24 My tongue also shall talk of thy righteousness all the day long :
 For they are confounded, for they are brought unto shame, who seek my hurt.

PSALM LXXII.

- 1 GIVE the king thy judgments, O God,
 And thy righteousness unto the king's son.
- 2 He shall judge thy people with righteousness,
 And thy poor with judgment.
- 3 The mountains and the little hills
 Shall bring forth peace.
- 4 In righteousness he shall judge the poor of the people
 He shall save the children of the needy,
 And shall break in pieces the oppressor.
- 5 They shall fear thee as long as the sun and moon endure,
 Throughout all generations.
- 6 He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass :
 As showers that water the earth.
- 7 In his days shall the righteous flourish ;
 And abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth.
- 8 He shall have dominion also from sea to sea,
 And from the river unto the ends of the earth.
- 9 Those who dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him ;
 And his enemies shall lick the dust.
- 10 The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents :
 The kings of Arabia and Ethiopia shall offer gifts.
- 11 Yea, all kings shall fall down before him :
 All nations shall serve him.
- 12 For he shall deliver the needy when he crieth ;
 The poor also, and him who hath no helper.
- 13 He shall mercifully spare the poor and needy,
 And shall save the souls of the needy.
- 14 He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence :
 And precious shall their blood be in his sight.
- 15 And he shall live, and to him shall be given of the gold of Arabia :
 Prayer also shall be made for him continually ;
 And daily shall he be praised.
- 16 There shall be an abundance of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains ;
 The fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon :
 And they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.
- 17 His name shall endure for ever :
 His name shall be continued as long as the sun :
 And men shall be blessed in him :
 All nations shall call him blessed.
- 18 Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel,
 Who only doeth wondrous things.
- 19 And blessed be his glorious name for ever :
 And let the whole earth be filled with his glory. Amen, and Amen.
- The prayers of David the son of Jesse are ended.

PSALM LXXIII.

- 1 TRULY God is good to Israel,
 Even to such as are of a clean heart.
- 2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone ;
 My steps had well nigh slipped.
- 3 For I was envious at the foolish,
 When I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

PSALMS.

- 4 For they meet with no perplexities :
Their strength is firm.
- 5 They are not in trouble as other men ;
Neither are they plagued like other men.
- 6 Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain ;
Violence covereth them as a garment.
- 7 Their eyes stand out with fatness :
They have more than heart could wish.
- 8 They mock, and speak wickedly : concerning oppression
They speak loftily.
- 9 They speak with authority as if from heaven,
And their tongue walketh through the earth.
- 10 Therefore his people return hither :
And waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.
- 11 And they say, How doth God know ?
And is there knowledge in the Most High ?
- 12 Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world ;
They increase in riches.
- 13 Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain,
And washed my hands in innocency.
- 14 For all the day long have I been plagued,
And chastened every morning.
- 15 If I say, I will speak thus ;
Behold, I should offend against the generation of thy children.
- 16 When I thought to know this,
It was too painful for me ;
- 17 Until I went into the sanctuary of God ;
Then understood I their end.
- 18 Surely thou didst set them in slippery places ;
Thou castedst them down into destruction.
- 19 How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment !
They are utterly consumed with terrors.
- 20 As a dream when one awaketh ;
So, O Lord, when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.
- 21 Thus my heart was grieved,
And I was pricked in my reins.
- 22 So foolish was I, and ignorant :
I was as a beast before thee.
- 23 Nevertheless I am continually with thee :
Thou hast holden me by my right hand.
- 24 Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel,
And afterwards receive me to glory.
- 25 Whom have I in heaven but thee ?
And there is none upon earth I desire besides thee.
- 26 My flesh and my heart fail :
But God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.
- 27 For, lo, those who are far from thee shall perish :
Thou hast destroyed all those who worship idols.
- 28 But it is good for me to draw near to God :
I have put my trust in the Lord God,
That I may declare all thy works.

PSALM LXXIV.

- 1 O GOD, why hast thou cast us off for ever ?
Why doth thine anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture ?
- 2 Remember thy congregation, which thou hast purchased of old ;
The tribe of thine inheritance, whom thou hast redeemed ;
This mount Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt.
- 3 Hasten thy feet unto these perpetual desolations ;
For every thing in the sanctuary the enemy hath destroyed.
- 4 Thine enemies roar in the midst of thy temple ;
They set up their own banners for signs !

PSALMS.

- 5 As men were famous, who with uplifted axes
Cut down the thick trees :
- 6 So now they break down the carved work of thy temple at once
With axes and hammers.
- 7 They have cast fire into thy sanctuary,
They have defiled the dwelling place of thy name by casting it down to the ground.
- 8 They said in their hearts, Let us oppress them together :
They have burnt up all the synagogues of God in the land.
- 9 We see not our signs :
There is no more any prophet :
Neither is there among us any who knoweth how long.
- 10 O God, how long shall the adversary reproach ?
Shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever ?
- 11 Why withdrawest thou thy hand, even thy right hand ?
Pluck it out of thy bosom to consume the enemy.
- 12 For God is my King of old,
Working salvation in the midst of the earth.
- 13 Thou didst divide the sea by thy strength :
Thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the waters.
- 14 Thou brakest the heads of leviathan in pieces,
And gavest him to be food to the people inhabiting the wilderness.
- 15 Thou didst cleave the fountain and the flood :
Thou driedst up mighty rivers.
- 16 The day is thine, the night also is thine :
Thou hast prepared the light and the sun.
- 17 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth :
Thou hast made summer and winter.
- 18 Remember this, that the enemy hath reproached, O LORD,
And that the foolish people have blasphemed thy name.
- 19 O deliver not the soul of thy turtledove unto the multitude of the wicked :
Forget not the congregation of thy poor for ever.
- 20 Have respect unto the covenant :
For the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty.
- 21 O let not the oppressed return ashamed :
Let the poor and needy praise thy name.
- 22 Arise, O God, plead thine own cause :
Remember how the foolish man reproacheth thee daily.
- 23 Forget not the voice of thine enemies :
The tumult of those who rise up against thee increaseth continually.

PSALM LXXV.

- 1 UNTO thee, O God, do we give thanks,
Unto thee do we give thanks :
For that thy name is near thy wondrous works declare.
- 2 When I shall receive the congregation
I will judge uprightly.
- 3 The earth and all the inhabitants thereof are dissolved :
I bear up the pillars of it.
- 4 I said unto the fools, Deal not foolishly :
And to the wicked, Lift not up the horn :
- 5 Lift not up your horn on high :
Speak not with a stiff neck.
- 6 For promotion cometh neither from the east,
Nor from the west, nor from the south.
- 7 But God is the judge :
He putteth down one, and setteth up another.
- 8 For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup,
And the wine is red ; it is full of mixture ;
And he poureth out of the same :
But the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them.

PSALMS.

- 9 But I will declare for ever;
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.
10 All the horns of the wicked also will I cut off;
But the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

PSALM LXXVI.

- 1 IN Judah is God known :
His name is great in Israel.
2 In Salem also is his tabernacle,
And his dwelling place in Zion.
3 There broke he the arrows of the bow,
The shield, and the sword, and the battle.
4 Thou, O Mighty One! art more glorious and excellent
Than the mountains of prey.
5 The stouthearted are spoiled,
They have slept their sleep :
And none of the men of might have found their hands.
6 At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob,
Both the charioteers and horsemen are cast into the sleep of death.
7 Thou, even thou, art to be feared :
And who may stand in thy sight when once thou art angry ?
8 Thou didst cause judgment to be heard from heaven ;
The earth feared, and was still,
9 When God arose to judgment,
To save all the meek of the earth.
10 Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee :
The remainder of wrath shalt thou restrain.
11 Vow, and pay unto the LORD your God :
Let all who are round about him bring presents unto him who alone is to be feared.
12 He shall cut off the spirit of princes :
He is terrible to the kings of the earth.

PSALM LXXVII.

- 1 I CRIED unto God with my voice,
Even unto God with my voice ; and he gave ear unto me.
2 In the day of my trouble I sought the LORD :
My tears trickled down in the night, and ceased not :
My soul refused to be comforted.
3 I remembered God in the time of trouble :
I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed.
4 Thou holdest mine eyes waking :
I am so troubled that I cannot speak.
5 I have considered the days of old,
The years of ancient times.
6 I call to remembrance my song in the night :
I commune with mine own heart :
And my spirit made diligent search.
7 Will the LORD cast off for ever ?
And will he be favourable no more ?
8 Is his mercy quite gone for ever ?
Doth his promise fail for evermore ?
9 Hath God forgotten to be gracious ?
Hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies ?
10 And I said, This is mine infirmity :
But I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High.
11 I will remember the works of the LORD :
Surely I will remember thy wonders of old.
12 I will meditate also of all thy work,
And talk of thy doings.
13 Thy way, O God, is in holiness :
Who is so great a God as our God ?
14 Thou art the God who doest wonders :

PSALMS.

- Thou hast declared thy strength among the people.
 15 Thou hast with thine arm redeemed thy people,
 The sons of Jacob and Joseph.
 16 The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee;
 They were afraid:
 The depths also were troubled.
 17 The clouds poured out water:
 The skies sent out a sound:
 Thine arrows also went abroad.
 18 The voice of thy thunder was in the whirlwind:
 The lightnings lightened the world:
 The earth trembled and shook.
 19 Thy way was in the sea,
 And thy path in the great waters,
 And thy footsteps were not perceived.
 20 Thou leddest thy people like a flock
 By the hand of Moses and Aaron.

PSALM LXXVIII.

- 1 GIVE ear, O my people, to my law:
 Incline your ears to the words of my mouth.
 2 I will open my mouth in a parable:
 I will utter dark sayings of old:
 3 Which we have heard and known,
 And our fathers have told us.
 4 We will not hide them from their children,
 Showing to the generation to come the praises of the LORD,
 And his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done.
 5 For he established a testimony in Jacob,
 And appointed a law in Israel,
 Which he commanded our fathers,
 That they should make them known to their children:
 6 That the generation to come might know them,
 Even the children who should be born;
 Who should arise and declare them to their children:
 7 That they might set their hope in God,
 And not forget the works of God,
 But keep his commandments:
 8 And might not be as their fathers,
 A stubborn and rebellious generation;
 A generation whose hearts were not right,
 And whose spirit was not steadfast with God.
 9 The children of Ephraim, being armed, and carrying bows,
 Turned back in the day of battle.
 10 They kept not the covenant of God,
 And refused to walk in his law;
 11 And forgot his works,
 And his wonders that he had showed them.
 12 Marvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers,
 In the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.
 13 He divided the sea, and caused them to pass through;
 And he made the waters to stand as a wall.
 14 In the daytime also he led them with a cloud,
 And all the night with a light of fire.
 15 He clave the rocks in the wilderness,
 And gave them drink as out of the great depths.
 16 He brought streams also out of the rock,
 And caused waters to run down like rivers.
 17 And they sinned yet more against him
 By provoking the Most High in the wilderness.
 18 And they tempted God in their heart
 By asking food for their longings.
 19 Yea, they spoke against God;

PSALMS.

- They said, Can God furnish a table in the wilderness?
 20 Behold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out,
 And the streams overflowed;
 Can he give bread also?
 Can he provide flesh for his people?
- 21 Therefore the LORD heard this, and was wroth:
 So a fire was kindled against Jacob,
 And anger also came against Israel;
 22 Because they believed not in God,
 And trusted not in his salvation:
 23 Though he had commanded the clouds from above,
 And opened the doors of heaven,
 24 And had rained down manna upon them to eat,
 And had given them the corn of heaven.
 25 Man did eat angels' food:
 He sent them meat to the full.
- 26 He caused an east wind to blow in the heavens:
 And by his power he brought in the south wind.
 27 He rained flesh also upon them as dust,
 And feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea:
 28 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp,
 Round about their habitations.
 29 So they did eat, and were well filled:
 For he gave them their own desire.
- 30 They were not estranged from their longings.
 But while their food was yet in their mouths,
 31 The wrath of God came upon them,
 And slew the fattest of them,
 And smote down the chosen men of Israel.
- 32 For all this they sinned still,
 And believed not for his wondrous works.
 33 Therefore their days did he consume in vanity,
 And their years in trouble.
- 34 When he slew them, then they sought him:
 And they returned and inquired early after God.
 35 And they remembered that God was their rock,
 And the high God their redeemer.
 36 Nevertheless they did flatter him with their mouth,
 And they lied unto him with their tongues.
 37 For their heart was not right with him,
 Neither were they steadfast in his covenant.
- 38 But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity,
 And destroyed them not:
 Yea, many a time turned he his anger away,
 And did not stir up all his wrath.
 39 For he remembered that they were but flesh;
 A wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.
- 40 How oft did they provoke him in the wilderness!
 And grieve him in the desert!
 41 Yea, they turned back and tempted God,
 And limited the Holy One of Israel.
 42 They remembered not his hand,
 Nor the day when he delivered them from the enemy.
 43 How he had wrought his signs in Egypt,
 And his wonders in the field of Zoan:
 44 And had turned their rivers into blood;
 And their floods, that they could not drink.
 45 He sent divers sorts of flies among them, which devoured them;
 And frogs, which destroyed them.
 46 He gave also their increase unto the caterpillar,
 And their labour unto the locust.

PSALMS.

- 47 He destroyed their vines with hail,
And their sycamore trees with frost.
- 48 He gave up their cattle also to the hail,
And their flocks to hot thunderbolts.
- 49 He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger,
Wrath, and indignation, and trouble,
By sending evil angels among them.
- 50 He made a way to his anger ;
He spared not their soul from death,
But gave their life over to the pestilence ;
- 51 And smote all the firstborn in Egypt ;
The chief of their strength in the tabernacles of Ham :
- 52 But made his own people to go forth like sheep,
And guided them in the wilderness like a flock.
- 53 And he led them on safely, so that they feared not :
But the sea overwhelmed their enemies.
- 54 And he brought them to the border of the holy land,
Even to this mountain, which his right hand had purchased.
- 55 He cast out the heathen also before them,
And divided them an inheritance by line,
And made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.
- 56 Yet they tempted and provoked the most high God,
And kept not his testimonies :
- 57 But turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers :
They were turned aside like a deceitful bow.
- 58 For they provoked him to anger with their high places,
And moved him to jealousy with their graven images.
- 59 When God heard this, he was wroth,
And greatly abhorred Israel :
- 60 So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh,
The tent which he placed among men ;
- 61 And delivered his strength into captivity,
And his glory into the enemy's hand.
- 62 He gave his people over also unto the sword ;
And was wroth with his inheritance.
- 63 The fire consumed their young men ;
And their maidens had no marriage feasts.
- 64 Their priests fell by the sword ;
And their widows made no lamentation.
- 65 Then the LORD awoke as one out of sleep,
And like a mighty man who shouteth by reason of wine.
- 66 And he smote his enemies in the hinder part :
He put them to a perpetual reproach.
- 67 Moreover he refused the tabernacle of Joseph,
And chose not the tribe of Ephraim :
- 68 But chose the tribe of Judah,
The mount Zion which he loved.
- 69 And he built his sanctuary as a palace,
Like the earth which he hath established for ever.
- 70 He chose David also his servant,
And took him from the sheepfolds :
- 71 From following the ewes great with young
He brought him to feed Jacob his people,
And Israel his inheritance.
- 72 So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart ;
And guided them by the skilfulness of his hands.

PSALM LXXIX.

- 1 O GOD, the heathen are come into thine inheritance ;
Thy holy temple have they defiled ;
They have laid Jerusalem on heaps.
- 2 The dead bodies of thy servants have they given

PSALMS.

- To be meat unto the birds of the heavens,
The flesh of thy saints
Unto the beasts of the earth.
- 3 Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem;
And there was none to bury them.
- 4 We are become a reproach to our neighbours,
A scorn and derision to those who are round about us.
- 5 How long, LORD? wilt thou be angry for ever?
Shall thy jealousy burn like fire?
- 6 Pour out thy wrath upon the nations that have not known thee,
And upon the kingdoms that have not called upon thy name.
- 7 For they have devoured Jacob,
And laid waste his dwelling place.
- 8 O remember not against us former iniquities:
Let thy tender mercies speedily appear for us:
For we are brought very low.
- 9 Help us, O God of our salvation,
For the glory of thy name:
And deliver us, and pardon our sins,
For thy name's sake.
- 10 Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is their God?
Let him be known among the nations in our sight
By the revenging of the blood of thy servants which is shed.
- 11 Let the sighing of the prisoner come before thee;
According to the greatness of thy power
Preserve thou those who are appointed to die;
- 12 And render unto our neighbours sevenfold into their bosom
Their reproach, wherewith they have reproached thee, O LORD.
- 13 So we thy people and sheep of thy pasture
Will give thee thanks for ever:
We will show forth thy praise to all generations.

PSALM LXXX.

- 1 GIVE ear, O Shepherd of Israel,
Thou who ledest Joseph like a flock;
Thou who dwellest between the cherubims, shine forth.
- 2 Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh stir up thy strength,
And come and save us.
- 3 Revive us again, O God, and cause thy face to shine;
And we shall be saved.
- 4 O LORD God of hosts,
How long wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people?
- 5 Thou feedest them with the bread of tears;
And givest them tears to drink in great measure.
- 6 Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours:
And our enemies laugh among themselves.
- 7 Revive us again, O God of hosts,
And cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.
- 8 Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt:
Thou hast cast out the nations, and planted it.
- 9 Thou preparedst room before it,
And didst cause it to take deep root,
And it filled the land.
- 10 The hills were covered with the shadow of it,
And the boughs thereof were like the goodly cedars.
- 11 She sent out her boughs unto the sea,
And her branches unto the river.
- 12 Why hast thou then broken down her hedges,
So that all they who pass by the way do pluck her?
- 13 The boar out of the wood doth waste it,
And the wild beast of the field doth devour it.
- 14 Return, we beseech thee, O God of hosts:
Look down from the heavens, and behold, and visit this vine;

PSALMS.

- 15 And the vineyard which thy right hand hath planted,
And the branch that thou madest strong for thyself.
- 16 It is burnt with fire, it is cut down :
They perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.
- 17 Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand,
Upon the son of man whom thou madest strong for thyself.
- 18 So will not we go back from thee :
Quicken us, and we will call upon thy name.
- 19 Revive us again, O LORD God of hosts,
Cause thy face to shine ; and we shall be saved.

PSALM LXXXI.

- 1 SING aloud unto God our strength :
Make a joyful noise unto the God of Jacob.
- 2 Take a psalm, and bring hither the timbrel,
The pleasant harp with the psaltery.
- 3 Blow up the trumpet in the new moon,
In the time appointed, on our solemn feast day.
- 4 For this was a statute for Israel,
And a law of the God of Jacob.
- 5 This he ordained in Joseph for a testimony,
When he went out through the land of Egypt :
Where I heard a language that I understood not.
- 6 I removed his shoulder from the burden :
His hands were delivered from the pots.
- 7 Thou calledst in trouble, and I delivered thee ;
I answered thee in the secret place of thunder :
I proved thee at the waters of Meribah [STRIFE].
- 8 Hear, O my people, and I will testify unto thee :
O Israel, if thou wilt hearken unto me ;
- 9 There shall no strange god be in thee ;
Neither shalt thou worship any strange god.
- 10 I am the LORD thy God,
Who brought thee out of the land of Egypt :
Open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.
- 11 But my people would not hearken to my voice ;
And Israel would none of me.
- 12 So I gave them up unto their own hearts' desires :
And they walked in their own counsels.
- 13 Oh that my people had hearkened unto me,
And Israel had walked in my ways !
- 14 I would soon have subdued their enemies,
And turned my hand against their adversaries.
- 15 The haters of the LORD should have submitted themselves unto him :
But their time should have endured for ever.
- 16 He would have fed them also with the finest of the wheat :
And with honey out of the rock would I have satisfied them.

PSALM LXXXII.

- 1 GOD standeth in the congregation of the mighty ;
He judgeth among the judges.
- 2 How long will ye judge unjustly,
And accept the persons of the wicked ?
- 3 Defend the poor and fatherless :
Do justice to the afflicted and needy.
- 4 Deliver the poor and needy :
Rid them out of the hand of the wicked.
- 5 They know not, neither will they understand ;
They walk on in darkness :
All the foundations of the earth are moved.
- 6 I have said, Gods are ye !
And all of you children of the Most High !

PSALMS.

- 7 But ye shall die like other men,
And fall like one of the poor.
- 8 Arise, O God, judge the earth :
For thou hast power over all nations.

PSALM LXXXIII.

- 1 KEEP not thou silence, O God :
Hold not thy peace, and be not still, O God.
- 2 For, lo, thine enemies make a tumult :
And those who hate thee have lifted up the head.
- 3 They have taken crafty counsel against thy people,
And consulted against thy hidden ones.
- 4 They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation ;
That the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.
- 5 For they have consulted together with one consent :
They are confederate against thee :
- 6 The tabernacles of Edom, and the Ishmaelites ;
Of Moab, and the Hagarenes ;
- 7 Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek ;
The Philistines with the inhabitants of Tyre ;
- 8 Assur also is joined with them :
They have helped the children of Lot.
- 9 Do unto them as unto the Midianites ;
As to Sisera, as to Jabin, at the brook of Kison :
- 10 Which perished at En-dor :
They became as dung for the earth.
- 11 Make their nobles like Oreb, and like Zeeb :
Yea, all their princes as Zebah, and as Zalmunna :
- 12 Who said, Let us take to ourselves
The houses of God in possession.
- 13 O my God, make them like chaff ;
As the stubble before the wind.
- 14 As the fire burneth a wood,
And as the flame setteth the mountains on fire ;
- 15 So persecute them with thy tempest,
And make them afraid with thy storm.
- 16 Fill their faces with shame ;
That they may seek thy name, O LORD.
- 17 Let them be confounded and troubled for ever ;
Yea, let them be put to shame, and perish :
- 18 That men may know that thou, whose name alone is JEHOVAH,
Art the Most High over all the earth.

PSALM LXXXIV.

- 1 OH how lovely is thy dwelling place, O LORD of hosts !
- 2 My soul longeth with intense desire, yea, even fainteth
For the courts of the LORD :
My heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.
- 3 Yea, the sparrow findeth a house,
And the swallow a nest for herself, where they may lay their young :
But when shall I approach thine altars ?
O LORD of hosts, my King and my God !
- 4 Oh the blessedness of the dwellers in thy house !
They are always praising thee.
- 5 Oh the blessedness of the men whose strength is in thee ;
In whose hearts are thy ways !
- 6 Who passing through the valley of Baca make wells therein ;
The rain also filleth the pools.
- 7 They go from strength to strength,
Until each one appeareth before God in Zion.
- 8 O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer :
Give ear, O God of Jacob.
- 9 Behold, O God our shield,

PSALMS.

- And look upon the face of thine anointed.
 10 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand elsewhere :
 I would rather choose to sit on the threshold of the house of my God,
 Than to dwell as an honoured guest in the tents of the ungodly.
 11 For the LORD God is a sun and shield :
 The LORD will give grace and glory :
 No good will he withhold
 From those who live a godly life.
 12 O LORD of hosts,
 Oh the blessedness of the man who trusteth in thee !

PSALM LXXXV.

- 1 LORD, thou hast been favourable unto thy land :
 Thou hast brought back the captivity of Jacob.
 2 Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people,
 Thou hast covered all their sin.
 3 Thou hast taken away all thy wrath :
 Thou hast turned thyself from the fierceness of thine anger.
 4 Turn us, O God of our salvation,
 And cause thine anger towards us to cease.
 5 Wilt thou be angry with us for ever ?
 Wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations ?
 6 Wilt thou not revive us again :
 That thy people may rejoice in thee ?
 7 Show us thy mercy, O LORD,
 And grant us thy salvation.
 8 I will hear what God the LORD will speak :
 For he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints :
 But let them not turn again to folly.
 9 Surely his salvation is nigh those who fear him ;
 That glory may dwell in our land.
 10 Mercy and truth are met together ;
 Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
 11 Truth shall spring out of the earth ;
 And righteousness shall look down from heaven.
 12 Yea, the LORD shall give that which is good ;
 And our land shall yield its increase.
 13 Righteousness shall go before him ;
 And shall set us in the way of his steps.

PSALM LXXXVI.

- 1 BOW down thine ear, O LORD, hear me :
 For I am poor and needy.
 2 Preserve my soul ; for I am afflicted and destitute :
 O thou my God, save thy servant who trusteth in thee.
 3 Be merciful unto me, O LORD :
 For I cry unto thee all the day.
 4 Rejoice the soul of thy servant :
 For unto thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul.
 5 For thou, LORD, art good, and ready to forgive ;
 And plenteous in mercy unto all those who call upon thee.
 6 Give ear, O LORD, unto my prayer ;
 And attend to the voice of my supplications.
 7 In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee :
 For thou wilt answer me.
 8 Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O LORD ;
 Neither are there any works like unto thy works.
 9 All nations whom thou hast made
 Shall come and worship before thee, O LORD ;
 And shall glorify thy name.
 10 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things :
 Thou art God alone.
 11 Teach me thy way, O LORD ;

PSALMS.

- I will walk in thy truth :
Unite my heart to fear thy name.
- 12 I will praise thee, O LORD my God, with all my heart :
And I will glorify thy name for evermore.
- 13 For great is thy mercy towards me :
And thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest pit.
- 14 O God, the proud are risen against me,
And the assemblies of violent men seek my life ;
And have not set thee before them.
- 15 But thou, O LORD, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, Long-suffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth.
- 16 O turn unto me, and have mercy upon me ;
Give thy strength unto thy servant,
And save the son of thy handmaid.
- 17 Show me a token for good ;
That those who hate me may see it, and be ashamed :
Because thou, LORD, helpst me, and comfortest me.

PSALM LXXXVII.

- 1 THE foundations of Zion are on the holy mountains.
- 2 The LORD loveth the gates of Zion
More than all the dwellings of Jacob.
- 3 Glorious things are spoken of thee,
O city of God !
- 4 I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon : they shall acknowledge me :
Behold Philistia, and Tyre, with Ethiopia ;
It shall be said, This man was born there.
- 5 And of Zion it shall be said,
This and that man was born in her :
And the Highest himself shall establish her.
- 6 The LORD shall record, when he counteth up the people,
That this man was born there.
- 7 As well the singers as the players on instruments shall be there :
Each one shall say, All my springs are in thee.

PSALM LXXXVIII.

- 1 O LORD God of my salvation !
I cry day and night unto thee :
- 2 Let my prayer come before thee :
Incline thine ear unto my cry ;
- 3 For my soul is full of troubles :
And my life draweth nigh unto the grave.
- 4 I am counted with those who go down into the pit :
I am as a man who hath no strength :
- 5 Laid low among the dead,
Like the slain who lie in the grave,
Whom thou rememberest no more :
And they are cut off from thy hand.
- 6 Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit,
In darkness, in the shadow of death.
- 7 Thy wrath lieth hard upon me,
And thou hast afflicted me with all thy waves.
- 8 Thou hast put away mine acquaintance far from me ;
Thou hast made me an abomination unto them :
I am shut up, and I cannot come forth.
- 9 Mine eye mourneth by reason of affliction :
LORD, I have called daily upon thee,
I have stretched out my hands unto thee.
- 10 Wilt thou show wonders to the dead ?
Shall the dead arise and praise thee ?
- 11 Shall thy lovingkindness be declared in the grave ?
Or thy faithfulness in destruction ?

PSALMS.

- 12 Shall thy wonders be known in the dark?
And thy righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?
- 13 But unto thee have I cried, O LORD;
And in the morning shall my prayer come before thee.
- 14 LORD, why castest thou off my soul?
Why hidest thou thy face from me?
- 15 I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up:
While I suffer thy terrors I am distracted.
- 16 Thy fierce wrath goeth over me;
Thy terrors have cut me off.
- 17 They came round about me all the day like water;
They compassed me about together.
- 18 Lover and friend hast thou put far from me,
And mine acquaintance into darkness.

PSALM LXXXIX.

- 1 I WILL sing of the mercies of the LORD for ever:
With my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations.
- 2 For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever:
Thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens.
- 3 I have made a covenant with my chosen,
I have sworn unto David my servant,
4 Thy seed will I establish for ever,
And build up thy throne to all generations.
- 5 And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O LORD:
Thy faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints.
- 6 For who in the heavens can be compared unto the LORD?
Who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the LORD?
- 7 God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints,
And to be had in reverence of all those who are about him.
- 8 O LORD God of hosts! who is a strong LORD like unto thee?
Or to thy faithfulness round about thee?
- 9 Thou rulest the raging of the sea:
When the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them.
- 10 Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one who is slain;
Thou hast scattered thine enemies with thy strong arm.
- 11 The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine:
As for the world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them.
- 12 The north and the south thou hast created them:
Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name.
- 13 Thou hast a mighty arm:
Strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.
- 14 Justice and judgment are the foundation of thy throne:
Mercy and truth go before thy face.
- 15 Oh, the blessedness of the people who know the joyful sound!
They shall walk, O LORD, in the light of thy countenance.
- 16 In thy name shall they rejoice all the day:
And in thy righteousness shall they be exalted.
- 17 For thou art the glory of their strength:
And in thy favour our horn shall be exalted.
- 18 For the LORD is our defence;
And the Holy One of Israel is our king.
- 19 Then thou spakest in vision to thy prophets,
And saidst, I have given power to one who is mighty;
I have exalted one chosen out of the people.
- 20 I have found David my servant;
With my holy oil have I anointed him:
21 With whom my hand shall be established:
Mine arm also shall strengthen him.
- 22 The enemy shall not exact upon him;
Nor the son of wickedness subdue him.
- 23 And I will beat down his foes before his face,
And plague those who hate him.

PSALMS.

- 24 But my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him:
And in my name shall his horn be exalted.
- 25 I will set his hand also in the sea,
And his right hand in the rivers.
- 26 He shall cry unto me, Thou art my father,
My God, and the rock of my salvation.
- 27 Also I will make him my firstborn,
Higher than the kings of the earth.
- 28 My mercy will I keep for him for evermore,
And my covenant shall stand fast with him.
- 29 His seed also will I make to endure for ever,
And his throne as the days of heaven.
- 30 If his children forsake my law,
And walk not in my judgments;
- 31 If they break my statutes,
And keep not my commandments;
- 32 Then will I visit their transgression with the rod,
And their iniquity with stripes.
- 33 Nevertheless my lovingkindness will I not utterly take from him,
Nor suffer my faithfulness to fail.
- 34 My covenant will I not break,
Nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.
- 35 Once have I sworn by my holiness
That I will not lie unto David.
- 36 His seed shall endure for ever,
And his throne as the sun before me.
- 37 It shall be established for ever as the moon,
And as a faithful witness in the heavens.
- 38 But thou hast cast off and abhorred,
Thou hast been wroth with thine anointed.
- 39 Thou hast made void the covenant of thy servant:
Thou hast profaned his crown by casting it to the ground.
- 40 Thou hast broken down all his hedges;
Thou hast brought his strong holds to ruin.
- 41 All that pass by the way spoil him:
He is a reproach to his neighbours.
- 42 Thou hast set up the right hand of his adversaries;
Thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice.
- 43 Thou hast also turned the edge of his sword,
And hast not made him to stand in the battle.
- 44 Thou hast made his glory to cease,
And cast his throne down to the ground.
- 45 The days of his youth hast thou shortened:
Thou hast covered him with shame.
- 46 How long, LORD? wilt thou hide thyself for ever?
Shall thy wrath burn like fire?
- 47 Remember how short my time is:
Wherefore hast thou made all men as vanity?
- 48 What man is he who liveth, and shall not see death?
Shall he deliver his soul from the power of the grave?
- 49 LORD, where are thy former lovingkindnesses,
Which thou swarest unto David in thy truth?
- 50 Remember, LORD, the reproach of thy servants;
How I do bear in my bosom the reproach of all the mighty people;
- 51 Wherewith thine enemies have reproached, O LORD;
Wherewith they have reproached the footsteps of thine anointed.
- 52 Blessed be the LORD for evermore. Amen, and Amen.

PSALM XC.

- 1 LORD, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations.
- 2 Before the mountains were brought forth,
Or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world,

PSALMS.

- Even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.
- 3 Thou turnest man to destruction;
And sayest, Return, ye children of men.
 - 4 For a thousand years in thy sight
Are but as yesterday when it is past,
And as a watch in the night.
 - 5 Thou carriest them away as with a flood;
They are as a sleep:
Suddenly they fade away like grass,
 - 6 Which in the morning groweth up and flourisheth,
And in the evening is cut down and withereth.
 - 7 For we are consumed by thine anger,
And by thy wrath are we troubled.
 - 8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee,
Our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.
 - 9 For all our days are passed away in thy wrath:
We spend our years as a tale that is told.
 - 10 The days of our years are threescore years and ten;
And if by reason of strength they be fourscore years,
Yet is their strength labour and sorrow;
For it is soon cut off, and we fly away.
 - 11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger?
Or of thy wrath, so as to fear thee aright?
 - 12 So teach us to number our days,
That we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.
 - 13 Return, O LORD, (how long wilt thou be angry?)
And let it repent thee concerning thy servants.
 - 14 O satisfy us early with thy mercy;
That we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
 - 15 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us,
And the years wherein we have seen evil.
 - 16 Let thy work appear unto thy servants,
And thy glory unto their children.
 - 17 And let thy favour, O LORD our God, be upon us:
And establish thou the work of our hands for us;
Yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

PSALM XCI.

- 1 HE who dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High Abideth under the shadow of the Almighty.
- 2 I will say of the LORD,
He is my refuge and my fortress:
My God; in whom I trust.
- 3 Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler,
And from the noisome pestilence.
- 4 He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust:
His truth shall be thy shield and buckler.
- 5 Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night;
Nor for the arrow that flieth by day;
- 6 Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness;
Nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.
- 7 A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand;
But it shall not come nigh thee.
- 8 Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold
And see the reward of the wicked.
- 9 Because thou hast made the LORD who is my refuge,
Even the Most High, thy habitation;
- 10 There shall no evil befall thee,
Neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.
- 11 For he shall give his angels charge over thee,
To keep thee in all thy ways.
- 12 They shall bear thee up in their hands,
Lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

PSALMS.

Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder :
The young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under foot.

Because he hath set his love upon me,
Therefore will I deliver him :
I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.
He shall call upon me, and I will answer him :
I will be with him in trouble ;
I will deliver him, and honour him.
With length of days will I satisfy him,
And show him my salvation.

PSALM XCII.

IT is a good thing to give thanks unto the LORD,
And to sing praises unto thy name, O Most High :
To show forth thy lovingkindness in the morning,
And thy faithfulness every night,
Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the psaltery ;
Upon the harp with a solemn sound.
For thou, LORD, hast made me glad through thy work :
I will triumph in the works of thy hands.

O LORD, how great are thy works !
And thy thoughts are very deep.
A brutish man knoweth not ;
Neither doth a fool understand this.
When the wicked spring as the grass,
And when all the workers of iniquity do flourish ;
It is that they shall be destroyed for ever :
But thou, LORD, art most high for evermore.

For, lo, thine enemies, O LORD,
For, lo, thine enemies shall perish ;
All the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.
But my horn shalt thou exalt like the horn of a unicorn :
I shall be anointed with fresh oil.
Mine eye also shall see the fall of mine enemies,
And mine ears shall hear of the destruction of the wicked who rise up against me.

The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree :
He shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
Those who are planted in the house of the LORD
Shall flourish in the courts of our God.
They shall still bring forth fruit in old age ;
They shall be full of sap and flourishing ;
To show that the LORD, my rock, is upright :
And that there is no unrighteousness in him.

PSALM XCIII.

THE LORD reigneth, he is clothed with majesty ;
The LORD is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself :
The world also is established, that it cannot be moved.
Thy throne is established of old :
Thou art from everlasting.
The floods have lifted up, O LORD,
The floods have lifted up their voice ;
The floods lift up their waves.
The LORD on high
Is mightier than the noise of many waters,
Yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.
Thy testimonies are very sure :
Holiness becometh thy house, O LORD, for ever.

PSALM XCIV.

O LORD God of vengeance !
O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, show thyself.

PSALMS

- 2 Lift up thyself, thou judge of the earth :
Render a reward to the proud.
- 3 LORD, how long shall the wicked,
How long shall the wicked triumph ?
- 4 How long shall they utter and speak hard things ?
And all the workers of iniquity boast themselves ?
- 5 They break in pieces thy people, O LORD,
And afflict thy heritage.
- 6 They slay the widow and the stranger,
And murder the fatherless.
- 7 Yet they say, The LORD shall not see,
Neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.
- 8 Understand, ye brutish among the people :
And ye fools, when will ye be wise ?
- 9 He who planted the ear, shall he not hear ?
He who formed the eye, shall he not see ?
- 10 He who chastiseth the nations, shall not he correct ?
He who teacheth man knowledge, shall not he know ?
- 11 The LORD knoweth the thoughts of man,
That they are vanity.
- 12 Oh the blessedness of the man whom thou chastenest, O LORD,
And teachest him out of thy law !
- 13 That thou mayest give him rest from the days of adversity,
Until the pit be digged for the wicked.
- 14 For the LORD will not cast off his people,
Neither will he forsake his inheritance.
- 15 But judgment shall be directed by justice :
And all the upright in heart shall follow it.
- 16 Who will rise up for me against the evildoers ?
Or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity ?
- 17 Unless the LORD had been my help,
My soul would soon have dwelt in silence.
- 18 When I said, My foot slippeth ;
Thy mercy, O LORD, held me up.
- 19 In the multitude of my thoughts within me
Thy comforts delight my soul.
- 20 Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee,
Which frameth mischief by a law ?
- 21 They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous,
And condemn the innocent blood.
- 22 But the LORD is my defence ;
And my God is the rock of my refuge.
- 23 And he shall bring upon them their own iniquity,
And shall cut them off in their own wickedness ;
Yea, the LORD our God shall cut them off.

PSALM XCV.

- 1 O COME, let us sing unto the LORD :
Let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.
- 2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving,
And make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.
- 3 For the LORD is a great God,
And a great King above all gods.
- 4 In his hand are the deep places of the earth :
The strength of the hills is his also.
- 5 The sea is his, and he made it :
And his hands formed the dry land.
- 6 O come, let us worship and bow down :
Let us kneel before the LORD our maker.
- 7 For he is our God ;
And we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.
To-day if ye will hear his voice

PSALMS.

- 8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation,
And as in the day of temptation in the wilderness :
- 9 When your fathers tempted me,
Proved me, and saw my works.
- 10 Forty years long was I grieved with that generation,
And said, It is a people who do err in their hearts,
And they have not known my ways :
- 11 Therefore I swore in my wrath
That they should not enter into my rest.

PSALM XCVI.

- 1 O SING unto the LORD a new song :
Sing unto the LORD, all the earth.
- 2 Sing unto the LORD, bless his name ;
Show forth his salvation from day to day.
- 3 Declare his glory among the nations,
His wonders among all people.
- 4 For the LORD is great, and greatly to be praised :
He is to be feared above all gods.
- 5 For all the gods of the nations are idols :
But the LORD made the heavens.
- 6 Honour and majesty attend him :
Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.
- 7 Give unto the LORD, O ye kindreds of the people,
Give unto the LORD glory and strength.
- 8 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name :
Bring an offering, and come into his courts.
- 9 O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness :
Fear before him, all the earth.
- 10 Say among the nations that the LORD reigneth :
The world also shall be established that it shall not be moved :
He shall judge the people righteously.
- 11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad ;
Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof.
- 12 Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein :
Then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice
- 13 Before the LORD : for he cometh,
For he cometh to judge the earth :
He shall judge the world with righteousness,
And the people with his truth.

PSALM XCVII.

- 1 THE LORD reigneth ; let the earth rejoice ;
Let the multitude of isles be glad thereof.
- 2 Clouds and darkness are round about him :
Righteousness and equity are the habitation of his throne.
- 3 A fire goeth before him,
And burneth up his enemies round about.
- 4 His lightnings enlightened the world :
The earth saw, and trembled.
- 5 The hills melted like wax at the presence of the LORD,
At the presence of the LORD of the whole earth.
- 6 The heavens declare his righteousness,
And all the people see his glory.
- 7 Confounded be all those who serve graven images,
Who boast themselves of idols :
Worship him, all ye his angels.
- 8 Zion heard, and was glad ;
And the cities of Judah rejoiced
Because of thy judgments, O LORD.
- 9 For thou, LORD, art high above all the earth :
Thou art exalted far above all gods.

PSALMS.

- 10 Ye who love the LORD, hate evil :
He preserveth the souls of his saints ;
He delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.
- 11 Light is sown for the righteous,
And gladness for the upright in heart.
- 12 Rejoice in the LORD, ye righteous ;
And give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.

PSALM XCVIII.

- 1 O SING unto the LORD a new song ;
For he hath done marvellous things :
His right hand, and his holy arm,
Have gotten him the victory.
- 2 The LORD hath made known his salvation :
His righteousness hath he openly revealed
In the sight of the nations.
- 3 He hath remembered his mercy and his truth
Towards the house of Israel :
All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
- 4 Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all the earth :
Make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise.
- 5 Sing unto the LORD with the harp ;
With the harp, and the voice of a psalm.
- 6 With trumpets and sound of cornet
Make a joyful noise before the LORD, the King.
- 7 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof ;
The world, and those who dwell therein.
- 8 Let the floods clap their hands :
Let the hills be joyful together
- 9 Before the LORD ; for he cometh to judge the earth :
With righteousness shall he judge the world,
And the people with equity.

PSALM XCIX.

- 1 THE LORD reigneth—let the people tremble :
He sitteth between the cherubims—let the earth be moved.
- 2 The LORD is great in Zion ;
And he is high above all the people.
- 3 Let them praise thy name, O thou who art great and terrible :
For it is holy.
- 4 The king's strength also loveth judgment ;
Thou dost establish equity,
Thou executest judgment and righteousness in Jacob.
- 5 Exalt ye the LORD our God,
And worship at his footstool ;
For he is holy.
- 6 Moses and Aaron among his priests,
And Samuel among those who call upon his name ;
They called upon the LORD, and he answered them.
- 7 He spoke unto them in the cloudy pillar :
They kept his testimonies,
And the ordinances that he gave them.
- 8 Thou answeredst them, O LORD our God :
Thou wast a God who forgavest them,
Though thou tookest vengeance of their evil deeds.
- 9 Exalt the LORD our God,
And worship at his holy hill ;
For the LORD our God is holy.

PSALM C.

- 1 MAKE a joyful noise unto the LORD, all the earth.
- 2 Serve the LORD with gladness :
Come before his presence with singing.

PSALMS.

- 3 Know ye that the LORD he is God :
It is he who hath made us, and not we ourselves ;
We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
- 4 Enter into his gates with thanksgiving,
And into his courts with praise :
Be thankful unto him, and bless his name.
- 5 For the LORD is good ; his mercy is everlasting ;
And his truth endureth to all generations.

PSALM CI.

- 1 I WILL sing of mercy and of judgment :
Unto thee, O LORD, will I sing.
- 2 I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way.
(O when wilt thou come unto me ?)
I will walk within my house with an upright heart.
- 3 I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes :
I hate the work of those who turn aside ;
It shall not cleave to me.
- 4 A froward heart shall depart from me :
I will not countenance a wicked person.
- 5 Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off :
Him who hath a high look and a proud heart will not I suffer.
- 6 Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me :
He who walketh in the right way, he shall serve me.
- 7 He who worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house :
He who telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight.
- 8 I will early destroy all the wicked of the land ;
That I may cut off all wicked doers from the city of the LORD.

PSALM CII.

- 1 HEAR my prayer, O LORD,
And let my cry come unto thee.
- 2 Hide not thy face from me in the day when I am in trouble ;
Incline thine ear unto me : in the day when I call Answer me speedily.
- 3 For my days are consumed into smoke,
And my bones are burnt as a firebrand.
- 4 My heart is smitten, and withered like grass ;
So that I forget to eat my bread.
- 5 By reason of the voice of my groaning
My bones cleave to my skin.
- 6 I am like a pelican of the wilderness :
I am like an owl of the desert.
- 7 I watch, and am as a sparrow alone upon the house top.
- 8 Mine enemies reproach me all the day ;
And those who deride me swear against me.
- 9 Therefore I have eaten ashes like bread,
And mingled my drink with weeping,
- 10 Because of thine indignation and thy wrath :
For thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down.
- 11 My days are like a shadow that declineth ;
And I am withered like grass.
- 12 But thou, O LORD, shalt endure for ever ;
And thy remembrance unto all generations.
- 13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion :
For the time to favour her, yea, the set time, is come.
- 14 For thy servants take pleasure in her stones,
And favour the dust thereof.
- 15 So the nations shall fear the name of the LORD,
And all the kings of the earth thy glory.
- 16 When the LORD shall build up Zion,
He shall appear in his glory.
- 17 He will regard the prayer of the destitute,

PSALMS.

- And not despise their prayer.
- 18 This shall be written for the generation to come :
And the people who shall be created shall praise the LORD.
- 19 For he hath looked down from the height of his sanctuary ;
From the heavens did the LORD behold the earth ;
- 20 To hear the groaning of the prisoner ;
To loose those who are appointed to death ;
- 21 To declare the name of the LORD in Zion,
And his praise in Jerusalem ;
- 22 When the people are gathered together,
And the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.
- 23 He weakened my strength in the way ;
He shortened my days.
- 24 I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days :
Thy years are throughout all generations.
- 25 Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth :
And the heavens are the work of thy hands.
- 26 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure :
Yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment ;
As a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed :
- 27 But thou art the same,
And thy years shall have no end.
- 28 The children of thy servants shall dwell in the land,
And their seed shall be established before thee.

PSALM CIII.

- 1 BLESS the LORD, O my soul !
And all that is within me, bless his holy name.
- 2 Bless the LORD, O my soul !
And forget none of his benefits :
- 3 Who forgiveth all thine iniquities ;
Who healeth all thy diseases ;
- 4 Who redeemeth thy life from destruction ;
Who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies ;
- 5 Who satisfieth thine advancing age with good ;
Thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.
- 6 The LORD executeth righteousness and judgment
For all who are oppressed.
- 7 He made known his ways unto Moscs,
His acts unto the children of Israel.
- 8 The LORD is merciful and gracious,
Slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.
- 9 He will not always chide :
Neither will he keep his anger for ever.
- 10 He hath not dealt with us after our sins ;
Nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.
- 11 For as the heavens are high above the earth,
So great is his mercy towards those who fear him.
- 12 As far as the east is from the west,
So far hath he removed our transgressions from us.
- 13 Like as a father pitieth his children,
So the LORD pitieth those who fear him.
- 14 For he knoweth our frame ;
He remembereth that we are dust.
- 15 As for man, his days are as grass :
As a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.
- 16 For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone ;
And the place thereof shall know it no more.
- 17 But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon those who fear him,
And his faithfulness unto children's children ;
- 18 To such as keep his covenant,
And to those who remember his commandments to do them.

PSALMS.

- 19 The LORD hath established his throne in the heavens;
And his kingdom ruleth over all.
- 20 Bless the LORD, ye his angels,
Who excel in strength, who do his commandments,
Harkening unto the voice of his word.
- 21 Bless ye the LORD, all ye his hosts;
Ye ministers of his, who do his pleasure.
- 22 Bless the LORD, all his works
In all places of his dominion :
Bless the LORD, O my soul.

PSALM CIV.

- 1 BLESS the LORD, O my soul !
O LORD my God, thou art very great;
Thou art clothed with honour and majesty.
- 2 Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment :
Who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain :
- 3 Who layest the beams of thy chambers in the waters :
Who makest the clouds thy chariot :
Who walkest upon the wings of the wind :
- 4 Who makest thine angels spirits ;
Thy ministers a flaming fire.
- 5 Who laidest the foundations of the earth,
That it should not be removed for ever.
- 6 Thou coveredst it with the deep as with a garment :
The waters stood above the mountains.
- 7 At thy rebuke they fled ;
At the voice of thy thunder they hastened away.
- 8 They go up by the mountains ; they go down by the valleys
Unto the place which thou hast founded for them.
- 9 Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over ;
That they turn not again to cover the earth.
- 10 Thou sendest the springs into the valleys,
Which run among the hills.
- 11 They give drink to every beast of the field :
The wild asses quench their thirst.
- 12 By them shall the birds of the heavens have their habitation,
Which sing among the branches.
- 13 Thou waterest the hills from thy chambers :
The earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.
- 14 Thou causest the grass to grow for the cattle,
And herb for the service of man :
Thou bringest forth food out of the earth ;
- 15 And wine that maketh glad the heart of man,
And oil to make his face to shine,
And bread which strengtheneth man's heart.
- 16 The trees of the LORD are full of sap ;
The cedars of Lebanon, which he hath planted ; .
- 17 Where the birds make their nests :
As for the stork, the fir trees are her house.
- 18 The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats ;
And the rocks for the conies.
- 19 Thou appointest the moon for seasons :
The sun knoweth its going down.
- 20 Thou makest darkness, and it is night :
Wherein all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.
- 21 The young lions roar after their prey,
And seek their food from God.
- 22 The sun ariseth, they gather themselves together,
And lay them down in their dens.
- 23 Man goeth forth unto his work
And to his labour until the evening.

PSALMS.

- 24 O LORD, how manifold are thy works!
In wisdom hast thou made them all:
The earth is full of thy riches.
- 25 So is this great and wide sea,
Wherein are things creeping innumerable,
Both small and great beasts.
- 26 There go the ships:
There is that leviathan, which thou hast made to play therein.
- 27 These wait all upon thee;
That thou mayest give them their food in due season.
- 28 That thou givest them they gather:
Thou openest thy hand, they are filled with good.
- 29 Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled:
Thou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust.
- 30 Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created:
And thou renewest the face of the earth.
- 31 The glory of the LORD shall endure for ever:
The LORD shall rejoice in his works.
- 32 He looketh on the earth, and it trembleth:
He toucheth the hills, and they smoke.
- 33 I will sing unto the LORD as long as I live:
I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.
- 34 My meditation of him shall be sweet:
I will be glad in the LORD.
- 35 Let sinners be consumed out of the earth,
And let the wicked be no more.
Bless thou the LORD, O my soul. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CV.

- 1 O GIVE thanks unto the LORD;
Call upon his name:
Make known his deeds among the people.
- 2 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him:
Talk ye of all his wondrous works.
- 3 Glory ye in his holy name:
Let the heart of them rejoice who seek the LORD.
- 4 Seek the LORD, and his strength:
Seek his face evermore.
- 5 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done;
His wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;
- 6 O ye seed of Abraham his servant,
Ye children of Jacob his chosen.
- 7 He is the LORD our God:
His judgments are in all the earth.
- 8 He hath remembered his covenant for ever,
The word which he commanded to a thousand generations.
- 9 Which covenant he made with Abraham,
And his oath unto Isaac;
- 10 And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law,
And to Israel for an everlasting covenant:
- 11 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan,
The lot of your inheritance.
- 12 When there were but a few men in number;
Yea, very few, and strangers in it.
- 13 When they went from one nation to another,
From one kingdom to another people;
- 14 He suffered no man to do them wrong:
Yea, he reproveth kings for their sakes;
- 15 Saying, Touch not mine anointed,
And do my prophets no harm.
- 16 Moreover he called for a famine upon the land;
He broke the whole staff of bread.

PSALMS.

- 17 He sent a man before them, even Joseph,
Who was sold for a servant :
- 18 Whose feet they hurt with fetters :
They bound him with iron :
- 19 Until the time that his word came :
The word of the LORD tried him.
- 20 The king sent and loosed him ;
Even the ruler of the people, and let him go free.
- 21 He made him lord of his house,
And ruler of all his substance :
- 22 To bind his princes at his pleasure ;
And teach his senators wisdom.
- 23 Israel also came into Egypt ;
And Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.
- 24 And he increased his people greatly ;
And made them stronger than their enemies.
- 25 He turned their heart to hate his people,
To deal deceitfully with his servants.
- 26 He sent Moses his servant ;
And Aaron whom he had chosen.
- 27 They showed his signs among them,
And wonders in the land of Ham.
- 28 He sent darkness, and made it dark ;
And they disobeyed his word.
- 29 He turned their waters into blood,
And slew their fish.
- 30 Their land brought forth frogs in abundance,
In the chambers of their kings.
- 31 He spoke, and there came divers sorts of flies,
And lice in all their coasts.
- 32 He gave them hail for rain,
And flaming fire in their land.
- 33 He smote their vines also and their fig trees ;
And broke the trees of their coasts.
- 34 He spoke, and the locusts came,
And caterpillars, without number,
- 35 Which ate up all the herbs in their land,
And devoured the fruit of their ground.
- 36 He smote also all the firstborn in their land,
The chief of all their strength.
- 37 He brought forth his people also with silver and gold :
And there was not one feeble person among their tribes.
- 38 Egypt was glad when they departed :
For the fear of them fell upon them.
- 39 He spread a cloud for a covering ;
And fire to give light in the night.
- 40 The people asked, and he brought quails,
And satisfied them with the bread of heaven.
- 41 He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out ;
They ran in the dry places like a river.
- 42 For he remembered his holy promise,
And Abraham his servant.
- 43 And he brought forth his people with joy,
And his chosen with gladness :
- 44 And gave them the lands of the heathen :
And they inherited the labour of the people ;
- 45 That they might observe his statutes,
And keep his laws.
Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CVL

- 1 PRAISE ye the LORD.
O give thanks unto the LORD ; for he is good :

PSALMS.

- For his mercy endureth for ever.
- 2 Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD ?
Who can show forth all his praise ?
- 3 Oh, the blessedness of those who keep judgment,
And of him who doeth righteousness at all times !
- 4 Remember me, O LORD, with the favour which thou bearest unto thy people :
O visit me with thy salvation ;
- 5 That I may see the good of thy chosen,
That I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation,
That I may glory with thine inheritance.
- 6 We have sinned with our fathers,
We have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.
- 7 Our fathers regarded not the wonders of the LORD in Egypt ;
They remembered not the multitude of his mercies ;
But provoked him at the sea, even at the Red Sea.
- 8 Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake,
That he might make his mighty power to be known :
- 9 He rebuked the Red Sea also, and it was dried up :
So he led them through the deeps, as through the wilderness.
- 10 And he saved them from the hand of him who hated them,
And redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.
- 11 And the waters covered their enemies :
There was not one of them left.
- 12 Then believed they his words ;
They sang his praise.
- 13 They soon forgot his works ;
They waited not for his counsel :
- 14 But longed exceedingly in the wilderness,
And tempted God in the desert.
- 15 And he gave them their request ;
But sent a consuming plague amongst them.
- 16 They envied Moses also in the camp,
And Aaron the saint of the LORD.
- 17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan,
And covered the company of Abiram.
- 18 And a fire was kindled in their company ;
The flame burnt up the wicked.
- 19 They made a calf in Horeb,
And worshipped the molten image.
- 20 Thus they changed their glory
Into the similitude of a calf that eateth grass.
- 21 They forgot God their saviour,
Who had done great things in Egypt ;
- 22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham,
And terrible things by the Red Sea.
- 23 Therefore he said that he would destroy them,
Had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach,
To turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.
- 24 Yea, they despised the pleasant land,
They believed not his word :
- 25 But murmured in their tents,
And hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD.
- 26 Therefore he lifted up his hand against them,
To overthrow them in the wilderness :
- 27 To overthrow their seed also among the nations,
And to scatter them in the lands.
- 28 They joined themselves also unto Baal-peor,
And ate the sacrifices of idols.
- 29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their evil deeds :
And the plague broke forth among them.
- 30 Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment :

PSALMS.

- And so the plague was stayed.
- 31 And that was counted unto him for righteousness
Unto all generations for evermore.
- 32 They angered him also at the waters of strife,
So that it went ill with Moses for their sakes :
- 33 Because they provoked his spirit,
So that he spoke unadvisedly with his lips.
- 34 They did not destroy the nations,
Concerning whom the LORD commanded them :
- 35 But were mingled among the heathen,
And learned their works.
- 36 And they served their idols :
Which were a snare unto them.
- 37 Yea, they sacrificed their sons
And their daughters unto evil spirits,
- 38 And shed innocent blood,
Even the blood of their sons and of their daughters,
Whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan :
And the land was polluted with blood.
- 39 Thus were they defiled with their own works,
And committed idolatry with their own delusions.
- 40 Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, Insomuch that he abhorred his own inheritance.
- 41 And he gave them into the hand of the heathen ;
And those who hated them ruled over them.
- 42 Their enemies also oppressed them,
And they were brought into subjection under their hand.
- 43 Many times did he deliver them ;
But they provoked him with their counsel,
And were brought low for their iniquity.
- 44 Nevertheless he regarded their affliction,
When he heard their cry :
- 45 And he remembered for them his covenant,
And repented according to the multitude of his mercies.
- 46 He made them also to be pitied
Of all those who carried them captives.
- 47 Save us, O LORD our God,
And gather us from among the nations,
To give thanks unto thy holy name,
And to triumph in thy praise.
- 48 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel
From everlasting to everlasting :
And let all the people say, Amen.
Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CVII.

- 1 O GIVE thanks unto the LORD, for he is good :
For his mercy endureth for ever.
- 2 Let the redeemed of the LORD say so,
Whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy ;
- 3 And gathered them out of the lands,
From the east, and from the west,
From the north, and from the south.
- 4 They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way ;
They found no city to dwell in.
- 5 Hungry and thirsty,
Their soul fainted in them.
- 6 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble,
And he delivered them out of their distresses.
- 7 And he led them forth by the right way,
That they might go to a city of habitation.

PSALMS.

- 8 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness,
And for his wonderful works to the children of men !
- 9 For he satisfieth the longing soul,
And filleth the hungry soul with goodness.
- 10 Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death,
Being bound in affliction and iron ;
- 11 Because they rebelled against the words of God,
And contemned the counsel of the Most High :
- 12 Therefore he brought down their heart with labour ;
They fell down, and there was none to help.
- 13 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble,
And he saved them out of their distresses.
- 14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death,
And broke their bands in sunder.
- 15 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness,
And for his wonderful works to the children of men !
- 16 For he hath broken the gates of brass,
And cut the bars of iron in sunder.
- 17 Fools because of their transgression,
And because of their iniquities, are afflicted.
- 18 Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat ;
And they draw near unto the gates of death.
- 19 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble,
And he saveth them out of their distresses.
- 20 He sent his word, and healed them,
And delivered them from their destructions.
- 21 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness,
And for his wonderful works to the children of men !
- 22 And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving,
And declare his works with rejoicing.
- 23 Those who go down to the sea in ships,
Who do business in great waters ;
- 24 These see the works of the LORD,
And his wonders in the deep.
- 25 For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind,
Which lifteth up the waves thereof.
- 26 They mount up to the heavens,
They go down again to the depths :
Their soul is melted because of trouble.
- 27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man,
And are at their wit's end.
- 28 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble,
And he bringeth them out of their distresses.
- 29 He maketh the storm a calm,
So that the waves thereof are still.
- 30 Then are they glad because they are quiet ;
So he bringeth them unto their desired haven.
- 31 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness,
And for his wonderful works to the children of men !
- 32 Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people,
And praise him in the assembly of the elders.
- 33 He turneth rivers into a wilderness,
And the watersprings into dry ground ;
- 34 A fruitful land into barrenness,
For the wickedness of those who dwell therein.
- 35 He turneth the wilderness into a standing water,
And dry ground into watersprings.
- 36 And there he maketh the hungry to dwell,
That they may prepare a city for habitation ;
- 37 And sow the fields, and plant vineyards,
Which may yield fruits of increase.

PSALMS.

- 38 He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly ;
And suffereth not their cattle to decrease.
39 Again, they sin and are diminished and brought low
Through oppression, affliction, and sorrow.
40 He poureth contempt upon princes,
And causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way.
41 Yet setteth he the poor on high from affliction,
And maketh him families like a flock.
42 The righteous shall see it, and rejoice :
And all iniquity shall stop her mouth.
43 Whoso is wise, and will observe these things,
Even they shall understand the lovingkindness of the LORD.

PSALM CVIII.

- 1 O GOD ! my heart is fixed ;
I will sing and give praise :
Awake, my glory.
2 Awake, psaltery and harp :
I myself will awake early.
3 I will praise thee, O LORD, among the people :
And I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.
4 For the greatness of thy mercy reacheth unto the heavens :
And thy truth unto the clouds.
5 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens :
And thy glory above all the earth ;
6 That thy beloved may be delivered :
Save with thy right hand, and answer me.
7 God hath spoken in his holiness ; I will rejoice,
I will divide Shechem,
And mete out the valley of Succoth.
8 Gilead and Manasseh have submitted to me ;
Ephraim shall supply me with valiant men ;
Judah with men of prudence and wisdom ;
9 I will reduce Moab to the vilest servitude ;
Over Edom will I triumph ;
And Philistia shall add to my glory.
10 Who will bring me into the strong city ?
Who will lead me into Edom ?
11 Wilt not thou, O God, who hast cast us off ?
And wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hosts ?
12 Give us help from trouble :
For vain is the help of man.
13 Through God we shall do valiantly :
For he shall tread down our enemies.

PSALM CIX.

- 1 HOLD not thy peace, O God of my praise ;
2 For the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful are opened against me :
They have spoken against me with a lying tongue.
3 They compassed me about also with words of hatred ;
And fought against me without a cause.
4 For my love they are mine adversaries :
But I give myself unto prayer.
5 And they have rewarded me evil for good,
And hatred for my love.
6 Let his wickedness be visited on him :
And let Satan stand at his right hand.
7 When he shall be judged, let him be condemned :
And let his prayer become sin.
8 Let his days be few ;
And let another take his office.
9 Let his children be fatherless,

PSALMS.

- And his wife a widow.
 10 Let his children be continually vagabonds, and beg :
 Let them seek their bread also out of their desolate places.
 11 Let the extortioner take away all that he hath ;
 And let the strangers spoil his labour.
 12 Let there be none to extend mercy unto him :
 Neither let there be any to favour his fatherless children.
 13 Let his posterity be cut off ;
 And in the generation following let their name be blotted out.
 14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the LORD ;
 And let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.
 15 Let them be before the LORD continually,
 That he may cut off the memory of them from the earth.
 16 Because that he remembered not to show mercy,
 But persecuted the poor and needy man,
 That he might even slay the broken in heart.
 17 As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him :
 As he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him.
 18 As he clothed himself with cursing as with his garment,
 So let it come into his bowels like water,
 And like oil into his bones.
 19 Let it be unto him as the garment which covereth him,
 And for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually.
 20 Let this be the reward of mine adversaries from the LORD,
 And of those who speak evil against my soul.
 21 But do thou for me, O God the Lord,
 For thy name's sake :
 Because thy mercy is good, deliver thou me.
 22 For I am poor and needy,
 And my heart is wounded within me.
 23 I am gone like the shadow when it declineth :
 I am tossed up and down as the locust.
 24 My knees are weak through fasting ;
 And my flesh faileth of fatness.
 25 I became also a reproach unto them :
 When they looked upon me they shook their heads.
 26 Help me, O LORD my God :
 O save me according to thy mercy :
 27 That they may know that this is thy hand ;
 That thou, LORD, hast done it.
 28 Let them curse, but bless thou :
 When they arise, let them be ashamed ;
 But let thy servant rejoice.
 29 Let mine adversaries be clothed with shame,
 And let them cover themselves with their own confusion, as with a mantle.
 30 I will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth ;
 Yea, I will praise him among the multitude.
 31 For he shall stand at the right hand of the poor,
 To save him from those who condemn his soul.

PSALM CX.

- 1 JEHOVAH said unto my Lord,
 Sit thou at my right hand,
 Until I make thine enemies thy footstool.
 2 The LORD shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion :
 Rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.
 3 Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness.
 More abundant shall be the dew of thy youth, than the dew from the womb of the morning.
 4 The LORD hath sworn, and will not repent,
 Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.
 5 The Lord at thy right hand
 Shall strike through kings in the day of his wrath.

PSALMS.

- 6 He shall judge among the nations :
The field of battle shall be filled with the dead bodies of the slain ;
He shall smite the heads of mighty ones on the earth.
- 7 He shall drink of the brook in the way :
Therefore shall he lift up his head.

PSALM CXI.

- 1 PRAISE ye the LORD.
I will praise the LORD with my whole heart,
In the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation.
- 2 The works of the LORD are great,
Sought out of all those who have pleasure therein.
- 3 His work is honourable and glorious :
And his righteousness endureth for ever.
- 4 He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered :
The LORD is gracious and full of compassion.
- 5 He hath given food unto those who fear him :
He will ever be mindful of his covenant.
- 6 He hath showed his people the power of his works,
By giving them the heritage of the nations.
- 7 The works of his hands are verity and righteousness ;
All his commandments are sure.
- 8 They are established for ever and ever,
And are done in truth and uprightness.
- 9 He sent redemption unto his people :
He hath commanded his covenant for ever :
Holy and reverend is his name.
- 10 The fear of the LORD is the perfection of wisdom :
A good understanding have all those who do his commandments :
His praise endureth for ever.

PSALM CXII.

- 1 PRAISE ye the LORD.
Oh, the blessedness of the man who feareth the LORD,
Who delighteth greatly in his commandments !
- 2 His seed shall be mighty upon earth :
The generation of the upright shall be blessed.
- 3 Wealth and riches shall be in his house :
And his righteousness endureth for ever.
- 4 Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness :
He is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.
- 5 A good man sheweth favour, and lendeth :
He will guide his affairs with discretion.
- 6 Surely he shall not be moved for ever :
The righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance.
- 7 He shall not be afraid of evil tidings :
His heart is fixed, trusting in the LORD.
- 8 His heart is established, he shall not be afraid,
Until he see the fall of his enemies.
- 9 He hath dispersed, he hath given to the poor ;
His righteousness endureth for ever ;
His horn shall be exalted with honour.
- 10 The wicked shall see it, and be grieved ;
He shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away :
The desire of the wicked shall perish.

PSALM CXIII.

- 1 PRAISE ye the LORD.
Praise, O ye servants of the LORD,
Praise the name of the LORD.
- 2 Blessed be the name of the LORD
From this time forth and for evermore.
- 3 From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same
Let the LORD'S name be praised.

PSALMS.

- 4 The LORD is high above all nations,
And his glory above the heavens.
- 5 Who is like unto the LORD our God,
Who dwelleth on high,
- 6 Yet humbleth himself to behold
The things that are in the heavens, and in the earth !
- 7 He raiseth up the poor out of the dust,
And lifteth the needy out of the dunghill ;
- 8 That he may set him with princes,
Even with the princes of his people.
- 9 He maketh the childless woman to keep house,
And to be a joyful mother of children.
Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXIV.

- 1 WHEN Israel went out of Egypt,
The house of Jacob from a people of strange language ;
- 2 Judah was his sanctuary,
And Israel his dominion.
- 3 The sea saw it, and fled :
The Jordan was driven back.
- 4 The mountains skipped like rams,
And the little hills like lambs.
- 5 What ailed thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest ?
Thou Jordan, that thou wast driven back ?
- 6 Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams ;
And ye little hills, like lambs ?
- 7 The earth trembled at the presence of the LORD,
At the presence of the God of Jacob ;
- 8 Who turned the rock into a pool of water,
The flint into a fountain of waters.

PSALM CXV.

- 1 NOT unto us, O LORD, not unto us,
But unto thy name give glory,
For thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.
- 2 Wherefore should the nations say,
Where is now their God ?
- 3 For our God is in the heavens :
He hath done whatsoever he hath pleased.
- 4 Their idols are silver and gold,
The work of men's hands.
- 5 They have mouths, but they speak not :
Eyes have they, but they see not :
- 6 They have ears, but they hear not :
Noses have they, but they smell not :
- 7 They have hands, but they handle not :
Feet have they, but they walk not :
Neither speak they through their throat.
- 8 Those who make them are like unto them ;
So is every one who trusteth in them.
- 9 O house of Israel, trust thou in the LORD :
He is their help and their shield.
- 10 O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD :
He is their help and their shield.
- 11 Ye who fear the LORD, trust in the LORD :
He is their help and their shield.
- 12 The LORD hath been mindful of us : he will bless us ;
He will bless the house of Israel ;
He will bless the house of Aaron.
- 13 He will bless those who fear the LORD,
Both small and great.

PSALMS.

- 14 The LORD shall increase you more and more,
You and your children.
- 15 Ye are blessed of the LORD
Who made the heavens and the earth.
- 16 The heaven of heavens is for the LORD :
But the earth hath he given to the children of men.
- 17 The dead praise not the LORD,
Neither any who go down into silence.
- 18 But we will bless the LORD
From this time forth and for evermore.
Praise the LORD.

PSALM CXVI.

- 1 I LOVE the LORD, because he hath heard
The voice of my supplications.
- 2 Because he hath inclined his ear unto me,
Therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.
- 3 The sorrows of the grave compassed me,
And the pains of death got hold upon me ;
I found trouble and sorrow.
- 4 Then called I upon the name of the LORD ;
O LORD, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.
- 5 Gracious is the LORD, and righteous ;
Yea, our God is merciful.
- 6 The LORD preserveth the simple :
I was brought low, and he helped me.
- 7 Return unto thy rest, O my soul ;
For the LORD hath dealt bountifully with thee.
- 8 For he hath delivered my soul from death,
Mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.
- 9 I will walk before the LORD
In the land of the living.
- 10 I believed, therefore have I spoken :
I was greatly afflicted :
- 11 I said in my haste,
All men are liars.
- 12 What shall I render unto the LORD
For all his benefits towards me ?
- 13 I will take the cup of salvation,
And call upon the name of the LORD.
- 14 I will pay my vows unto the LORD
Now in the presence of all his people.
- 15 Precious in the sight of the LORD
Is the death of his saints.
- 16 O LORD, truly I am thy servant ;
I am thy servant, and the son of thy handmaid :
Thou hast loosed my bonds.
- 17 I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving,
And will call upon the name of the LORD.
- 18 I will pay my vows unto the LORD
Now in the presence of all his people,
- 19 In the courts of the LORD'S house,
In the midst of thee, O Jerusalem.
Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXVII.

- 1 O PRAISE the LORD, all ye nations :
Praise him, all ye people.
- 2 For his merciful kindness is great towards us :
And the faithfulness of the LORD endureth for ever.
Praise ye the LORD.

PSALMS.

PSALM CXVIII.

- 1 O GIVE thanks unto the LORD ; for he is good :
Because his mercy endureth for ever.
- 2 Let Israel now say,
That his mercy endureth for ever.
- 3 Let the house of Aaron now say,
That his mercy endureth for ever.
- 4 Let those now who fear the LORD say,
That his mercy endureth for ever.
- 5 I called upon the LORD in distress :
The LORD answered me, and set me in a large place.
- 6 The LORD is on my side ;
I will not fear : what can man do unto me ?
- 7 The LORD taketh my part with those who help me :
Therefore shall I see my desire upon those who hate me.
- 8 It is better to trust in the LORD
Than to put confidence in man.
- 9 It is better to trust in the LORD
Than to put confidence in princes.
- 10 All nations compassed me about :
But in the name of the LORD will I destroy them.
- 11 They compassed me about ;
Yea, they compassed me about :
But in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.
- 12 They compassed me about like bees ;
They are quenched as the fire of thorns :
But in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.
- 13 They have thrust sore at me that I might fall :
But the LORD helped me.
- 14 The LORD is my strength and song,
And is become my salvation.
- 15 The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous :
The right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.
- 16 The right hand of the LORD is exalted :
The right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.
- 17 I shall not die, but live,
And declare the works of the LORD.
- 18 The LORD hath chastened me sore :
But he hath not given me over unto death.
- 19 Open to me the gates of righteousness :
I will go into them, and I will praise the LORD :
- 20 This is the gate of the LORD,
Into which the righteous shall enter.
- 21 I will praise thee : for thou hast heard me
And art become my salvation.
- 22 The stone which the builders refused
Is become the corner stone of the foundation.
- 23 This is the LORD'S doing ;
It is marvellous in our eyes.
- 24 This is the day which the LORD hath made ;
We will rejoice and be glad in it.
- 25 Save now, I beseech thee, O LORD :
O LORD, I beseech thee, send now prosperity.
- 26 Blessed is he who cometh in the name of the LORD :
We have blessed you out of the house of the LORD.
- 27 God is the LORD, who hath showed us light :
Bind the sacrifice with cords, and sprinkle its blood upon the horns of the altar.
- 28 Thou art my God, and I will praise thee :
Thou art my God, I will exalt thee.
- 29 O give thanks unto the LORD ; for he is good :
For his mercy endureth for ever.

PSALMS.

PSALM CXIX.

N ALETH.

- 1 OH, the blessedness of the upright and sincere in the way,
Who walk in the law of the LORD!
- 2 Oh, the blessedness of those who keep his testimonies,
And who seek him with the whole heart!
- 3 They also do no iniquity:
They walk in his ways.
- 4 Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts diligently.
- 5 Oh that my ways were directed to keep thy statutes!
- 6 Then shall I not be ashamed,
When I have respect unto all thy commandments.
- 7 I will praise thee with uprightness of heart,
When I shall have learned thy righteous judgments.
- 8 I will keep thy statutes:
O forsake me not utterly.

3 BETH.

- 9 Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way?
By taking heed thereto according to thy word.
- 10 With my whole heart have I sought thee:
O let me not wander from thy commandments.
- 11 Thy word have I hid in my heart,
That I might not sin against thee.
- 12 Blessed art thou, O LORD:
Teach me thy statutes.
- 13 With my lips have I declared
All the judgments of thy mouth.
- 14 I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies,
As much as in all riches.
- 15 I will meditate in thy precepts,
And have respect unto thy ways.
- 16 I will delight myself in thy statutes:
I will not forget thy word.

2 GIMEL.

- 17 Deal bountifully with thy servant, that I may live,
And keep thy word.
- 18 Open thou mine eyes,
That I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.
- 19 I am a stranger in the earth:
Hide not thy commandments from me.
- 20 My soul breaketh
For the longing that it hath unto thy judgments at all times.
- 21 Thou hast rebuked the proud who are cursed,
Who do err from thy commandments.
- 22 Remove from me reproach and contempt;
For I have kept thy testimonies.
- 23 Princes also did sit and speak against me:
But thy servant did meditate in thy statutes.
- 24 Thy testimonies also are my delight
And my counsellors.

7 DALETH.

- 25 My soul cleaveth unto the dust:
Quicken thou me according to thy word.
- 26 I have declared my ways, and thou heardest me:
Teach me thy statutes.
- 27 Make me to understand the way of thy precepts:
So shall I talk of thy wondrous works.
- 28 My soul is bowed down with sorrow:
Strengthen thou me according unto thy word.
- 29 Remove from me the way of lying:

PSALMS.

And teach me thy law graciously.

- 30 I have chosen the way of truth :
Thy judgments have I laid before me.
- 31 I have stuck unto thy testimonies :
O LORD, let me not be put to shame.
- 32 I will run the way of thy commandments,
When thou shalt enlarge my heart.

¶ HE.

- 33 Teach me, O LORD, the way of thy statutes ;
And I shall keep it unto the end.
- 34 Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law ;
Yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart.
- 35 Make me to go in the path of thy commandments ;
For therein do I delight.
- 36 Incline my heart unto thy testimonies,
And not to covetousness.
- 37 Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity ;
And quicken thou me in thy way.
- 38 Establish thy word unto thy servant,
Who is devoted to thy fear.
- 39 Turn away my reproach which I fear :
For thy judgments are good.
- 40 Behold, I have longed after thy precepts :
Quicken me in thy righteousness.

¶ VAU.

- 41 Let thy mercies come also unto me, O LORD,
Even thy salvation, according to thy word.
- 42 So shall I have wherewith to answer him who reproacheth me :
For I trust in thy word.
- 43 And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth ;
For I have hoped in thy judgments.
- 44 So shall I keep thy law continually
For ever and ever.
- 45 And I will walk at liberty :
For I seek thy precepts.
- 46 I will speak of thy testimonies also before kings,
And will not be ashamed.
- 47 And I will delight myself in thy commandments,
Which I love.
- 48 My hands also will I lift up unto thy commandments, which I love ;
And I will meditate in thy statutes.

¶ ZAIN.

- 49 Remember thy word unto thy servant,
Upon which thou hast caused me to hope.
- 50 This is my comfort in mine affliction :
For thy word hath quickened me.
- 51 The proud have had me greatly in derision :
Yet have I not declined from thy law.
- 52 I remembered thy judgments of old, O LORD ;
And have comforted myself.
- 53 Horror hath taken hold upon me
Because of the wicked who forsake thy law.
- 54 Thy statutes have been my songs
In the house of my pilgrimage.
- 55 I have remembered thy name, O LORD, in the night,
And have kept thy law.
- 56 This was my comfort,
That I kept thy precepts.

¶ CHETH.

- 57 Thou art my portion, O LORD :
I have purposed to keep thy words.

PSALMS.

- 58 I entreated thy favour with my whole heart :
Be merciful unto me according to thy word.
59 I thought on my ways,
And turned my feet unto thy testimonies.
60 I made haste, and delayed not
To keep thy commandments.
61 The bands of the wicked have surrounded me :
But I have not forgotten thy law.
62 At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto thee
Because of thy righteous judgments.
63 I am a companion of all those who fear thee,
And of those who keep thy precepts.
64 The earth, O LORD, is full of thy mercy :
Teach me thy statutes.

TETH.

- 65 Thou hast dealt well with thy servant, O LORD,
According unto thy word.
66 Teach me discretion and knowledge :
For I have believed thy commandments.
67 Before I was afflicted I went astray :
But now have I kept thy word.
68 Thou art good, and doest good ;
Teach me thy statutes.
69 The proud have forged a lie against me :
But I will keep thy precepts with my whole heart.
70 Their heart is as insensible as fat ;
But I delight in thy law.
71 It is good for me that I have been afflicted .
That I might learn thy statutes.
72 The law of thy mouth is better unto me
Than thousands of gold and silver.

JOD.

- 73 Thy hands have made me and fashioned me :
Give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments.
74 Those who fear thee will be glad when they see me ;
Because I have hoped in thy word.
75 I know, O LORD, that thy judgments are right,
And that thou in faithfulness hast afflicted me.
76 Let, I pray thee, thy merciful kindness be for my comfort,
According to thy word unto thy servant.
77 Let thy tender mercies come unto me, that I may live :
For thy law is my delight.
78 Let the proud be ashamed ; for they dealt perversely with me without a cause :
But I will meditate in thy precepts.
79 Let those who fear thee turn unto me,
And those who have known thy testimonies.
80 Let my heart be sound in thy statutes ;
That I may never be ashamed.

CAPH.

- 81 My soul fainteth for thy salvation :
But I hope in thy word.
82 Mine eyes wait for the fulfilment of thy promise,
Saying, When wilt thou comfort me ?
83 For I am become like a leathern bottle in the smoke ;
Yet do I not forget thy statutes.
84 How many are the days of thy servant ?
When wilt thou execute judgment on those who persecute me ?
85 The proud have digged pits for me,
Which are not after thy law.
86 All thy commandments are faithful :
They persecute me wrongfully ; help thou me.

PSALMS.

- 87 They had almost consumed me upon earth;
But I forsook not thy precepts.
88 Quicken me after thy lovingkindness:
So shall I keep the testimony of thy mouth.

↳ LAMED.

- 89 Thou art for ever, O LORD: thy word is established in the heavens.
90 Thy faithfulness is unto all generations:
Thou hast established the earth, and it abideth.
91 They continue this day according to thine ordinances:
For all are thy servants.
92 Unless thy law had been my delight,
I should have perished in mine affliction.
93 I will never forget thy precepts:
For with them thou hast quickened me.
94 I am thine, save me;
For I have sought thy precepts.
95 The wicked have waited for me to destroy me:
But I will consider thy testimonies.
96 I have seen an end of all perfection:
But thy commandment is exceeding broad.

□ MEM.

- 97 Oh how love I thy law!
It is my meditation all the day.
98 Thou through thy commandments hast made me wiser than mine enemies:
For thy law is ever with me.
99 I have more understanding than all my teachers:
For thy testimonies are my meditation.
100 I understand more than the ancients,
Because I keep thy precepts.
101 I have refrained my feet from every evil way,
That I might keep thy word.
102 I have not departed from thy judgments:
For thou hast taught me.
103 How sweet are thy words unto my taste!
Yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!
104 Through thy precepts I get understanding:
Therefore I hate every false way.

‡ NUN.

- 105 Thy word is a lamp unto my feet,
And a light unto my path.
106 I have sworn, and I will perform it,
That I will keep thy righteous judgments.
107 I am afflicted very much:
Quicken me, O LORD, according to thy word.
108 Accept, I beseech thee, the freewill offerings of my mouth, O LORD,
And teach me thy judgments.
109 My life is continually in thy hand:
And I do not forget thy law.
110 The wicked have laid a snare for me:
Yet I erred not from thy precepts.
111 Thy testimonies have I taken as my heritage for ever:
For they are the rejoicing of my heart.
112 I have inclined my heart to perform thy statutes always,
Even unto the end.

□ SAMECH.

- 113 I hate vain thoughts:
But thy law do I love.
114 Thou art my hiding place and my shield:
I hope in thy word.
115 Depart from me, ye evildoers:

PSALMS.

For I will keep the commandments of my God.

- 116 Uphold me according unto thy word, that I may live :
And let me not be ashamed of my hope.
- 117 Hold thou me up, and I shall be safe :
And then shall I have respect unto thy statutes continually.
- 118 Thou hast trodden down all those who err from thy statutes :
For vain is their deceit.
- 119 Thou esteemest all the wicked of the earth as dross :
Therefore I love thy testimonies.
- 120 My flesh trembleth for fear of thee ;
And I am afraid of thy judgments.

y AIN. /

- 121 I have executed judgment and justice :
Leave me not to mine oppressors.
- 122 Be surety for thy servant for good :
Let not the proud oppress me.
- 123 Mine eyes fail for thy salvation,
And for the word of thy righteousness.
- 124 Deal with thy servant according unto thy mercy,
And teach me thy statutes.
- 125 I am thy servant ; give me understanding,
That I may know thy testimonies.
- 126 It is time for thee, LORD, to work :
For they have made void thy law.
- 127 Therefore I love thy commandments above gold ;
Yea, above fine gold.
- 128 Therefore I esteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be right ;
And I hate every false way.

D PE.

- 129 Thy testimonies are wonderful :
Therefore doth my soul keep them.
- 130 The entrance of thy words giveth light ;
It giveth understanding unto the simple.
- 131 I opened my mouth, and panted :
For I longed for thy commandments.
- 132 Look thou upon me, and be merciful unto me,
As thou usest to do unto those who love thy name.
- 133 Order my steps in thy word :
And let not any iniquity have dominion over me.
- 134 Deliver me from the oppression of man :
So will I keep thy precepts.
- 135 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant ;
And teach me thy statutes.
- 136 Rivers of waters run down mine eyes,
Because they keep not thy law.

y TZADDI.

- 137 Righteous art thou, O LORD,
And upright are thy judgments.
- 138 Thy testimonies that thou hast commanded
Are right and very faithful.
- 139 My zeal hath consumed me,
Because mine enemies have forgotten thy words.
- 140 Thy word is very pure :
Therefore thy servant loveth it.
- 141 I am small and despised :
Yet do not I forget thy precepts.
- 142 Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness,
And thy law is the truth.
- 143 Trouble and anguish have taken hold on me :
Yet thy commandments are my delight.
- 144 The righteousness of thy testimonies is everlasting :
Give me understanding, and I shall live.

PSALMS.

פ KOPH.

- 145 I cried with my whole heart; hear me, O LORD:
I will keep thy statutes.
146 I cried unto thee; save me,
That I may keep thy testimonies.
147 I waited for the dawning of the morning, and cried :
I hoped in thy word.
148 Mine eyes wait for the night watches,
That I might meditate on thy word.
149 Hear my voice according unto thy lovingkindness :
O LORD, quicken me according to thy judgment.
150 They draw nigh who follow after mischief:
They are far from thy law.
151 Thou art near, O LORD ;
And all thy commandments are truth.
152 Out of thy testimonies I have learned
That of old thou hast founded them for ever.

ר RESH.

- 153 Consider mine affliction, and deliver me :
For I do not forget thy law.
154 Plead my cause, and deliver me :
Quicken me according to thy word.
155 Salvation is far from the wicked :
For they seek not thy statutes.
156 Many are thy tender mercies, O LORD :
Quicken me according to thy judgments.
157 Many are my persecutors and mine enemies ;
Yet do I not decline from thy testimonies.
158 I beheld the transgressors, and was grieved ;
Because they kept not thy word.
159 Consider how I love thy precepts :
Quicken me, O LORD, according to thy lovingkindness.
160 Thy word is true from the beginning :
And every one of thy righteous judgments endureth for ever.

ש SCHIN.

- 161 Princes have persecuted me without a cause :
But my heart standeth in awe of thy word.
162 I rejoice at thy word,
As one who findeth great spoil.
163 I hate and abhor lying :
But thy law do I love.
164 Many times daily do I praise thee
Because of thy righteous judgments.
165 Great peace have those who love thy law :
And nothing shall be a stumblingblock to them.
166 LORD, I have hoped for thy salvation,
And done thy commandments.
167 My soul hath kept thy testimonies ;
And I love them exceedingly.
168 I have kept thy precepts and thy testimonies :
For all my ways are before thee.

ט TAU.

- 169 Let my cry come near before thee, O LORD :
Give me understanding according to thy word.
170 Let my supplication come before thee :
Deliver me according to thy word.
171 My lips shall utter praise,
When thou hast taught me thy statutes.
172 My tongue shall speak of thy word :
For all thy commandments are righteousness.
173 Let thy hand help me ;

PSALMS.

- For I have chosen thy precepts. ¹⁷⁴
 174 I have longed for thy salvation, O LORD;
 And thy law is my delight.
 175 Let my soul live, that it may praise thee;
 And let thy judgments help me.
 176 I have gone astray like a lost sheep; seek thy servant;
 For I do not forget thy commandments.

PSALM CXX.

- 1 IN my distress I cried unto the LORD,
 And he heard me.
 2 Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying lips,
 And from a deceitful tongue.
 3 (What shall be given unto thee?
 Or what shall be done unto thee, thou false tongue?)
 4 Which are as sharp arrows of the mighty,
 With coals of juniper.
 5 Woe to me, that I sojourn in Mesech,
 That I dwell in the tents of Kedar!
 6 My soul hath long dwelt
 With him who hateth peace.
 7 I am for peace: but when I speak,
 They are for war.

PSALM CXXI.

- 1 I WILL lift up mine eyes unto the hills,
 From whence cometh my help.
 2 My help cometh from the LORD,
 Who made the heavens and the earth.
 3 He will not suffer thy foot to stumble:
 He who keepeth thee will not slumber.
 4 Behold, he who keepeth Israel
 Shall neither slumber nor sleep.
 5 The LORD is thy keeper:
 The LORD will shade thee with his right hand.
 6 The sun shall not smite thee by day,
 Nor the moon by night.
 7 The LORD shall preserve thee from all evil:
 He shall preserve thy life.
 8 The LORD shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in
 From this time forth, and even for evermore.

PSALM CXXII.

- 1 I WAS glad when they said unto me,
 Let us go into the house of the LORD.
 2 Our feet shall stand
 Within thy gates, O Jerusalem!
 3 Jerusalem is built as a city,
 Where all associate together:
 4 Whither the tribes go up,
 The tribes of the LORD, unto the testimony of Israel,
 To give thanks unto the name of the LORD.
 5 For there are set thrones of judgment,
 The thrones of the house of David.
 6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:
 They shall prosper who love thee.
 7 Peace be within thy walls,
 And prosperity within thy palaces,
 8 For my brethren and companions' sakes,
 I will now say, Peace be within thee.
 9 Because of the house of the LORD our God
 I will seek thy good.

PSALMS.

PSALM CXXIII.

- 1 UNTO thee lift I up mine eyes,
O thou who dwellest in the heavens.
- 2 Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters,
And as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress ;
So our eyes wait upon the LORD our God,
Until that he have mercy upon us.
- 3 Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us :
For we are exceedingly filled with contempt.
- 4 Our soul is exceedingly filled
With the scorning of those who are at ease,
And with the contempt of the proud.

PSALM CXXIV.

- 1 IF it had not been the LORD who was on our side,
Now may Israel say ;
- 2 If it had not been the LORD who was on our side,
When men rose up against us :
- 3 Then they had swallowed us up alive,
When their wrath was kindled against us :
- 4 Then the waters had overwhelmed us,
The stream had gone over our soul :
- 5 Then the proud waters had gone over our soul.
- 6 Blessed be the LORD,
Who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth.
- 7 Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers :
The snare is broken, and we are escaped.
- 8 Our help is in the name of the LORD,
Who made the heavens and the earth.

PSALM CXXV.

- 1 THOSE who trust in the LORD shall be as mount Zion,
Which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.
- 2 As the mountains are round about Jerusalem,
So the LORD is round about his people
From henceforth even for ever.
- 3 For the sceptre of wickedness shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous ;
Lest the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity.
- 4 Do good, O LORD, unto those who are good,
And to those who are upright in their hearts.
- 5 As for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways,
The LORD shall punish them with the workers of iniquity :
But peace shall be upon Israel.

PSALM CXXVI.

- 1 WHEN the LORD turned again the captivity of Zion,
We were like those who dream.
- 2 Then were our mouths filled with laughter,
And our tongues with singing :
Then said they among the nations,
The LORD hath done great things for them.
- 3 The LORD hath done great things for us ;
Whereof we are glad.
- 4 Turn again our captivity, O LORD,
As the streams in the south.
- 5 Those who sow in tears
Shall reap in joy.
- 6 He who goeth forth weeping,
And sowing precious seed,
Shall doubtless come again with rejoicing,
Bringing his sheaves with him.

PSALMS.

PSALM CXXVII.

- 1 EXCEPT the LORD build the house,
They labour in vain who build it:
Except the LORD keep the city,
The watchman watcheth in vain.
- 2 It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late,
To eat the bread of sorrows:
For he giveth to his beloved sleep.
- 3 Lo, children are a heritage of the LORD:
And the fruit of the womb is his reward.
- 4 As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man;
So are children of the youth.
- 5 Happy is the man who hath his quiver full of them:
They shall not be ashamed,
But they shall subdue his enemies in the gate.

PSALM CXXVIII.

- 1 OH the blessedness of every one who feareth the LORD;
Who walketh in his ways!
- 2 For thou shalt eat the labour of thy hands:
Happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.
- 3 Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine by the sides of thy house:
Thy children like olive plants round about thy table.
- 4 Behold! that thus shall the man be blessed
Who feareth the LORD.
- 5 The LORD shall bless thee out of Zion:
And thou shalt see the good of Jerusalem all the days of thy life.
- 6 Yea, thou shalt see thy children's children,
And peace upon Israel.

PSALM CXXIX.

- 1 MANY a time have they afflicted me from my youth,
May Israel now say:
- 2 Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth:
Yet they have not prevailed against me.
- 3 The ploughers ploughed upon my back:
They made long their furrows.
- 4 The LORD is righteous:
He hath cut asunder the cords of the wicked.
- 5 Let them all be confounded and turned back
Who hate Zion.
- 6 Let them be as the grass upon the housetops,
Which withereth before it is pulled up:
- 7 Wherewith the mower filleth not his hand;
Nor he who bindeth sheaves his bosom.
- 8 Neither do they who go by say,
The blessing of the LORD be upon you:
We bless you in the name of the LORD.

PSALM CXXX.

- 1 OUT of the depths have I cried unto thee, O LORD.
- 2 LORD, hear my voice:
Let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.
- 3 If thou, LORD, shouldst mark iniquities,
O LORD, who shall stand?
- 4 But there is forgiveness with thee,
That thou mayest be feared.
- 5 I have waited for thee, O LORD! my soul hath waited,
And in thy word do I hope.
- 6 My soul hath waited for the LORD
More than the watchmen for the morning:
Yea, more than the watchmen for the morning.

PSALMS.

- 7 Let Israel hope in the LORD:
For with the LORD there is mercy,
And with him is plenteous redemption.
8 And he shall redeem Israel
From all his iniquities.

PSALM CXXXI.

- 1 LORD; my heart is not haughty,
Nor mine eyes lofty:
Neither do I exercise myself in great matters,
Or in things too high for me.
2 Surely I have behaved and quieted myself,
As a child that is weaned of its mother:
My soul is even as a weaned child.
3 Let Israel hope in the LORD
From henceforth and for ever.

PSALM CXXXII.

- 1 LORD, remember David,
And all his afflictions:
2 How he swore unto the LORD,
And vowed unto the mighty God of Jacob;
3 Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house,
Nor go up into my bed;
4 I will not give sleep to mine eyes,
Or slumber to mine eyelids,
5 Until I find out a place for the LORD,
A habitation for the mighty God of Jacob.
6 Lo, we heard of it at Ephratah:
We found it in the fields of the wood.
7 We will go into his tabernacles:
We will worship at his footstool.
8 Arise, O LORD, into thy rest;
Thou, and the ark of thy strength.
9 Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness;
And let thy saints shout for joy.
10 For thy servant David's sake
Turn not away the face of thine anointed.
11 The LORD hath sworn in truth unto David;
He will not turn from it;
Of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne.
12 If thy children will keep my covenant
And my testimony that I shall teach them,
Their children shall also sit upon thy throne for evermore.
13 For the LORD hath chosen Zion;
He hath desired it for his habitation.
14 This is my rest for ever:
Here will I dwell; for I have desired it.
15 I will abundantly bless her provision:
I will satisfy her poor with bread.
16 I will also clothe her priests with salvation:
And her saints shall shout aloud for joy.
17 There will I make the horn of David to bud:
I have ordained a lamp for mine anointed.
18 His enemies will I clothe with shame:
But upon himself shall his crown flourish.

PSALM CXXXIII.

- 1 BEHOLD, how good and how pleasant it is
For brethren to dwell together in unity!
2 It is like the precious oil upon the head,
That ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard:
That went down to the skirts of his garments;

PSALMS.

- 3 It is like the dew of Hermon,
And as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion :
For there the LORD hath promised the blessing,
Even life for evermore.

PSALM CXXXIV.

- 1 COME ye!
All ye servants of the LORD,
Who by night stand in the house of the LORD, bless ye the LORD.
2 Lift up your hands in the sanctuary,
And bless the LORD.
3 The LORD who made the heavens and the earth
Bless thee out of Zion.

PSALM CXXXV.

- 1 PRAISE ye the LORD.
Praise ye the name of the LORD ;
Praise him, all ye servants of the LORD.
2 Ye who stand in the house of the LORD,
In the courts of the house of our God,
3 Praise the LORD ; for the LORD is good :
Sing praises unto his name ; for it is pleasant.
4 For the LORD hath chosen Jacob unto himself,
And Israel for his peculiar treasure.
5 For I know that the LORD is great,
And that our LORD is above all gods.
6 Whatsoever the LORD pleaseth, that doeth he
In the heavens, and in the earth,
In the seas, and all deep places.
7 He causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth ;
He maketh lightnings for the rain ;
He bringeth the wind out of his treasures.
8 He smote the firstborn of Egypt,
Both of man and beast.
9 He sent tokens and wonders into the midst of thee, O Egypt,
Upon Pharaoh, and upon all his servants.
10 He smote great nations,
And slew mighty kings ;
11 Sihon king of the Amorites,
And Og king of Bashan,
And all the kingdoms of Canaan :
12 And gave their land for a heritage,
A heritage unto Israel his people.
13 Thy name, O LORD, endureth for ever ;
And thy memorial, O LORD, throughout all generations.
14 For the LORD will judge his people,
And he will repent himself concerning his servants.
15 The idols of the heathen are silver and gold,
The work of men's hands.
16 They have mouths—but they speak not ;
Eyes have they—but they see not ;
17 They have ears—but they hear not ;
Neither is there any breath in their mouths.
18 Those who make them are like unto them :
So is every one who trusteth in them.
19 Bless ye the LORD, O house of Israel :
Bless ye the LORD, O house of Aaron :
20 Bless ye the LORD, O house of Levi :
Ye who fear the LORD, bless the LORD.
21 Blessed be the LORD out of Zion,
Who dwelleth at Jerusalem.
Praise ye the LORD.

PSALMS.

PSALM CXXXVI.

- 1 O GIVE thanks unto the LORD; for he is good:
For his mercy endureth for ever.
- 2 O give thanks unto the God of gods:
For his mercy endureth for ever.
- 3 O give thanks to the Lord of lords:
For his mercy endureth for ever.
- 4 To him who alone doeth great wonders:
For his mercy endureth for ever.
- 5 To him who by wisdom made the heavens:
For his mercy endureth for ever.
- 6 To him who stretched out the earth above the waters:
For his mercy endureth for ever.
- 7 To him who made great lights:
For his mercy endureth for ever:
- 8 The sun to rule by day:
For his mercy endureth for ever:
- 9 The moon and stars to rule by night:
For his mercy endureth for ever.
- 10 To him who smote the firstborn of the Egyptians:
For his mercy endureth for ever:
- 11 And brought out Israel from among them:
For his mercy endureth for ever:
- 12 With a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm:
For his mercy endureth for ever.
- 13 To him who divided the Red Sea into parts:
For his mercy endureth for ever:
- 14 And made Israel to pass through the midst of it:
For his mercy endureth for ever:
- 15 But overthrew Pharaoh and his host in the Red Sea:
For his mercy endureth for ever.
- 16 To him who led his people through the wilderness:
And made the water to flow from the rock:
For his mercy endureth for ever.
- 17 To him who smote great kings:
For his mercy endureth for ever:
- 18 And slew famous kings:
For his mercy endureth for ever:
- 19 Sihon king of the Amorites:
For his mercy endureth for ever:
- 20 And Og the king of Bashan:
For his mercy endureth for ever:
- 21 And gave their land for a heritage:
For his mercy endureth for ever:
- 22 Even a heritage unto Israel his servant:
For his mercy endureth for ever.
- 23 Who remembered us in our low estate:
For his mercy endureth for ever:
- 24 And hath redeemed us from our enemies:
For his mercy endureth for ever.
- 25 Who giveth food to all flesh:
For his mercy endureth for ever.
- 26 O give thanks unto the God of the heavens:
For his mercy endureth for ever.

PSALM CXXXVII.

- 1 BY the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down,
Yea, we wept, when we remembered Zion.
- 2 We hanged our harps upon the willows in the midst thereof.
- 3 For there those who carried us away captive required of us a song;
And those who derided us required of us mirth,
Saying, Sing us one of the songs of Zion.

PSALMS.

- 4 How shall we sing the LORD'S song
In a land of strangers?
- 5 If I forget thee, O Jerusalem,
Let my right hand forget her skilfulness.
- 6 If I do not remember thee,
Let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth;
If I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy.
- 7 Remember, O LORD, the children of Edom
In the day of Jerusalem;
Who said, Raze it,
Raze it, even to the foundation thereof.
- 8 O daughter of Babylon! doomed to be destroyed;
Happy he! who rewardeth thee
As thou hast served us.
- 9 Happy he!
Who taketh and dasheth thy little ones against the rock.

PSALM CXXXVIII.

- 1 I WILL praise thee, O LORD, with my whole heart :
Before the rulers of the people will I sing praise unto thee.
- 2 I will worship towards thy holy temple,
And praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth :
For thou hast magnified thy name, even thy word, above all.
- 3 In the day when I cried thou answeredst me,
And strengthenedst me with strength in my soul.
- 4 All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O LORD,
When they hear the words of thy mouth.
- 5 Yea, they shall sing of the doings of the LORD :
For great is the glory of the LORD.
- 6 Though the LORD be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly :
Also, the proud he knoweth afar off.
- 7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me :
Thou shalt stretch forth thy hand against the wrath of mine enemies,
And thy right hand shall save me.
- 8 The LORD will perfect that which concerneth me :
Thy mercy, O LORD, endureth for ever :
Forsake not the works of thine own hands.

PSALM CXXXIX.

- 1 O LORD! thou hast searched me, and known me.
- 2 Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising,
Thou understandest my thoughts afar off.
- 8 Thou compassest my path and my lying down,
And art acquainted with all my ways.
- 4 For the word is not yet on my tongue,
But, lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether.
- 5 Thou hast beset me behind and before,
And laid thy hand upon me.
- 6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me ;
It is high, I cannot comprehend it.
- 7 Whither shall I go from thy spirit?
Or whither shall I flee from thy presence?
- 8 If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there :
If I make my bed in the invisible world, behold, thou art there.
- 9 If I take the wings of the morning,
And dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea ;
- 10 Even there shall thy hand lead me,
And thy right hand shall hold me.
- 11 If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me ;
Even the night shall be light about me.
- 12 Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee ;
But the night shineth as the day :
The darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

PSALMS.

- 13 For thou hast formed my reins :
Thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.
- 14 I will praise thee ; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made :
Marvellous are thy works ;
And that my soul knoweth right well.
- 15 My substance was not hid from thee,
When I was made in secret,
And curiously wrought in perfect darkness.
- 16 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being imperfect ;
And in thy book all my members were written,
Which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there were none of them.
- 17 How precious also are thy thoughts concerning me, O God !
How great is the sum of them !
- 18 If I should count them,
They are more in number than the sand :
When I awake, I am still with thee.
- 19 Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O God !
Depart from me therefore, ye men of blood.
- 20 For they speak against thee wickedly,
And thine enemies take thy name in vain.
- 21 Do not I hate them, O LORD, who hate thee ?
And am not I grieved with those who rise up against thee ?
- 22 I hate them with perfect hatred :
I count them mine enemies.
- 23 Search me, O God, and know my heart :
Try me, and know my thoughts :
- 24 And see if there be any wicked way in me,
And lead me in the way everlasting.

PSALM CXL.

- 1 DELIVER me, O LORD, from evil men :
Preserve me from men of violence ;
- 2 Who imagine mischief in their heart ;
Continually are they gathered together for war.
- 3 They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent ;
Adders' poison is under their lips.
- 4 Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked ;
Preserve me from violent men ;
Who have purposed to overthrow my goings.
- 5 The proud have hid a snare for me, and cords ;
They have spread a net by the way side ;
They have set traps for me.
- 6 I said unto the LORD, Thou art my God :
Hear the voice of my supplications, O LORD.
- 7 O God the LORD, the strength of my salvation,
Thou hast covered my head in the day of battle.
- 8 Grant not, O LORD, the desires of the ungodly :
Further not their wicked devices ;
Lest they exalt themselves.
- 9 As for the head of those who compass me about,
The mischief of their own lips shall cover them.
- 10 Burning coals shall fall upon them :
They shall be cast into the fire ;
Into deep pits, that they rise not up again.
- 11 An evil speaker shall not be established in the earth :
Evil shall hunt the man of violence to overthrow him.
- 12 I know that the LORD will maintain the cause of the afflicted,
And the right of the poor.
- 13 Surely the righteous shall give thanks unto thy name :
The upright shall dwell in thy presence.

PSALM CXLI.

- 1 LORD, I cry unto thee : make haste unto me ;
Give ear unto my voice, when I cry unto thee.

PSALMS.

- 2 Let my prayer ascend as incense before thee ;
And the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.
- 3 Set a watch, O LORD, before my mouth ;
Keep the door of my lips.
- 4 Incline not my heart to any evil thing,
To practise wicked works with men who work iniquity :
And let me not eat of their dainties.
- 5 Let the righteous reprove me—it shall be a kindness :
And let him rebuke me—it shall be as an excellent oil, which shall not break my head :
For yet my prayer shall be in their calamities.
- 6 Their chiefs were let go among the rocks,
And heard my words ; for they were consolatory.
- 7 Our bones are scattered at the grave's mouth,
As when one cutteth and cleaveth wood upon the earth.
- 8 But mine eyes are unto thee, O God the Lord :
In thee is my trust ; leave not my soul destitute.
- 9 Keep me from the snares which they have laid for me,
And the gins of the workers of iniquity.
- 10 The wicked shall fall into their own nets,
Whilst that I escape.

PSALM CXLII.

- 1 I CRIED unto the LORD with my voice ;
With my voice unto the LORD did I make my supplication.
- 2 I poured out my complaint before him ;
I showed before him my trouble.
- 3 When my spirit was overwhelmed within me,
Then thou knewest my path.
In the way wherein I walked
Have they secretly laid a snare for me.
- 4 I looked on my right hand, and beheld,
But there was no man who would know me :
Refuge failed me ;
No man cared for my soul.
- 5 I cried unto thee, O LORD :
I said, Thou art my refuge
And my portion in the land of the living.
- 6 Attend unto my cry ; for I am brought very low :
Deliver me from my persecutors ;
For they are stronger than I.
- 7 Bring my soul out of prison,
That I may praise thy name :
The righteous shall compass me about ;
For thou shalt deal bountifully with me.

PSALM CXLIII.

- 1 HEAR my prayer, O LORD,
Give ear to my supplications :
In thy faithfulness answer me, and in thy righteousness.
- 2 And enter not into judgment with thy servant :
For in thy sight shall no man living be justified.
- 3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul ;
He hath smitten my life down to the ground ;
He hath made me to dwell in darkness,
As those who have been long dead.
- 4 Therefore is my spirit overwhelmed within me ;
My heart within me is desolate.
- 5 I remember the days of old ;
I meditate on all thy works ;
I muse on the work of thy hands.
- 6 I stretch forth my hands unto thee :
My soul thirsteth after thee, as a thirsty land.

PSALMS.

- 7 Hear me speedily, O LORD :
My spirit faileth :
Hide not thy face from me,
Lest I be like unto those who go down into the pit.
8 Cause me to experience thy lovingkindness in the morning ;
For in thee do I trust :
Cause me to know the way wherein I should walk ;
For I lift up my soul unto thee.
9 Deliver me, O LORD, from mine enemies :
I flee unto thee to hide me.
10 Teach me to do thy will ;
For thou art my God :
Let thy good spirit lead me in the right way.
11 Revive me, O LORD, for thy name's sake :
For thy righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.
12 And of thy mercy cut off mine enemies,
And destroy all those who afflict my soul :
For I am thy servant.

PSALM CXLIV.

- 1 BLESSED be the LORD my strength,
Who teacheth my hands to war,
And my fingers to fight :
2 My goodness, and my fortress ;
My high tower, and my deliverer ;
My shield, and he in whom I trust ;
Who subdueth the people under me.
3 LORD, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him !
Or the son of man, that thou makest account of him !
4 Man is like a vapour :
His days are as a shadow that passeth away.
5 Bow the heavens, O LORD, and come down :
Touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.
6 Cast forth lightning, and scatter them :
Shoot out thine arrows, and destroy them.
7 Send thy hand from above ;
Rid me, and deliver me out of great waters,
From the hand of strange children ;
8 Whose mouth speaketh vanity,
And their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
9 I will sing a new song unto thee, O God :
Upon a psaltery and an instrument of ten strings will I sing praises unto thee.
10 It is he who giveth victory unto kings :
Who delivereth David his servant from the hurtful sword.
11 Rid me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children,
Whose mouth speaketh vanity,
And their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
12 Let our sons be as plants,
Grown up in their youth ;
Let our daughters be as corner stones,
Polished after the similitude of a palace :
13 Let our garners be full,
Affording all manner of store :
Let our sheep bring forth thousands
And ten thousands in our fields :
14 Let our oxen be strong to labour ;
Let there be no breaking in, nor going out ;
Let there be no complaining in our streets.
15 Happy is that people, who are in such a case :
Yea, happy is that people, whose God is the LORD.

PSALM CXLV.

- 1 I WILL extol thee, my God, O King ;
And I will bless thy name for ever and ever.

PSALMS.

- 2 Every day will I bless thee;
And I will praise thy name for ever and ever.
- 3 Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised;
And his greatness is unsearchable.
- 4 One generation shall praise thy works to another,
And shall declare thy mighty acts.
- 5 I will speak of the glorious honour of thy majesty,
And of thy wondrous works.
- 6 And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts:
And I will declare thy greatness.
- 7 They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness,
And shall sing of thy righteousness.
- 8 The LORD is gracious, and full of compassion;
Slow to anger, and of great mercy.
- 9 The LORD is good to all:
And his tender mercies are over all his works.
- 10 All thy works shall praise thee, O LORD;
And thy saints shall bless thee.
- 11 They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom,
And talk of thy power;
- 12 To make known to the sons of men thy mighty acts,
And the glorious majesty of thy kingdom.
- 13 Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
And thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.
- 14 The LORD upholdeth all who fall,
And raiseth up all those who are bowed down.
- 15 The eyes of all wait upon thee;
And thou givest them their food in due season.
- 16 Thou openest thy hand,
And satisfiest the desire of every living thing.
- 17 The LORD is righteous in all his ways,
And merciful in all his works.
- 18 The LORD is nigh unto all those who call upon him,
To all who call upon him in truth.
- 19 He will fulfil the desire of those who fear him:
He also will hear their cry, and will save them.
- 20 The LORD preserveth all those who love him:
But all the wicked will he destroy.
- 21 My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD:
And let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

PSALM CXLVI.

- 1 PRAISE ye the LORD.
Praise the LORD, O my soul.
- 2 While I live will I praise the LORD:
I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.
- 3 Put not your trust in princes,
Nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.
- 4 His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth;
In that very day his thoughts perish.
- 5 Happy is he who hath the God of Jacob for his help,
Whose hope is in the LORD his God:
- 6 Who made the heavens, and the earth,
The sea, and all that therein is:
Who keepeth truth for ever:
- 7 Who executeth judgment for the oppressed:
Who giveth food to the hungry.
The LORD looseth the prisoners:
- 8 The LORD openeth the eyes of the blind:
The LORD raiseth up those who are bowed down:
The LORD loveth the righteous:
- 9 The LORD preserveth the strangers;

PSALMS.

- He relieveth the fatherless and widow :
But the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.
10 The LORD shall reign for ever,
Even thy God, O Zion, unto all generations.
Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXLVII.

- 1 PRAISE ye the LORD :
For it is good to sing praises unto our God ;
For it is pleasant ; and praise is comely.
2 The LORD doth build up Jerusalem :
He gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.
3 He healeth the broken in heart,
And bindeth up their wounds.
4 He telleth the number of the stars ;
He calleth them all by their names.
5 Great is our LORD, and of great power :
His understanding is infinite.
6 The LORD lifteth up the meek :
He casteth the wicked down to the ground.
7 Sing unto the LORD with thanksgiving ;
Sing praise upon the harp unto our God :
8 Who covereth the heavens with clouds,
Who prepareth rain for the earth,
Who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.
9 He giveth to the beast his food,
And to the young ravens which cry.
10 He delighteth not in the strength of the horse :
He taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man.
11 The LORD taketh pleasure in those who fear him,
In those who hope in his mercy.
12 Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem ;
Praise thy God, O Zion.
13 For he strengtheneth the bars of thy gates ;
He blesseth thy children within thee.
14 He maketh peace in thy borders,
And filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.
15 He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth :
His word runneth very swiftly.
16 He giveth snow like wool :
He scattereth the hoarfrost like ashes.
17 He casteth forth his ice like morsels :
Who can stand before his cold ?
18 He sendeth out his word, and melteth them :
He causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.
19 He sheweth his words unto Jacob,
His statutes and his ordinances unto Israel.
20 He hath not dealt so with any nation :
And as for his judgments, they have not known them.
Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXLVIII.

- 1 PRAISE ye the LORD.
Praise ye the LORD from the heavens :
Praise him in the heights.
2 Praise ye him, all his angels :
Praise ye him, all his hosts.
3 Praise ye him, sun and moon :
Praise him, all ye stars of light.
4 Praise him, ye heavens of heavens,
And ye waters that are above the heavens.
5 Let them praise the name of the LORD :
For he commanded—and they were created.

PSALMS.

- 6 He hath also established them for ever and ever :
He hath made a decree which shall not pass.
- 7 Praise the LORD from the earth,
Ye dragons, and all deeps :
- 8 Fire, and hail ; snow, and vapours ;
Stormy wind fulfilling his word :
- 9 Mountains, and all hills ;
Fruitful trees, and all cedars :
- 10 Beasts, and all cattle ;
Creeping things, and flying birds :
- 11 Kings of the earth, and all people ;
Princes, and all judges of the earth :
- 12 Both young men, and maidens ;
Old men, and children :
- 13 Let them praise the name of the LORD :
For his name alone is to be extolled ;
His glory is above the earth and the heavens.
- 14 He also exalteth the horn of his people,
The praise of all his saints ;
Even of the children of Israel, a people near unto him.
Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXLIX.

- 1 PRAISE ye the LORD.
Sing unto the LORD a new song,
And his praise in the congregation of saints.
- 2 Let Israel rejoice in him who made him :
Let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.
- 3 Let them praise his name in the dance :
Let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp.
- 4 For the LORD taketh pleasure in his people :
He will beautify the meek with salvation.
- 5 Let the saints rejoice gloriously :
Let them sing aloud in their assemblies.
- 6 Let the high praises of God be in their mouth,
And a two-edged sword in their hand ;
- 7 To execute vengeance upon the heathen,
And punishments upon the people ;
- 8 To bind their kings with chains,
And their nobles with fetters of iron ;
- 9 To execute upon them the judgment written :
This honour have all his saints.
Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CL.

- 1 PRAISE ye the LORD.
Praise God in his sanctuary :
Praise him in the firmament of his power.
- 2 Praise him for his mighty acts :
Praise him according to his excellent greatness.
- 3 Praise him with the sound of the trumpet :
Praise him with the psaltery and harp.
- 4 Praise him with the timbrel and dance :
Praise him with stringed instruments and organs.
- 5 Praise him upon the loud cymbals :
Praise him upon the high sounding cymbals.
- 6 Let every thing that hath breath praise the LORD.
Praise ye the LORD.

THE BOOK OF PROVERBS.

- 1 THE PROVERBS OF SOLOMON THE SON OF DAVID, KING OF ISRAEL;
From which we may learn wisdom and instruction;
And understand the sayings of prudence;
3 And receive the instruction of wisdom,
Justice, judgment, and equity;
4 Which give discernment to the inexperienced,
To the young man knowledge and discretion.
5 A wise man will hear, and will increase learning;
And a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels:
6 To understand a proverb, and the interpretation;
The words of the wise, and their dark sayings.
7 THE fear of the LORD is the perfection of knowledge:
But fools despise wisdom and instruction.
8 My son, hear the instruction of thy father,
And forsake not the precepts of thy mother:
9 For they shall be a graceful ornament unto thy head,
And chains about thy neck.
10 My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.
11 If they say, Come with us,
Let us lay wait for blood,
Let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause:
12 Let us swallow them up alive as the grave;
And whole, as those who go down into the pit:
13 We shall find all precious substance,
We shall fill our houses with spoil:
14 Cast in thy lot among us;
Let us all have one purse:
15 My son, walk not thou in the way with them;
Refrain thy foot from their paths:
16 For their feet run to evil,
And make haste to shed blood.
17 For in vain is the net spread out
Before the eyes of any bird.
18 But they lie in wait for their own blood;
They lurk privily for their own lives.
19 Such are the ways of every one who is greedy of gain;
Seducing the soul of him who is enslaved by it.
20 WISDOM crieth aloud in the streets;
She uttereth her voice in the wide places:
21 She crieth in the chief place of concourse,
In the openings of the gates:
In the city she uttereth her words, saying,
22 How long, ye heedless ones, will ye love indiscretion?
And the scoffers delight in their scoffing,
And fools hate knowledge?
23 Turn you at my reproof:
Behold, I will pour out my spirit unto you,
I will make known my words unto you.
24 Because I have called—and ye refused;
I have stretched out my hand—and no man regarded;
25 But ye have set at nought all my counsel,
And would none of my reproof:
26 I also will laugh at your calamity;
I will mock when what you feared cometh;
27 When what you feared cometh as desolation,

- And your destruction advanceth as a whirlwind;
When distress and anguish come upon you.
28 Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer;
They shall seek me early, but they shall not find me.
29 Because they hated knowledge,
And did not choose the fear of the LORD:
30 They would none of my counsel:
And contemptuously rejected all my reproof.
31 Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own ways,
And be filled with their own devices.
32 For the heedlessness of the inconsiderate shall slay them,
And the confidence of fools shall destroy them.
33 But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell in safety;
And shall be quiet from fear of evil.
- 2 MY son, if thou wilt receive my words,
And lay up my commandments with thee;
2 So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom,
And apply thy heart to understanding;
3 Yea, if thou criest after knowledge,
And liftest up thy voice for understanding;
4 If thou seekest her as silver,
And searchest for her as for hidden treasures;
5 Then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD,
And find the knowledge of God.
6 For the LORD giveth wisdom:
Out of his mouth come knowledge and understanding.
7 He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous:
Which is a buckler to those who walk uprightly,
8 To keep them in the paths of prudence,
And he preserveth the way of his saints.
9 Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and wisdom,
And equity; yea, every good path.
10 When wisdom entereth into thy heart,
And knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul;
11 Discretion shall preserve thee,
Understanding shall keep thee:
12 To deliver thee from the way of evil men,
From men who speak perverse things;
13 Who leave the paths of uprightness,
To walk in the ways of darkness;
14 Who rejoice to do evil,
And delight in the perverseness of the wicked;
15 Whose ways are crooked,
And they are perverse in their paths:
16 To deliver thee from the strange woman,
Even from the adulteress, who flattereth with her words;
17 Who forsaketh the guide of her youth,
And forgetteth the covenant of her God.
18 For her house leadeth unto death,
And her paths unto the dead.
19 None who go unto her return again,
Neither take they hold again of the paths of life.
20 That thou mayest walk in the way of good men,
And keep the paths of the righteous.
21 For the upright shall dwell in the land,
And the perfect shall remain in it.
22 But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth,
And the transgressors shall be swept away from it.
- 3 My son, forget not my law;
But let thy heart keep my commandments:
2 For length of days, and many years,
And prosperity, shall they add to thee.
3 Let not mercy and truth forsake thee:
Bind them about thy neck;

PROVERBS III.

- Write them upon the table of thy heart :
- 4 So shalt thou find favour and good understanding
In the sight of God and man.
 - 5 Trust in the LORD with all thy heart ;
And lean not unto thine own understanding.
 - 6 In all thy ways acknowledge him,
And he shall direct thy paths.
 - 7 Be not wise in thine own eyes :
Fear the LORD, and depart from evil.
 - 8 It shall be health to thy flesh,
And marrow to thy bones.
 - 9 Honour the LORD with thy substance,
And with the firstfruits of all thine increase :
 - 10 So shall thy barns be filled with plenty,
And thy presses shall burst out with new wine.
 - 11 My son, despise not the chastening of the LORD ;
Neither be weary of his correction :
 - 12 For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth ;
And chasteneth every son in whom he delighteth.
 - 13 Happy is the man who findeth wisdom,
And the man who getteth understanding.
 - 14 For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver,
And the gain thereof than fine gold.
 - 15 She is more precious than rubies :
And all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.
 - 16 Length of days is in her right hand ;
And in her left hand riches and honour.
 - 17 Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
And all her paths are peace.
 - 18 She is a tree of life to those who lay hold upon her :
And happy is every one who holdeth her fast.
 - 19 The LORD in wisdom hath founded the earth ;
With skill hath he established the heavens.
 - 20 By his knowledge the depths are broken up,
And the clouds drop down the dew.
 - 21 My son, let not them depart from thine eyes :
Keep sound wisdom and discretion :
 - 22 So shall they be life unto thy soul,
And grace to thy neck.
 - 23 Then shalt thou walk in thy way safely,
And thy foot shall not stumble.
 - 24 When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid :
Yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.
 - 25 Thou shalt not be afraid of sudden alarm,
Neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh.
 - 26 For the LORD shall be thy confidence,
And shall keep thy foot from the snare.
 - 27 Withhold not good from those to whom it is due,
When it is in the power of thy hand to do it.
 - 28 Say not unto thy neighbour,
Go, and come again, and to-morrow I will give ;
When thou hast it by thee.
 - 29 Devise not evil against thy neighbour,
Seeing he dwelleth securely by thee.
 - 30 Strive not with a man without cause,
If he have done thee no harm.
 - 31 Envy thou not the oppressor,
And choose none of his ways.
 - 32 For the perverse is an abomination to the LORD :
But his secret is with the righteous.
 - 33 The curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked :
But he blesseth the habitation of the just.
 - 34 Surely he scorneth the scorners :
But he giveth grace unto the lowly.

- 35 The wise shall inherit glory :
But shame shall be the portion of fools.
- 4 Hear, ye children, the instruction of a father,
And attend to know understanding.
- 2 For I give you good counsel,
Forsake ye not my law.
- 3 For I was a son very dear to my father,
And as an only one in the sight of my mother.
- 4 He taught me also, and said unto me,
Let thy heart hold fast my words :
Keep my commandments, and thou shalt live.
- 5 Get wisdom, get understanding :
Forget it not ; and turn not away from the words of my mouth.
- 6 Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee :
Love her, and she shall keep thee.
- 7 Wisdom is the principal thing ; therefore get wisdom :
And with all thy getting get understanding.
- 8 Exalt her, and she shall promote thee :
She shall bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her.
- 9 She shall give to thy head a graceful ornament :
A crown of glory shall she deliver to thee.
- 10 Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings ;
And the years of thy life shall be many.
- 11 I have taught thee in the way of wisdom ;
I have led thee in right paths.
- 12 When thou goest, thy steps shall not be straitened ;
And when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble.
- 13 Take fast hold of instruction ; let her not go :
Keep her ; for she is thy life.
- 14 Enter not into the path of the wicked,
And go not in the way of evil men.
- 15 Avoid it, pass not by it,
Turn from it, and pass away.
- 16 For they sleep not, except they have done mischief ;
And their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.
- 17 For they eat the bread of restlessness,
And drink the wine of violence.
- 18 But the path of the just is as the shining light,
That shineth more and more unto the perfect day.
- 19 The way of the wicked is as thick darkness :
They know not at what they stumble.
- 20 My son, attend to my words ;
Incline thine ear unto my sayings.
- 21 Let them not depart from thine eyes ;
Keep them in the midst of thy heart.
- 22 For they are life unto those who find them,
And health to all their flesh.
- 23 Above all keeping, keep thy heart ;
For out of it are the issues of life.
- 24 Put away from thee frowardness of mouth,
And perverseness of lips put far from thee.
- 25 Let thine eyes look right on,
And let thine eyelids look straight before thee.
- 26 Ponder the path of thy feet,
And all thy ways shall be ordered aright.
- 27 Turn not to the right hand nor to the left :
Remove thy foot from evil.
- 5 My son, attend unto my wisdom,
And incline thine ear to mine understanding :
- 2 That thou mayest regard discretion,
And that thy lips may keep knowledge.
- 3 Cleave not to a strange woman ; for her lips drop as a honeycomb,
And her tongue is smoother than oil ;
- 4 But her end is bitter as wormwood,

PROVERBS VI.

- And sharp as a two-edged sword.
- 5 Her feet go down to death;
Her steps take hold on hell.
 - 6 Lest thou shouldest ponder the path of life,
Her ways are uncertain, that thou canst not know them.
 - 7 Hear me now therefore, O ye children,
And depart not from the words of my mouth.
 - 8 Remove thy way far from her,
And come not nigh the door of her house:
 - 9 Lest thou give thine honour to others,
And thy years unto the cruel:
 - 10 Lest strangers be filled with thy wealth;
And thy labours be in the house of a stranger;
 - 11 And thou mourn at the last,
When the flesh of thy body is consumed,
 - 12 And say, How have I hated instruction,
And my heart despised reproof;
 - 13 And have not obeyed the voice of my teachers,
Nor inclined mine ear to those who instructed me!
 - 14 I was almost in all evil
In the midst of the congregation and assembly.
 - 15 Drink waters out of thine own cistern,
And running waters out of thine own well.
 - 16 Let not thy fountains be dispersed abroad,
And rivers of waters in the streets.
 - 17 Let them be only thine own,
And not strangers' with thee.
 - 18 Let thy fountain be blessed:
And rejoice in the wife of thy youth.
 - 19 Let her be as the loving hind and graceful roe;
Let her endearments satisfy thee at all times;
And delight in her love continually.
 - 20 And why wilt thou, my son, delight in a strange woman,
And embrace the bosom of a stranger?
 - 21 For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD,
And he pondereth all his goings.
 - 22 His own iniquities shall take the wicked man,
And he shall be holden with the cords of his sins.
 - 23 He shall die without correction;
And in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.
- 6 My son, if thou be surety for thy neighbour,
With whom thou art but little acquainted,
2 Thou art ensnared with the words of thy lips,
Thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.
3 Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself,
When thou art come into the hand of thy neighbour;
Go, humble thyself, so shalt thou prevail with him.
- 4 Give not sleep to thine eyes,
Nor slumber to thine eyelids.
 - 5 Deliver thyself as a roe from the hand of the hunter,
And as a bird from the hand of the fowler.
 - 6 Go to the ant, thou sluggard;
Consider her ways, and be wise:
 - 7 Who having no guide, overseer, or ruler,
8 Provideth her food in the summer,
And storeth up provision in the harvest.
 - 9 How long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard?
When wilt thou arise out of thy sleep?
 - 10 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber,
A little folding of the hands to sleep:
 - 11 So shall thy poverty come as a robber on the highway,
And thy want as an armed man.
 - 12 A naughty person, a wicked man,
Walketh with perverseness of lips.

PROVERBS VII.

- 13 He winketh with his eyes,
He speaketh with his feet,
He teacheth with his fingers ;
- 14 Perverseness is in his heart, he deviseth mischief continually ;
He soweth discord.
- 15 Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly ;
Suddenly shall he be broken without remedy.
- 16 These six things doth the LORD hate :
Yea, the seventh is an abomination unto him :
- 17 A proud look, a lying tongue,
And hands that shed innocent blood,
- 18 A heart that deviseth wicked imaginations,
Feet that are swift in running to mischief,
- 19 A false witness who speaketh lies,
And he who soweth discord among brethren.
- 20 My son, keep thy father's commandment,
And forsake not the precepts of thy mother :
- 21 Bind them continually upon thy heart,
And tie them about thy neck.
- 22 When thou walkest, instruction shall lead thee ;
When thou sleepest, it shall keep thee ;
And when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee.
- 23 For the commandment is a lamp ; and the law is light ;
And reproofs of discipline are the way of life :
- 24 To keep thee from the evil woman,
From the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman
- 25 Lust not after her beauty in thy heart ;
Neither let her take thee with her eyelids.
- 26 For by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to a piece of bread :
And the adulteress will hunt for the precious life.
- 27 Can a man take fire in his bosom,
And his clothes not be burnt ?
- 28 Can one go upon hot coals,
And his feet not be scorched ?
- 29 So he who goeth in to his neighbour's wife ;
Whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent.
- 30 Men do not despise a thief,
If he steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry ;
- 31 But if he be found, he shall restore sevenfold ;
He shall give all the substance of his house.
- 32 He who committeth adultery with a woman lacketh understanding :
He who doeth it destroyeth his own soul.
- 33 A wound and dishonour shall he get ;
And his reproach shall not be wiped away.
- 34 For jealousy is the rage of a man :
Therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.
- 35 He will not accept any ransom ;
Neither will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts.
- 7 My son, keep my words,
And lay up my commandments with thee.
- 2 Keep my commandments, and live ;
And my precepts as the apple of thine eye.
- 3 Bind them upon thy fingers,
Write them upon the table of thy heart.
- 4 Say unto wisdom, Thou art my sister ;
And call understanding thy kinswoman :
- 5 That they may keep thee from the adulteress,
From the stranger who flattereth with her words.
- 6 For at the window of my house
I looked through my casement,
And beheld among the thoughtless ones,
I discerned among the youths,
A young man void of understanding,
8 Passing through the street near her corner ;

PROVERBS VIII.

- And he went the way to her house,
 9 In the twilight, in the evening of the day,
 In the blackness and darkness of night :
 10 And, behold, there met him a woman
 With the attire of a harlot, and subtil of heart.
 11 (She is noisy and roving ;
 Her feet abide not in her house :
 12 Now is she without, now in the streets,
 And lieth in wait at every corner.)
 13 So she caught him, and kissed him,
 And with an impudent face said unto him,
 14 I have peace offerings with me ;
 This day have I paid my vows.
 15 Therefore came I forth to meet thee,
 Diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee.
 16 I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry,
 With carved works, with fine linen of Egypt.
 17 I have perfumed my bed
 With myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
 18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning :
 Let us solace ourselves with caresses.
 19 For the householder is not at home,
 He is gone a long journey :
 20 He hath taken a bag of money with him,
 And will come home at the day appointed.
 21 With her plausible speech she caused him to yield,
 With the flattering of her lips she forced him.
 22 He goeth after her straightway,
 As an ox goeth to the slaughter,
 Or as a hart boundeth into the toils,
 23 Till a dart strike through its liver ;
 As a bird hasteneth to the snare,
 And knoweth not that it is for its life.
 24 Hearken unto me now therefore, O my son,
 And attend to the words of my mouth.
 25 Let not thy heart decline to her ways,
 Go not astray in her paths.
 26 For she hath cast down many wounded :
 Yea, many strong men have been slain by her.
 27 Her house is the way to hell,
 Going down to the chambers of death.
- 8 DOTH not wisdom cry aloud ?
 And understanding lift up her voice ?
 2 She standeth in the top of high places,
 By the crossways of the paths.
 3 She crieth aloud at the gates, at the entry of the city,
 At the coming in at the doors.
 4 Unto you, O men, I call ;
 And my appeal is to the sons of man.
 5 O ye inconsiderate, understand wisdom :
 And, ye fools, be ye wise in heart.
 6 Hear ; for I will speak of excellent things ;
 And the opening of my lips shall be right things.
 7 For my mouth shall speak truth ;
 And falsehood is the abomination of my lips.
 8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness ;
 There is nothing crooked or perverse in them.
 9 They are all plain to him who understandeth,
 And right to those who find knowledge.
 10 Receive my instruction rather than silver ;
 And knowledge rather than choice gold.
 11 For wisdom is better than rubies ;
 And all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

PROVERBS IX.

- 12 I wisdom dwell with prudence,
And find out the knowledge of every invention.
- 13 The fear of the LORD is to hate evil :
Pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way,
And the froward mouth, do I hate.
- 14 With me is counsel and sound wisdom :
With me understanding and strength.
- 15 By me kings reign,
And princes decree justice.
- 16 By me princes rule,
And nobles, even all the judges of the earth.
- 17 I love those who love me ;
And those who seek me earnestly shall find me.
- 18 Riches and honour are with me ;
Yea, durable riches and righteousness.
- 19 My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold ;
And my revenue than choice silver.
- 20 I lead in the way of righteousness,
In the midst of the paths of judgment :
- 21 To cause those who love me to inherit substance ;
And I will fill their treasures.
- 22 The LORD possessed me in the beginning of his way,
Before his works of old.
- 23 Of old I was anointed,
From the beginning, or ever the earth was.
- 24 When there were no seas, I was brought forth ;
When there were no fountains abounding with water.
- 25 Before the mountains were settled,
Before the hills was I brought forth.
- 26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the clouds,
Nor the highest part of the dust of the world.
- 27 When he prepared the heavens, I was there :
When he described a circle upon the face of the deep :
- 28 When he established the clouds above :
When he strengthened the fountains of the deep :
- 29 When he gave to the sea his decree,
That the waters should not pass his commandment :
When he appointed the foundations of the earth :
- 30 Then I was by him, as a workman with him :
And I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him ;
- 31 Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth ;
And my delights were with the sons of Adam.
- 32 Now therefore hearken unto me, O ye children :
For blessed are those who keep my ways.
- 33 Hear instruction, and be wise,
And refuse it not.
- 34 Blessed is the man who heareth me,
Watching daily at my gates,
Waiting at the posts of my doors.
- 35 For whoso findeth me findeth life,
And shall obtain favour of the LORD.
- 36 But he who sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul :
All those who hate me love death.
- 9 WISDOM hath built her house,
She hath hewn out her seven pillars :
2 She hath killed her beasts ;
She hath mingled her wine ; she hath also furnished her table.
3 She hath sent forth her maidens :
She crieth upon the highest places of the city,
4 Whoso is inexperienced, let him turn in hither :
As for him who wanteth understanding, she saith to him,
5 Come, eat of my bread,
And drink of the wine which I have mingled.
6 Forsake the foolish, and live ;

- And walk in the way of understanding.
 7 He who reproveth a scoffer getteth to himself shame :
 And he who reproveth a wicked man getteth himself a blot.
 8 Reprove not a scoffer—lest he hate thee :
 Reprove a wise man—and he will love thee.
 9 Give instruction to a wise man—and he will be yet wiser :
 Teach a just man—and he will increase in learning.
 10 The fear of the LORD is the perfection of wisdom :
 And the knowledge of holy things is understanding.
 11 For by me thy days shall be multiplied,
 And the years of thy life shall be increased.
 12 If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for thyself :
 But if thou scoffest, thou alone shalt bear it.
 13 A foolish woman is clamorous :
 She is indiscreet, and knoweth nothing.
 14 For she sitteth at the door of her house,
 On a seat in the high places of the city,
 15 To call passengers
 Who go right on their way :
 16 Whoso is indiscreet, let him turn in hither :
 And she saith to him who wanteth understanding,
 17 Stolen waters are sweet,
 And bread eaten in secret is pleasant.
 18 But he knoweth not that the dead are there ;
 And that her guests are in the depths of hell.

10 THE PROVERBS OF SOLOMON.

- A wise son maketh a happy father :
 But a foolish son is the grief of his mother.
 2 Treasures of wickedness profit nothing :
 But righteousness delivereth from death.
 3 The LORD will not suffer the righteous to famish :
 But he casteth away the substance of the wicked.
 4 He becometh poor who dealeth with a slack hand :
 But the hand of the diligent maketh rich.
 5 He who gathereth in summer is a wise son :
 But he who sleepeth in harvest is a son who causeth shame.
 6 Blessings are upon the head of the just :
 But the mouth of the wicked concealeth violence.
 7 The memory of the just is blessed :
 But the name of the wicked shall rot.
 8 The wise in heart will receive commandments :
 But a prating fool shall fall.
 9 He who walketh uprightly walketh safely :
 But he who perverteth his ways shall be known.
 10 He who winketh with the eye causeth sorrow :
 But a prating fool shall fall.
 11 The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life :
 But the mouth of the wicked concealeth violence.
 12 Hatred stirreth up strifes :
 But love covereth all faults.
 13 In the lips of him who hath understanding wisdom is found :
 But a rod is for the back of him who is void of understanding.
 14 Wise men treasure up knowledge :
 But the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.
 15 The rich man's wealth is his strong city :
 The destruction of the poor is their poverty.
 16 The recompence of the righteous is life :
 The fruit of the wicked is destruction.
 17 He is in the way of life who keepeth instruction :
 But he who refuseth reproof erreth.
 18 He who hideth hatred with lips of deceit,
 And he who uttereth a slander, is a fool.

PROVERBS XI.

- 19 In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin :
But he who restraineth his lips is prudent.
 - 20 The tongue of the just is as choice silver :
The heart of the wicked is little worth.
 - 21 The lips of the righteous feed many :
But fools die for want of wisdom.
 - 22 The blessing of the LORD maketh rich,
And he addeth no sorrow with it.
 - 23 As to do mischief is pleasure to a fool,
So is wisdom to a man of understanding.
 - 24 The fear of the wicked shall come upon him :
But the desire of the righteous shall be granted.
 - 25 As the whirlwind passeth, so the wicked is no more :
But the righteous is an everlasting foundation.
 - 26 As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes,
So is the sluggard to those who send him.
 - 27 The fear of the LORD prolongeth life :
But the years of the wicked shall be shortened.
 - 28 The hope of the righteous is gladness :
But the expectation of the wicked shall perish.
 - 29 The way of the LORD is strength to the upright :
But it is destruction to the workers of iniquity.
 - 30 The righteous shall never be removed :
But the wicked shall not inhabit the earth.
 - 31 The mouth of the just bringeth forth wisdom :
But the treacherous tongue shall be cut out.
 - 32 The lips of the righteous make known what is acceptable :
But the mouth of the wicked, treachery.
- 11 False balances are an abomination to the LORD :
But a just weight is well pleasing to him.
- 2 When pride cometh, then shame will follow :
But with the lowly is wisdom.
 - 3 The integrity of the upright shall guide them :
But the perverseness of transgressors shall destroy them.
 - 4 Riches profit not in the day of wrath :
But righteousness delivereth from death.
 - 5 The righteousness of the upright shall direct his way :
But the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.
 - 6 The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them :
But transgressors shall be ensnared by perverseness.
 - 7 When a wicked man dieth, his expectation is lost :
And the hope of unjust men perisheth.
 - 8 The righteous is delivered out of trouble,
And the wicked cometh in his stead.
 - 9 A hypocrite with his mouth corrupteth his neighbour :
But through knowledge shall the just be delivered.
 - 10 When it goeth well with the righteous, the city rejoiceth :
And when the wicked perish, there is shouting.
 - 11 By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted :
But it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.
 - 12 He who is void of wisdom despiseth his neighbour :
But a man of understanding holdeth his peace.
 - 13 A talebearer going about revealeth secrets :
But he who is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter.
 - 14 Where no counsel is, the people fall :
But in the multitude of counsellors there is safety.
 - 15 He who is surety for a stranger shall smart for it :
And he who hateth suretiship is sure.
 - 16 A gracious woman retaineth honour :
As strong men retain riches.
 - 17 The merciful man doeth good to his own soul :
But he who is cruel troubleth his own flesh.

PROVERBS XII.

- 18 The wicked reapeth the reward of falsehood :
But he who soweth righteousness hath the reward of truth.
 - 19 As righteousness tendeth to life :
So he who pursueth evil pursueth it to his own destruction.
 - 20 Those who are of a treacherous heart are the abomination of the LORD :
But such as are upright in their way are his delight.
 - 21 Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished :
But the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.
 - 22 As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout,
So is beauty in a woman who is without discretion.
 - 23 The desire of the righteous is only good :
But the expectation of the wicked is wrath.
 - 24 There is who scattereth, and yet increaseth ;
And there is who withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty.
 - 25 The liberal soul shall be made fat :
And he who watereth shall be watered also himself.
 - 26 He who withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him :
But blessing shall be upon the head of him who causeth it to be sold.
 - 27 He who diligently seeketh good procureth favour :
But he who seeketh mischief, it shall come unto him.
 - 28 He who trusteth in his riches shall fall :
But the righteous shall flourish as a branch.
 - 29 He who troubleth his own house shall inherit the wind :
And the fool shall be servant to the wise of heart.
 - 30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life ;
And he who winneth souls is wise.
 - 31 Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth :
How much more the wicked and the sinner !
- 12 Whoso loveth instruction loveth knowledge :
But he who hateth reproof is brutish.
 - 2 A good man obtaineth favour from the LORD :
But a man of wicked devices will he condemn.
 - 3 A man shall not be established by wickedness :
But the root of the righteous shall not be moved.
 - 4 A virtuous wife is a crown to her husband :
But she who causeth shame is as rottenness in his bones.
 - 5 The thoughts of the righteous are equitable :
But the counsels of the wicked are deceitful.
 - 6 The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood :
But the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.
 - 7 The wicked are overthrown, and are not :
But the house of the righteous shall stand.
 - 8 A man shall be commended according to his wisdom :
But he who is of a perverse heart shall be despised.
 - 9 He who is despised, and is servant to himself,
Is better than he who honoureth himself, and lacketh bread.
 - 10 A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast :
But the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.
 - 11 He who tilleth his land shall be satisfied with bread :
But he who followeth vain projects is void of understanding.
 - 12 The wicked desireth the net of evil men :
But the branch of the righteous yieldeth fruit.
 - 13 The wicked is snared by the transgression of his lips :
But the just shall come out of trouble.
 - 14 A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth :
And the recompence of a man's hands shall be rendered unto him.
 - 15 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes :
But he who hearkeneth unto counsel is wise.
 - 16 A fool's wrath is presently known :
But a prudent man concealeth contempt.
 - 17 He who speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness :
But a false witness deceit.

PROVERBS XIII.

- 18 There is who speaketh like the piercings of a sword :
But the tongue of the wise is healing.
- 19 The lip of truth shall be established for ever :
But the tongue of falsehood is but for a moment.
- 20 Deceit is in the heart of those who imagine evil :
But to the counsellors of peace is joy.
- 21 There shall no evil happen to the just :
But the wicked shall be filled with mischief.
- 22 Lips of deceit are an abomination to the LORD :
But those who practise truth are his delight.
- 23 A prudent man concealeth what he knoweth :
But the heart of fools proclaimeth foolishness.
- 24 The hand of the diligent shall bear rule :
But the slothful shall be under tribute.
- 25 Heaviness in the heart of man maketh it stoop :
But a kind word maketh it glad.
- 26 The righteous is more excellent than his neighbour :
But the way of the wicked seduceth them.
- 27 The slothful man roasteth not that which he took in hunting :
But the substance of a diligent man is precious.
- 28 In the way of righteousness is life ;
And in the pathway thereof there is no death.

- 13 A wise son loveth his father's instruction :
But a scoffer heareth not rebuke.
- 2 A man shall eat good by the fruit of his mouth :
But the soul of the transgressors shall eat violence.
- 3 He who keepeth his mouth keepeth his life :
But he who openeth wide his lips shall have destruction.
- 4 The soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing :
But the soul of the diligent shall be made fat.
- 5 A righteous man hateth lying :
But a wicked man is odious, and cometh to shame.
- 6 Righteousness keepeth him who is upright in the way :
But wickedness overthroweth the sinner.
- 7 There is who proclaimeth himself rich, yet hath nothing :
There is who proclaimeth himself poor, yet hath great riches.
- 8 The ransom of a man's life are his riches :
But the poor heareth not rebuke.
- 9 The light of the righteous rejoiceth :
But the lamp of the wicked shall be put out.
- 10 A worthless man by pride causeth contention :
But with the well advised is wisdom.
- 11 Wealth gotten hastily shall be diminished :
But that which is gathered by labour shall increase.
- 12 Hope deferred maketh the heart sick :
But when the desire cometh, it is a tree of life.
- 13 Whoso despiseth the word shall be destroyed :
But he who feareth the commandment shall be in peace.
- 14 The law of the wise is a fountain of life,
To turn him from the snares of death.
- 15 Good understanding procureth favour :
But the way of transgressors is hard.
- 16 Every prudent man dealeth with knowledge :
But a fool layeth open his folly.
- 17 A wicked messenger falleth into mischief :
But a faithful ambassador is a healing medicine.
- 18 Poverty and shame shall be to him who refuseth instruction :
But he who regardeth reproof shall be honoured.
- 19 The desire accomplished is sweet to the soul :
But it is abomination to fools to depart from evil.
- 20 He who walketh with wise men shall be wise :
But a companion of fools shall be destroyed.

- 21 Evil pursueth sinners :
But good shall recompense the righteous.
- 22 A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children :
And the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just.
- 23 Much food is in the tillage of the poor :
But wealth is squandered for want of judgment.
- 24 He who spareth his rod hateth his son :
But he who loveth him chasteneth him betimes.
- 25 The righteous eateth to the satisfying of his soul :
But the belly of the wicked shall want.

- 14 Every wise woman buildeth up her house :
But the foolish plucketh it down with her hands.
- 2 He who walketh in his uprightness feareth the LORD :
But he who is perverse in his ways despiseth him.
- 3 In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride :
But the lips of the wise shall preserve them.
- 4 Where no oxen are, the crib is clean :
But much increase is by the strength of the ox.
- 5 A faithful witness will not deceive :
But a false witness will utter lies.
- 6 A scoffer seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not :
But knowledge is easy unto him who hath understanding.
- 7 Go from the presence of a foolish man,
When thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge.
- 8 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way :
But the folly of fools is deceit.
- 9 Fools make a mock at sin :
But among the righteous there is favour.
- 10 The heart knoweth its own bitterness ;
And a stranger doth not intermeddle with its joy.
- 11 The house of the wicked shall be overthrown :
But the tabernacle of the upright shall flourish.
- 12 There is a way which seemeth right unto a man,
But the end of it leadeth to death.
- 13 Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful ;
And the end of that mirth is heaviness.
- 14 The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways :
And a good man shall be satisfied from himself.
- 15 The credulous believeth every word :
But the prudent man looketh well to his going.
- 16 A wise man feareth, and departeth from evil :
But the fool rageth, and is confident.
- 17 He who is soon angry dealeth foolishly :
And a man of wicked devices is hated.
- 18 The inconsiderate have folly for an inheritance :
But the prudent are crowned with knowledge.
- 19 The evil bow before the good ;
And the wicked at the gates of the righteous.
- 20 The poor is hated even of his own neighbour :
But the rich hath many friends.
- 21 He who despiseth his neighbour sinneth :
But he who hath mercy on the poor, happy is he.
- 22 Do they not err who devise evil ?
But mercy and truth shall be to those who devise good.
- 23 In all labour there is profit :
But the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury.
- 24 The crown of the wise is their riches :
But the foolishness of fools is mere folly.
- 25 A faithful witness delivereth souls :
But a deceitful witness speaketh lies.
- 26 In the fear of the LORD is strong confidence :
And to his children it shall be a refuge.

- 27 The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life,
To him who departeth from the snares of death.
- 28 In the multitude of people is the king's honour:
But in the want of people is the destruction of the prince.
- 29 He who is slow to wrath is of great understanding:
But he who is hasty of spirit exalteth folly.
- 30 A sound heart is life to the flesh:
But envy is rottenness to the bones.
- 31 He who oppresseth the poor reproacheth his Maker:
But he who honoureth him hath mercy on the poor.
- 32 The wicked is driven away in his wickedness:
But the righteous hath hope in his death.
- 33 Wisdom resteth in the heart of him who hath understanding:
But that which is in the midst of fools will be known.
- 34 Righteousness exalteth a nation:
But sin is a reproach to any people.
- 35 The king's favour is towards a wise servant:
But his wrath is against him who causeth shame.

- 15 A soft answer turneth away wrath:
But provoking words stir up anger.
- 2 The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright:
But the mouth of fools poureth out streams of folly.
 - 3 The eyes of the LORD are in every place,
Beholding the evil and the good.
 - 4 A wholesome tongue is a tree of life:
But perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit.
 - 5 A fool despiseth his father's instruction:
But he who regardeth reproof is prudent.
 - 6 In the house of the righteous is much treasure:
But in the revenues of the wicked is trouble.
 - 7 The lips of the wise disperse knowledge:
But the heart of the foolish doth not so.
 - 8 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD:
But the prayer of the upright is his delight.
 - 9 The way of the wicked is an abomination unto the LORD:
But he loveth him who followeth after righteousness.
 - 10 Correction is grievous unto him who forsaketh the way:
And he who hateth reproof shall die.
 - 11 Hell and destruction are before the LORD:
How much more then the hearts of the children of men?
 - 12 A scoffer loveth not one who reproveth him:
Neither will he go unto the wise.
 - 13 A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance:
But by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken.
 - 14 The heart of him who hath understanding seeketh knowledge:
But the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness.
 - 15 All the days of the afflicted are evil:
But a merry heart is a continual feast.
 - 16 Better is little with the fear of the LORD
Than great treasure and trouble therewith.
 - 17 Better is a dinner of herbs where love is,
Than a stalled ox and hatred therewith.
 - 18 A wrathful man stirreth up strife:
But he who is slow to anger appeaseth strife.
 - 19 The way of the slothful man is as a hedge of thorns:
But the way of the righteous is made plain.
 - 20 A wise son maketh a glad father:
But a foolish son despiseth his mother.
 - 21 Folly is joy to him who is destitute of wisdom:
But a man of understanding walketh uprightly.
 - 22 Without counsel purposes are disappointed:
But in the multitude of counsellors they are established.

PROVERBS XVI.

- 23 A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth :
And a word spoken in due season, how good is it !
 - 24 The way of life is above to the wise,
That he may depart from hell beneath.
 - 25 The LORD will destroy the house of the proud :
But he will establish the border of the widow.
 - 26 Evil thoughts are an abomination to the LORD :
But the words of the pure are words of pleasantness.
 - 27 He who is greedy of gain troubleth his own house :
But he who hateth bribes shall live.
 - 28 The heart of the righteous studieth to answer :
But the mouth of the wicked poureth out streams of wickedness.
 - 29 The LORD is far from the wicked :
But he heareth the prayer of the righteous.
 - 30 The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart :
And a good report maketh the bones fat.
 - 31 The ear that heareth the reproof of life
Abideth among the wise.
 - 32 He who rejecteth discipline despiseth his own soul :
But he who heareth reproof getteth understanding.
 - 33 The fear of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom ;
And before honour is humility.
- 16 The disposings of the heart are of man ;
But the answer of the tongue is from the LORD.
- 2 All the ways of a man are pure in his own eyes ;
But the LORD weigheth the spirits.
 - 3 Commit thy works unto the LORD,
And thy purposes shall be established.
 - 4 The LORD hath made all things to subserve his designs ;
Yea, even the wicked in the day of calamity.
 - 5 All pride of heart is an abomination to the LORD :
Though hand join in hand, it shall not be unpunished.
 - 6 By mercy and truth iniquity is taken away :
And by the fear of the LORD men depart from evil.
 - 7 When a man's ways please the LORD,
He maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.
 - 8 Better is a little with righteousness
Than great revenues without right.
 - 9 A man's heart deviseth his way :
But the LORD directeth his steps.
 - 10 A divine sentence is in the lips of the king :
His mouth transgresseth not in judgment.
 - 11 A just weight and balance are the LORD'S :
All the weights of the bag are his work.
 - 12 It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness :
For the throne is established by righteousness.
 - 13 Righteous lips are the delight of kings ;
And they love him who speaketh uprightly.
 - 14 The wrath of a king is as messengers of death :
But a wise man will pacify it.
 - 15 In the light of the king's countenance is life ;
And his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain.
 - 16 How much better is it to get wisdom than gold ?
And understanding is rather to be chosen than silver.
 - 17 The highway of the upright is to depart from evil :
He who keepeth his way preserveth his soul.
 - 18 Pride goeth before destruction,
And a haughty spirit before a fall.
 - 19 Better it is to be of a humble spirit with the lowly,
Than to divide the spoil with the proud.
 - 20 He who handleth a matter wisely shall find good :
And whoso trusteth in the LORD, happy is he.

PROVERBS XVII.

- 21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent :
And the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning
 - 22 Understanding is a wellspring of life unto him who hath it :
But folly is the chastisement of fools.
 - 23 The heart of the wise teacheth his mouth discretion,
And addeth persuasion to his lips.
 - 24 Pleasant words are as a honeycomb,
Sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.
 - 25 There is a way that seemeth right unto a man,
But the end of it leadeth to death.
 - 26 He who laboureth laboureth for himself ;
For his mouth compelleth him to it.
 - 27 An ungodly man diggeth up evil :
And in his lips there is as a burning fire.
 - 28 A froward man soweth strife ;
And a whisperer separateth chief friends.
 - 29 A violent man enticeth his neighbour,
And leadeth him into the way that is not good.
 - 30 He who winketh with his eyes deviseth perverse things :
And he who muttereth with his lips bringeth evil to pass.
 - 31 The hoary head is a crown of glory,
If it be found in the way of righteousness.
 - 32 He who is slow to anger is better than the mighty ;
And he who ruleth his spirit than he who taketh a city.
 - 33 The lot is cast into the lap ;
But the whole determination of it is of the LORD.
- 17 Better is a dry morsel, and quietness therewith,
Than a house full of feasting with strife.
- 2 A wise servant shall have rule over a profligate son,
And shall have part of the inheritance among the brethren.
 - 3 The fining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold :
But the LORD trieth the hearts.
 - 4 A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips ;
And a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue.
 - 5 Whoso mocketh the poor reproacheth his Maker :
And he who is glad at calamities shall not be unpunished.
 - 6 Children's children are the crown of old men ;
And the glory of children are their fathers.
 - 7 Excellent speech becometh not a fool :
Much less do lying lips a prince.
 - 8 A gift is as a precious stone in the eyes of him who hath it :
Whithersoever it turneth, it is excellent.
 - 9 He who covereth a transgression secureth love ;
But he who repeateth a matter separateth intimate friends.
 - 10 A reproof entereth more into a wise man
Than a hundred stripes into a fool.
 - 11 An evil man seeketh only rebellion :
Therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.
 - 12 Let a bear robbed of her whelps meet a man,
Rather than a fool in his folly.
 - 13 Whoso returneth evil for good,
Evil shall not depart from his house.
 - 14 The beginning of strife is as when one openeth floodgates :
Therefore leave off contention, before it breaketh out.
 - 15 He who justifieth the wicked, and he who condemneth the just,
Even they both are an abomination to the LORD.
 - 16 Wherefore is there a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, Seeing he hath no heart to it ?
 - 17 A friend loveth at all times,
And a brother is born for adversity.
 - 18 A man void of understanding striketh hands,
And becometh surety for his neighbour.

- 19 He loveth transgression who loveth strife:
And he who exalteth his gate seeketh destruction.
- 20 He who hath a froward heart findeth no good:
And he who hath a perverse tongue falleth into mischief.
- 21 He who begetteth a fool doeth it to his sorrow:
And the father of a fool hath no joy.
- 22 A merry heart doeth good like a medicine:
But a broken spirit drieth the bones.
- 23 A wicked man taketh a bribe out of the bosom
To pervert the course of justice.
- 24 Wisdom is before him who hath understanding;
But the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.
- 25 A foolish son is a grief to his father,
And bitterness to her who bore him.
- 26 Also to punish the just is not good,
Nor to strike princes for their equity.
- 27 He who hath knowledge spareth his words:
And a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit.
- 28 Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise:
And he who shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding.

- 18 The self-conceited seeketh his own desire;
He ridiculeth all sound wisdom.
- 2 A fool hath no delight in understanding,
But in discovering the thoughts of his heart.
- 3 When the wicked cometh, then cometh also the scoffer,
And with ignominy reproach.
- 4 The words of a man's mouth are as deep waters,
And the wellspring of wisdom as a flowing brook.
- 5 It is not good to accept the person of the wicked,
To overthrow the righteous in judgment.
- 6 A fool's lips enter into contention,
And his mouth provoketh blows.
- 7 A fool's mouth is his destruction,
And his lips are the snare of his soul.
- 8 The words of a talebearer are greedily swallowed,
And they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.
- 9 He who is slothful in his work
Is brother to him who is a great waster.
- 10 The name of the LORD is a strong tower:
The righteous runneth into it, and is safe.
- 11 The rich man's wealth is his strong city,
And as a high wall in his own conceit.
- 12 Before destruction the heart of man is haughty,
And before honour is humility.
- 13 He who answereth a matter before he heareth it,
It is folly and shame unto him.
- 14 The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity;
But a wounded spirit who can bear?
- 15 The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge;
And the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.
- 16 A man's gift maketh room for him,
And bringeth him before great men.
- 17 He who is first in his own cause seemeth just;
But his neighbour cometh and searcheth him.
- 18 The lot causeth contentions to cease,
And parteth between the mighty.
- 19 A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city:
And their contentions are like the bars of a castle.
- 20 A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth;
And with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.
- 21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue:
And those who love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

PROVERBS XIX.

- 22 Whoso findeth a good wife findeth a good thing,
And obtaineth a favour of the LORD.
- 23 The poor useth entreaties;
But the rich answereth roughly.
- 24 A man who hath friends must show himself friendly:
And there is a friend who sticketh closer than a brother.
- 19 Better is the poor who walketh in his integrity,
Than he who is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.
 - 2 Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good;
And he who hasteneth with his feet sinneth.
 - 3 The foolishness of man perverteth his way:
And his heart fretteth against the LORD.
 - 4 Wealth maketh many friends;
But the poor is separated from his neighbour.
 - 5 A false witness shall not be unpunished,
And he who speaketh lies shall not escape.
 - 6 Many will entreat the favour of the prince:
And every man is a friend to him who giveth gifts.
 - 7 All the brethren of the poor do hate him:
How much more do his friends go far from him?
He pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.
 - 8 He who getteth wisdom loveth his own soul:
He who keepeth understanding shall find good.
 - 9 A false witness shall not be unpunished,
And he who speaketh lies shall perish.
 - 10 Authority is not seemly for a fool;
Much less for a servant to have rule over princes.
 - 11 The discretion of a man deferreth his anger;
And it is his glory to pass over a transgression.
 - 12 The king's wrath is as the roaring of a lion;
But his favour is as dew upon the grass.
 - 13 A foolish son is the calamity of his father:
And the contentions of a wife are a continual dropping.
 - 14 House and riches are the patrimony of fathers:
But a prudent wife is from the LORD.
 - 15 Slothfulness casteth into a deep sleep;
And an idle soul shall suffer hunger.
 - 16 He who keepeth the commandment of God keepeth his own soul;
But he who despiseth his ways shall die.
 - 17 He who hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the LORD;
And his recompence will be rendered unto him.
 - 18 Chasten thy son while there is hope,
And let not thy soul spare him to his ruin.
 - 19 A man of great wrath shall suffer punishment:
For if thou deliver him, yet thou must do it again.
 - 20 Hear counsel, and receive instruction,
That thou mayest be wise in thy latter end.
 - 21 There are many devices in a man's heart;
Nevertheless the counsel of the LORD, that shall stand.
 - 22 A desirable thing in a man is his kindness:
And a poor man is better than a liar.
 - 23 The fear of the LORD tendeth to life:
And he who hath it shall abide satisfied;
He shall not be visited with evil.
 - 24 A slothful man dippeth his hand in the dish,
But will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.
 - 25 Smite a scoffer, and the thoughtless will beware:
And reprove one who hath understanding, and he will understand knowledge.
 - 26 He who robbeth his father, and driveth away his mother,
Is a son who causeth shame, and bringeth reproach.
 - 27 Cease, my son, to hear the instruction
That leadeth astray from the words of knowledge.

PROVERBS XX.

- 28 An ungodly witness scorneth judgment:
And the mouth of the wicked devoureth iniquity.
- 29 Judgments are prepared for scoffers,
And stripes for the back of fools.
- 20 Wine mocketh, strong drink rageth:
And whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.
- 2 The wrath of a king is as the roaring of a lion:
Whoso provoketh him to anger sinneth against his own life.
- 3 It is an honour for a man to cease from strife:
But every fool will be meddling.
- 4 The sluggard will not plough by reason of the cold;
Therefore shall he seek in harvest, and have nothing.
- 5 Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water;
But a man of understanding will draw it out.
- 6 Many men proclaim their own goodness:
But a faithful man who can find?
- 7 The just man walketh in his integrity:
His children are blessed after him.
- 8 A king who sitteth in the throne of judgment
Scattereth away all evil with his eyes.
- 9 Who can say, I have made my heart clean,
I am pure from my sin?
- 10 Deceitful weights and measures,
Both of them are alike abomination to the LORD.
- 11 Even a child is known by his doings,
Whether his actions be pure, and whether they be right.
- 12 The hearing ear, and the seeing eye,
The LORD hath made even both of them.
- 13 Love not sleep, lest thou come to poverty;
Open thine eyes, and thou shalt be satisfied with bread.
- 14 It is bad! it is bad! saith the buyer:
But when he goeth away, then he boasteth.
- 15 There is gold, and a multitude of rubies:
But the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.
- 16 Take his garment who is surety for another:
And take his pledge for the debts of a stranger.
- 17 Bread got by lying is sweet to a man;
But afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel.
- 18 Every purpose is established by counsel:
And with good advice make war.
- 19 He who goeth about as a talebearer revealeth secrets:
Therefore meddle not with him who flattereth with his lips.
- 20 Whoso revileth his father or his mother,
His lamp shall be put out in blackness of darkness.
- 21 An inheritance may be gotten hastily at the beginning;
But the end thereof shall not be blessed.
- 22 Say not thou, I will revenge evil;
But wait on the LORD, and he shall save thee.
- 23 Deceitful weights are an abomination unto the LORD;
And a false balance is not good.
- 24 Man's goings are of the LORD;
How then can a man understand his own way?
- 25 It is a snare to the man who devoureth that which is holy,
And after vows to make inquiry.
- 26 A wise king scattereth the wicked,
And bringeth again the wheel over them.
- 27 The spirit of man is the lamp of the LORD,
Searching all the inward parts of the belly.
- 28 Mercy and truth preserve the king:
And his throne is upholden by mercy.
- 29 The glory of young men is their strength:
And the beauty of old men is the gray head.

- 30 As the suppuration of a wound cleanseth away the evil ;
So do stripes the inward thoughts of the mind.

- 21 The king's heart in the hand of the LORD is as the rivers of water
He turneth it whithersoever he will.
- 2 Every way of a man is right in his own eyes :
But the LORD pondereth the hearts.
- 3 To do justice and judgment
Is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.
- 4 Haughty looks, and a proud heart,
And the splendour of the wicked, are sin.
- 5 The plans of the diligent tend only to plenteousness ;
But of every one who is hasty only to want.
- 6 The getting of treasures by a lying tongue
Is a vanity dispelled by the messengers of death.
- 7 The robbery of the wicked shall destroy them ;
Because they refuse to work righteousness.
- 8 The way of man is unsteady and strange :
But as for the pure, his work is right.
- 9 It is better to dwell in a corner of the housetop,
Than with a contentious wife in a wide house.
- 10 The soul of the wicked desireth evil :
His neighbour findeth no favour in his eyes.
- 11 When the scoffer is punished, the inconsiderate is made wise :
And when the wise is instructed, he receiveth knowledge.
- 12 The righteous man wisely considereth the house of the wicked,
The overthrowing of the wicked for their wickedness.
- 13 Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor,
He also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard.
- 14 A gift in secret pacifieth anger :
And a bribe in the bosom strong wrath.
- 15 It is joy to the just to do judgment :
But destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.
- 16 The man who wandereth out of the way of understanding Shall remain in the congregation of the dead.
- 17 He who loveth pleasure shall be a poor man :
He who loveth wine and oil shall not be rich.
- 18 The wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous,
And the transgressor for the upright.
- 19 It is better to dwell in the wilderness,
Than with a contentious and an angry wife.
- 20 Desirable treasure and oil are in the dwelling of the wise ;
But a foolish man devoureth them.
- 21 He who followeth after righteousness and mercy
Findeth life, righteousness, and honour.
- 22 A wise man scaleth the city of the mighty,
And casteth down the strength of the confidence thereof.
- 23 Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue
Keepeth his soul from troubles.
- 24 Proud and haughty scoffer is his name,
Who dealeth in proud wrath.
- 25 The desire of the slothful killeth him ;
For his hands refuse to labour.
- 26 He coveteth greedily all the day long :
But the righteous giveth and spareth not.
- 27 The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination :
Because he bringeth it with a wicked mind.
- 28 A false witness shall perish :
But the true witness speaketh convincingly.
- 29 A wicked man hardeneth his face :
But as for the upright, he considereth his way.
- 30 There is no wisdom nor understanding Nor counsel against the LORD.

- 31 The horse is prepared against the day of battle :
But victory is of the LORD.

- 22 A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches,
And loving favour rather than silver and gold.
2 The rich and poor meet together :
The LORD is the maker of them all.
3 A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself :
But the inconsiderate pass on, and are punished.
4 By humility and the fear of the LORD
Are riches, honour, and life.
5 Thorns and snares are in the way of the perverse :
He who keepeth his soul shall be far from them.
6 Train up a child in the way he should go :
And when he is old, he will not depart from it.
7 The rich ruleth over the poor,
And the borrower is servant to the lender.
8 He who soweth iniquity shall reap affliction :
And the rod of his anger shall be consumed.
9 He who hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed ;
For he giveth of his bread to the poor.
10 Cast out the scoffer, and contention shall go out ;
Yea, strife and reproach shall cease.
11 He who loveth pureness of heart,
And hath grace in his lips, the king shall be his friend.
12 The eyes of the LORD preserve those who keep knowledge,
And he overthroweth the words of the transgressor.
13 The slothful man saith, There is a lion without,
I shall be slain in the streets.
14 The mouth of a strange woman is a deep pit :
He who is abhorred of the LORD shall fall therein.
15 Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child ;
But the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.
16 He who oppresseth the poor to increase his riches,
And he who giveth to the rich, shall surely come to want.
17 BOW down thine ear, and hear the words of the wise,
And apply thy heart unto my knowledge.
18 For it is a pleasant thing if thou keep them within thee ;
If they be established on thy lips.
19 That thy trust may be in the LORD,
I have made known to thee this day, even to thee.
20 Have not I written to thee excellent things
In counsels and knowledge,
21 That I might make thee know the certainty of the words of truth ;
That thou mightest answer the words of truth to those who send thee ?
22 Rob not the poor, because he is poor :
Neither oppress the afflicted in the gate :
23 For the LORD will plead their cause,
And spoil the soul of those who spoil them.
24 Make no friendship with a passionate man ;
And with a wrathful man have no acquaintance ;
25 Lest thou learn his ways,
And bring thyself into a snare.
26 Be not thou one of those who strike hands,
Or of those who are sureties for debts.
27 If thou hast nothing to pay,
Why should thy bed be taken away from under thee ?
28 Remove not the ancient landmark, which thy fathers have set.
29 Seest thou a man diligent in his business ?
He shall stand before kings ;
He shall not stand before mean men.

- 23 When thou sittest to eat with a ruler,
Consider well in whose presence thou art :

- 2 And put a restraint to thy throat,
If thou be a man given to appetite.
- 3 Be not desirous of his dainties :
For they are deceitful food.
- 4 Labour not to be rich :
Cease from thine own wisdom.
- 5 Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not ?
For riches certainly make themselves wings ;
They fly away as an eagle towards the heavens.
- 6 Eat thou not the bread of him who hath a grudging eye,
Neither desire thou his dainty food.
- 7 For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he :
He will say to thee, Eat and drink ;
But his heart is not with thee.
- 8 The morsel which thou hast eaten shalt thou vomit up,
And retract thy thankful words.
- 9 Speak not in the ear of a fool :
For he will despise the wisdom of thy words.
- 10 Remove not the old landmark ;
Nor encroach on the fields of the fatherless :
- 11 For their protector is mighty ;
He shall plead their cause with thee.
- 12 Apply thy heart unto instruction,
And thine ears to the words of knowledge.
- 13 Withhold not correction from the child :
For if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die.
- 14 Thou shalt beat him with the rod,
And shalt deliver his soul from hell.
- 15 My son, if thy heart be wise,
My heart shall rejoice, even mine.
- 16 Yea, my reins shall rejoice,
When thy lips speak right things.
- 17 Let not thy heart envy sinners :
But be thou in the fear of the LORD all the day long.
- 18 For surely there is a future recompence ;
And thine expectation shall not be cut off.
- 19 Hear thou, my son, and be wise,
And guide thy heart in the way.
- 20 Be not among winebibbers ;
Among gluttonous eaters of flesh :
- 21 For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty :
And drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.
- 22 Hearken unto thy father who begat thee,
And despise not thy mother when she is old.
- 23 Buy the truth, and sell it not ;
Also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.
- 24 The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice :
And he who begetteth a wise child shall have joy of him.
- 25 Thy father and thy mother shall be glad,
And she who bore thee shall rejoice.
- 26 My son, give me thy heart,
And let thine eyes observe my ways.
- 27 For a whore is a deep ditch ;
And a strange woman is a narrow pit.
- 28 She also lieth in wait as for a prey,
And increaseth the transgressors among men.
- 29 Who hath woe ? who hath sorrow ?
Who hath contentions ? who hath babbling ?
Who hath wounds without cause ? who hath redness of eyes ?
- 30 Those who tarry long at the wine ;
Those who go to seek mixed wine.
- 31 Look not thou upon the wine when it sparkleth,
When it giveth its colour in the cup, when it goeth down smoothly :

- 32 For at last it biteth like a serpent,
And stingeth like an adder.
33 Thine eyes shall behold strange women,
And thy heart shall utter perverse things.
34 Yea, thou shalt be as he who lieth down in the midst of the sea,
Or as he who lieth upon the top of a mast.
35 They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sick ;
They have beaten me, and I felt it not :
When shall I awake ? I will seek it yet again and again.

- 24 Be not thou cnvious against evil men,
Neither desire to be with them.
2 For their heart studieth destruction,
And their lips talk of mischief.
3 Through wisdom is a house built ;
And by understanding it is established :
4 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled
With all precious and pleasant riches.
5 A wise man prevaieth over the mighty ;
And a man of knowledge over the powerful.
6 For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war :
And in multitude of counsellors there is safety.
7 Wisdom is too high for a fool :
He openeth not his mouth in the gate.
8 He who deviseth to do evil
Shall be called a mischievous person.
9 The thought of foolishness is sin :
And the scoffer is an abomination to men.
10 If thou faint in the day of adversity,
Thy strength is small.
11 If thou forbear to deliver those who are hurried away to death,
And those who are ready to be slain ;
12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not ;
Doth not he who pondereth the heart consider it ?
And he who keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it ?
And shall not he render to every man according to his works ?
13 My son, thou eatest honey, because it is good ;
And the honeycomb, which is sweet to thy taste :
14 So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul :
When thou hast found it, then there shall be a reward,
And thy expectation shall not be cut off.
15 Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous ;
Spoil not his resting place :
16 For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again :
But the wicked are overwhelmed with evil.
17 Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth,
And let not thy heart be glad when he stumbleth :
18 Lest the LORD see it, and it displease him,
And he turn away his wrath from him.
19 Fret not thyself because of evil men,
Neither be thou envious at the wicked ;
20 For there shall be no reward to the evil man ;
The lamp of the wicked shall be put out.
21 My son, fear thou the LORD and the king :
And meddle not with those who are given to change :
22 For their calamity shall rise suddenly ;
And who knoweth the ruin of them both ?
23 These things also belong to the wise.
It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment.
24 He who saith unto the wicked, Thou art righteous ;
Him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him :
25 But to those who rebuke him shall be delight,
And a blessing of good shall come upon them.

- 26 Every man shall kiss his lips
Who giveth a right answer.
- 27 Prepare thy work without,
And make it fit for thyself in the field ;
And afterwards build thy house.
- 28 Be not a witness against thy neighbour without cause ;
And deceive not with thy lips.
- 29 Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me :
I will render to the man according to his work.
- 30 I went by the field of the slothful,
And by the vineyard of the man void of understanding ;
- 31 And, lo, it was all grown over with thorns,
And nettles had covered the face thereof,
And the stone wall thereof was broken down.
- 32 Then I saw, and considered it well :
I looked upon it, and received instruction.
- 33 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber,
A little folding of the hands to sleep :
- 34 So shall thy poverty come as an invader ;
And want as an armed man.

25 THESE ARE ALSO PROVERBS OF SOLOMON,
WHICH THE SCRIBES OF HEZEKIAH KING OF JUDAH COPIED OUT.

- 2 It is the glory of God to conceal a thing :
But the honour of kings is to search out a matter.
- 3 The heavens for height, and the earth for depth,
And there is no searching the heart of kings.
- 4 Take away the dross from the silver,
And there shall come forth a vessel for the finer.
- 5 Take away the wicked from before the king,
And his throne shall be established in righteousness.
- 6 Put not forth thyself in the presence of the king,
And stand not in the place of great men :
- 7 For better it is that it be said unto thee, Come up hither ;
Than that thou shouldest be put lower
In the presence of the prince whom thine eyes have seen.
- 8 Enter not hastily into contention,
Lest thou know not what to do in the end thereof,
When thy neighbour hath put thee to shame.
- 9 Debate thy cause with thy neighbour himself ;
And discover not a secret to another :
- 10 Lest he who heareth it put thee to shame,
And thine infamy turn not away.
- 11 A word seasonably spoken
Is like apples of gold in baskets of silver.
- 12 As an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold,
So is a wise reprover upon an obedient ear.
- 13 As the cold of snow in the time of harvest,
So is a faithful messenger to those who send him :
For he refresheth the soul of his masters.
- 14 Whoso boasteth himself of a false gift
Is like clouds and wind without rain.
- 15 By long forbearing is a prince persuaded,
And a soft tongue breaketh the bone.
- 16 Hast thou found honey ? eat so much only as is sufficient for thee,
Lest thou be filled therewith, and vomit it.
- 17 Let thy foot be seldom in thy neighbour's house ;
Lest he be weary of thee, and so hate thee.
- 18 A man who beareth false witness against his neighbour
Is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow.
- 19 Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble
Is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint.
- 20 As he who taketh away a garment in cold weather,

- And as vinegar upon soda,
So is he who singeth songs to a heavy heart.
- 21 If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat;
And if he be thirsty, give him water to drink:
- 22 For thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head,
And the LORD shall reward thee.
- 23 As the north wind driveth away rain,
So doth an angry countenance a backbiting tongue.
- 24 It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop,
Than with a contentious wife and in a large house.
- 25 As cold waters to one who is thirsty,
So are good news from a far country.
- 26 A righteous man erring before the wicked
Is as a troubled fountain, and a corrupt spring.
- 27 It is not good to eat much honey:
So for men to seek their own glory is not glorious.
- 28 He who hath no rule over his own spirit
Is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.
- 26 As snow in summer, and as rain in harvest,
So honour becometh not a fool.
- 2 As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying,
So the curse causeless shall not come.
- 3 A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass,
And a rod for the fool's back.
- 4 Answer not a fool according to his folly,
Lest thou also be like unto him.
- 5 Answer a fool as he deserveth,
Lest he be wise in his own conceit.
- 6 He who sendeth a message by the hand of a fool
Cutteth off the feet, and drinketh damage.
- 7 The legs of the lame are not equal:
So is a parable in the mouth of fools.
- 8 As he who bindeth a stone in a sling,
So is he who giveth honour to a fool.
- 9 As a thorn goeth up into the hand of a drunkard,
So is a parable in the mouth of fools.
- 10 Every drunkard causeth much grief;
And the fool and drunkard are transgressors.
- 11 As a dog returneth to his vomit,
So a fool returneth to his folly.
- 12 Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit?
There is more hope of a fool than of him.
- 13 The slothful man saith, There is a lion in the way;
A lion is in the streets.
- 14 As the door turneth upon its hinges,
So doth the slothful upon his bed.
- 15 The slothful putteth his hand in his bosom;
But it grieveth him to bring it again to his mouth.
- 16 The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit
Than seven men who can render a reason.
- 17 He who passeth by, and meddleth with strife belonging not to him
Is like one who taketh a dog by the ears.
- 18 As a mad man who casteth firebrands, arrows, and death,
So is the man who deceiveth his neighbour,
And saith, Am not I in sport?
- 20 Where there is no wood, the fire goeth out:
So where there is no talebearer, the strife ceaseth.
- 21 As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire;
So is a contentious man to kindle strife.
- 22 The words of a talebearer are as wounds,
They go down into the innermost parts of the belly.
- 23 Lips of ardent affection with a wicked heart
Are like an earthen pot covered with silver dross.

- 24 He who hateth dissembleth with his lips,
And layeth up deceit within him;
25 When he speaketh plausibly, believe him not :
For there are seven abominations in his heart.
26 His hatred is covered by deceit,
But his wickedness shall be showed before the whole congregation.
27 Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein :
And he who rolleth a stone, it will return upon him.
28 A lying tongue hateth those who are injured by it ;
And a flattering mouth worketh ruin.

- 27 Boast not thyself of to-morrow ;
For thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.
2 Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth ;
A stranger, and not thine own lips.
3 A stone is heavy, and the sand weighty ;
But a fool's wrath is heavier than them both.
4 Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous ;
But who is able to stand before jealousy ?
5 Open rebuke is better than secret love.
6 Faithful are the wounds of a friend ;
But the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.
7 The full soul loatheth the honeycomb ;
But to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.
8 As a bird that wandereth from her nest,
So is a man who wandereth from his place.
9 Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart :
So is hearty counsel sweet to a man's friend.
10 Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not ;
Then shalt thou have no need to go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity :
For better is a neighbour who is near than a brother far off.
11 My son, be wise, and make my heart glad,
That I may answer him who reproacheth me.
12 A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself ;
But the thoughtless pass on, and are punished.
13 Take his garment who is surety for a stranger,
And take a pledge of him for a strange woman.
14 He who praiseth his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning,
It shall be counted a curse to him.
15 A continual dropping in a very rainy day
And a contentious woman are alike.
16 Whosoever hideth her hideth the wind,
And the ointment of his right hand, which betrayeth itself.
17 Iron sharpeneth iron ;
So a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend.
18 Whoso keepeth the fig tree shall eat of its fruit :
So he who waiteth on his master shall be honoured.
19 As in water face answereth to face,
So doth the heart of man to man.
20 Death and the grave are never full ;
So the eyes of man are never satisfied.
21 As silver is tried by the fining pot, and gold by the furnace ;
So is a man by the mouth of him who praiseth him.
22 Though thou shouldst pound a fool in a mortar
Among bruised wheat with a pestle,
Yet will not his foolishness depart from him.
23 Be thou diligent to know the state of thy flocks,
And look well to thy herds.
24 For riches are not for ever ;
Nor the crown to every generation !
25 The grass shooteth, and the tender herbage showeth itself,
And herbs of the mountains are gathered.
26 The lambs are for thy clothing,

- And the goats are the price of the field.
 27 And thou shalt have goats' milk enough for thy food,
 For the food of thy household,
 And for the maintenance for thy maidens.

- 28 The wicked flee when no man pursueth :
 But the righteous are bold as a lion.
 2 For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof :
 But by men of understanding and knowledge the state shall be prolonged.
 3 A needy man in authority who oppresseth the poor
 Is like a sweeping rain which leaveth no food.
 4 Those who forsake the law praise the wicked :
 But such as keep the law contend with them.
 5 Wicked men understand not judgment :
 But those who seek the LORD understand all things.
 6 Better is the poor who walketh in his uprightness,
 Than he who is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.
 7 Whoso keepeth the law is a wise son :
 But he who is a companion of riotous men is a disgrace to his father.
 8 He who by usury and unjust gain increaseth his substance,
 He shall gather it for him who will pity the poor.
 9 He who turneth away his ear from hearing the law,
 Even his prayer is an abomination.
 10 Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way,
 He shall fall himself into his own pit :
 But the upright shall have good things in possession.
 11 The rich man is wise in his own conceit ;
 But the poor who hath understanding searcheth him out.
 12 When righteous men rejoice, there is great glory :
 But when the wicked rise, a man is hidden.
 13 He who covereth his sins shall not prosper :
 But whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.
 14 Happy is the man who feareth always :
 But he who hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.
 15 As a roaring lion, and a greedy bear ;
 So is a wicked ruler over the poor people.
 16 The prince who wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor :
 But he who hateth covetousness shall prolong his days.
 17 A man oppressed with the guilt of blood
 Fleeth to the pit ; that no man may lay hold of him.
 18 Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved :
 But he who is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.
 19 He who tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread :
 But he who followeth after vain projects shall have poverty enough.
 20 A faithful man shall abound with blessings :
 But he who maketh haste to be rich shall not be innocent.
 21 To have respect of persons is not good :
 For for a piece of bread that man will transgress.
 22 He who hasteneth to be rich hath a covetous eye,
 And considereth not that poverty shall come upon him.
 23 He who rebuketh a man
 Afterwards shall find more favour
 Than he who flattereth with the tongue.
 24 Whoso robbeth his father or his mother,
 And saith, It is no transgression ;
 The same is the companion of a destroyer.
 25 He who is of a proud heart stirreth up strife :
 But he who putteth his trust in the LORD shall be made fat.
 26 He who trusteth in his own heart is a fool :
 But whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.
 27 He who giveth unto the poor shall not lack :
 But he who hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.
 28 When the wicked rise, men hide themselves :
 But when they perish, the righteous increase.

- 29 He who being often reprov'd, and yet hardeneth his neck,
 Shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.
 2 When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice:
 But when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn.
 3 Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father:
 But he who keepeth company with harlots spendeth his substance.
 4 The king by judgment establisheth the land:
 But he who receiveth bribes overthroweth it.
 5 A man who flattereth his neighbour
 Spreadeth a net for his feet.
 6 In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare:
 But the righteous doth sing and rejoice.
 7 The righteous considereth the cause of the poor:
 But the wicked regardeth not to know it.
 8 Scornful men inflame a city:
 But wise men turn away wrath.
 9 If a wise man contend with a foolish man,
 Whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.
 10 The bloodthirsty hate the upright:
 But the just seek his soul.
 11 A fool uttereth all his mind:
 But a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards.
 12 If a ruler hearken to a false report,
 He will make all his servants wicked.
 13 The poor and the noble meet together:
 The LORD lighteneth both their eyes.
 14 The king who faithfully judgeth the poor,
 His throne shall be established for ever.
 15 The rod and reproof give wisdom:
 But a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame.
 16 When the wicked are in authority, transgression increaseth:
 But the righteous shall see their fall.
 17 Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest;
 Yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.
 18 Where there is no revelation, the people go astray:
 But he who keepeth the law, happy is he.
 19 A servant will not be corrected by words:
 For though he understand he will not answer.
 20 Seest thou a man who is hasty in his words?
 There is more hope of a fool than of him.
 21 He who delicately bringeth up his servant from a child
 Shall have him become his son at length.
 22 An angry man stirreth up strife,
 And a furious woman aboundeth in transgression.
 23 A man's pride shall bring him low:
 But honour shall uphold the humble in spirit.
 24 Whoso is partner with a thief hateth his own soul:
 He heareth the oath, and betrayeth it not.
 25 The fear of man bringeth a snare:
 But whoso putteth his trust in the LORD shall be safe.
 26 Many seek the ruler's favour;
 But every man's judgment cometh from the LORD.
 27 An unjust man is an abomination to the just:
 And he who is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked.

- 30 THE WORDS OF AGUR THE SON OF JAKEII,
 THE WEIGHTY SAYINGS HE SPOKE UNTO ITHIEL,
 EVEN UNTO ITHIEL AND UCAL.
 2 Surely I am more ignorant than any man,
 And have not the understanding of a man.
 3 Nor have I learned wisdom,
 That I should have knowledge of holy things.
 4 Who hath ascended up into the heavens, and descended?
 Who hath gathered the wind in his fists?

PROVERBS XXX.

- Who hath bound the waters in a garment ?
 Who hath established all the ends of the earth ?
 What is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell ?
- 5 Every word of God is pure :
 He is a shield unto those who put their trust in him.
- 6 Answer thou not again,
 Lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.
- 7 Two things have I required of thee ;
 Withhold them not from me while I live :
- 8 Remove far from me vanity and falsehood ;
 Give me neither poverty nor riches ;
 Feed me with food sufficient for me ;
- 9 Lest I be full, and deny thee,
 And say, Who is the LORD ?
 Or lest I be poor, and steal,
 And take the name of my God in vain.
- 10 Accuse not a servant unto his master,
 Lest he curse thee, and thou be found guilty.
- 11 There is a generation who curseth their father,
 And do not even bless their mother.
- 12 There is a generation who are pure in their own eyes,
 And yet they are not washed from their filthiness.
- 13 There is a generation, oh how lofty are their eyes !
 And their eyelids are lifted up.
- 14 There is a generation, whose teeth are as swords,
 And their jaw teeth as knives,
 To devour the meek from off the earth,
 And the poor from among men.
- 15 The horseleech hath two daughters, which are ever crying, Give, give.
 There are three things that are never satisfied,
 Yea, four that say not, It is enough :
- 16 The grave ; and the barren womb ;
 The earth that is not filled with water ;
 And the fire that saith not, It is enough.
- 17 The eye that mocketh at his father,
 And despiseth to obey his mother,
 The ravens of the valley shall pick it out,
 And the young eagles shall eat it.
- 18 There are three things which are too wonderful for me,
 Yea, four which I know not :
- 19 The way of an eagle in the air ;
 The way of a serpent upon a rock ;
 The way of a ship in the midst of the sea ;
 And the way of a man in his youth.
- 20 Such is the way of an adulterous woman ;
 She eateth, and wipeth her mouth,
 And saith, I have done no wickedness.
- 21 By three things the earth is disquieted,
 And by four which it cannot bear :
- 22 By a servant when he reigneth ;
 And a fool when he is filled with food ;
- 23 By a hated wife when she obtaineth power ;
 And a handmaid who supplants her mistress.
- 24 There are four things which are little upon the earth,
 But they are exceeding wise :
- 25 The ants, though a race not strong,
 Yet they prepare their meat in the summer ;
- 26 The mountain mice, though not vigorous,
 Yet make they their houses in the rocks ;
- 27 The locusts, though they have no king,
 Yet go they forth all of them by bands ;
- 28 The spider taketh hold with her hands,
 And is in king's palaces.

- 29 There are three things which go well,
Yea, four are comely in going :
- 30 An old lion, which is mighty among beasts,
And turneth not away for any ;
- 31 A greyhound ; and the goat ;
And a king, against whom there is no rising up.
- 32 If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thyself,
Or if thou hast entered into a conspiracy,
Lay thy hand upon thy mouth.
- 33 Surely the churning of milk bringeth forth butter,
And the wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood :
So the provoking of wrath bringeth forth strife.

31 THE WORDS OF KING LEMUEL,
THE WEIGHTY SAYINGS THAT HIS MOTHER TAUGHT HIM.

- 2 O my son !
O thou son of my womb !
O thou son of my vows !
- 3 Give not thy strength unto women,
Nor thy ways to that which destroyeth kings.
- 4 It is not for kings, O Lemuel,
It is not for kings to drink wine ;
Nor for princes to drink mixed wine :
- 5 Lest they drink, and forget the law,
And pervert the judgment of any of the oppressed.
- 6 Give strong drink unto him who is ready to perish,
And wine unto those who are of heavy hearts.
- 7 Let him drink, and forget his poverty,
And remember his misery no more.
- 8 Open thy mouth for the dumb,
In the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction.
- 9 Open thy mouth, judge righteously,
And plead the cause of the poor and needy.
- 10 Who can find a virtuous wife ?
For her price is far above rubies.
- 11 The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her,
So that he shall have no need of spoil.
- 12 She will do him good and not evil
All the days of her life.
- 13 She seeketh wool, and flax,
And worketh willingly with her hands.
- 14 She is like the merchants' ships ;
She bringeth her food from afar.
- 15 She riseth also while it is yet night,
And giveth food to her household,
And her orders to her maidens.
- 16 She looketh out for a field, and buyeth it :
With the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.
- 17 She girdeth her loins with might,
And strengtheneth her arms by exercise.
- 18 She tasteth that her merchandise is good :
Her lamp goeth not out by night.
- 19 She putteth her hands to the spindle,
And her hands hold the distaff.
- 20 She openeth her hand to the poor ;
Yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.
- 21 She is not afraid of the winter for her household :
For all her household are clothed with double garments.
- 22 She worketh beautiful vestments for herself ;
Her clothing is fine linen and purple.
- 23 Her husband is known in the gates,
When he sitteth among the elders of the land.
- 24 She maketh fine linen, and selleth it ;
And delivereth girdles unto the merchant.

- 25 Strength and honour are her clothing;
And she shall rejoice in time to come.
26 She openeth her mouth with wisdom;
And on her tongue is the law of kindness.
27 She looketh well to the ways of her household,
And eateth not the bread of idleness.
28 Her children arise up, and call her blessed;
Her husband also, and he praiseth her, saying,
29 Many daughters have done worthily,
But thou excellest them all.
30 Gracefulness fadeth, and beauty is vain:
But the wife who feareth the LORD, she shall be praised.
31 The fruit of her hands shall be given to her;
And her own works shall praise her in the gates.

ECCLESIASTES ;

OR,

THE PREACHER.

- 1 THE words of the Preacher, the son of David, king of Jerusalem. Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities! all is vanity.
- 3 4 What profit hath a man of all his labour which he taketh under the sun? One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh: but the earth abideth for ever. The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and hasteneth to its place where it arose. It goeth towards the south, and turneth about unto the north. The wind whirleth about continually, and returneth again according to its circuits.
- 7 All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea doth not overflow; unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they return to flow again. All things are full of labour; man cannot utter it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.
- 9 The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun. Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us. There is no remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those who shall come after.
- 12 13 I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem. And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under the heavens:—this sore travail hath God given to the sons of man to be exercised therewith.
- 14 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity, —even a feeding on wind. That which is crooked cannot be made straight: and that which is wanting cannot be numbered. I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I have gotten more wisdom than all those who have been before me in Jerusalem: yea, my heart had great experience of wisdom and knowledge. And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly: but even this I found to be a feeding on wind. For in much wisdom is much grief: and he who increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.
- 2 I said in my heart, Come now, I will prove thee with mirth, therefore enjoy pleasure: and, behold, this also is vanity. I said to laughter, Art thou mad? and to mirth, What doest thou?
- 3 I determined in my heart to withhold myself from wine, and to acquaint my heart with wisdom, and to lay hold on knowledge, that I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heavens all the days of their life. I made me great works; I built me houses; I planted me vineyards: I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits:

I made me pools of water, to water therewith the grove flourishing with trees: I 6 7 purchased menservants and maidservants, and their children were born in my house; also I had great possessions of herds and flocks above all who were in Jerusalem before me: I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and 8 of the provinces: I got me men singers and women singers, and wives and concubines, the delights of the sons of men. So I was great, and increased more than all 9 who were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom assisted me. And whatsoever 10 mine eyes desired I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labour: and this was my portion of all my labour. Then 11
I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all was vanity, even a feeding on wind, and there was no profit under the sun.

And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and madness, and folly: for what can the 12 man do who cometh after the king, but those things which have been already done?
Then I saw that wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness. The wise 13 14 man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also that one event happeneth to them all.

Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it happeneth even to me; 15 and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity.
For there is no perpetual remembrance of the wise more than of the fool; seeing 16 that which now is in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth the wise man? as the fool. Therefore I was weary of life; because the work that is wrought 17 under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity, even a feeding on wind. Yea, 18
I was weary of all my labour which I had endured under the sun: because I should leave it unto the man who shall be after me. And who knoweth whether he shall 19 be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have showed myself wise under the sun:—this is also vanity.

Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour which I took 20 under the sun. For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, 21 and in equity; yet to a man who hath not laboured therein shall he leave it for his portion:—this also is vanity and a great evil. For what hath man of all his labour, 22 and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he hath laboured under the sun? For all 23 his days are sorrows, and his travail grief; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night:
—this is also vanity. Is it not then good for a man, that he should eat and drink, 24 and that he should make his soul enjoy ease in his labour? This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God. For who can eat, or drink, more than I? For God 25 26 giveth to a man that which is good in his sight, wisdom, and knowledge, and joy:
but to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him that is good before God:—this also is vanity, even feeding on wind.

TO every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heavens: 3

- 2 A time to be born—and a time to die;
A time to plant—and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
- 3 A time to kill—and a time to preserve alive;
A time to break down—and a time to build up;
- 4 A time to weep—and a time to laugh;
A time to mourn—and a time to dance;
- 5 A time to cast away stones—and a time to gather stones together;
A time to embrace—and a time to refrain from embracing;
- 6 A time to get—and a time to lose;
A time to keep—and a time to cast away;
- 7 A time to rend—and a time to sew;
A time to keep silence—and a time to speak;
- 8 A time to love—and a time to hate;
A time of war—and a time of peace.

What profit hath he who worketh in that wherein he laboureth?

I have seen the travail, which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised 9 in it. He hath made every thing beautiful in its season: also he hath put it into 11 their hearts to observe the world, without which no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end. I know that there is no good in them, 12 but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life. And also that every man should 13 eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God. I know 14 that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any

- 15 thing taken from it: and God doeth it, that men should fear before him. That which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been; and God bringeth again that which is past.
- 16 And moreover I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of justice, that iniquity was there. I said in my heart, God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work.
- 18 I said in my heart concerning the state of the sons of men, that God's design is to prove them, that they might see that they are no better than beasts, when left to themselves. For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath; so that a man hath no pre-eminence above a beast: for all is vanity. All go unto one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again. Who knoweth the spirit of man, whether it goeth upwards, and the spirit of the beast, whether it goeth downwards to the earth? Is it not then good for a man to rejoice in his own works? for that is his portion: for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him?
- 4 SO I returned, and considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but the oppressed had no comforter. Wherefore I praised the dead who are already dead more than the living who are yet alive. Yea, better is he than both they, who hath not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.
- 4 Again, I considered all travail, and every prosperous work, that for this a man is envied of his neighbour. This is also vanity, even a feeding on wind. The fool foldeth his hands together, and eateth his own flesh, saying, Better is a handful with quietness, than both the hands full with travail and feeding on wind.
- 7 8 Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun. There is one alone, and without a companion; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour; neither is his eye satisfied with riches; neither saith he, For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good?—this is also vanity, yea, it is a sore travail.
- 9 10 Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour. For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him who is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up. Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone? And if one prevail against another, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.
- 13 Better is a poor and a wise youth than an old and foolish king, who will no more be admonished. For out of prison he cometh to reign; yet in his own kingdom he was born poor. All the living who walk under the sun I saw attending a youth who is about to stand up in his stead. There is no end of all the people, even of all to whom he shall become leader; but those who come after shall not rejoice in him:—surely this also is vanity, even feeding on wind.
- 5 KEEP thy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear, than to offer the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil. Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thy heart be hasty to utter any thing before God: for God is in the heavens, and thou upon the earth: therefore let thy words be few.
- 3 For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and a fool's voice is known by multitude of words. When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed. Better is it that thou shouldst not vow, than that thou shouldst vow and not pay. Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou to the priest, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thy hands? For as in many dreams there is great vanity; so also in many words: but fear thou God.
- 8 If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he who is higher than the highest regardeth; and there is higher than they. Moreover the produce of the earth is for all; the king himself is supplied from the field.
- 10 He who loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he who loveth abundance with increase:—this is also vanity. When goods increase, they are increased who eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, beyond the beholding of them with their eyes? The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep. There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt. But those riches perish by misfortune: and having a son, he hath nothing to leave him. As he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he 15 return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand. And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall 16 he go : and what profit hath he who hath laboured for the wind ? All his days also 17 he eateth in darkness, and he hath much sorrow and wrath with his sickness.

Behold that which I have seen : it is good and comely for one to eat and to 18 drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun all the days of his life, which God giveth him : for it is his portion. Every man also to 19 whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour ; this is the gift of God. For 20 he shall not much remember the days of his life ; because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.

THERE is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among 6 men : a man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, so that he want-eth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God giveth him not power to enjoy it, but a stranger enjoyeth it :—this is vanity, and it is an evil disease. If a 3 man beget a hundred children, and live many years, and there be plenty in the days of his years, and his soul be not filled with good, and also that he have no burial ;
I say, that an untimely birth is better than he. For it cometh in with vanity, and 4 departeth in darkness, and its name shall be covered with darkness. Moreover it 5 hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing : this hath more rest than the other.
Yea, though he live a thousand years twice told, yet hath he seen no good : do not 6 all go to one place ?

All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled. For 7 8 what hath the wise more than the fool ? what hath the poor, who knoweth to walk before the living ? Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire : 9 —this is also vanity, even feeding on wind.

For he who hath been is named already, and it is known that it is man : neither 10 may he contend with him who is mightier than he. Seeing there are many things 11 that increase vanity, what is man the better ? For who knoweth what is good for 12 man in this life, all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as a shadow ? for who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun ?

7 A GOOD name is better than precious perfume ;
And the day of death than the day of one's birth.

2 It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting :

For that is the end of all men ;
And the living will lay it to his heart.

3 Sorrow is better than laughter :

For by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.

4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning ;
But the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

5 It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise,
Than for a man to hear the song of fools.

6 For as the crackling of thorns under a pot,
So is the laughter of the fool : this also is vanity.

7 Surely oppression maketh a wise man mad ;
And a gift destroyeth the heart.

8 Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof :
And the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

9 Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry :

For anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

10 Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these ?
For thou dost not inquire wisely concerning this.

11 Wisdom is better than an inheritance,
And profitable to those who see the sun ;

12 For wisdom is a defence, and money is a defence :
But the excellency of knowledge is,
That wisdom giveth life to those who have it.

13 Consider the work of God :

For who can make that straight, which he hath made crooked ?

14 In the day of prosperity be joyful,
But in the day of adversity consider :

For God also hath set the one over against the other,
To the end that man should not find what next may befall him.

15 All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: there is a just man who perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who longeth his life in his wickedness. Be not righteous over much; neither make thyself over wise: why shouldst thou cause thyself to be shunned? Be not over much wicked, neither be thou foolish: why shouldst thou die before thy time? It is good that thou shouldest take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thy hand: for he who feareth God shall escape both evils.

19 Wisdom strengtheneth the wise more than many mighty men who are in the city. For there is not a just man upon earth, who doeth good, and sinneth not.

21 Also take no heed unto all words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant curse thee: for oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others. All this have I proved by wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me. That which is far off, and exceeding deep, who can find it out?

25 I applied my heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness: and I find more hitter than death the woman, whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: whoso pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her. Behold, this have I found, saith the preacher, comparing one thing with another to find out the reason; which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: one wise man among a thousand have I found; but a wise woman among all those have I not found. Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many devices.

8 WHO IS as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? a man's wisdom maketh his face to shine, but he who is bold of face shall be hated.

2 Keep the king's commandment, but according to the word of the oath of God. Be not hasty to go out of his sight: stand not in an evil thing; for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth him. Where the word of a king is, there is power: and who may say unto him, What doest thou?

5 Whoso keepeth the commandment shall know no evil thing: and a wise man's heart discerneth both time and judgment. Because to every purpose there is time and judgment, yet the misery of man is great upon him. For he knoweth not that which shall be: or who can tell him when it shall be?

8 There is no man who hath power over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no escape from that conflict, neither shall wickedness deliver those who are given to it.

9 All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his own hurt. And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done:—this is also vanity.

11 Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the hearts of the sons of men are fully set in them to do evil. Though a sinner do evil a hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with those who fear God, who fear before him: but it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

14 THERE is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there are just men, unto whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there are wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous:—I said that this also is vanity. Then I commended mirth, because is it not good for a man to eat, and to drink, and to be merry? for that shall abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun.

16 When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth: (for also there is he who neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes:) then I beheld all the work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea further; though a wise man think to know it, yet shall he not be able to find it.

9 For all this I considered in my heart even to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them. All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the clean, and to the unclean; to him who sacrificeth, and to him who sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he who sweareth, as he who feareth an oath. This evil is in all that is done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. For to him who is joined to all the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion. For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten. Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.

Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God now accepteth thy works. Let thy garments be always white; and let thy head lack no ointment. Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun: for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the sun. Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

I RETURNED, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all. For man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me: There was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it: now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man. Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

- 17 The words of wise men are heard in quiet
More than the cry of him who ruleth among fools.
- 18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war:
But one sinner destroyeth much good.
- 10 Dead flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth an offensive smell:
So a little folly causeth him who is in reputation for wisdom and honour to be contemned.
- 2 A wise man's heart is at his right hand;
But a fool's heart at his left.
- 3 Yea also, when he who is a fool walketh by the way,
His wisdom faileth him,
And he saith to every one, that he is a fool.
- 4 If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee,
Leave not thy place;
For yielding pacifieth great offences.
- 5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun,
As an error which proceedeth from the ruler:
Folly is set in great dignity,
And the rich sit in low place.
- 7 I have seen servants upon horses,
And princes walking as servants upon the earth.
- 8 He who diggeth a pit shall fall into it;
And whoso breaketh a hedge, a serpent shall bite him.
- 9 Whoso removeth stones shall be hurt therewith;
And he who cleaveth wood shall be endangered thereby.
- 10 If the iron tool be blunt, and he who useth it do not whet the edge,
Then must he put forth more strength:
But wisdom is profitable to direct.
- 11 Surely the serpent will bite without warning;
And a babbler is no better.
- 12 The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious;
But the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.
- 13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness:
And the end of his talk is mischievous madness.

- 14 A fool also multiplieth words :
Yet no man can tell what shall be ;
And what shall be after him, who can tell him ?
- 15 The labour of the foolish wearieth every one of them,
Because he knoweth not how to go to the city.
- 16 Woe to thee, O land, when thy king is a child,
And thy princes feast in the morning !
- 17 Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is noble-minded,
And thy princes feast in due season,
For strength, and not for drunkenness !
- 18 By much slothfulness the building decayeth ;
And through idleness of the hands the house droppeth through.
- 19 A feast is made for festivity, and wine maketh merry :
But money answereth all things.
- 20 Curse not the king, no not in thy thought ;
And curse not the rich in thy bedchamber :
For a bird of the air shall carry the voice,
And that which hath wings shall tell the matter.
- 11 Cast thy bread corn upon the watered ground,
And thou shalt find it after many days.
- 2 Give a portion to seven, and also to eight ;
For thou knowest not what calamity shall shortly be upon the earth.
- 3 If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth :
And if the tree fall towards the south, or towards the north,
In the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.
- 4 He who observeth the wind shall not sow ;
And he who regardeth the clouds shall not reap.
- 5 (As thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit,
Nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her who is with child :
Even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all.)
- 6 In the morning sow thy seed,
And in the evening withhold not thy hand :
For thou knowest not whether shall prosper, either this or that,
Or whether they both shall be alike good.
- 7 TRULY the light is sweet,
And a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun :
But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all ;
Yet let him remember the days of darkness ;
For they shall be many.
- 8 All that cometh is vanity.
- 9 Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth ;
And let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth,
And walk in the ways of thy heart,
And in the sight of thine eyes :
But know thou, that for all these things
God will bring thee into judgment.
- 10 Therefore remove sorrow from thy heart,
And put away evil from thy flesh :
For childhood and youth are vanity.
- 12 Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth,
While the evil days come not,
Nor the years draw nigh,
When thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them ;
- 2 While the sun, and the light,
And the moon, and the stars, be not darkened,
Nor the clouds return after the rain :
- 3 In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble,
And the strong men shall bow themselves,
And the grinders fail because they are few,
And those who look out of the windows be darkened,
- 4 And the doors shall be shut in the streets,
When the sound of the grinding is low,
And men rise up at the voice of the bird,
And all the daughters of music are brought low ;

- 5 Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high,
And fears shall be in the way,
And the almond tree shall flourish,
And the grasshopper shall be a burden,
And desire shall fail: because man goeth to his long home,
And the mourners go about the streets:
- 6 Or ever the silver cord be loosed,
Or the golden bowl be broken,
Or the pitcher be broken at the fountain,
Or the wheel broken at the cistern.
- 7 Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was:
And the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.
- Vanity of vanities, saith the preacher; all is vanity. And moreover, because the 8 9 preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he weighed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs. The preacher sought to find out acceptable 10 words: and that which was written was right, even words of truth. The words of 11 the wise are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd. And further, by these instructions, my son, be ad- 12 monished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.
- Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his command- 13 ments: for this is the sum of all that concerneth man. For God shall bring every 14 work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

THE SONG OF SOLOMON.

I THE SONG OF SONGS, WHICH IS SOLOMON'S.

- 2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth:
For thy love is better than wine,
- 3 Thy breath than precious perfumes.
Thy name is as ointment poured forth,
Therefore do the virgins love thee.
- 4 Draw me, we will run after thee:
The king hath brought me into his chambers:
We will be glad and rejoice in thee,
We will remember thy love more than wine:
Thou art every way lovely.
- 5 I am dark, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, as the tents of Kedar,
But comely as the tapestry of Solomon.
- 6 Gaze not upon me, because I am dark,
Because the sun hath darkened me:
My mother's children were severe with me;
They made me keeper of the vineyards;
But mine own vineyard have I not kept.
- 7 Tell me, O thou whom my soul loveth, where thou feedest,
Where thou makest thy flock to rest at noon:
For why should I be as a wanderer by the flocks of thy companions?
- 8 If thou know not, O thou most beautiful among women,
Go thy way forth by the footsteps of the flock,
And feed thy kids beside the shepherds' tents.
- 9 I have compared thee, O my love,
To one of the steeds in Pharaoh's chariots.
- 10 Thy cheeks are comely with rows of jewels,
Thy neck with chains of gold.

SOLOMON'S SONG II.

- 11 We will make thee borders of gold
With studs of silver.
- 12 While the king sitteth at his table,
My spikenard sendeth forth its fragrance.
- 13 A bundle of myrrh is my wellbeloved unto me;
Which is constantly betwixt my breasts.
- 14 My beloved is unto me as a cluster of camphor
In the balm gardens of En-gedi.
- 15 Behold, thou art beautiful, my companion;
Behold, thou art beautiful; thou hast doves' eyes.
- 16 Behold, thou art beautiful, my beloved, yea, pleasant:
Also our carpet is green.
- 17 The beams of our house are cedar,
And our rafters of fir.

2 I AM the rosebud of the field of Sharon,
And the lily of the valleys.

- 2 As the lily among thorns,
So is my love among the daughters.
- 3 As the citron tree among the trees of the wood,
So is my beloved among the sons.
I sat down under his shadow with great delight,
And his fruit was sweet to my taste.
- 4 He brought me to the banqueting house,
And his banner over me was love.
- 5 Stay me with refreshments,
Comfort me with citrons,
For I am sick with love.
- 6 His left hand is under my head,
And his right hand doth embrace me.
- 7 I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem,
Before the roes, and before the hinds of the field,
That ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till she please.
- 8 The voice of my beloved!
Behold, he cometh leaping upon the mountains,
Skipping upon the hills.
- 9 My beloved is like a roe or a young hart:
Behold, he standeth behind our wall,
He looketh forth at the windows, showing himself through the lattice.
- 10 My beloved spoke, and said unto me,
Rise up, my love, my beautiful one, and come away.
- 11 For, lo, the winter is past,
The rain is over and gone;
The flowers appear on the earth;
The time of the singing of birds is come,
And the voice of the turtle is heard in our land;
- 12 The fig tree putteth forth her green figs,
And the vines with the tender grape give a good smell.
Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.
- 14 O my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock,
In the secret fissures of the cliffs,
Let me see thy countenance, let me hear thy voice;
For sweet is thy voice, and thy countenance is lovely.
- 15 Take us the foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vines:
For our vines have tender grapes.
- 16 My beloved is mine, and I am his:
He feedeth among the lilies.
- 17 Until the day break, and the shadows flee away,
Turn, my beloved, and be thou like a roe or a young hart
Upon the mountains of Bether.

- 3 BY night on my bed
 I sought him whom my soul loveth :
 I sought him, but I found him not.
 2 I will rise now, and go about the city
 In the streets, and in the broad ways I will seek him whom my soul loveth :
 I sought him, but I found him not.
 3 The watchmen who go about the city found me :
 To whom I said, Saw ye him whom my soul loveth ?
 4 It was but a little that I passed from them,
 But I found him whom my soul loveth :
 I held him, and would not let him go,
 Until I had brought him into my mother's house,
 And into the chamber of her who conceived me.
 5 I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem,
 By the roes, and by the hinds of the field,
 That ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.
 6 What is this that cometh out of the wilderness
 Like pillars of smoke,
 Perfumed with myrrh and frankincense,
 With all powders of the merchant ?
 7 Behold his bed, which is Solomon's ;
 Threescore valiant men are about it, of the valiant of Israel.
 8 They all hold swords, being expert in war :
 Every man hath his sword upon his thigh because of fear in him.
 9 King Solomon made himself a chariot of the wood of Lebanon.
 10 He made the pillars thereof of silver,
 The carpet thereof of gold, and the cushions of it of purple,
 The midst thereof being lined with love, for the daughters of Jerusalem.
 11 Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon
 With the crown wherewith his mother crowned him
 In the day of his espousals,
 And in the day of the gladness of his heart.
- 4 Behold, thou art beautiful, my love ; behold, thou art beautiful ;
 Thou hast doves' eyes within thy locks :
 Thy hair is as a flock of goats,
 That feed on mount Gilead.
 2 Thy teeth are like a flock of shorn sheep,
 Which come up from the washing ;
 Wherof every one bear twins,
 And none is barren among them.
 3 Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet,
 And thy speech is comely :
 Thy cheeks are like the blossom of the pomegranate within thy locks.
 4 Thy neck is like the tower of David built for an armoury,
 Whereon there hang a thousand bucklers,
 All shields of mighty men.
 5 Thy two breasts are like two young roes
 That are twins, which feed among the lilies.
 6 Until the day break, and the shadows flee away,
 I will get me to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense.
 7 Thou art all beautiful, my love ;
 There is no spot in thee.
 8 Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse,
 With me from Lebanon :
 Look from the top of Amana,
 From the top of Shenir and Hermon,
 From the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards.
 9 Thou hast captivated my heart, my sister, my spouse ;
 Thou hast captivated my heart with one glance of thine eyes,
 With one turn of thy neck.
 10 How beautiful is thy love, my sister, my spouse !
 How much better is thy love than wine !
 And the smell of thine ointments than all spices !

SOLOMON'S SONG V.

- 11 Thy lips, O my spouse, drop as the honeycomb :
Honey and milk are under thy tongue ;
And the smell of thy garments is like the smell of Lebanon.
 - 12 A garden enclosed is my sister, my spouse ;
A spring shut up, a fountain sealed.
 - 13 Thy plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with pleasant fruits ;
 - 14 Camphor, with spikenard, and saffron ;
Calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense ;
Myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices :
 - 15 A fountain of gardens, a well of living waters,
And streams from Lebanon.
 - 16 Awake, O north wind ; and come, thou south ;
Blow upon my garden,
That the spices thereof may flow out.
Let my beloved come into his garden,
And eat his pleasant fruits.
- 5 I am come into my garden, my sister, my spouse :
I have gathered my myrrh with my spice ;
I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey ;
I have drunk my wine with my milk :
Eat, O friends ; drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.
- 2 I sleep, but my heart waketh :
It is the voice of my beloved who knocketh, saying,
Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled :
For my head is filled with dew,
And my locks with the drops of the night.
 - 3 I have put off my coat ;
How shall I put it on ?
I have washed my feet ;
How shall I defile them ?
 - 4 My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the door,
And my bowels were moved for him.
 - 5 I rose up to open to my beloved ;
And my hands dropped with myrrh,
And my fingers with sweet smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock.
 - 6 I opened to my beloved ;
But my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone :
My soul failed when he spoke :
I sought him, but I could not find him ;
I called him, but he gave me no answer.
 - 7 The watchmen who went about the city found me,
They smote me, they wounded me ;
The keepers of the walls took away my vail from me.
 - 8 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
If ye find my beloved, that ye tell him,
That I am sick with love.
 - 9 What is thy beloved more than another beloved,
O thou most beautiful among women ?
What is thy beloved more than another beloved,
That thou dost so charge us ?
 - 10 My beloved is white and ruddy,
The chief among ten thousand.
 - 11 His head is as the most fine gold,
His locks are curled, and black as a raven.
 - 12 His eyes are as the eyes of doves by the rivers of waters,
Washed with milk, and fitly set.
 - 13 His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as sweet flowers :
His lips like lilies, dropping sweet smelling myrrh.
 - 14 His hands are as gold rings set with the beryl :
His bowels are as polished ivory overlaid with sapphires.
 - 15 His legs are as pillars of marble, set upon sockets of fine gold :
His countenance is as Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.

16 His mouth is most sweet: yea, he is altogether lovely.

This is my beloved, and this is my friend,

O daughters of Jerusalem.

6 Whither is thy beloved gone, O thou most beautiful among women?
Whither is thy beloved turned aside?

That we may seek him with thee.

2 My beloved is gone down into his garden,

To the beds of spices,

To feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

3 I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine:

He feedeth among the lilies.

4 Thou art beautiful, O my love, as Tirzah,

Comely as Jerusalem, terrible as an army with banners.

5 Turn away thine eyes from me,

For they have overcome me:

Thy hair is as a flock of goats

That appear from Gilead.

6 Thy teeth are as a flock of sheep

Which go up from the washing,

Whereof every one beareth twins,

And there is not one barren among them.

7 As a piece of a pomegranate

Are thy temples within thy locks.

8 There are threescore queens, and fourscore concubines,

And virgins without number.

9 My dove, my undefiled is but one;

She is the only one of her mother,

She is the choice one of her who bore her.

The daughters saw her, and blessed her;

Yea, the queens and the concubines, and they praised her, saying,

10 Who is she who looketh forth as the morning,

Fair as the moon, clear as the sun,

And terrible as an army with banners?

11 I went down into the garden of nuts

To see the fruits of the valley,

And to see whether the vine flourished,

And the pomegranates budded.

12 Or ever I was aware,

Thou madest me swifter than the chariots of Ammi-nadib.

13 Return, return, O bride of Solomon;

Return, return, that we may look upon thee.

What will ye see in the bride of Solomon?

As it were the company of two armies.

7 How beautiful are thy feet with shoes, O prince's daughter!

The joints of thy thighs are like jewels,

The work of the hands of a skilful workman.

2 Thy navel is like a round goblet,

Which wanteth not liquor:

Thy bosom as twin heaps of wheat

Set about with lilies.

3 Thy two breasts

Are like two young roes that are twins.

4 Thy neck is as a tower of ivory;

Thine eyes like the fishpools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabbim:

Thy nose is as the tower of Lebanon which looketh towards Damascus.

5 Thy head upon thee is like Carmel,

And the hair of thy head like purple; the king is held in the galleries.

6 How beautiful and how pleasant art thou, O love, for delights!

7 This thy stature is like to a palm tree,

And thy breasts to clusters of dates.

8 I said, I will go up to the palm tree,

I will take hold of the boughs thereof:

SOLOMON'S SONG VIII.

- Now also thy breasts shall be as clusters of the vine,
And the smell of thy breath like citrons ;
- 9 And the roof of thy mouth like the best wine
For my beloved, that goeth down sweetly,
Causing the lips of those who are asleep to speak.
- 10 I am my beloved's,
And his desire is towards me.
- 11 Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field,
Let us lodge in the villages.
- 12 Let us get up early to the vineyards ;
Let us see if the vine flourish,
Whether the tender grape appear, and the pomegranates bud forth :
There will I give thee my loves.
- 13 The mandrakes give a smell,
And at our gates are all manner of pleasant fruits, new and old,
Which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved.
- 8 Oh that thou wert as my brother,
Who sucked the breasts of my mother !
When I should find thee without, I would kiss thee ;
Yea, I should not be despised.
- 2 I would lead thee, and bring thee into my mother's house,
Thou wouldest then instruct me :
I would cause thee to drink of spiced wine
Of the juice of my pomegranate.
- 3 His left hand should be under my head,
And his right hand should embrace me.
- 4 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
That ye stir not up, nor awake my love, until he please.
- 5 Who is this who cometh up from the wilderness,
Leaning upon her beloved ?
I raised thee up under the citron tree :
There thy mother brought thee forth :
There she who bore thee plighted thee.
- 6 Set me as a seal upon thy heart,
As a seal upon thine arm :
For love is strong as death ;
Jealousy is cruel as the grave :
Its flames are flames of fire,
And as the lightning of the heavens.
- 7 Many waters cannot quench love,
Neither can the floods drown it :
If a man would give all the substance of his house for love,
It would utterly be condemned.
- 8 WE have a sister who is little, and her breasts are not grown :
What shall we do for our sister
In the day when she shall be spoken for ?
9 If she be a wall, we will build upon her a palace of silver :
And if she be a door, we will enclose her with boards of cedar.
- 10 I was a wall, and my breasts like towers :
Then was I in his eyes as one who found favour.
- 11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon ;
Which he let out unto keepers ;
Every one for the fruit thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.
- 12 My vineyard, which is mine, is before me :
Thou, O Solomon, must have a thousand,
And those who keep the fruit thereof two hundred.
- 13 Thou who dwellest in the gardens,
The companions hearken to thy voice :
Cause me to hear it.
- 14 Flee away, my beloved, and be thou like to a roe
Or to a young hart upon the mountains of spices.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET

ISAIAH.

- 1 THE VISION OF ISAIAH THE SON OF AMOZ, WHICH HE SAW CONCERNING JUDAH AND JERUSALEM IN THE DAYS OF UZZIAH, JOTHAM, AHAZ, AND HEZEKIAH, KINGS OF JUDAH.
- 2 HEAR, O heavens, and hearken, O earth !
For the LORD speaketh :
I have nourished and brought up children,
But they have rebelled against me.
- 3 The ox knoweth his owner,
And the ass his master's crib :
But Israel doth not know,
My people doth not consider !
- 4 Woe to the sinful nation ! the people laden with iniquity !
The race of evildoers, children who are corrupted !
They have forsaken the LORD,
They have provoked the Holy One of Israel to anger,
They have wholly gone away backwards.
- 5 Why will ye be stricken any more ?
Why will ye revolt more and more ?
The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.
- 6 From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it ;
But wounds, and bruises, and putrefying sores :
They have not been closed, nor bound up,
Nor mollified with ointment.
- 7 Your country is desolate ;
Your cities are burnt with fire ;
Your land, strangers devour it in your presence,
It is desolate, as overthrown by foreigners.
- 8 And the daughter of Zion is left as a shed in a vineyard,
As a lodge in a garden of cucumbers,
As a besieged city.
- 9 Except the LORD of hosts had left us a very small remnant,
We should have been as Sodom,
And we should have been like unto Gomorrah.
- 10 Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers of Sodom !
Give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah !
- 11 To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me ? saith the LORD :
I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts ;
And I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he-goats.
- 12 When ye come to appear before me,
Who hath required you to tread my courts ?
- 13 Bring no more vain oblations ;
Incense is an abomination to me ;
The new moons also, and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with ;
It is iniquity, even the solemn meeting.
- 14 Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth :
They are a trouble unto me ;
I am weary of bearing them.
- 15 And when ye spread forth your hands,
I will hide mine eyes from you :
Yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear :
Your hands are full of blood.
- 16 Wash you, make you clean ;

ISAIAH II.

- Put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes ;
 17 Cease to do evil ; learn to do well ;
 Seek judgment, relieve the oppressed,
 Maintain the cause of the fatherless, plead for the widow.
 18 Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD :
 Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow ;
 Though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.
 19 If ye be willing and obedient,
 Ye shall eat the good of the land :
 20 But if ye refuse and rebel,
 Ye shall be devoured by the sword :
 For the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.
 21 How is the faithful city become a harlot !
 It was full of justice ;
 Righteousness lodged in it ; but now murderers.
 22 Thy silver is become dross,
 Thy wine mixed with water :
 23 Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves :
 Every one loveth bribes, and followeth after rewards :
 They maintain not the cause of the fatherless,
 Nor doth the cause of the widow come before them.
 24 Therefore saith the Lord,
 The LORD of hosts, the Mighty One of Israel,
 Ah ! I will ease me of mine adversaries,
 And avenge me of mine enemies :
 25 I will bring again my hand upon thee,
 I will purify thy dross in the furnace,
 And take away all thine alloy :
 26 And I will restore thy judges as at the first,
 And thy counsellors as at the beginning :
 Afterwards thou shalt be called,
 The city of righteousness, the faithful city.
 27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment,
 And her converts with righteousness.
 28 And the destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together,
 And those who forsake the LORD shall be consumed.
 29 For ye shall be ashamed of the oaks which ye have desired,
 And ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen.
 30 For ye shall be as an oak whose leaf fadeth,
 And as a garden that hath no water.
 31 And the strong shall be as tow,
 And his work as a spark of fire,
 And they shall both burn together,
 And none shall quench them.

2 THE WORD THAT WAS REVEALED TO ISAIAH THE SON OF AMOZ, CONCERNING JUDAH AND JERUSALEM.

- 2 In the last days the mountain of the LORD'S house
 Shall be established in the top of the mountains,
 And shall be exalted above the hills ;
 And all nations shall flow unto it.
 3 And many people shall go and say,
 Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
 To the house of the God of Jacob ;
 And he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths :
 For out of Zion shall go forth the law,
 And the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
 4 And he shall judge among the nations,
 And shall rebuke many people :
 And they shall beat their swords into ploughshares,
 And their spears into pruninghooks :
 Nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
 Neither shall they learn war any more.

ISAIAH III.

- 5 O house of Jacob ! come ye,
And let us walk in the light of the LORD.
 - 6 Therefore thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob,
Because they are filled with diviners from the east,
And are soothsayers like the Philistines,
And they please themselves with the children of strangers.
 - 7 Their land also is full of silver and gold,
And there is no end of their treasures ;
Their land is also full of horses,
And there is no end of their chariots :
 - 8 Their land also is full of idols ;
They worship the work of their own hands,
That which their own fingers have made :
 - 9 Therefore shall the mean man be bowed down,
And the great man humbled :
Yet thou wilt not forgive them.
 - 10 Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust,
For fear of the LORD, and of his glorious majesty.
 - 11 The lofty looks of man shall be humbled,
And the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down,
And the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.
 - 12 For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be Against every one who is proud and lofty,
And against every one who is lifted up ; and he shall be brought low :
 - 13 And against all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up,
And against all the oaks of Bashan,
 - 14 And against all the high mountains,
And against all the hills that are lifted up,
 - 15 And against every high tower,
And against every fenced wall,
 - 16 And against all the ships of Tarshish,
And against all pleasant pictures.
 - 17 And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down,
And the haughtiness of men shall be made low :
And the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.
 - 18 And the idols he shall utterly abolish.
 - 19 And men shall go into the holes of the rocks,
And into the caves of the earth,
For fear of the LORD, and of his glorious majesty,
When he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.
 - 20 In that day men shall cast their idols of silver, and their idols of gold,
(Which they made for themselves to worship,)
To the moles and to the bats ;
 - 21 To go into the clefts of the rocks,
And into the tops of the ragged rocks,
For fear of the LORD, and of his glorious majesty,
When he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.
 - 22 Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils :
For wherein is he to be accounted of ?
- 3 For, behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts,
Shall take away from Jerusalem and from Judah
The stay and the staff,
The whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water,
2 The mighty man, and the man of war,
The judge, and the prophet, and the diviner, and the elder,
3 The captain of fifty, and the honourable man,
And the counsellor, and the skilful artificer, and the eloquent orator.
4 And I will give children to be their princes,
And babes shall rule over them.
5 And the people shall oppress each other,
Each one his neighbour :
The child shall behave himself proudly against the aged,
And the base against the honourable.

- 6 For should a man take hold of his brother in the house of his father, saying,
Thou hast clothing, be thou our ruler,
And let this thing done be under thy hand :
 - 7 In that day shall he swear, saying,
I will not be a healer ;
For in my house is neither bread nor clothing :
Make me not a ruler of the people.
 - 8 For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen :
Because their tongue and their doings have been against the LORD,
To provoke the eyes of his glory.
 - 9 The show of their countenance doth witness against them ;
And they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not.
Woe unto them ! for they bring evil upon themselves.
 - 10 Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with them :
For they shall eat the fruit of their doings.
 - 11 Woe unto the wicked ! it shall be ill with them :
For the reward of their hands shall be given them.
 - 12 As for my people, children are their oppressors,
And women rule over them.
O my people ! those who lead thee, cause thee to err,
And destroy the way of thy paths.
 - 13 The LORD hath set himself to contend ;
He standeth to judge the people.
 - 14 The LORD will enter into judgment
With the elders of his people, and the princes thereof :
For ye have burnt up the vineyard ;
The spoil of the poor is in your houses.
 - 15 What mean ye that ye crush my people to pieces,
And grind the faces of the poor ?
Saith the Lord God of hosts.
 - 16 Moreover the LORD saith,
Because the daughters of Zion are haughty,
And walk with stretched forth necks
And wanton eyes,
Walking and mincing as they go,
And making a tinkling with their feet-rings :
 - 17 Therefore the LORD will make bald
The crown of the head of the daughters of Zion,
And the LORD will expose their shame.
 - 18 In that day the LORD will take away
Their feet-rings,
And their head-dresses, and their round tires like the moon,
19 The chains, and the bracelets, and the mufflers,
20 The bonnets, and the ornaments of the legs, and the headbands,
And the girdle-clasps, and the earrings,
21 The rings for the fingers and nose,
22 The changeable suits of apparel, and the mantles,
And the cloaks, and the little purses,
23 The glasses, and the fine linen,
And the hoods, and the veils.
 - 24 And instead of sweet smell, there shall be stink :
And instead of a girdle, a rag :
And instead of well set hair, baldness :
And instead of a stomacher, a girding of sackcloth ;
And sun-burnt skin, instead of beauty.
 - 25 Thy men shall fall by the sword,
And thy mighty in the war.
 - 26 And her gates shall lament and mourn ;
And she being desolate shall sit upon the ground.
- 4 And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying.
We will eat our own bread,
And wear our own apparel :

Only let us be called by thy name,
And take thou away our reproach.

- 2 In that day shall the branch of the LORD be beautiful and glorious,
And the fruit of the land shall be excellent and comely
For those who are escaped of Israel.
- 3 And he who is left in Zion,
And he who remaineth in Jerusalem,
Shall be called holy,
Even every one who is enrolled among the living in Jerusalem :
- 4 When the LORD shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion,
And shall have cleansed out the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof
By the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning.
- 5 And the LORD will create upon every dwelling place of mount Zion,
And upon her assemblies,
A cloud and smoke by day,
And the brightness of a flaming fire by night :
Which shall be over all the glory for protection.
- 6 And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the day time from the heat,
And for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain.

- 5 NOW will I sing to my wellbeloved
A song of my love touching his vineyard.
My wellbeloved hath a vineyard
In a high and fruitful hill :
2 And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof,
And planted it with the choicest vine,
And built a tower in the midst of it,
And also made a winevat therein :
And he looked that it should bring forth grapes,
And it brought forth poisonous berries.
- 3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah,
Judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.
- 4 What could have been done more to my vineyard,
That I have not done in it ?
Wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes,
Brought it forth poisonous berries ?
- 5 Now, I will tell you
What I will do to my vineyard :
I will take away its hedge, and it shall be eaten up ;
And break down its wall, and it shall be trodden down :
- 6 And I will lay it waste :
It shall not be pruned, nor digged ;
But there shall come up briers and thorns :
I will also command the clouds
That they rain no rain upon it.
- 7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel,
And the men of Judah his pleasant plant :
And he looked for justice, but behold oppression ;
For righteousness, but behold a cry.
- 8 Woe unto those who join house to house,
Who add field to field,
Till there be no place,
That they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth !
- 9 In mine ears hath the LORD of hosts revealed it :
Surely many houses shall be desolate,
The large and fine ones shall be without inhabitants.
- 10 For ten acres of vineyard shall yield only one bath,
And the seed of a homer shall yield but an ephah.
- 11 Woe unto those who rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink ;
Who continue until night, till wine inflame them !
- 12 And the harp, and the viol, the tabret, and pipe,
And wine, are in their feasts :

ISAIAH V.

But they regard not the work of the LORD,
Neither consider the operation of his hands.

- 13 Therefore my people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge :
And their honourable men are famished,
And their multitude parched with thirst.
- 14 Therefore the grave hath enlarged herself,
And opened her mouth without measure :
And their nobles, and their multitude, and their pomp,
And he who rejoiceth, shall descend into it.
- 15 And the mean man shall be brought down,
And the mighty man shall be humbled,
And the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled :
- 16 But the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgment,
And God who is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness.
- 17 Then shall the lambs feed wherever they are driven,
And strange flocks shall devour the waste fields of the rich.
- 18 Woe unto those who draw calamity with cords of iniquity,
And sin as it were with a cart rope :
- 19 Who say, Let him make speed, and hasten his work,
That we may see it :
And let the purpose of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come,
That we may know it !
- 20 Woe unto those who call evil good, and good evil ;
Who put darkness for light, and light for darkness ;
Who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter !
- 21 Woe unto those who are wise in their own eyes,
And prudent in their own sight !
- 22 Woe unto those who are mighty to drink wine,
And men of strength to mingle strong drink :
- 23 Who justify the wicked for a bribe,
And deprive the righteous of their right !
- 24 Therefore as the fire devoureth the stubble,
And the flame consumeth the chaff,
So their root shall be as rottenness,
And their blossom shall go up as dust :
Because they have cast away the law of the LORD of hosts,
And despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.
- 25 Therefore is the anger of the LORD kindled against his people,
And he hath stretched forth his hand against them,
And hath smitten them : and the hills did tremble,
And their carcases became as filth in the midst of the streets.
Nevertheless his anger is not turned away,
But his hand is stretched out still.
- 26 And he will lift up a banner to the nations from far,
And will call unto them from the end of the earth :
And, behold, they shall come with speed swiftly :
- 27 None shall be weary nor stumble among them ;
None shall slumber nor sleep ;
Neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed,
Nor the latchet of their shoes be broken :
- 28 Their arrows are sharp,
And all their bows bent,
Their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint,
And their wheels like a whirlwind :
- 29 Their roaring shall be like that of a lioness,
They shall roar like young lions :
Yea, they shall growl, and lay hold of the prey,
And shall carry it away safe, and none shall deliver it.
- 30 And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea :
So that if one look unto the land, behold darkness and sorrow,
And the light is darkened by the clouds.

IN the year in which king Uzziah died I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, 6 high and lifted up, and the train of his robe filled the temple. Above him stood the seraphims: each one had six wings; with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he did fly. And one cried unto another, and said, 3

- Holy! holy! holy! is the LORD of hosts:
The whole earth is full of his glory.

And the foundation of the threshold of the door moved at the voice of him who 4 cried, and the house was filled with smoke. Then said I, Woe to me! for I am struck 5 dumb; for I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts. Then flew one 6 of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar: and he touched my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath 7 touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin is forgiven.

Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go 8 for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me. And he said, Go, and tell this people, 9

- Ye hear indeed, but will not understand;
And ye see indeed, but will not perceive.
- 10 Prophecy that the heart of this people shall be fat,
And their ears heavy, and their eyes shut;
Lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears,
And understand with their heart, and be converted, and healed.
- 11 Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered,
Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant,
And the houses without man,
And the land be utterly desolate,
- 12 And the LORD have removed men far away,
And there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land.
- 13 But though there be a tenth part remaining,
Even this shall be destroyed:
Yet as a turpentine tree, and as an oak, whose substance is in them, when they cast their leaves:
The stock thereof shall be a holy seed.

AND in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, 7
Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up towards Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it. And it was 2 told the house of David, saying, Syria is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart and the heart of his people shook, as the trees of the wood are shaken with the wind.
Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and Shear- 3 jashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field; and say unto him, 4

- Take heed, and be quiet;
Fear not, neither be fainthearted
For the two tails of these smoking firebrands,
For the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.
- 5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah,
Have purposed evil against thee, saying,
- 6 Let us go up against Judah, and harass it,
And let us rend a part of it for ourselves,
And set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal:
- 7 Thus saith the Lord God,
It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.
- 8 Though the head of Syria be Damascus,
And the head of Damascus is Rezin;
Within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, that it be no more a people.
- 9 And the head of Ephraim shall be Samaria,
And the head of Samaria Remaliah's son.
Yet if ye will not believe these things, ye shall not be established.
- 10 Moreover the LORD spoke again unto Ahaz, saying,
- 11 Ask thee a sign of the LORD thy God;
Ask it either in the depth below, or in the height above.

12 13 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I put the LORD to the proof. And he said,

Hear ye now, O house of David ;
Is it a small thing for you to weary out men,
But will ye weary out my God also ?

14 Therefore the LORD himself shall give you a sign ;
Behold, the virgin shall conceive, and bear a son,
And shall call his name IMMANUEL [GOD WITH US].

15 Butter and honey shall he eat,
When he shall be able to know to refuse evil, and to choose good.

16 For before the child shall be able to know
To refuse evil, and to choose good,
The land of which thou art afraid
Shall be forsaken of both her kings.

17 The LORD shall bring upon thee,
And upon thy people, and upon thy father's house,
Days that have not come,
From the day that Ephraim departed from Judah ;
Even the king of Assyria.

18 And in that day the LORD shall call
For the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt,
And for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.

19 And they shall come, and shall rest all of them
In the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks,
And upon all thorn bushes, and upon all thickets.

20 In the same day shall the Lord shave with a razor that is hired,
Namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria,
The head, and the hair of the feet :
And it shall also take off the beard.

21 And in that day

A man shall nourish a young cow, and two sheep ;
22 And for the abundance of milk that they shall give he shall eat butter :
Yea, butter and honey shall every one eat
Who is left in the land.

23 And in that day, in every place,
Where there were a thousand vines at a thousand pieces of silver,
There shall be briers and thorns.

24 With arrows and with bows shall men enter it ;
Because all the land shall become briers and thorns.

25 But to none of the hills that shall be digged with the mattock shalt thou go,
Afraid of briers and thorns :
It shall be for the sending forth of oxen,
And where sheep may graze.

8 Moreover the LORD said unto me, Take unto thee a tablet, and write on it with a graving tool concerning Maher-shalal-hash-baz. And I took unto me faithful witnesses, Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah. And I went unto the prophetess ; and she conceived, and bore a son. Then said the LORD to me, Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz [HASTE TO THE SPOIL : QUICKLY TAKE THE PREY]. For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria.

5 The LORD spoke also unto me again, saying,

6 Forasmuch as this people despiseth
The waters of Shiloah that go softly,
And rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son ;

7 Now therefore, behold, the Lord will bring up on them
The waters of the river, strong and mighty, even the king of Assyria, and all his glory :

And it shall come up over all its channels,
And go over all its banks :

8 And he shall pass through Judah ; he shall overflow and go over,
He shall reach even to the neck ;

ISAIAH IX.

- And the stretching out of his wings shall fill
The breadth of thy land, O Immanuel.
- 9 Associate yourselves, O ye people, and ye shall be broken in pieces ;
And give ear, all ye of far countries ;
Gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces ;
Gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces.
 - 10 Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought ;
Speak the word, and it shall not stand :
For God is with us.
 - 11 For the LORD spoke thus to me with a strong hand,
And instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying,
 - 12 Say ye not, There is a confederacy
Of any thing this people shall say, A confederacy ;
Neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid.
 - 13 Sanctify the LORD of hosts himself ;
And let him be your fear, and your dread.
 - 14 And he shall be for a sanctuary ;
But for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence
To both houses of Israel,
For a trap and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
 - 15 And many among them shall stumble,
And fall, and be broken,
And insnared, and taken.
 - 16 Bind up the testimony,
Seal the law for my disciples.
 - 17 And I will wait upon the LORD,
Who hideth his face from the house of Jacob,
And I will look for him.
 - 18 Behold, I and the children whom the LORD hath given me
Are for signs and for wonders in Israel
From the LORD of hosts, who dwelleth on mount Zion.
 - 19 And when they shall say unto you,
Seek unto those who have familiar spirits, and unto wizards
Who speak inwardly, and who mutter :
Should not a people seek unto their God ?
Should they seek for the living among the dead ?
 - 20 To the law and to the testimony :
If they speak not according to this word,
It is because there is no light in them.
 - 21 And they shall pass through it, distressed and hungry :
And when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves,
And curse their king and their God,
And look upwards.
 - 22 And they shall look unto the earth ;
And behold trouble and darkness, faintness of anguish ;
And they shall be darkened with distress.
 - 9 Nevertheless the darkness shall not be such as was in her anguish,
When at first he rendered contemptible
The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali,
So shall he confer honour upon them
By the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, in Galilee of the nations.
 - 2 The people who walked in darkness, have seen a great light :
Those who dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them the light shineth.
 - 3 Thou hast multiplied the nation,
Whose joy thou didst not increase ;
They rejoice before thee as with the joy of harvest,
And as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.
 - 4 For thou hast broken the yoke of their burden,
And the staff laid on their shoulder,
The rod of their oppressor,
As in the day of Midian.
 - 5 For every battle of the warrior is with confused noise,

ISAIAH X.

- And garments rolled in blood ;
But this shall be with burning and fuel of fire.
- 6 For unto us a child is born,
Unto us a son is given :
And the government shall be upon his shoulder :
And his name shall be called
Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God,
The everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace.
- 7 Of the increase of his government and its peace there shall be no end,
Upon the throne of David, and over his kingdom ;
To order it, and to establish it
With judgment and with justice, henceforth and for ever.
The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.
- 8 THE LORD sent destruction to Jacob,
And it hath lighted upon Israel.
- 9 And all the people shall feel it,
Even Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria,
Who say in pride and stoutness of heart,
- 10 The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones :
The sycamores are cut down, but we will replace them with cedars.
- 11 Therefore the LORD shall set up the adversaries of Rezin against him,
And join his enemies together ;
- 12 The Syrians on the east, and the Philistines on the left,
Shall devour Israel with open mouth.
Nevertheless his anger is not turned away,
But his hand is stretched out still.
- 13 For the people have not returned to him who smote them,
Neither have they sought the LORD of hosts.
- 14 Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel the head and the tail,
The branch and the rush, in one day.
- 15 The elders and honourable, they are the head ;
And the prophet who teacheth lies, he is the tail.
- 16 For the leaders of this people cause them to err ;
And those who are led by them are destroyed.
- 17 Therefore the LORD shall have no joy in their young men,
Neither shall have mercy on their fatherless and widows :
For every one is a hypocrite and an evildoer,
And every mouth speaketh folly.
Nevertheless his anger is not turned away,
But his hand is stretched out still.
- 18 For wickedness burneth as fire :
It devoureth the briers and thorns,
And kindleth the thickets of the forest,
And they mount up like the mounting up of smoke.
- 19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts is the land darkened,
And the people have become fuel for the fire :
They have no pity for each other.
- 20 And one shall snatch on the right hand, and yet be hungry ;
And eat on the left hand, and not be satisfied :
They shall eat every man the flesh of his neighbour :
- 21 Manasseh, Ephraim ; and Ephraim, Manasseh :
And they together shall be against Judah.
Nevertheless his anger is not turned away,
But his hand is stretched out still.
- 10 Woe unto the enactors of unrighteous statutes,
And to the writers who register evil ;
- 2 To turn away the poor from justice,
And to take away the right of the afflicted of my people,
That widows may be their prey,
And that they may rob the fatherless !
- 3 What will ye do in the day of visitation,
And in the desolation which shall come from far ?

ISAIAH X.

- To whom will ye flee for help?
 And where will ye deposit your wealth?
- 4 Unless they shall bow down among the prisoners,
 They shall fall under the slain.
 Nevertheless his anger is not turned away,
 But his hand is stretched out still.
- 5 Woe to thee, O Assyrian! the rod of mine anger!
 And the staff in whose hand is mine indignation.
- 6 I will send him against a hypocritical nation,
 And against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge,
 To take the spoil, to take the prey,
 And to tread them down like the mire of the streets.
- 7 But as for him, he thinketh not so,
 Neither doth his heart so intend;
 But it is in his heart to destroy
 And cut off nations not a few.
- 8 For he saith,
 Are not my princes altogether kings?
- 9 Is not Calno as Carchemish?
 Is not Hamath as Arpad?
 Is not Samaria as Damascus?
- 10 As my hand hath found the kingdoms of the idols,
 Whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria;
- 11 As I have done unto Samaria and her idols, Shall I not so do to Jerusalem and her idols?
- 12 Wherefore when the LORD hath performed his whole work Upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, then, saith he,
 I will punish the fruit of the proud heart of the king of Assyria,
 And the arrogance of his high looks.
- 13 For he saith,
 By the strength of my hand I have done it,
 And by my wisdom; for I am prudent:
 And I have removed the bounds of the people,
 And have robbed their treasures,
 And I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man:
- 14 And my hand hath found as a nest the riches of the people:
 And as one gathereth eggs that are left,
 Have I gathered all the earth;
 And there was none that moved the wing, or opened the beak, or chirped.
- 15 Shall the axe boast itself against him who heweth therewith?
 Or shall the saw magnify itself against him who moveth it?
 As if the rod should shake itself against those who lift it up,
 Or as if the staff should lift up itself, as if it were no wood.
- 16 Therefore shall the Lord, the Lord of hosts, send Among his fat ones leanness;
 And under his nobles he shall kindle a burning
 Like the burning of a fire.
- 17 And the light of Israel shall become a fire,
 And his Holy One a flame:
 And it shall burn and devour his thorns
 And his briars in one day;
- 18 And shall consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field,
 Both soul and body:
 And they shall be as when a standardbearer fainteth.
- 19 And the remnant of the trees of his forest shall he so few,
 That a child may count them.
- 20 And in that day the remnant of Israel,
 And such as are escaped of the house of Jacob,
 Shall no more again stay upon him who smote them;
 But shall stay upon the LORD,
 The Holy One of Israel.
- 21 Yet only a remnant shall return, a remnant of Jacob,
 Unto the mighty God.

ISAIAH XI.

- 22 For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea,
Only a remnant of them shall return :
The consummation determined shall overflow with righteousness.
 - 23 For the Lord God of hosts shall make a consummation, which is determined,
In the midst of all the land.
 - 24 Therefore thus saith the Lord God of hosts,
O my people who dwellest in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian :
He may smite thee with a rod,
And lift up his staff against thee, on his way to Egypt ;
 - 25 But yet a very little while, and the indignation shall cease,
And mine anger in their destruction.
 - 26 And the LORD of hosts shall stir up a scourge for him
According to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb :
And as his rod was upon the sea,
So shall he lift it up on his way to Egypt.
 - 27 And in that day his burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder,
And his yoke from off thy neck,
And the yoke shall be destroyed before the anointed one.
 - 28 He is come to Aiyath, he is passed to Migron ;
At Michmash he hath laid up his baggage ;
 - 29 They are gone through the pass ;
They have taken up their lodging at Geba ;
Ramah is afraid ;
Gibeah of Saul is fled.
 - 30 Lift up thy voice, O daughter of Gallim :
Cause it to be heard unto Laish,
O poor Anathoth.
 - 31 Madmenah is removed ;
The inhabitants of Gebim gather themselves to flee.
 - 32 He shall remain at Nob a day :
And then he shall shake his hand against the mount of the daughter of Zion,
The hill of Jerusalem.
 - 33 Behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts,
Shall cut off the branches with a tremendous blow ;
And the high ones of stature shall be hewn down,
And the haughty shall be humbled.
 - 34 And he shall cut down the thickets of the forest with iron,
And Lebanon shall fall by a mighty one.
- 11 And there shall come forth a shoot out of the stem of Jesse,
And a Branch shall grow out of his roots :
- 2 And the spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him,
The spirit of wisdom and understanding,
The spirit of counsel and might,
The spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD ;
 - 3 And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the LORD :
And he shall not judge by the sight of his eyes,
Nor decide by the hearing of his ears :
 - 4 But with righteousness shall he judge the poor,
And decide with equity for the meek of the earth :
And he shall smite the earth with the blast of his mouth,
And with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.
 - 5 And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins,
And faithfulness the girdle of his reins.
 - 6 The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb,
And the leopard shall lie down with the kid ;
And the calf and the young lion and the fatling shall be together ;
And a little child shall lead them.
 - 7 And the cow and the she-bear shall feed ;
Their young ones shall lie down together :
And the lion shall eat straw like the ox.
 - 8 And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp,
And the weaned child shall put his hand on the den of the basilisk.
 - 9 They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain :

- For the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD,
As the waters cover the depths of the sea.
- 10 And in that day, in the root of Jesse
Which shall rise to reign over the nations,
Shall the Gentiles trust :
And his rest shall be glorious.
- 11 And in that day the LORD shall set his hand again the second time
To recover the remnant of his people,
Who shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt,
And from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam,
And from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea.
- 12 And he shall set up an ensign for the nations,
And shall assemble the outcasts of Israel,
And gather together the dispersed of Judah
From the four corners of the earth.
- 13 The jealousy also of Ephraim shall depart,
And the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off :
Ephraim shall not be jealous of Judah,
And Judah shall not be hostile to Ephraim.
- 14 But they shall invade the borders of the Philistines towards the west ;
Together they shall spoil them of the east :
They shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab ;
And the children of Ammon shall obey them.
- 15 Then shall the LORD utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea ;
And with his mighty wind shall he shake his hand over the river,
And shall smite it in the seven streams,
And make men go over dryshod.
- 16 And there shall be a highway for the remnant of his people,
Who shall be left, from Assyria ;
Like as it was to Israel
In the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.
- 12 And in that day thou shalt say,
O LORD, I will praise thee :
Though thou hast been angry with me, thine anger is turned away,
And thou comfortest me.
- 2 Behold ! God is my salvation ;
I will trust, and not be afraid :
For the LORD JEHOVAH is my strength and my song ;
He also is become my salvation.
- 3 4 Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation. And in that day shall ye say,
Praise the LORD,
Call upon his name,
Declare his mighty deeds among the people,
Make mention that his name is exalted.
- 5 Sing unto the LORD ; for he hath done excellent things :
It is known through all the earth.
- 6 Cry out and shout, thou inhabitant of Zion :
For great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee.
- 13 THE PROPHECY CONCERNING BABYLON, WHICH WAS REVEALED TO ISAIAH
THE SON OF AMOZ.
- 2 Lift ye up a banner upon the bare mountain,
Raise the voice unto them, shake the hand,
That they may go into the gates of the nobles.
- 3 I have commanded my consecrated warriors,
I have also called my mighty ones to execute mine anger,
Even those who rejoice in my highness.
- 4 The noise of a multitude in the mountains, like as of a great people ;
A tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together :
The LORD of hosts mustereth the host for battle.
- 5 They come from a far country,
From the end of the heavens,

ISAIAH XIV.

- Even the LORD, and the weapons of his indignation,
To destroy the whole land.
- 6 Howl ye; for the day of the LORD is at hand;
It shall come as a destruction from the Almighty.
- 7 Therefore shall all hands fall down,
And every man's heart shall melt:
- 8 And they shall be afraid:
Pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them;
They shall be in pain as a woman who travaileth:
They shall be amazed one at another;
Their faces shall be as flames.
- 9 Behold! the day of the LORD cometh,
Cruel both with wrath and fierce anger,
To lay the land desolate:
And he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it.
- 10 For the stars of the heavens and the constellations thereof
Shall not give their light:
The sun shall be darkened in his going forth,
And the moon shall not cause her light to shine.
- 11 And I will punish the world for its wickedness,
And the wicked for their iniquity;
And I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease,
And will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.
- 12 I will make a man more precious than fine gold;
Even than the gold of Ophir.
- 13 Therefore I will shake the heavens,
And the earth shall be removed out of her place,
In the wrath of the LORD of hosts,
And in the day of his fierce anger.
- 14 And the remnant shall be chased as the roe,
And as a sheep that no man taketh up:
They shall every man turn to his own people,
And every one shall flee into his own land.
- 15 Every one who is found shall be thrust through;
And every one who taketh flight shall fall by the sword.
- 16 Their children also shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes;
Their houses shall be spoiled, and their wives ravished.
- 17 Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them,
Who shall not regard silver;
And as for gold, they shall not delight in it.
- 18 Their bows also shall dash the young men to pieces;
And they shall have no compassion on the fruit of the womb;
Their eye shall not pity the children.
- 19 And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms,
The beauty of the Chaldees' excellency,
Shall be as Sodom and Gomorrah, overthrown of God.
- 20 It shall never more be inhabited,
Nor dwelt in from generation to generation:
The Arabian shall not pitch his tent there;
Neither shall the shepherds make their flocks to rest there.
- 21 But the wild beasts of the desert shall lie there;
And their houses shall be full of doleful creatures;
The owls shall dwell there,
And the wild goats shall skip there.
- 22 The vultures of the islands shall cry in their palaces,
And dragons in their temples of pleasure:
Her time is near to come,
And her days shall not be prolonged.
- 14 For the LORD will have mercy on Jacob,
He will yet choose Israel,
And settle them in their own land:
And the strangers shall be joined with them,
And they shall cleave to the house of Jacob.

ISALAH XIV.

- 2 And the people shall take them, and bring them to their own place :
And the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the LORD
For servants and handmaids :
And they shall take captive their captors ;
And they shall rule over their oppressors.
- 3 And in the day that the LORD shall give thee rest
From thy sorrow, and from thy fear,
And from the hard bondage
Wherein thou wast made to serve,
- 4 Thou shalt take up this parable against the king of Babylon, and say,
How hath the oppressor ceased !
The golden city ceased !
- 5 The LORD hath broken the staff of the wicked,
And the sceptre of the tyrants,
- 6 Who smote the people in wrath
With a continual stroke,
Who ruled the nations in anger
With unceasing tyranny.
- 7 The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet :
They break forth into singing.
- 8 Even the fir trees rejoice over thee,
And the cedars of Lebanon, saying,
Since thou art laid down,
No feller is come up against us.
- 9 The invisible world from beneath is moved for thee
To meet thee at thy coming :
It stirreth up the dead for thee,
Even all the chief ones of the earth ;
It hath raised up from their thrones
All the kings of the nations.
- 10 All they shall speak and say unto thee,
Art thou also become weak as we ?
Art thou become like unto us ?
- 11 Thy pomp is brought down to the grave,
And the noise of thy viols :
Putridity is spread under thee, and the worms cover thee.
- 12 How art thou fallen from heaven,
O Lucifer, son of the morning !
How art thou cut down to the ground,
Who didst weaken the nations !
- 13 For thou hast said in thy heart,
I will ascend into the heavens,
I will exalt my throne above the stars of God :
I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north :
- 14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds ;
I will be like the Most High.
- 15 Yet thou shalt be brought down to the grave,
To the sides of the pit.
- 16 Those who see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying,
Is this the man who made the earth to tremble,
Who did shake kingdoms ;
Who made the world as a wilderness,
And destroyed the cities thereof ;
Who opened not the house of his prisoners ?
- 18 All the kings of the nations, even all of them,
Lie in glory, every one in his own sepulchre.
- 19 But thou art cast out of thy grave
Like an abominable branch,
And as the raiment of those who are slain, thrust through with a sword,
That go down to the stones of the pit ;
As a carcase trodden under foot.
- 20 Thou shalt not be joined with them in burial,
Because thou hast destroyed thy land,
And slain thy people :

- The seed of evildoers shall never be renowned.
- 21 Prepare slaughter for his children
For the iniquity of their fathers ;
That they may not rise, nor possess the land,
Nor fill the face of the world with cities.
- 22 For I will rise up against them,
Saith the LORD of hosts,
And cut off from Babylon the name, and remnant,
And son, and son's son, saith the LORD.
- 23 I will also make it a possession for the bittern, and pools of water :
And I will sweep it out with the besom of destruction, saith the LORD of hosts.
- 24 The LORD of hosts hath sworn, saying,
Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass ;
And as I have purposed, so shall it stand :
- 25 That I will break the Assyrian in my land,
And upon my mountains tread him under foot :
Then shall his yoke depart from off them,
And his burden be removed from off their shoulders.
- 26 This is the purpose that is purposed concerning the whole earth :
And this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations.
- 27 For the LORD of hosts hath purposed, and who shall disannul it ?
And his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back ?
- 28 IN THE YEAR THAT KING UZZIAH DIED WAS THIS PROPHECY PRONOUNCED.
- 29 Rejoice not any part of thee, O Philistia !
Because the rod of him who smote thee is broken :
For out of the serpent's root shall come forth a basilisk,
And its fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent.
- 30 And the chiefs of the poor shall feed,
And the needy shall lie down in safety :
And I will kill thy root with famine,
And thy remnant shall be slain.
- 31 Howl, O gate ! cry, O city !
O Philistia, thou art lost in consternation ;
For there shall come from the north a smoke.
And there shall not be a straggler among his hosts.
- 32 What answer shall then be given to the ambassadors of the nations ?
That the LORD hath founded Zion,
And the poor of his people shall find refuge in her.

15 THE PROPHECY CONCERNING MOAB.

- Assuredly in the night of assault Ar of Moab is laid waste, and utterly destroyed ;
Assuredly in the night of assault Kir of Moab is laid waste, and utterly destroyed ;
- 2 Go up, O daughter of Dibon, to the high places, and weep :
Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba :
On all their heads is baldness,
And every beard is cut off.
- 3 In their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth :
On the tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, Weeping abundantly.
- 4 And Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh :
Their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz :
Therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out ;
His life trembleth within him.
- 5 My heart crieth out for Moab ;
His fugitives wander to Zoar, even as a heifer of three years old :
Yea, they mount up to Luhith : with weeping shall they go up ;
For in the way of Horonaim they shall raise a cry of destruction.
- 6 For the waters of Nimrim are wasted :
For the grass is withered away, the herb faileth,
There is no green thing.
- 7 Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up,
Shall they carry away to the brook of the willows.

- 8 For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab;
The wailing thereof unto Eglaim,
And the lamentation thereof unto Beer-elim.
- 9 Though the waters of Dimon be full of blood :
Yet I will bring more upon Dimon,
Lions upon him who escapeth of Moab,
And upon those left in the land.
- 16 Send ye the lambs to the ruler of the land
From Petra of the wilderness,
Unto the mount of the daughter of Zion.
- 2 For as a wandering bird
Cast out of the nets,
So the daughters of Moab shall be
At the fords of Arnon, saying,
- 3 Take counsel, execute judgment;
Make thy shadow as the night at noonday;
Hide the outcasts;
Betray not him who wandereth.
- 4 Let the outcasts of Moab dwell with thee;
Be thou a covert to them from the face of the spoiler:
For the extortioner faileth,
The spoiler ceaseth,
The oppressors are consumed out of the land.
- 5 And in mercy shall the throne be established:
And a Judge shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David,
Judging, and seeking judgment, and prompt in equity.
- 6 We have heard of the pride of Moab; he is very proud:
Even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrath:
But his pretensions are false.
- 7 Therefore shall Moab howl for Moab,
Every one shall howl:
For the men of Kir-hareseth shall ye mourn;
Surely they are stricken.
- 8 For the fields of Heshbon languish,
And the vine of Sibmah: the lords of the nations have broken down its noble branches,
They are come even unto Jazer, they wandered through the wilderness:
Her branches are stretched out, they are gone over the sea.
- 9 Therefore I will bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah:
I will water thee with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh:
For the spoiler hath fallen on thy summer fruits and upon thy vintage.
- 10 And gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field;
And in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting:
The treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses;
I have made their vintage shouting to cease.
- 11 Wherefore my bowels shall sound like a harp for Moab,
And mine inward parts for Kir-harsh.
- 12 And when it is seen
That Moab is weary on the high place,
He shall come to his sanctuary to pray;
But he shall not prevail.
- 13 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning Moab since that time.
- 14 But now the LORD hath spoken, saying,
Within three years, as the years of a hireling,
And the nobles of Moab shall be contemned,
With all that great multitude;
And the remnant shall be very small and feeble.

17 THE PROPHECY CONCERNING DAMASCUS.

- Behold, Damascus shall be taken away from being a city,
And it shall be a heap of ruins.
- 2 The cities of Aroer shall be forsaken for ever;

- They shall be for flocks,
Which shall lie down, and none shall make them afraid.
- 3 The fortress also shall cease from Ephraim,
And the kingdom from Damascus, and the rest of Syria :
They shall be as the glory of the children of Israel,
Saith the LORD of hosts.
- 4 And in that day the glory of Jacob shall be made thin,
And the fatness of his flesh shall become lean.
- 5 And it shall be as when the harvestman gathereth the corn,
And reapeth the ears with his arm ;
And it shall be as he who gathereth ears in the valley of Rephaim.
- 6 Yet gleaning grapes shall be left in it, as the shaking of an olive tree,
Two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough,
Four or five in the outmost fruitful branches thereof,
Saith the LORD God of Israel.
- 7 At that day shall a man look to his Maker,
And his eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Israel.
- 8 And he shall not look to the altars, the work of his hands,
Neither shall respect that which his fingers have made,
Either the groves, or the sun images.
- 9 In that day shall his strongly defenced cities be as a forsaken bough,
And an uppermost branch,
Which they left because of the children of Israel :
And the land shall become a desolation.
- 10 Because thou hast forgotten the God of thy salvation,
And hast not been mindful of the rock of thy strength,
Therefore shalt thou plant pleasant plants,
And shalt set it with strange slips :
- 11 In the day shalt thou make thy plant to grow,
And in the morning shalt thou make thy seed to flourish :
But the harvest shall be a heap in the day of grief
And of desperate sorrow.
- 12 Woe to the multitude of many people,
Who make a noise like the noise of the seas ;
And to the roaring of nations,
Who make a roaring like the roaring of mighty waters !
- 13 The nations shall roar, like the roaring of many waters :
But God shall rebuke them, and they shall flee far off,
And shall be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind,
And like thistle-down before the whirlwind.
- 14 And behold at eveningtide trouble ;
And before the morning they are not.
This is the portion of those who spoil us,
And the lot of those who rob us.
- 18 Woe to the land shadowing with wings,
Which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia :
2 That sendeth ambassadors by the sea,
Even in vessels of bulrushes upon the waters,
Saying, Go, ye swift messengers, to a nation outspread and fierce,
To a people terrible from their beginning hitherto ;
A nation meted out and trodden down,
Whose land the rivers have spoiled !
- 3 All ye inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the earth,
When an ensign is lifted up on the mountains, see ye ;
And when a trumpet soundeth, hear ye.
- 4 For so the LORD said unto me, I will sit calmly,
And look on in my dwelling place
Like a clear heat upon herbs after rain ;
And like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.
- 5 For before the harvest, when the bud is perfect,
And the sour grape is ripening in the flower,
He shall both cut off the shoots with pruning hooks,
And take away and cut down the branches.

- 6 They shall be left together for the birds of the mountains,
And for the beasts of the earth :
And the birds shall summer upon them,
And all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them.
- 7 At that time shall a present be brought unto the LORD of hosts
Of a people outspread and fierce,
And from a people terrible from their beginning hitherto ;
A nation meted out and trodden under foot,
Whose land the rivers have spoiled,
To the place of the name of the LORD of hosts, the mount Zion.

19 THE PROPHECY CONCERNING EGYPT.

- Behold, the LORD rideth upon a swift cloud,
And shall come into Egypt :
And the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his approach,
And the heart of Egypt shall melt within her.
- 2 And I will set the Egyptians against the Egyptians :
And they shall fight every one against his brother,
And every one against his neighbour ;
City against city,
And kingdom against kingdom.
 - 3 And the spirit of Egypt shall fail within her ;
And I will destroy her counsel :
And they shall seek to the idols, and to the charmers,
And to those who have familiar spirits, and to the wizards.
 - 4 And the Egyptians will I give over into the hand of a cruel lord ;
And a fierce king shall rule over them,
Saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts.
 - 5 And the waters shall fail from the sea,
And the river shall be wasted and dried up.
 - 6 And the streams shall become putrid ;
And the canals of defence shall be emptied and dried up :
The reeds and flags shall wither.
 - 7 The marshy meadows, by the mouth of the rivers,
And every thing sown by the brooks,
Shall wither, be driven away, and be no more.
 - 8 The fishermen also shall mourn,
And all those who cast the hook into the brooks shall lament,
And those who spread nets upon the waters shall languish.
 - 9 Moreover those who work in fine flax,
And those who weave networks, shall be confounded.
 - 10 And their webs shall be broken in pieces,
All who labour for hire shall be grieved in mind.
 - 11 Surely the princes of Zoan are fools,
The counsel of the wise counsellors of Pharaoh is become vain :
How say ye unto Pharaoh,
I am the son of the wise,
The son of ancient kings ?
 - 12 Where are they ? where are thy wise men ?
And let them tell thee now, and let them make known
What the LORD of hosts hath purposed concerning Egypt.
 - 13 The princes of Zoan are infatuated,
The princes of Noph are deceived ;
The chiefs of her tribes have caused Egypt to err.
 - 14 The LORD hath poured a perverse spirit into the midst of her :
So that Egypt is made to err in every work,
As a drunken man staggereth in his vomit.
 - 15 Neither shall there be any work for Egypt,
Which the head or tail, branch or rush, may do.
 - 16 In that day shall Egypt be like unto women :
And it shall be afraid and fear
Because of the shaking of the hand of the LORD of hosts,
Which he shaketh over it.
 - 17 And the land of Judah shall be a terror unto Egypt,

- Every one who maketh mention thereof shall be afraid in himself,
 Because of the counsel of the LORD of hosts,
 Which he hath determined against it.
- 18 In that day shall five cities in the land of Egypt
 Speak the language of Canaan,
 And swear to the LORD of hosts ;
 One of them shall be called, THE CITY OF THE SUN.
- 19 In that day shall there be an altar to the LORD
 In the midst of the land of Egypt,
 And a pillar at its border to the LORD.
- 20 And it shall be for a sign and for a witness
 Unto the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt :
 For they shall cry unto the LORD because of the oppressors,
 And he shall send them a saviour and a defender,
 And he shall deliver them.
- 21 And the LORD shall be known to Egypt,
 And the Egyptians shall know the LORD in that day,
 And shall do sacrifice and oblation ;
 Yea, they shall vow a vow unto the LORD, and perform it.
- 22 And the LORD shall smite Egypt : he shall smite and heal it :
 And they shall return even to the LORD.
 And he shall be entreated of them, and shall heal them.
- 23 In that day shall there be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria,
 And the Assyrians shall come into Egypt,
 And the Egyptians into Assyria,
 And the Egyptians shall worship with the Assyrians.
- 24 In that day shall Israel be the third With Egypt and with Assyria,
- 25 Even a blessing in the midst of the land : whom the LORD of hosts shall bless, saying,
 Blessed be Egypt my people,
 And Assyria the work of my hands,
 And Israel mine inheritance.

20 IN the year that Tartan came unto Ashdod, (when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him,) and fought against Ashdod, and took it ; at the same time spake the LORD by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go and loose the sackcloth from off thy loins, and put off thy shoes from thy feet. And he did so, walking stripped and barefoot. And the LORD said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath walked stripped and barefoot three years, a sign and a type in reference to Egypt and Ethiopia ; so shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, stripped and barefoot, even with their hinder parts uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. And they shall be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory. And the inhabitants of this coast shall say in that day, Behold ! thus it is with our expectation, to which we have fled for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria : and how then shall we escape ?

21 THE PROPHECY CONCERNING THE DESERT OF THE SEA.

- As whirlwinds sweeping through the south ;
 So it cometh from the desert, from the terrible land.
- 2 A grievous vision is declared unto me ;
 The plunderer plundering, and the destroyer destroying.
 Go up, O Elam : besiege, O Media ;
 All sighing have I made to cease.
- 3 Therefore are my loins filled with pain :
 Pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman who travaileth :
 I am bowed down at the hearing of it ;
 I am dismayed at the seeing of it.
- 4 My heart is bewildered,
 Fearfulness hath affrighted me :
 The night of my pleasure hath he turned into fear unto me.
- 5 The table is prepared, the watch is set, eat and drink :
 Arise, ye princes, and anoint the shield.

- 6 For thus hath the LORD said unto me,
Go, set a watchman,
Let him declare what he seeth.
 - 7 And he saw troops of horses by pairs,
Troops of asses, and troops of camels ;
 - 8 And he hearkened diligently with much heed : and he cried out like a lion :
My lord, I stand continually upon the watchtower in the day time,
And I am set at my post whole nights :
 - 9 And, behold, here cometh troops of men,
With horses by pairs.
And he further said,
Babylon is fallen, is fallen !
And all the graven images of her gods he hath dashed on the ground.
 - 10 O people, afflicted, forsaken, and grieved :
That which I have heard of the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel,
Have I declared unto you.
 - 11 THE PROPHECY CONCERNING DUMAH.
One calleth to me out of Seir,
Watchman ! what of the night ?
Watchman ! what of the night ?
 - 12 The watchman said,
Morning cometh, and also night :
If ye will inquire, inquire :
Turn, come.
 - 13 THE PROPHECY CONCERNING ARABIA.
In the forest in Arabia shall ye lodge,
O ye travelling companies of Dedanites.
 - 14 Ye inhabitants of the land of Tema,
Bring water to the thirsty,
Anticipate with bread those who flee.
 - 15 For they flee from the swords,
From the drawn sword,
And from the bent bow,
And from the grievousness of war.
 - 16 For thus hath the LORD said unto me,
Within a year, according to the years of a hireling,
And all the glory of Kedar shall fail :
 - 17 And the residue of the number of archers, the mighty sons of Kedar, shall be diminished :
- For the LORD God of Israel hath spoken it.

22 THE PROPHECY CONCERNING THE VALLEY OF VISION.

- What aileth thee now,
That thou, and all belonging to thee, art gone up to the housetops ?
- 2 Thou wast full of stirs,
The noisy city, the joyous city :
Thy slain men are not slain with the sword,
Nor such as have died in battle.
 - 3 All thy rulers flee together,
They are bound by the archers :
All who are found in thee are bound together,
Even those who have fled from far.
 - 4 Therefore said I, Look away from me ; I will weep bitterly, Labour not to comfort me, because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people.
 - 5 For it is a day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity
By the Lord God of hosts in the valley of vision,
Breaking down the walls,
And of crying to the mountains.
 - 6 And Elam beareth the quiver
With chariots of men and horsemen,
And Kir uncovereth the shield.

- 7 And the choicest of thy valleys are full of chariots,
And the horsemen set themselves in array at the gate.
- 8 The barrier of Judah is laid open,
And thou lookest to the armour of the house of the forest.
- 9 Ye see also the breaches of the city of David, that they are many :
And ye gather together the waters of the lower pool.
- 10 And ye number the houses of Jerusalem,
And the houses ye break down to fortify the wall.
- 11 Ye make also a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool :
But ye look not to him who doeth this,
Neither have respect unto him who devised it long ago.
- 12 The Lord God of hosts calleth on this same day
To weeping, and to mourning,
And to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth :
- 13 And behold joy and gladness,
Slaying oxen, and killing sheep,
Eating flesh, and drinking wine :
Let us eat and drink ;
For to-morrow we shall die.
- 14 But it is revealed in mine ears by the LORD of hosts,
Surely this iniquity shall not be pardoned till ye die,
Saith the Lord God of hosts.
- 15 Thus saith the Lord God of hosts,
Go, get thee unto this treasurer,
Even unto Shebna, who is over the house, and say,
- 16 What hast thou to do here ? and whom hast thou here,
That thou hast hewed thee out a sepulchre here,
As he who heweth him out a sepulchre on high,
And who cutteth out a habitation for himself in a rock ?
- 17 Behold, the LORD will carry thee away with a mighty captivity,
And will hold thee firmly.
- 18 And, whirling thee round and round,
Will toss thee like a ball into a wide country :
There shalt thou die,
And there the chariots of thy glory shall be the shame of thy lord's house.
- 19 And I will drive thee from thy post,
And pull thee down from thy station.
- 20 And in that day
I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah :
- 21 And I will clothe him with thy robe,
And strengthen him with thy girdle,
And I will commit thy government into his hand :
And he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem,
And to the house of Judah.
- 22 And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder ;
He shall open, and none shall shut ;
And he shall shut, and none shall open.
- 23 And I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place ;
And he shall become a glorious throne to his father's house.
- 24 And they shall hang upon him all the glory of his father's house,
The offspring and the issue,
All vessels of small quantity, from the vessels of cups, even to every sort of meaner vessels.
- 25 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts,
Shall the nail that is fastened in the sure place be removed,
And be cut down, and fall ;
And the burden that was upon it shall be cut off :
For the LORD hath spoken it.

23 THE PROPHECY CONCERNING TYRE.

Howl, ye ships of Tarshish ;
For it is laid waste,
So that there is no house, nor any to enter into it :

- From the land of Chittim it is revealed to them.
- 2 Be astonished, ye inhabitants of the isle ;
Thou whom the merchants of Zidon, who pass over the sea, have supplied.
- 3 On the great waters was the produce of Sihor, the harvest of the river was her revenue ;
And she was a mart of nations.
- 4 Be thou ashamed, O Zidon : for the sea hath spoken,
Even the mighty fortress of the sea, saying,
I am as though I had not brought forth children,
I nourished no young men, nor brought up virgins.
- 5 As at the report concerning Egypt,
So shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.
- 6 Pass ye over to Tarshish ;
Howl, ye inhabitants of the isle.
- 7 Is this your joyous city,
Whose antiquity is of ancient days ?
Her own feet shall carry her far away to sojourn.
- 8 Who hath purposed this against Tyre,
The dispenser of crowns,
Whose merchants are princes,
Whose traders are the honourable of the earth ?
- 9 The LORD of hosts hath purposed it,
To stain the pride of all glory,
And to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.
- 10 Overflow thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish :
There is no more restraint.
- 11 The LORD stretched out his hand over the sea,
He shook the kingdoms :
He hath given a commandment against the merchant city,
To destroy her strong holds.
- 12 And he said, Thou shalt no more rejoice,
O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon :
Arise, pass over to Chittim ;
Yet shalt thou have no rest.
- 13 Behold the land of the Chaldeans ;
The people was not,
Till the Assyrian founded it for those who dwell in the wilderness :
They set up the towers thereof,
They raised up the palaces thereof ;
And they have reduced her to ruin.
- 14 Howl, ye ships of Tarshish :
For your strong holds are laid waste.
- 15 And in that day Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years,
According to the days of one king :
After the end of seventy years shall Tyre sing as a harlot.
- 16 Take a harp, go about the city,
Thou harlot that hast been forgotten ;
Make sweet melody, sing many songs,
That thou mayest be remembered.
- 17 And after the end of seventy years,
The LORD will visit Tyre,
And she shall turn to her hire,
And shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world
Upon the face of the earth.
- 18 But her gain and her hire shall be holiness to the LORD :
It shall not be treasured nor laid up ;
For her gain shall be for those who dwell before the LORD,
To eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.
- 24 BEHOLD, the LORD maketh the land empty, and maketh it waste,
And turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.
- 2 And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest ;
As with the servant, so with his master ;

ISAIAH XXIV.

- As with the maid, so with her mistress ;
 As with the buyer, so with the seller ;
 As with the lender, so with the borrower ;
 As with the taker, so with the giver of usury.
- 3 The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled :
 For the LORD hath spoken this word.
- 4 The land mourneth and fadeth away,
 The land languisheth and fadeth away,
 The haughty people of the land do languish.
- 5 The land also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof ;
 Because they have transgressed the laws, changed the statutes,
 Broken the everlasting covenant.
- 6 Therefore a curse devoureth the land,
 And those who dwell therein are desolate :
 Therefore the inhabitants of the land are burnt up,
 And few men are left.
- 7 The new wine mourneth,
 The vine languisheth,
 And all the merry-hearted do sigh.
- 8 The mirth of tabrets ceaseth,
 The noise of those who rejoice is ended,
 The joy of the harp ceaseth.
- 9 They shall not drink wine with a song ;
 Strong drink shall be bitter to those who drink it.
- 10 The city is broken down, it is desolate :
 Every house is shut up, that no man may come in.
- 11 There is a crying for wine in the streets ;
 All joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone.
- 12 In the city is left desolation,
 And the gate is battered to ruins.
- 13 When thus it shall be in the midst of the land among the people,
 There shall be as the shaking of an olive tree,
 And as the gleaning grapes when the vintage is done.
- 14 They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing ;
 Because of the majesty of the LORD, they shall shout aloud from the sea.
- 15 Wherefore glorify ye the LORD in the distant coasts,
 Even the name of the LORD God of Israel in the isles of the sea.
- 16 From the uttermost part of the earth we hear songs,
 Even glory to the Righteous One.
 But I said, My calamity, my calamity, woe unto me !
 The plunderers plunder ;
 Yea, the plunderers do continually plunder.
- 17 Terror, and the pit, and the snare,
 Are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth.
- 18 And he who fleeth from the noise of the terror shall fall into the pit ;
 And he who cometh up out of the midst of the pit
 Shall be taken in the snare :
 For the floodgates from on high are open,
 And the foundations of the earth do shake.
- 19 The land is utterly broken down,
 The land is greatly shattered,
 The land is moved exceedingly.
- 20 The land shall reel to and fro like a drunkard,
 And shall move like a hammock ;
 And her transgression lieth heavy upon her ;
 And she shall fall, and not rise again.
- 21 And in that day
 The LORD shall punish the host of the high ones on high,
 And the kings of the earth upon the earth.
- 22 And they shall be gathered together,
 As prisoners are gathered in the pit,
 And shall be shut up in the prison,
 And after many days shall they be visited.

- 23 Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed,
When the LORD of hosts shall reign in mount Zion,
And in Jerusalem, and before his elders shall he be glorified.
- 25 O LORD, thou art my God;
I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name;
For thou hast done wonderful things;
Thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.
- 2 For thou hast made of the city a heap;
The defenced city a ruin:
A palace of strangers to be no city;
It shall never be built.
- 3 Therefore shall the strong people glorify thee,
The city of the terrible nations shall fear thee.
- 4 For thou hast been a fortress to the poor,
A strength to the needy in his distress,
A refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat,
When the blast of the terrible ones raged like a winter storm.
- 5 Thou hast brought down the noise of the proud,
As the heat in a parched land;
As the heat by a thick cloud:
The triumph of the terrible ones is brought low.
- 6 And in this mountain shall the LORD of hosts make unto all people
A feast of fat things, a feast of wines from the lees,
Of fat things full of marrow, of wines from the lees well refined.
- 7 And he will destroy in this mountain
The face of the covering cast over all people,
And the web that is spread over all nations.
- 8 He will swallow up death in victory;
And the Lord God will wipe away tears from off all faces;
And the reproach of his people shall he take away from off all the earth:
For the LORD hath spoken it.
- 9 And it shall be said in that day,
Lo, this is our God;
We have waited for him, and he hath saved us:
This is the LORD;
We have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.
- 10 For in this mountain shall the hand of the LORD give rest,
And Moab shall be trodden down under him,
Even as straw is trodden down for the dunghill.
- 11 And he shall spread forth his hands in the midst of it,
As he who swimmeth spreadeth forth his hands to swim:
And he shall bring down his pride
Together with the spoils of his hands.
- 12 And the towering fortification of thy walls will he bring down,
Lay low, and level with the ground, even with the dust.
- 26 In that day shall this song be sung.
In the land of Judah we have a strong city;
Salvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks.
- 2 Open ye the gates,
That the righteous nation which keepeth the truth may enter in.
- 3 Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace,
Whose mind is stayed on thee:
Because he trusteth in thee.
- 4 Trust ye in the LORD for ever:
For the LORD JEHOVAH is the Rock of ages:
- 5 For he bringeth down those who dwell on high;
The lofty city, he layeth it low;
He layeth it low, even to the ground;
He bringeth it even to the dust.
- 6 The foot shall tread it down,
Even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy.
- 7 The way of the just is uprightness:
Thou, Most Upright, dost regulate the path of the just.
- 8 Yea, in the way of thy judgments, O LORD, have we waited for thee;

- The desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee.
- 9 With my soul have I desired thee in the night;
Yea, with my spirit within me have I sought thee early :
For when thy judgments are in the earth,
The inhabitants of the world learn righteousness.
- 10 Should favour be showed to the wicked,
Yet will he not learn righteousness :
In the land of uprightness will he deal unjustly,
And will not regard the majesty of the LORD.
- 11 LORD, when thy hand is lifted up, they will not see :
But they shall see with confusion thy zeal for thy people ;
Yea, the fire shall devour thine enemies.
- 12 LORD, thou hast ordained peace for us :
For thou also hast wrought all our works for us.
- 13 O LORD our God, other lords besides thee have had dominion over us :
But henceforth thee only, and thy name, will we celebrate.
- 14 They are dead, they shall not live ;
They are deceased, they shall not rise :
Because thou hast visited and destroyed them,
And made all remembrance of them to perish.
- 15 Thou hast increased the nation, O LORD,
Thou hast increased the nation : thou art glorified :
Thou hast removed far all the boundaries of the land.
- 16 LORD, in trouble have they sought thee,
They poured out humble supplication when thy chastening was upon them.
- 17 Like as a woman with child,
Who draweth near the time of her delivery,
Is in pain, and crieth out in her pangs ;
So have we been in thy sight, O LORD.
- 18 We have been as with child, we have been in pain,
We have as it were brought forth wind ;
Deliverance is not wrought for the land ;
Neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen.
- 19 Thy dead shall live again,
Their dead bodies shall arise.
Awake and sing, ye who dwell in dust :
For thy dew is as the dew of the dawn,
And the earth shall cast out the dead.
- 20 Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers,
And shut thy door behind thee :
Hide thyself as it were for a little moment,
Until the indignation be overpast.
- 21 For, behold, the LORD cometh out of his place
To punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity :
The earth also shall disclose its blood,
And shall no more cover its slain.
- 27 In that day the LORD with his hard and great and strong sword Shall punish leviathan the piercing serpent,
And leviathan that crooked serpent ;
And he shall slay the dragon that is in the sea.
- 2 In that day sing ye a responsive song, concerning the vineyard.
- 3 I the LORD do keep it ;
I water it every moment :
Lest any hurt it,
I keep it night and day.
- 4 I have no wall for my defence :
Oh that I had a fence of briers and thorns !
I would go through them in battle, I would burn them up together.
- 5 Or let him take hold of my protection,
That he may make peace with me ;
And he shall make peace with me.
- 6 In coming days Jacob shall take root :
Israel shall blossom and bud,

And fill the face of the world with fruit.

- 7 Hath he smitten him, as he smote those who smote him?
Or is he slain according to the slaughter of those who are slain by him?
- 8 When thou sendest forth the rod, thou wilt debate with it:
He stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind.
- 9 By this therefore shall the iniquity of Jacob be expiated;
And this shall be all the fruit—the removal of his sin;
When he maketh all the stones of the altar as chalkstones that are broken in pieces,
The groves and images shall not rise up again.
- 10 For the defenced city is desolate,
And the habitation forsaken, and left like a wilderness:
There the calf doth feed, and there it lieth down,
And consumeth her branches.
- 11 When her boughs are withered, they shall be broken off:
The women shall come, and make a fire of them:
For it is a people of no understanding:
Therefore he who made them will not have mercy on them,
And he who formed them will show them no favour.
- 12 And in that day the LORD shall gather his fruit
From the branch of the river unto the stream of Egypt,
And ye shall be gleaned one by one, O ye children of Israel.
- 13 And in that day a great trumpet shall be blown,
And they shall come who were ready to perish in the land of Assyria,
And the outcasts in the land of Egypt,
And shall worship the LORD in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

- 28 WOE to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim,
Whose glorious beauty is a fading flower,
Which is on the head of the fat valleys of those who are overcome with wine!
- 2 Behold, the Lord hath a mighty and strong one,
Which as a tempest of hail and a destroying storm,
As a flood of mighty waters overflowing,
Shall cast it down to the earth with his hand.
 - 3 The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim,
Shall be trodden under foot:
 - 4 And the fading flower which while in its glorious beauty is on the head of the fat valley,
Shall be as the hasty fruit before the summer;
Which he who looketh upon plucketh,
And whilst it is yet on its bough he eateth it up.
 - 5 In that day shall the LORD of hosts be for a crown of glory,
And for a diadem of beauty, unto the residue of his people,
 - 6 And for a spirit of judgment to him who sitteth in judgment,
And for strength to those who turn the battle from the gate.
 - 7 But they also have erred through wine,
And reel through strong drink;
The priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink,
They are overpowered with wine,
They reel through strong drink;
They err in vision, they stumble in judgment.
 - 8 For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness,
So that there is no place clean.
 - 9 Whom can such teach knowledge?
And whom can such make to understand doctrine?
They are but as children weaned from the milk,
And removed from the breasts:
 - 10 For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept;
Line upon line, line upon line;
Here a little, and there a little:
 - 11 For with stammering lips and another tongue
Will he speak to this people.
 - 12 To whom he said,

ISAIAH XXVIII.

- This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest ;
 And this is the refreshing :
 Yet they would not hear.
- 13 But the word of the LORD shall be unto them
 Precept upon precept, precept upon precept ;
 Line upon line, line upon line ;
 Here a little, and there a little ;
 That they might go, and fall backwards, and be broken,
 And snared, and taken.
- 14 Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scoffers,
 That rule this people who are in Jerusalem.
- 15 Because ye say,
 We have made a covenant with death,
 And with the grave are we at agreement ;
 When the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us :
 For we have made falsehood our refuge,
 And under deceit have we hid ourselves :
- 16 Therefore thus saith the Lord God,
 Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone,
 A tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation :
 He who believeth shall not make haste.
- 17 Judgment also will I lay to the line,
 And righteousness to the plumb line :
 And the hail shall sweep away the refuge of falsehood,
 And the waters shall overflow the hiding place.
- 18 And your covenant with death shall be disannulled,
 And your agreement with the grave shall not stand ;
 When the overflowing scourge shall pass through,
 Then ye shall be trodden down by it.
- 19 From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you :
 For morning by morning shall it pass over,
 By day and by night :
 Even the report itself shall cause terror.
- 20 For the bed is too short for one to stretch himself at length ;
 And the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in.
- 21 For the LORD shall rise up as in mount Perazim,
 He shall be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon,
 That he may do his work, his strange work ;
 And bring to pass his act, his strange act.
- 22 Now therefore be ye not mockers,
 Lest your bonds be made strong :
 For I have heard from the Lord God of hosts that a devastation
 Is even determined of all the land.
- 23 Give ye ear, and hear my voice ;
 Hearken, and hear my speech.
- 24 Doth the ploughman plough all day to sow ?
 Is he always opening and breaking the clods of the ground ?
- 25 When he hath made level its face,
 Doth he not cast abroad the vetches, and scatter the cummin,
 And cast in the principal wheat, and the appointed barley
 And the rye in their place ?
- 26 For his God doth instruct him to discretion,
 And doth teach him.
- 27 For the vetches are not threshed with a threshing instrument,
 Neither is a cart wheel rolled over upon the cummin ;
 But the vetches are beaten out with a staff,
 And the cummin with a rod.
- 28 Bread corn is bruised ;
 Because he will not ever be threshing it,
 Nor break it with the wheel of his cart,
 Nor bruise it with the hoofs of his cattle.
- 29 This also cometh forth from the LORD of hosts,
 Who is wonderful in counsel, and whose wisdom is great.

- 29 Woe to Ariel, to Ariel,
The city which David besieged !
Add ye year to year ;
Let the festivals go round.
- 2 Yet I will distress Ariel,
And there shall be heaviness and sorrow :
And it shall be indeed an Ariel [A STOUT LION] to me.
- 3 And I will encamp against thee round about,
And will lay siege against thee with a mount,
And I will raise forts against thee.
- 4 And thou shalt be brought down, and shalt speak from the ground,
And thy speech shall be low from the dust,
And thy voice shall be, as of one who hath a familiar spirit, from the ground,
And thy speech shall whisper from the dust.
- 5 But the multitude of thine enemies shall be like small dust,
And the multitude of the terrible ones shall be as chaff that passeth away :
Yea, it shall take place in an instant, suddenly.
- 6 Thou shalt be visited of the LORD of hosts
With thunder, and with earthquake, and a loud voice,
With storm and tempest,
And the flame of devouring fire.
- 7 And the multitude of all the nations
That fight against Ariel,
Even all who fight against her and her ramparts, and those who distress her,
Shall be as a dream of a night vision.
- 8 It shall even be
As when a hungry man dreameth, and, behold, he eateth ;
But he awaketh, and his soul is empty :
Or as when a thirsty man dreameth, and, behold, he drinketh :
But he awaketh, and, behold, he is faint, and his soul hath appetite :
So shall it be with the multitude of all the nations
That fight against mount Zion.
- 9 Stay, and wonder ;
Take your pleasure, and be ye blinded :
They are drunken, but not with wine ;
They stagger, but not with strong drink.
- 10 For the LORD hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep,
And hath closed your eyes :
The prophets and your rulers, the seers hath he covered.
- 11 And the whole vision is become to you
As the words of a book that is sealed,
Which men deliver to one who is learned,
Saying, Read this, I pray thee :
But he saith, I cannot ; for it is sealed :
- 12 Or if the book be delivered to him who is not learned,
Saying, Read this, I pray thee :
But he saith, I am not learned.
- 13 Wherefore the Lord saith,
Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth,
And with their lips do honour me,
But have removed their heart far from me,
And their fear towards me is taught by the precept of men :
- 14 Therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people,
Even a marvellous work and a wonder :
For the wisdom of their wise men shall perish,
And the prudence of their prudent men shall be hid.
- 15 Woe unto those who seek deeply to hide their counsel from the LORD,
And their works are in the dark,
And they say, Who seeth us ? and who knoweth us ?
- 16 O your perverseness !
Shall the potter be esteemed as the clay ?
Shall the work say of him who made it, He made me not ?
Or shall the thing framed say of him who framed it, He hath no understanding ?

ISAIAH XXX.

- 17 Is it not yet a very little while,
And Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field,
And the fruitful field shall be esteemed as a forest?
- 18 And in that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book,
And the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity, and out of darkness.
- 19 The meek also shall increase their joy in the LORD,
And the poor among them shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.
- 20 For the terrible one is brought to nought, and the scoffer is consumed,
And all who watch for iniquity are cut off:
- 21 Who make a man an offender for a word,
And lay a snare for him who reproveth in the gate,
And turn aside the just for a thing of nought.
- 22 Therefore, thus saith the LORD, (who redeemed Abraham,) concerning the house of Jacob,
Jacob shall not now be ashamed,
Neither shall his face now wax pale.
- 23 But when his children see the work of my hands,
In the midst of them, they shall sanctify my name,
And sanctify the Holy One of Jacob,
And shall fear the God of Israel.
- 24 Those also who erred in spirit shall attend to instruction,
And those who murmured shall learn doctrine.

- 30 WOE to the rebellious children, saith the LORD,
Who take counsel, but not of me;
And pour out libations, but not from my spirit,
That they may add sin to sin:
2 Who set out to go down into Egypt,
But have not asked at my mouth;
To strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh,
And to trust in the shadow of Egypt!
- 3 Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame,
And the trust in the shadow of Egypt your confusion.
- 4 For their princes were at Zoan,
And their ambassadors came to Hanes.
- 5 They were all ashamed of a people who could not profit them,
Nor be a help or profit,
But a shame, and also a reproach.
- 6 The burden of the beasts going southwards:
Into the land of trouble and anguish,
From whence come the lioness and the fierce lion,
The viper and fiery flying serpent,
They will carry their riches upon the shoulders of young asses,
And their treasures upon the bunches of camels,
To a people who shall not profit them.
- 7 For the Egyptians shall help in vain, and to no purpose:
Therefore have I cried concerning this, Their strength is to sit still.
- 8 Now go, write it before them on a tablet,
And note it in a book,
That it may be for the latter days; even a testimony for ever;
- 9 That they are a rebellious people, lying children,
Children who will not hear the law of the LORD:
- 10 Who say to the seers,
See not;
And to the prophets,
Prophesy not unto us right things,
Speak unto us smooth things,
Prophesy deceits:
- 11 Get you out of the way,
Turn aside out of the path,
Remove from our sight the Holy One of Israel.
- 12 Wherefore thus saith the Holy One of Israel,
Because ye despise this word,
And trust in oppression and perverseness,

- And stay thereon :
- 13 Therefore this iniquity shall be to you
As a breach ready to fall,
Swelling out in a high wall,
Whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant.
- 14 And it shall be broken
As one breaketh a potters' vessel that is broken in pieces ;
He shall not spare :
So that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a broken piece
To take fire from the hearth,
Or to take water with out of the pool.
- 15 For thus saith the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel ;
In returning and rest shall ye be saved ;
In quietness and in confidence shall be your strength : and ye would not.
- 16 But ye said, No ; for we will flee upon horses ;
Therefore shall ye flee :
And, We will ride upon the swift horses ;
Therefore shall those who pursue you be swift.
- 17 A thousand shall flee at the threat of one ;
At the threat of five shall ye all flee :
Till ye be left as a tree left of its branches upon the top of a mountain,
And as an ensign on a hill.
- 18 Nevertheless will the LORD wait, that he may be gracious unto you,
And he will arise, that he may have mercy upon you :
For the LORD is a God of justice :
Blessed are all those who wait for him.
- 19 For a holy people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem :
Thou shalt weep no more :
He will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry ;
When he heareth it, he will answer thee.
- 20 And though the Lord give you
The bread of adversity, and the water of affliction,
Yet shall not thy teachers be removed into a corner any more,
But thine eyes shall see thy teachers :
- 21 And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying,
This is the way, walk ye in it,
When ye turn to the right hand, or to the left.
- 22 Ye shall defile also the covering of thy graven images of silver,
And the ornament of thy molten images of gold :
Thou shalt cast them away as an offensive cloth ;
Thou shalt say unto it, Get thee hence.
- 23 Then shall he give rain for thy seed,
With which thou shalt sow the ground ;
And bread corn, the produce of the earth,
Shall be fat and plenteous :
In that day shall thy cattle feed in large pastures.
- 24 The oxen likewise and the young asses that plough the ground
Shall eat clean provender,
Which hath been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan.
- 25 And there shall be upon every high mountain,
And upon every high hill,
Rills and streams of waters
In the day of the great slaughter,
When the mighty fall.
- 26 Then shall the light of the moon be as the light of the sun,
And the light of the sun shall be sevenfold,
As the light of seven days,
In the day that the LORD bindeth up the breach of his people,
And healeth the wound of their stroke.
- 27 Behold, the name of the LORD cometh from far,
His wrath burneth, and his flame rageth :
His lips are full of indignation,
And his tongue as a devouring fire :

- 28 And his breath, as an overflowing torrent,
Reacheth to the very neck :
He shall sift the nations with the sieve of vanity ;
And there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err :
- 29 Ye shall have a song, as in the night when a holy solemnity is kept ;
And gladness of heart, as when one marcheth to the sound of a pipe
Going to the mountain of the LORD, to the Mighty One of Israel.
- 30 And the LORD shall cause his glorious voice to be heard,
And shall show the lighting down of his arm,
With the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire,
With a flood, and tempest, and hailstones.
- 31 For through the voice of the LORD shall the Assyrian be beaten down,
As with the rod of destruction.
- 32 And every stroke of the rod,
Which the LORD shall lay heavily upon him,
Shall be accompanied with tabrets and harps :
And in fierce battles will he fight against him.
- 33 For Tophet is made ready of old ;
Yea, for the king it is prepared ;
Deep and large :
The pile thereof is fire and much wood ;
The breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it.
- 31 WOE to those who go down to Egypt for help ;
And stay on horses,
And trust in chariots, because they are many ;
And in horsemen, because they are very strong ;
But they look not unto the Holy One of Israel,
Neither seek the LORD !
- 2 Yet he also is wise,
And will bring calamity, and will not call back his words ;
But will arise against the house of the evildoers,
And against the help of those who work iniquity.
- 3 Now the Egyptians are men, and not gods ;
And their horses flesh, and not spirit.
When the LORD shall stretch out his hand,
Both he who helpeth shall fall, and he who is helped shall fall down,
And they all shall perish together.
- 4 For thus saith the LORD,
Like as the lion and the young lion roaring on their prey,
When a multitude of shepherds is called forth against them,
They will not be afraid of their voice,
Nor terrified by the multitude of them :
So shall the LORD of hosts come down to fight for mount Zion,
And for the hill thereof.
- 5 As birds covering their young, so will the LORD of hosts protect Jerusalem ;
Protecting also he will deliver it ;
And preserving he will rescue it.
- 6 Turn ye unto him
From whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted.
- 7 For in that day every man shall cast away
His idols of silver, and his idols of gold,
Which your own hands have made unto you for a sin.
- 8 Then shall the Assyrian fall with the sword, not of a mighty man ;
And the sword, not of a mean man, shall devour him :
But he shall flee from the sword,
And the courage of his young men shall fail.
- 9 And he shall pass over to his strong hold for fear,
And his princes shall be struck with consternation at his flight,
Saith the LORD, whose fire is in Zion,
And his furnace in Jerusalem.
- 32 Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness,
And princes shall rule in justice.
- 2 And a man shall be as a hiding place from the wind,

- And a covert from the tempest ;
 As rivers of water in a dry place,
 As the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.
 3 And the eyes of those who see shall not be dim,
 And the ears of those who hear shall hearken.
 4 The heart also of the rash shall understand knowledge,
 And the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak plainly.
 5 The vile person shall be no more called liberal,
 Nor shall it be said of the miser, He is rich.
 6 For the vile person will speak villany,
 And his heart will work iniquity,
 To practise hypocrisy, and to utter error against the LORD,
 To make empty the soul of the hungry,
 And he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.
 7 The instruments also of the miser are evil :
 He deviseth wicked devices
 To destroy the poor with lying words,
 Even the needy when he speaketh right.
 8 But the liberal deviseth liberal things ;
 And in liberal deeds will he persevere.
 9 Rise up, ye women who are at ease ;
 Hear my voice, ye careless daughters ;
 Give ear unto my speech.
 10 In a little more than a year shall ye be troubled, ye careless women :
 For the vintage shall fail, the gathering shall not come.
 11 Tremble, ye women who are at ease ;
 Be alarmed, ye careless ones :
 Strip you, and make you bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins.
 12 They shall smite themselves on the breast,
 For the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.
 13 Upon the land of my people shall come up thorns and briers ;
 Yea, upon all the houses of joy in the joyous city.
 14 Because the palaces shall be forsaken ;
 The wealth of the city shall be abandoned ;
 The forts and towers shall be for dens for ever,
 A joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks ;
 15 Until the spirit be poured upon us from on high,
 And the wilderness become a fruitful field,
 And the fruitful field be esteemed a forest.
 16 Then also shall justice dwell in the wilderness,
 And righteousness inhabit in the fruitful field.
 17 And the work of righteousness shall be peace ;
 And the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever.
 18 And my people shall dwell in peaceable habitations,
 And in secure dwellings, and in quiet resting places ;
 19 But the hail shall fall, and the forest shall be brought down ;
 And the city shall be laid level with the plain.
 20 Blessed are ye who sow beside all waters,
 Who send forth thither the feet of the ox and the ass.

- 33 WOE to thee who spoilest, and thou wast not spoiled ;
 And dealest treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with thee !
 When thou shalt cease to spoil, thou shalt be spoiled ;
 And when thou shalt make an end to deal treacherously, they shall deal treacherously with thee.
 2 O LORD, be gracious unto us ; we have waited for thee :
 Be thou our arm every morning,
 Our salvation also in the time of trouble.
 3 At the noise of the tumult the people flee ;
 At the lifting up of thyself the nations are scattered.
 4 And your spoil shall be gathered like the gathering of the caterpillar :
 As the running to and fro of locusts shall they run and seize it.
 5 The LORD is exalted ;

- For he dwelleth on high :
 He filleth Zion with justice and righteousness.
- 6 Wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times,
 And strength of salvation :
 The fear of the LORD is his treasure.
- 7 Behold, their valiant ones shall cry without :
 The ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly.
- 8 The highways lie waste,
 The traveller ceaseth :
 He hath broken the covenant, he hath despised the cities,
 He regardeth no man.
- 9 Verily the earth mourneth and languisheth :
 Lebanon is ashamed and hewn down :
 Sharon is like a wilderness ;
 And Bashan and Carmel shake off their leaves.
- 10 Now will I rise, saith the LORD ;
 Now will I exalt myself ;
 Now will I lift up myself.
- 11 Ye shall conceive chaff, ye shall bring forth stubble :
 Your own wrath, as fire, shall devour you.
- 12 And the nations shall be as lime that is burnt ;
 As thorns cut down shall they be burnt in the fire.
- 13 Hear, ye who are far off, what I have done ;
 And, ye who are near, acknowledge my might.
- 14 The sinners in Zion are afraid ;
 Fearfulness hath seized on the hypocrites.
 Who among us can dwell with the devouring fire ?
 Who among us can dwell with everlasting burnings ?
- 15 He who walketh righteously, and speaketh uprightly ;
 He who despiseth the gain of oppressions,
 Who shaketh his hands from holding of bribes,
 Who stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood,
 And shutteth his eyes from seeing evil ;
- 16 He it is who shall dwell on high :
 His place of defence shall be the munitions of rocks :
 His bread shall be given him ;
 And his water shall be sure.
- 17 Thine eyes shall see the King in his beauty :
 They shall behold the land that is very far off.
- 18 Thy heart shall meditate on the terror that is past.
 Where is the scribe ? where is the receiver ?
 Where is he who counted the towers ?
- 19 Thou shalt no more see a fierce people,
 A people of unintelligible language,
 Of a barbarous unmeaning tongue.
- 20 Look upon Zion, the city of our solemnities :
 Thine eyes shall see Jerusalem a quiet habitation,
 A tabernacle that shall not be taken down ;
 Not one of its stakes shall ever be removed,
 Neither shall any of its cords be broken.
- 21 But there the glorious LORD will be unto us
 Instead of broad rivers and streams ;
 Wherein shall go no galley with oars,
 Neither shall gallant ship pass thereby.
- 22 For the LORD is our judge, the LORD is our lawgiver,
 The LORD is our king ; he will save us.
- 23 Thy tacklings are loosed ;
 So that they could not well strengthen their mast,
 They could not spread the sail :
 Then the prey of much spoil was divided ;
 The lame took the prey.
- 24 And the inhabitant shall not say, I am sick :
 The people who dwell therein shall be forgiven their iniquity.

- 34 COME near, ye nations, to hear ;
 And hearken, ye people :
 Let the earth hear, and all that is therein ;
 The world, and all things that come forth of it.
- 2 For the indignation of the LORD is upon all nations,
 And his fury upon all their armies :
 He hath devoted them to destruction,
 He hath delivered them over to the slaughter.
- 3 Their slain also shall be cast out,
 And their stink shall come up out of their carcases,
 And the mountains shall flow down with their blood.
- 4 And all the host of the heavens shall be dissolved,
 And the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll :
 And all their host shall fall down,
 As the leaf falleth off from the vine,
 And as a withered fig from the fig tree.
- 5 For my sword that is in the heavens shall be bathed in blood ;
 Behold, it shall come down upon Edom,
 And upon the people of my curse, to judgment.
- 6 The sword of the LORD is filled with blood,
 It is made fat with fatness,
 And with the blood of lambs and goats,
 With the fat of the kidneys of rams :
 For the LORD hath a sacrifice in Bozrah,
 And a great slaughter in the land of Edom.
- 7 And the unicorns shall come down with them,
 And the bullocks with the bulls ;
 And their land shall be soaked with blood,
 And their dust made fat with fatness.
- 8 For it is the day of the LORD'S vengeance,
 And the year of recompences in vindication of Zion.
- 9 And her streams shall be turned into pitch,
 And her dust into brimstone,
 And her land shall become burning pitch.
- 10 It shall not be quenched night nor day ;
 Her smoke shall go up for ever :
 From generation to generation it shall lie waste ;
 None shall pass through it for ever and ever.
- 11 But the cormorant and the bittern shall possess it ;
 The owl also and the raven shall dwell in it :
 And he shall stretch out upon it the line of desolation,
 And the plummet of emptiness.
- 12 As to her nobles, there shall be none whom they may call to reign over them,
 For all her princes shall be as nothing.
- 13 And thorns shall come up in her palaces,
 Nettles and brambles in her fortresses :
 And it shall be a habitation of dragons,
 And a court for owls.
- 14 The wild beasts of the desert shall also meet with the wild beasts of the island,
 And the satyr shall cry to his fellow ;
 The screech owl also shall rest there,
 And find for herself a place of rest.
- 15 There shall the great owl make her nest, and lay,
 And hatch, and gather under her shadow :
 There shall the vultures also be gathered,
 Every one with her mate.
- 16 Seek ye out of the book of the LORD, and read :
 No one of these shall fail,
 None shall want her mate :
 For the LORD hath commanded it, and his spirit it hath gathered them.
- 17 And he hath cast the lot for them,
 And his hand hath divided it unto them by line :
 They shall possess it for ever,
 From generation to generation shall they dwell therein.

35 The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them;
And the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.

2 It shall blossom abundantly,

And rejoice even with joy and singing:
The splendour of Lebanon shall be given unto it,
The excellency of Carmel and Sharon:
They shall see the glory of the LORD,
And the excellency of our God.

3 Strengthen ye the weak hands,
And confirm the feeble knees.

4 Say to those who are of a fearful heart,
Be strong, fear not:
Behold your God!
Vengeance cometh, even God with a restitution,
He will come and save you.

5 Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened,
And the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped.

6 Then shall the lame man leap as a hart,
And the tongue of the dumb sing:
For in the wilderness shall water break out,
And streams in the desert.

7 And the flowing sand shall become a pool,
And the thirsty land springs of water:
In the habitation of dragons, where each lay,
Shall be grass with reeds and rushes.

8 And a highway shall be there,
And it shall be called The way of holiness;
The unclean shall not pass over it; but God shall be with them walking in the way, and the foolish shall not err therein.

9 No lion shall be there,
Nor any ravenous beast shall go up thereon,
It shall not be found there:
But the redeemed shall walk there:

10 And the ransomed of the LORD shall return,
And come to Zion with songs,
And everlasting joy shall crown their heads:
They shall obtain joy and gladness,
And sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

36 NOW in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah, and took them. And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field. And there went out to him Eliakim, Hilkiah's son, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joach, Asaph's son, the recorder.

4 And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What foolish confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

5 With the lips thou sayest that thou hast counsel and strength for war: now on whom

6 dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me? Lo, thou trustest in the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce

7 it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him. But if thou say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: is it not he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before

8 this altar? Now therefore give pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set

9 riders upon them. How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and yet rely on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

10 And am I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? The LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

11 Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Joach unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us

12 in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people who are on the wall. But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master and to thee to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men who sit upon the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own urine with you?

Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, 13 Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Assyria. Thus saith the king, Let 14 not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you. Neither let 15 Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us: this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. Harken not 16 to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, Make peace with me, and come out to me: and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one of the waters of his own cistern; until I come and take you 17 away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards. Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, The LORD will deliver us. 18 Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? Where are the gods of Hamath and Arphad? where are the gods 19 of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? Who are they 20 among all the gods of these lands, that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand? But they held their 21 peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

Then came Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and 22 Joach, the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh. And when king Hezekiah heard them, he rent his 37 clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the 2 elders of the priests covered with sackcloth, unto Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz. And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of 3 rebuke, and of provocation: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth. It may be the LORD thy God will hear the words of 4 Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that is left.

So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah. And Isaiah said unto them, 5 6 Thus shall ye say unto your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, 7 and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria besieging Libnah: for he 8 had heard that he was departed from Lachish. And he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make war with thee. And when he 9 heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah 10 king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God, in whom thou trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. Behold, thou 11 hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all other lands by destroying them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered? Have the gods of the nations delivered 12 them which my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden who were in Tlassar? Where is the king of Hamath, and the 13 king of Arphad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?

And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: 14 and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying, O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, 15 16 who dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth: thou hast made the heavens and the earth. Incline thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open thine eyes, O LORD, and see: and hear all the words of Sennacherib, who hath sent to reproach the living God. Of a truth, LORD, the 18 kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations, and their countries, and have cast 19 their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them. Now therefore, O LORD our God, 20 save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD, even thou only.

Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD 21 God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria: this is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him; 22

- The virgin, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee,
And laughed thee to scorn;
The daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee.
- 23 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed?
And against whom hast thou exalted thy voice,
And lifted up thine eyes on high?
Even against the Holy One of Israel.
- 24 By thy servants hast thou reproached the Lord, and hast said,
By the multitude of my war chariots have I ascended
The height of the mountains, the sides of Lebanon;
And I have cut down its tallest cedars, and its choicest fir trees:
And I have entered into the fastnesses of his border, and the forest of his Carmel.
- 25 I have digged, and drunk water;
And with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the streams of Egypt.
- 26 Hast thou not heard of old that I have done it?
And that from ancient times I determined it?
Now have I brought it to pass,
That thou shouldest reduce into heaps of ruins strongest cities.
- 27 Therefore their inhabitants are of small power,
They are dismayed and confounded:
They are as the grass of the field, and as the green herb,
As the grass on the housetops,
And as corn blighted before it be grown up.
- 28 But I know thy sitting down, thy going out, and thy coming in,
And thy rage against me.
- 29 Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult, is come up into mine ears,
Therefore will I put my hook in thy nose,
And my bridle in thy lips,
And I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.
- 30 And this shall be a sign unto thee,
Ye shall eat this year that which groweth of itself;
And the second year that which springeth up in like manner:
And in the third year sow ye, and reap,
And plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof.
- 31 The escaped of the house of Judah who remaineth Shall again take root downwards,
And bear fruit upwards:
- 32 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant,
And those who have escaped out of mount Zion:
The zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.
- 33 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria,
He shall not come into this city,
Nor shoot an arrow there,
Nor come before it with shields,
Nor cast a bank against it.
- 34 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return,
And shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.
- 35 For I will defend this city to save it
For mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.
- 36 Then the angel of the LORD went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morn-37 ing, behold, they were all dead corpses. Then Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, 38 and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh. And as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Armenia: and Esar-haddon his son reigned in his stead.
- 38 IN those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Give charge concerning thy house: for thou shalt die, and not live. Then Hezekiah turned his 3 face towards the wall, and prayed unto the LORD, and said, Remember now, O
LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with an upright heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept exceedingly. Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying, Go, and say to Hezekiah, 4 5 Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years. And I will deliver 6 thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend this city. And this shall be a sign unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do 7 the thing that he hath spoken; Behold, I will cause the shadow of the degrees, which 8 is gone down in the sun dial of Ahaz, to go back ten degrees. So the sun returned ten degrees, the degrees it was gone down.

9 THE WRITING OF HEZEKIAH KING OF JUDAH, WHEN HE HAD BEEN SICK, AND WAS RECOVERED OF HIS SICKNESS:

- 10 I said in the meridian of my days,
I shall go to the gates of the grave:
I am deprived of the residue of my years.
- 11 I said, I shall no more see the LORD,
Even the LORD, in the land of the living:
I shall behold man no more
With the inhabitants of the world.
- 12 My habitation is departed, and is removed from me as a shepherd's tent:
My life is cut off as by the weaver:
He will cut me off with pining sickness:
From morning to night thou makest an end of me.
- 13 I compose myself until morning; then, as a lion,
He breaketh all my bones:
From morning to night thou makest an end of me.
- 14 Like a crane or a swallow, I chatter:
I mourn as a dove:
Mine eyes fail with looking upwards:
O LORD, I am oppressed: undertake for me.
- 15 What shall I say?
He hath both given me a promise, and he hath performed it:
I will walk humbly all my years
Because of the bitterness of my soul.
- 16 O Lord, by these things men live,
And in all these things is the life of my spirit:
So wilt thou recover me, and make me to live.
- 17 Behold, my bitter anguish is changed into ease;
In love to my soul thou hast delivered me from the pit of corruption:
For thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back.
- 18 For the grave cannot praise thee,
Death cannot celebrate thee:
Those who go down into the pit cannot declare thy truth.
- 19 The living, the living, shall praise thee, as I do this day:
The father to the children shall make known thy truth.
- 20 The LORD was ready to save me:
Therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments
All the days of our life, in the house of the LORD.

Now Isaiah had said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plaster upon 21 the ulcer, and he shall recover. Hezekiah also had said, What is the sign that I 22 shall go up to the house of the LORD?

ABOUT this time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent 39 letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered. And Hezekiah was delighted with them, and showed them the house of 2 his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah showed them not.

Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said 3 these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon. Then said he, What have 4 they seen in thy house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in my house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not showed them. Then 5 said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts: Behold, the days 6 come, that all that is in thy house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store

- until this day, shall be carried to Babylon : nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.
 7 And of thy sons who shall issue from thee, whom thou shalt beget, shall they take 8 away ; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. He said moreover, There shall be peace and truth in my days.

40 COMFORT ye, comfort ye my people,
 Saith your God.

- 2 Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and declare unto her,
 That her warfare is accomplished,
 That her iniquity is pardoned :
 For she hath received of the LORD'S hand
 A full measure of punishment.
- 3 A voice proclaimeth in the wilderness,
 Prepare ye the way of the LORD,
 Make straight in the desert a highway for our God.
- 4 Every valley shall be exalted,
 And every mountain and hill shall be made low :
 And the crooked shall be made straight,
 And the rough places plain :
- 5 And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed,
 And all flesh shall see the salvation of God :
 For the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.
- 6 The voice said, Proclaim ! And I said, What shall I proclaim ?
 All flesh is grass,
 And all its goodliness is as the flower of the field :
- 7 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth :
 Because the breath of the LORD bloweth upon it :
 Surely the people is grass.
- 8 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth :
 But the word of our God shall stand for ever.
- 9 O thou who bringest good tidings to Zion, get thee up into the high mountain ;
 O thou who bringest good tidings to Jerusalem,
 Lift up thy voice with strength ;
 Lift it up, be not afraid ;
 Say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God !
- 10 Behold ! the Lord God will come with might,
 And his arm shall rule for him :
 Behold ! his reward is with him,
 And the recompence before him.
- 11 He shall feed his flock like a shepherd :
 He shall gather the lambs with his arm,
 And carry them in his bosom,
 And shall gently lead those that give milk.
- 12 Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand,
 And meted out the heavens with the span,
 And comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure,
 And weighed the mountains in scales,
 And the hills in a balance ?
- 13 Who hath directed the Spirit of the LORD,
 Or being his counsellor hath taught him ?
- 14 With whom took he counsel, that he should instruct him,
 And teach him in the path of judgment,
 Or teach him knowledge,
 And show him the way of understanding ?
- 15 Behold ! the nations are as a drop of a bucket,
 And are accounted as the small dust of the balance :
 Behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing.
- 16 And Lebanon is not sufficient for fire,
 Nor its beasts for a burnt offering.
- 17 All nations before him are as nothing ;
 And they are accounted by him less than nothing, and vanity.
- 18 To whom then will ye liken God ?

- Or what likeness will ye compare unto him ?
- 19 The workman casteth an image,
And the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold,
And casteth silver chains.
- 20 He who is so impoverished that he hath no oblation
Chooseth a tree that will not rot ;
He seeketh for himself a skilful workman to erect an image, that shall not be moved.
- 21 Have ye not known ? have ye not heard ?
Hath it not been told you from the beginning ?
Have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth ?
- 22 It is he who sitteth upon the circle of the earth,
The inhabitants of which are as grasshoppers ;
Who stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain,
And spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in :
- 23 Who reduceth the princes to nothing ;
He maketh the judges of the earth as vanity.
- 24 Scarcely are they planted ;
Scarcely are they sown :
Scarcely has their stock taken root in the earth :
And he scarcely bloweth upon them, when they wither,
And the whirlwind taketh them away as stubble.
- 25 To whom then can ye liken me,
Or may I be compared ?
Saith the Holy One.
- 26 Lift up your eyes on high, and behold
Who hath created these things !
He bringeth out their host by number ; and calleth them all by name ;
Not one is concealed from him who is mighty and strong in power.
- 27 Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and speakest, O Israel,
My way is hidden from the LORD,
And my judgment is passed over from my God ?
- 28 Hast thou not known ? hast thou not heard,
That the everlasting God, the LORD,
The Creator of the ends of the earth,
Fainteth not, neither is weary ?
There is no searching of his understanding.
- 29 He giveth power to the faint ;
And to those who have no might he increaseth strength.
- 30 Even the youths shall faint and be weary,
And the young men shall utterly fall :
- 31 But those who wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength ;
They shall mount up with wings as eagles ;
They shall run, and not be weary ;
And they shall walk, and not faint.
- 41 LISTEN in silence to me, O islands ; and let the people renew their strength :
Let them come near ; then let them speak :
Let us come near together to judgment.
- 2 Who raised up the just from the east,
Whom he hath called to follow him ?
He gave the nations to him,
And made him rule over kings.
He hath made their swords as dust,
And their bows as driven stubble.
- 3 He hath pursued them, and passed in peace ;
Even by the way that he had never before gone with his feet.
- 4 Who hath wrought and done it ? He who calleth the generations from the beginning ;
I the LORD, the first,
And with the last ; I am he.
- 5 The isles saw it, and feared ;
The ends of the earth were afraid,
They drew near, and came.

- 6 They helped each other;
And one said to another, Be of good courage.
- 7 So the carpenter encouraged the smith,
And he who smootheneth with the hammer him who smote the anvil,
Saying, It is ready for the soldering:
And he fastened it with nails, that it should not be moved.
- 8 But thou, Israel, my servant,
Jacob whom I have chosen,
The seed of Abraham my friend;
- 9 Whom I have taken from the ends of the earth,
And called thee from the chief men thereof,
And said unto thee, Thou art my servant;
I have chosen thee, and will not cast thee away.
- 10 Fear thou not; for I am with thee:
Be not dismayed; for I am thy God:
I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee:
Yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.
- 11 Behold! all those who were incensed against thee
Shall be ashamed and confounded:
They shall be as nothing;
And those who strive with thee shall perish.
- 12 Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them,
Even those who contended with thee:
Those who war against thee
Shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought.
- 13 For I the LORD thy God will hold thy right hand, Saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee.
- 14 Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye men of Israel;
I will help thee, saith the LORD,
And thy redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.
- 15 Behold! I will make thee a new sharp threshing instrument Having teeth:
Thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat them small,
And shalt make the hills as chaff.
- 16 Thou shalt fan them, and the wind shall carry them away,
And the whirlwind shall scatter them:
And thou shalt rejoice in the LORD,
And shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel.
- 17 When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none,
And their tongue faileth for thirst,
I the LORD will hear them,
I the God of Israel will not forsake them.
- 18 I will open rivers in high places,
And fountains in the midst of the valleys:
I will make the wilderness a pool of water,
And the dry land springs of water.
- 19 I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, the acacia,
And the myrtle, and the olive tree;
I will set in the desert the cypress,
The pine, and the box tree together:
- 20 That men may see, and know,
And consider, and understand together,
That the hand of the LORD hath done this,
And the Holy One of Israel hath created it.
- 21 Produce your cause, saith the LORD;
Bring forth your strong arguments, saith the King of Jacob.
- 22 Let them bring them forth, and show us things that were to happen:
Let them show us what were the former predictions,
That we may consider them, and know the latter end of them;
Or let them declare to us the things to come.
- 23 Show the things that are to come hereafter,
That we may know that ye are gods:
Yea, do good, or do evil,

- That we may be dismayed, and be afraid together.
 24 Behold! ye are less than nothing,
 And your work less than nought:
 An abomination is he who chooseth you.
 25 I have raised up one from the north, and he shall come:
 From the rising of the sun shall he call upon my name:
 And he shall come upon princes as upon mortar,
 And as the potter treadeth clay.
 26 Who hath declared from the beginning, that we might know?
 And beforetime, that we might say, It is right?
 Yea, there was none who showed it, yea, none who declared it,
 Yea, none who heard your words.
 27 I first said to Zion, Behold! behold them!
 And gave to Jerusalem one who bringeth good tidings.
 28 For I beheld, and there was no man;
 Even among them, and there was no counsellor,
 That, when I asked of them, could answer a word.
 29 Behold, they are all vanity;
 Their works are nothing:
 Their molten images are wind and confusion.

- 42 Behold my servant, whom I uphold;
 Mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth;
 I have put my spirit upon him:
 He shall bring forth judgment to the nations.
 2 He shall not cry, nor raise his voice,
 Nor cause it to be heard in the streets.
 3 A bruised reed shall he not break,
 And a smoking flax shall he not quench:
 He shall bring forth judgment unto truth.
 4 He shall not fail nor be discouraged,
 Till he hath established judgment in the earth:
 And the isles shall wait for his law.
 5 Thus saith God the LORD,
 Who created the heavens, and stretched them out;
 Who spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it;
 Who giveth breath unto the people upon it,
 And spirit to those who walk on it:
 6 I the LORD have called thee for righteousness,
 And will hold thy hand,
 And will keep thee, and give thee for a covenant to the people,
 For a light to the nations;
 7 To open the blind eyes,
 To bring out the prisoners from the prison,
 And those who sit in darkness out of the prison house.
 8 I am the LORD: that is my name:
 And my glory will I not give to another,
 Neither my praise to graven images.
 9 Behold, the former things are come to pass,
 And new events do I declare:
 Before they spring forth I tell you of them.
 10 Sing unto the LORD a new song,
 And his praise from the end of the earth,
 Ye who go down to the sea, and all that is therein;
 The isles, and their inhabitants.
 11 The wilderness and their cities shall lift up their voice,
 The villages that Kedar doth inhabit:
 The inhabitants of the rock shall sing,
 From the top of the mountains shall they shout.
 12 They shall give glory unto the LORD,
 And declare his praise in the islands.
 13 The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man,
 He shall rouse himself with jealousy like a man of war:

- He shall cry aloud;
 He shall prevail against his enemies.
- 14 I have long time holden my peace;
 Shall I always be still, and refrain myself:
 Now will I cry out like a travelling woman;
 I will destroy and devour at once.
- 15 I will lay waste mountains and hills,
 And dry up all their herbs;
 And I will turn the rivers into islands,
 And I will dry up the pools.
- 16 And I will lead the blind by a way that they knew not;
 I will conduct them in paths that they have not known:
 I will turn darkness into light before them,
 And rugged places into plain.
 These things will I do for them, and not forsake them.
- 17 They shall be turned back,
 Those who trust in graven images shall be greatly ashamed,
 Who say to the molten images,
 Ye are our gods.
- 18 Hear, ye deaf!
 And look, ye blind! that ye may see.
- 19 Who is blind, but my servant?
 Or deaf, as my messenger whom I send?
 Who is blind as he who is perfectly instructed,
 And blind as the LORD'S servant?
- 20 Thou verily seest, but wilt not regard;
 Thine ears are open, yet wilt thou not hear.
- 21 The LORD is well pleased for his righteousness' sake;
 He will magnify the law, and make it honourable.
- 22 But this is a people robbed and spoiled;
 Their young men are bound in prison:
 They are for a prey, and none delivereth;
 For a spoil, and none saith, Restore.
- 23 Who among you will give ear to this?
 Who will hearken and hear for the time to come?
- 24 Who gave Jacob for a spoil,
 And Israel to the robbers?
 Did not the LORD, he against whom we have sinned?
 For they would not walk in his ways,
 Neither were they obedient unto his law.
- 25 Therefore he hath poured upon him
 The fury of his anger, and the fierceness of battle:
 It hath set him on fire round about, yet he perceived it not;
 It burneth him up, yet he layeth it not to heart.
- 43 BUT now thus saith the LORD who created thee, O Jacob,
 And he who formed thee, O Israel,
 Fear not: for I have redeemed thee,
 I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine.
- 2 When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee;
 And through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee:
 When thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burnt;
 Neither shall the flame consume thee.
- 3 For I am the LORD thy God,
 The Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour:
 I gave Egypt for thy ransom,
 Ethiopia and Seba for thee.
- 4 Because thou wast precious in my sight,
 Thou hast been honoured; and because I have loved thee,
 I have given men for thee,
 And people for thy life.
- 5 Fear not: for I am with thee:
 I will bring thy seed from the east,
 And gather thee from the west;

- 6 I will say to the north, Give up;
And to the south, Keep not back :
Bring my sons from far,
And my daughters from the ends of the earth ;
- 7 Even every one who is called by my name :
For I have created him for my glory, I have formed him ;
Yea, I have made him.
- 8 Bring forth the blind people who have eyes,
And the deaf who have ears.
- 9 Let all the nations be gathered together,
And let the people be assembled.
Who among them can declare this, and show us former things ?
Let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified :
That men may hear, and say, It is true.
- 10 Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD,
And my servant whom I have chosen :
That ye may know and believe me,
And understand that I am he :
Before me there was no God formed,
And after me none shall be.
- 11 I, even I, am the LORD ;
And besides me there is no saviour.
- 12 I have declared, and have saved,
And I made it known, when there was no strange god among you :
Therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD,
That I am God.
- 13 Yea, before the day was I am he ;
And there is none who can deliver out of my hand :
I will execute my work, and who shall hinder it ?
- 14 Thus saith the LORD,
Your redeemer, the Holy One of Israel ;
For your sakes I sent to Babylon,
And brought down all their nobles,
And the Chaldeans, in their joyous vessels.
- 15 I am the LORD, your Holy One,
The Creator of Israel, your King.
- 16 Thus saith the LORD,
Who made a way in the sea,
And a path in the mighty waters ;
- 17 Who brought forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power ;
They shall lie down together, they shall not rise :
They are extinct, they were quenched as tow.
- 18 Remember ye not the former things,
Neither consider the things of old.
- 19 Behold ! I will do a new thing ;
Now it shall spring forth ; will ye not regard it ?
I will even make a way in the wilderness,
And rivers in the desert.
- 20 The beasts of the field shall honour me,
The dragons and the owls :
Because I gave waters in the wilderness,
And rivers in the desert,
To give drink to my people, my chosen.
- 21 This people have I formed for myself ;
They shall show forth my praise.
- 22 But thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob ;
Yea, thou hast been weary of me, O Israel.
- 23 Thou hast not brought me the lambs for thy burnt offerings ;
Neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices.
I have not burdened thee to serve with offerings,
Nor wearied thee with incense.
- 24 Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money,
Neither hast thou filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices :

- But thou hast burdened me with thy sins,
Thou hast wearied me with thine iniquities.
25 I, even I, am he who blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake,
And will not remember thy sins.
26 Put me in remembrance: let us plead together:
Declare thou, that thou mayest be justified.
27 Thy first father hath sinned,
And thy public teachers have transgressed against me.
28 Therefore I have profaned the priests of the sanctuary,
And given up Jacob to the curse,
And Israel to reproaches.

- 44 YET now hear, O Jacob! my servant;
And Israel! whom I have chosen:
2 Thus saith the LORD who made thee,
And formed thee from the womb, who will help thee;
Fear not, O Jacob, my servant;
And thou, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.
3 For I will pour water upon him who is thirsty,
And floods upon the dry ground:
I will pour my spirit upon thy seed,
And my blessing upon thine offspring:
4 And they shall spring up as grass amidst the waters,
And as willows by the water courses.
5 One shall say, I am the LORD'S;
And another shall call himself by the name of Jacob;
And another shall subscribe with his hand unto the LORD
And surname himself by the name of Israel.
6 Thus saith the LORD the King of hosts,
And his Redeemer the LORD of hosts;
I am the first, and I also am the last;
And besides me there is no God.
7 Who like me hath announced it?
Let him declare it, and set it in order for me,
Since I appointed the ancient people;
And the things that are coming, and shall come,
Let them show unto them.
8 Fear ye not, neither be afraid:
Have not I told thee of old, and declared it?
Ye are even my witnesses.
Is there a God besides me?
There is indeed no God; I know not any.
9 Those who make a graven image are all of them vanity;
And their objects of delight shall not profit;
They are their own witnesses;
They see not, nor know;
That every one may be ashamed.
10 Who hath formed a god,
Or molten a graven image that is profitable for nothing?
11 Behold! all his companions shall be ashamed:
And the workmen themselves are of men:
Let them all be gathered together, let them stand up;
Yet they shall fear, and they shall be ashamed together.
12 The smith cutteth off a portion of iron,
And fashioneth it with hammers,
And worketh it with the strength of his arms:
Yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth:
He drinketh no water, and is faint.
13 The carpenter stretcheth out his rule; he marketh it out with a line;
He fitteth it with planes,
And he marketh it out with the compass,
And maketh it after the figure of a man,
According to the beauty of a man;
That it may dwell in a house.

- 14 He heweth him down cedars,
And taketh the cypress and the oak,
And prepareth for himself the trees of the forest :
He planteth an ash, and the rain doth nourish it.
- 15 They shall be for a man to burn :
He taketh of them, and warmeth himself ;
Yea, he kindleth a fire, and baketh bread ;
Yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it ;
He maketh a graven image, and falleth down thereto.
- 16 He burneth part of it in the fire ;
With part of it he eateth flesh ;
He roasteth meat, and is satisfied :
Yea, he warmeth himself, and saith,
Ah, I am warm, I see the fire :
- 17 And with the residue he maketh a god, his graven image :
He falleth down unto it, and worshippeth it,
And prayeth unto it, and saith,
Deliver me ; for thou art my god.
- 18 They know not, nor understand :
For they have shut their eyes, that they cannot see ;
And their hearts, that they cannot perceive.
- 19 And none considereth in his heart,
Neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say,
I have burnt part of it in the fire ;
Yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof ;
I have roasted flesh, and eaten it :
And shall I make the residue thereof an abomination ?
Shall I fall down to the stock of a tree ?
- 20 He feedeth on ashes : a deceived heart hath turned him aside,
That he cannot deliver his soul, nor say,
Is there not a lie in my right hand ?
- 21 Remember these things, O Jacob ! and Israel !
For thou art my servant :
I have formed thee ; thou art my servant :
O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me.
- 22 I have blotted out thy transgressions as a cloud,
And thy sins as a thick cloud :
Return unto me ; for I have redeemed thee.
- 23 Sing, O ye heavens ! for the LORD hath done it :
Shout, ye lower parts of the earth :
Break forth into singing, ye mountains,
O forest, and every tree therein :
For the LORD hath redeemed Jacob,
And glorified himself in Israel.
- 24 Thus saith the LORD, thy redeemer,
And he who formed thee from the womb,
I am the LORD who maketh all things ;
Who stretched forth the heavens alone ;
Who spread abroad the earth by myself ;
- 25 Who frustrateth the tokens of the impostors,
And sheweth the diviners to be fools ;
Who overturneth the devices of wise men,
And maketh their knowledge foolish ;
- 26 Who confirmeth the word of his servant,
And performeth the counsel of his messengers ;
Who saith to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be inhabited ;
And to the cities of Judah, Ye shall be built,
And restoreth her desolate places :
- 27 Who saith to the deep, Be dry,
And I will dry up thy rivers :
- 28 Who saith to Cyrus, Thou art my shepherd,
And shalt perform all my pleasure :

Even saying to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built ;
And to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid.

45

- Thus saith the LORD to his anointed,
To Cyrus, whose right hand I hold,
To subdue nations before him,
And to loose the loins of kings ;
To open before him the folding doors,
And the gates shall not be shut ;
- 2 I will go before thee,
And make the rough places plain :
I will break in pieces the gates of brass,
And cut in sunder the bars of iron :
- 3 And I will give thee the treasures of darkness,
And hidden riches of secret places,
That thou mayest know that I, the LORD,
Who callest thee by thy name,
Am the God of Israel.
- 4 For Jacob my servant's sake,
And Israel mine elect,
I have even called thee by thy name :
I made honourable mention of thee, though thou knewest me not.
- 5 I am the LORD, and there is none else ;
There is no God besides me :
I girded thee, though thou knewest me not :
- 6 That men may know from the rising of the sun,
And from his setting, that there is none besides me.
I am the LORD, and there is none else.
- 7 I form the light, and create darkness :
I make peace, and create evil :
I the LORD do all these things.
- 8 Drop down, ye heavens, from above,
And let the skies pour down righteousness :
Let the earth open, that salvation may be brought forth,
And let righteousness spring up together ;
I the LORD create it.
- 9 Woe unto him who striveth with his Maker !
A potsherd of the potsherds of the earth !
Shall the clay say to him who fashioneth it, What makest thou ?
Or thy work, He hath no hands ?
- 10 Woe unto him who saith unto his father, What begetteth thou ?
Or to the woman, What hast thou brought forth ?
- 11 Thus saith the LORD,
The Holy One of Israel, and his Maker,
Will ye ask me of things to come concerning my sons ?
And concerning the work of my hands will ye command me ?
- 12 I made the earth,
And created man upon it :
And my hands stretched out the heavens,
And I gave charge to all their host.
- 13 I have raised him up in righteousness,
And I will direct all his ways :
He shall build my city, and he shall release my captives,
Not for hire or reward,
Saith the LORD of hosts.
- 14 Thus saith the LORD,
The wealth of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia
And of the Sabceans, men of stature,
Shall come over unto thee, and they shall be thine :
They shall come after thee ; in chains they shall come over,
And they shall fall down unto thee, they shall make supplication unto thee,
Saying, Surely God is in thee only ; and there is none else,
There is no God.
- 15 Verily thou art a God who hidest thyself,

- O God of Israel, the Saviour.
- 16 They shall be ashamed, all of them shall be confounded:
They shall go to confusion together
Who are makers of idols.
- 17 But Israel shall be saved through the LORD with an everlasting salvation:
Ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded to eternal ages.
- 18 For thus saith the LORD who created the heavens;
God himself who formed the earth and made it; he hath established it,
He created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited:
I am the LORD; and there is none else.
- 19 I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth:
I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me in vain:
I the LORD speak righteousness, I declare things that are right.
- 20 Assemble yourselves and come;
Draw near together, ye who are escaped of the nations:
They have no knowledge who set up the wood of their graven image,
And pray unto a god that cannot save.
- 21 Tell ye, and bring them near;
Yea, let them take counsel together:
Who hath declared this from ancient time?
Who hath told it from that time?
Was it not I the LORD? and there is no God else besides me;
A just God and a Saviour; there is none besides me.
- 22 Turn unto me, and be ye saved, all ye ends of the earth:
For I am God, and there is none else.
- 23 I have sworn by myself,
The word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness,
And shall not return,
That unto me every knee shall bow,
Every tongue shall swear.
- 24 Surely, shall every one say,
In the LORD only have I righteousness and strength:
Even to him shall men come;
And all who are incensed against him shall be put to shame.
- 25 In the LORD shall all the seed of Israel be justified,
And shall glory.

- 46 BEL boweth down, Nebo stoopeth,
Their idols are upon the beasts, and upon the cattle:
Your carriages are heavily laden;
They are a burden to the weary beast.
- 2 They stoop, they bow down together;
They could not deliver the burden,
But themselves are gone into captivity.
- 3 Harken unto me, O house of Jacob!
And all the remnant of the house of Israel!
Who have been borne by me from the birth,
Who have been carried by me from the womb:
- 4 Even to old age I will be the same;
And even to gray hairs will I carry you:
I have made, and I will bear;
Yea, I will carry, and will deliver you.
- 5 To whom will ye liken me, or make me equal,
Or compare me, that we may be like?
- 6 They lavish gold out of the bag,
And weigh silver in the balance,
And hire a goldsmith; and he maketh it a god:
They fall down, yea, they worship him.
- 7 They bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him,
And set him in his place, and he standeth;
From his place shall he not remove:
Yea, one shall cry unto him, yet can he not answer,
Nor save him out of his trouble.
- 8 Remember this, and show yourselves men:

- Bring it again to mind, O ye transgressors.
 9 Remember the former things of old :
 For I am God, and there is none else ;
 I am God, and there is none like me,
 10 Declaring the end from the beginning,
 And from ancient times the things that are not yet done,
 Saying, My purpose shall stand,
 And I will do all my pleasure :
 11 Calling a ravenous bird from the east,
 The man who executeth my purpose from a far country :
 Yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass ;
 I have purposed it, I will also do it.
 12 Hearken unto me, ye stubborn of heart,
 Who are far from righteousness :
 13 I bring near my righteousness ; it shall not be far off,
 And my salvation shall not tarry :
 I will place salvation in Zion
 For Israel my glory.

- 47 COME down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon !
 Sit on the ground
 Without a throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans :
 For thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate.
 2 Take the millstones, and grind meal :
 Raise thy vail, lift up thy train,
 Uncover the leg, wade through the rivers.
 3 Thy nakedness shall be exposed,
 And thy shame shall be seen :
 I will take vengeance,
 And I will spare no man.
 4 As for our redeemer, the LORD of hosts is his name,
 The Holy One of Israel.
 5 Sit thou silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans :
 For thou shalt no more be called, The mistress of kingdoms.
 6 I was wroth with my people,
 I have polluted mine inheritance,
 And given them into thy hand :
 Thou didst show them no mercy ;
 Upon the aged hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.
 7 And thou saidst, I shall be mistress for ever :
 So that thou didst not lay these things to heart,
 Neither didst remember the latter end of it.
 8 Therefore hear now this, thou who art given to pleasures,
 Who dwellest carelessly,
 Who sayest in thy heart,
 I am, and none else besides me ;
 I shall not sit as a widow,
 Neither shall I know what it is to be childless :
 9 But both these things shall come to thee in a moment in one day,
 The loss of children, and widowhood :
 They shall come upon thee in their perfection
 For the multitude of thy sorceries,
 And for the great abundance of thy enchantments.
 10 For thou hast trusted in thy wickedness :
 Thou hast said, No one seeth me.
 Thy wisdom and thy knowledge have turned thee away ;
 And thou hast said in thy heart, I am, and there is none else besides me.
 11 Therefore shall evil come upon thee ;
 Thou shalt not know from whence it riseth :
 And mischief shall fall upon thee ;
 Thou shalt not be able to put it off :
 And desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, of which thou shalt have no apprehension.
 12 Persevere now with thine enchantments,

- And with the multitude of thy sorceries,
 With which thou hast laboured from thy youth ;
 If so be thou shalt be able to profit,
 If so be thou mayest prevail.
- 13 Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels.
 Let now the astrologers, the stargazers,
 And those who prognosticate at every new moon,
 Stand up, and save thee
 From these things that shall come upon thee.
- 14 Behold ! they shall be as stubble ;
 The fire shall burn them ;
 They shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame :
 There shall not be a coal to warm at,
 Nor fire before which to sit.
- 15 Thus shall they be unto thee with whom thou hast laboured,
 Even thy merchants, from thy youth :
 They shall wander each one to his quarter ;
 None shall save thee.

- 48 HEAR ye this, O house of Jacob,
 Who are called by the name of Israel,
 And the waters of Judah,
 Who swear by the name of the LORD,
 And make mention of the God of Israel,
 But not in truth, nor in righteousness.
- 2 For they call themselves of the holy city,
 And stay themselves upon the God of Israel ;
 The LORD of hosts is his name.
- 3 I have declared the former things from the beginning ;
 And they went forth out of my mouth, and I showed them ;
 I did them suddenly, and they came to pass.
- 4 Because I knew that thou art obstinate,
 And thy neck is as an iron sinew,
 And thy brow as brass ;
- 5 I have even from the beginning declared it to thee ;
 Before it came to pass I showed it thee :
 Lest thou shouldest say, Mine idol hath done them,
 And my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them.
- 6 Thou hast heard, thou seest accomplished all this,
 And will not ye acknowledge it ?
 Henceforth I show thee new events,
 Even hidden things, and thou didst not know them.
- 7 They are created now, and not from the beginning ;
 At no former period didst thou hear them ;
 Lest thou shouldest say, Behold, I knew them.
- 8 Yea, thou heardest not ; yea, thou knewest not ;
 Yea, thine ear was not opened to them long ago ;
 For I knew that thou wouldest deal very treacherously,
 And wast called a transgressor from the womb.
- 9 For my name's sake have I deferred mine anger,
 And for my praise have I refrained,
 That I might not cut thee off.
- 10 Behold ! I have refined thee, but not as silver ;
 I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction.
- 11 For mine own sake, even for mine own sake, have I done it :
 For how should my name be polluted ?
 And I will not give my glory unto another.
- 12 Hearken unto me, O Jacob !
 And Israel, my called !
 I am he ; I am the first, I also am the last.
- 13 My hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth,
 And my right hand hath spanned the heavens :
 When I called unto them, they stood forth at once.
- 14 All ye, assemble yourselves, and hear ;

- Who among them hath declared these things?
 He whom the LORD hath loved: he will do his pleasure on Babylon,
 And be his arm against the Chaldeans.
- 15 I, even I, have spoken; yea, I have called him:
 I have brought him, and his way shall be prosperous.
- 16 Come ye near unto me, hear ye this;
 I have not spoken in secret from the beginning;
 From the time that it was, I was there:
 And now the Lord God hath sent me, and his Spirit.
- 17 Thus saith the LORD,
 Thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel;
 I the LORD thy God teach thee to profit,
 I lead thee by the way thou shouldest go.
- 18 Oh that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments!
 Then had thy peace been as a river,
 And thy righteousness as the waves of the sea:
- 19 Thy seed also had been as the sand,
 And the offspring of thy bowels like the gravel;
 His name should not have been cut off nor destroyed from before me.
- 20 Go ye forth out of Babylon,
 Flee ye from the Chaldeans, with the voice of singing:
 Tell this, make it known,
 Carry it forth to the end of the earth;
 Say ye, The LORD hath redeemed his servant Jacob.
- 21 They thirsted not when he led them through the deserts:
 He caused water to flow out of the rock for them:
 Yea, he clave the rock, and the water gushed out.
- 22 There is no peace, saith the LORD, unto the wicked.

- 49 LISTEN, O isles, unto me;
 And hearken, ye distant people;
 The LORD hath called me from the womb;
 From the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.
- 2 He hath made my mouth like a sharp sword;
 In the shadow of his hand hath he hid me,
 And made me a polished arrow;
 In his quiver hath he hid me;
- 3 And said unto me, Thou art my servant,
 That in thee, O Israel, I may be glorified.
- 4 But I said, I have laboured in vain,
 I have spent my strength for nought, and in vain:
 Nevertheless my cause is with the LORD,
 And my reward with my God.
- 5 And now, saith the LORD,
 Who formed me from the womb to be his servant,
 To bring Jacob back again to him,
 (Though Israel be not gathered to him,
 Yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the LORD,
 And my God shall be my strength.)
- 6 And he said, It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant
 To raise up the tribes of Jacob,
 And to restore the preserved of Israel:
 I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles,
 That thou mayest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.
- 7 Thus saith the LORD,
 The Redeemer of Israel, his Holy One;
 To him whom men despise, to him whom the nation abhorreth,
 To a servant of rulers,
 Kings shall see and rise up,
 Princes also shall worship,
 Because of the LORD who is faithful,
 And the Holy One of Israel, who hath chosen thee.
- 8 Thus saith the LORD,
 In an acceptable time have I heard thee,

- And in a day of salvation have I helped thee :
 And I have preserved thee, and made thee a covenant for the people,
 To establish the earth, to cause the desolate heritages to be occupied ;
- 9 To say to the prisoners, Go forth ;
 To those who are in darkness, Show yourselves.
 They shall feed by the ways,
 And their pasture shall be on all high places.
- 10 They shall not hunger nor thirst ;
 Neither shall the glowing heat nor sun smite them :
 For he who hath mercy on them shall lead them,
 Even by the springs of water shall he guide them.
- 11 And I will make all my mountains a way,
 And my highways shall be exalted.
- 12 Behold ! these shall come from far :
 And, lo ! these from the north and from the west ;
 And these from the land of Sinim.
- 13 Sing, O heavens ! and be joyful, O earth !
 And break forth into singing, O mountains !
 For the LORD comforteth his people,
 And hath mercy upon his afflicted.
- 14 But Zion said, The LORD hath forsaken me,
 And my Lord hath forgotten me.
- 15 Can a woman forget her sucking child,
 So as to have no affection for the son of her womb ?
 Yea, they may forget,
 Yet will I not forget thee.
- 16 Behold ! I have engraven thee upon the palms of my hands ;
 Thy walls are continually before me.
- 17 Thy children shall make haste to return ;
 Thy destroyers and those who made thee waste shall depart from thee
- 18 Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold :
 All these gather themselves together, and come to thee.
 As I live, saith the LORD,
 Thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all, as with an ornament,
 And bind them on thee, as a bride doth her jewels.
- 19 For thy waste and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction,
 Shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants,
 And those who swallowed thee up shall be far away.
- 20 The children of whom thou wast bereaved,
 Shall say again in thine ears, The place is too strait for me :
 Make room for me that I may dwell.
- 21 Then shalt thou say in thy heart,
 Who hath begotten me these ?
 Seeing I was childless, and solitary ; an exile and an outcast :
 And who hath brought up these ?
 Behold, I was left alone ; these, where were they ?
- 22 Thus saith the Lord God,
 Behold, I will lift up my hand to the nations,
 And set up my standard to the people :
 And they shall bring thy sons in their arms,
 And thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders.
- 23 And kings shall be thy nursing fathers,
 And their queens thy nursing mothers :
 They shall bow down to thee with their faces on the ground,
 And lick the dust of thy feet ;
 And thou shalt know that I am the LORD :
 For they shall not be ashamed who wait for me.
- 24 Shall the prey be taken from the mighty,
 Or the captive of the strong one rescued ?
- 25 But thus saith the LORD,
 Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away,
 And the prey of the terrible shall be rescued :
 For I will contend with him who contendeth with thee,

And I will save thy children.

- 26 And I will feed those who oppress thee with their own flesh;
And they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with new wine :
And all flesh shall know
That I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer,
The Mighty One of Jacob.

50

THUS saith the LORD,

- Where is the bill of your mother's divorcement,
With which I put her away ?
Or to which of my creditors have I sold you ?
Behold ! for your iniquities have ye sold yourselves,
And for your transgressions is your mother put away.
- 2 Wherefore, when I came, was there no man ?
When I called, was there none to answer ?
Is my hand at all too short, that it cannot redeem ?
Or have I no power to deliver ?
Behold ! at my rebuke I dry up the sea,
I make the rivers a desert :
Their fish stinketh, because there is no water,
And dieth for thirst.
- 3 I clothe the heavens with blackness,
And I make sackcloth their covering.
- 4 The Lord God hath given me the tongue of the learned,
That I should know how to speak a word in season to him who is weary :
He wakeneth me morning by morning,
He wakeneth mine ear
To hear as the learned.
- 5 The Lord God hath opened mine ear,
And I am not rebellious,
Neither turn away back.
- 6 I give my back to the smiters,
And my cheeks to those who pluck off the beard :
And I hide not my face from shame and spitting.
- 7 For the Lord God will help me ;
Therefore shall I not be confounded :
Therefore have I set my face like a flint,
And I know that I shall not be put to shame.
- 8 He is near who justifieth me ;
Who will contend with me ?—let us stand together :
Who is mine adversary ?—let him come near to me.
- 9 Behold ! the Lord God helpeth me ;
Who is he that condemneth me ?
Lo ! they all shall wax old as a garment ;
The moth shall eat them up.
- 10 Who is among you who feareth the LORD,
Who obeyeth the voice of his servant,
Who walketh in darkness, and hath no light ?
Let him trust in the name of the LORD,
And stay himself upon his God.
- 11 Behold ! all ye who kindle a fire,
Who surround yourselves with torches :
Walk in the light of your fire,
And of the torches which ye have kindled :
This shall ye have at my hand ; ye shall lie down in sorrow.
- 51 HEARKEN to me, ye who follow after righteousness,
Ye who seek the LORD :
Look unto the rock whence ye were hewn,
And to the hole of the pit whence ye were dug.
- 2 Look unto Abraham your father,
And unto Sarah who bore you :
For I called him alone,
And blessed him, and increased him.
- 3 For the LORD will have compassion upon Zion :

ISAIAH LI.

He will have compassion on all her waste places
And he will make her wilderness like Eden,
And her desert like the garden of the LORD;
Joy and gladness shall be found in her,
Thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

- 4 Hearken unto me, my people!
And give ear unto me, O my nation!
For a law shall proceed from me,
And I will establish my statutes for a light to the people.
- 5 My righteousness is near; my salvation goeth forth,
And mine arms shall judge the people;
The isles shall wait upon me,
And on mine arm shall they trust.
- 6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens,
And look upon the earth beneath:
For the heavens shall vanish away like smoke,
And the earth shall decay like a garment,
And those who dwell therein shall die in like manner:
But my salvation shall be for ever,
And my righteousness shall not be abolished.
- 7 Hearken unto me, ye who know righteousness,
The people in whose heart is my law;
Fear ye not the reproach of men,
Neither be ye disheartened by their revilings.
- 8 For the moth shall eat them up like a garment,
And the worm shall eat them like wool:
But my righteousness shall be for ever,
And my salvation from generation to generation.
- 9 Awake! awake! put on strength, O arm of the LORD;
Awake! as in the ancient days, in the generations of old.
Art thou not the same who cut Rahab in pieces,
And wounded the dragon?
- 10 Art thou not the same who dried the sea,
The waters of the great deep;
Who made the depth of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over?
- 11 Thus shall the redeemed of the LORD return,
And come with singing unto Zion;
Everlasting joy shall be upon their heads:
They shall obtain gladness and joy;
And sorrow and mourning shall flee away.
- 12 I, even I, am he who comforteth you:
Who art thou, that thou shouldst be afraid of a man who shall die,
And of the son of man who shall be as grass;
- 13 And forgettest the LORD thy Maker,
Who stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth,
And be afraid continually every day
Because of the fury of the oppressor,
As if he were ready to destroy?
And where is the fury of the oppressor?
- 14 He hasteneth on who shall set free the captive,
That he should not die in the pit,
And that his bread should not fail.
- 15 I am the LORD thy God,
Who calmeth the sea, whose waves roar:
The LORD of hosts is his name.
- 16 I have put my words in thy mouth,
And I have covered thee in the shadow of my hand,
That I may spread the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth
And say unto Zion, Thou art my people.
- 17 Awake! Awake! stand up, O Jerusalem,
Who hast drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury;
Thou hast drunk the dregs of the cup of trembling,
And wrung them out.

- 18 There is none to guide her
Among all the sons whom she hath brought forth;
Neither is there any who taketh her by the hand
Of all the sons whom she hath brought up.
- 19 These two things are come unto thee;
Who shall be sorry for thee?
Desolation, and destruction, and the famine, and the sword:
Who? I myself will comfort thee.
- 20 Thy sons have fainted,
They lie at the head of all the streets, as a wild antelope in a net.
They are full of the fury of the LORD,
The rebuke of thy God.
- 21 Wherefore hear now this, thou afflicted,
And drunken, but not with wine:
- 22 Thus saith thy Lord the LORD,
And thy God who pleadeth the cause of his people,
Behold, I have taken out of thy hand the cup of trembling,
Even the dregs of the cup of my fury;
Thou shalt drink it no more:
- 23 But I will put it into the hand of thine oppressors,
Who have said to thee, Bow down, that we may go over:
And thou hast laid thy back as the ground,
And as the street, to the passengers.

- 52 AWAKE! awake! put on thy strength, O Zion;
Put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city:
For henceforth there shall no more come into thee
The uncircumcised and the unclean.
- 2 Shake thyself from the dust;
Ascend thy lofty seat, O Jerusalem:
Loose thyself from the bands of thy neck,
O captive daughter of Zion.
 - 3 For thus saith the LORD,
As ye sold yourselves for nought;
So shall ye be redeemed without money.
 - 4 For thus saith the Lord God,
My people went down aforetime into Egypt to sojourn there;
And the Assyrian oppressed them at the last.
 - 5 And now, what have I here, saith the LORD,
That my people are taken away for nought?
Those who rule over them make their boast of it, saith the LORD;
And my name continually every day is blasphemed.
 - 6 Assuredly my people shall know my name:
Assuredly they shall know in that day that I am he who doth promise:
Behold, it is I.
 - 7 How beautiful upon the mountains
Are the feet of him who bringeth good tidings, who publisheth peace;
Who bringeth good tidings of good, who publisheth salvation;
Who saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth!
 - 8 Thy watchmen shall lift up their voice;
With the voice together shall they sing:
For they shall see eye to eye,
When the LORD restoreth Zion.
 - 9 Break forth into joy, sing together,
Ye waste places of Jerusalem:
For the LORD hath comforted his people,
He hath redeemed Jerusalem.
 - 10 The LORD hath put forth his great power
In the eyes of all the nations;
And all the ends of the earth
Shall see the salvation of our God.
 - 11 Depart ye! depart ye! go ye out from thence,
Touch no unclean thing;
Go ye out of the midst of her

- Be ye clean, ye who bear the vessels of the LORD.
 12 For ye shall not go out with haste,
 Nor go by flight:
 For the LORD will go before you;
 And the God of Israel will be your rearguard.

- 13 BEHOLD, my servant shall prosper,
 He shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high.
 14 As many were shocked at him;
 (To such a degree was his countenance disfigured,
 And his form more than that of the sons of men :)
 15 So shall he sprinkle many nations;
 Kings shall shut their mouths at him :
 For him of whom they had not been told shall they see;
 And him of whom they had not heard shall they consider.

53

- Who hath believed our report?
 And to whom hath the arm of the LORD been revealed?
 2 For he shall grow up before them as a tender plant,
 And as a root out of a dry ground:
 He hath no form nor comeliness, that we should regard him,
 Nor beauty, that we should desire him.
 3 He is despised and rejected of men;
 A man of sorrows, and familiar with grief:
 So that men hid their faces from him;
 He was despised, and we esteemed him not.
 4 But they were our griefs he bore,
 They were our sorrows he carried:
 We indeed esteemed him stricken,
 Smitten by God, and afflicted.
 5 But he was wounded for our transgressions,
 He was bruised for our iniquities:
 The chastisement by which our peace was effected was upon him;
 That by his stripes we might be healed.
 6 All we like sheep have gone astray;
 We have turned every one to his own way;
 And the LORD hath made to meet on him the iniquity of us all.
 7 He was oppressed, and afflicted,
 Yet he opened not his mouth:
 As a lamb led to the slaughter,
 And as a sheep before her shearers is dumb,
 So he opened not his mouth.
 8 He was taken from prison and from judgment:
 And who shall declare his generation?
 For he was cut off from the land of the living:
 For the transgression of my people was he smitten.
 9 They assigned him his grave with the wicked,
 But he was with the rich after his death;
 Because he had done no violence,
 Neither was deceit in his mouth.
 10 Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him;
 He put him to grief:
 Verily he made himself an offering for sin;
 But he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days,
 And the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.
 11 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied:
 By the knowledge of himself shall my righteous servant justify many:
 For he shall bear the punishment of their iniquities.
 12 Therefore will I give him, as a portion, the great,
 And he shall divide the spoil with the strong;
 Because he poured out his life's blood unto death:
 And he was numbered with the transgressors;
 And he bore the sin of many,
 And made intercession for the transgressors.

- 54 SING, O barren ! thou who didst not bear ;
 Break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou who didst not travail with child :
 For more are the children of the desolate
 Than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD.
- 2 Enlarge the place of thy tent,
 And stretch forth the curtains of thy habitations :
 Spare not, lengthen thy cords,
 And strengthen thy stakes ;
- 3 For thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left ;
 And thy seed shall inherit the nations,
 And people the desolate cities.
- 4 Fear not ; for thou shalt not be ashamed :
 Neither be thou confounded ; for thou shalt not be put to reproach :
 For thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth,
 And shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.
- 5 For thy Maker is thy husband ;
 The LORD of hosts is his name ;
 And thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel ;
 The God of the whole earth shall he be called.
- 6 For the LORD hath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit,
 And a wife of youth, when thou wast rejected, saith thy God.
- 7 For a small moment have I forsaken thee ;
 But with great mercies will I gather thee.
- 8 In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment ;
 But with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee,
 Saith the LORD thy Redeemer.
- 9 For this is as the waters of Noah unto me :
 As I swore
 That the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth ;
 So have I sworn
 That I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee.
- 10 Though the mountains should depart,
 And the hills be removed ;
 Yet my kindness shall not depart from thee,
 Neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed,
 Saith the LORD who hath mercy on thee.
- 11 O thou afflicted ! tossed with tempest, and not comforted,
 Behold ! I will lay thy stones with beautiful colours,
 And thy foundations with sapphires.
- 12 And I will make thy windows of rubies,
 And thy gates of sparkling gems,
 And all thy borders of precious stones.
- 13 And all thy children shall be taught of the LORD ;
 And great shall be the peace of thy children.
- 14 In righteousness shalt thou be established :
 Thou shalt be far from oppression—for thou shalt not fear :
 And from terror—for it shall not come near thee.
- 15 Behold, they shall surely gather together, but not by me :
 Whosoever shall gather together against thee shall fall for thy sake.
- 16 Behold, I create the smith
 Who bloweth the coals in the fire,
 And who bringeth forth an instrument for his work ;
 And I create the waster to destroy.
- 17 No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper ;
 And every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn.
 This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD,
 And their righteousness is of me, saith the LORD.

- 55 HO ! every one who thirsteth,
 Come ye to the waters,
 And he who hath no money ; come ye, buy, and eat ;
 Yea, come, buy wine and milk
 Without money and without price.
- 2 Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread ?

- And your labour for that which satisfieth not?
 Hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good,
 And let your soul delight itself in fatness.
- 3 Incline your ear, and come unto me :
 Hear, and your soul shall live ;
 And I will make an everlasting covenant with you,
 Even the sure mercies of David.
- 4 Behold ! I have given him for a witness to the people,
 A leader and commander to the people.
- 5 Behold ! thou shalt call nations that thou knowest not,
 And nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee
 Because of the LORD thy God,
 And for the Holy One of Israel ; for he hath glorified thee.
- 6 Seek ye the LORD while he may be found,
 Call ye upon him while he is near :
- 7 Let the wicked forsake his way,
 And the unrighteous man his thoughts :
 And let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him ;
 And to our God, for he aboundeth in forgiveness.
- 8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts,
 Neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD.
- 9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth,
 So are my ways higher than your ways,
 And my thoughts than your thoughts.
- 10 For as the rain and the snow come down from the heavens,
 And return not thither,
 But water the earth,
 And cause it to bring forth and bud,
 That it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater :
- 11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth :
 It shall not return unto me void,
 But it shall accomplish that which I please,
 And it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.
- 12 For ye shall go out with joy,
 And be led forth with peace :
 The mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing.
 And all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.
- 13 Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree,
 And instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree :
 And it shall become a name to the LORD,
 For an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.
- 56 THUS saith the LORD,
 Observe justice, and practise righteousness ;
 For my salvation is near to come,
 And my righteousness to be revealed.
- 2 Blessed is the man who doeth this,
 And the son of man who layeth hold on it ;
 Who keepeth the sabbath from polluting it,
 And keepeth his hand from doing any evil.
- 3 Neither let the son of the stranger, who hath joined himself to the LORD, ^{say,}
 Saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people :
 Neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree.
- 4 For thus saith the LORD unto the eunuchs
 Who keep my sabbaths,
 And choose the things that please me,
 And take hold of my covenant ;
- 5 Even unto them will I give in my house
 And within my walls a place and a name
 Better than of sons and of daughters :
 I will give them an everlasting name,
 That shall not be cut off.
- 6 As for the strangers, who join themselves to the LORD,

- To serve him, and to love the name of the LORD,
 To be his servants,
 Every one who keepeth the sabbath from profaning it,
 Taking hold of my covenant,
 7 I will bring to my holy mountain,
 And make them joyful in my house of prayer :
 Their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar ;
 For my house shall be called a house of prayer for all people.
 8 The LORD God who gathereth the outcasts of Israel saith,
 Yet will I gather others to him,
 Besides those who are gathered unto him.
 9 All ye beasts of the field, come,
 Come, all ye beasts in the forest, come ye to devour.
 10 His watchmen are blind : they are all ignorant,
 They are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark ;
 Sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber.
 11 Yea, they are greedy dogs that can never have enough,
 And the shepherds themselves cannot understand :
 They all look to their own way,
 Every one for his gain, from his quarter.
 12 Come ye, say they, we will fetch wine,
 And will fill ourselves with strong drink ;
 And to-morrow shall be as this day,
 And much more abundant.

- 57 THE righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart :
 And good men are taken away, none considering
 That it is from calamity the righteous is taken away.
 2 He shall go in peace :
 He shall rest in his bed,
 Even the perfect man, who walketh in a straight path.
 3 But draw near hither, ye sons of the sorceress,
 The seed of the adulterer and the whore.
 4 Against whom do ye sport yourselves ?
 Against whom make ye a wide mouth,
 And thrust out the tongue ?
 Are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood,
 5 Inflaming yourselves with idols
 Under every green tree,
 Slaying the children in the valleys
 Under the cliffs of the rocks ?
 6 The smooth stones of the stream are thy portion ;
 They, they are thy lot :
 Even to them hast thou poured a drink offering,
 Thou hast offered a thank offering.
 Should I not take vengeance for these things ?
 7 Upon a lofty and high mountain hast thou set thy bed :
 Even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice.
 8 Behind the doors also and the door posts hast thou set up thy remembrance :
 For thou hast exposed thyself to another than me,
 And hast gone up ; thou hast enlarged thy bed,
 And made thee a covenant with them ;
 Thou lovedst their bed where thou sawest it.
 9 And thou presentedst the king with ointment,
 And didst multiply thy perfumes,
 And didst send thy messengers far off,
 And didst debase thyself even unto the lowest degree.
 10 Thou art wearied in the variety of thy ways ;
 Yet saidst thou not, There is no hope :
 Thou hast found life by the labour of thy hand ;
 Therefore thou wast not discouraged.
 11 Who filled thee with dread, or of whom hast thou been afraid,
 That thou hast dealt falsely,
 And hast not remembered me, nor laid it to heart ?

- Have not I held my peace,
And thou fearedst me not?
12 I will declare thy righteousness,
And thy works; for they shall not profit thee.
13 When thou criest, let thy gods deliver thee;
But the wind shall carry them all away;
Vanity shall take them:
But he who putteth his trust in me
Shall possess the land,
And shall inherit my holy mountain;
14 And it shall be said, Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way,
Take the stumblingblock out of the way of my people.
15 For thus saith the high and lofty One
Who inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy;
I dwell in the high and holy place,
With him also who is of a contrite and humble spirit,
To revive the spirit of the humble,
And to revive the heart of the contrite.
16 For I will not contend for ever,
Neither will I be always wroth:
For the spirit would fail before me,
And the souls which I have made.
17 For the iniquity of his covetousness was I wroth,
And smote him: I hid my face, and was wroth,
And he went on frowardly in the way of his heart.
18 I have seen his ways, and will heal him:
I will lead him also, and restore comforts
Unto him and to his mourners.
19 The creator of the fruit of the lips will proclaim,
Peace, peace to him who is far off, and to him who is near,
Saith the LORD; and I will heal him.
20 But the wicked are like the troubled sea,
Which cannot rest,
And whose waters cast up mire and dirt.
21 There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

- 58 CRY aloud, restrain not,
Lift up thy voice like a trumpet,
And show my people their transgression,
And the house of Jacob their sin.
2 They seek me indeed daily,
And delight to know my ways,
As a nation that doeth righteousness,
And forsaketh not the ordinance of their God:
They ask of me the ordinances of justice:
They take delight in approaching to God.
3 Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not?
Wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and thou takest no notice?
Behold! in the day of your fast ye find pleasure,
And exact all your labours.
4 Behold! ye fast for strife and debate,
And to smite with the fist of injustice:
Ye should not fast as ye do this day,
To make your voice to be heard on high.
5 Is it such a fast as I approve of?
A man to afflict his soul for a day?
Is it to bow down his head as a bulrush,
And to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast,
And an acceptable day to the LORD?
6 Is not this the fast that I approve of?
To loose the bands of injustice,
To undo the heavy burdens,
And to let the oppressed go free,
And to break every yoke?

- 7 Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry,
And to bring the wandering poor to thy house?
When thou seest the naked, to cover him;
And not to hide thyself from thine own flesh?
- 8 Then should thy light break forth as the morning,
And thy health should spring forth speedily:
And thy righteousness should go before thee;
The glory of the LORD should be thy rearguard.
- 9 Then shouldst thou call, and the LORD would answer;
Then shouldst thou cry, and he would say, Here I am.
If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke,
The putting forth of the finger, and the contemptuous speech;
- 10 And if thou deal out thy bread to the hungry,
And satisfy the desire of the oppressed;
Then should thy light rise in darkness,
And thine obscurity be as the noon day:
- 11 Then the LORD would guide thee continually,
And satisfy thee in drought,
And make fat thy bones:
And thou shouldst be like a well watered garden, and like a fountain,
Whose waters fail not.
- 12 Those who belong to thee should rebuild the old waste places:
Thou shouldst raise up the foundations of many generations;
And thou shouldst be called, The repairer of the breach,
The restorer of paths to dwell in.
- 13 If thou restrain thy foot on the sabbath,
And do not thy pleasure on my holy day;
And call the sabbath a delight,
The holy day of the LORD, honourable;
And honour it, not doing thine own ways,
Nor thine own business, nor spending it in talk:
- 14 Then shouldst thou delight thyself in the LORD;
And I would cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth,
And feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father:
For the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

- 59 BEHOLD! the LORD'S hand is not shortened, that it cannot save;
Neither is his ear heavy, that it cannot hear:
- 2 But your iniquities have separated between you and your God,
And your sins have made him to hide his face from you, that he will not hear.
 - 3 For your hands are defiled with blood,
And your fingers with iniquity;
Your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness.
 - 4 None calleth for justice, neither doth any one plead for truth:
They trust in vanity, and speak lies;
They conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.
 - 5 They hatch the eggs of the basilisk,
And weave the spider's web:
He who eateth of their eggs dieth,
And that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper.
 - 6 Their webs shall not become garments,
Neither shall they cover themselves with their works:
Their works are works of iniquity,
And the act of violence is in their hands.
 - 7 Their feet run to evil,
And they hasten to shed innocent blood:
Their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity;
Wasting and destruction are in their paths.
 - 8 The way of peace they know not;
And there is no justice in their goings:
They have made them crooked paths:
Whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace,
 - 9 Therefore is justice far removed from us,
Neither doth equity overtake us:

- We look for light, but behold darkness ;
 For brightness, but we walk in obscurity
 10 We grope for the wall like the blind,
 And we grope as if we had no eyes :
 We stumble at noon day as in twilight ;
 We are in desolate places as dead men.
 11 We all growl like bears,
 And mourn continually like doves :
 We look for justice, but there is none ;
 For salvation, but it is far off from us.
 12 For our transgressions are multiplied before thee,
 And our sins testify against us :
 For our transgressions cleave fast to us ;
 And as for our iniquities, we acknowledge them ;
 13 In transgressing and lying against the LORD,
 And departing away from our God,
 Speaking oppression and revolt,
 Conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood.
 14 And justice is turned away backwards,
 And equity standeth afar off :
 For truth is fallen in the street,
 And equity cannot enter.
 15 Yea, truth faileth ;
 And he who departeth from evil exposeth himself to be plundered.
 And the LORD saw it,
 And it displeased him that there was no justice.
 16 And he saw that there was no man,
 And was astonished that there was no intercessor :
 Therefore his own arm wrought salvation for him ;
 And his righteousness sustained him.
 17 For he put on righteousness as a breastplate,
 And a helmet of salvation upon his head ;
 And he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing,
 And was clad with zeal as a cloak.
 18 According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay
 Fury to his adversaries, retribution to his enemies ;
 To the islands he will render retribution.
 19 Then shall those of the west fear the name of the LORD,
 And those of the sunrise, his glory.
 When the enemy cometh in like a flood,
 The Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him.
 20 And the Redeemer shall come to Zion,
 And unto those in Jacob who turn from transgression.
 21 But as for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the LORD ;
 My spirit that is upon thee,
 And my words which I have put into thy mouth,
 Shall not depart out of thy mouth,
 Nor out of the mouth of thy seed,
 Nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD,
 From henceforth, for ever.
- 60 ARISE! shine! for thy light is come,
 And the glory of the LORD hath arisen upon thee.
 2 For, behold! darkness shall cover the earth,
 And gross darkness the people :
 But the LORD shall arise upon thee,
 And his glory shall be seen upon thee.
 3 And the nations shall come to thy light,
 And kings to the brightness of thy rising.
 4 Lift up thine eyes round about, and see :
 All they gather themselves together, they come to thee :
 Thy sons shall come from afar,
 And thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.
 5 Then thou shalt see, and flow together,

- And thy heart shall fear, and be enlarged;
Because the wealth of the sea shall be converted unto thee,
The riches of the nations shall come unto thee.
- 6 The multitude of camels shall cover thee,
The dromedaries of Midian and Ephah;
All they from Sheba shall come:
They shall bring gold and incense;
And they shall show forth the praises of the LORD.
- 7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee,
The rams of Nebaioth shall minister unto thee:
They shall come up with acceptance on mine altar,
And I will glorify the house of my glory.
- 8 Who are these who fly as a cloud,
And as the doves to their holes?
- 9 Surely the isles shall wait for me,
And the ships of Tarshish as at the first,
To bring thy sons from afar,
Their silver and their gold with them,
Unto the name of the LORD thy God,
And to the Holy One of Israel, because he hath glorified thee.
- 10 And the sons of strangers shall build up thy walls,
And their kings shall minister unto thee:
For though in my wrath I smote thee,
Yet in my favour will I have mercy on thee.
- 11 Thy gates shall be open continually;
They shall not be shut day nor night;
That men may bring unto thee the riches of the nations,
And that their kings may be brought.
- 12 For the nation and kingdom
That will not serve thee shall perish;
Yea, those nations shall be utterly destroyed.
- 13 The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee,
The fir tree, the pine tree, and the box together,
To beautify the place of my sanctuary;
And I will make the place of my feet glorious.
- 14 The sons also of those who afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee;
All those who despised thee shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet;
And shall call thee, The city of the LORD,
The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.
- 15 Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated,
So that no man went through thee,
I will make thee an eternal excellency,
The joy of successive generations.
- 16 Thou shalt also suck the milk of the nations,
And shalt suck the breast of kings:
And thou shalt know that I the LORD am thy Saviour
And thy Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.
- 17 For brass I will bring gold,
And for iron I will bring silver,
And for wood brass,
And for stones iron:
I will also make thine officers peace,
And thine exactors righteousness.
- 18 Violence shall no more be heard in thy land,
Wasting nor destruction within thy borders;
But thou shalt call thy walls, Salvation,
And thy gates, Praise.
- 19 The sun shall be no more thy light by day;
Neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee:
But the LORD shall be unto thee an everlasting light,
And thy God thy glory.
- 20 Thy sun shall no more go down;
Neither shall thy moon withdraw itself:
For the LORD shall be thine everlasting light,

- And the days of thy mourning shall be ended.
- 21 Thy people shall all be righteous :
They shall inherit the land for ever ;
The branch of my planting,
The work of my hands, that I may be glorified.
- 22 A little one shall become a thousand,
And a small one a strong nation :
I the LORD will hasten it in its time.
- 61 THE Spirit of the Lord God is upon me ;
For the LORD hath anointed me
To preach good tidings unto the meek ;
He hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted,
To proclaim liberty to the captives,
And the opening of the prison to those who are bound ;
2 To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD,
And the day of salvation of our God ; (?) vengeance
To comfort all who mourn ;
3 To make glad the mourners in Zion,
To give unto them beauty for ashes,
The oil of joy for mourning,
The garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness ;
That they may be called, Trees of righteousness,
The planting of the LORD, that he may be glorified.
- 4 And they shall build the old wastes,
They shall raise up the former desolations,
And they shall repair the waste cities,
The desolations of many generations.
- 5 And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks,
And the sons of the alien shall be your ploughmen and your vinedressers.
- 6 But ye shall be named, The Priests of the LORD :
Men shall call you, The Ministers of our God :
Ye shall possess the riches of the nations,
And have their wealth at your command.
- 7 For your shame ye shall have double ;
And for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion :
Therefore in their land they shall possess the double :
Everlasting joy shall be unto them.
- 8 For I the LORD love justice,
I hate robbery for burnt offering ;
And I will faithfully give their reward,
And I will make an everlasting covenant with them.
- 9 And their seed shall be known among the nations,
And their offspring among the people :
All who see them shall acknowledge them,
That they are the seed whom the LORD hath blessed.
- 10 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD,
My soul shall be joyful in my God ;
For he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation,
He hath covered me with the robe of righteousness,
As a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments,
And as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels.
- 11 For as the earth bringeth forth her produce,
And as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring up ;
So the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise
To spring up before all the nations.
- 62 FOR Zion's sake will I not hold my peace,
And for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest,
Until her righteousness go forth as brightness,
And her salvation as a lamp that burneth.
- 2 Then shall the nations see thy righteousness,
And all kings thy glory ;
And thou shalt be called by a new name,

- Which the mouth of the LORD shall name.
- 3 Thou shalt also be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD,
And a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.
- 4 Thou shalt no more be called, Forsaken ;
Neither shall thy land any more be termed, Desolate :
But thou shalt be called, Hephzi-bah [MY DELIGHT IS IN HER],
And thy land Beulah [MARRIED] :
For the LORD delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married.
- 5 For as a young man marryeth a virgin,
So shall thy sons marry thee :
And as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride,
So shall thy God rejoice over thee.
- 6 I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem !
Who shall never hold their peace day nor night :
Ye who make mention of the LORD, keep not silence,
- 7 And give him no rest,
Till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth.
- 8 The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength,
Surely I will no more give thy corn
To be food for thine enemies ;
And the sons of the alien shall not drink thy wine,
For which thou hast laboured :
- 9 But those who have gathered it shall eat it,
And praise the LORD ;
And those who have brought it together shall drink it
In the courts of my holiness.
- 10 Go through, go through the gates ;
Prepare ye the way for my people ;
Cast up, cast up the highway ;
Gather out the stones ;
Lift up a standard for the people.
- 11 Behold ! the LORD proclaimeeth unto the ends of the world,
Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold ! thy Saviour cometh :
Behold ! his reward is with him, and his recompence before him.
- 12 And they shall call them, The holy people,
The redeemed of the LORD :
And thou shalt be called, Sought out,
A city not forsaken.

63 WHO is this who cometh from Edom?
With dyed garments from Bozrah ?
Who is glorious in his apparel,
Travelling in the greatness of his strength ?

It is the announcer of righteousness,
Mighty to save.

- 2 Why is thine apparel red,
And thy garments like those of him who treadeth in the winevat ?
- 3 I have trodden the winepress alone ;
And of the people no man was with me :
I trod them in mine anger,
And trampled on them in my fury ;
So that their blood is sprinkled upon my garments,
And I have stained all my raiment.
- 4 For the day of vengeance was in my heart,
And the year of my recompence was come.
- 5 I looked, but there was no helper ;
And I was amazed that there was no supporter :
Therefore mine own arm wrought salvation for me ;
And mine own fury upheld me.
- 6 I trod down the people in mine anger,
And broke them in pieces in my fury,
And made their blood flow down to the earth.

- 7 I WILL celebrate the lovingkindnesses of the LORD,
And the praises of the LORD,
According to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us,
And the great goodness towards the house of Israel,
Which he hath bestowed on them in his tender mercies,
And according to the greatness of his lovingkindnesses.
 - 8 For he said, Surely they are mine own people,
Children that will not act falsely :
So he became their Saviour.
 - 9 In all their affliction he was afflicted,
And the angel of his presence saved them :
In his love and in his pity he redeemed them ;
And he bore them, and carried them all the days of old.
 - 10 But they rebelled, and vexed his holy Spirit :
Therefore he was turned to be their enemy,
And he fought against them.
 - 11 Then he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying,
Where is he who brought them up out of the sea
With the shepherd of his flock ?
Where is he who put his holy Spirit within them ?
 - 12 Who led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arm,
Dividing the waters before them,
To make himself an everlasting name ?
 - 13 Who led them through the deep ?
Like a horse in the desert, they stumbled not.
 - 14 As cattle go down into the valley,
So the Spirit of the LORD caused them to rest :
Thus didst thou lead thy people,
To make thyself a glorious name.
 - 15 Look down from the heavens,
And behold from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory :
Where is thy zeal and thy might ?
Are the sounding of thy bowels and of thy mercies towards us restrained ?
 - 16 Doubtless thou art our father,
Though Abraham notice us not,
And Israel doth not acknowledge us.
Thou, O LORD, art our father, our redeemer ;
Thy name is from eternity.
 - 17 O LORD ! why hast thou suffered us to err from thy ways,
And permitted our hearts to be hardened, that we fear thee not ?
Return for thy servants' sake,
The tribes of thine inheritance.
 - 18 Thy holy people have possessed it but a little while :
Our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary.
 - 19 We have been as those over whom thou never hastest rule ;
Who were not called by thy name.
- 64 OH that thou wouldest rend the heavens, that thou wouldest come down !
That the mountains might tremble at thy presence !
- 2 As metals in a flame of fire,
As the fire causeth the waters to boil,
So make thy name known to thine adversaries,
That the nations may tremble at thy presence !
 - 3 When thou didst terrible things which we looked not for,
Thou camest down, the mountains trembled at thy presence.
 - 4 Never had men heard, nor perceived by the ear,
Neither had eye seen, a God besides thee,
Who would act for him who waited for him.
 - 5 Thou meetest him who rejoiceth and worketh righteousness,
Those who remember thee in thy ways :
Behold, thou art wroth ; for we have sinned :
In thy ways we shall be saved, because they are everlasting.
 - 6 But we are all as an unclean thing,
And all our righteous deeds are as a polluted garment ;

- And we all do fade as a leaf;
 And our iniquities, like the wind, have carried us away.
- 7 There is none who calleth upon thy name,
 Who stirreth up himself to take hold of thee :
 For thou hast hid thy face from us,
 And hast consumed us, because of our iniquities.
- 8 Yet now, O LORD! thou art our father;
 We are the clay, and thou our potter;
 And we all are the work of thy hand.
- 9 Be not wroth to excess, O LORD,
 Neither remember iniquity for ever;
 Behold, see, we beseech thee, we are all thy people.
- 10 Thy holy cities are a wilderness,
 Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.
- 11 Our holy and our beautiful house,
 In which our fathers praised thee,
 Is burnt up with fire:
 And all our pleasant things are laid waste.
- 12 Wilt thou refrain thyself for these things, O LORD?
 Wilt thou hold thy peace, and afflict us to excess?
- 65 I AM made manifest to those who asked not for me;
 I am found of those who sought me not:
 I said, Behold me, behold me,
 Unto a nation not called by my name.
- 2 I have spread out my hands all the day
 Unto a rebellious people,
 Who walked in a way that was not good,
 After their own thoughts;
- 3 A people who provoke me to anger continually to my face;
 Sacrificing in gardens,
 And burning incense upon altars of brick;
- 4 Who remain among the graves,
 And lodge in the monuments,
 Who eat swine's flesh,
 And broth of abominable things is in their vessels;
- 5 Who say, Stand by thyself, come not near to me;
 For I am holier than thou.
- These are a smoke in my nose,
 A fire that burneth all the day.
- 6 Behold, it is written before me:
 I will not keep silence, but will recompense,
 Even recompense into their bosom,
- 7 Your iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together, saith the LORD,
 Who have burnt incense upon the mountains,
 And blasphemed me upon the hills:
 Therefore will I measure their former work into their bosom.
- 8 Thus saith the LORD,
 As the new wine is found in the cluster,
 And one saith, Destroy it not; for a blessing is in it:
 So will I do for my servants' sakes, that I may not destroy them all.
- 9 And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob,
 And out of Judah inheritors of my mountains:
 And mine elect shall inherit it,
 And my servants shall dwell there.
- 10 And Sharon shall be a fold of flocks,
 And the valley of Achor a place for the herds to lie down in,
 For my people who have sought me.
- 11 But as for you who forsake the LORD,
 Who forget my holy mountain,
 Who prepare a table for Fortune,
 And who furnish the drink offering to Fate,
- 12 I will appoint you to the sword,
 And ye shall all bow down to the slaughter:

- Because when I called, ye did not answer;
 When I spoke, ye did not hear;
 But would do evil before mine eyes,
 And choose that wherein I delighted not.
- 13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God,
 Behold! my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry:
 Behold! my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty:
 Behold! my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed:
- 14 Behold! my servants shall sing for joy of heart,
 But ye shall cry for sorrow of heart,
 And shall howl for vexation of spirit.
- 15 And ye shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen:
 For the Lord God shall slay thee,
 And call his servants by another name:
- 16 So that he who blesseth himself in the earth
 Shall bless himself in the God of truth;
 And he who sweareth in the earth
 Shall swear by the God of truth;
 Because the former troubles are forgotten,
 And because they are hid from mine eyes.
- 17 For, behold! I create new heavens and a new earth:
 And the former shall not be remembered,
 Nor come into my mind.
- 18 But be ye glad and rejoice for ever
 In that which I create:
 For, behold! I create Jerusalem a rejoicing,
 And her people a joy.
- 19 For I will rejoice in Jerusalem,
 And joy in my people:
 And the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her,
 Nor the voice of crying.
- 20 There shall be no more there an infant of a few days,
 Nor an old man who hath not filled up his days:
 For the child shall die a hundred years old;
 And the sinner being a hundred years old shall be accursed.
- 21 They shall build houses, and inhabit them;
 And they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.
- 22 They shall not build, and another inhabit;
 They shall not plant, and another eat:
 For as the days of a tree are the days of my people,
 And my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their own hands.
- 23 They shall not labour in vain,
 Nor bring forth children for destruction;
 For they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD,
 And their offspring with them.
- 24 And it shall be,
 That before they call, I will answer;
 And while they are yet speaking, I will hear.
- 25 The wolf and the lamb shall feed together,
 And the lion shall eat straw like the ox:
 But as for the serpent, dust shall be its food.
 They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain,
 Saith the LORD.

- 66 THUS saith the LORD,
 The heavens are my throne,
 And the earth is my footstool:
 Where is the house that ye build for me?
 And where is the place of my rest?
- 2 For all these things hath my hand made,
 And all these things are mine, saith the LORD:
 But to this man will I look,
 Even to him who is humble and contrite in spirit,
 And who trembleth at my word.

- 3 He who slayeth an ox, killeth a man ;
He who slayeth a lamb, beheadeth a dog ;
He who offereth an oblation, offereth swine's blood ;
He who burneth incense, blesseth an idol.
Yea, they have chosen their own ways,
And their soul delighteth in their abominations.
- 4 I also will choose their calamities,
And will bring their fears upon them ;
Because when I called, none did answer ;
When I spoke, they did not hear :
But they did evil before mine eyes,
And chose that in which I delighted not.
- 5 Hear the word of the LORD,
Ye who tremble at his word ;
Your brethren who hated you,
Who cast you out for my name's sake, said,
Let the LORD be glorified :
But he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed.
- 6 A voice of tumult from the city !
A voice from the temple !
A voice of the LORD rendering retribution to his enemies.
- 7 Before she travailed, she brought forth ;
Before her pain came, she was delivered of a man-child.
- 8 Who hath heard such a thing ? who hath seen such things ?
Shall a country bring forth in a day ?
Or shall a nation be born at once ?
For as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.
- 9 Should I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth ? saith the LORD :
Should I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb ? saith thy God.
- 10 Rejoice ye with Jerusalem,
And be glad on her account, all ye who love her :
Rejoice for joy with her,
All ye who mourned for her :
- 11 That ye may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations ;
That ye may milk out, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.
- 12 For thus saith the LORD,
Behold, I will extend prosperity to her like a river,
And the wealth of the nations like a flowing stream :
Then shall ye suck,
Ye shall be borne upon her sides,
And be dandled upon her knees.
- 13 As one whom his mother comforteth,
So will I comfort you ;
And ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem.
- 14 And when ye see this, your heart shall rejoice,
And your bones shall flourish like the green herb :
And the hand of the LORD shall be known to his servants,
And his indignation to his enemies.
- 15 For, behold ! the LORD will come with fire,
And with his chariots like a whirlwind,
To render his anger with fury,
And his rebuke with flames of fire.
- 16 For by fire and by his sword
Will the LORD plead with all flesh :
And the slain of the LORD shall be many.
- 17 Those who sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens
One after another,
Eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse,
Shall be consumed together, saith the LORD.
- 18 For I know their works and their thoughts :
It shall come, that I will gather all nations and tongues ;
And they shall come, and see my glory.
- 19 And I will set a sign among them,

JEREMIAH I.

- And I will send those who escape of them unto the nations ;
To Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, who draw the bow,
To Tubal, and Javan, to the isles afar off,
That have not heard my fame,
Nor seen my glory ;
And they shall declare my glory among the nations.
- 20 And they shall bring all your brethren
For an offering unto the LORD out of all nations
Upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters,
And upon mules, and upon dromedaries,
To my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the LORD,
As the children of Israel bring an offering
In a clean vessel into the house of the LORD.
- 21 And I will also take of them
For priests and for Levites, saith the LORD.
- 22 For as the new heavens
And the new earth, which I will make,
Shall remain before me, saith the LORD,
So shall your seed and your name remain.
- 23 And from one new moon to another,
And from one sabbath to another,
All flesh shall come to worship before me,
Saith the LORD.
- 24 And they shall go forth, and look upon
The carcases of the men who have transgressed against me :
For their worm shall not die,
Neither shall their fire be quenched ;
And they shall be an abhorrence unto all flesh.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET

JEREMIAH.

THE words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiab, of the priests who were in Anathoth 1 in the land of Benjamin : to whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign. It came also 3 in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.

4 THEN the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Before I formed thee in the womb I knew thee ;

And before thou wast born I set thee apart for me,

And I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

Then said I, Ah, Lord God ! behold, I cannot speak : for I am a child. But the 6 7
LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child : for thou shalt go to whomsoever I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak. Be not afraid of 8 their faces : for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD. Then the LORD 9 put forth his hand, and touched my mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold,
I have put my words in thy mouth.

10 See, I have this day set thee over the nations

And over the kingdoms,

To root out, and to pull down,

To destroy, and to throw down,

To build, and to plant.

Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest 11
thou ? And I said, I see a rod of an almond tree. Then said the LORD unto me, 12

- 13 Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it. And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see 14 a seething pot; and its face is from the north. Then the LORD said unto me,
 Out of the north an evil shall break forth
 Upon all the inhabitants of the land.
- 15 For, lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north,
 Saith the LORD;
 And they shall come,
 And they shall set every one his throne
 At the entering of the gates of Jerusalem,
 And against all the walls thereof round about,
 And against all the cities of Judah.
- 16 And I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness,
 Who have forsaken me, and have burnt incense unto other gods,
 And worshipped the works of their own hands.
- 17 Thou therefore gird up thy loins, and arise,
 And speak unto them all that I command thee:
 Be not dismayed at their faces,
 Lest I confound thee before them.
- 18 For, behold, I have made thee this day a defenced city, and an iron pillar,
 And brazen walls against the whole land,
 Against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof,
 Against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land.
- 19 And they shall fight against thee;
 But they shall not prevail against thee;
 For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.
- 2 MOREOVER the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
 Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying,
 Thus saith the LORD; I remember, for thy sake.
 The kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals,
 When thou wentest after me in the wilderness,
 In a land that was not sown.
- 3 Israel was holiness unto the LORD,
 And the firstfruits of his increase:
 All who devour him shall incur guilt;
 Evil shall come upon them, saith the LORD.
- 4 Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob,
 And all the families of the house of Israel:
- 5 Thus saith the LORD,
 What iniquity have your fathers found in me,
 That they are gone far from me,
 And have walked after vanity, and are become vain?
- 6 Neither said they, Where is the LORD
 Who brought us up out of the land of Egypt,
 Who led us through the wilderness,
 Through a land of deserts and of pits,
 Through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death,
 Through a land that no man passed through,
 And where no man dwelt?
- 7 And I brought you into a plentiful country,
 To eat the fruit thereof and the goodness thereof;
 But when ye entered, ye defiled my land,
 And made my heritage an abomination.
- 8 The priests said not, Where is the LORD?
 And those who handle the law knew me not:
 The pastors also transgressed against me,
 And the prophets prophesied by Baal,
 And walked after things that do not profit.
- 9 Wherefore I will yet plead with you, saith the LORD,
 And with your children's children will I plead.
- 10 For pass over the isles of Chittim, and see;
 And send unto Kedar, and consider diligently,
 And see if there ever was such a thing.

JEREMIAH II.

- 11 Hath a nation changed their gods, which are yet no gods?
But my people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit.
- 12 Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this,
And be horribly afraid,
Be ye very desolate, saith the LORD.
- 13 For my people have committed two evils;
They have forsaken me the fountain of living waters,
And hewed out for themselves cisterns, broken cisterns,
Which can hold no water.
- 14 Is Israel a servant? is he a homeborn bondman?
Why do all the nations around oppress him?
- 15 The young lions roared upon him, and yelled,
And they made his land waste:
His cities are burnt without inhabitant.
- 16 Also the children of Noph and Tahapanes shall bruise the crown of thy head.
- 17 Hast thou not procured this unto thyself,
In that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God.
When he led thee by the way?
- 18 And now what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt,
To drink the waters of Sihor?
Or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria,
To drink the waters of the river?
- 19 Thine own wickedness shall correct thee,
And thy backslidings shall reprove thee:
Know therefore and see
That it is an evil and bitter thing,
That thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God,
And that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord God of hosts.
- 20 For of old time I have broken thy yoke,
And burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not transgress;
When upon every high hill
And under every green tree
Thou wanderest, playing the harlot.
- 21 Yet I had planted thee a noble vine,
Wholly a right seed:
How then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me?
- 22 For though thou wash thee with soda,
And take thee much soap,
Yet thine iniquity is marked before me,
Saith the Lord God.
- 23 How canst thou say, I am not polluted,
I have not gone after Baalim?
See thy way in the valley,
Know what thou hast done:
Thou art as a swift dromedary traversing her ways;
- 24 As a wild ass used to the wilderness,
That snuffeth up the wind at her pleasure;
In her occasion who can turn her away?
All those who seek her will not weary themselves;
When she is herself again they shall find her.
- 25 Withhold thy foot from being unshod,
And thy throat from thirst:
But thou saidst despairingly,
There is no hope:
No; for I have loved strangers,
And after them will I go.
- 26 As the thief is ashamed when he is found,
So is the house of Israel ashamed;
They, their kings, their princes,
And their priests, and their prophets,
- 27 Saying to a stock, Thou art my father;
And to a stone, Thou hast brought me forth:
For they have turned their back unto me, and not their face:

- But in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us
- 28 But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee?
Let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble:
For according to the number of thy cities
Are thy gods, O Judah.
- 29 Wherefore will ye enter into controversy with me?
Ye all have transgressed against me, saith the LORD.
- 30 In vain have I smitten your children;
They received no correction:
Your own sword hath devoured your prophets,
Like a destroying lion.
- 31 O generation, see ye the word of the LORD.
Have I been a wilderness unto Israel?
A land of darkness?
Wherefore say my people,
We are lords;
We will come no more unto thee?
- 32 Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire?
Yet my people have forgotten me days without number.
- 33 Why trimmest thou thy way to seek love?
Therefore hast thou also taught the wicked ones thy ways.
- 34 Also in thy skirts is found the life-blood
Of the poor innocents:
I have not found it by secret search, but upon all these.
- 35 Yet thou sayest,
Because I am innocent,
Surely his anger shall turn from me.
Behold, I will plead with thee,
Because thou sayest, I have not sinned.
- 36 Why gaddest thou about so much to change thy way?
Thou also shalt be ashamed of Egypt,
As thou wast ashamed of Assyria.
- 37 Yea, thou shalt go forth from him,
And thy hands upon thy head:
For the LORD hath rejected thy confidences,
And thou shalt not prosper in them.
- 3 Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying,
If a man put away his wife,
And she go from him, and become another man's,
Shall he return unto her again?
Shall not that land be greatly polluted?
But thou hast played the harlot with many lovers;
Yet return again to me, saith the LORD.
- 2 Lift up thine eyes unto the high places,
And see where thou hast not been lien with.
In the ways hast thou sat for them,
As the Arabian in the wilderness;
And thou hast polluted the land
With thy whoredoms and with thy wickedness.
- 3 Therefore the showers have been withholden,
And there hath been no harvest rain;
And thou hadst a whore's forehead,
Thou refusedst to be ashamed.
- 4 Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me,
My father, thou art the guide of my youth?
- 5 Will he reserve his anger for ever?
Will he keep it to the end?
Behold, thou hast spoken and done evil things as thou couldst.
- 6 THE LORD said also unto me in the days of Josiah the king, Hast thou seen that which backsliding Israel hath done? she is gone up upon every high mountain and under every green tree, and there hath played the harlot.
- 7 And I said after she had done all these things, Turn thou unto me. But she re-
- 8 turned not. And her treacherous sister Judah saw it. And I saw, when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also. And through the wantonness of her whoredom, she defiled the land, and committed adultery with stones and with stocks. And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned unto me with her whole heart, but feignedly, saith the LORD.

JEREMIAH III.

And the LORD said unto me, The backsliding Israel hath justified herself more than treacherous Judah. Go and proclaim these words towards the north, and say,

Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD;

And I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you:

For I am merciful, saith the LORD,

And I will not keep anger for ever.

- 13 Only acknowledge thine iniquity,
That thou hast transgressed against the LORD thy God,
And hast scattered thy ways to the strangers
Under every green tree,

And ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the LORD.

- 14 Turn, O backsliding children, saith the LORD;

For I am married unto you:

And I will take you one of a city, and two of a family,

And I will bring you to Zion:

- 15 And I will give you pastors according to my heart,
Who shall feed you with knowledge and understanding.

- 16 And when ye be multiplied and increased in the land,
In those days, saith the LORD,
They shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD:
Neither shall it come to mind:
Neither shall they remember it; neither shall they visit it;
Neither shall that be done any more.

- 17 At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD;
And all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem:

Neither shall they walk any more after the imagination of their evil heart.

- 18 In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel,
And they shall come together out of the land of the north,
To the land that I have given for an inheritance unto your fathers.

- 19 But I said, With what pleasure can I put thee among the children,
And give thee a pleasant land,
A goodly heritage of the hosts of nations?
And I said, Thou shalt call me, My father;
And shalt not turn away from following me.

- 20 Surely as a wicked woman treacherously departeth from her husband,
So have ye dealt treacherously with me,
O house of Israel, saith the LORD.

- 21 A voice was heard upon the high places,
Weeping and supplications of the children of Israel:
For they have perverted their way,
And they have forgotten the LORD their God.

- 22 Return, ye backsliding children,
And I will heal your backslidings.

Behold, we come unto thee;

For thou art the LORD our God.

- 23 Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills,
And from the multitude of mountains consecrated to idols;
Truly in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.

- 24 For that shameful idol hath devoured the labour of our fathers from our youth;
Their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

- 25 We lie down in our shame,
And our confusion covereth us:
For we have sinned against the LORD our God,
We and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day,
And have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.

- 4 If thou wilt return, O Israel,
Saith the LORD, return unto me :
And if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight,
And wander no more ;
- 2 And wilt swear, The LORD liveth,
In truth, in judgment, and in righteousness ;
Then shall the nations bless themselves in him,
And in him shall they glory.
- 3 For thus saith the LORD
To the men of Judah and Jerusalem,
Break up your fallow ground,
And sow not among thorns.
- 4 Circumcise yourselves to the LORD,
And take away the foreskins of your heart,
Ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem :
Lest my fury come forth like fire,
And burn, so that none can quench it,
Because of the evil of your doings.
- 5 Declare ye in Judah,
And publish in Jerusalem ; and say,
Blow ye the trumpet in the land :
Cry, gather together, and say,
Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the defenced cities.
- 6 Set up the standard towards Zion :
Retire, stay not :
For I will bring evil from the north,
And a great destruction.
- 7 The lion is come up from his thicket,
And the destroyer of the nations is on his way ;
He is gone forth from his place to make thy land desolate ;
And thy cities shall be laid waste, without an inhabitant.
- 8 For this gird you with sackcloth, lament and howl :
For the fierce anger of the LORD is not turned back from us.
- 9 And at that day, saith the LORD,
The heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes ;
And the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder.
- 10 Then said I, Ah, Lord God !
Surely thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem,
Saying, Ye shall have peace ;
Whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul.
- 11 At that time shall it be said to this people and Jerusalem,
A scorching wind from the high places in the wilderness
Towards the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleanse,
- 12 A wind stronger than these shall come upon them :
Now also will I give sentence against them.
- 13 Behold, he shall come up as clouds,
And his chariots shall be as a whirlwind :
His horses are swifter than eagles.
Woe unto us ! for we are spoiled.
- 14 O Jerusalem, wash thy heart from wickedness,
That thou mayest be saved.
How long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee ?
- 15 For a voice declareth from Dan,
And publisheth affliction from mount Ephraim.
- 16 Make ye mention to the nations ; behold,
Publish against Jerusalem,
That besiegers come from a far country,
And give out their voice against the cities of Judah.
- 17 As keepers of a field, are they against her round about ;
Because she hath been rebellious against me, saith the LORD.
- 18 Thy way and thy doings have procured these things unto thee ;
This is thy wickedness, because it is bitter, because it reacheth unto thy heart.

JEREMIAH V.

- 19 My bowels! my bowels! I am pained at my very heart;
My heart maketh a noise in me; I cannot hold my peace,
Because thou hast heard, O my soul,
The sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.
 - 20 Destruction upon destruction is cried;
For the whole land is spoiled:
Suddenly are my tents spoiled,
And my curtains in a moment.
 - 21 How long shall I see the standard,
And hear the sound of the trumpet?
 - 22 For my people are foolish,
They have not known me;
They are sottish children,
And they have no understanding:
They are wise to do evil,
But to do good they have no knowledge.
 - 23 I beheld the earth—and, lo, it was without form and void;
And the heavens—and they had no light.
 - 24 I beheld the mountains—and, lo, they trembled,
And all the hills shook.
 - 25 I beheld—and, lo, there was no man,
And all the birds of the heavens were fled.
 - 26 I beheld—and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness,
And all the cities thereof were broken down
At the presence of the LORD,
And by his fierce anger.
 - 27 For thus hath the LORD said,
The whole land shall be desolate;
Yet will I not make a full end.
 - 28 For this shall the earth mourn,
And the heavens above be black:
Because I have spoken it, I have purposed it,
And will not repent, neither will I turn back from it.
 - 29 The whole city shall flee
For the noise of the horsemen and bowmen;
They shall go into thickets,
And climb up upon the rocks:
Every city shall be forsaken,
And not a man dwell therein.
 - 30 And when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do?
Though thou clothest thyself with scarlet,
Though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold,
Though thou enlargeth thine eyes by blackening thine eyelashes,
In vain shalt thou make thyself beautiful;
Thy lovers will despise thee, they will even seek thy life.
 - 31 For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail,
And the anguish as of her who bringeth forth her first child,
The voice of the daughter of Zion,
Who bewaileth herself, who spreadeth her hands,
Saying, Woe to me now!
For my soul fainteth because of murderers.
- 5 RUN ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem,
And see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof,
If ye can find a man,
If there be any who executeth judgment,
Who seeketh the truth; and I will pardon it.
- 2 And though they say, The LORD liveth;
Surely they swear falsely.
 - 3 O LORD, are not thine eyes upon the truth?
Thou hast stricken them—but they have not grieved;
Thou hast consumed them—but they have refused to receive correction:
They have made their faces harder than a rock;
They have refused to return.

- 4 Therefore I said,
Surely these, the poor, are foolish :
For they know not the way of the LORD,
Nor the judgment of their God.
- 5 I will get me unto the great men,
And will speak unto them;
For they have known the way of the LORD,
And the judgment of their God :
But these have altogether broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.
- 6 Wherefore a lion out of the forest shall slay them,
And a wolf of the desert shall spoil them,
A leopard shall watch over their cities :
Every one who goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces :
Because their transgressions are many,
And their backslidings are increased.
- 7 How shall I pardon thee for this ?
Thy children have forsaken me,
And sworn by those who are no gods :
When I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery,
And assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.
- 8 They were as fed horses in the morning :
Every one neighed after his neighbour's wife.
- 9 Shall I not visit for these things ? saith the LORD :
And shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this ?
- 10 Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy ;
But make not a full end :
Take away her battlements ;
For they are not the LORD'S.
- 11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah
Have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD.
- 12 They have denied the LORD,
And said, It is not he ;
Neither shall evil come upon us ;
Neither shall we see sword nor famine :
- 13 And the prophets shall be as wind,
And the word of the LORD is not in them.
- 14 Wherefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts,
Because ye speak this word,
Behold, I will make my words in thy mouth fire,
And this people wood, and it shall devour them.
- 15 Lo, I will bring a nation upon you from far,
O house of Israel, saith the LORD :
It is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation,
A nation whose language thou knowest not,
Neither understandest what they say.
- 16 Their throat is as an open sepulchre,
They are all mighty men.
- 17 And they shall eat up thy harvest, and thy bread,
Which thy sons and thy daughters should eat :
They shall eat up thy flocks and thy herds :
They shall eat up thy vines and thy fig trees :
They shall impoverish thy fenced cities,
Wherein thou trustedst, with the sword.
- 18 Nevertheless in those days, saith the LORD,
I will not make a full end with you.
- 19 And when ye shall say,
Wherefore doeth the LORD our God all these things unto us ?
Then shalt thou answer them,
Like as ye have forsaken me,
And served strange gods in your land,
So shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not yours.
- 20 Declare this in the house of Jacob,
And publish it in Judah, saying,

JEREMIAH VI.

- 21 Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding ;
Who have eyes, and see not ;
Who have ears, and hear not :
- 22 Fear ye not me ? saith the LORD :
Will ye not tremble at my presence,
Who have placed the sand for the bound of the sea
By a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it :
And though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail ;
Though they roar, yet can they not pass over it ?
- 23 But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart ;
They are revolted and gone.
- 24 Neither say they in their heart,
Let us now fear the LORD our God,
Who giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in its season :
He reserveth unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest.
- 25 Your iniquities have turned away these things,
And your sins have withholden good things from you.
- 26 For among my people are found wicked men :
They lay wait, as he who setteth snares ;
They set a trap, they catch men.
- 27 As a cage is full of birds,
So are their houses full of deceit :
Therefore they are become great, and waxen rich.
- 28 They are waxen fat, they shine :
Yea, they exceed the deeds of the wicked :
They judge not the cause,
The cause of the fatherless, that they may prosper ;
And the right of the needy do they not judge.
- 29 Shall I not visit for these things ? saith the LORD :
Shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this ?
- 30 A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land ;
- 31 The prophets prophesy falsely,
And the priests bear rule by their means ;
And my people love to have it so :
And what will ye do in the end thereof ?

- 6 O YE children of Benjamin, gather yourselves
To flee out of the midst of Jerusalem,
And blow the trumpet in Tekoa,
And set up a standard in Beth-haccerem :
For evil appeareth out of the north,
And great destruction.
- 2 The beautiful and delicate one will I destroy,
Even the daughter of Zion.
- 3 The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her ;
They shall pitch their tents against her round about ;
They shall feed every one in his place.
- 4 Prepare ye war against her ;
Arise, and let us go up at noon.
Woe unto us ! for the day goeth away,
For the shadows of the evening are stretched out.
- 5 Arise, and let us go by night,
And let us destroy her palaces.
- 6 For thus hath the LORD of hosts said,
Hew ye down trees,
And cast a mount against Jerusalem :
This is the city to be visited ;
She is wholly oppression in the midst of her
- 7 As a fountain casteth out her waters,
So she casteth out her wickedness :
Violence and spoil are heard in her ;
Before me continually are grief and wounds.
- 8 Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem.

JEREMIAH VI.

- Lest my soul be alienated from thee ;
Lest I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited.
- 9 Thus saith the LORD of hosts,
They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine :
Turn back thy hand as a grapegatherer into the baskets.
- 10 To whom shall I speak,
And give warning, that they may hear ?
Behold, their ear is uncircumcised,
And they cannot hearken :
Behold, the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach ;
They have no delight in it.
- 11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD ;
I am weary with holding in :
I will pour it out upon the children abroad,
And upon the assembly of young men together :
For even the husband with the wife shall be taken,
The aged with him who is full of days.
- 12 And their houses shall be turned unto others,
With their fields and wives together :
For I will stretch out my hand
Upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD.
- 13 For from the least even unto the greatest of them
Every one is given to covetousness ;
And from the prophet even unto the priest
Every one dealeth falsely.
- 14 They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people superficially,
Saying, Peace, peace ;
When there was no peace.
- 15 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination ?
Nay, they were not at all ashamed,
Neither could they blush :
Therefore they shall fall among those who fall :
At the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.
- 16 Thus saith the LORD,
Stand ye in the ways, and see
And ask for the old paths,
Where is the good way, and walk therein,
And ye shall find rest for your souls.
But they said, We will not walk therein.
- 17 Also I set watchmen over you,
Saying, Harken to the sound of the trumpet.
But they said, We will not hearken.
- 18 Therefore hear, ye nations, and ye who feed flocks.
- 19 Hear, O earth :
Behold, I will bring evil upon this people,
Even the fruit of their thoughts,
Because they have not hearkened unto my words,
Nor to my law, but rejected it.
- 20 To what purpose cometh there to me incense from Sheba,
And the sweet cane from a far country ?
Your burnt offerings are not acceptable,
Nor your sacrifices sweet unto me.
- 21 Therefore thus saith the LORD,
Behold, I will lay stumblingblocks before this people,
And the fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them ;
The neighbour and his friend shall perish.
- 22 Thus saith the LORD,
Behold, a people cometh from the north country,
And a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth.
- 23 They shall lay hold on bow and spear ;
They are cruel, and have no mercy ;
Their voice roareth like the sea ;

- And they ride upon horses,
Set in array as men for war,
Against thee, O daughter of Zion.
- 24 We have heard the fame thereof:
Our hands wax feeble:
Anguish hath taken hold of us,
And pain, as of a woman in travail.
- 25 Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way;
For the sword of the enemy and fear is on every side.
- 26 O daughter of my people, gird thee with sackcloth,
And roll thyself in ashes:
Make thee mourning, as for an only son,
Most bitter lamentation:
For the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us.
- 27 I have set thee for a tower and a fortress among my people,
That thou mayest know and try their way.
- 28 They are all grievous revolters, walking with slanders:
They are brass and iron; they are all corrupters.
- 29 The bellows are burnt,
The lead is consumed of the fire;
The founder melteth in vain:
For the wicked are not plucked away.
- 30 Reprobate silver shall men call them,
Because the LORD hath rejected them.
- 7 THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, Stand in the gate of the LORD'S house, and proclaim there this word, and say,
Hear the word of the LORD, all ye of Judah,
Who enter in at these gates to worship the LORD.
3 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel,
Amend your ways and your doings,
And I will cause you to dwell in this place.
4 Trust ye not in lying words, saying,
The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD,
The temple of the LORD, are these.
5 For if ye thoroughly amend your ways and your doings;
If ye thoroughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbour;
6 If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow,
And shed not innocent blood in this place,
Neither walk after other gods to your hurt:
7 Then will I cause you to dwell in this place,
In the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever.
8 Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit.
9 Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery,
And swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal,
And walk after other gods which ye know not;
10 And come and stand before me in this house,
Which is called by my name,
And say, We are delivered, although we have done all these abominations?
11 Is this house, which is called by my name,
Become a den of robbers in your eyes?
Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD.
12 But go ye now unto my place which was in Shiloh,
Where I set my name at the first,
And see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.
13 And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD,
And I spoke unto you,
Rising up early and speaking—but ye heard not;
And I called you—but ye answered not;
14 Therefore will I do unto this house, which is called by my name,
Wherein ye trust,
And unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers,
As I have done to Shiloh.
15 And I will cast you out of my sight,

JEREMIAH VII.

- As I have cast out all your brethren,
Even the whole seed of Ephraim.
- 16 Therefore pray not thou for this people,
Neither lift up cry nor prayer for them,
Neither make intercession to me :
For I will not hear thee.
- 17 Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah
And in the streets of Jerusalem ?
- 18 The children gather wood,
And the fathers kindle the fire,
And the women knead their dough,
To make cakes to the hosts of the heavens,
And to pour out drink offerings unto other gods,
That they may provoke me to anger.
- 19 Do they provoke me to anger ? saith the LORD :
Do they not provoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces ?
- 20 Therefore thus saith the Lord God ;
Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place,
Upon man, and upon beast,
And upon the trees of the field,
And upon the fruit of the ground ;
And it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.
- 21 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel ;
Put your burnt offerings unto your sacrifices,
And eat flesh.
- 22 For I spoke not unto your fathers, nor commanded them
In the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, Concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices :
- 23 But this thing commanded I them, saying,
Obey my voice,
And I will be your God,
And ye shall be my people :
And walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you,
That it may be well unto you.
- 24 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear,
But walked in the counsels and in the imagination of their evil heart,
And went backwards, and not forwards.
- 25 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt
Unto this day
I have even sent unto you all my servants the prophets,
Daily rising up early and sending them :
- 26 Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear,
But hardened their neck :
They did worse than their fathers.
- 27 Therefore thou shalt speak all these words unto them ;
But they will not hearken to thee :
Thou shalt also call unto them ;
But they will not answer thee.
- 28 But thou shalt say unto them,
This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God,
Nor receiveth correction :
Truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.
- 29 Cut off thy hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away,
And take up a lamentation on high places ;
For the LORD hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.
- 30 For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the LORD :
They have set their abominations in the house
Which is called by my name, to pollute it.
- 31 And they have built the high places of Tophet,
Which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom,
To burn their sons and their daughters in the fire :
Which I commanded them not, and which I condemned.
- 32 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD,

- That it shall no more be called Tophet,
 Nor the valley of the son of Hinnom,
 But the valley of slaughter :
 For they shall bury in Tophet, till there be no place.
- 33 And the carcases of this people shall be meat
 For the birds of the heavens, and for the beasts of the earth ;
 And none shall frighten them away.
- 34 Then will I cause to cease from the cities of Judah,
 And from the streets of Jerusalem,
 The voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness,
 The voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride :
 For the land shall be desolate.
- 8 At that time, saith the LORD, they shall bring out
 The bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes,
 And the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets,
 And the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves :
- 2 And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon,
 And all the host of the heavens, whom they have loved,
 And whom they have served, and after whom they have walked,
 And whom they have sought, and whom they have worshipped :
 They shall not be gathered, nor be buried ;
 They shall be for dung upon the face of the earth.
- 3 And death shall be chosen rather than life
 By all the residue of those who remain of this evil family,
 Who remain in all the places whither I have driven them,
 Saith the LORD of hosts.
- 4 MOREOVER thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD ;
 Shall they fall, and not arise ?
 Shall he turn away, and not return ?
- 5 Why then is this people of Jerusalem slidden back
 By a perpetual backsliding ?
 They hold fast deceit,
 They refuse to return.
- 6 I hearkened and heard,
 But they spoke not aright :
 No man repented him of his wickedness,
 Saying, What have I done ?
 Every one turned to his course,
 As the horse rusheth into the battle.
- 7 Yea, the stork in the heavens knoweth her appointed times ;
 And the turtle and the crane and the swallow observe the time of their coming ;
 But my people know not the judgment of the LORD.
- 8 How do ye say, We are wise,
 And the law of the LORD is with us ?
 Lo, certainly in vain made he it ;
 The pen of the scribes is in vain.
- 9 The wise men are ashamed,
 They are dismayed and taken :
 Lo, they have rejected the word of the LORD ;
 And what wisdom is in them ?
- 10 Therefore will I give their wives unto others,
 And their fields to those who shall inherit them :
 For every one from the least even unto the greatest
 Is given to covetousness,
 From the prophet even unto the priest
 Every one dealeth falsely.
- 11 For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly,
 Saying, Peace, peace ;
 When there was no peace.
- 12 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination ?
 Nay, they were not at all ashamed,
 Neither could they blush :
 Therefore shall they fall among those who fall :

JEREMIAH IX.

- In the time of their visitation they shall be cast down,
Saith the LORD.
- 13 I will surely consume them, saith the LORD :
There shall be no grapes on the vine,
Nor figs on the fig tree,
And the leaf shall fade ;
And the things that I have given them shall pass away from them.
- 14 Why do we sit still ?
Assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the defenced cities,
And let us be silent there :
For the LORD our God hath put us to silence,
And given us water of hemlock to drink,
Because we have sinned against the LORD.
- 15 We look for peace, but there is no good ;
And for a time of health, and behold trouble !
- 16 The snorting of his horses was heard from Dan :
The whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones ;
For they are come, and have devoured the land, and all that is in it :
The city, and those who dwell therein.
- 17 For, behold, I will send serpents and basilisks among you,
Which will not be charmed,
And they shall bite you, saith the LORD.
- 18 When I would comfort myself against sorrow,
My heart is faint in me.
- 19 Behold the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people
From a far country :
Is not the LORD in Zion ?
Is not her king in her ?
Why have they provoked me to anger with their graven images,
And with strange vanities ?
- 20 The harvest is past, the summer is ended,
And we are not saved.
- 21 For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt ;
I am black ; astonishment hath taken hold on me.
- 22 Is there no balm in Gilead ;
Is there no physician there ?
Why then is not the health of the daughter of my people recovered ?
- 9 Oh that my head were waters,
And mine eyes a fountain of tears,
That I might weep day and night
For the slain of the daughter of my people !
- 2 Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men ;
That I might leave my people, and go from them !
For they are all adulterers,
An assembly of treacherous men.
- 3 And they bend their tongues, like their bow, for lies :
But they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth ;
For they proceed from evil to evil,
And they know not me, saith the LORD.
- 4 Take ye heed every one of his neighbour,
And trust ye not in any brother :
For every brother will utterly supplant,
And every neighbour will walk with slanders.
- 5 And they will deceive every one his neighbour,
And will not speak the truth :
They have taught their tongue to speak lies,
And weary themselves to commit iniquity.
- 6 Thy habitation is in the midst of deceit ;
Through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD.
- 7 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts,
Behold, I will melt them, and try them ;
For how shall I do on account of the wickedness of the daughter of my people ?
- 8 Their tongue is as a sharpened arrow shot out ;

JEREMIAH IX.

- It speaketh deceit:
 One speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth,
 But in heart he layeth snares for him.
- 9 Shall I not visit them for these things? saith the LORD:
 Shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?
- 10 (For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing,
 And for the habitations of the wilderness a lamentation,
 Because they are burnt up, so that none can pass through them;
 Neither can men hear the voice of the cattle;
 Both the birds of the heavens and the beast are fled;
 They are gone.)
- 11 And I will make Jerusalem heaps, and a den of dragons;
 And I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant.
- 12 Who is the wise man, that may understand this?
 And who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it,
 For what the land perisheth
 And is burnt up like a wilderness, that none passeth through?
- 13 And the LORD saith,
 Because they have forsaken my law
 Which I set before them,
 And have not obeyed my voice,
 Neither walked therein;
- 14 But have walked after the imagination of their own heart,
 And after Baalim, which their fathers taught them:
- 15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel;
 Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood,
 And give them water of hemlock to drink.
- 16 I will scatter them also among the nations,
 Whom neither they nor their fathers have known:
 And I will send a sword after them,
 Till I have consumed them.
- 17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts,
 Consider ye, and call for the mourning women, and let them come;
 And send for skilful women, that they may come:
- 18 And let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us,
 That our eyes may run down with tears,
 And our eyelids gush out with waters.
- 19 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion,
 How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded,
 Because we have forsaken the land,
 Because our dwellings have cast us out.
- 20 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O ye women,
 And let your ear receive the word of his mouth,
 And teach your daughters wailing,
 And every one her neighbour lamentation.
- 21 For death is come up into our windows,
 And is entered into our palaces,
 To cut off the children from without,
 And the young men from the streets.
- 22 Speak, Thus saith the LORD,
 Even the carcases of men shall fall as dung upon the open field,
 And as the handful after the harvestman, and none shall gather them.
- 23 Thus saith the LORD,
 Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom,
 Neither let the mighty man glory in his might,
 Let not the rich man glory in his riches:
- 24 But let him who glorieth glory in this,
 That he understandeth and knoweth me,
 That I am the LORD who exercise lovingkindness,
 Judgment, and righteousness, in the earth:
 For in these things I delight, saith the LORD.

- 25 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD,
That I will punish all those who are circumcised with the uncircumcised ;
26 Egypt, and Idumca, and Edom,
And the children of Ammon, and Moab,
And all who are in the utmost corners,
Who dwell in the wilderness :
For all these nations are uncircumcised,
And all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart.

10 HEAR ye the word which the LORD speaketh unto you, O house of Israel :
Thus saith the LORD,

- Learn not the way of the nations,
And be not dismayed at the signs of the heavens ;
For the nations are dismayed at them.
3 For the customs of the people are vain :
For one cutteth a tree out of the forest,
The work of the hands of the workman, with the axe.
4 They deck it with silver and with gold ;
They fasten it with nails and with hammers,
That it move not.
5 They are upright as the palm tree,
But cannot speak :
They must needs be borne,
Because they cannot go.
Be not afraid of them ; for they cannot do evil,
Neither also is it in them to do good.
6 Forasmuch as there is none like unto thee, O LORD ;
Thou art great, and thy name is great in might.
7 Who would not fear thee, O King of nations ?
For unto thee he doth approach :
Forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations,
And in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto thee.
8 But they are both brutish and foolish :
The very wood itself is a rebuker of vanities.
9 Beaten silver is brought from Tarshish,
And gold from Uphaz,
The work of the workman,
And of the hands of the refiner :
Blue and purple is their clothing :
They are all the work of skilful men.
10 But the LORD is the true God,
He is the living God, and the everlasting King :
At his wrath the earth shall tremble,
And the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.
11 (Thus shall ye say unto them,
The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth,
Even they shall perish from the earth, and from under these heavens.)
12 He hath made the earth by his power,
He hath established the world by his wisdom,
And hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion.
13 When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens,
And he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth ;
He maketh lightnings with rain,
And bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.
14 Every man is ignorant :
Every refiner is confounded by the graven image :
For his molten image is falsehood,
And there is no breath in them.
15 They are vanity, and the work of errors :
In the time of their visitation they shall perish.
16 The portion of Jacob is not like them :
For he is the former of all things ;
And Israel is the rod of his inheritance :
The LORD of hosts is his name.

- 17 GATHER up thy wares out of the land,
O inhabitant of the fortress.
- 18 For thus saith the LORD,
Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this once,
And will distress them, that they may find it so.
- 19 Woe is me for my hurt!
My wound is grievous: but I said,
Truly this is a grief, and I must bear it.
- 20 My tabernacle is spoiled, and all my cords are broken:
My children and my flocks are no more:
There is none to stretch forth my tent any more,
And to set up my curtains.
- 21 For the pastors are become ignorant,
And have not sought the LORD:
Therefore they do not prosper,
And all their flocks are scattered.
- 22 Behold, the noise of the report is come,
And a great commotion out of the north country,
To make the cities of Judah desolate,
And a den of dragons.
- 23 O LORD, I know that the way of man is not in himself:
It is not in man who walketh to direct his steps.
- 24 O LORD, correct me—but with judgment;
Not in thine anger—lest thou bring me to nothing.
- 25 Pour out thy fury upon the nations who know thee not,
And upon the families who call not on thy name:
For they have eaten up Jacob,
And devoured him, and consumed him,
And have made his habitation desolate.

11 THE WORD THAT CAME TO JEREMIAH FROM THE LORD, SAYING,

Hear ye the words of this covenant, and speak unto the men of Judah, and to the 2 inhabitants of Jerusalem; and say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of 3 Israel; Cursed be the man who obeyeth not the words of this covenant, which I 4 commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall ye be my people, and I will be your God: that I 5 may perform the oath which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said, So be it, O LORD.

Then the LORD said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and 6 in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and do 7 them. For I earnestly protested unto your fathers in the day that I brought them 7 up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice. Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but walked every one 8 in the imagination of his evil heart: therefore I have brought upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do; but they did them not.

And the LORD said unto me, A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, 9 and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. They are turned back to the iniquities of 10 their forefathers, who refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers. Therefore thus saith the LORD, 11

- Behold, I will bring evil upon them,
Which they shall not be able to escape;
And though they shall cry unto me,
I will not hearken unto them.
- 12 Then shall the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem go,
And cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense:
But they shall not save them at all
In the time of their trouble.
- 13 For according to the number of thy cities
Were thy gods, O Judah;
And according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem

- Have ye set up altars to that shameful thing,
 Even altars to burn incense unto Baal.
- 14 Therefore pray not thou for this people,
 Neither lift up a cry or prayer for them :
 For I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto me
 For their trouble.
- 15 What hath my beloved to do in my house,
 Seeing she hath wrought lewdness with many,
 And the sacrifices are passed from thee?
 When thou doest evil, then thou rejoicest.
- 16 The LORD called thy name,
 A green olive tree, beautiful, and of goodly fruit :
 With the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it,
 And the branches of it are broken.
- 17 For the LORD of hosts, who planted thee,
 Hath pronounced evil against thee,
 For the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah,
 Which they have done to themselves
 To provoke me to anger in offering incense unto Baal.
- 18 AND the LORD hath given me knowledge of it, and I know it :
 Then thou showedst me their doings.
- 19 But I was like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter ;
 And I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying,
 Let us put poison into his food,
 And let us cut him off from the land of the living,
 That his name may be no more remembered.
- 20 But, O LORD of hosts, who judgest righteously,
 Who triest the reins and the heart,
 I shall see thy vengeance on them : for unto thee have I revealed my cause.
- 21 Therefore thus saith the LORD
 Of the men of Anathoth, who seek thy life, saying,
 Prophecy not in the name of the LORD,
 That thou die not by our hand :
- 22 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts,
 Behold, I will punish them :
 The young men shall die by the sword ;
 Their sons and their daughters shall die by famine :
- 23 And there shall be no remnant of them :
 For I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth,
 Even the year of their visitation.
- 12 Righteous art thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee :
 Yet let me reason with thee of thy judgments :
 Wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper ?
 Wherefore are all they happy who deal very treacherously ?
- 2 Thou hast planted them—yea, they have taken root :
 They grow—yea, they bring forth fruit :
 Thou art near in their mouth ;
 And far from their reins.
- 3 But thou, O LORD, knowest me :
 Thou hast seen me, and tried my heart towards thee :
 Pull them out like sheep for the slaughter,
 And prepare them for the day of slaughter.
- 4 How long shall the land mourn,
 And the herbs of every field wither,
 For the wickedness of those who dwell therein ?
 The beasts are consumed, and the birds ;
 Because they said, He shall not see our last end.
- 5 If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee,
 Then how canst thou contend with horses ?
 And if in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee,
 Then how wilt thou do in the swellings of the Jordan ?
- 6 For even thy brethren, and the house of thy father,
 Even they have dealt treacherously with thee ;

- Yea, they have called a multitude after thee :
Believe them not, though they speak plausible words unto thee.
- 7 I have forsaken my house,
I have left my heritage ;
I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.
- 8 My heritage is unto me as a lion in the forest ;
It roareth out against me :
Therefore have I hated it.
- 9 My heritage is unto me as a speckled beast,
The beasts round about are against her ;
Come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field,
Cause them to come to devour.
- 10 Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard,
They have trodden my portion under foot,
They have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.
- 11 They have made it desolate,
And being desolate it mourneth unto me ;
The whole land is made desolate,
Yet no man layeth it to heart.
- 12 The spoilers are come upon all high places through the wilderness :
For the sword of the LORD shall devour
From the one end of the land even to the other end of the land :
No flesh shall have peace.
- 13 Ye sow wheat, but shall reap thorns :
Ye shall possess, but shall not profit :
And they shall be ashamed of your revenues
Because of the fierce anger of the LORD.
- 14 THUS saith the LORD
Against all neighbouring shepherds,
Who touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit ;
Behold, I will pluck them out of their land,
And pluck out the house of Judah from among them.
- 15 And after that I have plucked them out,
I will return, and have compassion on them, and will bring them again,
Every man to his heritage, and every man to his land.
- 16 And if they will diligently learn the ways of my people,
To swear by my name, The LORD liveth ;
As they taught my people to swear by Baal ;
- 17 Then shall they be built in the midst of my people. But if they will not obey,
I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation,
Saith the LORD.

THUS saith the LORD unto me, Go and get thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water. So I got a girdle according to the word of the LORD. and put it on my loins. And the word of the LORD came unto me the 3 second time, saying, Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and 4 arise, go to the Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock. So I went, and 5 hid it by the Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me. And after many days, the 6 LORD said unto me, Arise, go to the Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there. Then I went to the Euphrates, and digged, 7 and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it : and, behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing. Then the word of the LORD came unto me, 8 saying,

- 9 Thus saith the LORD,
After this manner will I mar the pride of Judah,
And the great pride of Jerusalem.
- 10 This evil people, who refuse to hear my words,
Who walk in the imagination of their hearts,
And walk after other gods,
To serve them, and to worship them,
Shall even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing.
- 11 For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man,
So have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel

And the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD;
That they might be unto me for a people,
And for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory :
But they would not hear.

- 12 Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word;
Thus saith the LORD God of Israel,
Every bottle shall be filled with wine :
And they shall say unto thee,
Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine ?
- 13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD,
Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land,
Even the kings who sit upon David's throne,
And the priests, and the prophets,
And all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with infatuation.
- 14 And I will dash them one against another,
Even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD :
I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy,
But destroy them.
- 15 Hear ye, and give ear ; be not proud :
For the LORD hath spoken.
- 16 Give glory to the LORD your God,
Before he cause darkness,
And before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains,
And, while ye look for light,
He turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness.
- 17 But if ye will not hear it,
My soul shall weep in secret places for your pride ;
And mine eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears,
Because the LORD'S flock is carried away captive.
- 18 Say unto the king and to the queen,
Humble yourselves, sit down :
For the diadem of your glory shall come down,
Even the crown of your glory.
- 19 The cities of the south shall be shut up,
And none shall open them :
Judah shall be carried away captive—all of it,
It shall be wholly carried away captive.
- 20 Lift up your eyes, and behold those who come from the north :
Where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock ?
- 21 What wilt thou say when he shall punish thee ?
For thou hast taught them to be rulers in chief over thee :
Shall not sorrows take thee, as a woman in travail ?
- 22 And if thou say in thy heart,
Wherefore come these things upon me ?
For the greatness of thine iniquity are thy skirts discovered,
And thy heels made bare.
- 23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots ?
Then may ye also do good, who are accustomed to do evil.
- 24 Therefore will I scatter them as the stubble
That passeth away by the wind of the wilderness.
- 25 This is thy lot, thy measured portion from me, saith the LORD ;
Because thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood.
- 26 Therefore will I discover thy skirts upon thy face,
That thy shame may appear.
- 27 I have seen thine adulteries, and thy neighings,
The lewdness of thy whoredom,
And thine abominations on the hills in the fields.
Woe unto thee, O Jerusalem !
Thou wilt not be made clean!—when shall it once be ?

14 THE word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the dearth.

- 2 Judah mourneth, and the gates thereof languish ;
They are in deep mourning for the land ;

- And the cry of Jerusalem is gone up.
- 3 And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters :
They came to the pits, and found no water ;
They returned with their vessels empty ;
They were ashamed and confounded,
And covered their heads.
- 4 Because the ground is chapt,
For there was no rain in the earth,
The ploughmen were ashamed,
They covered their heads.
- 5 Yea, the hind also calved in the field,
And forsook it, because there was no grass.
- 6 And the wild asses did stand in the high places,
They snuffed up the wind like dragons ;
Their eyes did fail, because there was no grass.
- 7 O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us,
Do thou act for thy name's sake :
For our backslidings are many ;
We have sinned against thee.
- 8 O the hope of Israel, the saviour thereof in time of trouble,
Why shouldest thou be as a stranger in the land,
And as a wayfaring man who turneth aside to tarry for a night ?
- 9 Why shouldest thou be as a man astonished,
As a mighty man who cannot save ?
Yet thou, O LORD, art in the midst of us,
And we are called by thy name ;—leave us not.
- 10 Thus saith the LORD unto this people,
Because they loved to wander,
And have not refrained their feet,
Therefore the LORD doth not accept them ;
He will now remember their iniquity,
And visit their sins.
- 11 Then said the LORD unto me,
Pray not for this people for their good.
- 12 When they fast—I will not hear their cry ;
And when they offer burnt offering and an oblation—I will not accept them :
But I will consume them by the sword,
And by the famine, and by the pestilence.
- 13 Then said I, Ah, Lord God !
Behold, the prophets say unto them,
Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine ;
But I will give you assured peace in this place.
- 14 Then the LORD said unto me,
The prophets prophesy lies in my name :
I sent them not, neither have I commanded them,
Neither spoke I unto them :
They prophesy unto you a false vision and divination,
And a thing of nought, and the deceit of their hearts.
- 15 Therefore thus saith the LORD
Concerning the prophets who prophesy in my name, and I sent them not,
Yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land ;
By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed.
- 16 And the people to whom they prophesy
Shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem
Because of the famine and the sword ;
And they shall have none to bury them,
Them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters :
For I will pour the desert of their wickedness upon them.
- 17 Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them ;
Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day,
And let them not cease :
For the virgin daughter of my people is broken
With a great breach, with a very grievous blow.

- 18 If I go forth into the field,
Then behold the slain with the sword!
And if I enter into the city,
Then behold those who are sick with famine!
Yea, both the prophet and the priest
Go about the land without knowledge.
- 19 Hast thou utterly rejected Judah?
Hath thy soul loathed Zion?
Why hast thou smitten us—and there is no healing for us?
We look for peace—and there is no good;
And for the time of healing—and behold trouble!
- 20 We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness,
And the iniquity of our fathers:
For we have sinned against thee.
- 21 Do not abhor us, for thy name's sake,
Do not disgrace the throne of thy glory:
Remember, break not thy covenant with us.
- 22 Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain?
Or can the heavens give showers?
Art not thou he, O LORD our God?
Therefore we will wait upon thee:
For thou hast made all these things.

- 15 Then said the LORD unto me,
Though Moses and Samuel stood before me,
Yet my mind could not be towards this people:
Cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth.
- 2 And if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth?
Then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD;
Such as are for death—to death;
And such as are for the sword—to the sword;
And such as are for the famine—to the famine;
And such as are for the captivity—to the captivity.
- 3 And I will appoint over them four kinds of punishment, saith the LORD:
The sword to slay, and the dogs to tear,
And the birds of the heavens, and the beasts of the earth,
To devour and destroy.
- 4 And I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth,
Because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah,
For that which he did in Jerusalem.
- 5 For who shall have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem?
Or who shall bemoan thee?
Or who shall go aside to ask how thou doest?
- 6 Thou hast forsaken me, saith the LORD,
Thou art constantly revolting:
Therefore will I stretch out my hand against thee, and destroy thee;
I am weary with forbearing punishment.
- 7 And I will fan them with a fan in the gates of the land;
I will bereave them of children, I will destroy my people,
Since they return not from their ways.
- 8 Their widows are increased to me above the sand of the seas:
I have brought upon them against the mother and young men a spoiler at noonday;
I have caused him to fall upon it suddenly, and an enemy and terrors upon the city.
- 9 She who hath borne seven languisheth:
She hath given up the spirit;
Her sun is gone down while it was yet day:
She hath been ashamed and confounded:
And the residue of them will I deliver to the sword
Before their enemies, saith the LORD.
- 10 Woe to me, my mother,
That thou hast borne me a man of strife
And a man of contention to the whole earth!

- I have neither lent on usury, nor men have lent to me on usury;
 Yet every one of them doth curse me.
- 11 The LORD said, Verily it shall be well with thy remnant;
 Verily I will cause the enemy to treat thee well
 In the time of evil and in the time of affliction.
- 12 Shall iron break the northern iron and the steel?
- 13 Thy substance and thy treasures will I give to the spoil Without price, and that for all thy sins, even in all thy borders.
- 14 And I will make thee to pass with thine enemies
 Into a land which thou knowest not:
 For a fire is kindled in mine anger, which shall burn upon you.
- 15 O LORD, thou knowest: remember me,
 And visit me, and revenge me of my persecutors;
 Take me not away in thy longsuffering:
 Know that for thy sake I have suffered rebuke.
- 16 Thy words were found, and I did eat them;
 And thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of my heart:
 For I am called by thy name, O LORD God of hosts.
- 17 I sat not in the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced;
 I sat alone because of thy hand:
 For thou hast filled me with indignation.
- 18 Why is my pain perpetual,
 And my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed?
 Wilt thou be altogether unto me as disappointment,
 And as waters that fail?
- 19 Therefore thus saith the LORD,
 If thou return, then will I bring thee again,
 And thou shalt stand before me:
 And if thou take forth the precious from the vile,
 Thou shalt be as my mouth:
 Let them return unto thee;
 But return not thou unto them.
- 20 And I will make thee unto this people a fenced brazen wall;
 And they shall fight against thee, but they shall not prevail against thee:
 For I am with thee to save thee
 And to deliver thee, saith the LORD.
- 21 And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked,
 And I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible.
- 16 THE word of the LORD came also unto me, saying,
 Thou shalt not take thee a wife,
 Neither shalt thou have sons or daughters in this place.
- 3 For thus saith the LORD
 Concerning the sons and concerning the daughters who are born in this place,
 And concerning their mothers who bore them,
 And concerning their fathers who begat them in this land;
- 4 They shall die of grievous deaths;
 They shall not be lamented; neither shall they be buried;
 But they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth:
 And they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine;
 And their carcases shall be meat
 For the birds of the heavens, and for the beasts of the earth.
- 5 For thus saith the LORD,
 Enter not into the house of mourning,
 Neither go to lament nor bemoan them:
 For I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD,
 Even lovingkindness and mercies.
- 6 Both the great and the small shall die in this land:
 They shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them,
 Nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them:
- 7 Neither shall men tear themselves for them in mourning,
 To comfort them for the dead;
 Neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink
 For their father or for their mother.

JEREMIAH XVII.

- 8 Thou shalt not also go into the house of feasting,
 To sit with them to eat and to drink.
- 9 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel ;
 Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place
 In your eyes, and in your days,
 The voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness,
 The voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride.
- 10 And when thou shalt show this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, Wherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us ? or what is our iniquity ? or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our
- 11 God ? Then shalt thou say unto them,
 Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD,
 And have walked after other gods,
 And have served them, and have worshipped them,
 And have forsaken me, and have not kept my law ;
- 12 And ye have done worse than your fathers ;
 For, behold, ye walk every one after the imagination of his evil heart,
 That they may not hearken unto me :
- 13 Therefore will I cast you out of this land
 Into a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers ;
 And there shall ye serve other gods day and night ;
 Where I will not show you favour.
- 14 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD,
 That it shall no more be said, The LORD liveth,
 Who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt ;
- 15 But, The LORD liveth,
 Who brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north,
 And from all the lands whither he had driven them :
 And I will bring them again into their land
 That I gave unto their fathers.
- 16 Behold, I will send for many fishers,
 Saith the LORD, and they shall fish for them ;
 And after will I send for many hunters,
 And they shall hunt them from every mountain,
 And from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks.
- 17 For mine eyes are upon all their ways :
 They are not hid from my face,
 Neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes.
- 18 And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double ;
 Because they have defiled my land,
 They have filled mine inheritance with the carcases
 Of their detestable and abominable things.
- 19 O LORD, my strength, and my fortress,
 And my refuge in the day of affliction,
 The Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth,
 And shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity,
 And things wherein there is no profit.
- 20 Shall a man make gods unto himself,
 And they are no gods ?
- 21 Therefore, behold, I will this once cause them to know,
 I will cause them to know my hand and my might ;
 And they shall know that my name is The LORD.
- 17 The sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron,
 And with the point of a diamond :
 It is graven upon the table of their heart,
 And upon the horns of your altars ;
- 2 Whilst their children remember their altars and their groves
 By the green tree upon the high hills.
- 3 O my mountain, thy substance in the field,
 And all thy treasures, will I give to the spoil,
 And thy high places for the sin of Judah, throughout all thy borders.
- 4 And I will remove thee

- From thy heritage that I gave thee ;
 And I will cause thee to serve thine enemies
 In the land which thou knowest not :
 For ye have kindled a fire in mine anger,
 Which shall burn for ever.
- 5 Thus saith the LORD ;
 Cursed be the man who trusteth in man,
 And maketh flesh his arm,
 And whose heart departeth from the LORD.
- 6 For he shall be like a solitary tree in the desert,
 And shall not see when good cometh ;
 But shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness,
 In a salt land and not inhabited.
- 7 Blessed is the man who trusteth in the LORD,
 And whose hope the LORD is.
- 8 For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters,
 And that spreadeth out her roots by the river,
 And shall not see when heat cometh,
 But her leaf shall be green ;
 And shall not be careful in the year of drought.
 Neither shall cease from yielding fruit.
- 9 The heart is deceitful above all things,
 And desperately wicked—who can know it ?
- 10 I the LORD search the heart,
 I try the reins,
 Even to give every man according to his ways,
 And according to the fruit of his doings.
- 11 As the partridge sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not ;
 So he who getteth riches, and not by right,
 Shall leave them in the midst of his days,
 And at his end shall be a fool.
- 12 A glorious high throne from the beginning
 Is the place of our sanctuary.
- 13 O LORD, the hope of Israel,
 All who forsake thee shall be ashamed,
 And those who depart from me shall be recorded in the earth as revolvers,
 Because they have forsaken the LORD, the fountain of living waters.
- 14 Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed ;
 Save me, and I shall be saved :
 For thou art my praise.
- 15 Behold, they say unto me,
 Where is the word of the LORD?—let it come now.
- 16 As for me, I have not hastened from being a pastor to follow thee :
 Neither have I desired the woeful day ; thou knowest :
 That which came out of my lips was right before thee :
- 17 Be not a terror unto me :
 Thou art my hope in the day of evil.
- 18 Let them be confounded who persecute me—but let not me be confounded :
 Let them be dismayed—but let not me be dismayed :
 Bring upon them the day of evil,
 And destroy them with double destruction.
- THUS said the LORD unto me ;
- 19 Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby the kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem ; and say 20 unto them, Hear ye the word of the LORD, ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, who enter in by these gates : thus saith the LORD : 21 Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem : neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sab- 22 bath day, neither do ye any work, but hallow ye the sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers. But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck 23 stiff, that they might not hear, nor receive instruction.
- 24 And it shall be,
 If ye diligently hearken unto me, saith the LORD,

- To bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath day,
 But hallow the sabbath day, to do no work therein ;
 25 Then shall there enter into the gates of this city
 Kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David,
 Riding in chariots and on horses,
 They, and their princes,
 The men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem :
 And this city shall remain for ever.
- 26 And they shall come from the cities of Judah,
 And from the places about Jerusalem,
 And from the land of Benjamin, and from the plain,
 And from the mountains, and from the south,
 Bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices,
 And thank offerings, and incense,
 And bringing sacrifices of praise, unto the house of the LORD.
- 27 But if ye will not hearken unto me
 To hallow the sabbath day, and not to bear a burden,
 Even entering in at the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day ;
 Then will I kindle a fire in the gates thereof,
 And it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem,
 And it shall not be quenched.
- 18 THE word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,
 Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause thee to hear my 3 words. Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he wrought a work on 4 the wheels. And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter : so he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make.
 5 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
- 6 O house of Israel, cannot I do with you
 As this potter ? saith the LORD.
 Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand,
 So are ye in my hand, O house of Israel.
- 7 At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom.
 To pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it ;
 8 If that nation, against whom I have pronounced,
 Turn from their evil,
 I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them.
- 9 And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom,
 To build and to plant it ;
 10 If it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice,
 Then I will repent of the good, wherewith I said I would benefit them.
- 11 Now therefore go to, speak to the men of Judah,
 And to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,
 Thus saith the LORD ;
 Behold, I frame evil against you,
 And devise a device against you :
 Return ye now every one from his evil way,
 And make your ways and your doings good.
- 12 And they said, There is no hope :
 But we will walk after our own devices,
 And we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart.
- 13 Therefore thus saith the LORD ;
 Ask ye now among the nations,
 Who hath heard such things ?
 The virgin of Israel hath done a very horrible thing.
- 14 Will men leave the snow of Lebanon for the rock of the field ?
 Or will men desert cool streams for polluted waters ?
- 15 Because my people have forgotten me, they have burnt incense to an idol,
 And they have caused them to stumble in their ways from the ancient paths,
 To walk in paths, in a way not cast up ;
- 16 To make their land desolate, and a perpetual hissing ;
 All who pass by shall be astonished, and shake their heads :

JEREMIAH XIX.

- 17 I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy;
I will show them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.
- 18 Then said they,
Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah;
For the law shall not perish from the priest,
Nor counsel from the wise,
Nor the word from the prophet.
Come, and let us stop his mouth,
And let us not give heed to any of his words.
- 19 Give heed to me, O LORD,
And hearken to the voice of those who contend with me.
- 20 Shall evil be recompensed for good?
For they have digged a pit for my soul.
Remember that I stood before thee to speak good for them,
And to turn away thy wrath from them.
- 21 Therefore deliver up their children to the famine,
And pour out their blood by the force of the sword;
And let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows;
And let their men be put to death;
Let their young men be slain by the sword in battle.
- 22 Let a cry be heard from their houses,
When thou shalt bring a troop suddenly upon them:
For they have digged a pit to take me,
And hid snares for my feet.
- 23 Yet, LORD, thou knowest all their counsel against me to slay me:
Forgive not their iniquity,
Neither blot out their sin from thy sight,
But let them be overthrown before thee;
Deal thus with them in the time of thine anger.

THUS saith the LORD, Go and get a potter's earthen vessel, and take of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of the priests; and go forth unto the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the east gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell thee, and say, 19

Hear ye the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, which whosoever heareth, his ears shall tingle. Because they have forsaken 4 me, and have estranged this place, and have burnt incense in it unto other gods, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with the blood of innocents; they have built also the high places of 5 Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings unto Baal, which I commanded not, nor spoke it, neither came it into my mind:

Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that this place shall no more 6 be called Tophet, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of slaughter. And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will 7 cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of those who seek their lives: and their carcases will I give to be meat for the birds of the heavens, and for the beasts of the earth. And I will make this city desolate, and a 8 hissing; every one who passeth by shall be astonished and hiss because of all the plagues thereof. And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh 9 of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend in the siege and straitness, wherewith their enemies, and those who seek their lives, shall straiten them.

Then shalt thou break the vessel in the sight of the men who go with thee, and 10 11 shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot be made whole again: and they shall bury them in Tophet, till there be no place to bury. Thus will I do 12 unto this place, saith the LORD, and to the inhabitants thereof, and even make this city as Tophet: and the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of 13 Judah, shall be defiled as the place of Tophet, because of all the houses upon whose roofs they have burnt incense unto all the host of the heavens, and have poured out drink offerings unto other gods.

THEN came Jeremiah from Tophet, whither the LORD had sent him to pro- 14 phesy; and he stood in the court of the LORD'S house; and said to all the people, 15 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon this city and upon all her towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it, because they have hardened their necks, that they might not hear my words.

20 Now Pashur the son of Immer the priest, who was also chief governor in the house of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things. Then Pashur smote Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the high gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD.

3 And on the morrow, Pashur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah unto him, The LORD hath not called thy name Pashur, but Magor-

4 missabib [TERROR ALL AROUND]. For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will make thee a terror to thyself, and to all thy friends: and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and thine eyes shall behold it: and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive into Babylon, and shall

5 slay them with the sword. Moreover I will deliver all the strength of this city, and all the labours thereof, and all the precious things thereof, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, who shall spoil

6 them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon. And thou, Pashur, and all who dwell in thy house shall go into captivity: and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and shalt be buried there, thou, and all thy friends, to whom thou hast prophesied lies.

7 O LORD, thou hast persuaded me, and I was persuaded:

Thou didst strengthen me, and didst prevail:
I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me.

8 For since I spoke,

I cried out, I cried violence and spoil;
Because the word of the LORD was made
A reproach unto me, and a derision, daily.

9 Then I said, I will not make mention of him,
Nor speak any more in his name.

But his word was in my heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones,
And I was weary with forbearing, and I could not refrain.

10 For I heard the defaming of many, fear on every side.

Report, say they, and we will report it.

All my familiars watched for my halting, saying,
Peradventure he will be enticed, and we shall prevail against him,
And we shall take our revenge on him.

11 But the LORD is with me as a mighty terrible one:

Therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail:
They shall be greatly ashamed; for they shall not prosper:
Their everlasting confusion shall never be forgotten.

12 But, O LORD of hosts, who triest the righteous,

Who discernest the reins and the heart,
I shall see thy vengeance on them:

For unto thee have I opened my cause.

13 Sing unto the LORD, praise ye the LORD:

For he hath delivered the soul of the poor from the hand of evildoers.

14 Cursed be the day wherein I was born:

Let not the day wherein my mother bore me be blessed.

15 Cursed be the man who brought tidings to my father,

Saying, a man-child is born unto thee;
Making him very glad.

16 And let that man be as the cities

Which the LORD overthrew, and repented not:

And let him hear the cry in the morning,
And the shouting at noontide;

17 Because he slew me not from the womb;

Or that my mother might have been my grave,
And her womb always great.

18 Wherefore came I forth out of the womb

To see labour and sorrow,

That my days should be consumed with shame?

21 THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah sent unto him Pashur the son of Melchiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, saying, Inquire, I pray thee, of the LORD for us; for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon maketh war against us; if so be that the LORD will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us.

Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah: Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, who besiege you without the walls, and I will assemble them into the midst of this city. And I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath. And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence. And afterwards, saith the LORD, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword: he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy.

And unto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I set before you the way of life, and the way of death. He who abideth in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence; but he who goeth out, and falleth to the Chaldeans who besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be unto him for a prey. For I have set my face against this city for evil, and not for good, saith the LORD: it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.

And touching the house of the king of Judah, say, Hear ye the word of the LORD; O house of David, thus saith the LORD; Execute judgment speedily, and deliver him who is spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my fury go out like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. Behold, I am against thee, O inhabitant of the deeply levelled rock, saith the LORD; who say, Who shall come down against us? or who shall enter into our habitations? But I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, saith the LORD: and I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, and it shall devour all things round about it.

THUS saith the LORD; Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word, and say, 22

Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah,
Who sittest upon the throne of David,
Thou, and thy servants, and thy people
Who enter in by these gates:

3 Thus saith the LORD;
Execute ye judgment and righteousness,
And deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor:
And do no wrong, do no violence
To the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow,
Neither shed innocent blood in this place.

4 For if ye do this thing indeed,
Then shall there enter in by the gates of this house
Kings sitting upon the throne of David,
Riding in chariots and on horses,
He, and his servants, and his people.

5 But if ye will not hear these words,
I swear by myself, saith the LORD,
That this house shall become a desolation.

6 For thus saith the LORD unto the king's house of Judah;
I have made thee as Gilead for fertility, and as Lebanon for beauty:
Yet surely I will make thee as a wilderness,
And as cities which are not inhabited.

7 And I will prepare destroyers against thee;
Every one with his weapons:
And they shall cut down thy choice cedars,
And cast them into the fire.

8 And many nations shall pass by this city,
And they shall say every man to his neighbour,
Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this great city?

9 Then they shall answer,

JEREMIAH XXII.

Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God,
And worshipped other gods, and served them.

- 10 Weep ye not for the dead,
Neither bemoan him :
But weep bitterly for him who goeth away :
For he shall return no more,
Nor see his native country.
- 11 For thus saith the LORD
Touching Shallum the son of Josiah king of Judah,
Who reigned instead of Josiah his father,
Who went forth out of this place ;
He shall not return thither any more :
- 12 But he shall die in the place whither they have led him captive,
And he shall see this land no more.
- 13 Woe unto him who buildeth his house by unrighteousness,
And his chambers by oppression ;
Who useth his neighbour's service without wages,
And giveth him not reward for his work ;
- 14 Who saith,
I will build me a wide house and lofty chambers ;
And cutteth him out windows ;
And it is cieled with cedar, and painted with vermilion.
- 15 Shalt thou reign, because thou viest with the cedar ?
Did not thy father eat and drink,
And do judgment and justice ?
And then it was well with him.
- 16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy ;
Then it was well with him :
Was not this to know me ? saith the LORD.
- 17 But thine eyes and thy heart are only
Set on thy covetousness, and to shed innocent blood,
And for oppression, and for violence, to do it.
- 18 Therefore thus saith the LORD
Concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah-king of Judah ;
They shall not lament for him, saying,
Ah my brother ! my brother !
They shall not lament for him, saying,
Ah my lord ! my lord !
- 19 He shall be buried with the burial of an ass,
Drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem.
- 20 Go up to Lebanon, and cry ;
And lift up thy voice in Bashan, and cry from the passages :
For all thy lovers are destroyed.
- 21 I spoke unto thee in thy prosperity ;
But thou saidst, I will not hear.
This hath been thy manner from thy youth,
That thou obeyedst not my voice.
- 22 The wind shall eat up all thy pastors,
And thy lovers shall go into captivity :
Surely then shalt thou be ashamed and confounded
For all thy wickedness.
- 23 O inhabitant of Lebanon, who makest thy nest in the cedars,
How pitiably wilt thou groan when pangs come upon thee,
The pain as of a woman in travail !
- 24 As I live, saith the LORD,
Though Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah
Were the signet upon my right hand,
Yet would I pluck thee thence ;
- 25 And I will give thee into the hand of those who seek thy life,
And into the hand of those whose face thou fearest,
Even into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon,
And into the hand of the Chaldeans.
- 26 And I will cast thee out,

- And thy mother who bore thee,
 Into another country, where ye were not born ;
 And there shall ye die.
- 27 But to the land whereunto they desire to return,
 Thither shall they not return.
- 28 Is this man Jeconiah a despised broken idol ?
 Is he a vessel wherein is no pleasure ?
 Wherefore are they cast out, he and his seed,
 And are cast into a land which they know not ?
- 29 O earth ! earth ! earth ! hear the word of the LORD.
- 30 Thus saith the LORD,
 Write ye this man childless,
 A man who shall not prosper in his days :
 For no man of his seed shall prosper,
 Sitting upon the throne of David,
 And ruling any more in Judah.

- 23 WOE be unto the pastors
 Who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture !
 Saith the LORD.
- 2 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel
 Against the pastors who feed my people ;
 Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away,
 And have not visited them :
 Behold, I will visit upon you
 The evil of your doings, saith the LORD.
- 3 And I will gather the remnant of my flock
 Out of all countries whither I have driven them,
 And will bring them again to their folds ;
 And they shall be fruitful and increase.
- 4 And I will set up shepherds over them who shall feed them :
 And they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed,
 Neither shall they be lacking, saith the LORD.
- 5 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD,
 In which I will raise unto David a righteous Branch,
 And a King shall reign and prosper,
 And shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.
- 6 In his days Judah shall be saved,
 And Israel shall dwell safely :
 And this is his name whereby he shall be called,
JEHOVAH OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.
- 7 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD,
 That they shall no more say, As the LORD liveth,
 Who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt ;
- 8 But, As the LORD liveth,
 Who brought up and who led the seed of the house of Israel
 Out of the north country, and from all countries whither I had driven them,
 And they shall dwell in their own land.
- 9 MY heart within me is broken because of the prophets ;
 All my bones shake ;
 I am like a drunken man,
 And like a man whom wine hath overcome,
 Because of the LORD,
 And because of the words of his holiness.
- 10 For the land is full of adulterers ;
 For because of these the land mourneth ;
 The pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up,
 And their course is evil,
 And their power is not stable.
- 11 For both prophet and priest are profane ;
 Yea, in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD.
- 12 Wherefore their way shall be unto them
 As slippery ways in the darkness :
 They shall be driven on, and fall therein :

JEREMIAH XXIII.

- For I will bring evil upon them,
Even the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.
- 13 And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria ;
They prophesied in the name of Baal, and caused my people Israel to err.
- 14 I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem a horrible thing :
They commit adultery, and walk in falsehood :
They strengthen also the hands of evildoers,
That none doth return from his wickedness :
They are all of them unto me as Sodom,
And the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.
- 15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets ;
Behold, I will feed them with wormwood,
And make them drink the water of hemlock :
For from the prophets of Jerusalem
Is profaneness gone forth into all the land.
- 16 Thus saith the LORD of hosts,
Hearken not unto the words of the prophets who prophesy unto you :
They make you vain :
They speak a vision of their own heart,
And not out of the mouth of the LORD.
- 17 They say still unto those who despise me,
The LORD hath said, Ye shall have peace ;
And they say unto every one who walketh after the imagination of his own heart,
No evil shall come upon you.
- 18 For who hath stood in the secret counsel of the LORD,
And hath perceived and heard his word ?
Who hath marked his word, and heard it ?
- 19 Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury,
Even a grievous whirlwind :
It shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.
- 20 The anger of the LORD shall not return,
Until he have executed, and till he have performed
The thoughts of his heart :
In the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly.
- 21 I have not sent these prophets—yet they ran :
I have not spoken to them—yet they prophesied.
- 22 But if they had stood in my counsel,
Then they would have caused my people to hear my words,
And turned them from their evil way,
And from the evil of their doings.
- 23 Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD,
And not a God afar off ?
- 24 Can any hide himself in secret places
That I shall not see him ? saith the LORD.
Do not I fill the heavens and the earth ? saith the LORD.
- 25 I have heard what the prophets said,
Who prophesy falsely in my name,
Saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed.
- 26 How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy falsely ?
Yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart ;
- 27 Who think to cause my people
To forget my name by their dreams
Which they tell every man to his neighbour,
As their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal.
- 28 The prophet who hath a dream—let him tell it as a dream ;
And he who hath my word—let him speak my word faithfully.
What is the chaff to the wheat ? saith the LORD.
- 29 Is not my word like as a fire ? saith the LORD ;
And like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces ?
- 30 Therefore, behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD,
Who steal my words every one from his neighbour.
- 31 Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD,

Who use their tongues, and say, He saith.

- 32 Behold, I am against those who prophesy false dreams, saith the LORD,
And do tell them, and cause my people to err
By their lies, and by their lightness;
Yet I sent them not, nor commanded them :
Therefore they do not profit this people at all, saith the LORD.

- 33 And when this people,
Or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, saying,
What is the sentence of the LORD ?
Thou shalt then say unto them, What sentence ?
I will even forsake you, saith the LORD.
- 34 And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people,
Who shall say, The sentence of the LORD,
I will even punish that man and his house.
- 35 Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbour,
And every one to his brother,
What hath the LORD answered ?
And, What hath the LORD spoken ?
- 36 And the sentence of the LORD shall ye mention no more :
For every man's word shall be his sentence ;
For ye have perverted the words of the living God,
Of the LORD of hosts our God.
- 37 Thus shalt thou say to the prophet,
What hath the LORD answered thee ?
And, What hath the LORD spoken ?
- 38 But since ye say, The sentence of the LORD ;
Therefore thus saith the LORD ;
Because ye say this word, The sentence of the LORD,
And I have sent unto you, saying,
Ye shall not say, The sentence of the LORD ;
- 39 Therefore, behold, I, even I, will take you up together,
And I will cast you off,
And the city that I gave you and your fathers,
And cast you out of my presence :
- 40 And I will bring an everlasting reproach upon you,
And a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

THE LORD showed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD, after that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the artificers and armourers, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon. One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe : and the other 2 basket had very bad figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad. Then said the 3 LORD unto me, What seest thou, Jeremiah ? And I said, Figs ; the good figs, very good ; and the bad, very bad, that cannot be eaten, they are so bad.

- 4 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
5 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel ;
Like these good figs,
So will I acknowledge those who are carried away captive of Judah,
Whom I have sent out of this place
Into the land of the Chaldeans for their good.
- 6 For I will set mine eyes upon them for good,
And I will bring them again to this land :
And I will build them—and not pull them down ;
And I will plant them—and not pluck them up.
- 7 And I will give them a heart to know me, that I am the LORD :
And they shall be my people, and I will be their God :
For they shall return unto me with their whole heart.
- 8 And as the bad figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so bad ;
Surely thus saith the LORD,
So will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes,
And the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land,
And those who dwell in the land of Egypt :
- 9 And I will deliver them to be removed

- Into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt,
 To be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse,
 In all places whither I shall drive them.
 10 And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them,
 Till they be consumed from off the land
 That I gave unto them and to their fathers.

25 THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; the which Jeremiah the prophet spoke unto all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,

- 3 From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even unto this day, that is the three and twentieth year, the word of the LORD hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye have not hearkened.
 4 And the LORD hath sent unto you all his servants the prophets, rising early and sending them; but ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear. They said, Turn ye again now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD hath given unto you and to your fathers for ever and ever: and go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt.
 7 Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the LORD; that ye might provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.

8 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; Because ye have not heard my words, 9 Behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and a hissing, and perpetual desolations.

- 10 Moreover I will take from them
 The voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness,
 The voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride,
 The sound of the millstones, and the light of the lamp.

11 And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations 12 shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years. And when seventy years are accomplished, I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, and will make it perpetual desolations.

13 And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah hath prophesied against all the 14 nations. For many nations and great kings shall exact service of them also: and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands.

15 For thus saith the LORD God of Israel unto me; Take the wine cup of this fury 16 at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send thee, to drink it. And they shall drink, and stagger, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.

17 Then took I the cup at the LORD'S hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto whom the LORD hath sent me: Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, 19 a hissing, and a curse; as it is this day; Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, 20 and his princes, and all his people; and all the intermingled people, and all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Azzah, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod, Edom, and Moab, and the 22 children of Ammon, and all the kings of Tyre, and all the kings of Zidon, and the 23 kings of the isles which are beyond the sea, Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all who 24 are in the utmost corners, and all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mingled people who dwell in the desert. And all the kings of Zimri, and all the 26 kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes, and all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth: and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them.

27 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Drink ye, and be drunken, and vomit, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.

28 And if they refuse to take the cup at thy hand to drink, then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Ye shall certainly drink. For, lo, I begin to bring evil on the city which is called by my name, and should ye be utterly unpunished? Ye shall not be unpunished: for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the LORD of hosts.

Therefore prophesy thou against them all these words, and say unto them, 30

- The LORD shall roar from on high,
And utter his voice from his holy habitation;
He shall mightily roar upon his habitation;
He shall give a shout, as those who tread the grapes,
Against all the inhabitants of the earth.
- 31 A noise shall come even to the ends of the earth;
For the LORD hath a controversy with the nations,
He will plead with all flesh,
He will give those who are wicked to the sword, saith the LORD.
- 32 Thus saith the LORD of hosts,
Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation,
And a great whirlwind shall be raised up
From the coasts of the earth.
- 33 And the slain of the LORD shall be at that day
From one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth:
They shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried;
They shall be dung upon the ground.
- 34 Howl, ye shepherds, and cry;
And wallow yourselves in the ashes, ye chief of the flock:
For the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are accomplished;
And ye shall fall like a pleasant vessel.
- 35 And the shepherds shall have no way to flee,
Nor the chief of the flock to escape.
- 36 A voice of the cry of the shepherds,
And a howling of the chief of the flock, shall be heard:
For the LORD hath spoiled their pasture.
- 37 And the peaceable habitations are cut down
Because of the fierce anger of the LORD.
- 38 He hath forsaken his covert, as the lion:
For their land is desolate
Because of the fierceness of the oppressor,
And because of his fierce anger.

IN THE beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word from the LORD, saying, 26

Thus saith the LORD; Stand in the court of the LORD'S house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD'S house, all the words that I command thee to speak unto them; diminish not a word: if so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may repent me of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their doings. And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you, by hearkening to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened; then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.

So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD. Now when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, the priests and the prophets and all the people took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die. Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant?

And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD. When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD, and sat down in the entry of the new gate of the LORD'S house. Then spoke the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the people, saying, This man is worthy to die; for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears.

Then spoke Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have 13 heard. Therefore now amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you. As for me, behold, I am in your hand: do with me as it seemeth good and right unto you. But know ye for certain, that if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you to speak all these words in your ears.

16 Then said the princes and all the people unto the priests and to the prophets; This man is not worthy to die: for he hath spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God. Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying, Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Zion shall be ploughed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest. Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him at all to death? did he not fear the LORD, and beseech the LORD, and did not the LORD repent him of the evil which he had pronounced against them? And should we procure great evil against our souls?

20 And there was also a man who prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath-jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah: and when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death: but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt. And Jehoiakim the king sent spies into Egypt, namely, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him into Egypt. And they fetched forth Urijah out of Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king; who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people. Nevertheless the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

27 IN the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD to me; Make thee bonds and yokes, and put them upon thy neck, and send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers who come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah; and command them to say unto their masters, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say unto your masters; I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power and by my outstretched arm, and have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto me. And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him. And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the very time of his land come: and then many nations and great kings shall exact service of him. And the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.

9 Therefore hearken not ye to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreamers, nor to your observers of times, nor to your sorcerers, who speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you, to remove you far from your land; and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish. But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

12 I spoke also to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live. Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets who speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you. For I have not sent them, saith the LORD, yet they prophesy a lie in my name; that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets who prophesy unto you.

16 Also I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the LORD;

Hearken not to the words of your prophets who prophesy unto you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the LORD'S house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you. Hearken not unto them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: wherefore should this city be laid waste? But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon.

For thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that remain in this city, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem; yea, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem; They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be until the day that I visit them, saith the LORD; then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.

AND the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, who was of Gibeon, spoke unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. Within two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD'S house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon: and I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, who went into Babylon, saith the LORD: for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

Then the prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people who stood in the house of the LORD, even the prophet Jeremiah said, Amen: the LORD do so: the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD'S house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place. Nevertheless hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people; The prophets who have been before me and before thee of old prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence. The prophet who prophesieth of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that the LORD hath truly sent him.

Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and broke it. And Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the prophet, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Go and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast broken the yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron. For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and I have given him the beasts of the field also.

Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah; The LORD hath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie. Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast spoken rebellion against the LORD. So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

NOW these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of the elders who were carried away captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon; (after that Jeconiah the king, and the queen, and the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the artificers, and the armourers, were departed from Jerusalem;) by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah,) whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon,) saying,

Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all who are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon;

JEREMIAH XXIX.

- 5 Build ye houses, and dwell in them ;
And plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them ;
- 6 Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters ;
And take wives for your sons,
And give your daughters to husbands,
That they may bear sons and daughters ;
That ye may be increased there, and not diminished.
- 7 And seek the peace of the city
Whither I have caused you to be carried away captives,
And pray unto the LORD for it :
For in the peace thereof shall ye have peace.
- 8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel ;
Let not your prophets and your diviners,
Who are in the midst of you, deceive you,
Neither hearken to your dreams
Which ye cause to be dreamed.
- 9 For they prophesy falsely unto you in my name :
I have not sent them, saith the LORD.
- 10 For thus saith the LORD,
After seventy years are accomplished at Babylon
I will visit you, and perform my good word towards you,
In causing you to return to this place.
- 11 For I know the thoughts that I think towards you, saith the LORD,
Thoughts of peace, and not of evil,
To give you the expected end.
- 12 Then shall ye call upon me,
And ye shall go and pray unto me,
And I will hearken unto you.
- 13 And ye shall seek me, and find me,
When ye shall search for me with all your heart.
- 14 And I will be found of you, saith the LORD :
And I will turn away your captivity,
And I will gather you from all the nations,
And from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD ;
And I will bring you again into the place
Whence I caused you to be carried away captive.
- 16 Know that thus saith the LORD
Of the king who sitteth upon the throne of David,
And of all the people who dwell in this city,
And of your brethren who are not gone forth with you into captivity ;
- 17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts ;
Behold, I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence,
And will make them like bad figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so bad.
- 18 And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence,
And will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth,
To be a curse, and an astonishment, and a hissing, and a reproach,
Among all the nations whither I have driven them :
- 19 Because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the LORD,
Which I sent unto them by my servants the prophets,
Rising up early and sending them ;
But ye would not hear, saith the LORD.
- 20 Hear ye therefore the word of the LORD, all ye of the captivity, whom I have sent 15 from Jerusalem to Babylon : Whereas ye have said, The LORD hath raised up for 21 us prophets in Babylon ; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, of Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and of Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a lie unto you in my name ; Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar 22 king of Babylon ; and he shall slay them before your eyes ; and of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captivity of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, The LORD make thee like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted 23 in the fire ; because they have committed villany in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them ; even I know, and am a witness, saith the LORD.

THUS shalt thou also speak to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying, Thus speaketh 24 25 the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because thou hast sent letters in thy name unto all the people who are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Ma-seiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying, The LORD hath made thee priest in 26 the stead of Jehoiada the priest, that thou shouldest be an officer in the house of the LORD, in the case of any mad man who maketh himself a prophet, that thou shouldest put him in prison, and in the stocks. Now therefore why hast thou not 27 reproved Jeremiah of Anathoth, who maketh himself a prophet to you? Forasmuch 28 as he sent unto us in Babylon, saying, This captivity is long: build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them. And Zephaniah the 29 priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet.

Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying, Send to all them of 30 31
the captivity, saying, Thus saith the LORD, concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite; Because Shemaiah hath prophesied unto you, and I sent him not, and he caused you to trust in a lie: therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will punish Shemaiah 32
the Nehelamite, and his seed: he shall not have a man to dwell among this people; neither shall he behold the good that I will do for my people, saith the LORD; because he hath taught rebellion against the LORD.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, Thus speaketh the 30
LORD God of Israel, saying,

Write thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book. For, lo, the 3 days come, saith the LORD, that I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the LORD: and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it. And these are the words that the 4
LORD spoke concerning Israel and concerning Judah.

- 5 For thus saith the LORD;
We have heard a voice of trembling,
Of fear, and not of peace.
- 6 Ask ye now, and see
Whether a man doth travail with child?
Wherefore do I see every man
With his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail,
And all faces are turned into paleness?
- 7 Alas! for that day is great,
So that none is like it:
It is even the time of Jacob's trouble.
But he shall be saved out of it.
- 8 For in that day, saith the LORD of hosts,
I will break his yoke from off thy neck,
And will burst thy bonds,
And strangers shall no more exact service of him:
- 9 But they shall serve the LORD their God,
And David their king, whom I will raise up unto them.
- 10 Therefore fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the LORD;
Neither be dismayed, O Israel:
For, lo, I will save thee from afar,
And thy seed from the land of their captivity;
And Jacob shall return,
And shall be in rest, and be quiet,
And none shall make him afraid.
- 11 For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee:
Though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee,
Yet will I not make a full end of thee:
But I will correct thee in measure,
And will not leave thee altogether unpunished.
- 12 For thus saith the LORD,
Thy bruise is painful,
And thy wound is grievous.
- 13 There is none to plead thy cause, that thou mayest be bound up:
Thou hast no healing medicines.
- 14 All thy lovers have forgotten thee;
They seek thee not;

- For I have wounded thee with the wound of an enemy,
 With the chastisement of a cruel one,
 For the multitude of thine iniquity;
 Because thy sins were increased.
- 15 Why criest thou for thine affliction?
 Thy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thine iniquity:
 Because thy sins were increased, I have done these things unto thee.
- 16 Nevertheless all those who devour thee shall be devoured;
 And all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity;
 And those who spoil thee shall be a spoil,
 And all who prey upon thee will I give for a prey.
- 17 For I will restore health unto thee,
 And I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the LORD;
 Because they called thee an Outcast, saying,
 This is Zion, whom no man seeketh after.
- 18 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents,
 And have mercy on his dwellingplaces;
 And the city shall be built upon her own heap,
 And the palace shall remain after the manner thereof.
- 19 And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving
 And the voice of those who make merry:
 And I will multiply them—and they shall not be few;
 I will also glorify them—and they shall not be small.
- 20 Their children also shall be as aforetime,
 And their congregation shall be established before me,
 And I will punish all who oppress them.
- 21 And their nobles shall be of themselves,
 And their governor shall proceed from the midst of them;
 And I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach unto me:
 For who is this who engaged his heart to approach unto me?
 Saith the LORD.
- 22 And ye shall be my people,
 And I will be your God.
- 23 Behold, the whirlwind of the LORD goeth forth with fury,
 A continuing whirlwind: it shall fall with pain upon the head of the wicked.
- 24 The fierce anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have done it,
 And until he have performed the intents of his heart:
 In the latter days ye shall consider it.

- 31 At the same time, saith the LORD,
 Will I be the God of all the families of Israel,
 And they shall be my people.
- 2 Thus saith the LORD,
 The people who were left of the sword found grace in the wilderness;
 Even Israel, when I went to cause him to rest.
- 3 The LORD hath appeared of old unto me, saying,
 Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love:
 Therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn thee.
- 4 Again I will build thee,
 And thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel:
 Thou shalt again be adorned with thy tabrets,
 And shalt go forth in the dances of those who make merry.
- 5 Thou shalt yet plant vines upon the mountains of Samaria:
 The planters shall plant, and shall eat them as common things.
- 6 For there shall be a day,
 That the watchmen upon the mount Ephraim shall cry,
 Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion
 Unto the LORD our God.
- 7 For thus saith the LORD;
 Sing with gladness for Jacob,
 And shout among the chief of the nations:
 Publish ye, praise ye, and say,
 O LORD, save thy people, the remnant of Israel.

JEREMIAH XXXI.

- 8 Behold, I will bring them from the north country,
And gather them from the coasts of the earth,
And with them the blind and the lame,
The woman with child and her who travaileth with child together :
A great company shall return thither.
- 9 They shall come with weeping,
And with supplications will I lead them :
I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters
In a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble :
For I am a father to Israel,
And Ephraim is my firstborn.
- 10 Hear the word of the LORD, O ye nations,
And declare it in the isles afar off, and say,
He who scattered Israel will gather him,
And keep him, as a shepherd doth his flock.
- 11 For the LORD hath redeemed Jacob,
And ransomed him from the hand of him who was stronger than he.
- 12 Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion,
And shall flow together to the goodness of the LORD,
For wheat, and for wine, and for oil,
And for the young of the flock and of the herd :
And their soul shall be as a watered garden ;
And they shall not sorrow any more at all.
- 13 Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance,
Both young men and old together :
For I will turn their mourning into joy,
And will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow
- 14 And I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness,
And my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the LORD.
- 15 Thus saith the LORD ;
A voice was heard in Ramah,
Lamentation, and bitter weeping ;
Rachel weeping for her children
Refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not.
- 16 Thus saith the LORD ;
Refrain thy voice from weeping,
And thine eyes from tears :
For thy work shall be rewarded, saith the LORD ;
And they shall come again from the land of the enemy.
- 17 And there is hope in thine end, saith the LORD,
That thy children shall come again to their own border.
- 18 I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus ;
Thou hast chastised me,
And I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke :
Turn thou me, and I shall be turned ;
For thou art the LORD my God.
- 19 Surely after that I was turned, I repented ;
And after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh :
I was ashamed, yea, even confounded,
Because I did bear the reproach of my youth.
- 20 Is Ephraim my dear son ?
Is he a pleasant child ?
For since I spoke against him,
I do earnestly remember him still :
Therefore my bowels are troubled for him ;
I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the LORD.
- 21 Set thee up waymarks,
Make thee high heaps :
Set thy heart towards the highway,
Even the way which thou wentest :
Turn again, O virgin of Israel,
Turn again to these thy cities.

- 22 How long wilt thou go about, O thou backsliding daughter?
For the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth,
A woman shall put to flight a mighty man.
- 23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel;
As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah
And in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity;
The LORD bless thee, O habitation of justice, and mountain of holiness.
- 24 And there shall dwell in Judah itself, and in all the cities thereof together, Husbandmen, and those who go forth with flocks.
- 25 For I have satiated the weary soul,
And I have replenished every sorrowful soul.
- 26 Upon this I awaked, and beheld;
And my sleep was sweet unto me.
- 27 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD,
That I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah
With the seed of man, and with the seed of beast.
- 28 And like as I have hastened
To pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down,
And to destroy, and to afflict;
So will I hasten
To build, and to plant, saith the LORD.
- 29 In those days they shall say no more,
The fathers have eaten a sour grape,
And the children's teeth are set on edge.
- 30 But every one shall die for his own iniquity:
Every man who eateth the sour grape,
His teeth shall be set on edge.
- 31 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD,
That I will make a new covenant
With the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:
Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers
In the day when I took them by the hand
To bring them out of the land of Egypt;
Which covenant they broke,
Although I was a husband unto them, saith the LORD:
- 32 But this shall be the covenant
That I will make with the house of Israel;
After those days, saith the LORD,
I will put my law in their inward parts,
And write it in their hearts;
And will be their God,
And they shall be my people.
- 33 And they shall teach no more
Every man his neighbour, and every man his brother,
Saying, Know the LORD:
For they shall all know me,
From the least unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD:
For I will forgive their iniquity,
And I will remember their sin no more.
- 34 Thus saith the LORD,
Who giveth the sun for a light by day,
And the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night,
Who divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar;
The LORD of hosts is his name:
- 35 If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD,
Then the seed of Israel also shall cease
From being a nation before me for ever.
- 36 Thus saith the LORD;
If the heavens above can be measured,
And the foundations of the earth searched out beneath,
I will also cast off all the seed of Israel
For all that they have done, saith the LORD.

- 38 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD,
That the city shall be built to the LORD
From the tower of Hananeel unto the gate of the corner.
39 And the measuring line shall yet go forth
Over against it upon the hill Gareb,
And shall compass about to Goath.
40 And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes,
And all the fields unto the brook of Kidron,
Unto the corner of the horse gate towards the east,
Shall be holy unto the LORD;
It shall not be plucked up,
Nor thrown down any more for ever.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. 32

For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem : and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house. For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore dost thou prophesy, 3 and say, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it; and Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape 4 out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes; and he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be 5 until I visit him, saith the LORD: though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper.

And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Behold, Hanameel the son of Shallum thine uncle shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth: for the right of redemption is thine to buy it. So Hanameel mine uncle's son came to me in the court of the prison according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD. And I bought the field of Hanameel mine uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, 9 and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver. And I subscribed the evidence, and sealed it, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances. So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open: and I gave the evidence 12 of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses who subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews who sat in the court of the prison. And I charged Baruch before them, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Take these evidences, both this evidence of the purchase, which is sealed, and this evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days. For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards shall be possessed again in this land. 15

Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the LORD, saying, Ah Lord God! behold, thou hast made 16 the heavens and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee: thou shonest lovingkindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: the Great, the Mighty God, the LORD of hosts, is his name, great in counsel, and mighty 19 in work: for thine eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men: to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings: who hast done 20 signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, and in Israel, on man and beast; and hast made thee a name, as at this day; and hast brought forth thy people Israel out of the 21 land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with great terror; and hast given them this land, which thou 22 didst swear to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey; and they came in, and possessed it; but they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them. Behold the mounts, they are 24 come unto the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans, that fight against it, because of the sword, and the famine, and the pestilence: and what thou hast spoken is come to pass; and, behold, thou seest it. And thou hast 25

- said unto me, O Lord God, Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses ; for the city is given into the hands of the Chaldeans.
- 26 27 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying, Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh : is there any thing too hard for me ? Therefore thus saith the LORD ; Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it : and the Chaldeans, who fight against this city, shall come and set fire on this city, and burn it with the houses, upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger. For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have only done evil before me from their youth : for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, saith the LORD. For this city hath been to me, as a provocation of mine anger and of my fury from the day that they built it even unto this day ; that I should remove it from before my face, because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And they have turned unto me the back, and not the face : though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction. But they set their abominations in the house, which is called by my name, to defile it. And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Moloch ; which I commanded them not, but strictly forbade, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.
- 36 And now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, It is delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence ; Behold, I will gather them out of all countries, whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath ; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely : and they shall be my people, and I will be their God : and I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them : and I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good ; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me. Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul.
- 42 For thus saith the LORD ; Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them. And fields shall be bought in this land, whereof ye say, It is desolate without man or beast ; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans. Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe evidences, and seal them, and take witnesses in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south : for I will cause their captivity to return, saith the LORD.

33 MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

- 2 Thus saith the LORD the maker thereof,
The LORD who formed it, to establish it ;
The LORD is his name ;
- 3 Call unto me, and I will answer thee,
And show thee great and mighty things,
Which thou knowest not.
- 4 For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel,
Concerning the houses of this city,
And concerning the houses of the kings of Judah,
Which are thrown down by the mounts, and by the sword ;
- 5 They come to fight with the Chaldeans.
But it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men,
Whom I have slain in mine anger and in my fury,
And for all whose wickedness
I have hid my face from this city.
- 6 Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them,
And will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.
- 7 And I will cause the captivity of Judah

- And the captivity of Israel to return,
And will build them, as at the first.
- 8 And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity,
Whereby they have sinned against me;
And I will pardon all their iniquities,
Whereby they have sinned,
And whereby they have transgressed against me.
- 9 And it shall be to me a name of joy,
A praise and an honour before all the nations of the earth,
Who shall hear all the good that I do unto them:
And they shall fear and tremble for all the goodness
And for all the prosperity that I procure unto it.
- 10 Thus saith the LORD;
Again there shall be heard in this place,
Which ye say is desolate without man and without beast,
Even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem,
That are desolate, without man,
And without inhabitant, and without beast,
- 11 The voice of joy, and the voice of gladness,
The voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride,
The voice of those who shall say, Praise the LORD of hosts:
For the LORD is good;
For his mercy endureth for ever:
And of those who shall bring the sacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD.
For I will cause to return the captivity of the land,
As at the first, saith the LORD.
- 12 Thus saith the LORD of hosts;
Again in this place, which is desolate
Without man and without beast,
And in all the cities thereof,
Shall be a habitation of shepherds
Causing their flocks to lie down.
- 13 In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the vale,
And in the cities of the south, and in the land of Benjamin,
And in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah,
Shall the flocks pass again
Under the hands of him who telleth them, saith the LORD.
- 14 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD,
That I will perform that good thing which I have promised Unto the house of Israel, and to the house of Judah.
- 15 In those days, and at that time,
Will I cause the Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David;
And he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land.
- 16 In those days shall Judah be saved,
And Jerusalem shall dwell safely:
And this is his name whereby he shall be called,
The LORD our righteousness.
- 17 For thus saith the LORD;
David shall never want a man
To sit upon the throne of the house of Israel;
- 18 Neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me
To offer burnt offerings, and to kindle thank offerings,
And to do sacrifice continually.
- 19 And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying,
- 20 Thus saith the LORD;
If ye can break my covenant of the day,
And my covenant of the night,
And that there should not be day and night in their season;
- 21 Then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant,
That he should not have a son to reign upon his throne;
And with the Levites the priests, my ministers.
- 22 As the host of the heavens cannot be numbered,
Neither the sand of the sea measured:

So will I multiply the seed of David my servant,
And the Levites who minister unto me.

- 23 Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,
- 24 Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying,
The two families which the LORD hath chosen,
He hath even cast them off?
Thus they have despised my people,
That they should be no more a nation before them.
- 25 Thus saith the LORD;
If my covenant be not with day and night,
And if I have not appointed the ordinances of the heavens and the earth;
- 26 Then will I cast away the seed of Jacob, and David my servant,
So that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers
Over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob:
For I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy on them.

34 THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth of his dominion, and all the people, fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities thereof, saying,

- 2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give this city into the hand of
- 3 the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire: and thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon.
- 4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah; Thus saith the
- 5 LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword: but thou shalt die in peace: and with the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings who were before thee, so shall they burn odours for thee; and they will lament thee, saying, Ah lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD.
- 6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah
- 7 in Jerusalem, when the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah: for these defenced cities remained of the cities of Judah.
- 8 THIS is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem, to proclaim
- 9 liberty unto them; that every man should let his bondman, and every man his bondwoman, being a Hebrew or a Hebrewess, go free; that none should exact service of
- 10 them, of a Jew his brother. Now when all the princes, and all the people, who had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his bondman, and every one his bondwoman, go free, that none should exact service of them any more, then they
- 11 obeyed, and let them go. But afterwards they turned, and caused the bondmen and the bondwomen, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for bondmen and for bondwomen.
- 12 13 Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondmen,
- 14 saying, At the end of seven years let ye go every man his brother a Hebrew, who hath sold himself unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined
- 15 their ear. And ye were now turned, and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and ye had made a covenant before me in the
- 16 house which is called by my name: but ye turned and polluted my name, and caused every man his bondman, and every man his bondwoman, whom he had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for bondmen and for bondwomen.
- 17 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Ye have not hearkened unto me, in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: behold, I proclaim a liberty for you, saith the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.
- 18 And I will give the men who have transgressed my covenant, who have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before me, when they cut
- 19 the calf in two, and passed between the parts thereof, the princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, who passed between the parts of the calf; I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life: and their dead bodies shall be for meat unto the birds of the heavens, and to the beasts of the earth. And Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, who are gone up from you. Behold, I will command, saith the LORD, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying, Go unto the house of the Rechabites, and speak unto them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink. 35

Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habaziah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites; and I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaiah, a man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the door: and I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, Drink ye wine.

But they said, We will drink no wine: for Jonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons for ever: neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have fields: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; that ye may live many days in the land where ye be strangers. Thus have we obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters; nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed: but we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. But when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem.

Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel; Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the LORD. The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye hearkened not unto me. I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me. Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkened unto me: therefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them: because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered.

And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath commanded you: therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me for ever.

AND in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, this word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 36

Take thee a roll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spoke unto thee, from the days of Josiah, even unto this day. It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; that they may return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.

- 4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah: and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book. And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up; I cannot go into the house of the LORD: therefore go thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people in the LORD'S house upon a fast day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah who come out of their cities. It may be they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people.
- 8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD'S house.
- 9 And in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people who came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem. Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the higher court, at the entry of the new gate of the LORD'S house, in the ears of all the people.
- 11 When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD, then he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's chamber: and, lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes. Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people.
- 14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thy hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them. And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears. Now when they had heard all the words, they were afraid both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words. And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth? Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book. Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye be.
- 20 And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king. So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll: and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes who stood beside the king. Now the king sat in the winterhouse in the ninth month: and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him. And when Jehudi had read three or four sections, he cut it with the scribe's knife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire. Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants who heard all these words. Nevertheless Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll: but he would not hear them. But the king commanded Jerahmeel the son of Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet: but the LORD hid them.
- 27 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burnt the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying, Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burnt. And thou shalt say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast burnt this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast? Therefore thus saith the LORD of Jehoiakim king of Judah;

He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David:

And his dead body shall be cast out

In the day to the heat,

And in the night to the frost.

- 31 And I will punish him and his seed and his servants

For their iniquity;

And I will bring upon them,

And upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah,
All the evil that I have pronounced against them ;
But they hearkened not.

Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Ne- 32
riah ; who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiaquim king of Judah had burnt in the fire : and there were added besides unto them many like words.

AND KING ZEDEKIAH the son of Josiah reigned instead of Jeconiah the son of 37
Jehoiaquim, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, did hearken unto 2 the words of the LORD, which he spoke by the prophet Jeremiah.

And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah and Zephaniah the son 3 of Maaseiah the priest to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now unto the LORD our God for us. Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people : for they 4 had not put him into prison. Then Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt : 5 and when the Chaldeans who besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they departed from Jerusalem.

Then came the word of the LORD unto the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Thus saith 6 7
the LORD, the God of Israel ; Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, who sent you unto me to inquire of me ; Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land. And the Chaldeans shall come again, and 8 fight against this city, and take it, and burn it with fire. Thus saith the LORD ; 9 Deceive not yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us : for they shall not depart. For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans who 10 fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

AND when the army of the Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem for fear of 11
Pharaoh's army, then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of 12
Benjamin, to receive a portion of it in the midst of the people. And when he was 13 in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah ; and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou fallest away to the Chaldeans. Then said Jeremiah, It is false ; I fall not 14 away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him : so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes. Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, 15 and smote him, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe : for they had made that the prison.

When Jeremiah was entered into the dungeon, and into the cabins, and Jeremiah 16 had remained there many days ; then Zedekiah the king sent, and took him out : and 17 the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from the LORD ? And Jeremiah said, There is : for, said he, thou shalt be delivered into 18 the hand of the king of Babylon. Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, 18
What have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison ? Where are now your prophets who prophesied unto 19 you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land ?
Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king : let my supplication, I pray 20 thee, be accepted before thee ; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there. Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they 21 should commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

THEN Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and Jucal 38 the son of Shelemiah, and Pashur the son of Malchiah, heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken unto all the people, saying,

Thus saith the LORD, He who remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by 2
the famine, and by the pestilence : but he who goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live ; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live. Thus saith the LORD, 3
This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it. Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, let this 4 man be put to death : for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, by speaking such words unto them :
for this man seeketh not the welfare of this people, but the hurt. Then Zedekiah 5 the king said, Behold, he is in your power : for the king is not he who can do any

- 6 thing against you. Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison : and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire : so Jeremiah sunk in the mire.
- 7 Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs who was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon ; the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin ; Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spoke to the king, saying, My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon ; and he will die for hunger in the place where he is, when there shall be no more bread in the city. Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die. So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old torn rags and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah. And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old torn rags and rotten rags under thine armholes under the cords. And Jeremiah did so. So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon : and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.
- 14 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the third entrance that is in the house of the LORD : and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing ; hide nothing from me.
- 15 Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death ? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me ?
- 16 So Zedekiah the king swore secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD liveth, who made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men who seek thy life.
- 17 Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel ; If thou wilt assuredly go forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burnt with fire ; and thou shalt live, and thy house : but if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt not escape out of their hand.
- 19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews who are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me.
- 20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee : so it shall be well with thee, and thy soul shall live. But if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath showed me : and, behold, all the women who are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, Thy friends have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee : thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back. So they shall bring out all thy wives and thy children to the Chaldeans : and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon : and thou shalt cause this city to be burnt with fire.
- 24 Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die. But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death ; also what the king said unto thee : then thou shalt say unto them, I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there.
- 27 Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him : and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him ; for the matter was not perceived. So Jeremiah abode in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken : and he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

39 IN the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it. And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city was broken up. And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, even Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon.

And when Zedekiah the king of Judah, and all the men of war, saw them, then 4 they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwixt the two walls: and he went out the way of the plain. But the 5 Chaldeans' army pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he gave judgment upon him. Then 6 the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah. Moreover he put out Zedekiah's 7 eyes, and bound him with chains, to carry him to Babylon. And the Chaldeans 8 burnt the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem.

Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon 9 the remnant of the people who remained in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to him, with the rest of the people who remained. But Nebuzar-adan the cap- 10 tain of the guard left of the poor of the people, who had nothing in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Ne- 11 buzar-adan the captain of the guard, saying, Take him, and look well to him, and do him no harm; but do unto him even as he shall say unto thee. So Nebuzar-adan 12 the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushasban, Itab-saris, and Nergal-sharczer, Rab-mag, and all the king of Babylon's princes; even they sent, and took Jeremiah 13 out of the court of the prison, and committed him unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the people. 14

Now the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the 15 court of the prison, saying, Go and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, 16

Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel;

Behold, I will bring my words upon this city

For evil, and not for good;

And they shall be accomplished in that day before thee.

17 But I will deliver thee in that day, saith the LORD:

And thou shalt not be given into the hand

Of the men of whom thou art afraid.

18 For I will surely deliver thee,

And thou shalt not fall by the sword,

But thy life shall be for a prey unto thee:

Because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the LORD.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after that Nebuzar-adan the 40 captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all who were carried away captive of Jerusalem and Judah, who were carried away captive unto Babylon.

AND the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said unto him, The LORD thy 2 God hath pronounced this evil upon this place. Now the LORD hath brought it, 3 and done according as he hath said: because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you. And now, 4 behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which are upon thy hand. If it seem good unto thee to come with me into Babylon, come; and I will look well unto thee: but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Babylon, forbear: behold, all the land is before thee: whither it seemeth good and convenient for thee to go, thither go. Now while he was not yet gone back, he said, Go back also to Gedaliah the son 5 of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon hath made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people: or go wheresoever it seemeth convenient unto thee to go.

So the captain of the guard gave him victuals and a reward, and let him go. Then 6 went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and dwelt with him among the people who were left in the land.

Now when all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, even they and 7 their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, and of the poor of the land, of those who were not carried away captive to Babylon; then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan 8 and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men.

And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan swore unto them and to 9 their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to serve the Chaldeans, who will come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine, and summer fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken.

Likewise when all the Jews who were in Moab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and who were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan; even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits in great abundance.

Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, and said unto him, Dost thou certainly know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to slay thee? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not. Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: wherefore should he slay thee, that all the Jews who are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant in Judah perish? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said unto Johanan the son of Kareah, Thou shalt not do this thing: for thou speakest falsely of Ishmael.

41 Now in the seventh month Ishmael the son of Nethaniah the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah. Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men who were with him, and smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land. Ishmael also slew all the Jews who were with him, even with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans who were found there, and the men of war.

And the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it, there came certain from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even fourscore men, having their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the LORD. And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. And when they came into the midst of the city, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men who were with him. But ten men were found among them who said unto Ishmael, Slay us not: for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbore, and slew them not among their brethren.

Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain because of Gedaliah, was the same which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with those who were slain.

Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people who were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people who remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the Ammonites.

But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon. Now when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, then they were glad. So all the people whom Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned about and returned, and went unto Johanan the son of Kareah. But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the Ammonites.

Then took Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, even mighty men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought again from Gibeon: and they departed, and dwelt in the habitation of Chimham, which is by Beth-lehem, to go to enter into Egypt, because of the Chaldeans: for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor in the land.

THEN all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least even unto the greatest, came near, and said unto Jeremiah the prophet, Let, we beseech thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, and pray for us unto the LORD thy God, even for all this remnant; (for we are left but a few of many, as thine eyes do behold us:) that the LORD thy God may show us the way wherein we may walk, and the thing that we may do. 42

Then Jeremiah the prophet said unto them, I have heard you; behold, I will pray 4 unto the LORD your God according to your words; and whatsoever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it unto you; I will keep nothing back from you.

Then they said to Jeremiah, The LORD be a true and faithful witness between us, 5 if we do not even according to all things for the which the LORD thy God shall send thee to us. Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice 6 of the LORD our God, to whom we send thee; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God.

And after ten days, the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah. Then called he 7 8 Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, and said unto them, Thus saith 9 the LORD, the God of Israel, unto whom ye sent me to present your supplication before him;

- 10 If ye will still abide in this land,
Then will I build you, and not pull you down,
And I will plant you, and not pluck you up:
For I repent me of the evil that I have done unto you.
- 11 Be not afraid of the king of Babylon,
Of whom ye are afraid;
Be not afraid of him, saith the LORD:
For I am with you to save you,
And to deliver you from his hand.
- 12 And I will show mercies unto you,
That he may have mercy upon you,
And cause you to return to your own land.
- 13 But if ye say,
We will not dwell in this land,
Neither obey the voice of the LORD your God,
- 14 Saying, No; but we will go into the land of Egypt,
Where we shall see no war,
Nor hear the sound of the trumpet,
Nor have hunger of bread;
And there will we dwell:
- 15 And now therefore hear the word of the LORD, ye remnant of Judah;
Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel;
If ye wholly set your faces to enter into Egypt,
And go to sojourn there;
- 16 Then the sword, which ye feared,
Shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt,
And the famine, whereof ye were afraid,
Shall follow close after you there in Egypt;
And there ye shall die.
- 17 So shall it be with all the men
Who set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there;
They shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence:
And none of them shall remain or escape
From the evil that I will bring upon them.
- 18 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel;
As mine anger and my fury hath been poured forth
Upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem;
So shall my fury be poured forth upon you,
When ye shall enter into Egypt:

And ye shall be an execration, and an astonishment,
 And a curse, and a reproach;
 And ye shall see this place no more.

19 The LORD hath said concerning you, O ye remnant of Judah; Go ye not into 20 Egypt: know certainly that I have admonished you this day. For ye dissembled in your hearts, when ye sent me unto the LORD your God, saying, Pray for us unto the LORD our God; and according unto all that the LORD our God shall say, so 21 declare unto us, and we will do it. And now I have this day declared it to you;
 but ye have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, nor any thing for the 22 which he hath sent me unto you. Now therefore know certainly that ye shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place whither ye desire to go and to sojourn.

43 And when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, 2 even all these words, then spoke Azariah the son of Hoshaiiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely: the 3 LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there: but Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into 4 Babylon. So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah.
 5 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, who were returned from all nations, whither they had been 6 driven, to dwell in the land of Judah; even men, and women, and children, and the king's daughters, and every person whom Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the 7 prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah. So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: thus came they even to Tahpanhes.

8 9 THEN came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying, Take great stones in thy hand, and hide them in the clay in the brickkiln, which is at the 10 entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah; and say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel;

Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his 11 royal pavilion over them. And when he cometh, he shall smite the land of Egypt, and deliver such as are for death to death; and such as are for captivity to captivity;
 12 and such as are for the sword to the sword. And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; 13 and he shall go forth from thence in peace. He shall break also the images of Bethshemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians shall he burn with fire.

44 THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews who dwell in the land of Egypt, who dwell at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and, behold, this 3 day they are a desolation, and no man dwelleth therein, because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to serve other gods, which they knew not, neither they, ye, nor your 4 fathers. Howbeit I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, rising early and 5 sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate. But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no in-6 cense unto other gods. Wherefore my fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as at this day.

7 Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; Wherefore commit ye this great evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, 8 child and suckling, out of Judah, to leave you none to remain; in that ye provoke me unto wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye are gone to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and 9 that ye might be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? Have ye forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem? They are not humbled even unto this day, neither have 10 they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers.

Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will set my 11 face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah. And I will take the remnant of 12 Judah, who have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they shall even be consumed by the sword and by the famine: they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword and by the famine: and they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach. For I will punish those who dwell in the 13 land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: so that none of the remnant of Judah, who are gone into the land 14 of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return but such as shall escape.

Then all the men who knew that their wives had burnt incense unto other gods, 15 and all the women who stood by, a great multitude, even all the people who dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying,

As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, we will 16 not hearken unto thee. But we will certainly do whatsoever thing we have determined on, to burn incense unto the queen of the heavens, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of 17 victuals, and were well, and saw no evil. But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of the heavens, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all 18 things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine. And when we 19 burnt incense to the queen of the heavens, and poured out drink offerings unto her, did we make her eakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings unto her, without our husbands?

Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all 20 the people who had given him that answer, saying,

The incense that ye burnt in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, 21 ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, hath not the LORD remembered, and hath it been acceptable to him? So that the 22 LORD could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day. Because ye have 23 burnt incense, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day.

Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the 24 word of the LORD, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt: Thus saith the LORD 25 of hosts, the God of Israel, saying; Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of the heavens, and to pour out drink offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your 26 vows. Therefore hear ye the word of the LORD, all Judah who dwell in the land of Egypt; Behold, I have sworn by my great name, saith the LORD, that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord God liveth. Behold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for 27 good: and all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them. Yet a small number 28 who escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, and all the remnant of Judah, who are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, mine, or theirs.

And this shall be a sign unto you, saith the LORD, that I will punish you in this 29 place, that ye may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil: Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give Pharaoh-hophra king of Egypt into the 30 hand of his enemies, and into the hand of those who seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, his enemy, who sought his life.

45 THE word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke unto Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book from the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year 2 of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto thee, O Baruch ;

- 3 Thou didst say, Woe to me now !
For the LORD hath added grief to my sorrow ;
I fainted in my sighing,
And I find no rest.
- 4 Thus shalt thou say unto him, The LORD saith thus ;
Behold, that which I have built will I break down,
And that which I have planted I will pluck up,
Even this whole land.
- 5 And seekest thou great things for thyself ?
Seek them not :
For, behold, I will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the LORD :
But thy life will I give unto thee as a spoil
In all places whither thou goest.

46 THE word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Gentiles ; against Egypt, against the army of Pharaoh-necho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah.

- 3 Order ye the buckler and shield,
And draw near to battle.
- 4 Harness the horses ; and get up, ye horsemen,
And stand forth with your helmets ;
Polish the spears, and put on the coats of mail.
- 5 Wherefore have I seen them dismayed and turned away back ?
And their mighty ones are beaten down,
And are fled apace, and look not back :
For fear was round about, saith the LORD.
- 6 Let not the swift flee away,
Nor the mighty man escape ;
They shall stumble, and fall
Towards the north by the river Euphrates.
- 7 Who is this who cometh up as a flood,
Whose waters are moved as the rivers ?
- 8 Egypt riseth up like a flood,
And his waters are moved like the rivers ;
And he saith, I will go up, and will cover the earth ;
I will destroy the city and the inhabitants thereof.
- 9 Come up, ye horses ;
And rage, ye chariots ;
And let the mighty men come forth ;
The Ethiopians and the Libyans, who handle the shield ;
And the Lydians, who handle and bend the bow.
- 10 For this is the day of the Lord God of hosts,
A day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries :
And the sword shall devour,
And it shall be satiated and drunk with their blood :
For the Lord God of hosts hath a sacrifice
In the north country by the river Euphrates.
- 11 Go up into Gilead, and take balm,
O virgin, the daughter of Egypt :
In vain shalt thou use many medicines ;
For thou shalt not be cured.
- 12 The nations have heard of thy shame,
And thy cry hath filled the land :
For the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty,
And they are fallen both together.

13 THE word that the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon should come and smite the land of Egypt.

- 14 Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol,
And publish in Noph and in Tahpanhes :
Say ye, Stand fast, and prepare thee ;
For the sword shall devour round about thee.
- 15 Why are thy valiant men swept away ?
They stood not, because the LORD did drive them.
- 16 He made many to fall,
Yea, one fell upon another :
And they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people,
And to the land of our nativity,
From the oppressing sword.
- 17 They did cry there,
Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise ;
He hath passed the time appointed.
- 18 As I live, saith the king,
Whose name is the LORD of hosts,
Surely as Tabor is among the mountains,
And as Carmel by the sea, so shall he come.
- 19 O thou daughter dwelling in Egypt,
Furnish thyself to go into captivity :
For Noph shall be waste
And desolate without an inhabitant.
- 20 Egypt is like a very beautiful heifer,
But destruction cometh :
It cometh out of the north.
- 21 Also her hired men are in the midst of her like fatted bullocks ;
For they also are turned back,
And are fled away together : they did not stand,
Because the day of their calamity was come upon them,
And the time of their visitation.
- 22 The voice thereof shall go like that of an enchanter ;
For they shall march with an army,
And come against her with axes,
As hewers of wood.
- 23 They shall cut down her forest, saith the LORD,
Though it cannot be searched ;
Because they are more than the grasshoppers,
And are innumerable.
- 24 The daughter of Egypt shall be confounded ;
She shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north.
- 25 The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saith ;
Behold, I will punish the multitude of No,
And Pharaoh, and Egypt,
With their gods, and their king ;
Even Pharaoh, and all those who trust in him :
- 26 And I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their lives,
Even into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon,
And into the hand of his servants :
And afterwards it shall be inhabited,
As in the days of old, saith the LORD.
- 27 But fear not thou, O my servant Jacob,
And be not dismayed, O Israel :
For, behold, I will save thee from afar off,
And thy seed from the land of their captivity ;
And Jacob shall return, and be in rest
And at ease, and none shall make him afraid.
- 28 Fear thou not, O Jacob my servant,
Saith the LORD : for I am with thee ;
For I will make a full end of all the nations
Whither I have driven thee :
But I will not make a full end of thee,
But correct thee in measure ;
Yet will I not leave thee wholly unpunished.

47 THE word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Philistines, before that Pharaoh smote Gaza. Thus saith the LORD;

- Behold, waters rise up out of the north,
 And shall be an overflowing flood,
 And shall overflow the land, and all that is therein;
 The city, and those who dwell therein:
 Then the men shall cry,
 And all the inhabitants of the land shall howl.
- 3 At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong horses,
 At the rushing of his chariots,
 And at the rumbling of his wheels,
 The fathers shall not look back to their children
 For feebleness of hands;
- 4 Because of the day that cometh
 To spoil all the Philistines,
 And to cut off from Tyre and Zidon
 Every helper who remaineth:
 For the LORD will spoil the Philistines,
 The remnant of the country of Caphtor.
- 5 Baldness is come upon Gaza;
 Ashkelon is cut off with the remnant of their valley:
 How long wilt thou cut thyself?
- 6 O thou sword of the LORD,
 How long will it be ere thou be quiet? put up thyself into thy scabbard, Rest, and be still.
- 7 How can it be quiet,
 Seeing the LORD hath given it a charge
 Against Ashkelon, and against the sea shore?
 There hath he appointed it.

48 AGAINST Moab thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:

- Woe unto Nebo! for it is spoiled:
 Kiriathaim is confounded and taken:
 Misgab is confounded and dismayed.
- 2 There shall be no more praise of Moab:
 In Heshbon they have devised evil against it;
 Come, and let us cut it off from being a nation.
 Also thou shalt be cut down, O Madmena;
 The sword shall pursue thee.
- 3 A voice of crying shall be from Horonaim, Spoiling and great destruction.
- 4 Moab is destroyed;
 Her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.
- 5 For in the going up of Luhith
 Continual weeping shall go up;
 For in the going down of Horonaim
 The enemies have heard a cry of destruction.
- 6 Flee, save your lives,
 And be like the heath in the wilderness.
- 7 For because thou hast trusted in thy works and in thy treasures,
 Thou shalt also be taken:
 And Chemosh shall go forth into captivity
 With his priests and his princes together.
- 8 And the spoiler shall come upon every city,
 And no city shall escape:
 The valley also shall perish,
 And the plain shall be destroyed,
 As the LORD hath spoken.
- 9 Give wings unto Moab,
 That it may flee and get away:
 For the cities thereof shall be desolate,
 Without any to dwell therein.
- 10 Cursed be he who doeth the work of the LORD deceitfully,
 And cursed be he who keepeth back his sword from blood.

- 11 Moab hath been at ease from his youth,
And he hath settled on his lees,
And hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel,
Neither hath he gone into captivity:
Therefore his taste remained in him,
And his scent is not changed.
- 12 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD,
That I will send unto him wanderers, who shall cause him to wander,
And shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles.
- 13 And Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh,
As the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel their confidence.
- 14 How say ye, We are mighty
And strong men for the war?
- 15 The spoiler of Moab and his cities hath gone up,
And his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter,
Saith the king, whose name is the LORD of hosts.
- 16 The calamity of Moab is near to come,
And his affliction hasteneth fast.
- 17 All ye who are about him, bemoan him;
And all ye who know his name, say,
How is the sceptre broken,
And the beautiful rod!
- 18 Thou daughter who dost inhabit Dibon,
Come down from thy glory, and sit on the thirsty ground;
For the spoiler of Moab shall come upon thee,
And he shall destroy thy strong holds.
- 19 O inhabitant of Aroer!
Stand by the way, and espy;
Ask him who fleeth, and her who escapeth,
And say, What is done?
- 20 Moab is confounded; for it is broken down:
Howl and cry;
Tell ye it in Arnon, that Moab is spoiled,
- 21 And judgment is come upon the plain country;
Upon Holon, and upon Jahazah, and upon Mephaath,
- 22 And upon Dibon, and upon Nebo, and upon Beth-diblathaim,
- 23 And upon Kiriathaim, and upon Beth-gamul, and upon Beth-meon,
- 24 And upon Keriath, and upon Bozrah,
And upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near.
- 25 The horn of Moab is cut off,
And his arm is broken, saith the LORD.
- 26 Make ye him drunken:
For he magnified himself against the LORD:
Moab also shall wallow in his vomit,
And he also shall be in derision.
- 27 For was not Israel a derision unto thee?
Was he found among thieves?
For since thou didst insult him with thy words, thou skippedst for joy.
- 28 O ye who dwell in Moab,
Leave the cities, and dwell in the rock,
And be like the dove
That maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth.
- 29 We have heard the pride of Moab, (he is exceeding proud,)
His loftiness, and his arrogancy,
And his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart.
- 30 I know his wrath, saith the LORD;
But he is not able to do that he intended;
His lies shall not effect it.
- 31 Therefore will I howl for Moab,
And I will cry out for all Moab;
My heart shall mourn for the men of Kir-heres.
- 32 O vine of Sibmah,
I will weep for thee with the weeping of Jazer:

- Thy plants are gone over the sea,
 They reach even to the sea of Jazer :
 The spoiler is fallen upon thy summer fruits and upon thy vintage.
- 33 And joy and gladness is taken
 From the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab ;
 And I have caused wine to fail from the winepresses :
 None shall tread with shouting ;
 Their shouting shall be no shouting.
- 34 From the cry of Heshbon even unto Elealeh,
 And even unto Jahaz, have they uttered their voice,
 From Zoar even unto Horonaim,
 As a heifer of three years old :
 For the waters also of Nimrim shall be desolate.
- 35 Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the LORD,
 Him who offereth in the high places,
 And him who burneth incense to his gods.
- 36 Therefore my heart shall sound for Moab like pipes,
 And my heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kir-heres :
 Because the riches that he hath gotten are perished.
- 37 For every head shall be bald,
 And every beard clipped :
 Upon all the hands shall be cuttings,
 And upon the loins sackcloth.
- 38 There shall be lamentation generally upon all the housetops of Moab,
 And in the streets thereof :
 For I have broken Moab
 Like a vessel in which no one hath pleasure, saith the LORD.
- 39 They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down !
 How hath Moab turned the back with shame !
 So shall Moab be a derision
 And a dismaying to all who are about him.
- 40 For thus saith the LORD ;
 Behold, he shall fly as an eagle,
 And shall spread his wings over Moab.
- 41 Kerioth is taken, and the strong holds are surprised,
 And the mighty men's hearts in Moab at that day shall be
 As the heart of a woman in her pangs.
- 42 And Moab shall be destroyed from being a people,
 Because he hath magnified himself against the LORD.
- 43 Fear, and the pit, and the snare, shall be upon thee,
 O inhabitant of Moab, saith the LORD.
- 44 He who fleeth from the fear shall fall into the pit ;
 And he who getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare :
 For I will bring upon it, even upon Moab,
 The year of their visitation, saith the LORD.
- 45 Those who fled
 Stood under the shadow of Heshbon for want of strength :
 But a fire shall come forth out of Heshbon,
 And a flame from the midst of Sihon,
 And shall devour the corner of Moab,
 And the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones.
- 46 Woe be unto thee, O Moab !
 The people of Chemosh perish :
 And thy sons and thy daughters are taken captives.
- 47 Yet will I bring again the captivity of Moab
 In the latter days, saith the LORD.—Thus far is the judgment of Moab.
- 49 CONCERNING the Ammonites, thus saith the LORD ;
 Hath Israel no sons ?
 Hath he no heir ?
 Why then doth their king inherit Gad,
 And his people dwell in his cities ?
- 2 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD,
 That I will cause an alarm of war to be heard

- In Rabbah of the Ammonites ;
 And it shall be a desolate heap,
 And her villages shall be burnt with fire :
 Then shall Israel be heir unto those who were his heirs, saith the LORD.
- 3 Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled :
 Cry, ye daughters of Rabbah,
 Gird you with sackcloth ;
 Lament, and run to and fro by the hedges ;
 For their king shall go into captivity,
 And his priests and his princes together.
- 4 Wherefore gloriest thou in the valleys,
 Thy flowing valley, O backsliding daughter ?
 Who trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come unto me ?
- 5 Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee,
 Saith the Lord God of hosts,
 From all those who are about thee ;
 And ye shall be driven out every man right forth,
 And none shall gather up him who wandereth.
- 6 And afterwards I will bring again the captivity
 Of the children of Ammon, saith the LORD.
- 7 CONCERNING Edom, thus saith the LORD of hosts :
 Is wisdom no more in Teman ?
 Is counsel perished from the prudent ?
 Is their wisdom vanished ?
- 8 Flee ye, turn back, dwell deep, O inhabitants of Dedan ;
 For I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him,
 The time that I will visit him.
- 9 If grapegatherers come to thee,
 Would they not leave some gleanings ?
 If thieves by night, they will destroy till they have enough.
- 10 But I have made Esau bare,
 I have uncovered his secret places,
 And he shall not be able to hide himself :
 His seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours,
 And he is not.
- 11 Leave thy fatherless children, I will preserve them alive ;
 And let thy widows trust in me.
- 12 For thus saith the LORD ;
 Behold, those whose judgment was not to drink of the cup
 Have assuredly drunken ;
 And art thou he who shall altogether go unpunished ?
 Thou shalt not go unpunished,
 But thou shalt surely drink of it.
- 13 For I have sworn by myself, saith the LORD,
 That Bozrah shall become a desolation,
 A reproach, a waste, and a curse ;
 And all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes.
- 14 I have heard a rumour from the LORD,
 And an ambassador is sent unto the nations, saying,
 Gather ye together, and come against her,
 And rise up to the battle.
- 15 For, lo, I will make thee small among the nations,
 And despised among men.
- 16 Thy terriblest hath deceived thee,
 And the pride of thy heart, O thou who dwellest in the clefts of the rock,
 Who holdest the height of the hill :
 Though thou shouldest make thy nest as high as the eagle,
 I will bring thee down from thence, saith the LORD.
- 17 Also Edom shall be a desolation :
 Every one who goeth by it shall be astonished,
 And shall hiss at all the plagues thereof.
- 18 As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah
 And the neighbouring cities thereof, saith the LORD,

- No man shall abide there,
Neither shall a son of man dwell in it.
- 19 Behold, he shall come up
Like a lion from the swelling of the Jordan
Against the habitation of the strong :
But I will suddenly make him run away from her :
And who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her ?
For who is like me ? and who will appoint me the time ?
And who is that shepherd who will stand before me ?
- 20 Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD,
That he hath taken against Edom ;
And his purposes, that he hath purposed against the inhabitants of Teman :
Surely the least of the flock shall drag them away :
Surely he shall make their habitations desolate with them.
- 21 The earth is moved at the noise of their fall,
At the cry the noise thereof was heard in the Red Sea.
- 22 Behold, he shall come up and fly as the eagle,
And spread his wings over Bozrah :
And at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Edom be
As the heart of a woman in her pangs.
- 23 CONCERNING Damascus.
Hamath is confounded, and Arpad :
For they have heard evil tidings :
They are fainthearted ;
They are dissolved with fear as the sea,
Which can never be at rest.
- 24 Damascus is waxed feeble,
And turneth herself to flee,
And fear hath seized on her :
Anguish and sorrows have taken her,
As a woman in travail.
- 25 How is the city of praise not left,
The city of my joy !
- 26 Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets,
And all the men of war shall be cut off in that day,
Saith the LORD of hosts.
- 27 And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus,
And it shall consume the palaces of Ben-hadad.
- 28 CONCERNING Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD ;
- Arise ye, go up to Kedar,
And spoil the men of the east.
- 29 Their tents and their flocks shall they take away :
They shall take to themselves their curtains,
And all their vessels, and their camels ;
And they shall cry unto them, Fear is on every side.
- 30 Flee, get you far off,
Dwell in deep solitude, O ye inhabitants of Hazor, saith the LORD ;
For Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon hath taken counsel against you,
And hath conceived a purpose against you.
- 31 Arise, get you up unto the nation at ease,
Which dwell without care, saith the LORD,
Which have neither gates nor bars,
Which dwell alone.
- 32 And their camels shall be a booty,
And the multitude of their cattle a spoil ;
And I will scatter into every quarter those who are in the utmost corners ;
And I will bring their calamity
From all sides thereof, saith the LORD.
- 33 And Hazor shall be a dwelling for dragons,
And a desolation for ever :
There shall no man abide there, nor any son of man dwell in it.

JEREMIAH I.

34 THE word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against Elam in 35 the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts ;

Behold, I will break the bow of Elam,
The chief of their might.
36 And upon Elam will I bring the four winds
From the four quarters of the heavens,
And will scatter them towards all those winds ;
And there shall be no nation
Whither the outcasts of Elam shall not come.
37 For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies ;
And before those who seek their life :
And I will bring evil upon them,
Even my fierce anger, saith the LORD ;
And I will send the sword after them,
Till I have consumed them :
38 And I will set my throne in Elam,
And will destroy from thence
The king and the princes, saith the LORD.
39 But in the latter days
I will bring again the captivity of Elam, saith the LORD.

50 THE word that the LORD spoke against Babylon and against the land of the Chaldeans by Jeremiah the prophet.

2 Declare ye among the nations,
And publish, and set up a standard ;
Publish, and conceal not :
Say, Babylon is taken,
Bel is confounded,
Merodach is broken in pieces ;
Her idols are confounded,
Her images are broken in pieces.
3 For out of the north there cometh up a nation against her,
Which shall make her land desolate,
And none shall dwell therein :
They shall remove, they shall depart,
Both man and beast.
4 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD,
The children of Israel shall come,
They and the children of Judah together,
Going and weeping :
They shall go, and seek the LORD their God.
5 They shall ask the way to Zion
With their faces thitherwards, saying,
Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD
In a perpetual covenant which shall not be forgotten.
6 My people have been lost sheep :
Their shepherds have caused them to go astray,
They have turned them away on the mountains :
They have gone from mountain to hill,
They have forgotten their restingplace.
7 All who found them have devoured them :
And their adversaries said, We offend not,
Because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of justice,
Even the LORD, the hope of their fathers.
8 Remove out of the midst of Babylon,
And go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans,
And be as the he-goats before the flocks.
9 For, lo, I will raise
And cause to come up against Babylon
An assembly of great nations from the north country :
And they shall set themselves in array against her ;
From thence she shall be taken :

JEREMIAH L.

- Their arrows shall be as of a mighty destroyer ;
None shall return in vain.
- 10 And Chaldea shall be a spoil :
All who spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD.
- 11 Because ye were glad, because ye rejoiced,
O ye destroyers of my heritage,
Because ye are grown fat as the heifer at grass,
And bellow as bulls ;
- 12 Your mother shall be greatly confounded ;
She who bore you shall be ashamed :
Behold, the hindermost of the nations shall be
A wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.
- 13 Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited,
But it shall be wholly desolate :
Every one who goeth by Babylon shall be astonished,
And hiss at all her calamities.
- 14 Put yourselves in array against Babylon round about :
All ye who bend the bow,
Shoot at her, spare no arrows :
For she hath sinned against the LORD.
- 15 Shout against her round about :
She hath given her hand :
Her foundations are fallen,
Her walls are thrown down :
For it is the vengeance of the LORD :
Take vengeance upon her ;
As she hath done, do unto her.
- 16 Cut off the sower from Babylon,
And him who handleth the sickle in the time of harvest :
For fear of the oppressing sword
They shall turn every one to his people,
And they shall flee every one to his own land.
- 17 Israel is a scattered sheep ;
The lions have driven him away :
First the king of Assyria hath devoured him ;
And last this Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones.
- 18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel ;
Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land,
As I have punished the king of Assyria.
- 19 And I will bring Israel again to his habitation,
And he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan,
And his soul shall be satisfied
Upon mount Ephraim and Gilead.
- 20 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD,
The iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none ;
And the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found :
For I will pardon them whom I reserve.
- 21 Go up against the land of Merathaim,
Even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod :
Waste and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD,
And do according to all that I have commanded thee.
- 22 A sound of battle is in the land,
And of great destruction.
- 23 How is the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken !
How is Babylon become a desolation among the nations !
- 24 I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken,
O Babylon, and thou wast not aware :
Thou art found, and also caught,
Because thou hast striven against the LORD.
- 25 The LORD hath opened his armoury,
And hath brought forth the weapons of his indignation :
For this is the work of the Lord God of hosts
In the land of the Chaldeans.

JEREMIAH L.

- 26 Come against her from the utmost border,
Open her storehouses :
Cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly :
Let nothing of her be left.
- 27 Slay all her bullocks ;
Let them go down to the slaughter :
Woe unto them ! for their day is come,
The time of their visitation.
- 28 The voice of those who flee and escape out of the land of Babylon,
To declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God,
The vengeance of his temple.
- 29 Call together the archers against Babylon :
All ye who bend the bow,
Camp against it round about ;
Let none thereof escape :
Recompense her according to her work ;
According to all that she hath done, do unto her :
For she hath been proud against the LORD,
Against the Holy One of Israel.
- 30 Therefore shall her young men fall in the streets,
And all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD.
- 31 Behold, I am against thee, O thou most proud one,
Saith the Lord God of hosts :
For thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee.
- 32 And the proud one shall stumble and fall,
And none shall raise him up :
And I will kindle a fire in his cities,
And it shall devour all round about him.
- 33 Thus saith the LORD of hosts ;
The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together :
And all who took them captives held them fast ;
They refused to let them go.
- 34 Their Redeemer is strong ;
The LORD of hosts is his name :
He shall thoroughly plead their cause,
That he may give rest to the land,
And disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.
- 35 A sword is upon the Chaldeans, saith the LORD,
And upon the inhabitants of Babylon,
And upon her princes, and upon her wise men.
- 36 A sword is upon the impostors, and they shall be infatuated,
A sword is upon her mighty men, and they shall be dismayed.
- 37 A sword is upon their horses, and upon their chariots,
And upon all the mingled people who are in the midst of her ;
And they shall become as women :
A sword is upon her treasures, and they shall be robbed.
- 38 A drought is upon her waters, and they shall be dried up :
For it is the land of graven images,
And they are mad upon their idols.
- 39 Therefore the wild beasts of the desert
With the wild beasts of the islands shall dwell there,
And the owls shall dwell therein :
And it shall be no more inhabited for ever ;
Neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.
- 40 As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah
And their neighbouring cities, saith the LORD ;
So shall no man abide there,
Neither shall any son of man dwell therein.
- 41 Behold, a people shall come from the north, and a great nation,
And many kings shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.
- 42 They shall hold the bow and the lance :
They are cruel, and will not show mercy :
Their voice shall roar like the sea,

- And they shall ride upon horses,
 Every one put in array, like a man to the battle, Against thee, O daughter of Babylon.
- 43 The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them,
 And his hands waxed feeble :
 Anguish took hold of him,
 And pangs as of a woman in travail.
- 44 Behold, he shall come up
 Like a lion from the swelling of the Jordan
 Unto the habitation of the strong :
 But I will make them suddenly run away from her :
 And who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her ?
 For who is like me ? and who will appoint me the time ?
 And who is that shepherd who will stand before me ?
- 45 Therefore hear ye the counsel of the LORD,
 That he hath taken against Babylon ;
 And his purposes, that he hath purposed against the land of the Chaldeans
 Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out :
 Surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them.
- 46 At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth is moved,
 And the cry is heard among the nations.

- 51 Thus saith the LORD ;
 Behold, I will raise up against Babylon,
 And against those who dwell in the midst of those who rise up against me,
 A destroying wind ;
- 2 And will send unto Babylon fanners,
 That shall fan her, and shall empty her land :
 For in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about.
- 3 Against him who bendeth let the archer bend his bow,
 And against him who lifteth himself up in his coat of mail :
 And spare ye not her young men ;
 Destroy ye utterly all her host.
- 4 Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans,
 And those who are thrust through in her streets.
- 5 For Israel hath not been forsaken,
 Nor Judah of his God, of the LORD of hosts ;
 Though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.
- 6 Flee out of the midst of Babylon,
 And deliver every man his soul :
 Be not cut off in her iniquity ;
 For this is the time of the LORD'S vengeance ;
 He will render unto her a recompence.
- 7 Babylon hath been a golden cup in the LORD'S hand,
 That made all the earth drunken :
 The nations have drunken of her wine ;
 Therefore the nations are mad.
- 8 Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed :
 Howl for her ;
 Take balm for her pain,
 If so be she may be healed.
- 9 We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed :
 Forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country :
 For her judgment reacheth unto the heavens,
 And is lifted up even to the skies.
- 10 The LORD hath brought forth our righteousness :
 Come, and let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.
- 11 Make bright the arrows ; gather the shields :
 The LORD hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes :
 For his purpose is against Babylon, to destroy it ;
 Because it is the vengeance of the LORD,
 The vengeance of his temple.
- 12 Set up the standard upon the walls of Babylon,

- Make the watch strong, set up the watchmen,
 Prepare the liers in wait:
 For the LORD hath both purposed and done
 That which he spoke against the inhabitants of Babylon.
- 13 O thou who dwellest by the side of many waters, abundant in treasures, Thine end is come, and the measure of thy covetousness.
- 14 The LORD of hosts hath sworn by himself, saying,
 Surely I will fill thee with men, as with locusts;
 And they shall lift up a shout against thee.
- 15 He hath made the earth by his power,
 He hath established the world by his wisdom,
 And hath stretched out the heavens by his understanding.
- 16 When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens;
 And he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth:
 He maketh lightnings with rain,
 And bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.
- 17 Every man is ignorant;
 Every founder is confounded by the graven image:
 For his molten image is falsehood,
 And there is no breath in them.
- 18 They are vanity, the work of errors:
 In the time of their visitation they shall perish.
- 19 The portion of Jacob is not like them;
 For he is the former of all things:
 And Israel is the rod of his inheritance:
 The LORD of hosts is his name.
- 20 Thou art my battle axe and weapons of war:
 For with thee will I break in pieces the nations,
 And with thee will I destroy kingdoms;
- 21 And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider;
 And with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider;
- 22 With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman;
 And with thee will I break in pieces old and young;
 And with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid;
- 23 I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flock;
 And with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen;
 And with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers.
- 24 And I will render unto Babylon
 And to all the inhabitants of Chaldea
 All their evil that they have done in Zion
 In your sight, saith the LORD.
- 25 Behold, I am against thee, O destroying mountain, saith the LORD.
 Which destroyest all the earth:
 And I will stretch out my hand upon thee,
 And roll thee down from the rocks,
 And will make thee a burnt mountain.
- 26 And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner,
 Nor a stone for foundations;
 But thou shalt be desolate for ever, saith the LORD.
- 27 Set ye up a standard in the land,
 Blow the trumpet among the nations,
 Prepare the nations against her,
 Call together against her the kingdoms
 Of Ararat, Minni, and Ashchenaz;
 Appoint a captain against her;
 Cause the horses to come up as bristled locusts.
- 28 Prepare against her the nations with the kings of the Medes,
 The captains thereof, and all the rulers thereof,
 And all the land of his dominion.
- 29 And the land shall tremble and sorrow:
 For every purpose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon,
 To make the land of Babylon a desolation
 Without an inhabitant.

- 30 The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight,
They have remained in their holds :
Their might hath failed ;
They became as women :
They have burnt her dwellingplaces ;
Her bars are broken.
- 31 One post shall run to meet another,
And one messenger to meet another,
To show the king of Babylon
That his city is taken at one end,
- 32 And that the passages are stopped,
And the reeds they have burnt with fire,
And the men of war are affrighted.
- 33 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel ;
The daughter of Babylon is like a threshingfloor,
It is time to thresh her :
Yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come.
- 34 Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon hath devoured me,
He hath crushed me,
He hath made me an empty vessel,
He hath swallowed me up like a dragon,
He hath filled his belly with my delicacies,
He hath cast me out.
- 35 Let the violence done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon,
Shall the inhabitant of Zion say ;
And my blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldea,
Shall Jerusalem say.
- 36 Therefore thus saith the LORD ;
Behold, I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee ;
And I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry.
- 37 And Babylon shall become heaps,
A dwellingplace for dragons,
An astonishment, and a hissing,
Without an inhabitant.
- 38 They shall roar together like lions :
They shall yell as lions' whelps.
- 39 In their heat I will make their feasts,
And I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice,
And sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake,
Saith the LORD.
- 40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter,
Like rams with he-goats.
- 41 How is Sheshach taken !
And how is the praise of the whole earth surprised !
How is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations !
- 42 The sea is come up upon Babylon :
She is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof.
- 43 Her cities are a desolation,
A dry land, and a wilderness,
A land wherein no man dwelleth,
Neither doth any son of man pass thereby.
- 44 And I will punish Bel in Babylon,
And I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up :
And the nations shall not flow together any more unto him :
Yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall.
- 45 My people, go ye out of the midst of her,
And deliver ye every man his soul
From the fierce anger of the LORD.
- 46 And lest your heart faint,
And ye fear for the rumour that shall be heard in the land ;
A rumour shall both come one year,
And after that in another year shall come a rumour,
And violence in the land, ruler against ruler.

- 47 Therefore, behold, the days come,
 That I will do judgment upon the graven images of Babylon :
 And her whole land shall be confounded,
 And all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.
 48 Then the heavens and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon :
 For the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, saith the LORD.
 49 As Babylon hath caused the slain of Israel to fall,
 So at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the earth.
 50 Ye who have escaped the sword, go away,
 Stand not still :
 Remember the LORD afar off,
 And let Jerusalem come into your mind.
 51 We are confounded, because we have heard reproach :
 Shame hath covered our faces :
 For strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the LORD'S house.
 52 Wherefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD,
 That I will do judgment upon her graven images :
 And through all her land the wounded shall groan.
 53 Though Babylon should mount up to the heavens,
 And though she should fortify the height of her strength,
 Yet from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the LORD.
 54 The sound of a cry cometh from Babylon,
 And great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans :
 55 Because the LORD hath spoiled Babylon,
 And destroyed out of her the great voice ;
 When her waves did roar like great waters,
 A noise of their voice was uttered :
 56 Because the spoiler is come upon her,
 Even upon Babylon,
 And her mighty men are taken,
 Every one of their bows shall be broken :
 For the LORD God of recompences shall surely requite.
 57 And I will make drunk her princes, and her wise men,
 Her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men :
 And they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake,
 Saith the king, whose name is the LORD of hosts.
 58 Thus saith the LORD of hosts ;
 The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly broken,
 And her high gates shall be burnt with fire ;
 And the people shall labour in vain,
 And the fire shall devour their work, and they shall be weary.

THE word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the 59 son of Maaseiah, when he went on behalf of Zedekiah the king of Judah into Baby- 60 lon in the fourth year of his reign. And this Seraiah carried a present. So Jere- 60 miah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon. And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When thou 61 comest to Babylon, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words ; then shalt thou say, 62
 O LORD, thou hast spoken against this place, to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate for ever. And when thou 63 hast made an end of reading this book, thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of the Euphrates : and thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall 64 not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her : and they shall be weary.

Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

ZEDEKIAH was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he 52 reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. And he did that which was evil in the eyes of 2 the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. For the anger of the LORD 3 was against Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his presence. And Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

And in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the 4 month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about. So the city was 5 besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. And in the fourth month, on 6

- the ninth day of the month, the famine was great in the city, so that there was no 7 bread for the people of the land. Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were by the city 8 round about:) and they went by the way of the plain. But the army of the Chal-deans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and 9 all his army was scattered from him. Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon, to Riblah in the land of Hamath; where he gave judgment 10 upon him. And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he 11 slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah. Then he put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death.
- 12 Now in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, 13 who served the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem, and burnt the house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the 14 great men, burnt he with fire. And all the army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls of Jerusalem round about.
- 15 Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the people, and the residue of the people who remained in the city, and those 16 who fell away, who fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude. But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left certain of the poor of the land for vine-17 dressers and for husbandmen. Also the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brazen sea that was in the house of the LORD, 18 the Chaldeans broke, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon. The caldrons also, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and all the 19 vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away. And the basins, and the firepans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, and the lampholders, and the spoons, 20 and the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, took the captain of the guard away. The two pillars, one sea, and twelve brazen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of the LORD: the brass of all these vessels was without weight.
- 21 And concerning the pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a fillet of twelve cubits did compass it; and the thickness thereof was four fingers: it 22 was hollow. And a capital of brass was upon it; and the height of one capital was five cubits, with network and pomegranates upon the capitals round about, all of 23 brass. The second pillar also and the pomegranates were like unto these. And there were ninety and six pomegranates on a side; and all the pomegranates upon the network were a hundred round about.
- 24 And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the 25 second priest, and the three keepers of the door: he took also out of the city a eunuch, who had the charge of the men of war; and seven men of those who were near the king's person, who were found in the city; and the principal scribe of the host, who 26 mustered the people of the land; and threescore men of the people of the land, who were found in the midst of the city. So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard took 27 them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. And the king of Babylon smote them, and put them to death in Riblah in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive out of his own land.
- 28 This is the people whom Nebuchadnezzar carried away captive: in the seventh 29 year three thousand and twenty-three Jews: in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty and two persons:
 30 in the three and twentieth year of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuzar-adan, the captain of the guard, carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty and five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred.
- 31 AND in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the five and twentieth day of the month, Evil-merodach king of Babylon in the first year of his reign released Jehoiachin king of Judah, and 32 brought him forth out of prison, and spoke kindly unto him, and set his throne 33 above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon, and changed his prison garments: and he did continually eat bread before him all the days of his life.
 34 And for his diet, there was a continual rate given him of the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

THE LAMENTATIONS

OF

JEREMIAH.

- 1 HOW doth the city sit solitary, that was full of people !
How is she become as a widow, she who was great among the nations !
She who was sovereign among the provinces is become tributary.
- 2 She weepeth bitterly in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks :
Among all her lovers she hath none to comfort her :
All her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they are become her enemies.
- 3 Judah is gone into captivity for affliction, and for great servitude :
She dwelleth among the nations, she findeth no rest :
All her persecutors overtook her between the straits.
- 4 The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts :
All her gates are desolate : her priests sigh,
Her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.
- 5 Her adversaries are the chief, her enemies prosper ;
For the LORD hath afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions :
Her children are gone into captivity to the enemy.
- 6 And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed :
Her princes are become like harts that find no pasture,
And they are gone without strength before the pursuer.
- 7 Jerusalem remembered in the days of her affliction and of her miseries
All her desirable things that she had in the days of old ;
When her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her :
The adversaries saw her, and did mock at her destruction.
- 8 Jerusalem hath grievously sinned ; therefore she is removed :
All who once honoured her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness :
Yea, she sigheth, and turneth backwards.
- 9 Whilst her filthiness was in her skirts, she reflected not on her last end ;
Therefore she came down wonderfully : she had no comforter.
O LORD, behold my sorrow : for the enemy hath aggravated mine affliction.
- 10 The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her desirable things :
For she hath seen that the heathen entered into her sanctuary,
Whom thou didst command that they should not take office in thy congregation.
- 11 All her people sigh, they seek bread ;
They have given their desirable things for food to sustain life :
See, O LORD, and consider ; for I am become vile.
- 12 Is it nothing to you, all ye who pass by ?
Behold, and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me,
Wherewith the LORD hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.
- 13 From above hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaileth against them :
He hath spread a net for my feet, he hath turned me back :
He hath made me desolate and faint all the day.
- 14 The yoke of my transgressions is sprung up quickly : they are wreathed,
And come up upon my neck : he hath made my strength to fail,
The LORD hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up.
- 15 The LORD hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me :
He hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men :
The LORD hath trodden the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a winepress.
- 16 For these things I weep ; mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water,
Because the comforter who should restore my life is far from me :
My children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.
- 17 Zion spreadeth forth her hands, and there is none to comfort her :
The LORD hath commanded concerning Jacob, that his adversaries should be round about him :
Jerusalem is as an unclean woman among them.

LAMENTATIONS II.

- 18 The LORD is righteous; for I have rebelled against his commandment:
Hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow:
My virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.
 - 19 I called for my lovers, but they deceived me:
My priests and mine elders have expired in the city,
While they sought their food to sustain their lives.
 - 20 Behold, O LORD; for I am in distress: my bowels are troubled;
My heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled:
Abroad the sword bereaveth, at home there is pestilence.
 - 21 They have heard that I sigh; and yet there is none to comfort me:
All mine enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done it:
Thou wilt bring the day that thou hast predicted, and they shall be like unto me.
 - 22 Let all their wickedness come before thee;
And do unto them, as thou hast done unto me for all my transgressions:
For my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.
- 2 HOW hath the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger,
And east down from the heavens unto the earth the beauty of Israel,
And remembered not his footstool in the day of his anger!
- 2 The Lord hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied:
He hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah;
He hath brought them down to the ground: he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof.
 - 3 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel:
He hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy,
And he burnt against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.
 - 4 He hath bent his bow like an enemy, he stood with his right hand as an adversary,
And slew all who were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion:
He poured out his fury like fire.
 - 5 The Lord was as an enemy: he hath swallowed up Israel,
He hath swallowed up all her palaces: he hath destroyed his strong holds,
And hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.
 - 6 And he hath done violence to the garden of his own hedging: he hath destroyed his places of the assembly:
The LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion,
And hath despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest.
 - 7 The Lord hath cast off his altar, he hath overturned his sanctuary,
He hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces;
They have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast.
 - 8 The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion:
He hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from destroying:
Therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together.
 - 9 Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars:
Her king and her princes are among the Gentiles:
The law is no more; her prophets also find no vision from the LORD.
 - 10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground, and keep silence:
They have cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth:
The virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.
 - 11 Mine eyes do fail with tears, my bowels are troubled, my liver is poured upon the earth,
For the destruction of the daughter of my people;
Because the children and the sucklings faint in the streets of the city.
 - 12 They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine?
When they fainted as the wounded in the streets of the city,
When their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom.
 - 13 What thing shall I take to witness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem?
What shall I compare to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion?
For thy breach is great like the sea; who can heal thee?
 - 14 Thy prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee:
And they have not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity;
But have seen for thee false burdens and causes of banishment.
 - 15 All who pass by the way clap their hands at thee;

LAMENTATIONS III.

- They hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying,
Is this the city that men call The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth ?
- 16 All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee :
They hiss and gnash the teeth : they say, We have swallowed her up :
Certainly this is the day that we looked for ; we have found, we have seen it.
- 17 The LORD hath done that which he had devised ; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days old :
He hath thrown down, and hath not pitied : and he hath caused thine enemy to rejoice over thee,
He hath set up the horn of thine adversaries.
- 18 Their heart cried unto the Lord, O wall of the daughter of Zion,
Let tears run down like a river day and night :
Give thyself no rest ; let not the apple of thine eye cease.
- 19 Arise, cry out in the night : in the beginning of the watches
Pour out thy heart like water before the face of the Lord :
Lift up thy hands towards him for the life of thy young children,
Who faint for hunger in the top of every street.
- 20 Behold, O LORD, and consider to whom thou hast done this.
Shall the women eat the fruit of their womb ; children of a span long ?
Shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the LORD ?
- 21 The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets :
My virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword ;
Thou hast slain them in the day of thine anger ; thou hast killed, and not pitied.
- 22 Thou hast called as in a solemn day my terrors round about,
So that in the day of the LORD'S anger none escaped nor remained :
Those whom I have fostered and brought up hath mine enemy consumed.
- 3 I AM the man who hath seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.
He hath led me, and brought me into darkness, but not into light.
3 Surely against me is he turned ; he turneth his hand against me all the day.
- 4 My flesh and my skin hath he made old ; he hath broken my bones.
5 He hath built against me, and compassed me with gall and travail.
6 He hath made me to dwell in dark places, as the dead of old.
- 7 He hath hedged me about, that I cannot get out : he hath made my chain heavy.
8 Also when I cry and shout, he shutteth out my prayer.
9 He hath enclosed my ways with hewn stone, he hath made my paths crooked.
- 10 He was unto me as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places.
11 He hath turned full upon me, and torn me in pieces : he hath made me desolate.
12 He hath bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow.
- 13 He hath caused the arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.
14 I was a derision to all my people ; and their song all the day.
15 He hath filled me with bitterness, he hath made me drunk with wormwood.
- 16 He hath also broken my teeth with gravel stones, he hath covered me with ashes.
17 And thou hast removed my soul far off from peace : I forgot prosperity.
18 And I said, My strength and my hope are perished from the LORD.
- 19 Remembering mine affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall.
20 My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is humbled within me.
21 This I recall to my mind, therefore have I hope.
- 22 It is of the LORD'S mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not.
23 They are new every morning : great is thy faithfulness.
24 The LORD is my portion, saith my soul ; therefore will I hope in him.
- 25 The LORD is good unto those who wait for him, to the soul who seeketh him.
26 It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD.
27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.
- 28 He sitteth alone and keepeth silence, because he hath laid it upon him.
29 He putteth his mouth in the dust ; if so be there may be hope.
30 He giveth his cheek to him who smiteth him : he is filled full with reproach.
- 31 For the LORD will not cast off for ever :
32 But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.
33 For he doth not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men.

LAMENTATIONS IV.

- 34 To crush under his feet all the prisoners of the earth,
 - 35 To turn aside the right of a man before the face of the Most High,
 - 36 To subvert a man in his cause, the LORD approveth not.
 - 37 Who is he who saith, and it cometh to pass, when the LORD commandeth it not ?
 - 38 Out of the mouth of the Most High proceedeth not evil and good ?
 - 39 Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins ?
 - 40 Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the LORD.
 - 41 Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens.
 - 42 We have transgressed and have rebelled : thou hast not pardoned.
 - 43 Thou hast covered with anger, and persecuted us : thou hast slain, thou hast not pitied.
 - 44 Thou hast covered thyself with a cloud, that our prayer should not pass through.
 - 45 Thou hast made us as the offscouring and refuse in the midst of the people.
 - 46 All our enemies have opened their mouths against us.
 - 47 Fear and a snare is come upon us, desolation and destruction.
 - 48 Mine eye runneth down with rivers of water for the destruction of the daughter of my people.
 - 49 Mine eye tricketh down, and ceaseth not, without any intermission,
 - 50 Till the LORD look down, and behold from heaven.
 - 51 Mine eye affecteth my heart because of all the daughters of my city.
 - 52 Mine enemies chased me sore, like a bird, without cause.
 - 53 They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and cast a stone upon me.
 - 54 Waters flowed over my head ; then I said, I am cut off.
 - 55 I called upon thy name, O LORD, out of the low dungeon.
 - 56 Thou hast heard my voice, which said, Hide not thine ear at my breathing, at my cry.
 - 57 Thou drewest near in the day I called upon thee : thou saidst, Fear not.
 - 58 O LORD, thou hast pleaded the cause of my soul ; thou hast redeemed my life.
 - 59 O LORD, thou hast seen my wrong : judge thou my cause.
 - 60 Thou hast seen all their vengeance and all their imaginations against me.
 - 61 Thou hast heard their reproach, O LORD, and all their imaginations against me ;
 - 62 The lips of those who rose up against me, and their devices against me all the day.
 - 63 Behold, at their sitting down, and their rising up, I am their music.
 - 64 Thou wilt render unto them a recompence, O LORD, according to the work of their hands.
 - 65 Thou wilt give them sorrow of heart, thy curse unto them.
 - 66 Thou wilt persecute and destroy them in anger from under the heavens, O LORD.
- 4 HOW is the gold become dim ! how is the most fine gold changed !
The stones of the sanctuary are poured out at the top of every street.
- 2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold,
How are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter !
 - 3 Even the sea monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones :
The daughter of my people is become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.
 - 4 The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst :
The young children ask bread, and no man breaketh it unto them.
 - 5 Those who fed delicately are desolate in the streets :
Those who were brought up in scarlet, embrace dunghills.
 - 6 For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom,
That was overthrown as in a moment, without the hands of men.
 - 7 Her Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk,
They were more ruddy than rubies, their veining was of sapphire :
 - 8 Their visage is blacker than a coal ; they are not known in the streets :
Their skin cleaveth to their bones ; it is withered, it is become like a stick.
 - 9 Those who are slain with the sword are better than those who are slain with hunger :
For these pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.
 - 10 The hands of the tender-hearted women have sodden their own children :
They were their food in the destruction of the daughter of my people.
 - 11 The LORD hath accomplished his fury ; he hath poured out his fierce anger,
And hath kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.
 - 12 The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed
That the adversary and the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem.

LAMENTATIONS V.

- 13 For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests,
Who have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her, 14 They have wandered as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood,
So that their garments could not be touched.
15 They cried unto them, Depart ye, ye are unclean; depart ye, depart ye, touch not:
When they fled away and wandered, they said among the nations, They shall no more sojourn there.
16 The anger of the LORD hath divided them; he will no more regard them:
They respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders.
17 As for us, our eyes failed in looking vainly for our help:
In our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us.
18 They hunt our steps, that we cannot go in our streets:
Our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come.
19 Our persecutors are swifter than the eagles of the heavens:
They pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.
20 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD, was taken in their pits,
Of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the nations.
21 Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, who dwellest in the land of Uz;
The cup also shall pass through unto thee: thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.
22 The punishment of thine iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Zion; he will no more carry thee away into captivity:
He will visit thine iniquity, O daughter of Edom; he will carry thee away captive for thy sins.

5 REMEMBER, O LORD, what is come upon us:

- Consider, and behold our reproach.
2 Our inheritance is turned to strangers,
Our houses to aliens.
3 We are orphans and fatherless,
Our mothers are as widows.
4 We have drunk our water for money;
Our wood is sold unto us.
5 Our necks are under persecution:
We labour, and have no rest.
6 We have submitted to the Egyptians,
And to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.
7 Our fathers have sinned, and are not;
And we have borne the punishment of their iniquities.
8 Servants have ruled over us:
There is none to deliver us out of their hand.
9 We got our bread with the peril of our lives
Because of the sword of the wilderness.
10 Our skin was black like an oven
Because of the terrible famine.
11 They ravished the women in Zion,
And the maids in the cities of Judah.
12 Princes are hanged up by their hand:
The faces of elders were not honoured.
13 They took the young men to grind,
And the children fell under the burdens of wood.
14 The elders have ceased from the gate,
The young men from their music.
15 The joy of our heart is ceased;
Our dance is turned into mourning.
16 The crown is fallen from our head:
Woe unto us, that we have sinned!
17 For this our hearts are faint;
For these things our eyes are dim.
18 Because of the mountain of Zion, which is desolate,
The foxes walk upon it.
19 Thou, O LORD, remainest for ever;
Thy throne from generation to generation.

- 20 Wherefore dost thou forget us for ever?
And forsake us so long time?
21 Turn thou us unto thee, O LORD,
And we shall be turned; renew our days as of old.
22 But wilt thou utterly reject us?
Thou art very wroth against us.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET

EZEKIEL.

- 1 NOW in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I
2 was among the captives by the river of Chebar, the heavens were opened, and I saw
3 visions of God. On the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of king
4 Jehoiachin's captivity, the word of the LORD came expressly unto Ezekiel the 5 priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and the 6 hand of the LORD was there upon him.
7 And I looked, and, behold, a whirlwind came out of the north, a great cloud, and 8 a fire infolding itself, and a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof as 9 the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire.
10 Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And this 11 was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man. And every one had four 12 faces, and every one had four wings. And their feet were straight feet; and the sole 13 of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled like the colour of 14 burnished brass. And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four 15 sides; and they four had their faces and their wings. Their wings were joined one 16 to another; they turned not when they went; they went every one straight for-17 wards. As for the likeness of their faces, they four had the face of a man, and the 18 face of a lion, on the right side: and they four had the face of an ox on the left side;
19 they four also had the face of an eagle. Thus were their faces: and their wings were 20 stretched upwards; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and two 21 covered their bodies. And they went every one straight forwards: whither the spirit 22 was to go, they went; and they turned not when they went. As for the likeness of 23 the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, and like the 24 appearance of flames of fire: it went up and down among the living creatures; and 25 the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning. And the living creatures 26 ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.
27 Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold one wheel upon the earth by the 28 living creatures, at his four faces. The appearance of the wheels and their work 29 was like unto the colour of a topaz: and they four had one likeness: and their ap-30 pearance and their work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel. When 31 they went, they went upon their four sides: and they turned not when they went.
32 As for their outer circles, they were so high that they were dreadful; and their 33 outer circles were full of eyes round about them four.
34 And when the living creatures went, the wheels went by them: and when the living
35 creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up. Whithersoever 36 the spirit was to go, they went, thither was their spirit to go; and the wheels were 37 lifted up over against them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.
38 When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those 39 were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the 40 spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.
41 And the likeness of the firmament over the heads of the living creature was as the 42 colour of a sparkling crystal, stretched forth over their heads above. And under the 43 firmament were their wings straight, the one towards the other: every one had two, 44 which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their 45 bodies. And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of great waters, as the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of a host : when they stood, they let down their wings. And there was a voice from 25 above the firmament that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings.

And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, 26 as the appearance of a sapphire stone : and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it. And I saw as the colour of am- 27 ber, from the appearance of his loins even upwards, and from the appearance of his loins even downwards, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and brightness was round about him. As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of 28 rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about.

This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one who spoke. And he said un- 2 to me, Son of man, stand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee. And the spirit entered into me when he spoke unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him who spoke unto me. And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children 3 of Israel, to a rebellious nation that hath rebelled against me : they and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day. For they are impudent 4 children and stiffhearted. I do send thee unto them ; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God. And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will 5 forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet shall know that there hath been a prophet among them.

And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, 6 though briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions : be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house. And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or 7 whether they will forbear : for they are most rebellious.

But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee ; Be not thou rebellious like that 8 rebellious house : open thy mouth, and eat that I give thee. And when I looked, 9 behold, a hand was sent unto me ; and, lo, a roll of a book was therein ; and he spread it before me : and it was written within and without : and there was written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou findest ; eat this roll, and go 3 speak unto the house of Israel. So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that roll. And he said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy 3 bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I eat it ; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness. And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the 4 house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them. For thou art not sent to a 5 people of a strange speech and of a hard language, but to the house of Israel ; not to many people, whose words thou canst not understand. Surely, had I sent thee to 6 them, they would have hearkened unto thee. But the house of Israel will not 7 hearken unto thee ; for they will not hearken unto me : for all the house of Israel are impudent and hardhearted. Behold, I have made thy face strong against their 8 faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads. As an adamant harder than 9 flint have I made thy forehead : fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house.

Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee, 10 receive in thy heart, and hear with thine ears. And go, get thee to them of the 11 captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord God ; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

Then the spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, 12 saying, Blessed be the glory of the LORD from his place. I heard also the noise of 13 the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels over against them, and a noise of a great rushing. So the spirit lifted me 14 up, and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit ; but the hand of the LORD was strong upon me. Then I came to them of the captivity at 15 Tel-abib, who dwelt by the river of Chebar, and I sat where they sat, and remained there astonished among them seven days.

And at the end of seven days, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son 16 of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel : therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me. When I say unto the wicked, 18 Thou shalt surely die ; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life ; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity ; but his blood will I require at thy hand. Yet if thou warn the wicked, 19 and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

- 20 Again, When a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumblingblock before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done 21 shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thy hand. Nevertheless if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is warned; also thou hast delivered thy soul.

- 22 AND the hand of the LORD was upon me; and he said unto me, Arise, go forth
23 into the plain, and I will there talk with thee. Then I arose, and went forth into the plain: and, behold, the glory of the LORD stood there, as the glory which I
24 saw by the river of Chebar: and I fell on my face. Then the spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet, and spoke with me, and said unto me, Go, shut thyself
25 within thy house. But thou, O son of man, behold, they shall put bands upon 26 thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them: and I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and 27 shalt not be to them a reprover: for they are a rebellious house. But when I speak with thee, I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; He who heareth, let him hear; and he who forbeareth, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

- 4 THOU also, son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and pourtray upon it the city, even Jerusalem: and lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, and set battering rams against 3 it round about. Moreover take thou unto thee an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: and set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

- 4 Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear
5 their iniquity. For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the 6 iniquity of the house of Israel. And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee each day for a year.

- 7 Therefore thou shalt set thy face towards the siege of Jerusalem, and thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it. And, behold, I will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee from one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy siege.

- 9 Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and vetches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, three hundred and ninety 10 days shalt thou eat thereof. And thy food which thou shalt eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it. Thou shalt drink also 12 water by measure, the sixth part of a hin: from time to time shalt thou drink. And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man, in their sight.

- 13 And the LORD said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread 14 among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them. Then said I, Ah Lord God! behold, my soul hath not been polluted: for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth.

- 15 Then he said unto me, Lo, I have given thee cow's dung for man's dung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread therewith.

- 16 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with care; and they shall drink 17 water by measure, and with astonishment: that they may want bread and water, and be astonished one with another, and consume away for their iniquity.

- 5 And thou, son of man, take thee a sharp instrument, take thee a barber's razor, and cause it to pass upon thy head and upon thy beard: then take thee balances to
2 weigh, and divide the hair. Thou shalt burn with fire a third part in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled: and thou shalt take a third part, and smite about it with a knife: and a third part thou shalt scatter in the wind; and I
3 will draw out a sword after them. Thou shalt also take thereof a few in number, and 4 and bind them in thy skirts. Then take of them again, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire ; for thereof shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel.

- 5 Thus saith the Lord God ;
This is Jerusalem :
I have set her in the midst of the nations
And countries that are round about her.
- 6 And she hath changed my judgments into wickedness more than the nations,
And my statutes more than the countries that are round about her :
For they have refused my judgments and my statutes,
They have not walked in them.
- 7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God ;
Because ye are rebellious more than the nations that are round about you,
And have not walked in my statutes,
Neither have kept my judgments,
But have done according to the judgments
Of the nations that are round about you ;
- 8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God ;
Behold, I, even I, am against thee,
And will execute judgments in the midst of thee
In the sight of the nations.
- 9 And I will do in thee that which I have not done,
And whereunto I will not do any more the like,
Because of all thine abominations.
- 10 Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee,
And the sons shall eat their fathers ;
And I will execute judgments in thee,
And the whole remnant of thee will I scatter
Towards all the winds.
- 11 Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord God ;
Surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things,
And with all thine abominations,
Therefore will I also diminish thee ;
Neither shall mine eye spare,
Neither will I have any pity.
- 12 A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence,
And with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee :
And a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee ;
And I will scatter a third part to all the winds,
And I will draw out a sword after them.
- 13 Thus shall mine anger be accomplished,
And I will cause my fury to rest upon them,
And I will be comforted :
And they shall know that I the LORD have spoken it in my zeal,
When I have accomplished my fury in them.
- 14 Moreover I will make thee waste,
And a reproach among the nations that are round about thee,
In the sight of all who pass by.
- 15 So it shall be a reproach and a taunt,
An instruction and an astonishment
Unto the nations that are round about thee,
When I shall execute judgments in thee
In anger and in fury and in furious rebukes.
I the LORD have spoken it.
- 16 When I shall send upon you the evil arrows of famine
Which are for destruction,
And which I will send to destroy you :
I will both increase the famine upon you,
And will break your staff of bread :
- 17 I will also send upon you famine and wild beasts,
And they shall bereave thee ;
And pestilence and blood shall pass through thee ;
And I will bring the sword upon thee.
I the LORD have spoken it.

6 AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face towards the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them, and say,

Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God;
Thus saith the Lord God to the mountains, and to the hills,
To the rivers, and to the valleys;
Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you,
And I will destroy your high places.

4 And your altars shall be desolate,
And your images shall be broken:
And I will cast down your slain men before your idols.
5 And I will lay the dead carcases of the children of Israel
Before their idols;

And I will scatter your bones
Round about your altars.

6 In all your dwellingplaces the cities shall be laid waste,
And the high places shall be desolate;
That your altars may be laid waste and made desolate,
And your idols may be broken and cease,
And your images may be cut down,
And your works may be abolished.

7 And the slain shall fall in the midst of you,
And ye shall know that I am the LORD.

8 Yet will I leave a remnant,
That ye may have some who shall escape the sword among the nations,
When ye shall be scattered through the countries.
9 And those who escape of you shall remember me
Among the nations whither they shall be carried captives,
Because I am broken
With their idolatrous heart, which hath departed from me,
And with their eyes, which go astray after their idols:
And they shall loathe themselves for the evils which they have committed
In all their abominations.

10 And they shall know that I am the LORD,
And that I have not said in vain
That I would do this evil unto them.

11 Thus saith the Lord God;
Smite with thy hand,
And stamp with thy foot, and say,
Alas for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel!
For they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.

12 He who is far off shall die of the pestilence;
And he who is near shall fall by the sword;
And he who remaineth and is besieged shall die by the famine:
Thus will I accomplish my fury upon them.

13 Then shall ye know that I am the LORD,
When their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars,
Upon every high hill, in all the tops of the mountains,
And under every green tree, and under every thick oak,
The place where they did offer sweet savour to all their idols.

14 So will I stretch out my hand upon them,
And make the land desolate,
Yea, more desolate than the wilderness towards Diblah,
In all their habitations:
And they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Also, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord God unto the land of Israel;

An end, the end is come
Upon the four corners of the land.

3 Now is the end come upon thee,
And I will send mine anger upon thee,
And will judge thee according to thy ways,
And will recompense upon thee all thine abominations.

4 And mine eye shall not spare thee,

- Neither will I have pity :
 But I will recompense thy ways upon thee,
 And thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee :
 And ye shall know that I am the LORD.
- 5 Thus saith the Lord God ;
 An evil, after evil, behold, is come.
- 6 An end is come, the end is come :
 It watcheth for thee ; behold, it is come.
- 7 The morning is come unto thee, O thou who dwellest in the land :
 The time is come, the day of trouble is near,
 And not of joyful shouting of the mountains.
- 8 Now will I shortly pour out my fury upon thee,
 And accomplish mine anger upon thee :
 And I will judge thee according to thy ways,
 And will recompense thee for all thine abominations.
- 9 And mine eye shall not spare,
 Neither will I have pity :
 I will recompense thee according to thy ways
 And thine abominations that are in the midst of thee ;
 And ye shall know that I am the LORD who smiteth.
- 10 Behold the day, behold, it is come :
 The morning is gone forth ;
 The rod hath blossomed, pride hath budded.
- 11 Violence is risen up into a rod of wickedness :
 None of them shall remain, nor of their tumultuous multitude, nor of any of theirs :
 Neither shall there be wailing for them.
- 12 The time is come, the day draweth near :
 Let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn :
 For wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.
- 13 For the seller shall not return to that which is sold,
 Although they were yet alive :
 For the vision is touching the whole multitude thereof,
 Which shall not return ;
 Neither shall any strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life.
- 14 They have blown the trumpet, even to make all ready ;
 But none goeth to the battle :
 For my wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.
- 15 The sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within :
 He who is in the field shall die with the sword ;
 And he who is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him.
- 16 But those who are to escape of them shall escape,
 And shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys,
 All of them mourning, every one for his iniquity.
- 17 All hands shall be feeble,
 And all knees shall be weak as water.
- 18 They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth,
 And horror shall cover them ;
 And shame shall be upon all faces,
 And baldness upon all their heads.
- 19 They shall cast their silver in the streets,
 And their gold shall be removed :
 Their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them
 In the day of the wrath of the LORD :
 They shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels :
 Because it is the stumblingblock of their iniquity.
- 20 As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty :
 But they made the images of their abominations
 And of their detestable things therein :
 Therefore have I set it far from them.
- 21 And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey,
 And to the wicked of the earth for a spoil ;
 And they shall pollute it.
- 22 My face will I turn also from them,

- And they shall pollute my secret place :
 For the robbers shall enter into it, and defile it.
- 23 Make a chain :
 For the land is full of bloody crimes,
 And the city is full of violence.
- 24 Wherefore I will bring the worst of the nations,
 And they shall possess their houses :
 I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease ;
 And they shall inherit their palaces.
- 25 Destruction cometh ;
 And they shall seek peace, and there shall be none.
- 26 Mischief shall come upon mischief, and rumour shall be upon rumour ;
 Then shall they seek a vision of the prophet ;
 But the law shall perish from the priest,
 And counsel from the ancients.
- 27 The king shall mourn,
 And the princes shall be clothed with desolation,
 And the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled :
 I will do unto them after their way,
 And according to their deserts will I judge them ;
 And they shall know that I am the LORD.
- 8 AND in the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, the hand of the Lord God fell there upon me. Then I beheld, and, lo, a likeness as the appearance of a man : from the appearance of his loins even downwards, fire ; and from his loins even upwards, as the colour of amber. And he put forth the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head ; and the spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heavens, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh towards the north ; where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provoketh to jealousy. And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plain.
- 5 Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way towards the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way towards the north, and, behold, northwards at the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry. He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do ? even the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that I should be provoked to go far off from my sanctuary ? but turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations.
- 7 And he brought me to the door of the court ; and when I looked, behold, a hole in the wall. Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall : and when I had digged in the wall, behold, a door. And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here. So I went in and saw ; and, behold, every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, pourtrayed upon the wall round about. And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand ; and a thick cloud of incense went up. Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery ? for they say, The LORD seeth us not ; the LORD hath forsaken the earth.
- 13 He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do. Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD'S house which was towards the north ; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz. Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man ? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.
- 16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD'S house, and behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs towards the temple of the LORD, and their faces towards the east ; and they worshipped the sun towards the east. Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man ? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here ? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger : and, lo, they supply fuel for my resentment. Therefore will I also deal in fury : mine eyes shall not spare, neither will I have pity : and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

He cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause those who have charge 9 over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand. And, behold, six men came from the way of the higher gate, which lieth 2 towards the north, and every man with a slaughter weapon in his hand; and one man among them was clothed with linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side: and they went in, and stood beside the brazen altar. And the glory of the God of Israel 3 was gone up from above the cherub, whereupon he was, to the threshold of the house.

And he called to the man clothed with linen, who had the writer's inkhorn by his side; and the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through 4 the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men who sigh and who cry for all the abominations that are done in the midst thereof. And to the 5 others he said in my hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity: slay utterly old and young, both maids, and 6 little children, and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark;
and begin at my sanctuary.

Then they began at the ancient men who were before the house. And he said 7 unto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And they went forth, and slew in the city.

And while they were slaying them, and I was left, I fell upon my face, and cried, 8 and said, Ah Lord God! wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem? Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of 9 Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perverseness: for they say, The LORD hath forsaken the earth, and the LORD seeth not. And as for me also, mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, 10 but I will recompense their way upon their head.

And, behold, the man clothed with linen, who had the inkhorn by his side, reported 11
the matter, saying, I have done as thou hast commanded me.

Then I looked, and, behold, in the firmament that was above the head of the 10
cherubims there appeared over them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne. And he spoke unto the man clothed with linen, and said, 2 Go in between the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill thy hand with coals of fire from between the cherubims, and scatter them over the city. And he went in in my sight.

Now the cherubims stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; 3 and the cloud filled the inner court. Then the glory of the LORD went up from above 4 the cherubs, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD'S glory. And the 5 sound of the cherubims' wings was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh.

And when he had commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, Take fire from 6 between the wheels, from between the cherubims; then he went in, and stood beside the wheels. And one cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubims 7 unto the fire that was between the cherubims, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of him who was clothed with linen: who took it, and went out.

And there appeared in the cherubims the form of a man's hand under their 8 wings. And when I looked, behold, the four wheels by the cherubims, one wheel 9 by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was as the colour of a topaz stone. And as for their appearances, they four 10 had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel. When they went, 11 they went upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went. And their 12 whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the wheels that they four had. As for the 13 wheels, it was cried unto them in my hearing, O wheel. And every one had four 14 faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle. And 15 the cherubims were lifted up. This is the living creature that I saw by the river of Chebar.

And when the cherubims went, the wheels went by them: and when the cherubims 16 lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside them. When they stood, these stood; and when they were lifted up, 17 these lifted up themselves also: for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

Then the glory of the LORD departed from off the threshold of the house, and 18

19 stood over the cherubims. And the cherubims lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight : when they went out, the wheels also were beside them, and every one stood at the door of the east gate of the LORD'S house ; and the glory
 20 of the God of Israel was over them above.—This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river of Chebar ; and I knew that they were the cherubims. Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings ; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. And the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the river of Chebar, their appearances and themselves : they went every one straight forwards.

11 Moreover the spirit lifted me up, and brought me unto the east gate of the LORD'S house, which looketh eastwards : and, behold, at the door of the gate five and twenty men ; among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of Azur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people. Then said he unto me, Son of man, these are the men who devise mischief, and give wicked counsel in this city : who say, It is not near ;
 4 let us build houses : this city is the caldron, and we are the flesh. Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man. And the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and said unto me, Speak ;

Thus saith the LORD ;

Thus have ye said, O house of Israel :

For I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them.

6 Ye have multiplied your slain in this city,

And ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God ;

Your slain whom ye have laid in the midst of it,

They are the flesh, and this city is the caldron :

But I will bring you forth out of the midst of it.

8 Ye have feared the sword ;

And I will bring a sword upon you, saith the Lord God.

9 And I will bring you out of the midst thereof,

And deliver you into the hands of strangers,

And will execute judgments among you.

10 Ye shall fall by the sword ;

I will judge you in the border of Israel ;

And ye shall know that I am the LORD.

11 This city shall not be your caldron,

Neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof,

But I will judge you in the border of Israel :

12 And ye shall know that I am the LORD :

Because ye have not walked in my statutes,

Neither executed my judgments,

But have done after the manners of the nations round about you.

13 And when I prophesied, Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord God ! wilt thou make

14 a full end of the remnant of Israel ? Again the word of the LORD came unto me,

15 saying, Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get

16 you far from the LORD : unto us is this land given in possession. Therefore say,

Thus saith the Lord God ;

Although I have cast them far off among the nations,

And although I have scattered them among the countries,

Yet will I be to them as a little sanctuary

In the countries where they shall come.

17 Therefore say,

Thus saith the Lord God ;

I will even gather you from the people,

And assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered,

And I will give you the land of Israel.

18 And they shall come thither,

And they shall take away all the detestable things thereof

And all the abominations thereof from thence.

19 And I will give them one heart,

And I will put a new spirit within them ;

And I will take the stony heart out of their flesh,

- And will give them a heart of flesh :
 20 That they may walk in my statutes,
 And keep mine ordinances, and do them :
 And they shall be my people, and I will be their God.
 21 But as for those whose heart walketh after
 The heart of their detestable things and their abominations,
 I will recompense their way upon their own heads,
 Saith the Lord God.

Then did the cherubims lift up their wings, and the wheels beside them; and 22 the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. And the glory of the LORD 23 went up from the midst of the city, and stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city.

Afterwards the spirit took me up, and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of 24
 God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me. Then I spoke unto them of the captivity all the things that the LORD 25 had showed me.

THE word of the LORD also came unto me, saying, Son of man, thou dwellest in 12
 the midst of a rebellious house, who have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: for they are a rebellious house. Therefore, thou son of 3 man, prepare thee stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they be a rebellious house. Then shalt thou bring forth thy stuff 4 by day in their sight, as stuff for removing: and thou shalt go forth at evening in their sight, as those who go forth into captivity. Dig thou through the wall in their 5 sight, and carry out thereby. In their sight shalt thou bear the stuff upon thy 6 shoulders, and carry it forth in the thick darkness: thou shalt cover thy face, that thou see not the ground: for I have set thee for a sign unto the house of Israel.

And I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for 7 captivity, and in the evening I digged through the wall with my hand; I brought it forth in the thick darkness, and I bore it upon my shoulder in their sight. And in 8 the morning came the word of the LORD unto me, saying, Son of man, hath not 9 the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said unto thee, What doest thou? Say 10 thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord God;

This prediction concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel who are among them.

- 11 Say, I am your sign:
 Like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them:
 They shall remove and go into captivity.
 12 And the prince who is among them shall bear upon his shoulder
 In the thick darkness, and shall go forth:
 They shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby:
 He shall cover his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes.
 13 My net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare:
 And I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans;
 Yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there.
 14 And I will scatter towards every wind
 All who are about him to help him, and all his bands;
 And I will draw out the sword after them.
 15 And they shall know that I am the LORD,
 When I shall scatter them among the nations,
 And disperse them in the countries.
 16 But I will leave a few men of them
 From the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence;
 That they may declare all their abominations
 Among the nations whither they come;
 And they shall know that I am the LORD.

- 17 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
 18 Son of man, eat thy bread with quaking,
 And drink thy water with trembling and with carefulness;
 19 And say unto the people of the land,
 Thus saith the Lord God
 Of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and of the land of Israel;

- They shall eat their bread with carefulness,
 And drink their water with astonishment,
 That her land may be desolate from all that is therein,
 Because of the violence of all those who dwell therein.
- 20 And the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste,
 And the land shall be desolate;
 And ye shall know that I am the LORD.
- 21 22 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, what is that proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, The days are prolonged, and 23 every vision faileth? Tell them therefore,
 Thus saith the Lord God;
 I will make this proverb to cease,
 And they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel;
 But say unto them, The days are at hand,
 And the effect of every vision.
- 24 For there shall be no more any vain vision
 Nor flattering divination within the house of Israel.
- 25 For I am the LORD: I will speak,
 And the word that I shall speak shall come to pass;
 It shall be no more prolonged:
 For in your days, O rebellious house, will I say the word,
 And will perform it, saith the Lord God.
- 26 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
 27 Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say,
 The vision that he seeth is for many days to come,
 And he prophesieth of the times that are far off.
- 28 Therefore say unto them,
 Thus saith the Lord God;
 There shall none of my words be prolonged any more,
 But the word which I have spoken shall be done,
 Saith the Lord God.
- 13 AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who prophesy, and say thou unto those who prophesy out of their own hearts,
 Hear ye the word of the LORD;
- 3 Thus saith the Lord God;
 Woe unto the foolish prophets,
 Who follow their own spirit, and have looked to that which hath no existence!
- 4 O Israel, thy prophets are like the foxes in the deserts.
- 5 Ye have not gone up into the gaps,
 Neither made up the hedge for the house of Israel
 To stand in the battle in the day of the LORD.
- 6 They have seen vanity and lying divination, saying,
 The LORD saith: and the LORD hath not sent them:
 And they have made others to hope
 That they would confirm the word.
- 7 Have ye not seen a vain vision,
 And have ye not spoken a lying divination,
 Whereas ye say, The LORD saith it;
 Although I have not spoken?
- 8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God;
 Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies,
 Therefore, behold, I am against you,
 Saith the Lord God.
- 9 And my hand shall be upon the prophets
 Who see vanity, and who divine lies:
 They shall not be in the assembly of my people,
 Neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel,
 Neither shall they enter into the land of Israel;
 And ye shall know that I am the Lord God.
- 10 Because, even because they have seduced my people, Saying, Peace; and there was no peace;

- And one built up a wall,
And, lo, others daubed it with untempered mortar.
- 11 Say unto those who daub it with untempered mortar, that it shall fall :
There shall be an overflowing shower ;
And ye, O great hailstones, shall fall ;
And a stormy wind shall rend it.
- 12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said unto you,
Where is the daubing wherewith ye have daubed it ?
- 13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God ;
I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury ;
And there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger,
And great hailstones in my fury to consume it.
- 14 So will I break down the wall
That ye have daubed with untempered mortar,
And bring it down to the ground,
So that the foundation thereof shall be discovered,
And it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof :
And ye shall know that I am the LORD.
- 15 Thus will I accomplish my wrath upon the wall,
And upon those who have daubed it with untempered mortar,
And will say unto you, The wall is no more,
Neither those who daubed it ;
- 16 Even the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem,
And who see visions of peace for her,
And there is no peace, saith the Lord God.
- 17 Likewise, thou son of man,
Set thy face against the daughters of thy people,
Who prophesy out of their own hearts ;
- 18 And prophesy thou against them, and say,
Thus saith the Lord God ;
Woe to the women who sew pillows to all armpits,
And make turbans upon the head of every statue to lay snares for souls !
Shall ye lay snares for the souls of my people,
And yet save your own souls alive ?
- 19 And will ye dishonour me among my people
For handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread,
To slay the souls that should not die,
And to save the souls alive that should not live,
By your lying to my people who hear your lies ?
- 20 Wherefore thus saith the Lord God ;
Behold, I am against your pillows,
Wherewith ye lay snares for the souls, that they may escape,
And I will tear them from your arms,
And will let the souls go,
Even the souls that ye lay snares for, that they may escape.
- 21 Your turbans also will I tear,
And deliver my people out of your hand,
And they shall be no more in your hand to be snared ;
And ye shall know that I am the LORD.
- 22 Because with lies ye have made the hearts of the righteous sad,
Whom I have not made sad ;
And strengthened the hands of the wicked,
That he should not return from his wicked way,
By promising him life :
- 23 Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor divine divinations :
For I will deliver my people out of your hand :
And ye shall know that I am the LORD.

THEN came certain of the elders of Israel unto me, and sat before me. And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their hearts, and put the stumblingblock of their iniquity before their face : should I be inquired of at all by them ? Therefore speak unto them, and say unto 4 them, Thus saith the Lord God ; Every man of the house of Israel who setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face,

- and cometh to the prophet; I the LORD will answer him who cometh according to the multitude of his idols; that I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols.
- 6 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; Repent, and turn from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations. For every one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger who sojourneth in Israel, who separateth himself from me, and setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to a prophet to inquire of him concerning me; I the LORD will answer him by myself: and I will set my face against that man, and will make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.
- 9 And if the prophet be deceived when he hath spoken a thing, I the LORD have suffered that prophet to be deceived, and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel. And they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity: the punishment of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him who seeketh unto him; that the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, neither be polluted any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, saith the Lord God.
- 12 13 THE word of the LORD came again to me, saying, Son of man, when the land sinneth against me by trespassing grievously, and I stretch out my hand upon it, and break the staff of the bread thereof, and send famine upon it, and cut off man and beast from it: though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, saith the Lord God.
- 15 If I cause noisome beasts to pass through the land, and they spoil it, so that it be desolate, that no man may pass through because of the beasts: though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they should deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only should be delivered, but the land shall be desolate.
- 17 Or if I bring a sword upon that land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off man and beast from it: though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they should deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only should be delivered themselves.
- 19 Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my fury upon it in blood, to cut off from it man and beast: though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they should deliver neither son nor daughter; they should but deliver their own souls by their righteousness.
- 21 For thus saith the Lord God; How much more when I send my four sore judgments upon Jerusalem, (the sword, and the famine, and the noisome beast, and the pestilence,) to cut off from it man and beast? yet, behold, therein shall be left a remnant that shall bring forth sons and daughters: behold, they shall come forth unto you, and ye shall see their way and their doings: and ye shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought upon it. And they shall comfort you, when ye see their ways and their doings: and ye shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it, saith the Lord God.

15 AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
Son of man, What is the wood of the vine more than any other branching wood
Which is among the trees of the forest?

3 Shall wood be taken thereof to do any work?
Or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon?

4 Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel;
The fire devoureth both the ends of it,
And the midst of it is burnt.
Is it meet for any work?

5 Behold, when it was whole, it was meet for no work:
How much less shall it be meet yet for any work,
When the fire hath devoured it, and it is burnt?

6 Therefore thus saith the Lord God;
As the vine tree among the trees of the forest,
Which I have given to the fire for fuel,
So will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

7 And I will set my face against them;
They shall go out from one fire,
And another fire shall devour them;

- And ye shall know that I am the LORD,
 When I set my face against them.
 8 And I will make the land desolate,
 Because they have committed a trespass, saith the Lord God.

16 AGAIN the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations, and say,

- Thus saith the Lord God unto Jerusalem;
 Thy birth and thy nativity is of the land of Canaan;
 Thy father was an Amorite, and thy mother a Hittite.
 4 And as for thy nativity,
 In the day thou wast born thy navel was not cut,
 Neither wast thou washed in water to supple thee;
 Thou wast not salted at all, nor swaddled at all.
 5 No eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee,
 To have compassion upon thee;
 But thou wast cast out in the open field, to the loathing of thy person,
 In the day that thou wast born.
 6 And when I passed by thee, and saw thee polluted in thine own blood,
 I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live;
 Yea, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live, and multiply.
 7 I have made thee as the growth of the field,
 And thou hast increased and waxen great,
 And thou art come to excellent ornaments:
 Thy breasts are fashioned, and thy hair is grown,
 Whereas thou wast naked and bare.
 8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee,
 Behold, thy time was the time of love:
 And I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness:
 Yea, I swore unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee,
 Saith the Lord God, and thou becamest mine.
 9 Then I washed thee with water;
 Yea, I thoroughly washed away thy blood from thee,
 And I anointed thee with oil.
 10 I clothed thee also with embroidered work,
 And shod thee with badgers' skin,
 And I girded thee about with fine linen,
 And I covered thee with silk.
 11 I decked thee also with ornaments,
 And I put bracelets upon thy hands,
 And a chain on thy neck.
 12 And I put a jewel on thy forehead,
 And earrings in thine ears,
 And a beautiful crown upon thy head.
 13 Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver;
 And thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and embroidered work;
 Thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil:
 And thou wast exceeding beautiful,
 And thou didst prosper into a kingdom.
 14 And thy renown went forth among the nations for thy beauty:
 For it was perfect through the comeliness
 Which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord God.
 15 But thou didst trust in thine own beauty,
 And playedst the harlot because of thy renown,
 And pouredst out thy fornications on every one who passed by; his thou wast.
 16 And of thy garments thou didst take,
 And deckedst thy high places with divers colours,
 And playedst the harlot thereupon:
 The like things shall not come, neither shall it be so.
 17 Thou hast also taken thy beautiful jewels
 Of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee,
 And madest to thyself images of men,
 And didst commit whoredom with them,
 18 And tookest thine embroidered garments, and coveredst them:

- And thou hast set mine oil and mine incense before them.
- 19 My food also which I gave thee,
Fine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed thee,
Thou hast even set it before them for a sweet savour:
And thus it was, saith the Lord God.
- 20 Moreover thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters,
Whom thou hast borne unto me,
And these hast thou sacrificed unto them to be devoured.
Are these, thy whoredoms, a small matter,
- 21 That thou hast slain my children, and delivered them up
To cause them to pass through the fire for them?
- 22 And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms
Thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth,
When thou wast naked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood.
- 23 And after all thy wickedness,
(Woe, woe unto thee! saith the Lord God;)
- 24 Thou hast also built unto thee an eminent place,
And hast made thee a high place in every street.
- 25 Thou hast built thy high place at every head of the way,
And hast made thy beauty to be abhorred,
And hast opened thy feet to every one who passed by,
And multiplied thy whoredoms.
- 26 Thou hast also committed fornication
With the Egyptians thy neighbours, great of flesh;
And hast increased thy whoredoms, to provoke me to anger.
- 27 Behold, therefore I have stretched out my hand over thee,
And have diminished thine ordinary food,
And delivered thee unto the will of those who hate thee,
The daughters of the Philistines, who are ashamed of thy lewd way.
- 28 Thou hast played the whore also with the Assyrians,
Because thou wast unsatiable;
Yea, thou hast played the harlot with them,
And yet couldest not be satisfied.
- 29 Thou hast moreover multiplied thy fornication
In the land of Canaan unto Chaldea;
And yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.
- 30 How weak is thy heart, saith the Lord God,
Seeing thou doest all these things,
The work of an imperious whorish woman;
- 31 In that thou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way,
And makest thy high place in every street;
And hast not been as a harlot, in that thou scornest hire;
- 32 But as a wife who committeth adultery,
Who taketh strangers instead of her husband!
- 33 They give gifts to all whores:
But thou givest thy gifts to all thy lovers,
And hirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side
For thy whoredom.
- 34 And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy whoredoms,
Whereas none followeth thee to commit whoredoms:
And in that thou givest a reward, and no reward is given unto thee,
Therefore thou art contrary.
- 35 Wherefore, O harlot, hear the word of the LORD:
- 36 Thus saith the Lord God;
Because thy filthiness was poured out,
And thy nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers,
And with all the idols of thy abominations,
And by the blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them;
- 37 Behold, therefore I will gather all thy lovers,
With whom thou hast taken pleasure,
And all those whom thou hast loved,
With all those whom thou hast hated;
I will even gather them round about against thee,

- And will discover thy nakedness unto them,
That they may see it.
- 38 And I will judge thee,
As women who break wedlock and shed blood are judged;
And I will give thee blood in fury and jealousy.
- 39 And I will also give thee into their hand,
And they shall throw down thine eminent place,
And shall break down thy high places:
They shall strip thee also of thy clothes, and shall take thy beautiful jewels,
And leave thee naked and bare.
- 40 They shall also bring up a company against thee,
And they shall stone thee with stones,
And thrust thee through with their swords.
- 41 And they shall burn thy houses with fire,
And execute judgments upon thee in the sight of many nations:
And I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot,
And thou also shalt give no hire any more.
- 42 So will I make my fury towards thee to rest,
And my jealousy shall depart from thee,
And I will be quiet, and will be no more angry.
- 43 Because thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth,
But hast provoked me in all these things;
Behold, therefore I also will recompense thy way upon thy head,
Saith the Lord God:
And thou shalt not commit this lewdness which is above all thine other abominations.
- 44 Behold, every one who useth proverbs shall use this proverb against thee,
Saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter.
- 45 Thou art thy mother's daughter,
Who loatheth her husband and her children;
And thou art the sister of thy sisters,
Who loathed their husbands and their children:
Your mother was a Hittite, and your father an Amorite.
- 46 And thine elder sister is Samaria,
She and her daughters who dwell at thy left hand:
And thy younger sister, who dwelleth at thy right hand,
Is Sodom and her daughters.
- 47 Yet hast thou not walked after their ways,
Nor done after their abominations:
But, as if that were a very little thing,
Thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways.
- 48 As I live, saith the Lord God,
Sodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters,
As thou hast done, thou and thy daughters.
- 49 Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom,
Pride, fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her
And in her daughters,
Neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy.
- 50 And they were haughty, and committed abomination before me:
Therefore I took them away as I saw good.
- 51 Neither hath Samaria committed half of thy sins;
But thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they,
And hast justified thy sisters in all thine abominations which thou hast done.
- 52 Thou also, which hast judged thy sisters, bear thine own shame for thy sins
That thou hast committed more abominable than they:
They are more righteous than thou:
Yea, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame,
In that thou hast justified thy sisters.
- 53 Nevertheless I will bring again their captivity,
The captivity of Sodom and her daughters,
And the captivity of Samaria and her daughters,
And I will bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them:

- 54 That thou mayest bear thine own shame,
And mayest be confounded in all that thou hast done,
In that thou hast provoked me to anger.
- 55 And thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate,
And Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate,
And thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate.
- 56 For thy sister Sodom was not mentioned by thy mouth
In the day of thy pride,
- 57 Before thy wickedness was discovered,
As at the time of thy reproach of the daughters of Syria,
And all who are round about her, the daughters of the Philistines,
Who despise thee round about.
- 58 Thou hast borne thy lewdness
And thine abominations, saith the LORD.
- 59 For thus saith the Lord God;
I will even deal with thee as thou hast done,
Who hast despised the oath in breaking the covenant.
- 60 Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with thee
In the days of thy youth,
And I will establish unto thee an everlasting covenant.
- 61 Then thou shalt remember thy ways, and be ashamed,
When thou shalt receive thy sisters, thine elder and thy younger:
And I will give them unto thee for daughters,
But not by thy covenant.
- 62 And I will establish my covenant with thee;
And thou shalt know that I am the LORD:
- 63 That thou mayest remember, and be confounded,
And never open thy mouth any more because of thy shame,
When I am pacified towards thee for all that thou hast done,
Saith the Lord God.

17 AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, put forth a dark saying, and speak a parable unto the house of Israel; and say, Thus saith the Lord God;

- A great eagle with great wings,
Longwinged, full of feathers, which had divers colours,
Came unto Lebanon, and took the highest branch of the cedar:
- 4 He cropped off the top of his young twigs,
And carried it into a land of traffic;
He set it in a city of merchants.
- 5 He took also of the shoots of the land,
And planted it in a fruitful field;
He placed it by great waters, and set it as a willow tree.
- 6 And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature,
Whose branches turned towards him, and the roots thereof were under him:
So it became a vine,
And brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.
- 7 There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers:
And, behold, this vine did bend her roots towards him,
And shot forth her branches towards him,
That he might water it by the furrows of her plantation.
- 8 It was planted in a good soil by great waters,
That it might bring forth branches,
And that it might bear fruit,
That it might be a goodly vine.
- 9 Say thou, Thus saith the Lord God; Shall it prosper?
Shall he not pull up the roots thereof,
And cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither?
It shall wither in all the leaves of its spring,
Even without great power or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof.
- 10 Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper?
Shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind toucheth it?
It shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

EZEKIEL XVIII.

- 11 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
 - 12 Say now to the rebellious house,
 Know ye not what these things mean ?
 Tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem,
 And hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof,
 And led them with him to Babylon :
 - 13 And hath taken of the king's seed, and made a covenant with him,
 And hath taken an oath of him :
 He hath also taken the mighty of the land :
 - 14 That the kingdom might be base,
 That it might not lift itself up,
 But that it might keep his covenant and might stand.
 - 15 But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt,
 That they might give him horses and much people.
 Shall he prosper ? shall he escape who doeth such things ?
 Or shall he break the covenant, and be delivered ?
 - 16 As I live, saith the Lord God,
 Surely in the place where the king dwelleth who made him king,
 Whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he broke,
 Even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die.
 - 17 Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company
 Make him successful in the war,
 By casting up mounts, and building forts, to cut off many persons :
 - 18 Seeing he despised the oath by breaking the covenant,
 When, lo, he had given his hand,
 And hath done all these things, he shall not escape.
 - 19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God ;
 As I live, surely mine oath that he hath despised,
 And my covenant that he hath broken,
 Even it will I recompense upon his own head.
 - 20 And I will spread my net upon him,
 And he shall be taken in my snare,
 And I will bring him to Babylon,
 And will plead with him there for his trespass
 That he hath trespassed against me.
 - 21 And all his fugitives with all his bands shall fall by the sword,
 And those who remain shall be scattered towards all winds :
 And ye shall know that I the LORD have spoken it.
 - 22 Thus saith the Lord God ;
 I will also take of the highest branch of the high cedar, and will set it ;
 I will crop off from the top of his young twigs a tender one,
 And will plant it upon a high mountain and eminent :
 - 23 In the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it :
 And it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar :
 And under it shall dwell all birds of every wing ;
 In the shadow of the branches thereof shall they dwell.
 - 24 And all the trees of the field shall know
 That I the LORD have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree,
 Have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish :
 I the LORD have spoken and have done it.
- 18 AND the word of the LORD came unto me again, saying,
 What mean ye, that ye use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying,
 The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge ?
- 3 As I live, saith the Lord God,
 Ye shall not have occasion any more
 To use this proverb in Israel.
 - 4 Behold, all souls are mine ;
 As the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine :
 The soul that sinneth, it shall die.
 - 5 But if a man be just,
 And do that which is lawful and right,
 - 6 And hath not eaten upon the mountains,
 Neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel,

- Neither hath defiled his neighbour's wife,
 Neither hath come near to an unclean woman,
 7 And hath not oppressed any,
 But hath restored to the debtor his pledge,
 Hath spoiled none by violence,
 Hath given his bread to the hungry,
 And hath covered the naked with a garment ;
 8 He who hath not given forth upon usury,
 Neither hath taken any increase,
 Who hath withdrawn his hand from iniquity,
 Hath executed true judgment between man and man,
 9 Hath walked in my statutes,
 And hath kept my judgments, to deal truly ;
 He is just, he shall surely live, saith the Lord God.
 10 If he beget a son who is a robber, a shedder of blood,
 And who doeth the like to any one of these things,
 11 And who doeth not any of those duties,
 But even hath eaten upon the mountains,
 And defiled his neighbour's wife,
 12 Hath oppressed the poor and needy,
 Hath spoiled by violence,
 Hath not restored the pledge,
 And hath lifted up his eyes to the idols,
 Hath committed abomination,
 13 Hath given forth upon usury,
 And hath taken increase :
 Shall he then live ?—he shall not live :
 He hath done all these abominations ; he shall surely die ;
 His blood shall be upon him.
 14 Now, lo, if he beget a son,
 Who seeth all his father's sins which he hath done,
 And considereth, and doeth not such like,
 15 Who hath not eaten upon the mountains,
 Neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel,
 Hath not defiled his neighbour's wife,
 16 Neither hath oppressed any,
 Hath not withholden the pledge,
 Neither hath spoiled by violence,
 But hath given his bread to the hungry,
 And hath covered the naked with a garment,
 17 Who hath taken off his hand from the poor,
 Who hath not received usury nor increase,
 Hath executed my judgments, hath walked in my statutes ;
 He shall not die for the iniquity of his father,—he shall surely live.
 18 As for his father,
 Because he cruelly oppressed,
 Spoiled his brother by violence,
 And did that which is not good among his people,
 Lo, even he shall die in his iniquity.
 19 Yet say ye, Why ? doth not the son bear the iniquity of the father ?
 When the son hath done that which is lawful and right,
 And hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them,
 He shall surely live.
 20 The soul that sinneth, it shall die.
 The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father,
 Neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son :
 The righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him,
 And the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.
 21 But if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed,
 And keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right,
 He shall surely live—he shall not die.
 22 All his transgressions that he hath committed,
 They shall not be mentioned unto him :

EZEKIEL XIX.

- In his righteousness that he hath done he shall live.
- 23 Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die?
Saith the Lord God:
And not that he should return from his ways, and live?
- 24 But when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness,
And committeth iniquity,
And doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth,
Shall he live?
All his righteousness that he hath done shall not be remembered:
In his trespass that he hath trespassed,
And in his sin that he hath sinned,
In them shall he die.
- 25 Yet ye say,
The way of the LORD is not equal.
Hear now, O house of Israel;
Is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal?
- 26 When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness,
And committeth iniquity, and dieth in them;
For his iniquity that he hath done shall he die.
- 27 Again, when the wicked man turneth away
From his wickedness that he hath committed,
And doeth that which is lawful and right,
He shall save his soul alive.
- 28 Because he considereth,
And turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed,
He shall surely live—he shall not die.
- 29 Yet saith the house of Israel,
The way of the LORD is not equal.
O house of Israel, are not my ways equal?
Are not your ways unequal?
- 30 Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel,
Every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God.
Repent, and turn from all your transgressions;
So iniquity shall not be your ruin.
- 31 Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed;
And make you a new heart and a new spirit:
For why will ye die, O house of Israel?
- 32 For I have no pleasure in the death of him who dieth, Saith the Lord God: wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye.

- 19 MOREOVER take thou up a lamentation for the princes of Israel, and say,
What is thy mother? A lioness:
She lay down among lions,
She nourished her whelps among young lions.
3 And she brought up one of her whelps:
It became a young lion,
And it learned to catch the prey; it devoured men.
4 The nations also heard of him;
He was taken in their pit,
And they brought him with chains unto the land of Egypt.
5 Now when she saw that she had waited,
And her hope was lost,
Then she took another of her whelps,
And made him a young lion.
6 And he went up and down among the lions,
He became a young lion,
And learned to catch the prey, and devoured men.
7 And he brought evil on their desolate palaces,
And he laid waste their cities;
And the land was desolate, and the fulness thereof,
By the noise of his roaring.
8 Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces,
And spread their net over him:
He was taken in their pit.

- 9 And they put him in ward in chains,
And brought him to the king of Babylon :
They brought him into holds,
That his voice should no more be heard
Upon the mountains of Israel.
- 10 Thy mother is like a pomegranate, planted by the waters ;
She was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters.
- 11 And she had strong rods for the sceptres of those who bore rule,
And her stature was exalted among the thick branches,
And she appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches.
- 12 But she was plucked up in fury,
She was cast down to the ground,
And the east wind dried up her fruit :
Her strong rods were broken and withered ;
The fire consumed them.
- 13 And now she is planted in the wilderness,
In a dry and thirsty ground.
- 14 And fire is gone out of a rod of her branches,
Which hath devoured her fruit,
So that she hath no strong rod to be a sceptre to rule.
This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation.
- 20 AND in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD, and sat before me. Then 3 came the word of the LORD unto me, saying, Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God ; Are ye come to inquire of me ?
4 As I live, saith the Lord God, I will not be inquired of by you. Wilt thou plead for them, son of man, wilt thou plead for them ? cause them to know the abominations
5 of their fathers : and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God ;
 In the day when I chose Israel,
 And lifted up my hand unto the seed of the house of Jacob,
 And made myself known unto them in the land of Egypt,
 When I lifted up my hand unto them, saying,
 I am the LORD your God ;
6 In the day that I lifted up my hand unto them,
 To bring them forth of the land of Egypt
 Into a land that I had espied for them,
 Flowing with milk and honey,
 Which is the glory of all lands :
7 Then said I unto them,
 Cast ye away every man the abominations of his eyes,
 And defile not yourselves with the idols of Egypt :
 I am the LORD your God.
8 But they rebelled against me,
 And would not hearken unto me :
 They did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes,
 Neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt :
 Then I said, I will pour out my fury upon them,
 To accomplish mine anger against them
 In the midst of the land of Egypt.
9 But I wrought for my name's sake,
 That it should not be polluted before the nations,
 Among whom they were,
 In whose sight I made myself known unto them,
 In bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.
10 Wherefore I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt,
 And brought them into the wilderness.
11 And I gave them my statutes,
 And showed them my judgments,
 Which if a man do, he shall even live in them.
12 Moreover also I gave them my sabbaths,
 To be a sign between me and them,
 That they might know that I am the LORD who sanctify them.
13 But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness :

- They walked not in my statutes,
 And they despised my judgments,
 Which if a man do, he shall even live in them;
 And my sabbaths they greatly polluted:
 Then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness,
 To consume them.
- 14 But I wrought for my name's sake,
 That it should not be polluted before the nations,
 In whose sight I brought them out.
- 15 Yet also I lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness,
 That I would not bring them into the land which I had given them,
 Flowing with milk and honey,
 Which is the glory of all lands;
- 16 Because they despised my judgments,
 And walked not in my statutes, but polluted my sabbaths:
 For their heart went after their idols.
- 17 Nevertheless mine eye spared them from destroying them,
 Neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness.
- 18 But I said unto their children in the wilderness,
 Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers,
 Neither observe their judgments,
 Nor defile yourselves with their idols:
- 19 I am the LORD your God;
 Walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments,
 And do them;
- 20 And hallow my sabbaths;
 And they shall be a sign between me and you,
 That ye may know that I am the LORD your God.
- 21 Notwithstanding the children rebelled against me:
 They walked not in my statutes,
 Neither kept my judgments to do them,
 Which if a man do, he shall even live in them;
 They polluted my sabbaths:
 Then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them,
 To accomplish mine anger against them in the wilderness.
- 22 Nevertheless I withdrew my hand,
 And wrought for my name's sake,
 That it should not be polluted in the sight of the nations,
 In whose sight I brought them forth.
- 23 I lifted up my hand unto them also in the wilderness,
 That I would scatter them among the nations,
 And disperse them through the countries;
- 24 Because they had not executed my judgments,
 But had despised my statutes,
 And had polluted my sabbaths,
 And their eyes were after their fathers' idols.
- 25 Have I given them statutes that were not good,
 And laws whereby they should not live?
- 26 Have I polluted them by their own gifts,
 In that they caused to pass through the fire all who open the womb,
 That I might make them desolate,
 To the end that they might know that I am the LORD?
- 27 Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them,
 Thus saith the Lord God;
 Yet in this your fathers have blasphemed me,
 In that they have committed a trespass against me.
- 28 For when I had brought them into the land,
 Which I lifted up my hand to give it to them,
 Then they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees,
 And they offered there their sacrifices,
 And there they presented the provoking offering:
 There also they made their sweet savour,
 And poured out there their drink offerings.

- 29 Then I said unto them,
What is the high place whereunto ye go?
And the name thereof is called Bamah unto this day.
- 30 Wherefore say unto the house of Israel,
Thus saith the Lord God;
Are ye polluted after the manner of your fathers?
And commit ye whoredom after their abominations?
- 31 For when ye offer your gifts,
When ye make your sons to pass through the fire,
Ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, even unto this day:
And shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel?
As I live, saith the Lord God, I will not be inquired of by you.
- 32 And that which cometh into your mind shall not be at all,
That ye say, We will be as the nations,
As the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.
- 33 As I live, saith the Lord God,
Surely with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm,
And with fury poured out, will I rule over you:
- 34 And I will bring you out from the people,
And will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered,
With a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm,
And with fury poured out.
- 35 And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people,
And there will I plead with you face to face.
- 36 Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt,
So will I plead with you, saith the Lord God.
- 37 And I will cause you to pass under the rod,
And I will bring you into the bond of the covenant:
- 38 And I will take out from among you the rebels,
And those who transgress against me:
I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn,
And they shall not enter into the land of Israel:
And ye shall know that I am the LORD.
- 39 As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord God;
Go ye, serve ye every one his idols,
Since ye will not hearken unto me:
But pollute ye my holy name no more
With your gifts, and with your idols.
- 40 For in my holy mountain,
In the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord God,
There shall all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, serve me:
There will I accept them,
And there will I require your offerings,
And the firstfruits of your oblations, with all your holy things.
- 41 I will accept you with your sweet savour,
When I bring you out from the people,
And gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered;
And I will be sanctified in you before the nations.
- 42 And ye shall know that I am the LORD,
When I shall bring you into the land of Israel,
Into the country for the which I lifted up my hand
To give it to your fathers.
- 43 And there shall ye remember your ways,
And all your doings, wherein ye have been defiled;
And ye shall loathe yourselves in your own sight
For all your evils that ye have committed.
- 44 And ye shall know that I am the LORD,
When I have wrought with you for my name's sake,
Not according to your wicked ways, nor according to your corrupt doings,
O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord God.
- 45 MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
46 Son of man, set thy face towards the south,
And drop thy word towards the south,

- And prophesy against the forest of the south field;
 47 And say to the forest of the south,
 Hear the word of the LORD;
 Thus saith the Lord God;
 Behold, I will kindle a fire in thee,
 And it shall devour every green tree in thee,
 And every dry tree:
 The blazing flame shall not be quenched,
 And all faces from the south to the north shall be burnt therein.
 48 And all flesh shall see that I the LORD have kindled it:
 It shall not be quenched.
- 49 Then said I, Ah Lord God! they say of me, Doth he not speak parables?—
 21 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
 Son of man, set thy face towards Jerusalem,
 And drop thy word towards the holy places,
 And prophesy against the land of Israel,
 3 And say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the LORD;
 Behold, I am against thee,
 And will draw forth my sword out of its sheath,
 And will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked.
 4 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked,
 Therefore shall my sword go forth out of its sheath
 Against all flesh from the south to the north:
 5 That all flesh may know
 That I the LORD have drawn forth my sword out of its sheath:
 It shall not return any more.
 6 Sigh therefore, thou son of man,
 With the breaking of thy loins;
 And with bitterness sigh before their eyes.
 7 And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou?
 That thou shalt answer, For the tidings; because it cometh:
 And every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble,
 And every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water:
 Behold, it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord God.
- 8 AGAIN the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
 9 Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD;
 Say, A sword, a sword is sharpened, and also polished:
 10 It is sharpened to make a sore slaughter;
 It is polished that it may glitter:
 Should we then make mirth?
 It contemneth the rod of my son, as every tree.
 11 And he hath given it to be polished, that it may be handled:
 This sword is sharpened, and it is polished,
 To give it into the hand of the slayer.
 12 Cry and howl, son of man:
 For it is already upon my people,
 It is already upon all the princes of Israel:
 Terrors by reason of the sword shall be upon my people:
 Smite therefore upon thy thigh.
 13 For it is tried,
 And what if the sword condemn even the rod?
 It shall not remain, saith the Lord God.
 14 Thou therefore, son of man, prophesy,
 And smite thy hands together,
 And repeat it: it is a threefold sword, the sword of great slaughter:
 It is the sword of the great men who are slain,
 Which entereth into their privy chambers.
 15 I have set the point of the sword against all their gates,
 That their hearts may faint, and their overthrow may be multiplied:
 Ah! it is made bright,
 It is wrapped up for the slaughter.
 16 Go thee different ways,

- On the right hand, or on the left,
Whithersoever thy face is set.
- 17 I will also smite my hands together,
And I will cause my fury to rest :
I the LORD have said it.
- 18 THE word of the LORD came unto me again, saying,
19 Also, thou son of man, appoint thee two ways,
That the sword of the king of Babylon may come :
Both of them shall come forth out of one land :
And choose thou a place,
Choose it at the head of the way to the city.
- 20 Appoint a way, that the sword may come to Rabbath of the Ammonites,
And towards Judah against Jerusalem the defenced.
- 21 For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way,
At the head of the two ways, to use divination :
He made his arrows bright,
He consulted with images,
He looked in the liver.
- 22 At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem,
To appoint battering rams,
To open the mouth in the slaughter,
To lift up the voice with shouting,
To appoint battering rams against the gates,
To cast up a mount, and to build a fort.
- 23 And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight,
To those who have sworn oaths :
But he will call to remembrance the iniquity,
That they may be taken.
- 24 Therefore thus saith the Lord God ;
Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered,
In that your transgressions are discovered,
So that in all your doings your sins do appear ;
Because, I say, that ye are come to remembrance,
Ye shall be taken with the hand.
- 25 And thou, profane wicked prince of Israel, whose day is come ;
When iniquity shall have an end,
- 26 Thus saith the Lord God ;
Remove the diadem, and take off the crown :
This shall not be the same :
Exalt him who is low, and abase him who is high.
- 27 I will overturn, overturn, overturn, it :
And it shall be no more, until he come, whose right it is ;
And I will give it him.
- 28 AND thou, son of man, prophesy and say,
Thus saith the Lord God concerning the Ammonites,
And concerning their reproach ; even say thou,
The sword, the sword is drawn :
For the slaughter it is polished,
To consume because of the glittering :
- 29 While they see vanity unto thee,
While they divine a lie unto thee,
To bring thee upon the necks of those who are slain,
Of the wicked, whose day is come, when their iniquity shall have an end.
- 30 Shall I cause it to return into its sheath ?
I will judge thee in the place where thou wast created,
In the land of thy nativity.
- 31 And I will pour out mine indignation upon thee,
I will blow against thee in the fire of my wrath,
And deliver thee into the hand of brutish men, and skilful to destroy.
- 32 Thou shalt be for fuel to the fire ;
Thy blood shall be in the midst of the land ;
Thou shalt be no more remembered :
For I the LORD have spoken it.

- 22 MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
 Now, thou son of man, wilt thou judge, wilt thou judge the bloody city?
 Yea, thou shalt show her all her abominations.
- 3 Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord God;
 The city sheddeth blood in the midst of it, that her time may come,
 And maketh idols against herself to defile herself.
- 4 Thou art become guilty in thy blood that thou hast shed;
 And hast defiled thyself in thine idols which thou hast made;
 And thou hast caused thy days to draw near,
 And art come even unto thy years:
 Therefore have I made thee a reproach unto the nations,
 And a mocking to all countries.
- 5 Those who are near, and those who are far from thee, shall mock thee,
 Who art infamous and much troubled.
- 6 Behold, the princes of Israel,
 Every one according to their power were in thee shedding blood.
- 7 In thee have they set light by father and mother:
 In the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger:
 In thee have they vexed the fatherless and the widow.
- 8 Thou hast despised my holy things,
 And hast profaned my sabbaths.
- 9 In thee are men who slander to shed blood:
 And in thee they eat upon the mountains:
 In the midst of thee they commit lewdness.
- 10 In thee have they discovered their father's nakedness:
 In thee have they humbled her who was set apart for pollution.
- 11 And one hath committed abomination with his neighbour's wife;
 And another hath lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law;
 And another in thee hath humbled his sister, his father's daughter.
- 12 In thee have they taken bribes to shed blood;
 Thou hast taken usury and increase,
 And thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion,
 And hast forgotten me, saith the Lord God.
- 13 Behold, therefore I have smitten my hand
 At thy dishonest gain which thou hast made,
 And at thy blood which hath been in the midst of thee.
- 14 Can thy heart endure, or can thy hands be strong,
 In the days that I shall deal with thee?
 I the LORD have spoken it, and will do it.
- 15 And I will scatter thee among the nations,
 And disperse thee in the countries,
 And will consume thy filthiness out of thee.
- 16 And thou shalt take thine inheritance in thyself in the sight of the nations,
 And thou shalt know that I am the LORD.
- 17 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
 18 Son of man, the house of Israel is to me become dross:
 All they are brass, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace;
 They are even the dross of silver.
- 19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God;
 Because ye are all become dross,
 Behold, therefore I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.
- 20 As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin,
 Into the midst of the furnace,
 To blow the fire upon it, to melt it;
 So will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury,
 And I will leave you there, and melt you.
- 21 Yea, I will gather you, and blow upon you in the fire of my wrath,
 And ye shall be melted in the midst thereof.
- 22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace,
 So shall ye be melted in the midst thereof;
 And ye shall know that I the LORD have poured out my fury upon you.
- 23 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
 24 Son of man, say unto her,

- Thou art the land that is not cleansed,
Nor rained upon in the day of indignation.
- 25 There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof,
Like a roaring lion ravening the prey;
They have devoured souls;
They have taken the treasure and precious things;
They have made her many widows in the midst thereof.
- 26 Her priests have violated my law, .
And have profaned my holy things:
They have put no difference between the holy and profane,
Neither have they showed difference between the unclean and the clean,
And have hid their eyes from my sabbaths,
And I am profaned among them.
- 27 Her princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey,
To shed blood, and to destroy souls,
To get dishonest gain.
- 28 And her prophets have daubed them with untempered mortar,
Seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying,
Thus saith the Lord God, when the LORD hath not spoken.
- 29 The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery,
And have vexed the poor and needy:
Yea, they have oppressed the stranger wrongfully.
- 30 And I sought for a man among them,
Who should make up the hedge,
And stand in the gap before me
For the land, that I should not destroy it:
But I found none.
- 31 Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them;
I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath:
Their own way have I recompensed upon their heads,
Saith the Lord God.

- 23 THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,
Son of man, there were two women,
The daughters of one mother:
- 3 And they committed whoredoms in Egypt;
They committed whoredoms in their youth:
There were their breasts pressed,
And there they bruised the teats of their virginity.
- 4 And the names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her sister:
And they were mine, and they bore sons and daughters.
Thus were their names; Samaria is Aholah, and Jerusalem Aholibah.
- 5 And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine;
And she doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbours,
- 6 Who were clothed with blue, captains and rulers,
All of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.
- 7 Thus she committed her whoredoms with them,
With all those who were the chosen men of Assyria,
And with all on whom she doted:
With all their idols she defiled herself.
- 8 Neither left she her whoredoms brought from Egypt:
For in her youth they lay with her,
And they bruised the breasts of her virginity,
And poured their whoredom upon her.
- 9 Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers,
Into the hand of the Assyrians, upon whom she doted.
- 10 These discovered her nakedness:
They took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword:
And she became infamous among women;
For they had executed judgment upon her.
- 11 And when her sister Aholibah saw this,
She was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she,
And in her whoredoms more than her sister in her whoredoms.
- 12 She doted upon the Assyrians her neighbours,

- Captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously,
 Horsemen riding upon horses,
 All of them desirable young men.
- 13 Then I saw that she was defiled,
 That they took both one way,
- 14 And that she increased her whoredoms:
 For when she saw men pourtrayed upon the wall,
 The images of the Chaldeans pourtrayed with vermilion,
- 15 Girded with girdles upon their loins,
 Exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads,
 All of them princes to look to,
 After the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity:
- 16 And as soon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them,
 And sent messengers unto them into Chaldea.
- 17 And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love,
 And they defiled her with their whoredom,
 And she was polluted with them, and her mind was alienated from them.
- 18 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness:
 Then my mind was alienated from her,
 Like as my mind was alienated from her sister.
- 19 Yet she multiplied her whoredoms,
 In calling to remembrance the days of her youth,
 Wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.
- 20 For she doted upon their paramours,
 Whose flesh is as the flesh of asses,
 And whose issue is like the issue of horses.
- 21 Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth,
 In bruising thy teats by the Egyptians
 For the paps of thy youth.
- 22 Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the Lord God;
 Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee,
 From whom thy mind is alienated,
 And I will bring them against thee on every side;
- 23 The Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans,
 Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them:
 All of them desirable young men,
 Captains and rulers, great lords and renowned,
 All of them riding upon horses.
- 24 And they shall come against thee with seythe chariots, wagons, and wheels,
 And with an assembly of people,
 Who shall set against thee buckler and shield and helmet round about:
 And I will set judgment before them,
 And they shall judge thee according to their judgments.
- 25 And I will set my jealousy against thee,
 And they shall deal furiously with thee:
 They shall take away thy nose and thine ears;
 And thy remnant shall fall by the sword:
 They shall take thy sons and thy daughters;
 And thy residue shall be devoured by the fire.
- 26 They shall also strip thee out of thy clothes,
 And take away thy fair jewels.
- 27 Thus will I make thy lewdness to cease from thee,
 And thy whoredom brought from the land of Egypt:
 So that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them,
 Nor remember Egypt any more.
- 28 For thus saith the Lord God;
 Behold, I will deliver thee into the hand of those whom thou hatest,
 Into the hand of those from whom thy mind is alienated:
- 29 And they shall deal with thee hatefully,
 And shall take away all thy labour,
 And shall leave thee naked and bare:
 And the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be discovered,
 Both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

- 30 I will do these things unto thee,
Because thou hast gone astray after the nations,
And because thou art polluted with their idols.
- 31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister;
Therefore will I give her cup into thy hand.
- 32 Thus saith the Lord God;
Thou shalt drink of thy sister's cup deep and large:
Thou shalt be laughed to scorn and had in derision; it containeth much.
- 33 Thou shalt be filled with drunkenness and sorrow,
With the cup of astonishment and desolation,
With the cup of thy sister Samaria.
- 34 Thou shalt even drink it and suck it out,
And thou shalt break the sherds thereof,
And pluck off thine own breasts:
For I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.
- 35 Therefore thus saith the Lord God;
Because thou hast forgotten me, and cast me behind thy back,
Therefore bear thou also thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.
- 36 The LORD said moreover unto me;
Son of man, wilt thou judge Aholah and Aholibah?
Yea, declare unto them their abominations;
- 37 That they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands,
And with their idols have they committed adultery,
And have also caused their sons, whom they bore unto me,
To pass for them through the fire, to devour them.
- 38 Moreover this they have done unto me:
They have defiled my sanctuary in the same day,
And have profaned my sabbaths.
- 39 For when they had slain their children to their idols,
Then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it;
And, lo, thus have they done in the midst of my house.
- 40 And furthermore, that ye have sent for men to come from far,
Unto whom a messenger was sent; and, lo, they came:
For whom thou didst wash thyself,
Paintedst thine eyes, and deckedst thyself with ornaments,
- 41 And satest upon a stately couch, and a table prepared before it,
Whereupon thou hast set mine incense and mine oil.
- 42 And they sent forth the voice of a multitude:
And with the men of the common sort
Were brought Sabeans from the wilderness,
Who put bracelets upon their hands,
And beautiful crowns upon their heads.
- 43 Then said I unto her who was old in adulteries,
Will they now commit whoredoms with her, and she with them?
- 44 Yet they went in unto her,
As they go in unto a woman who playeth the harlot:
So went they in unto Aholah and unto Aholibah, the lewd women.
- 45 And the righteous men, they shall judge them after the manner of adulteresses,
And after the manner of women who shed blood;
Because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.
- 46 For thus saith the Lord God;
I will bring up a company upon them,
And will give them to be removed and spoiled.
- 47 And the company shall stone them with stones,
And despatch them with their swords;
They shall slay their sons and their daughters,
And burn up their houses with fire.
- 48 Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land,
That all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness.
- 49 And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you,
And ye shall bear the sins of your idols:
And ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

AGAIN in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, 24
 the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, write thee the name of the day, even of this same day: the king of Babylon set himself against Jerusalem this same day. And utter a parable unto the rebellious house, and say unto them, 3

- Thus saith the Lord God; Set on a pot,
 Set it on, and also pour water into it :
 4 Gather the pieces thereof into it,
 Even every good piece, the leg, and the shoulder ;
 Fill it with the choice joints.
 5 Take the choice of the flock, and pile also the bones under it,
 And make it boil well, and let them seethe the bones of it therein.
 6 Wherefore thus saith the Lord God ;
 Woe to the bloody city,
 To the pot whose scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it !
 Bring it out piece by piece ; let no lot fall upon it.
 7 For her blood is in the midst of her ;
 She set it upon the top of a rock ;
 She poured it not upon the ground, to cover it with dust ;
 8 That it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance ;
 I have set her blood upon the top of a rock,
 That it should not be covered.
 9 Therefore thus saith the Lord God ;
 Woe to the bloody city ! I will even make the pile for fire great.
 10 Heap on wood, kindle the fire,
 Consume the flesh, and spice it well, and let the bones be burnt.
 11 Then set it empty upon the coals thereof,
 That the brass of it may be hot, and may burn,
 And that the filthiness of it may be molten in it,
 That the scum of it may be consumed.
 12 She hath wearied herself with lies,
 And her great scum went not forth out of her :
 Her scum shall be in the fire.
 13 In thy filthiness is lewdness :
 Because I have cleansed thee, and thou wast not cleansed,
 Thou shalt not be cleansed from thy filthiness any more,
 Till I have caused my fury to rest upon thee.
 14 I the LORD have spoken it :
 It shall come to pass, and I will do it ;
 I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent ;
 According to thy ways, and according to thy doings, shall they judge thee,
 Saith the Lord God.
 15 Also the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
 16 Son of man, behold, I take away from thee
 The desire of thine eyes with a stroke :
 Yet neither shalt thou mourn nor weep,
 Neither shall thy tears run down.
 17 Forbear to cry, make no mourning for the dead,
 Bind the ornament of thy head upon thee, and put on thy shoes upon thy feet.
 And cover not thy lips, and eat not the bread of men.
 So I spoke unto the people in the morning : and in the evening my wife died ; and 18
 I did in the morning as I was commanded. And the people said unto me, Wilt thou 19 not tell us what these things are to us, that thou doest so ? Then I answered them, 20
 The word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Speak unto the house of Israel, 21

Thus saith the Lord God ;
 Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the excellency of your strength,
 The desire of your eyes,
 And that which your soul pitieth ;
 And your sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword.
 22 And ye shall do as I have done :
 Ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men.
 23 And your ornaments shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet :
 Ye shall not mourn nor weep ;
 But ye shall pine away for your iniquities,

And moan one towards another.

- 24 Thus Ezekiel is unto you a sign :
According to all that he hath done shall ye do :
And when this cometh, ye shall know that I am the Lord God.
- 25 Also, thou son of man, shall it not be
In the day when I take from them their strength,
The joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes,
And that whereupon they set their minds,
Their sons and their daughters,
26 That he who escapeth in that day shall come unto thee,
To cause thee to hear it with thine ears ?
- 27 In that day shall thy mouth be opened to him who is escaped,
And thou shalt speak, and be no more dumb :
And thou shalt be a sign unto them ;
And they shall know that I am the LORD.

25 THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face against the Ammonites, and prophesy against them ; and say unto the Ammonites,

Hear the word of the Lord God ;

Thus saith the Lord God ;

Because thou saidst, Aha !

Against my sanctuary, when it was profaned ;

And against the land of Israel, when it was desolate ;

And against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity ;

- 4 Behold, therefore I will deliver thee to the men of the east for a possession,
And they shall set their palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee :
They shall eat thy fruit, and they shall drink thy milk.

- 5 And I will make Rabbah a stable for camels.

And the Ammonites a couchingplace for flocks :

And ye shall know that I am the LORD.

- 6 For thus saith the Lord God ;

Because thou hast clapped thy hands, and stamped with the feet,

And rejoiced in heart with all thy spite against the land of Israel ;

- 7 Behold, therefore, I will stretch out my hand upon thee,

And will deliver thee for a spoil to the nations ;

And I will cut thee off from the people,

And I will cause thee to perish out of the countries :

I will destroy thee ; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

- 8 Thus saith the Lord God ;

Because that Moab and Seir do say,

Behold, the house of Judah is like unto all the nations ;

- 9 Therefore, behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities,

From his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country,

Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim,

- 10 Unto the men of the east with the Ammonites,

And will give them in possession,

That the Ammonites may not be remembered among the nations.

- 11 And I will execute judgments upon Moab ;

And they shall know that I am the LORD.

- 12 Thus saith the Lord God ;

Because that Edom hath dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance,

And hath greatly offended, and revenged himself upon them ;

- 13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God ;

I will also stretch out my hand upon Edom,

And will cut off man and beast from it ;

And I will make it desolate from Teman ;

And they of Dedan shall fall by the sword.

- 14 And I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel :

And they shall do in Edom according to mine anger and according to my fury ;

And they shall know my vengeance, saith the Lord God.

- 15 Thus saith the Lord God ;

Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge,

And have taken vengeance with a despiteful heart,

- To destroy it for the old hatred;
 16 Therefore thus saith the Lord God;
 Behold, I will stretch out my hand upon the Philistines,
 And I will cut off the Cherethims,
 And destroy the remnant of the sea coasts.
 17 And I will execute great vengeance upon them with furious rebukes;
 And they shall know that I am the LORD,
 When I shall lay my vengeance upon them.

26 AND in the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

- 2 Son of man, because that Tyre hath said against Jerusalem,
 Aha! she is broken that was the gates of the nations:
 She is turned unto me:
 I shall be replenished, now she is laid waste:
 3 Therefore thus saith the Lord God;
 Behold, I am against thee, O Tyre,
 And will cause many nations to come up against thee,
 As the sea causeth his waves to come up.
 4 And they shall destroy the walls of Tyre,
 And break down her towers:
 I will also scrape her earth from her,
 And make her like a dry rock.
 5 It shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea:
 For I have spoken it, saith the Lord God:
 And it shall become a spoil to the nations.
 6 And her villages who are in the country shall be slain by the sword;
 And they shall know that I am the LORD.
 7 For thus saith the Lord God;
 Behold, I will bring upon Tyre,
 Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon,
 A king of kings, from the north,
 With horses, and with chariots,
 And with horsemen, and companies, and much people.
 8 He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field:
 And he shall make a fort against thee,
 And cast a mount against thee,
 And lift up the buckler against thee.
 9 And he shall set engines of war against thy walls,
 And with his axes he shall break down thy towers.
 10 By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee:
 Thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen,
 And of the wheels, and of the chariots,
 When he shall enter into thy gates,
 As men enter into a city wherein is made a breach.
 11 With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all thy streets:
 He shall slay thy people by the sword,
 And thy strong garrisons shall be cast down to the ground.
 12 And they shall make a spoil of thy riches,
 And make a prey of thy merchandise:
 And they shall break down thy walls,
 And destroy thy pleasant houses:
 And they shall lay thy stones and thy timber and thy dust
 In the midst of the water.
 13 And I will cause the noise of thy songs to cease;
 And the sound of thy harps shall be no more heard.
 14 And I will make thee like a dry rock:
 Thou shalt be a place to spread nets upon;
 Thou shalt be built no more:
 For I the LORD have spoken it, saith the Lord God.
 15 Thus saith the Lord God to Tyre;
 Shall not the isles shake at the sound of thy fall,
 When the wounded cry,
 When the slaughter is made in the midst of thee?

- 16 Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones,
And lay away their robes, and put off their embroidered garments :
They shall clothe themselves with trembling ;
They shall sit upon the ground,
And shall tremble every moment,
And be astonished at thee.
- 17 And they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and say to thee,
How art thou destroyed, that wast inhabited by seafaring men,
The renowned city, which was strong in the sea,
She and her inhabitants,
Which caused their terror to be on all around !
- 18 Now shall the isles tremble in the day of thy fall ;
Yea, the isles that are in the sea shall be troubled at thy departure.
- 19 For thus saith the Lord God ;
When I shall make thee a desolate city,
Like the cities that are not inhabited ;
When I shall bring up the deep upon thee,
And great waters shall cover thee ;
- 20 When I shall bring thee down
With those who descend into the pit, with the people of old time,
And shall set thee in the low parts of the earth, in places desolate of old,
With those who go down to the pit, that thou be not inhabited ;
Nor have a place in the land of the living ;
- 21 I will make thee a terror, and thou shalt be no more :
Though thou be sought for, yet shalt thou never be found again,
Saith the Lord God.

27 THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, Now, thou son of man, take up a lamentation for Tyre ; and say unto Tyre,

O thou who art situated at the entry of the sea,
Who art a mart of the people for many isles,
Thus saith the Lord God ;

O Tyre, thou hast said, I am of perfect beauty.

- 4 Thy borders are in the midst of the seas,
Thy builders have perfected thy beauty.
- 5 They have made all thy ship boards of fir trees of Senir :
They have taken cedars from Lebanon to make masts for thee.
- 6 Of the oaks of Bashan have they made thine oars ;
The company of the Ashurites have made thy boards of ivory,
Brought out of the isles of Chittim.
- 7 Fine linen with brodered work from Egypt
Was that which thou spreadest forth to be thy sail ;
Blue and purple from the isles of Elishah
Was that which covered thee.
- 8 The inhabitants of Zidon and Arvad were thy mariners :
Thy wise men, O Tyre, who were in thee, were thy pilots.
- 9 The ancients of Gebal and the wise men thereof were in thee, thy calkers :
All the ships of the sea with their mariners were in thee to occupy thy merchandise.
- 10 They of Persia and of Lud
And of Phut were in thine army, thy men of war :
They hanged the shield and helmet in thee ;
They set forth thy comeliness.
- 11 The men of Arvad with thine army were upon thy walls round about,
And the Gammadims were in thy towers :
They hanged their shields upon thy walls round about ;
They have made thy beauty perfect.
- 12 Tarshish was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of all kind of riches
With silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in thy fairs.
- 13 Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were thy merchants :
They traded the persons of men and vessels of brass in thy market.
- 14 They of the house of Togarmah traded in thy fairs
With horses and horsemen and mules.
- 15 The men of Dedan were thy merchants ;

- Many isles were the merchandise of thy hand :
 They brought thee for a present horns of ivory and ebony.
- 16 Syria was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of the wares of thy making :
 They occupied in thy fairs with emeralds, purple, and embroidered work,
 And fine linen, and coral, and carbuncles.
- 17 Judah, and the land of Israel, they were thy merchants :
 They traded in thy market wheat of Minnith, and Pannag,
 And honey, and oil, and balm.
- 18 Damascus was thy merchant in the multitude of the wares of thy making,
 For the multitude of all riches ;
 In the wine of Helbon, and white wool.
- 19 Dan also and Javan going to and fro occupied in thy fairs :
 Bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were among thy merchandise.
- 20 Dedan was thy merchant in precious clothes for chariots.
- 21 Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they occupied with thee
 In lambs, and rams, and goats :
 In these were they thy merchants.
- 22 The merchants of Sheba and Raamah, they were thy merchants :
 They occupied in thy fairs with chief of all spices,
 And with all precious stones, and gold.
- 23 Haran, and Canneh, and Eden,
 The merchants of Sheba, Asshur, and Chilmad, were thy merchants.
- 24 These were thy merchants in all sorts of things,
 In blue clothes, and embroidered work,
 And in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords, and made of cedar,
 Among thy merchandise.
- 25 The ships of Tarshish were thy caravans :
 And thou wast replenished,
 And made very glorious in the midst of the seas.
- 26 Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters :
 The east wind hath broken thee in the midst of the seas.
- 27 Thy riches, and thy fairs,
 Thy merchandise, thy mariners, and thy pilots,
 Thy calkers, and the occupiers of thy merchandise,
 And all thy men of war, who are in thee,
 And in all thy company which is in the midst of thee,
 Shall fall into the midst of the seas in the day of thy ruin.
- 28 The suburbs shall shake
 At the sound of the cry of thy pilots.
- 29 And all who handle the oar,
 The mariners, and all the pilots of the sea,
 Shall come down from their ships,
 They shall stand upon the land ;
- 30 And shall cause their voice to be heard about thee,
 And shall cry bitterly,
 And shall cast up dust upon their heads,
 They shall roll themselves in the ashes :
- 31 And they shall make themselves utterly bald for thee,
 And gird themselves with sackcloth,
 And they shall weep for thee with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing.
- 32 And in their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for thee,
 And lament over thee, saying,
 What city is like Tyre,
 Like the destroyed in the midst of the sea ?
- 33 When thy wares went forth out of the seas,
 Thou filledst many people with the multitude of thy riches ;
 Thou didst enrich the kings of the earth
 With thy merchandise.
- 34 In the time when thou shalt be broken
 By the seas in the depths of the waters
 Thy merchandise and all thy company in the midst of thee shall fall.
- 35 All the inhabitants of the isles shall be astonished at thee,
 And their kings shall be greatly afraid,

They shall be troubled in their countenance.

- 36 The merchants among the people shall hiss at thee ;
Thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt be any more.

28 THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, Son of man, say unto the princes of Tyre,

- Thus saith the Lord God ;
Because thy heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, I am a god,
I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas ;
Yet thou art a man, and not God,
Though thou set thy heart as the heart of God :
3 Behold, thou art wiser than Daniel ;
There is no secret that they can hide from thee :
4 With thy wisdom and with thine understanding thou hast gotten thee riches,
And hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures :
5 By thy great wisdom and by thy traffic hast thou increased thy riches,
And thy heart is lifted up because of thy riches :
6 Therefore thus saith the Lord God ;
Because thou hast set thy heart as the heart of God ;
7 Behold, therefore I will bring strangers upon thee,
The terrible of the nations :
And they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom,
And they shall defile thy brightness.
8 They shall bring thee down to the pit,
And thou shalt die the deaths of those
Who are slain in the midst of the seas.
9 Wilt thou yet say before him who slayeth thee, I am God ?
But thou shalt be a man, and no God,
In the hand of him who slayeth thee.
10 Thou shalt die the deaths of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers :
For I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.
11 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
12 Son of man, take up a lamentation for the king of Tyre,
And say unto him, Thus saith the Lord God ;
Thou art the model of perfection,
Full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.
13 Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God ;
Every precious stone was thy covering,
The sardius, topaz, and the diamond,
The beryl, the onyx, and the jasper,
The sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold :
The workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee
In the day that thou wast created.
14 Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth ;
And I have set thee so : thou wast upon the holy mountain of God ;
Thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.
15 Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created,
Till iniquity was found in thee.
16 By the multitude of thy merchandise
They have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned :
Therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God :
And I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.
17 Thy heart was lifted up because of thy beauty,
Thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness :
I will cast thee to the ground,
I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee.
18 Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities,
By the iniquity of thy traffic ;
Therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee,
It shall devour thee, and I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth
In the sight of all those who behold thee.
19 All those who know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee :
Thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt thou be any more.

- 20 21 AGAIN the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy 22 face against Zidon, and prophesy against it, and say.

Thus saith the Lord God;

Behold, I am against thee, O Zidon;

And I will be glorified in the midst of thee:

And they shall know that I am the LORD,

When I shall have executed judgments in her,

And shall be sanctified in her.

- 23 For I will send into her pestilence, and blood into her streets;

And the wounded shall fall in the midst of her

By the sword upon her on every side:

And they shall know that I am the LORD.

- 24 And there shall be no more a pricking brier unto the house of Israel,
Nor any grieving thorn of all who are round about them, who despised them;
And they shall know that I am the Lord God.

- 25 Thus saith the Lord God;

When I shall have gathered the house of Israel

From the people among whom they are scattered,

And shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the nations,

Then shall they dwell in their land that I have given to my servant Jacob.

- 26 And they shall dwell safely therein,

And shall build houses, and plant vineyards;

Yea, they shall dwell with confidence,

When I have executed judgments

Upon all those who despise them round about;

And they shall know that I am the LORD their God.

- 29 IN the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and against all Egypt:
3 speak, and say,

Thus saith the Lord God;

Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt,

The great dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers,

Which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself.

- 4 But I will put hooks in thy jaws,

And I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales,

And I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers,

And all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy scales.

- 5 And I will leave thee thrown into the wilderness,

Thee and all the fish of thy rivers:

Thou shalt fall upon the open fields;

Thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered:

I have given thee for food to the beasts of the field

And to the birds of the heavens.

- 6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD,

Because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel.

- 7 When they took hold of thee by thy hand,

Thou didst break, and rend all their shoulder:

And when they leaned upon thee,

Thou brakest, and didst strain all their loins.

- 8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God;

Behold, I will bring a sword upon thee,

And cut off man and beast out of thee.

- 9 And the land of Egypt shall be desolate and waste;

And they shall know that I am the LORD:

Because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it.

- 10 Behold, therefore I am against thee, and against thy rivers,

And I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate,

From Migdol to Syene even unto the border of Ethiopia.

- 11 No foot of man shall pass through it,

Nor foot of beast shall pass through it,

Neither shall it be inhabited forty years.

- 12 And I will make the land of Egypt desolate

- In the midst of the countries that are desolate,
 And her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be desolate forty years :
 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations,
 And will disperse them through the countries.
- 13 Yet thus saith the Lord God ;
 At the end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians
 From the people whither they were scattered :
- 14 And I will bring again the captivity of Egypt,
 And will cause them to return into the land of Pathros,
 Into the land of their habitation ;
 And they shall be there a base kingdom.
- 15 It shall be the basest of the kingdoms ;
 Neither shall it exalt itself any more above the nations :
 For I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations.
- 16 And it shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel,
 Which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance,
 When they shall look after them :
 But they shall know that I am the Lord God.
- 17 AND in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
- 18 Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon caused his army
 To serve a great service against Tyre :
 Every head was made bald, and every shoulder was galled :
 Yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyre,
 For the service that he had served against it :
- 19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God ;
 Behold, I will give the land of Egypt
 Unto Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon ;
 And he shall take her multitude,
 And take her spoil, and take her prey ;
 And it shall be the wages for his army.
- 20 I have given him the land of Egypt
 For his labour wherewith he served against it,
 Because they wrought for me, saith the Lord God.
- 21 In that day will I cause the horn of the house of Israel to bud forth,
 And I will give thee the opening of the mouth in the midst of them ;
 And they shall know that I am the LORD.
- 30 THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,
 Son of man, prophesy and say,
 Thus saith the Lord God ;
 Howl ye, Alas the day !
- 3 For the day is near,
 Even the day of the LORD is near, a cloudy day ;
 It shall be the time of the nations.
- 4 And the sword shall come upon Egypt,
 And great pain shall be in Ethiopia,
 When the slain shall fall in Egypt,
 And they shall take away her multitude,
 And her foundations shall be broken down.
- 5 Ethiopia, and Libya, and Lydia,
 And all the intermingled people, and Chub,
 And the men of the land who are in league,
 Shall fall with them by the sword.
- 6 Thus saith the LORD ;
 They also who uphold Egypt shall fall ;
 And the pride of her power shall come down :
 From Migdol to Syene shall they fall in it by the sword,
 Saith the Lord God.
- 7 And they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate,
 And her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted.
- 8 And they shall know that I am the LORD,
 When I have put a fire in Egypt,
 And when all her helpers shall be destroyed.

- 9 In that day shall messengers go forth from me in ships
To make the careless Ethiopians afraid,
And great pain shall come upon them, as in the day of Egypt:
For, lo, it cometh.
- 10 Thus saith the Lord God;
I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease
By the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.
- 11 He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations,
Shall be brought to destroy the land:
And they shall draw their swords against Egypt,
And fill the land with the slain.
- 12 And I will make the rivers dry,
And sell the land into the hand of the wicked:
And I will make the land waste, and all that is therein,
By the hand of strangers:
I the LORD have spoken it.
- 13 Thus saith the Lord God;
I will also destroy the idols,
And I will cause their images to cease out of Noph;
And there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt:
And I will put a fear in the land of Egypt.
- 14 And I will make Pathros desolate,
And will put fire in Zoan,
And will execute judgments in No.
- 15 And I will pour my fury upon Sin, the strength of Egypt;
And I will cut off the multitude of No.
- 16 And I will put fire in Egypt:
Sin shall have great pain,
And No shall be rent asunder,
And Noph shall have distresses daily.
- 17 The young men of Aven and of Pi-beseth shall fall by the sword:
And these cities shall go into captivity.
- 18 At Tabapanes also the day shall be darkened,
When I shall break there the yokes of Egypt:
And the pride of her power shall cease in her:
As for her, a cloud shall cover her,
And her daughters shall go into captivity.
- 19 Thus will I execute judgments in Egypt:
And they shall know that I am the LORD.
- 20 AND in the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh day of the month,
the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
- 21 Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt;
And, lo, it shall not be bound up to be healed,
To put a roller to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword.
- 22 Therefore thus saith the Lord God;
Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt,
And will break his arms, the strong, and that which was broken;
And I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand.
- 23 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations,
And will disperse them through the countries.
- 24 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon,
And put my sword in his hand:
But I will break Pharaoh's arms,
And he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly wounded man.
- 25 But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon,
And the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down:
And they shall know that I am the LORD,
When I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon,
And he shall stretch it out upon the land of Egypt.
- 26 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations,
And disperse them among the countries;
And they shall know that I am the LORD.

- 31 AND in the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude;
 Who art thou like in thy greatness?
- 3 Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with beautiful branches,
 And with a shadowing shelter, and of a high stature;
 And his top was among the thick boughs.
- 4 The waters made him great, the deep set him up on high
 With her rivers running round about his plants,
 And sent out her little rivers unto all the trees of the field.
- 5 Therefore his height was exalted above all the trees of the field,
 And his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long Because of the multitude of waters, when he shot forth.
- 6 All the birds of the heavens made their nests in his boughs,
 And under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young,
 And under his shadow dwelt all great nations.
- 7 Thus was he beautiful in his greatness,
 In the length of his branches:
 For his root was by great waters.
- 8 The cedars in the garden of God were not like him:
 The fir trees were not like his boughs,
 And the chesnut trees were not like his branches;
 Nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.
- 9 I have made him beautiful by the multitude of his branches:
 So that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him.
- 10 Therefore thus saith the Lord God;
 Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height,
 And he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs,
 And his heart is lifted up in his height;
- 11 I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the nations;
 He shall surely deal with him
 According to his wickedness.
- 12 I have driven him out, and strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off,
 And have left him: they have exposed him:
 Upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen,
 And his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land;
 And all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow,
 And have left him.
- 13 Upon his ruin shall all the birds of the heavens remain,
 And all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches:
- 14 To the end
 That none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height,
 Neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs,
 Neither their trees stand up in their height, all that drink water:
 For they are all delivered unto death,
 To the lower parts of the earth,
 In the midst of the children of men,
 With those who go down to the pit.
- 15 Thus saith the Lord God;
 On the day when he went down to the grave I caused a mourning:
 I covered the deep for him,
 And I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed:
 And I caused Lebanon to mourn for him,
 And all the trees of the field fainted for him.
- 16 I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall,
 When I cast him down to the grave with those who descend into the pit:
 And all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water,
 Shall be comforted in the lower parts of the earth.
- 17 They also went down into the grave with him
 Unto those who are slain with the sword;
 And those who dwelt under his shadow
 Shall be scattered in the midst of the nations.
- 18 To whom art thou thus like in glory
 And in greatness among the trees of Eden?

Yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden
 Unto the lower parts of the earth :
 Thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised
 With those who are slain by the sword.
 This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

32 AND in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say unto him,

Thou art like a young lion of the nations,
 And thou art as a crocodile in the seas :
 And thou brakest forth in thy rivers,
 And troubledst the waters with thy feet, and fouledst their rivers.

3 Thus saith the Lord God ;

I will therefore spread out my net over thee with a company of many people ;
 And they shall bring thee up in my net.

4 Then will I leave thee upon the land,

I will cast thee forth upon the open field,
 And will cause all the birds of the heavens to remain upon thee,
 And I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.

5 And I will lay thy flesh upon the mountains,
 And fill the valleys with thy blood.

6 I will also water with thy blood the land wherein thou swimmest,
 Even to the mountains ;
 And the rivers shall be full of thee.

7 And when I shall destroy thee,

I will cover the heavens, and make the stars thereof dark ;
 I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

8 All the bright lights of the heavens will I make dark over thee,
 And set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord God.

9 I will also trouble the hearts of many people,
 When I shall bring thy destruction among the nations,
 Into the countries which thou hast not known.

10 Yea, I will make many people amazed at thee,
 And their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee,
 When I shall brandish my sword before them ;
 And they shall tremble at every moment,
 Every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall.

11 For thus saith the Lord God ;

The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee.

12 By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall,
 The terrible of the nations, all of them :
 And they shall spoil the pomp of Egypt,
 And all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed.

13 I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters ;
 Neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more,
 Nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them.

14 Then will I make their waters deep,
 And cause their rivers to run like oil, saith the Lord God.

15 When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate,
 And the country shall be destitute of that whereof it was full,
 When I shall smite all those who dwell therein,
 Then shall they know that I am the LORD.

16 This is the lamentation wherewith they shall lament her :
 The daughters of the nations shall lament her :
 They shall lament for her, even for Egypt,
 And for all her multitude, saith the Lord God.

17 IN the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the first month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down,
 Even her, and the daughters of the famous nations,
 Unto the lower parts of the earth, with those who go down into the pit.

19 Whom dost thou surpass in beauty ?

- Go down, and be thou laid with the uncircumcised slain by the sword.
- 20 They shall fall ;
The sword is let loose
To destroy her and all her multitudes.
- 21 The strong among the mighty shall speak to him
Out of the midst of hell with those who help him :
They are gone down, they lie uncircumcised, slain by the sword.
- 22 Asshur is there and all her company : their graves are about him :
All of them slain, fallen by the sword :
- 23 Whose graves are set in the sides of the pit,
And her company is round about her grave :
All of them slain, fallen by the sword,
Who caused terror in the land of the living.
- 24 There is Elam and all her multitude round about her grave,
All of them slain, fallen by the sword,
Who are gone down uncircumcised into the lower parts of the earth,
Who caused their terror in the land of the living ;
Yet have they borne their shame with those who go down to the pit.
- 25 They have set her a couch in the midst of the slain
With all her multitude : her graves are round about him :
All of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword :
Though their terror was caused in the land of the living,
Yet have they borne their shame with those who go down to the pit :
He is put in the midst of those who are slain.
- 26 There is Meshech, Tubal,
And all her multitude : her graves are round about him :
All of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword,
Though they caused their terror in the land of the living.
- 27 And they shall not lie with the mighty who are fallen of the uncircumcised,
Who are gone down to the grave with their weapons of war :
And they have laid their swords under their heads,
But their iniquities shall be upon their bones,
Though they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living.
- 28 Yea, thou shalt be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised,
And shalt lie with those who are slain with the sword.
- 29 There is Edom, her kings, and all her princes,
Which with their might are laid by those who were slain by the sword :
They shall lie with the uncircumcised,
And with those who go down to the pit.
- 30 There are the princes of the north, all of them,
And all the Zidonians, who are gone down with the slain ;
With their terror they are ashamed of their might ;
And they lie uncircumcised with those who are slain by the sword,
And bear their shame with those who go down to the pit.
- 31 Pharaoh shall see them,
And shall be comforted over all his multitude,
Even Pharaoh and all his army slain by the sword, saith the Lord God.
- 32 For I have caused my terror in the land of the living :
And he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised
With those who are slain with the sword,
Even Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

33 AGAIN the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them,

- When I bring the sword upon a land,
If the people of the land take a man out of the midst of them,
And set him for their watchman :
- 3 If when he seeth the sword come upon the land,
He blow the trumpet, and warn the people ;
- 4 Then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning :
If the sword come, and take him away,
His blood shall be upon his own head.
- 5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning ;

His blood shall be upon him.

But he who taketh warning shall deliver his soul.

- 6 But if the watchman see the sword come,
And blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned;
If the sword come, and take any person from among them,
He is taken away in his iniquity;
But his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.
- 7 So thou, O son of man,
I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel;
Therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me.
- 8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die;
If thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way,
That wicked man shall die in his iniquity;
But his blood will I require at thy hand.
- 9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it;
If he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity;
But thou hast delivered thy soul.
- 10 Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel;
Thus ye speak, saying,
If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine away in them,
How should we then live?
- 11 Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God,
I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked;
But in that the wicked turn from his way and live:
Turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways;
For why will ye die, O house of Israel?
- 12 Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people,
The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him
In the day of his transgression:
As for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby
In the day that he turneth from his wickedness;
Neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness
In the day that he sinneth.
- 13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live;
If he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity,
All his righteousnesses shall not be remembered;
But for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.
- 14 Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die;
If he turn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right;
And restore the pledge,
Give again that he had robbed,
Walk in the statutes of life, without committing iniquity;
He shall surely live, he shall not die.
- 16 None of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him:
He hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.
- 17 Yet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lord is not equal:
But as for them, their way is not equal.
- 18 When the righteous turneth from his righteousness,
And committeth iniquity,
He shall even die thereby.
- 19 But if the wicked turn from his wickedness,
And do that which is lawful and right,
He shall live thereby.
- 20 Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal.
O ye house of Israel, I will judge you every one after his ways.

IN the eleventh year of our captivity, in the tenth month, on the fifth day of the 21 month, one who had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, The city is smitten. Now the hand of the LORD was upon me in the evening, before he who 22 had escaped came; and had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb. Then the word of the 23
LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, those who inhabit those wastes of the land 24 of Israel speak, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance. Wherefore say unto them, 25

- Thus saith the Lord God;
 Ye eat with the blood,
 And lift up your eyes towards your idols, and shed blood:
 And shall ye possess the land?
 26 Ye stand with your sword,
 Ye work abomination, and ye defile every one his neighbour's wife:
 And shall ye possess the land?
 27 Say thou thus unto them, Thus saith the Lord God;
 As I live, surely those who are in the wastes shall fall by the sword,
 And him who is in the open field will I give to the beasts to be devoured,
 And those who are in the forts and in the caves shall die of the pestilence.
 28 For I will lay the land most desolate,
 And the pride of her power shall cease;
 And the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall pass through.
 29 Then shall they know that I am the LORD,
 When I have laid the land most desolate
 Because of all their abominations which they have committed.
- 30 Also, thou son of man,
 The children of thy people still are talking about thee
 By the walls and in the doors of the houses,
 And speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying,
 Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word
 That cometh forth from the LORD.
 31 And they come unto thee as the people cometh,
 And they sit before thee as my people,
 And they hear thy words, but they will not do them:
 For with their mouth they show much love,
 But their heart goeth after their covetousness.
 32 And, lo, thou art unto them as a very lovely song
 Of one who hath a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument:
 For they hear thy words, but they do them not.
 33 And when this cometh to pass, (lo, it will come,)
 Then shall they know that a prophet hath been among them.

34 AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them,

- Thus saith the Lord God unto the shepherds;
 Woe be to the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves!
 Should not the shepherds feed the flocks?
 3 Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool,
 Ye kill them that are fed—but ye feed not the flock.
 4 The diseased have ye not strengthened,
 Neither have ye healed that which was sick,
 Neither have ye bound up that which was broken,
 Neither have ye brought again that which was driven away,
 Neither have ye sought that which was lost;
 But with force and with cruelty have ye ruled them.
 5 And they were scattered, because they are without a shepherd:
 And they became food to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered.
 6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill:
 Yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth,
 And none did search or seek after them.
- 7 Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;
 8 As I live, saith the Lord God,
 Surely because my flock became a prey,
 And my flock became food to every beast of the field,
 Because they are without a shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock,
 But the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flock;
 9 Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;
 10 Thus saith the Lord God;
 Behold, I am against the shepherds;
 And I will require my flock at their hand,

- And cause them to cease from feeding the flock ;
 Neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more ;
 For I will deliver my flock from their mouth,
 That they may not be food for them.
- 11 For thus saith the Lord God ;
 Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, and diligently seek them.
- 12 As a shepherd seeketh out his flock
 In the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered ;
 So will I seek out my sheep,
 And will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered
 In the cloudy and dark day.
- 13 And I will bring them out from the people,
 And gather them from the countries,
 And will bring them to their own land,
 And feed them upon the mountains of Israel,
 By the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country.
- 14 I will feed them in a good pasture,
 And upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be :
 There shall they lie in a good fold,
 And in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel.
- 15 I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down,
 Saith the Lord God.
- 16 I will seek that which was lost,
 And bring again that which was driven away,
 And will bind up that which was broken,
 And will strengthen that which was sick :
 But I will destroy the fat and the strong ;
 I will feed them with judgment.
- 17 And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord God ;
 Behold, I judge between cattle and cattle, between the rams and the he-goats.
- 18 Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have eaten up the good pasture,
 But ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures ?
 And to have drunk of the settled waters,
 But ye must foul the residue with your feet ?
- 19 And as for my flock, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet ;
 And they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet.
- 20 Therefore thus saith the Lord God unto them ;
 Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and the lean cattle.
- 21 Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder,
 And pushed all the diseased with your horns,
 Till ye have scattered them abroad ;
- 22 Therefore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey ;
 And I will judge between cattle and cattle.
- 23 And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them,
 Even my servant David ;
 He shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.
- 24 And I the LORD will be their God,
 And my servant David a prince among them ;
 I the LORD have spoken it.
- 25 And I will make with them a covenant of peace,
 And will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land :
 And they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods.
- 26 And I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing ;
 And I will cause the shower to come down in its season ;
 There shall be showers of blessing.
- 27 And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit,
 And the earth shall yield her increase,
 And they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the LORD,
 When I have broken the bands of their yoke,
 And delivered them out of the hand of those who served themselves of them.
- 28 And they shall no more be a prey to the nations,
 Neither shall the beast of the land devour them ;
 But they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid.

- 29 And I will raise up for them a plant of renown,
And they shall be no more consumed with hunger in the land,
Neither bear the shame of the nations any more.
- 30 Thus shall they know that I the LORD their God am with them,
And that they, even the house of Israel, are my people,
Saith the Lord God.
- 31 And ye my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men,
And I am your God, saith the Lord God.

35 MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face against mount Seir, and prophesy against it, and say unto it,

- Thus saith the Lord God;
Behold, O mount Seir, I am against thee,
And I will stretch out my hand against thee,
And I will make thee most desolate.
- 4 I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate,
And thou shalt know that I am the LORD.
- 5 Because thou hast had a perpetual hatred,
And hast shed the blood of the children of Israel by the force of the sword
In the time of their calamity, in the time of the punishment of their iniquity, even in the end thereof.
- 6 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord God,
I will prepare thee unto blood, and vengeance shall pursue thee:
Seeing thou hast not hated blood, even vengeance shall pursue thee.
- 7 Thus will I make mount Seir most desolate,
And cut off from it him who passeth out and him who returneth.
- 8 And I will fill his mountains with his slain men:
In thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers,
Shall they fall who are slain with the sword.
- 9 I will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return:
And ye shall know that I am the LORD.
- 10 Because thou hast said,
These two nations and these two countries shall be mine,
And we will possess it;
Though the LORD was there:
- 11 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord God,
I will even do according to thine anger, and according to thine envy,
Which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them;
And I will make myself known among them, when I have judged thee.
- 12 And thou shalt know that I am the LORD,
And that I have heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken
Against the mountains of Israel, saying,
They are laid desolate, they are given us to consume.
- 13 Thus with your mouth ye have boasted against me,
And have multiplied your words against me: I have heard them.
- 14 Thus saith the Lord God;
When the whole earth rejoiceth, I will make thee desolate.
- 15 As thou didst rejoice at the inheritance of the house of Israel,
Because it was desolate,
So will I do unto thee:
Thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Idumea, even all of it:
And they shall know that I am the LORD.

36 ALSO, thou son of man, prophesy unto the mountains of Israel, and say,
Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD:

- 2 Thus saith the Lord God;
Because the enemy hath said against you,
Aha! even the ancient high places are ours in possession:
- 3 Therefore prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God;
Because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side,
That ye might be a possession unto the residue of the nations,
And ye are taken up in the lips of talkers,
And are an infamy of the people:
- 4 Therefore, ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God;

- Thus saith the Lord God to the mountains, and to the hills,
 To the rivers, and to the valleys,
 To the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken,
 Which became a prey and derision
 To the residue of the nations that are round about ;
- 5 Therefore thus saith the Lord God ;
 Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken
 Against the residue of the nations, and against all Idumea,
 Who have appointed my land to themselves for a possession
 With the joy of all their heart,
 With despiteful minds, to cast it out for a prey.
- 6 Prophecy therefore concerning the land of Israel,
 And say unto the mountains, and to the hills,
 To the rivers, and to the valleys,
 Thus saith the Lord God ;
 Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury ;
 Because ye have borne the shame of the nations,
- 7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God ; I have lifted up my hand,
 Surely the nations that are about you, they shall bear their shame.
- 8 But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches,
 And yield your fruit to my people of Israel ;
 For they are at hand to come.
- 9 For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you,
 And ye shall be tilled and sown :
- 10 And I will multiply men upon you,
 All the house of Israel, even all of it :
 And the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be built :
- 11 And I will multiply upon you man and beast ;
 And they shall increase and bring fruit :
 And I will settle you after your old estates,
 And will do better unto you than at your beginning :
 And ye shall know that I am the LORD.
- 12 Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel :
 And they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance,
 And thou shalt no more henceforth bereave them of men.
- 13 Thus saith the Lord God ; Because they say unto you,
 Thou land devourest up men, and hast bereaved thy nations ;
- 14 Therefore thou shalt devour men no more,
 Neither bereave thy nations any more, saith the Lord God.
- 15 Neither will I cause men to hear in thee the reproach of the nations any more,
 Neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the people any more,
 Neither shalt thou cause thy nations to fall any more, saith the Lord God.
- 16 17 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land,
 They defiled it by their own way and by their doings :
 Their way was before me as the uncleanness of a removed woman.
- 18 Wherefore I poured my fury upon them
 For the blood that they had shed upon the land,
 And for their idols wherewith they had polluted it :
- 19 And I scattered them among the nations,
 And they were dispersed through the countries :
 According to their way and according to their doings I judged them.
- 20 And when they entered among the nations, whither they went,
 They profaned my holy name, when they said concerning them,
 These are the people of the LORD, and are gone forth out of his land.
- 21 But I had pity for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned
 Among the nations, whither they went.
- 22 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God ;
 I do not this for your sakes, O house of Israel,
 But for my holy name's sake, which ye have profaned
 Among the nations, whither ye went.
- 23 And I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the nations,
 Which ye have profaned in the midst of them ;

- And the nations shall know that I am the LORD,
 Saith the Lord God, when I shall be sanctified by you before their eyes.
- 24 For I will take you from among the nations,
 And gather you out of all countries,
 And will bring you into your own land.
- 25 Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean :
 From all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.
- 26 A new heart also will I give you,
 And a new spirit will I put within you :
 And I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh,
 And I will give you a heart of flesh.
- 27 And I will put my spirit within you,
 And cause you to walk in my statutes,
 And ye shall keep my judgments, and do them.
- 28 And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers ;
 And ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.
- 29 I will also save you from all your uncleannesses :
 And I will call for the corn, and will increase it,
 And lay no famine upon you.
- 30 And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field,
 That ye shall receive no more reproach of famine among the nations.
- 31 Then shall ye remember your own evil ways,
 And your doings that were not good,
 And shall loathe yourselves in your own sight
 For your iniquities and for your abominations.
- 32 Not for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord God,
 Be it known unto you :
 Be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel.
- 33 Thus saith the Lord God ;
 In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities
 I will also cause the cities to be inhabited,
 And the wastes shall be built.
- 34 And the desolate land shall be tilled,
 Whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all who passed by.
- 35 And they shall say,
 This land that was desolate is become like the garden of Eden ;
 And the waste and desolate and ruined cities are become fenced,
 And are inhabited.
- 36 Then the nations who are left round about you shall know
 That I the LORD build the ruined places, and plant that which was desolate :
 I the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it.
- 37 Thus saith the Lord God ;
 I will yet for this be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them ;
 I will increase them with men like a flock.
- 38 As the holy flock, as the flock of Jerusalem in her solemn feasts ;
 So shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men :
 And they shall know that I am the LORD.

37 THE hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones, and caused me to pass by them round about : and, behold, there were very many in the open valley ; and, lo, they were very dry.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live ? And I answered, O Lord
 4 God, thou knowest. Again he said unto me, Prophecy over these bones, and say
 5 unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD. Thus saith the Lord God unto these bones ; Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live :

6 and I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live ; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded : and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and 8 behold a rushing, and the bones came together, bone to his bone. And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them

9 above : but there was no breath in them. Then said he unto me, Prophecy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord God ; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live. So 10

I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones represent the whole house of 11
Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: as for us, we are cut off. Therefore prophesy and say unto them, 12

Thus saith the Lord God;

Behold, O my people, I will open your graves,
And cause you to come up out of your graves,
And bring you into the land of Israel.

13 And ye shall know that I am the LORD,
When I have opened your graves, O my people,
And brought you up out of your graves,

14 And shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live,
And I shall place you in your own land:

Then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it,
Saith the LORD.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, Moreover, thou son of man, 15 16 take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions: and join them one to an- 17 other into one stick; and they shall become one in thy hand.

And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, Wilt thou 18 not show us what thou meanest by these? Say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; 19 Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his companions, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in my hand. And the sticks 20 whereon thou writest shall be in thy hand before their eyes. And say unto them, 21

Thus saith the Lord God;

Behold, I will take the children of Israel
From among the nations, whither they are gone,
And will gather them on every side,
And bring them into their own land:

22 And I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel;
And one king shall be king to them all:

And they shall be no more two nations,
Neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all:

23 Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols,
Nor with their detestable things,
Nor with any of their transgressions:
But I will save them out of all their dwellingplaces, wherein they have sinned,
And will cleanse them:

So shall they be my people, and I will be their God.

24 And David my servant shall be king over them;

And they all shall have one shepherd:
They shall also walk in my judgments,
And observe my statutes, and do them.

25 And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant,
Wherein your fathers have dwelt;

And they shall dwell therein,
Even they, and their children, and their children's children for ever:
And my servant David shall be their prince for ever.

26 Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them;

It shall be an everlasting covenant with them:

And I will place them, and multiply them,
And will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore.

27 My tabernacle also shall be with them:

Yea, I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

28 And the nations shall know that I the LORD do sanctify Israel,
When my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face 38 against Gog, the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him, and say, Thus saith the Lord God;

- Behold, I am against thee, O Gog,
 The chief prince of Rhos, Meshech, and Tubal :
- 4 And I will turn thee back,
 And put hooks into thy jaws, after I have brought thee forth,
 And all thine army, horses and horsemen,
 All of them clothed with all sorts of armour,
 Even a great company with bucklers and shields,
 All of them handling swords :
- 5 Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya with them ;
 All of them with shield and helmet :
- 6 Gomer, and all his bands ;
 The house of Togarmah of the north quarters, and all his bands :
 And many people with thee.
- 7 Be thou prepared, and prepare for thyself,
 Thou, and all thy company who are assembled unto thee,
 And be thou a guard unto them.
- 8 After many days thou shalt be visited :
 In the latter years thou shalt come into the land
 That is brought back from the sword,
 And is gathered out of many people,
 Against the mountains of Israel, which have been long time waste :
 But it is brought forth out of the nations,
 And they shall dwell safely all of them.
- 9 Thou shalt ascend and come like a storm,
 Thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land,
 Thou, and all thy bands, and many people with thee.
- 10 Thus saith the Lord God ;
 At the same time shall things come into thy mind,
 And thou shalt think an evil thought :
- 11 And thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of unwall'd villages ;
 I will go to those who are at rest, who dwell safely,
 All of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates,
- 12 To take a spoil, and to take a prey ;
 To turn thy hand upon the desolate places that are now inhabited,
 And upon the people who are gathered out of the nations,
 Who have gotten cattle and goods, who dwell in the midst of the land.
- 13 Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish,
 With all their villages, shall say unto thee,
 Art thou come to take a spoil ?
 Hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey ?
 To carry away silver and gold,
 To take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil ?
- 14 Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog,
 Thus saith the Lord God ;
 In that day when my people of Israel dwelleth safely,
 Shalt thou not know it ?
- 15 And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts,
 Thou, and many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses,
 A great company, and a mighty army :
- 16 And thou shalt come up against my people of Israel,
 As a cloud to cover the land ;
 It shall be in the latter days,
 And I will bring thee against my land,
 That the nations may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee,
 O Gog, before their eyes.
- 17 Thus saith the Lord God ;
 Art thou he of whom I have spoken in old time
 By my servants the prophets of Israel,
 Who prophesied in those days many years
 That I would bring thee against them ?
- 18 And at the same time
 When Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord God,
 My fury shall come up in my face.
- 19 For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken,

- Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel ;
- 20 So that the fishes of the sea, and the birds of the heavens,
And the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth.
And all the men who are upon the face of the earth,
Shall shake at my presence,
And the mountains shall be thrown down,
And the terraces shall fall,
And every wall shall fall to the ground.
- 21 And I will call for a sword against him
Throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord God :
Every man's sword shall be against his brother.
- 22 And I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood ;
And I will rain upon him, and upon his bands,
And upon the many people who are with him,
An overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone.
- 23 Thus will I magnify myself, and sanctify myself ;
And I will be known in the eyes of many nations,
And they shall know that I am the LORD.
- 39 Therefore, thou son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say,
Thus saith the Lord God ;
Behold, I am against thee, O Gog,
The chief prince of Meshech and Tubal :
2 And I will turn thee, and lead thee about,
And will cause thee to come up from the sides of the north,
And will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel :
3 And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand,
And will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand.
4 Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel,
Thou, and all thy bands, and the people who are with thee :
I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort,
And to the beasts of the field to be devoured.
5 Thou shalt fall upon the open field :
For I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.
6 And I will send a fire on Magog,
And among those who dwell carelessly in the isles :
And they shall know that I am the LORD.
7 So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel ;
And I will not let them pollute my holy name any more :
And the nations shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.
8 Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord God ;
This is the day whereof I have spoken.
9 And those who dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth,
And shall set on fire and burn the weapons,
Both the shields and the bucklers,
The bows and the arrows, and the clubs, and the spears,
And they shall kindle a fire with them seven years :
10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field,
Neither cut down any out of the forests ;
For they shall kindle a fire with the weapons ;
And they shall spoil those who spoiled them,
And rob those who robbed them, saith the Lord God.
- And in that day I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley 11 of the passengers on the east of the sea : and it shall be stopped up by the passengers after they shall have buried Gog and all his multitude : and they shall call it
The valley of Hamon-gog. And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying 12 of them, that they may cleanse the land. Yea, all the people of the land shall bury 13 them ; and it shall be to them a renown in the day that I shall be glorified, saith the Lord God. And they shall sever out men of continual employment, passing 14 through the land to bury those who remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it : after the end of seven months shall they search. And the passengers who pass 15 through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog. And also the name of 16 the city shall be Hamonah. Thus shall they cleanse the land. And, thou son of 17 man, thus saith the Lord God ; Speak unto every feathered bird, and to every beast of the field,

- Assemble yourselves, and come ;
 Gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you,
 Even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel,
 That ye may eat flesh, and drink blood.
- 18 Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty,
 And drink the blood of the princes of the earth,
 Of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bullocks,
 All of them fatlings of Bashan.
- 19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full,
 And drink blood till ye be drunken,
 Of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.
- 20 Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses and their riders,
 With mighty men, and with all men of war,
 Saith the Lord God.
- 21 And I will set my glory among the nations,
 And all the nations shall see my judgments that I have executed,
 And my hand that I have laid upon them.
- 22 So the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God
 From that day and forwards.
- 23 And the nations shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity :
 Because they trespassed against me, therefore hid I my face from them,
 And gave them into the hand of their enemies :
 So fell they all by the sword.
- 24 According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions have I done unto them,
 And hid my face from them.
- 25 Therefore thus saith the Lord God ;
 Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob,
 And have mercy upon the whole house of Israel,
 And will be jealous for my holy name ;
- 26 After they shall forget their shame,
 And all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me,
 When they shall dwell safely in their land, and none shall make them afraid.
- 27 When I have brought them again from the people,
 And gathered them out of their enemies' lands,
 And am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations ;
- 28 Then shall they know that I am the LORD their God,
 Who caused them to be led into captivity among the nations :
 But I have gathered them unto their own land,
 And have left none of them any more there.
- 29 Neither will I hide my face any more from them :
 For I have poured out my spirit upon the house of Israel,
 Saith the Lord God.

- 40 IN the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was smitten, on the selfsame day the hand of the LORD was upon me, and brought me thither.
- 2 In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me upon a very high mountain, upon which was as the frame of a city on the south.
- 3 And he brought me thither, and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed ;
- 4 and he stood in the gate. And the man said unto me,

Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears,
 And set thy heart upon all that I shall show thee ;
 For to the intent that I might show them unto thee
 Art thou brought hither :
 Declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel.

- 5 And, behold, a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring reed of six cubits long by the cubit and a hand breadth : so he measured the breadth of the building, one reed ; and the height, one reed.

Then came he unto the gate which looketh towards the east, and went up the stairs 6 thereof, and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad; and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad. And every little chamber 7 was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one reed. He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed. Then measured he the 8 porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was inwards. And the little chambers of the gate eastwards were three on 10 this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side. And he measured the breadth of 11 the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits. The space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was 12 one cubit on that side: and the little chambers were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side. He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber 13 to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door. He made also posts of threescore cubits, even unto the post of the court 14 round about the gate. And from the face of the gate of the entrance unto the face 15 of the porch of the inner gate were fifty cubits. And there were narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the 16 porches: and windows were round about inwards: and upon each post were palm trees.

Then brought he me into the outward court, and, lo, there were chambers, and a 17 pavement made for the court round about: thirty chambers were upon the pavement. And the pavement by the side of the gates over against the length of the 18 gates was the lower pavement. Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court without, a hundred cubits eastwards and northwards.

And the gate of the outward court that looked towards the north, he measured the 20 length thereof, and the breadth thereof. And the little chambers thereof were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts thereof and the porches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the 21 breadth five and twenty cubits. And their windows, and their pillars, and their palm trees, were after the measure of the gate that looketh towards the east; and they went up unto it by seven steps; and the porches thereof were before them. 22 And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate towards the north, and 23 towards the east; and he measured from gate to gate a hundred cubits.

After that he brought me towards the south, and, behold, a gate towards the south: 24 and he measured the posts thereof and the porches thereof according to these measures. And there were windows in it and in the porches thereof round about, like 25 those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits. And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the porches thereof were before them: 26 and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof. And there was a gate in the inner court towards the south: and he mea- 27 sured from gate to gate towards the south a hundred cubits.

And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the 28 south gate according to these measures; and the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the porches thereof, according to these measures: and there were 29 windows in it and in the porches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad. And the porches round about were five and twenty 30 cubits long, and five cubits broad. And the porches thereof were towards the outer court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it had 31 eight steps.

And he brought me into the inner court towards the east: and he measured the 32 gate according to these measures. And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the porches thereof, were according to these measures: and there were 33 windows therein and in the porches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad. And the porches thereof were towards the out- 34 ward court: and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it according to these mea- 35 sures; the little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the porches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and 36 twenty cubits. And the posts thereof were towards the outer court; and palm trees 37 were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

38 And the chambers and the entries thereof were by the posts of the gates, where 39 they washed the burnt offering. And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the burnt offering and the sin 40 offering and the trespass offering. And at the side without, as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the 41 porch of the gate, were two tables. Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew their sacri-42 fices. And the four tables were of hewn stone for the burnt offering, of a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they 43 laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt offering and the sacrifice. And within were hooks, a hand broad, fastened round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

44 And without the inner gate were the chambers of the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was towards the south:
 45 one at the side of the east gate having the prospect towards the north. And he said unto me, This chamber, whose prospect is towards the south, is for the priests, the 46 keepers of the charge of the house. And the chamber whose prospect is towards the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the altar: these are the sons of Zadok among the sons of Levi, who come near to the LORD to minister unto him.
 47 So he measured the court, a hundred cubits long, and a hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar that was before the house.

48 And he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the 49 gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side. The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

41 Afterwards he brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of 2 the tabernacle. And the breadth of the doorway was ten cubits; and the sides of the doorway were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, forty cubits: and the breadth, twenty cubits.

3 Then went he inwards, and measured the post of the doorway, two cubits; and the 4 door, six cubits; and the breadth of the door, seven cubits. So he measured the length thereof, twenty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple:
 and he said unto me, This is the most holy place.

5 After he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side
 6 chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side. And the side chambers were one over another three stories, and thirty in order; and they came on the wall which was of the house for the side chambers round about, that they might 7 have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house. And there was an enlarging, and a winding about still upwards to the side chambers: for the winding about of the house went still upwards round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upwards, and so increased from the lowest chamber to the 8 highest by the midst. I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations of the side chambers were a full reed of six great cubits.

9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side chamber without, was five cubits:
 10 and that which was left was the place of the side chambers that were within. And between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on 11 every side. And the doors of the side chambers were towards the place that was left, one door towards the north, and another door towards the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about.

12 Now the building that was before the separate place at the end towards the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round 13 about, and the length thereof ninety cubits. So he measured the house, a hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, a 14 hundred cubits long; also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place towards the east, a hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and the galleries thereof on the one side and on the other side, a hun-16 dred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court; the door posts, and the narrow windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, over against the door, overlaid with wood round about, and from the ground up to the 17 windows, and the windows were covered; to that above the door, even unto the inner house, and without, and by all the wall round about within and without, by measure.

And it was made with cherubims and palm trees, so that a palm tree was between 18 a cherub and a cherub; and every cherub had two faces; so that the face of a man 19 was towards the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion towards the palm tree on the other side: it was made through all the house round about. From 20 the ground unto above the door were cherubims and palm trees made, and on the wall of the temple. The posts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanc- 21 tuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other.

The altar of wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and 22 the corners thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This is the table that is before the LORD. And the temple and the sanctuary had two 23 doors. And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves; two leaves for the 24 one door, and two leaves for the other door. And there were made on them, on the 25 doors of the temple, cherubims and palm trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there were thick planks upon the face of the porch without. And there were 26 narrow windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and upon the side chambers of the house, and thick planks.

Then he brought me forth into the outer court, the way towards the north: and 42 he brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building towards the north. Before the length of a hundred cubits 2 was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits. Over against the twenty cubits 3 which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the outer court, was gallery against gallery in three stories. And before the chambers 4 was a walk of ten cubits breadth inwards, a way of one cubit; and their doors towards the north. Now the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries were higher 5 than these, than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building. For they were 6 in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground.

And the wall that was without over against the chambers, towards the outer court 7 on the forepart of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits. For the length 8 of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were a hundred cubits.

And from under these chambers was the entry on the east side, as one goeth into 9 them from the outer court. The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the 10 court towards the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building. And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were 11 towards the north, as long as they, and as broad as they: and all their goings out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors. And according 12 to the doors of the chambers that were towards the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall towards the east, as one entereth into them.

Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are 13 before the separate place, they are holy chambers, where the priests that approach unto the LORD shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the thank offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy. When the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the 14 holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister; for they are holy; and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people.

Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth 15 towards the gate whose prospect is towards the east, and measured it round about. He measured the east side with the measuring reed, five hundred reeds, with the 16 measuring reed round about. He measured the north side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about. He measured the south side, five hundred reeds, 17 with the measuring reed. He turned about to the west side, and measured five 18 hundred reeds with the measuring reed. He measured it by the four sides: it had 20 a wall round about, five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, to make a separation between the sanctuary and the profane place.

Afterwards he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looketh towards the east: 43 and, behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and his voice was like a noise of many waters: and the earth shined with his glory. And it 3 was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city : and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar ; and I fell upon my face.

- 4 And the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose 5 prospect is towards the east. So the spirit took me up, and brought me into the in-
6 ner court ; and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house. And I heard him
7 speaking unto me out of the house ; and the man stood by me. And he said unto me,

Son of man,

The place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet,
Where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever,
And my holy name, shall the house of Israel no more defile,
Neither they, nor their kings, by their idolatry,
Nor by the carcases of their kings in their high places.

- 8 In their setting of their threshold by my thresholds,
And their post by my posts,

And the wall between me and them,
They have even defiled my holy name
By their abominations that they have committed :
Wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger.

- 9 Now let them put away their idolatry,
And the carcases of their kings, far from me,
And I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

- 10 Thou son of man, show the house to the house of Israel,
That they may be ashamed of their iniquities :
And let them measure the pattern.

- 11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done,
Show them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof,
And the goings out thereof, and the comings in thereof,
And all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof,
And all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof :
And write it in their sight,
That they may keep the whole form thereof,
And all the ordinances thereof, and do them.

- 12 This is the law of the house ; Upon the top of the mountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

- 13 And these are the measures of the altar after the cubits : The cubit is a cubit and a hand breadth ; even the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about shall be a span : and this shall be 14 the higher place of the altar. And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit ; and from the lesser set-15 tle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit. So the 16 altar shall be four cubits ; and from the altar and upwards shall be four horns. And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof.
17 And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof ; and the border about it shall be half a cubit ; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about ; and its stairs shall look towards the east.

- 18 And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord God ; These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings there-19 on, and to sprinkle blood thereon. And thou shalt give to the priests the Levites that are of the seed of Zadok, who approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the 20 Lord God, a young bullock for a sin offering. And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and 21 upon the border round about : thus shalt thou cleanse and purify it. Thou shalt take the bullock also of the sin offering, and he shall burn it in the appointed place 22 of the house, without the sanctuary. And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin offering ; and they shall cleanse the altar, as 23 they did cleanse it with the bullock. When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without 24 blemish. And thou shalt offer them before the LORD, and the priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering unto the LORD.
25 Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin offering ; they shall also 26 prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish. Seven days 27 shall they purge the altar and purify it ; and they shall consecrate it. And when these days are expired, upon the eighth day, and forwards, the priests shall make your burnt offerings upon the altar, and your peace offerings; and I will accept you, saith the Lord God.

Then he brought me back the way of the gate of the outward sanctuary which looketh towards the east; and it was shut. Then said the LORD unto me; 'This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; because the LORD, the God of Israel, hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut. The prince, he shall sit in it to eat bread before the LORD; he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house: and I looked, and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD: and I fell upon my face. And the LORD said unto me, Son of man, mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary. And thou shalt say to the rebellious house, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; O ye house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations, in that ye have brought into my sanctuary strangers, uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant besides all your abominations. And ye have not kept the charge of my holy things: but ye have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

Thus saith the Lord God; No stranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger who is among the children of Israel. And the Levites who are gone away far from me, when Israel went astray, who went astray away from me after their idols; they shall even bear their iniquity. Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house: they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them. Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore have I lifted up my hand against them, saith the Lord God, and they shall bear their iniquity. And they shall not come near unto me, to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in the most holy place: but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed. But I will make them keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.

But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, who kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister unto me, and they shall stand before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord God: they shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister unto me, and they shall keep my charge. And when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them, whilst they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within. They shall have linen caps upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth sweat. And when they go forth into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall put off their garments wherein they ministered, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments; and they shall not sanctify the people with their garments. Neither shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow long; they shall only poll their heads. Neither shall any priest drink wine, when they enter into the inner court. Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her who is put away: but they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow who had a priest before. And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean. And in controversy they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it according to my judgments: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes on all my festivals; and they shall hallow my sabbaths. And they shall come at no dead person to defile themselves: but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister who hath had no husband, they may defile themselves. And after he is cleansed, they shall reckon unto him seven days. And on the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, unto the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, saith the Lord God.

And it shall be unto them for an inheritance: I am their inheritance: and ye shall

29 give them no possession in Israel: I am their possession. They shall eat the thank offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; and every dedicated thing
 30 in Israel shall be theirs. And the first of all the firstfruits of all things, and every oblation of all, of every sort of your oblations, shall be the priest's: ye shall also give unto the priest the first of your dough, that he may cause the blessing to rest 31 in thy house. The priest shall not eat of any thing that is dead of itself, or torn, whether it be bird or beast.

45 Moreover, when ye shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall offer an oblation unto the LORD, a holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand cubits, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This
 2 shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about. Of this there shall be for the sanctuary five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about;
 3 and fifty cubits round about for the suburbs thereof. And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thou-
 4 sand: and in it shall be the sanctuary and the most holy place. The holy portion of the land shall be for the priests the ministers of the sanctuary, who shall come near to minister unto the LORD: and it shall be a place for their houses, and a holy place for the sanctuary.

5 And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Levites, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession, together with twenty chambers.

6 And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.

7 And a portion shall be for the prince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the west side westwards, and from the east side eastwards: and the length shall be over against one of the 8 portions, from the west border unto the east border. In the land shall be his possession in Israel: and my princes shall no more oppress my people; and the rest of the land shall they give to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

9 Thus saith the Lord God; Let it suffice you, O princes of Israel: remove violence and spoil, and execute judgment and justice, take away your exactions from my 10 people, saith the Lord God. Ye shall have just balances, and a just ephah, and a just 11 bath. The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of a homer, and the ephah the tenth part of a homer: the measure 12 thereof shall be after the homer. And the shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your maneh.

13 This is the oblation that ye shall offer; the sixth part of an ephah of a homer of 14 wheat, and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah of a homer of barley. Concerning the ordinance of oil, the bath of oil, the bath being the tenth part of a cor,
 15 which is a homer of ten baths; for ten baths are a homer. And one lamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the fat pastures of Israel; for a thank offering, and for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make reconciliation for them,
 16 saith the Lord God. All the people of the land shall give this oblation for the prince in Israel.

17 And it shall be the prince's part to give burnt offerings, and thank offerings, and drink offerings, on the feasts, and on the new moons, and on the sabbaths, on all solemnities of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sin offering, and the thank offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make reconciliation for the house of Israel.

18 Thus saith the Lord God; In the first month, on the first day of the month, thou
 19 shalt take a young bullock without blemish, and cleanse the sanctuary: and the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it upon the posts of the house, and upon the four corners of the settle of the altar, and upon the posts of the 20 gate of the inner court. And so thou shalt do the seventh day of the month for every one who erreth, and for him who is simple: so shall ye reconcile the house.

21 In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the passover,
 22 a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten. And upon that day shall the prince prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bullock for a sin
 23 offering. And seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to the LORD, seven bullocks and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days: and a kid of 24 the goats daily for a sin offering. And he shall prepare a thank offering of an ephah 25 for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and a hin of oil for an ephah. In the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month, shall he do the like in the feast of the seven days, according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the thank offering, and according to the oil.

Thus saith the Lord God; The gate of the inner court that looketh towards the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the sabbath it shall be opened, and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened. And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening. Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the LORD on the sabbaths and on the new moons. 46

And the burnt offering that the prince shall offer unto the LORD on the sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish. And the thank offering shall be an ephah for a ram, and the thank offering for the lambs as he shall be able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah. And on the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram: they shall be without blemish. And he shall prepare a thank offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs according as his hand shall attain unto, and a hin of oil to an ephah.

And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate, and he shall go forth by the way thereof. But when the people of the land shall come before the LORD on the solemn feasts, he who entereth in by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he who entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth over against it. And the prince in the midst of them, when they go in, shall go in; and when they go forth, shall go forth. 10

And in the feasts and in the solemnities the thank offering shall be an ephah to a bullock, and an ephah to a ram, and to the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah. Now when the prince shall prepare a voluntary burnt offering or peace offerings voluntarily unto the LORD, one shall then open him the gate that looketh towards the east, and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he did on the sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate.

Thou shalt daily prepare a burnt offering unto the LORD of a lamb of the first year without blemish: thou shalt prepare it every morning. And thou shalt prepare a thank offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of a hin of oil, to temper with the fine flour; a thank offering continually by a perpetual ordinance unto the LORD. Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the thank offering, and the oil, every morning for a continual burnt offering. 15

Thus saith the Lord God; If the prince give a gift unto any of his sons, the inheritance thereof shall be his sons'; it shall be their possession by inheritance. But if he give a gift of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his to the year of liberty; after it shall return to the prince: but his inheritance shall be his sons' for them. Moreover the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance, to defend their possession; but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession: that my people be not scattered every man from his possession. 18

After he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests, which looked towards the north: and, behold, there was a place on the two sides westwards. Then said he unto me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, where they shall bake the thank offering; that they bear them not out into the outer court, to sanctify the people. Then he brought me forth into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and, behold, in every corner of the court there was a court. In the four corners of the court there were courts joined, of forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four corners were of one measure. And there was a row of building round about in them, round about them four, and it was made with boiling places under the rows round about. Then said he unto me, These are the places of those who boil, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people. 24

Afterwards he brought me again unto the door of the house; and, behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastwards: for the forefront of the house stood towards the east, and the waters came down from under from the right side of the house, at the south side of the altar. Then brought he me out of the way 47 of the gate northwards, and led me about the way without unto the outer gate by the way that looketh eastwards; and, behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

3 And when the man who had the line in his hand went forth eastwards, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the waters were to
4 the ancles. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me
5 through; the waters were to the loins. Afterwards he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over.

6 And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me,
7 and caused me to return to the brink of the river. Now when I had returned, behold, at the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the
8 other. Then said he unto me, These waters issue out towards the east country, and go down into the desert, and go into the sea: which being brought forth into the 9 sea, the waters shall be healed. And every living thing, which moveth, whithersoever the rivers shall come, shall live: and there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed; and every 10 thing shall live whither the river cometh. And the fishers shall stand upon it from En-gedi even unto En-eglaim; they shall be a place to spread forth nets; their fish
11 shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many. But the miry places thereof and the marshes thereof shall not be healed; they shall be 12 given to salt. And by the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for food, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth new fruit according to its months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary: and the fruit thereof shall be for food, and the leaf thereof for healing.

13 Thus saith the Lord God; This shall be the border, whereby ye shall inherit the 14 land according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two portions. And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another, concerning which I lifted up my hand to give it unto your fathers: and this land shall fall unto you for inheritance.

15 And this shall be the border of the land towards the north side, from the great sea,
16 the way of Hethlon, as men go to Zedad; Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazar-hatticon, which 17 is by the coast of Hauran. And the border from the sea shall be Hazar-enan, the border of Damascus, and the north northwards, and the border of Hamath. And
18 this is the north side.—And the east side ye shall measure from Hauran, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and from the land of Israel by the Jordan, from the 19 border unto the east sea. And this is the east side.—And the south side southwards, from Tamar even to the waters of strife in Kadesh, the river to the great sea. And 20 this is the south side southwards.—The west side also shall be the great sea from the 21 border, over against Hamath. This is the west side.—So shall ye divide this land
22 unto you according to the tribes of Israel. And ye shall divide it by lot for an inheritance unto you, and to the strangers who sojourn among you, who shall beget children among you: and they shall be unto you as born in the country among the children of Israel; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel.
23 And in what tribe the stranger sojourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord God.

48 Now these are the names of the tribes. From the north end to the coast of the way of Hethlon, as one goeth to Hamath, Hazar-enan, the border of Damascus northwards, to the coast of Hamath; for these are his sides east and west; a portion
2 for Dan. And by the border of Dan, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Asher. And by the border of Asher, from the east side even unto the west
3 side, a portion for Naphtali. And by the border of Naphtali, from the east side unto 4 the west side, a portion for Manasseh. And by the border of Manasseh, from the 5 east side unto the west side, a portion for Ephraim. And by the border of Ephraim,
6 from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for Reuben. And by the border of Reuben, from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for Judah.
7 And by the border of Judah, from the east side unto the west side, shall be the offering which ye shall offer of five and twenty thousand cubits in breadth, and in length as one of the other parts, from the east side unto the west side: and the 8 sanctuary shall be in the midst of it. The oblation that ye shall offer unto the 9 LORD shall be of five and twenty thousand in length, and of ten thousand in 10 breadth. And for them, even for the priests, shall be this holy oblation; towards the north five and twenty thousand in length, and towards the west ten thousand in breadth, and towards the east ten thousand in breadth, and towards the south five and twenty thousand in length: and the sanctuary of the LORD shall be in the midst thereof. It shall be for the priests who are sanctified of the sons of Zadok; who have kept my charge, who went not astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray. And this oblation of the land that is offered shall be unto them a thing most holy by the border of the Levites.

And over against the border of the priests the Levites shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand. And they shall not sell of it, neither exchange, nor alienate the firstfruits of the land: for it is holy unto the LORD.

And the five thousand, that are left in the breadth over against the five and twenty thousand, shall be a profane place for the city, for dwelling, and for suburbs: and the city shall be in the midst thereof. And these shall be the measures thereof; the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred. And the suburbs of the city shall be towards the north two hundred and fifty, and towards the south two hundred and fifty, and towards the east two hundred and fifty, and towards the west two hundred and fifty.

And the residue in length over against the oblation of the holy portion shall be ten thousand eastwards, and ten thousand westwards: and it shall be over against the oblation of the holy portion; and the increase thereof shall be for food unto those who serve the city. And those who serve the city shall serve it out of all the tribes of Israel.

All the oblation shall be five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand: ye shall offer the holy oblation foursquare, with the possession of the city. And the residue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation, and of the possession of the city, over against the five and twenty thousand of the oblation towards the east border, and westwards over against the five and twenty thousand towards the west border, over against the portions for the prince: and it shall be the holy oblation; and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst thereof. Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, shall be for the prince.

As for the rest of the tribes, from the east side unto the west side, Benjamin shall have a portion. And by the border of Benjamin, from the east side unto the west side, Simeon shall have a portion. And by the border of Simeon, from the east side unto the west side, Issachar a portion. And by the border of Issachar, from the east side unto the west side, Zebulun a portion. And by the border of Zebulun, from the east side unto the west side, Gad a portion. And by the border of Gad, at the south side southwards, the border shall be even from Tamar unto the waters of strife in Kadesh, and to the river towards the great sea.—This is the land which ye shall divide by lot unto the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their portions, saith the Lord God.

And these are the goings out of the city on the north side, four thousand and five hundred measures. And the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel: three gates northwards; one gate of Reuben, one gate of Judah, one gate of Levi. And at the east side four thousand and five hundred: and three gates; and one gate of Joseph, one gate of Benjamin, one gate of Dan. And at the south side four thousand and five hundred measures: and three gates; one gate of Simeon, one gate of Issachar, one gate of Zebulun. At the west side four thousand and five hundred, with their three gates; one gate of Gad, one gate of Asher, one gate of Naphtali.—It was round about eighteen thousand measures: and the name of the city from that day shall be, Jehovah-shammah [THE LORD IS THERE].

THE BOOK OF DANIEL.

IN the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it. And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God: which he carried into the land of Shinar to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god.

- 3 And the king spoke unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring certain of the children of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of the princes;
 4 young men in whom was no blemish, but well favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and furnished with knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the learning and
 5 the tongue of the Chaldeans. And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king's meat, and of the wine which he drank; so nourishing them three years,
 6 that at the end thereof they might stand before the king.—Now among those of the 7 children of Judah, were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: unto whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names: for he gave unto Daniel the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abed-nego.
 8 But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's food, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested
 9 of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. Now God had 10 brought Daniel into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs. And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your food and your drink: for why should he see your faces look worse than the young men who are your equals? then shall ye make me endanger my head
 11 to the king. Then said Daniel to Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set 12 over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink. Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the young men who eat of the portion of the king's food; and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.
 14 15 So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days. And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared more beautiful and fatter in flesh than 16 all the young men who did eat the portion of the king's food. Thus Melzar took away the portion of their food, and the wine that they should drink; and gave them pulse.

17 As for these four young men, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning
 18 and wisdom; and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams. Now at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince
 19 of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael,
 20 and Azariah: therefore stood they before the king. And in all matters of wisdom and understanding, that the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better
 21 than all the magicians and astrologers who were in all his realm. And Daniel continued even unto the first year of king Cyrus.

2 AND in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, wherewith his spirit was troubled, and his sleep departed from him. Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to show the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was 4 troubled to know the dream. Then spoke the Chaldeans to the king in Syriac, O king, live for ever! tell thy servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation.
 5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be
 6 cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill. But if ye show the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great 7 honour: therefore show me the dream, and the interpretation thereof. They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would gain time, because 9 ye see the thing is gone from me. But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, there is but one decree for you; for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream,
 10 and I shall know that ye can show me the interpretation thereof. The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth who can show the king's matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, who asked at any 11 magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean, such things. And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other who can show it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy 12 all the wise men of Babylon. And the decree went forth that the wise men should 13 be slain; and they sought Daniel and his companions to be slain.

Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the chief executioner, 14 who was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon: he answered and said to 15 Arioch the chief executioner, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. Then Daniel went in, and desired of the 16 king that he would give him time, and that he would show the king the interpretation. Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mi- 17
shael, and Azariah, his companions: that they would desire mercies of the God of 18 heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his companions should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed 19 the God of heaven. Daniel answered and said, 20

Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever:

For wisdom and might are his:

21 And he changeth the times and the seasons;

He removeth kings, and setteth up kings;

He giveth wisdom unto the wise,

And knowledge to those who know understanding:

22 He revealeth the deep and secret things:

He knoweth what is in the darkness,

And the light dwelleth with him.

23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers,

Who hast given me wisdom and might,

And hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee;

For thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter.

Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the 24 wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him; Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will show unto the king the interpretation. Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto 25 him, I have found a man of the captives of Judah, who will make known unto the king the interpretation. The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was 26 Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof?

Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king 27 hath demanded the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, cannot show unto the king; but there is a God in heaven who revealeth secrets, and 28 maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these; As for thee, O king, thy 29 thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter:
and he who revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass. But 30 as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but for the intent that the interpretation may be made known to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.

Thou, O king, sawest, and, behold, a great image. This great image, whose bright- 31 ness was excellent, stood before thee; and the form thereof was terrible. This 32 image's head was of fine gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of brass, its legs of iron, its feet part of iron and part of clay. Thou sawest till that 33 34 a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon its feet that were of iron and clay, and broke them to pieces. Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the 35 silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshingfloor; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth. This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof 36 before the king.

Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a king- 37 dom, power, and strength, and glory. And wheresoever the children of men dwell, 38 the beasts of the fields and the birds of the air hath he given into thy hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold. And after thee shall 39 arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth. And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: 40 forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that

41 breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise. And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay. And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly brittle. And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men; but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay. And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed; and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever. Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

46 Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odours unto him. The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret. Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon. Then Daniel requested of the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon; but Daniel sat in the gate of the king.

3 NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king made an image of gold, whose height was three-score cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon. Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

4 Then a herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, O people, nations, and languages, that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up: and whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of music, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

8 Wherefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and accused the Jews.
9 10 They spoke and said to the king Nebuchadnezzar, O king, live for ever! Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man who shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image: and whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. There are certain Jews whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; these men, O king, have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

13 Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king. Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said unto them, Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, that ye do not serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?
15 Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace;—and who is that God who shall deliver you out of my hands?

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not careful to answer thee in this matter. If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thy hand, O king. But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will 18 not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed 19 against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spoke, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated. And he commanded the most mighty men who were in his army to bind 20 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. Then these men were bound in their mantles, their turbans, their cloaks, and 21 their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.
Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceedingly 22 hot, the flame of the fire slew those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound 23 into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste, and spoke, 24 and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king. He answered and 25 said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like a son of the gods. Then Nebuchadnezzar 26 came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spoke, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, came forth out of the midst of the fire. And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counsellors, being 27 gathered together, saw these men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was a hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor had the smell of fire settled on them.

Then Nebuchadnezzar spoke, and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, 28 and Abed-nego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants who trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God. Therefore I make a de- 29 cree, That every people, nation, and language, who speak any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill: because there is no other God who can deliver after this sort. Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, in the 30 province of Babylon.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king, unto all people, nations, and languages, who 4 dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you. I thought it good to show the signs and wonders that the high God hath wrought towards me. How great are 3 his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

I Nebuchadnezzar was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace: I saw 4 5 a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head troubled me. Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of 6 Babylon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream. Then came in the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the sooth- 7 sayers; and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known unto me the interpretation thereof. But at last Daniel came in before me, (whose name was 8 Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods:) and before him I told the dream, saying,

O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy 9 gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof. Thus were the visions of my head in 10 my bed; I saw, and, behold, a tree in the midst of the land, and the height thereof was great. The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto the 11 heavens, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth: the leaves thereof were beautiful, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was food for all: the beasts of 12 the field had shadow under it, and the birds of the air dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it. I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a 13 watcher and a holy one came down from heaven; he cried aloud, and said thus, 14
Hew down the tree, and cut off its branches, shake off its leaves, and scatter its fruit:
let the beasts get away from under it, and the birds from its branches: nevertheless 15 leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field. He shall be wet with the dew of the heavens, and his portion shall be with the beasts in the grass of the earth: his heart shall be changed from 16 man's, and a beast's heart shall be given unto him; and seven times shall pass over

- 17 him. This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones; to the intent that the living may know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men.—This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation; but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.
- 19 Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonished for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spoke, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream be to those who hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies. The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heavens, and the sight thereof to all the earth; whose leaves were beautiful, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the birds of the air had their habitation: it is thou, O king, who art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto the heavens, and thy dominion to the end of the earth.
- 23 And whereas the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field. He shall be wet with the dew of the heavens, and his portion shall be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him;—this is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the Most High, which is come upon my lord the king: That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of the heavens, and seven times shall pass over thee, till thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will. And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the heavens do rule.
- 27 Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by showing mercy to the poor; if it may be a lengthening of thy tranquillity.
- 29 All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar. At the end of twelve months he walked upon the roof of the palace of the kingdom of Babylon. The king spoke, and said, Is not this great Babylon, which I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty? While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee. And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.
- 33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar; and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the heavens, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.
- 34 And at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto the heavens, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honoured him who liveth for ever, whose dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation: and all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou? At the same time my reason returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my honour and brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added unto me.
- 37 Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: and those who walk in pride he is able to abase.
- 5 BELSHAZZAR the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand. Belshazzar, whilst he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king, and his princes, his wives, 3 and his concubines, might drink therein. Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank out of them. They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the lampholder upon the plaster of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote. Then the king's countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against another. The king cried aloud to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king spoke, and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and show me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom. Then came in all the king's wise men; but they could not read the writing, so as to make known to the king the interpretation thereof. Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his lords were perplexed.

Now the queen, by reason of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banquet house: and the queen spoke and said, O king, live for ever! let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed: there is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers; forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and showing of hard sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation.

Then was Daniel brought in before the king. And the king spoke and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, who art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Jewry? I have even heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in thee. And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not show the interpretation of the thing: and I have heard of thee, that thou canst make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation. O thou king, the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour: and for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew; and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he set up; and whom he would he put down. But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him: and he was driven from the sons of men; and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the heavens; till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will. And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thy heart, though thou knewest all this; but hast lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine out of them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, thou hast not glorified. Then was the part of the hand sent from him; and this writing was written.

And this is the writing that was written, MENE, TEKEL, PERES. This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it. TEKEL; Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting. PERES; Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.

Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with purple, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be

30 the third ruler in the kingdom.—In that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chal-
 31 deans slain. And Darius the Median took the kingdom, being about threescore and two years old.

6 IT pleased Darius to set over the kingdom a hundred and twenty princes, who should be over the whole kingdom; and over these, three presidents; of whom Daniel was first; that the princes might give account unto them, and the king should have no damage. Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

4 Then the presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find no occasion or fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him. Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God.

6 Then these presidents and princes assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, King Darius, live for ever. All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the captains, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, except of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions. Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not. Wherefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree.

10 Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and the windows in his upper chamber being open towards Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime.

11 Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God. Then they came near, and spoke before the king concerning the king's decree; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man who shall ask a petition of any god or man within thirty days, except of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not. Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, who is of the children of the captivity of Judah, regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day. Then the king, when he heard these words, was exceedingly distressed in himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him: and he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

15 Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is, That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed. Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spoke and said unto Daniel, Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee. And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel. Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: neither were instruments of music brought before him: and his sleep went from him.

19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions. And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel: and the king spoke and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?

21 22 Then said Daniel unto the king, O king, live for ever! My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt. Then was the king exceedingly glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God.

24 And the king commanded, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and broke all their bones in pieces before they came to the bottom of the den.

25 Then king Darius wrote unto all people, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you. I make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel; for he is the living

God, and steadfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end. He delivereth and rescueth, and he work- 27 eth signs and wonders in the heavens and in the earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the 28 Persian.

IN the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions 7 of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters.

Daniel spoke and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of 2 the heavens strove upon the great sea. And four great beasts came up from the 3 sea, diverse one from another. The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I 4 beheld till its wings were plucked, wherewith it was lifted up from the earth, and became erect as a man, and a man's heart was given to it. And, behold, another 5 beast, a second, like to a bear, which was raised up, and it had three tusks in its mouth between its teeth: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.
After this I beheld, and lo, another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it 6 four wings of a bird; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.
After this I saw in the night visions, and, behold, a fourth beast, dreadful and ter- 7 rible, and exceedingly strong; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns. I considered the horns, and, be- 8 hold, there came up among them another little horn, before which there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

I beheld till thrones were placed, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment 9 was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire. A fiery stream issued and came 10 forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened. I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn 11 spoke: I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame. As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion 12 taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for an appointed time.

I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the 13 clouds of the heavens, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all 14 people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my 15 head troubled me. I came near unto one of those who stood by, and asked him the 16 meaning of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things. These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of 17 the earth. But the saints of the Most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the 18 kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was different from all the 19 others, exceedingly dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and its nails of brass; which devoured, broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet; and of the ten 20 horns that were in its head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spoke very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows. I beheld, and the same horn made 21 war with the saints, and prevailed against them; until the Ancient of days came, 22 and judgment was given to the saints of the Most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom. Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the 23 fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces. And the 24 ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings who shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings. And he shall speak great words against the Most High, and shall wear out 25 the saints of the Most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time. But the 26 judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end. And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the king- 27 dom under the whole heavens, shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.

- 28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my thoughts much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me; but I kept the matter in my heart.

8 IN the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

2 And I saw in a vision; and when I saw, I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai.

3 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the

4 other, and the higher came up last. I saw the ram pushing westwards, and northwards, and southwards; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any who could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great.

5 And as I was considering, behold, a he-goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between 6 his eyes. And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing
7 before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power. And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with great rage against him, and smote the ram, and broke his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none who could deliver the ram out of his hand.

8 Therefore the he-goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones towards the four winds of the 9 heavens. And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceedingly great, towards the south, and towards the east, and towards the pleasant land.

10 And it waxed great, even to the host of the heavens; and it cast down some of the 11 host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them. Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and from him the daily sacrifice was taken away,

12 and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. And a host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and

13 it practised, and prospered. Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint who spoke, How long shall the vision last, the daily sacrifice

14 be taken away, and the transgression of desolation continue? And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.

15 And when I, (even I Daniel,) had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning,
16 then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man. And I heard a man's voice between the banks of the Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man

17 to understand the vision. So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face; but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man; for 18 at the time appointed shall the vision be accomplished. Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face towards the ground; but he touched me, 19 and made me stand upright. And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation; for there shall be an end.

20 The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia.
21 And the rough goat is the king of Grecia: and the great horn that is between his

22 eyes is the first king. Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four 23 kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power. And in the latter

24 time of their kingdom, when the transgressors shall be consumed, a king of fierce
25 countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. And his power

26 shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people. And

27 through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and in peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand

28 up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand. And the vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true: wherefore shut thou up the vision; for it shall be for many days.

29 And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days; afterwards I rose up, and did the king's business; and though I was astonished at the vision, yet none perceived it.

9 IN the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, who was king over the realm of the Chaldeans; in the first year of his reign I Daniel understood by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.

And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with 3 fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes : and I prayed unto the LORD my God, and made 4 my confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to those who love him, and to those who keep his commandments ; we 5 have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments : neither have we 6 hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, who spoke in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. O Lord, righteousness 7 belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day ; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, who are near, and who are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee. O Lord, to us belongeth con- 8 fusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee. To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have 9 rebelled against him ; neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to 10 walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. Yea, all Is- 11 rael have transgressed thy law, even so as to revolt from hearkening to thy voice ; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Mo- 12 ses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him. And he hath confirm- ed his words, which he spoke against us, and against our judges who judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil : for under the whole heavens hath not been done as 13 hath been done in Jerusalem. As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us : yet made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might 14 turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth. Therefore hath the LORD 15 hastened the evil, and brought it upon us : for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth : for we obeyed not his voice.—And now, O Lord our God, who 16 hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast gotten thee renown, as at this day ; we have sinned, we have done wickedly. O 17 Lord, according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain : because for our 18 sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all who are about us.—Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of 19 thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake. O my God, incline thine ear, and hear ; open 20 thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name : for we do not present our supplications before thee for our righteousness, but for thy 21 great mercies. O Lord, hear ; O Lord, forgive ; O Lord, hearken and do ; defer 22 not, for thine own sake, O my God : for thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

And whilst I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my 20 people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God ; yea, whilst I was speaking in prayer, even the man Ga- 21 briel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation. And he informed me, and talked 22 with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee skill and under- standing. At the beginning of thy supplications the commandment came forth, and 23 I am come to show thee ; (for thou art greatly beloved :) therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision.

Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the 24 transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most holy One.

Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to 25 restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks : the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.

And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself : 26 and the people of the prince who cometh shall destroy the city and the sanctuary ; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

And he shall confirm a covenant with the chiefs for one week : and in the midst 27 of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and upon the batlements shall be the abominations of the desolator, until he be consumed, and the determined judgment shall be poured out upon the desolated.

10 IN the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, but the time appointed was 2 long: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision. In those 3 days I Daniel was mourning three full weeks. I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine into my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And on the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the 5 great river, which is Hiddekel; then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, 6 a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz: his body also was like the topaz, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the 7 voice of his words like the voice of a multitude. And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men who were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon 8 them, so that they fled to hide themselves. Therefore I was left alone, and saw this 9 great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength. Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face towards the ground.

10 And, behold, a hand touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms 11 of my hands. And he said unto me, O Daniel, a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and stand upright; for unto thee am I now sent. 12 And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling. Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thy heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come 13 for thy words. But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia. Now I am come to make thee understand 14 what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days. 15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face towards the ground, and I became dumb.

16 And, behold, one in the likeness of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spoke, and said unto him who stood before me, O my lord, by the 17 vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength. For how can the servant of this my lord talk with him? for as for me, immediately there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me. Then there came again 18 and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me, and said, O man greatly beloved, fear not: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to contend with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of 21 Grecia shall come. But I will show thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none who holdeth with me in these things, but Michael your prince.

11 Also I in the first year of Darius the Mede, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

2 And now will I show thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than them all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Greece.

3 And a mighty king shall resist, who shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will.

4 And when he shall have resisted, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided towards the four winds of the heavens; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion with which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be torn up, even for others besides those.

5 And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.

6 And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and those who brought her, and her son, and he who strengthened her in these times.

But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up in his place, who shall come 7 with an army, and shall enter into the fortified towns of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail: and shall also carry captives into 8 Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the north. And when he 9 shall enter the kingdom of the king of the south, he shall be forced to return into his own land.

But his sons shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces; 10 and one shall certainly come, and overflow, and pass through: then shall he return, and be stirred up, and carry war, even to his fortress. And the king of the south, 11 shall be moved with rage, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand. And when he hath taken away the multitude, his heart 12 shall be lifted up; and though he shall cast down ten thousands, he shall not prevail.
For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than 13 the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much riches.

And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also 14 the perverse sons of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall. So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take 15 the most fenced cities: and the arms of the king of the south shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand. But he 16 who cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him: and he shall stand in the glorious land, which shall be subdued by his power.

He shall also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and 17 with proposals of alliance; thus shall he do: and he shall give him his daughter, the fairest of women, that she may be corrupted: but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him. After this shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take 18 many: but a prince shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease, and turn the disgrace on himself. Then he shall turn his face towards the fortresses of his own 19 land: but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found.

Then shall stand up in his estate a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but 20 within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle.

And in his estate shall stand up a vile person, to whom they shall not give the 21 honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries. And with the arms of the overflower shall they be overflowed from before 22 him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince of the covenant. And after the league made with him he shall work deceitfully; for he shall come up, and shall be- 23 come strong with a small people. He shall enter peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yea, 24 and he shall forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time. And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great 25 army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand; for they shall forecast devices against him.
Yea, those who ate of his food shall destroy him, and his army shall be overthrown; 26 and many shall fall down slain. And both these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall 27 be at the time appointed. Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and return to 28
his own land.

At the time appointed he shall return, and come into the south; but the latter 29 time shall not be as the former. For the ships of Chittim shall come against him: 30 therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with those who forsake the holy covenant. And armies shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute 31 the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate. And such as do wickedly against the cove- 32 nant shall he corrupt by flatteries; but the people who know their God shall be strong, and do exploits. And those who understand among the people shall instruct 33 many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days. Now when they shall fall, they shall be helped with a little help: but 34 many shall cleave to them with flatteries. And some of them of understanding 35 shall fall, to try them, and to purify, and to make them white, even to the time of the end.

- 36 For yet for an appointed time a king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that which is determined shall be done. Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god; for he shall magnify himself above all. But in his estate shall he honour the god of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things. Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory; and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain.
- 40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over. He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown; but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon. He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries; and the land of Egypt shall not escape. But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps. But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many. And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

- 12 And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince who standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one who shall be found written in the book. And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. And those who are wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and those who turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever.
- 4 But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.
- 5 Then I Daniel looked, and, behold, there stood other two, the one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river. And one said to the man clothed in linen, who was upon the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders? And I heard the man clothed in linen, who was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto the heavens, and swore by him who liveth for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and a half; and when he shall have accomplished the dispersions of the holy people, all these things shall be fulfilled.
- 8 And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things? And he said, Go thy way, Daniel; for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end. Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand. And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days. Blessed is he who waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days. But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou shalt rest, and stand in thy lot at the end of the days.

H O S E A

- 1 THE word of the LORD which came unto Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

HOSEA II.

THE beginning of the word of the LORD by Hosea. And the LORD said to 2
Hosea, Go, take unto thee a wife of idolatries and children of idolatries; for the land is given to commit great idolatry, departing from the LORD.

So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; who conceived, and bore 3 him a son. And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little 4 while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease. And at that day I will break the bow 5 of Israel for the conspiracy of Jezreel.

And she conceived again, and bore a daughter. And God said unto him, Call 6 her name Lo-ruhamah: for I will not continue to show mercy to the house of Israel; but I will surely take them away. But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, 7 and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

And when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah [NO MERCY], she conceived, and bore a 8 son. Then said God, Call his name Lo-ammi [NOT MY PEOPLE]; for ye are not my 9 people, and I will not be your God. Yet the number of the children of Israel 10 shall be as the sand of the sea, which can neither be measured nor numbered;
and instead of it being said of them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said of them, Ye are the children of the living God. Then shall the children of 11 Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and they shall appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land; for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

2 SAY ye unto your brethren, Ammi;

And to your sisters, Ruhamah.

2 Plead with your mother, plead;

For she is not my wife,

Neither am I her husband:

Let her therefore put away her idolatries out of her sight,

And her sensualities from between her breasts;

3 Lest I strip her naked,

And set her as in the day that she was born,

And make her as a wilderness,

And set her like a waste land,

And slay her with thirst.

4 And I will not have mercy upon her children;

For they are the children of idolatries.

5 For their mother hath been wanton:

She who conceived them hath done shamefully:

For she said, I will go after my lovers,

Who give me my bread and my water,

My wool and my flax, mine oil and my drink.

6 Therefore, behold, I will stop up thy way with thorns,

And make a hedge,

That she shall not find her paths.

7 And she shall follow after her lovers—but she shall not overtake them;

And she shall seek them—but shall not find them:

Then shall she say, I will go and return to my first husband;

For then was it better with me than now.

8 For she did not know that I gave her the corn, and the new wine, and the oil,

And that I multiplied her silver and gold,

Which they prepared for Baal.

9 Therefore will I return, and take away my corn in the time thereof,

And my new wine in the season thereof,

And will recover my wool and my flax

Given to cover her nakedness.

10 And now will I discover her corruption in the sight of her lovers,

And none shall deliver her out of my hand.

11 I will also cause all her enjoyments to cease,

Her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths,

And all her solemn feasts.

12 And I will destroy her vines and her fig trees,

Because she hath said, These are my rewards

That my lovers have given me:

- And I will make them a forest,
And the beasts of the field shall eat them.
- 13 And I will visit upon her the days of Baalim,
To whom she burnt incense,
And she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels,
And she went after her lovers,
And forgot me, saith the LORD.
- 14 Therefore, behold, I will allure her,
And cause her to go into the wilderness,
And then will I speak comfortably unto her.
- 15 And I will give her her vineyards from thence,
And the valley of Achor for a door of hope:
And she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth,
And as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.
- 16 And at that day, saith the LORD,
Thou shalt call me Ishi [MY HUSBAND];
And shalt call me no more Baali [MY LORD].
- 17 For I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth,
And they shall no more be remembered by their name.
- 18 And in that day will I make a covenant for them
With the beasts of the field,
And with the birds of the air,
And with the creeping things of the ground:
And I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the land,
And will make them to lie down safely.
- 19 And I will betroth thee unto me for ever;
Yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgment,
And in lovingkindness, and in mercies.
- 20 I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness:
And thou shalt know the LORD.
- 21 And in that day I will answer, saith the LORD,
I will answer the heavens,
And they shall answer the earth;
22 And the earth shall answer the corn, and the new wine, and the oil;
And they shall answer Jezreel.
- 23 And I will sow her unto me in the earth;
And I will have mercy upon her who had not obtained mercy;
And I will say to those who were not my people, Thou art my people;
And they shall say, Thou art our God.
- 3 THEN said the LORD unto me, Go yet, love a woman who hath loved evil, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the LORD towards the children of Israel, 2 who look to other gods, and love the juice of grapes. So I bought her to me for 3 fifteen pieces of silver, and for a homer of barley, and a half homer of barley: and I said unto her, Thou shalt abide for me many days; thou shalt not be wanton, and thou shalt not be for another man: so will I also be for thee.
- 4 For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king, and without a ruler, and without sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim: afterwards shall the children of Israel return, and earnestly seek the 5 LORD their God, and David their king; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the latter days.
- 4 HEAR the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel:
For the LORD hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land,
Because there is neither truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land.
2 By swearing, and lying, and killing,
And stealing, and committing adultery, they break out,
And blood toucheth blood.
3 Therefore shall the land mourn,
And every one who dwelleth therein shall languish,
With the beasts of the field, and with the birds of the air;
Yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.
4 Yet no man doth strive, nor reprove another;
For thy people are as those who strive with the priest.

- 5 Therefore shalt thou stumble in the day,
And the prophet also shall stumble with thee in the night,
And I will destroy thy mother.
- 6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge :
Because thou hast rejected knowledge,
I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me :
Seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God,
I will also forget thy children.
- 7 As they were increased, so they sinned against me :
Therefore will I change their glory into shame.
- 8 They eat up the sin offerings of my people,
And they set their heart on their iniquity.
- 9 And therefore shall it be, like people, like priest :
And I will punish them for their ways,
And reward them their doings.
- 10 For they shall eat, and not have enough :
They shall commit idolatry, and shall not increase :
Because they have left off to take heed to the LORD.
- 11 Idolatry and wine and new wine take away the heart.
- 12 My people ask counsel at their idols,
And their staff declareth unto them :
For the spirit of idolatry hath caused them to err,
And they have gone astray from their God.
- 13 They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains,
And burn incense upon the hills,
Under oaks and poplars and elms,
Because the shadow thereof is good :
Therefore your daughters commit idolatry,
And your daughters-in-law commit adultery.
- 14 Shall I not punish your daughters when they commit idolatry,
Or your daughters-in-law when they commit adultery ?
For they themselves are separated with idolaters,
And they sacrifice with the wanton ones :
Therefore the people who do not understand shall fall.
- 15 Though thou, Israel, play the wanton one,
Yet let not Judah offend ;
And come not ye unto Gilgal,
Neither go ye up to Beth-aven,
Nor swear, The LORD liveth.
- 16 For Israel slideth back as a backsliding heifer :
But now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in a large place.
- 17 Ephraim is joined to idols—let him alone.
- 18 He is gone after their wine :
Her rulers have committed idolatry continually :
They have even loved shame.
- 19 The wind hath bound her up in her wings,
And they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

- 5 HEAR ye this, O priests ;
And hearken, ye house of Israel ;
And give ye ear, O house of the king ;
For judgment is towards you,
Because ye have been a snare on Mizpah,
And a net spread upon Tabor.
- 2 The revolvers have made deep the slaughter,
Therefore will I bring chastisement on them all.
- 3 I know Ephraim,
And Israel is not hid from me :
For now, O Ephraim, thou committest idolatry,
And Israel is defiled.
- 4 Their doings will not suffer them to turn unto their God ;
For the spirit of idolatry is in the midst of them,
And they have not known the LORD.
- 5 And the pride of Israel testifieth against him :

HOSEA VI.

- Therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity ;
Judah also shall fall with them.
- 6 They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD ;
But they shall not find him ;
He hath withdrawn himself from them.
- 7 They have dealt treacherously against the LORD :
For they have begotten strange children :
Now shall a month devour them and their portions.
- 8 BLOW ye the horn in Gibeah,
And the trumpet in Ramah :
Shout aloud at Beth-aven : fly, for the enemy pursueth after thee, O Benjamin.
- 9 Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke :
Among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be.
- 10 The rulers of Judah were like those who remove the landmark :
Therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.
- 11 Ephraim is oppressed and broken in judgment,
Because he willingly walked after the commandment.
- 12 Therefore will I be unto Ephraim as a moth,
And to the house of Judah as rottenness.
- 13 When Ephraim saw his sickness,
And Judah saw his wound,
Then went Ephraim to the Assyrian,
And he sent to king Jareb :
Yet could he not heal you,
Nor cure you of your wound.
- 14 For I will be unto Ephraim as a lion,
And as a young lion to the house of Judah :
I, even I, will tear and go on ;
I will take away, and none shall rescue him.
- 15 I will go and return to my place,
Till they acknowledge their offence, and earnestly seek my face :
In their affliction they will seek me early.
- 6 Come, and let us return unto the LORD :
For he hath torn—and he will heal us ;
He hath smitten—and he will bind us up.
- 2 After two days will he revive us :
In the third day he will raise us up,
And we shall live in his sight.
- 3 Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD :
For his going forth is prepared as the morning star ;
And he shall come unto us as the rain,
As the latter and former rain that nourisheth the earth.
- 4 O EPHRAIM! what shall I do unto thee?
O Judah! what shall I do unto thee?
For your goodness is as the morning cloud,
And as the early dew it goeth away.
- 5 Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets ;
I have slain them by the words of my mouth :
And my judgments are as the light that goeth forth.
- 6 For I desired mercy, rather than sacrifice ;
And the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings.
- 7 But they like Adam have transgressed the covenant :
There have they dealt treacherously against me.
- 8 Gilead is the city of the workers of iniquity,
And is polluted with blood.
- 9 And as troops of robbers wait for a man,
So the company of priests murder in the way with one consent ;
For they commit lewdness.
- 10 I have seen a horrible thing in the house of Israel :
There is the idolatry of Ephraim,
Israel is defiled.
- 11 Also, O Judah, he hath set a harvest for thee,
When I bring back the captivity of my people.

- 7 When I would have healed Israel,
 Then the iniquity of Ephraim was discovered,
 And the wickedness of Samaria :
 For they commit falsehood ;
 And the thief cometh in,
 And the troop of robbers spoileth without.
2 And they consider not in their hearts
 That I remember all their wickedness :
 Now their own doings have beset them about ;
 They are before my face.
3 They make the king glad with their wickedness,
 And the princes with their lies.
4 They are all adulterers,
 As an oven heated by the baker,
 Who ceaseth from watching after he hath kneaded the dough,
 Until it be leavened.
5 On the feast day of our king,
 When the princes made themselves sick with wine,
 He stretched out his hand with scoffers.
6 For their heart is hot like an oven,
 Whilst they lie in wait :
 Their baker sleepeth all the night ;
 In the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.
7 They are all hot as an oven,
 And have devoured their judges ;
 All their kings are fallen :
 There are none among them who call unto me.
8 Ephraim hath mixed himself among the nations ;
 Ephraim is like a cake not turned.
9 Strangers have devoured his strength—and he knoweth it not ;
 Yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him—yet he knoweth not.
10 And the pride of Israel was humbled to his face :
 Nevertheless they have not returned to the LORD their God,
 Nor sought him for all this.
11 Ephraim also is like a silly dove without knowledge :
 They call to Egypt, they go to Assyria.
12 When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them ;
 I will bring them down as the birds of the air ;
 I will chastise them, as their congregation hath heard.
13 Woe unto them ! for they have fled from me :
 Destruction unto them ! because they have transgressed against me :
 I would have redeemed them—but they have spoken lies against me.
14 And they have not cried unto me with their heart,
 Though they howled upon their beds :
 They assemble themselves for corn and new wine,
 And they rebel against me.
15 Though I have bound and strengthened their arms,
 Yet do they imagine mischief against me.
16 They return—but not to the Most High :
 They are like a deceitful bow :
 Their princes shall fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue :
 This shall be their reproach in the land of Egypt.
- 8 SET the trumpet to thy mouth.
 The Assyrian shall come as an eagle against the house of the LORD,
 Because they have transgressed my covenant,
 And trespassed against my law.
2 Israel shall cry unto me, My God, we know thee.
3 Israel hath cast off the thing that is good :
 Therefore an enemy shall pursue him.
4 They have set up kings, but not by me :
 They have made princes, of whom I approved not :
 Of their silver and their gold have they made them idols,
 That they may be cut off.

HOSEA IX.

- 5 Thy calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off;
Mine anger is kindled against them :
How long will it be ere they attain to innocency ?
- 6 For from Israel was it also :
The workman made it ; therefore it is not God :
But the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.
- 7 For they have sown the wind—and they shall reap the whirlwind :
The stalk hath no bud : the bud shall yield no meal :
Even if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up.
- 8 Israel is swallowed up :
Now shall they be among the Gentiles as a vessel wherein is no pleasure.
- 9 For they are gone up to Assyria, a wild ass alone by himself :
Ephraim hath hired lovers.
- 10 Yea, though they be given up among the nations, yet will I gather them,
And they shall sorrow a little for the burden of the king and the princes.
- 11 Because Ephraim hath made many altars to idolatry,
Although he had altars to sin.
- 12 I have written to him the great things of my law,
But they were counted as a strange thing.
- 13 They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it ;
But the LORD accepteth them not ;
Now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins :
They shall return to Egypt for help.
- 14 For Israel hath forgotten his Maker, and buildeth temples ;
And Judah hath multiplied fenced cities :
But I will send a fire into his cities,
And it shall devour the palaces thereof.
- 9 THOU shalt not rejoice, O Israel, for joy, as other people ;
For thou hast departed from thy God,
Thou hast loved a reward upon every cornfloor.
- 2 The floor and the winepress shall not feed them,
And the new wine shall fail in her.
- 3 They shall not dwell in the LORD'S land ;
But Ephraim shall return to Egypt,
And they shall eat unclean things in Assyria.
- 4 They shall not offer wine offerings to the LORD,
Neither shall they be pleasing unto him :
Their sacrifices shall be unto them as the bread of mourners ;
All who eat thereof shall be polluted :
For their bread offerings for their soul
Shall not come into the house of the LORD.
- 5 What will ye do in the solemn day,
And in the day of the feast of the LORD ?
- 6 For, lo, they are gone because of destruction :
Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them :
The precious vessels of silver, nettles shall cover them :
Thorns shall be in their tabernacles.
- 7 The days of visitation are come,
The days of recompence are come ;
Israel shall know it :
The prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is mad,
For the greatness of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.
- 8 The watchman of Ephraim was with my God ;
But the prophet is as a snare of a fowler in all his ways,
And deep is their hatred to the house of my God.
- 9 They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Gibeah :
Therefore he will remember their iniquity,
He will visit their sins.
- 10 I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness ;
I saw your fathers as the early figs on the fig tree at her first bearing :
But they went to Baal-peor,
And separated themselves unto that shame ;
And they became an abomination like the object they loved.

HOSEA X.

- 11 As for Ephraim, his glory shall fly away like a bird,
From the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception.
- 12 Though they bring up their children,
Yet will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left:
Yea, woe also to them when I depart from them!
- 13 Ephraim, as I saw Tyre, is planted in a pleasant place;
But Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the murderer.
- 14 Give them, O LORD:—what wilt thou give?
Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.
- 15 All their wickedness is in Gilgal;
For there I hated them:
For the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of my house
I will love them no more:
All their princes are revolvers.
- 16 Ephraim is smitten,
Their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit:
Yea, though they bring forth,
Yet will I slay even the beloved fruit of their womb.
- 17 My God will cast them away,
Because they did not hearken unto him:
And they shall be wanderers among the nations.

- 10 ISRAEL is a luxuriant vine,
He bringeth forth fruit unto himself:
According to the multitude of his fruit he hath increased the altars;
According to the goodness of his land so have they delighted in images.
- 2 Their heart is divided—now shall they be found faulty:
He shall break down their altars,
He shall spoil their images.
 - 3 For now they shall say,
We have no king, because we feared not the LORD;
What then should a king do for us?
 - 4 They have spoken words,
Swearing falsely in making a covenant:
Thus judgment springeth up as hemlock in the furrows of the field.
 - 5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear because of the calf of Beth-aven;
For the people thereof shall mourn over it,
And the priests thereof rejoice for it,
Even for the glory thereof, when it is departed from it.
 - 6 It shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present to king Jareb:
Ephraim shall receive shame,
And Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel.
 - 7 As for Samaria, her king is as foam upon the surface of the waters.
 - 8 The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed:
The thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars;
And they shall say to the mountains, Cover us;
And to the hills, Fall on us.
 - 9 O Israel, thou hast sinned more than in the days of Gibeah:
There they stood:
The battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.
 - 10 It is in my desire, and I will chastise them;
And the people shall be gathered against them,
When I shall chastise them for their iniquities.
 - 11 And Ephraim is as a heifer that is taught,
And loveth to tread out the corn;
But I passed the yoke over her beautiful neck:
I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plough,
And Jacob shall break his clods.
 - 12 Sow to yourselves in righteousness—reap in mercy;
Break up your fallow ground;
For it is time to seek the LORD,
Till he come and rain righteousness upon you.
 - 13 Ye have ploughed wickedness—ye have reaped iniquity;
Ye have eaten the fruit of deceit;

- Because thou didst trust in thy way,
In the multitude of thy mighty men.
- 14 Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people,
And all thy fortresses shall be spoiled,
As Shalmanezar spoiled Beth-arbel in the day of battle:
The mother was dashed in pieces upon her children.
- 15 So shall he do unto you, Beth-el, because of your great wickedness:
In a morning shall the king of Israel utterly be cut off.

- 11 WHEN Israel was a child, then I loved him,
And called my son out of Egypt.
- 2 When I called, then they departed from me:
They sacrificed unto Baalim,
And burnt incense to graven images.
- 3 I taught the Ephraimites also to go, taking them by their arms;
But they knew not that I healed them.
- 4 I drew them with cords of a man, with strong bands of love:
And I was to them as those who take off the yoke from their jaws,
And I spread food before them.
- 5 He shall not return into the land of Egypt,
But the Assyrian shall be his king,
Because they refused to return to me.
- 6 And the sword shall abide on his cities,
And shall consume his diviners, and devour them,
Because of their own counsels.
- 7 And my people are bent to backsliding from me:
Though they were called to return to the Most High,
None of them would exalt him.
- 8 How shall I give thee up, O Ephraim?
How shall I deliver thee, O Israel?
How shall I make thee as Admah?
How shall I subvert thee as Zeboim?
My heart is turned within me,
My repentings are kindled together.
- 9 I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger,
I will not return to destroy Ephraim:
For I am God, and not man;
The Holy One in the midst of thee:
And I will not come in fury against thee.
- 10 They shall walk after the LORD:
He shall roar like a lion:
When he shall roar,
Then shall his sons hasten with trembling from the west.
- 11 They shall hasten with trembling as a bird out of Egypt,
And as a dove out of the land of Assyria:
And I will place them in their houses, saith the LORD.
- 12 EPHRAIM compasseth me about with lies,
And the house of Israel with deceit;
But Judah yet ruleth with God,
And is faithful with the saints,
Ephraim feedeth on wind, and followeth after the east wind:
- 12 He daily increaseth lies and robbery;
And they do make a covenant with the Assyrians,
And oil is carried into Egypt.
- 2 The LORD hath also a controversy with Judah,
And will punish Jacob according to his ways;
According to his doings will he recompense him.
- 3 He took his brother by the heel in the womb,
And by his strength he had power with God:
- 4 Yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed:
He wept, and made supplication unto him:
He found him in Beth-el, and there he spoke with us;
- 5 Even the LORD God of hosts;
The LORD is his memorial.

- 6 Therefore shalt thou turn to thy God :
And keep mercy and judgment,
And wait on thy God continually.
- 7 He is a merchant,
The balances of deceit are in his hand :
He loveth to oppress.
- 8 And Ephraim said, Yet I am become rich,
I have found me out substance :
In all my labours thou shalt find no iniquity in me that were sin.
- 9 And I who am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt
Will yet make thee to dwell in tabernacles,
As in the days of the solemn feasts.
- 10 I have also spoken by the prophets,
And I have multiplied visions,
And used similitudes, by the ministry of the prophets ;
- 11 Yet there is iniquity in Gilead—surely the idols are vanity :
They sacrifice bullocks in Gilgal ;
Yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields.
- 12 And Jacob fled into the country of Syria,
And Israel served for a wife,
And for a wife he kept sheep.
- 13 And by a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt,
And by a prophet was he preserved.
- 14 Ephraim provoked him to anger most bitterly :
Therefore shall he leave his blood upon him,
And his reproach shall his Lord return unto him.
- 13 WHEN Ephraim spoke trembling, he was exalted in Israel ;
But when he offended in Baal, he died.
- 2 And now they sin more and more,
And have made them molten images of their silver,
And idols according to their own understanding,
All of it the work of the craftsmen :
They say of them, Let the calves, the sacrifices of men, be worshipped,
- 3 Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud,
And as the early dew that pass away,
As the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind from the floor,
And as the smoke out of the chimney.
- 4 Yet I am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt,
And thou didst know no god but me :
For there is no saviour besides me.
- 5 I knew thee in the wilderness,
In the land of great drought.
- 6 According to their pasture, so were they filled ;
They were filled, and their heart was exalted ;
Therefore have they forgotten me.
- 7 Therefore I will be unto them as a lion :
As a leopard by the way will I observe them :
- 8 I will meet them as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps,
And will rend their obdurate hearts,
And there will I devour them like a lion :
The wild beasts of the field shall tear them.
- 9 O Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself—but in me is thy help.
- 10 I will be thy king :
Where is any other who may save thee in all thy cities ?
And thy judges of whom thou saidst, Give me a king and princes ?
- 11 I gave thee a king in mine anger, and took him away in my wrath.
- 12 The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up ; his sin is hidden.
- 13 The sorrows of a travelling woman shall come upon him :
He is an unwise son ;
Therefore he shall not stand in the time of the breaking forth of children.
- 14 I will ransom them from the power of the grave ;
I will redeem them from death :
O death, I will be thy plague ;

HOSEA XIV.

- O grave, I will be thy destruction :
Repentance shall be hid from mine eyes.
- 15 Though he be fruitful among his brethren, an east wind shall come,
The wind of the LORD shall come up from the wilderness,
And his spring shall become dry,
And his fountain shall be dried up :
He shall spoil the treasure house of all its desirable vessels.
- 16 Samaria shall become desolate ;
For she hath rebelled against her God :
Her inhabitants shall fall by the sword :
Their infants shall be dashed in pieces,
And their women with child shall be ripped up.
- 14 O Israel, return unto the LORD thy God ;
For thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.
- 2 Take with you words, and turn to the LORD :
Say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously :
That we may render the fruit of our lips.
- 3 Assyria shall not save us ;
We will not ride upon horses :
Neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods :
For in thee the fatherless findeth mercy.
- 4 I will heal their backsliding,
I will love them freely :
For mine anger is turned away from them.
- 5 I will be as the dew unto Israel :
He shall blossom as the rose,
And strike forth his roots as Lebanon.
- 6 His branches shall spread,
And his beauty shall be as the olive tree,
And his smell as Lebanon.
- 7 They shall return sitting under his shadow ;
They shall revive as the corn, and grow as the vine :
The scent thereof shall be as the wine of Lebanon.
- 8 Ephraim shall say, What have I to do any more with idols ?
I have heard and observed him :
I will make him like a green fir tree.
From me is thy fruit found.
- 9 Who is wise, that he may understand these things ?
Prudent, that he may know them ?
For the ways of the LORD are right, and the just shall walk in them :
But the disobedient shall fall therein.

JOEL.

1 THE WORD OF THE LORD THAT CAME TO JOEL THE SON OF PETHUEL.

- 2 HEAR this, ye old men,
And give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land.
Hath this been in your days,
Or even in the days of your fathers ?
- 3 Tell ye your children of it,
And let your children tell their children,
And their children another generation.
- 4 That which the palmerworm hath left hath the locust eaten ;
And that which the locust hath left hath the cankerworm eaten ;
And that which the cankerworm hath left hath the caterpillar eaten.

- 5 Awake, ye drunkards, and weep;
And howl, all ye drinkers of wine,
Because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth.
- 6 For a nation is come up upon my land,
Strong, and without number,
Whose teeth are the jaw teeth of a lion,
And he hath the tusks of a great lion.
- 7 He hath laid my vine waste, and barked my fig tree:
He hath stripped it bare, and cast it away;
The branches thereof are made white.
- 8 Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth
For the husband of her youth.
- 9 The thank offering and the drink offering are cut off
From the house of the LORD;
The priests, the LORD'S ministers, mourn.
- 10 The field is wasted, the land mourneth;
For the corn is wasted:
The new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth.
- 11 Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vinedressers,
For the wheat and for the barley;
Because the harvest of the field is perished.
- 12 The vine is dried up, and the fig tree languisheth;
The pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the citron tree,
Even all the trees of the field, are withered;
Yea, joy is withered away from the sons of men.
- 13 Gird yourselves with sackcloth, and lament, ye priests:
Howl, ye ministers of the altar:
Come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God:
For the thank offering and the drink offering is withholden
From the house of your God.
- 14 Sanctify ye a fast, proclaim a solemn assembly,
Gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land
Into the house of the LORD your God,
And cry unto the LORD,
- 15 Alas for the day!
For the day of the LORD is at hand,
And as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come.
- 16 Is not the food cut off before our eyes,
Yea, joy and gladness from the house of our God?
- 17 The seed is rotten under their clods,
The garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down;
For the corn is withered.
- 18 How do the beasts groan!
The herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture;
Yea, the flocks of sheep are destroyed.
- 19 O LORD, to thee will I cry:
For the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness,
And the flame hath burnt all the trees of the field.
- 20 The beasts of the field cry also unto thee;
For the water springs are dried up,
And the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness.
- 2 BLOW ye the trumpet in Zion,
And sound an alarm in my holy mountain:
Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble;
For the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand;
- 2 A day of darkness and of gloominess,
A day of clouds and of thick darkness,
As the morning gloom spread upon the mountains:
The people are mighty and numerous;
There hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it,
Even to the years of many generations.
- 3 A fire devoureth before them;
And behind them a flame burneth:

JOEL II.

- The land is as the garden of Eden before them,
And behind them a desolate wilderness;
Yea, and none shall escape them.
- 4 The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses;
And as horsemen, so shall they run swiftly.
- 5 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap,
Like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble,
As a strong people set in battle array.
- 6 Before their face the people shall fear:
All faces shall gather blackness.
- 7 They shall run swiftly like mighty men;
They shall climb the wall like men of war;
And they shall march every one on his ways,
And they shall not break their ranks:
- 8 Neither shall one thrust another;
Every mighty one shall walk in his path:
And when they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded.
- 9 They shall walk to and fro in the city;
They shall run swiftly upon the wall, they shall climb up upon the houses;
They shall enter in at the windows like a thief.
- 10 The earth shall quake before them;
The heavens shall tremble:
The sun and the moon shall be dark,
And the stars shall withdraw their shining:
- 11 And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army:
For his camp is very great:
For he is strong who executeth his word:
For the day of the LORD is great and very terrible;
And who can abide it?
- 12 Therefore now verily, saith the LORD,
Turn ye even to me with all your heart,
And with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning:
- 13 And rend your heart, and not your garments,
And turn unto the LORD your God:
For he is gracious and merciful,
Slow to anger, and of great kindness,
And giveth comfort instead of evil.
- 14 Whosoever knoweth this will return and be comforted,
And leave a blessing behind him;
Even a thank offering and a drink offering unto the LORD your God?
- 15 Blow the trumpet in Zion,
Sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly:
- 16 Gather the people, sanctify the congregation,
Assemble the elders,
Gather the children, and those who suck the breasts:
Let the bridegroom go forth out of his chamber,
And the bride out of her closet.
- 17 Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD,
Weep between the porch and the altar,
And let them say, Spare thy people, O LORD,
And give not thy heritage to reproach,
That the nations should rule over them:
Wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?
- 18 Then will the LORD be jealous for his land,
And pity his people.
- 19 Yea, the LORD will answer and say unto his people,
Behold, I will send you corn,
And wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith:
And I will no more make you a reproach among the nations:
- 20 But I will remove far off from you the northern army of locusts,
And will drive them into a land barren and desolate,
With their face towards the east sea,
And their hinder part towards the uttermost sea,
And their smell shall rise, and their ill savour shall come up,

- Because they have done great things.
 21 Fear not, O land ; be glad and rejoice :
 For the LORD will do great things.
 22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field ;
 For the pastures of the wilderness shall spring :
 For the tree shall bear her fruit,
 The fig tree and the vine shall yield their strength.
 23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion,
 And rejoice in the LORD your God ;
 For he hath given you the former rain moderately,
 And he will cause to come down for you the rain,
 The former rain, and the latter rain, as in former times.
 24 And the floors shall be full of wheat,
 And the vats shall overflow with new wine and oil.
 25 And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten,
 The cankerworm, and the caterpillar, and the palmer worm,
 My great army which I sent among you.
 26 And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied,
 And praise the name of the LORD your God,
 Who hath dealt wondrously with you :
 And my people shall never be ashamed.
 27 And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel,
 And that I am the LORD your God, and besides me there is no other ;
 And my people shall never be ashamed.
 28 And in the last days,
 I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh ;
 And your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
 Your old men shall dream dreams,
 Your young men shall see visions :
 29 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids
 In those days will I pour out my spirit.
 30 And I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth,
 Blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.
 31 The sun shall be turned into darkness,
 And the moon into blood,
 Before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come.
 32 And whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered :
 For in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance,
 As the LORD hath said,
 And in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.
3 For, behold, in those days, and in that time,
 When I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,
 2 I will also gather all nations,
 And will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat,
 And will plead with them there
 For my people and for my heritage Israel,
 Whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.
 3 And they have cast lots for my people ;
 And have given a boy for a harlot,
 And sold a girl for wine,
 That they might drink.
 4 Yea, and what are ye to me, O Tyre, and Zidon,
 And all the coasts of Palestine ?
 Will ye render me a recompence ?
 And if ye recompense me,
 Swiftly and speedily will I return your recompence upon your own head ;
 5 Because ye have taken my silver and my gold,
 And have carried into your temples my goodly and desirable things :
 6 The children also of Judah and the children of Jerusalem
 Have ye sold unto the Grecians,
 That ye might remove them far off from their border.
 7 Behold, I will raise them out of the place
 Whither ye have sold them,
 And will return your recompence upon your own head :

JOEL III.

- 8 And I will sell your sons and your daughters
Into the hand of the children of Judah,
And they shall sell them to the Sabeans, to a nation afar off:
For the LORD hath spoken it.
- 9 Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles;
Prepare war, wake up the mighty men,
Let all the men of war draw near; let them come up:
- 10 Beat your ploughshares into swords,
And your pruninghooks into spears:
Let the weak say, I am strong.
- 11 Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye nations,
And gather yourselves together round about:
And there shall the LORD put down thy mighty ones.
- 12 Let the nations be stirred up,
And come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat:
For there will I sit to judge all the nations round about.
- 13 Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe:
Come away, get you down; for the winepress is full, the vats overflow;
For their wickedness is great.
- 14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of slaughter:
For the day of the LORD is near in the valley of slaughter.
- 15 When the sun and the moon shall be darkened,
And the stars shall have withdrawn their shining.
- 16 Then the LORD also shall roar out of Zion,
And utter his voice from Jerusalem;
And the heavens and the earth shall shake:
But the LORD will be the refuge of his people.
And a strong defence to the children of Israel.
- 17 So shall ye know that I am the LORD your God
Dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain:
Then shall Jerusalem be holy,
And there shall no strangers pass through her any more.
- 18 And in that day
The mountains shall drop down new wine,
And the hills shall flow with milk,
And all the rivers of Judah shall flow with waters,
And a fountain shall come forth of the house of the LORD,
And shall water the valley of Shittim.
- 19 Egypt shall be a desolation,
And Edom shall be a desolate wilderness,
For the violence towards the children of Judah,
Because they have shed innocent blood in their land.
- 20 But Judah shall be inhabited for ever,
And Jerusalem from generation to generation.
- 21 For I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed;
For the LORD dwelleth in Zion.

A M O S.

- 1 THE words of Amos, who was among the herdmen of Tekoa, which came to him in a vision concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.
- 2 AND he said,
The LORD will cry aloud from Zion,
And utter his voice from Jerusalem;

- And the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn,
And the top of Carmel shall wither.
- 3 Thus saith the LORD;
For the many transgressions of Damascus,
I will not turn away the punishment thereof;
Because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron :
- 4 But I will assuredly send a fire into the house of Hazael,
Which shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad.
- 5 I will break also the gates of Damascus,
And cut off the inhabitant from the valley of On,
And him who holdeth the sceptre from the house of Eden :
And the people of Syria shall be driven into captivity unto Kir, saith the LORD.
- 6 Thus saith the LORD;
For the many transgressions of Gaza,
I will not turn away the punishment thereof;
Because they have driven away captive the whole captivity,
To deliver them up to Edom :
- 7 But I will assuredly send a fire on the wall of Gaza,
Which shall devour the palaces thereof :
- 8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod,
And him who holdeth the sceptre from Ashkelon,
And I will turn my hand against Ekron :
And the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord God.
- 9 Thus saith the LORD;
For the many transgressions of Tyre,
I will not turn away the punishment thereof;
Because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom,
And remembered not the brotherly covenant :
- 10 But I will assuredly send a fire on the wall of Tyre,
Which shall devour the palaces thereof.
- 11 Thus saith the LORD;
For the many transgressions of Edom,
I will not turn away the punishment thereof :
Because he did pursue his brother with the sword,
And did cast off all pity,
And his anger did tear perpetually,
And he kept his wrath for ever :
- 12 But I will assuredly send a fire upon Teman,
Which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah.
- 13 Thus saith the LORD;
For the many transgressions of the children of Ammon,
I will not turn away the punishment thereof;
Because they have divided the mountains of Gilead,
That they might enlarge their border :
- 14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah,
And it shall devour the palaces thereof,
With shouting in the day of battle,
With a tempest in the day of the whirlwind :
- 15 And their king shall go into captivity,
He and his princes together, saith the LORD.
- 2 Thus saith the LORD;
For the many transgressions of Moab,
I will not turn away the punishment thereof;
Because he burnt the bones of the king of Edom into lime :
- 2 But I will assuredly send a fire upon Moah,
And it shall devour the palaces of Kiriath :
And Moab shall die with tumult,
With shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet :
- 3 And I will cut off the judge from the midst thereof,
And will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the LORD.
- 4 Thus saith the LORD;
For the many transgressions of Judah,
I will not turn away the punishment thereof;
Because they have despised the law of the LORD,

- And have not kept his commandments,
And their lies caused them to err,
After which their fathers have walked :
- 5 But I will send a fire upon Judah,
And it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.
- 6 Thus saith the LORD ;
For the many transgressions of Israel,
I will not turn away the punishment thereof ;
Because they sold the righteous for silver,
And the poor for a pair of shoes ;
- 7 That bruise the head of the poor in the dust,
And turn aside the way of the meek :
And a man and his father will go in unto the same maid,
To profane my holy name.
- 8 And they lay themselves down upon clothes that are pledged
By every altar,
And they drink the wine of the condemned
In the house of their god.
- 9 Yet I destroyed the Amorite before them,
Whose height was like the height of the cedars,
And he was strong as the oaks ;
Yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath.
- 10 Also I brought you up from the land of Egypt,
And led you forty years through the wilderness,
To possess the land of the Amorite.
- 11 And I raised up of your sons for prophets,
And of your young men for Nazarites.
Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel ? saith the LORD.
- 12 But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink ;
And commanded the prophets,
Saying, Prophecy not.
- 13 Behold, I will press you down,
As a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves.
- 14 Then the flight of the swift shall perish,
And the strong shall not strengthen his force,
Neither shall the mighty one deliver himself :
- 15 Neither shall he stand who handleth the bow ;
And he who is swift of foot shall not escape ;
Neither shall he who rideth the horse deliver himself.
- 16 And he who is courageous among the mighty Shall flee away naked in that day, saith the LORD.
- 3 HEAR this very word that the LORD hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying,
- 2 You only have I known as mine own
Of all the families of the earth :
Therefore I will punish you
For all your iniquities.
- 3 Can two walk together,
Except they be agreed ?
- 4 Will a lion roar in the forest,
When he hath no prey ?
Will a young lion cry out of his den,
If he have taken nothing ?
- 5 Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth,
Where no trap is set for him ?
Shall one take up a snare from the earth,
And have taken nothing at all ?
- 6 Shall a trumpet be blown in the city,
And the people not be afraid ?
Shall there be evil in a city,
And the LORD hath not inflicted it ?
- 7 Surely the Lord God will do nothing,

- Except he have revealed his secret unto his servants the prophets.
 8 The lion hath roared—who will not fear ?
 The Lord God hath spoken—who can but prophesy ?
 9 Cause yourselves to be heard in the palaces at Ashdod,
 And in the palaces in the land of Egypt,
 And say, Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Samaria,
 And behold the great tumults in the midst thereof,
 And the oppressions within her.
 10 For they know not to do right, saith the LORD,
 Who store up violence and spoil in their palaces.
 11 Therefore thus saith the Lord God ;
 An adversary shall encompass the land ;
 And he shall bring down thy strength from thee,
 And thy palaces shall be plundered.
 12 Thus saith the LORD ;
 As the shepherd taketh out of the mouth of the lion
 Two legs, or a piece of an ear ;
 So shall the children of Israel be delivered
 Who dwell in Samaria on the corner of a bed,
 And in Damascus on a couch.
 13 Hear ye, and testify in the house of Jacob,
 Saith the Lord God, the God of hosts,
 14 That in the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Israel upon him,
 I will also visit the altars of Beth-el :
 And the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground.
 15 And I will smite the winter house with the summer house ;
 And the houses of ivory shall be destroyed,
 And the great houses shall have an end, saith the LORD.

- 4 HEAR this word, ye kine of Bashan,
 That are in the mountain of Samaria,
 That oppress the poor, that crush the needy,
 That say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.
 2 The Lord God hath sworn by his holiness,
 That, lo, the days shall come upon you,
 That he will take you away with boats,
 And your posterity with fishing boats.
 3 And ye shall go out at the breaches,
 Every one at that which is before her ;
 And ye shall be cast into Armenia, saith the LORD.
 4 Come ye to Beth-el, and transgress ;
 Even to Gilgal, and multiply transgression ;
 And bring your sacrifices every morning,
 And your tithes for three years :
 5 And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven,
 And proclaim and publish the free will offerings :
 For so ye liked to do, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord God.
 6 And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities,
 And want of bread in all your places :
 Yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.
 7 And I have also withholden the rain from you,
 When there were yet three months to the harvest :
 And I caused it to rain upon one city,
 And caused it not to rain upon another city :
 One part was rained upon,
 And the part whereupon it rained not, withered.
 8 So two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water ;
 But they were not satisfied :
 Yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.
 9 I have smitten you with blasting and mildew :
 When your gardens and your vineyards
 And your fig trees and your olive trees increased,
 The palmerworm devoured them :
 Yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

- 10 I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of Egypt :
Your young men have I slain with the sword,
And have taken away your horses ;
And I have made the smell of your camps to come up unto your nostrils :
Yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.
 - 11 I have overthrown some of you,
As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah,
And ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning :
Yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.
 - 12 Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel ;
And because I will do this unto thee,
Therefore prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.
 - 13 For, lo, he who formeth the mountains, and createth the wind,
And declareth unto man what is his purpose,
Who maketh the morning darkness,
And treadeth upon the high places of the earth,
The LORD, The God of hosts, is his name.
- 5 HEAR ye this word which I take up against you,
Even a lamentation, O house of Israel.
- 2 The virgin of Israel is fallen—she cannot rise :
She is forsaken upon her land—there is no one to raise her up.
 - 3 For thus saith the Lord God ;
The city that went out by a thousand shall leave a hundred,
And that which went forth by a hundred shall leave ten,
To the house of Israel.
 - 4 For thus saith the LORD unto the house of Israel,
Seek ye me diligently, and ye shall live :
 - 5 But seek not Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal,
And pass not to Beer-sheba :
For Gilgal shall surely go into captivity,
And Beth-el shall come to nought.
 - 6 Seek the LORD diligently, and ye shall live ;
Lest he fall on the house of Joseph like fire,
And devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el.
 - 7 Ye who turn judgment to wormwood,
And have cast righteousness down to the earth,
8 Seek him who maketh the seven stars and Orion,
And turneth the shadow of death into the morning
And maketh the day dark with night :
Who calleth for the waters of the sea,
And poureth them out upon the face of the earth :
The LORD is his name :
 - 9 Who strengtheneth the spoiler against the strong,
So that the spoiler shall come against the fortress.
 - 10 They hate him who rebuketh in the gate,
And they abhor him who speaketh uprightly.
 - 11 Because ye tread upon the poor,
And ye take from him loads of wheat :
Therefore ye shall not dwell in the houses of hewn stone which ye have built,
Nor shall ye drink wine of the pleasant vineyards that ye have planted ;
 - 12 For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins :
O ye oppressors of the righteous, who take a bribe,
To turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.
 - 13 Therefore the prudent shall keep silence in that time ;
For it is an evil time.
 - 14 Seek ye earnestly good, and not evil, that ye may live :
And so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you,
As ye have spoken.
 - 15 Hate evil, and love good,
And establish judgment in the gate :
It may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious Unto the remnant of Joseph.
 - 16 Therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, my Lord ;

- Wailing shall be in all streets ;
 And they shall say in all the highways, Alas ! alas !
 And they shall call the husbandman to mourning,
 And such as are acquainted with lamentation to wailing.
 17 And in all vineyards shall be mourning :
 For I will pass through thee, saith the LORD.
 18 WOE unto you who desire the day of the LORD !
 To what end is it for you ?
 The day of the LORD is darkness, and not light.
 19 As if a man did flee from a lion,
 And a bear met him ;
 Or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall,
 And a serpent bit him.
 20 Is not the day of the LORD darkness, and not light ?
 Even very dark, and no brightness in it ?
 21 I hate, I despise your feast days,
 And I will not delight in the day of your solemn assemblies.
 22 Though ye offer me burnt offerings and your thank offerings,
 I will not accept them :
 Neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat beasts.
 23 Put thou away from me the noise of thy songs ;
 For I will not hear the melody of thy viols.
 24 But let justice run down as waters,
 And righteousness as a mighty stream.
 25 Did ye offer unto me sacrifices and offerings
 In the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel ?
 26 Nay, ye bore the tabernacle of your Moloch
 And Chaiun your images,
 The star of your gods, which ye made to yourselves.
 27 Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus, Saith the LORD, whose name is The God of hosts.

- 6 WOE to those who are at ease in Zion,
 And trust in the mountain of Samaria,
 Who are named after the chiefs of the nations,
 To whom the house of Israel came !
 2 Pass ye unto Calneh, and see ;
 And from thence go ye to Hamath the great :
 Then go down to Gath of the Philistines :
 Are they better than these kingdoms ?
 Or their border greater than your border ?
 3 Ye who put far away the evil day,
 And cause the seat of violence to come near ;
 4 Who lie upon beds of ivory,
 And stretch themselves upon their couches,
 And eat the lambs out of the flock,
 And the calves out of the midst of the stall ;
 5 Who chant to the sound of the viol,
 And invent to themselves instruments of music, like David ;
 6 Who drink wine in bowls,
 And anoint themselves with the chief oils :
 But they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.
 7 Therefore now shall they go captive with the first who go captive,
 And the banquet of those who stretched themselves shall be removed.
 8 The Lord God hath sworn by himself,
 Saith the LORD the God of hosts,
 I abhor the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces ;
 Therefore will I deliver up the city with all that is therein.

And if there remain ten men in one house, they shall die. And a man's uncle 9 10 shall take him up, and he who burneth him, to carry the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him who is in a side of the house, Is there yet any with thee ? and he shall say, No. Then shall he say, Hold thy tongue : for we may not make mention of the name of the LORD.

- 11 For, behold, the LORD commandeth,
And he will smite the great house with breaches,
And the little house with clefts.
 - 12 Shall horses run upon the rock?
Or will one plough there with oxen?
For ye have turned judgment into gall,
And the fruit of righteousness into wormwood:
 - 13 Ye who rejoice in a thing of nought;
Who say, Have we not taken to us horns by our own strength?
 - 14 But, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel,
Saith the LORD the God of hosts;
And they shall oppress you from the entering in of Hamath
Unto the river of the wilderness.
- 7 THUS hath the Lord God showed unto me; and, behold, he formed locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth
2 after the king's mowings. And when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said,
O Lord God, forgive, I beseech thee:
By whom shall Jacob arise?—for he is small.
3 The LORD gave consolation for this:
It shall not be, saith the LORD.
- 4 THUS hath the Lord God showed unto me: and, behold, the Lord God called to 5 contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and did eat up a part. Then said I,
O Lord God, cease, I beseech thee:
By whom shall Jacob arise?—for he is small.
 - 6 The LORD gave consolation for this:
This also shall not be, saith the Lord God.
- 7 THUS he showed me: and, behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a plumb-
8 line, with a plumbline in his hand. And the LORD said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumbline. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a plumbline in the midst of my people Israel:
I will not again pass by them any more:
 - 9 And the high places of Isaac shall be desolate,
And the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste;
And I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.
- 10 Then Amaziah the priest of Beth-el sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos bath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able 11 to bear all his words. For thus said Amos, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be driven away captive out of their own land.
 - 12 Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, go, flee thee away into the land of 13 Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there: but prophesy not again any more at Beth-el: for it is the king's chapel, and it is the king's court.
 - 14 Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I am no prophet, neither am I a pro-15 phet's son; but I am a herdman, and a gatherer of sycamore fruit: and the LORD bath taken me from following the flock, and the LORD said unto me, Go, prophesy 16 unto my people Israel. Now therefore hear thou the word of the LORD: Thou sayest, Prophesy not against Israel, and drop not thy word against the house of Isaac.
17 Therefore thus saith the LORD;
- Thy wife shall be wanton in the city,
And thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword,
And thy land shall be divided by line;
And thou shalt die in a polluted land:
And Israel shall surely be driven into captivity from off his own land.
- 8 THUS hath the Lord God showed unto me: and behold a basket of summer fruit.
And he said, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the LORD unto me,
The end is come upon my people of Israel;
I will not again pass by them any more.
3 And the songs of the temple shall be howlings
In that day, saith the Lord God:

- Many dead bodies in every place
Shall be cast forth with silence.
- 4 Hear this, O ye who swallow up the needy,
Even to make an end of the poor of the land,
- 5 When will the new moon be gone—that we may sell corn?
And the sabbath—that we may set forth wheat,
Making the ephah small, and the shekel great,
And perverting the balances of deceit?
- 6 That we may buy the poor for silver,
And the needy for a pair of shoes;
That ye may sell the refuse of the wheat?
- 7 The LORD hath sworn by the excellency of Jacob,
Surely I will never forget any of those their works.
- 8 Shall not the land tremble for this,
And every one mourn who dwelleth therein?
And it shall rise up wholly as a flood,
And it shall sink down and settle like the river of Egypt.
- 9 And in that day, saith the Lord God,
I will cause the sun to go down at noon,
And I will darken the earth in the clear day:
- 10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning,
And all your songs into lamentation;
And I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins,
And baldness upon every head;
And I will make it as the mourning of an only son,
And the end thereof as a bitter day.
- 11 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord God,
That I will send a famine in the land,
Not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water,
But of hearing the words of the LORD:
- 12 And they shall wander from sea to sea,
And from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro
To seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it.
- 13 In that day shall the beautiful virgins and young men faint for thirst.
- 14 Those who swear by the sin of Samaria.
And say, Thy god, O Dan, liveth;
And, Thy god, O Beer-sheba, liveth;
Even they shall fall, and never rise up again.
- 9 I SAW the Lord standing upon the altar: and he said,
Smite the upper lintel of the door, that the posts may shake:
For I will wound them in the head, all of them;
And I will slay the last of them with the sword:
He who would flee of them—shall not flee away,
And he who would escape of them—shall not be delivered.
- 2 Though they dig into the invisible world—thence shall my hand take them;
Though they climb up to heaven—thence will I bring them down:
- 3 And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel,
I will search and take them out thence;
And though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea,
Thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them:
- 4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies,
Thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them:
And I will set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good.
- 5 And the Lord God of hosts is he
Who toucheth the land, and it melteth,
And all who dwell therein mourn:
And it shall rise up wholly like a flood;
And shall sink down, as the river of Egypt.
- 6 He buildeth his upper chambers in the heavens,
And his storehouse he foundeth on the earth;
He calleth for the waters of the sea,
And poureth them out upon the face of the earth:
The LORD God of hosts is his name.

AMOS IX.

- 7 Are ye not as children of the Ethiopians unto me,
O children of Israel? saith the LORD.
Have not I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt?
And the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir?
- 8 Behold, the eyes of the Lord God are upon the sinful kingdom,
And I will destroy it from off the face of the earth;
Yet I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the LORD.
- 9 For, lo, I will command,
And I will sift the house of Israel among all nations,
Like as corn is sifted in a sieve,
Yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth.
- 10 All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword,
Who say, The evil shall not speedily overtake us.
- 11 IN that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen,
And close up the breaches thereof;
And I will raise up its ruins,
And I will yet build it as in the days of old:
- 12 That they may possess the remnant of Edom,
And of all the nations, who are called by my name,
Saith the LORD who doeth this.
- 13 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD,
That the ploughman shall overtake the reaper,
And the treader of grapes him who soweth seed;
And the mountains shall drop sweet wine,
And all the hills shall melt.
- 14 And I will bring back again the captivity of my people of Israel,
And they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them;
And they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof;
They shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them.
- 15 And I will plant them upon their land,
And they shall no more be plucked off
The land which I have given them, saith the LORD thy God.

O B A D I A H.

1 THE VISION OF OBADIAH.

- Thus saith the Lord God concerning Edom;
We have heard a rumour from the LORD,
And an ambassador is sent among the nations,
Arise ye, and let us also rise up against her in battle.
- 2 Behold, I have made thee small among the nations:
Thou art greatly despised.
- 3 The pride of thy heart hath deceived thee,
Thou who dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high;
Who saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the earth?
- 4 Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle,
And though thou set thy nest among the stars,
Thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD.
- 5 If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night,
(How art thou cut off!)
Would they not have stolen till they had enough?
If the grapegatherers came to thee,
Would they not leave gleanings?
- 6 How are the things of Esau searched out!
How are his hidden things inquired after!

OBADIAH.

- 7 All the men of thy confederacy have sent thee forth to the border :
The men who were at peace with thee have deceived thee,
And prevailed against thee ;
Those who eat thy bread have laid a snare under thee :
There is no understanding in him.
- 8 Shall I not in that day, saith the LORD,
Even destroy the wise men out of Edom,
And the intelligent out of the mount of Esau ?
- 9 And thy mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed,
To the end that every one of the mount of Esau
May be cut off by slaughter,
- 10 Because of thy violence towards thy brother Jacob, shame shall cover thee,
And thou shalt be cut off for ever.
- 11 In the day that thou stoodest on the other side,
In the day that the strangers carried away captive his forces,
And foreigners entered into his gates,
And cast lots upon Jerusalem—even thou wast as one of them.
- 12 But thou shouldest not have looked on the day of thy brother
In the day that he became a stranger ;
Neither shouldest thou have rejoiced over the children of Judah
In the day of their destruction ;
Neither shouldest thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress.
- 13 Thou shouldest not have entered into the gate of my people
In the day of their calamity ;
Yea, thou shouldest not have looked on their affliction
In the day of their calamity,
Nor have laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity ;
- 14 Neither shouldest thou have stood in the crossway,
To cut off those of his who did escape ;
Neither shouldest thou have delivered up those of his
Who did remain in the day of distress.
- 15 For the day of the LORD is near upon all the nations :
As thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee :
Thy dealing shall return upon thine own head.
- 16 For as ye have drunk the cup of my judgments,
So your enemies shall drink up the very dregs ;
Yea, they shall drink, and they shall themselves be swallowed down,
And they shall be as though they had not been.
- 17 BUT upon mount Zion shall be deliverance,
And it shall be holy ;
And the house of Jacob shall possess their possessions.
- 18 And the house of Jacob shall be a fire,
And the house of Joseph a flame,
And the house of Esau for stubble,
And they shall kindle in them, and devour them ;
And there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau ;
For the LORD hath spoken it.
- 19 And they of the south shall possess the mount of Esau ;
And they of the plain Philistia :
And they shall also possess the fields of Ephraim, and the fields of Samaria :
And Benjamin shall possess Gilead.
- 20 And the captivity of this very host of the children of Israel
Shall possess that of the Canaanites, even unto Zarephath ;
And the captivity of Jerusalem, which is in Sepharad,
Shall possess the cities of the south.
- 21 And deliverers shall come up on mount Zion
To judge the mount of Esau ;
And the kingdom shall be the LORD'S.

J O N A H.

- 1 NOW the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for its wickedness is come up before my face. But Jonah rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD, and he went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish; and he paid the fare, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD.
- 4 But the LORD sent out a great wind upon the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship was likely to be broken. Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay down, and was fast asleep.
- 6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, it may be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.
- 7 And they said one to another, Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.
- 8 Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us: What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou? And he said unto them, I am a Hebrew; and I am afraid of the LORD, the God of the heavens, who made the sea and the dry land. Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them. Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea grew more and more tempestuous. And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.
- 13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to return to the land; but they could not: for the sea grew more and more tempestuous against them. Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee. So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea: and the sea ceased from her raging. Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly; and offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows.
- 17 NOW the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was 2 in the belly of the fish three days and three nights. Then Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly, and said,

I cried by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he heard me;
Out of the belly of the depth cried I, and thou heardest my voice.
3 For thou didst cast me into the deep, in the midst of the seas;
And the floods compassed me about:
All thy billows and thy waves passed over me.
4 Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight;
Yet I will look again towards thy holy temple.
5 The waters compassed me about, even to my life:
The depth closed me round about,
The weeds were wrapped about my head.
6 I went down to the foundations of the mountains;
The earth with her bars was about me for ever:
Yet hast thou brought up my life from the pit, O LORD my God.
7 When my soul fainted within me, then I remembered the LORD:
And my prayer came in unto thee, even into thy holy temple.
8 Those who observe lying vanities
Forsake their own mercy.
9 But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving;
I will pay that which I have vowed.
Salvation is of the LORD.

And the LORD spoke unto the fish, and it cast out Jonah upon the dry land. 10

AND the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying, Arise, go 3 unto Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim unto it the proclamation that I bid thee. So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the 3 LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, of three days' journey in extent. And when Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, he cried, and 4 said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

So the people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sack- 5 cloth, from the greatest even to the least of them. For word came unto the king of 6 Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe off from him, and covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. And he caused it to be proclaimed 7 and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor 8 drink water: but let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily 8 unto God: yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands. Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away 9 from his fierce anger, that we perish not? And God saw their works, that they turned 10 from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was much grieved. And he prayed 4 unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou 4 art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil. Therefore now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from 3 me; for verily death is better for me than life. Then said the LORD, Will grieving 4 do thee any good?

So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made 5 him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he should see what would become of the city. And the LORD God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, 6 that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah was exceedingly glad of the gourd.

But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote 7 the gourd so that it withered. And when the sun arose, God prepared a sultry east 8 wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, so that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, Verily death is better for me than life.—And God said to 9
Jonah, Doth grieving over the gourd do thee any good? And he said, It doth me good to grieve even unto death.

Then said the LORD, Thou wouldest have spared the gourd, for the which thou 10
hadst not laboured, neither madest it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night: and should not I spare Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more than 11 sixscore thousand persons who cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle?

M I C A H.

THE word of the LORD that came to Micah the Morasthite in the days of 1
Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw in a vision concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

- 2 HEAR, all ye people;
Hearken, O earth, and all that therein is:
And let the Lord God be witness against you,
The Lord from his holy temple.
- 3 For, behold, the LORD cometh forth out of his place,
And will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth.
- 4 And the mountains shall be melted under him,

- And the valleys shall be cleft,
As wax before the fire,
And as the waters rushing down a steep place.
- 5 For the transgression of Jacob is all this,
And for the sins of the house of Israel.
What is the transgression of Jacob?—is it not Samaria?
And what are the high places of Judah?—are they not Jerusalem?
- 6 Therefore I will make Samaria as a heap of the field,
And as plantings of a vineyard:
And I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley,
And I will discover the foundations thereof.
- 7 And all the graven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces,
And all the hires thereof shall be burnt with the fire,
And all the idols thereof will I lay desolate:
For she gathered it of the hire of a harlot,
And they shall return to the hire of a harlot.
- 8 Therefore I will wail and howl,
I will go distracted and stripped:
I will make a wailing like the dragons,
And mourning as the owls.
- 9 For her wound is grievous,
For it has reached unto Judah;
He is come unto the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem.
- 10 Declare ye it not at Gath, weep ye not at all:
In the house of Aphrah roll thyself in the dust.
- 11 Pass ye away, thou inhabitress of Saphir, having thy shame exposed.
The inhabitress of Zaanan came not forth
In the mourning of Beth-ezel, he shall receive of you his standing.
- 12 For the inhabitress of Maroth pined after good:
But evil came down from the LORD unto the gate of Jerusalem.
- 13 O thou inhabitress of Lachish, bind the chariot to the swift beast:
She is the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion:
For the transgressions of Israel were found in thee.
- 14 Therefore shalt thou send messengers to Moresheth-gath:
The houses of Achzib shall be a lie to the kings of Israel.
- 15 Yet will I bring an heir unto thee, O inhabitress of Mareshah:
He shall come unto Adullam, the glory of Israel.
- 16 Make thee bald, and poll thee for the children of thy delight;
Enlarge thy baldness as the eagle;
For they are gone into captivity from thee.
- 2 WOE to those who devise iniquity,
And work evil upon their beds!
When the morning is light, they practise it,
Because it is in the power of their hand.
- 2 And they covet fields, and take them by violence;
And houses, and take them away:
So they oppress a man and his house, even the perfect man and his heritage.
- 3 Therefore thus saith the LORD;
Behold, against this family do I devise an evil,
From which ye shall not remove your necks;
Neither shall ye go haughtily—for verily it is an evil time.
- 4 In that day shall one take up a parable against you,
And lament with a doleful lamentation,
And say, We are utterly spoiled:
Oh that the portion of my people could be changed:
How hath he removed it from me!
Instead of restoring he hath divided our fields.
- 5 Therefore thou shalt have no one who shall cast a cord by lot
In the congregation of the LORD.
- 6 Prophecy not, say they, O ye who prophesy:
Should they not prophecy to them,
Yet will their disgrace not be removed.

MICAH III.

- 7 O thou who art named the house of Jacob,
Is the spirit of the LORD straitened? are these his doings?
Do not my words do good to him who walketh uprightly?
 - 8 Even of late my people is risen up as an enemy:
Ye pull off the mantle
From the garment of those who pass by securely as men averse from war.
 - 9 The women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses;
From their children have ye taken away my glory for ever.
 - 10 Arise ye, and depart—for this is not your rest:
Because it is polluted, it shall be destroyed,
Even with a great destruction.
 - 11 If a man walking in the spirit of falsehood do lie,
Saying, I will prophesy unto thee of wine and of strong drink:
He shall even be the prophet of this people.
 - 12 I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee;
I will surely gather the remnant of Israel;
I will put them together as sheep in Bozrah,
As the flock in the midst of its fold:
They shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men.
 - 13 The breaker is come up before them:
They have broken up, and have passed through the gate,
And are gone out by it:
And their king shall pass before them,
And the LORD on the head of them.
- 3 AND I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob,
And ye princes of the house of Israel;
Ought ye not to know judgment?
2 Ye haters of good, and lovers of evil;
Who pluck off their skin from off them,
And their flesh from off their bones;
3 Who also eat the flesh of my people,
And flay their skin from off them;
And break their bones,
And chop them in pieces, as for the pot,
And as flesh within the caldron.
- 4 Then shall they cry unto the LORD—but he will not hear them:
He will even hide his face from them at that time,
According to the wickedness of their doings.
 - 5 Thus saith the LORD,
Concerning the prophets who make my people err,
Who bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace;
And he who will not provide for their mouths, they even prepare war against him:
6 Therefore ye shall have night without a vision:
Darkness without divination;
And the sun shall go down over the prophets,
And the day shall be dark over them.
 - 7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded:
Yea, they shall all cover their lips—for there is no answer of God.
 - 8 But truly I am full of power by the spirit of the LORD,
And of judgment, and of might,
To declare unto Jacob his transgression,
And to Israel his sin.
- 9 Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob,
And princes of the house of Israel,
Who abhor judgment, and pervert all equity,
 - 10 Building up Zion with blood,
And Jerusalem with iniquity,
 - 11 The heads thereof judge for reward,
And the priests thereof teach for hire,
And the prophets thereof divine for silver:
Yet they lean upon the LORD, and say,
Is not the LORD among us? no evil can come upon us.

- 12 Therefore shall Zion for your sake be ploughed as a field,
And Jerusalem shall become heaps,
And the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.
- 4 BUT in the last days
The mountain of the house of the LORD
Shall be established in the top of the mountains,
And it shall be exalted above the hills;
And people shall flow unto it.
- 2 And many nations shall come, and say,
Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
And to the house of the God of Jacob;
And he will teach us of his ways,
And we will walk in his paths:
For out of Zion shall the law go forth,
And the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
- 3 And he shall judge among many people,
And rebuke strong nations afar off;
And they shall beat their swords into ploughshares,
And their spears into pruninghooks:
Nation shall not lift up a sword against nation,
Neither shall they learn war any more.
- 4 But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree;
And none shall make them afraid:
For the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.
- 5 For all people will walk every one in the name of his god,
And we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.
- 6 In that day, saith the LORD,
Will I assemble her who halteth,
And I will gather her who is driven out, and her whom I have afflicted;
- 7 And I will make her who halted a remnant,
And her who was cast far off a strong nation:
And the LORD shall reign over them in mount Zion
From henceforth, even for ever.
- 8 And thou, O tower of the flock,
The strong hold of the daughter of Zion,
Unto thee shall it come, even the dominion;
And the former kingdom shall return to the daughter of Jerusalem.
- 9 NOW why dost thou cry out aloud?
Is there no king in thee?
Is thy counsellor perished?
For pangs have taken hold on thee as on a woman in travail.
- 10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion,
Like a woman in travail:
For now shalt thou go forth out of the city,
And thou shalt dwell in the field,
And thou shalt go even to Babylon;
There shalt thou be delivered;
There the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.
- 11 Now also many nations are gathered against thee,
That say, Let her be defiled,
And let our eye look upon Zion.
- 12 But they know not the thoughts of the LORD,
Neither understand they his counsel:
For he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor.
- 13 Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion:
For I will make thy horn iron,
And I will make thy hoofs copper:
And thou shalt beat in pieces many people:
And I will consecrate their gain unto the LORD,
And their substance unto the LORD of the whole earth.
- 5 Now gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops:
He hath laid siege against us:
They shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.

- 2 But thou, Beth-lehem Ephratah,
Though thou be little among the thousands of Judah,
Yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me who is to be ruler in Israel;
Whose goings forth have been from of old, even from eternity.
- 3 But yet will he give them up,
Until the time that she who travaileth hath brought forth:
Then the remnant of their brethren shall return unto the children of Israel.
- 4 And he shall stand and feed his flock in the strength of the LORD,
In the majesty of the name of the LORD his God:
And his brethren shall abide:
For now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth.
- 5 And this man shall be the restorer,
When the Assyrian shall come into our land:
And when he shall tread in our palaces,
Then shall we raise against him seven shepherds,
And eight principal men.
- 6 And they shall waste the land of Assyria with the sword,
And the land of Nimrod in the entrances thereof:
Thus shall he deliver us from the Assyrian,
When he cometh into our land,
And when he treadeth within our borders.
- 7 And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many people
As a dew from the LORD,
As the showers upon the grass,
That tarrieth not for man,
Nor waiteth for the sons of men.
- 8 And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles
In the midst of many people
As a lion among the beasts of the forest,
As a young lion among the flocks of sheep:
Who, if he go through, both treadeth down, and teareth in pieces,
And none can deliver.
- 9 Thy hand shall be lifted up upon thine adversaries,
And all thine enemies shall be cut off.
- 10 And in that day, saith the LORD,
I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee,
And I will destroy thy chariots:
- 11 And I will cut off the cities of thy land,
And throw down all thy strong holds:
- 12 And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thy land;
And thou shalt have no more soothsayers:
- 13 Thy graven images also will I cut off,
And thy standing images out of the midst of thee;
And thou shalt no more worship the work of thy hands.
- 14 And I will pluck up thy groves out of the midst of thee:
So will I destroy thy cities.
- 15 And I will execute vengeance in anger and fury upon the nations,
Such as they have not heard.
- 6 HEAR ye now what the LORD saith;
Arise, contend thou before the mountains,
And let the hills hear thy voice.
- 2 Hear ye, O mountains, the LORD'S controversy,
And ye strong foundations of the earth:
For the LORD hath a controversy with his people,
And he will plead his cause with Israel.
- 3 O my people, what have I done unto thee?
And wherein have I wearied thee?
Testify against me.
- 4 For I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt,
And redeemed thee out of the house of servants;
And I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.
- 5 O my people, remember now what Balak king of Moab purposed,
And what Balaam the son of Beor answered him

- From Shittim unto Gilgal;
That ye may know the righteousness of the LORD.
- 6 Wherewith shall I come before the LORD,
And bow myself before the high God?
Shall I come before him with burnt offerings,
With calves of a year old?
- 7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams,
Or with ten thousands of rivers of oil?
Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression,
The fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?
- 8 He hath showed thee, O man, what is good;
And what doth the LORD require of thee,
But to do justly, and to love mercy,
And to walk humbly with thy God?
- 9 The LORD'S voice crieth unto the city,
And the man of wisdom shall see thy name:
Hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it.
- 10 Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked,
And the scanty measure that is abominable?
- 11 Shall I count them pure with the wicked balances,
And with the bag of deceitful weights?
- 12 For the rich men thereof are full of violence,
And the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies,
And their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.
- 13 Therefore also will I make thee sick in smiting thee,
In making thee desolate because of thy sins.
- 14 Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied;
And thy casting down shall be in the midst of thee;
And thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliver;
And that which thou deliverest will I give up to the sword.
- 15 Thou shalt sow, but thou shalt not reap;
Thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil;
And the grape, but shalt not drink wine.
- 16 For the statutes of Omri are kept,
And all the works of the house of Ahab,
And ye walk in their counsels;
That I should make thee a desolation,
And the inhabitants thereof a hissing:
Therefore ye shall bear the reproach of my people.
- 7 WOE to me!
For I am as the gatherings of the summer fruits,
As the grapegleanings of the vintage:
There is no cluster to eat: my soul desired the first ripe fruit.
- 2 The merciful man is perished out of the earth:
And there is none upright among men:
They all lie in wait for blood;
They hunt every man his brother into a snare.
- 3 That they may do evil with both hands earnestly,
The prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward;
And the great man, he uttereth his mischievous desire:
So they do abominably.
- 4 The best of them is a brier:
The most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge:
The day of thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh;
Now shall be their perplexity.
- 5 Trust ye not in a friend,
Put ye not confidence in a guide:
Keep the doors of thy mouth from her who lieth in thy bosom.
- 6 For the son dishonoureth the father,
The daughter riseth up against her mother,
The daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;
A man's enemies are the men of his own house.

MICAH VII.

- 7 Therefore I will look unto the LORD;
I will wait for the God of my salvation—my God will hear me.
- 8 Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy :
Though I fall, I shall arise ;
Though I sit in darkness, the LORD shall be a light unto me.
- 9 I will bear the indignation of the LORD,
Because I have sinned against him,
Until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me :
He will bring me forth to the light,
And I shall behold his righteousness.
- 10 Then she who is mine enemy shall see it,
And shame shall cover her who said unto me,
Where is the LORD thy God ?
But mine eyes shall behold her :
She shall be trodden down as the mire of the streets.
- 11 In the day that thy walls are to be built,
In that day shall the decree be far extended.
- 12 In that day also he shall come even to thee from Assyria,
And from the fortified cities,
And from the fortress even to the river,
And from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain.
- 13 For the land shall be desolate
Because of those who dwell therein,
For the fruit of their transgressions.
- 14 Feed thy people with thy rod,
The flock of thy heritage,
Who dwell solitarily in the wood, in the midst of Carmel :
Let them feed in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.
- 15 According to the days of thy coming out of the land of Egypt
Will I show unto him marvellous things.
- 16 The nations shall see and be confounded at all their might :
They shall lay their hand upon their mouth, their ears shall be deaf.
- 17 They shall lick the dust like a serpent,
They shall move out of their unclosed places like worms of the earth :
They shall be afraid of the LORD our God, and shall fear because of thee.
- 18 Who is a God like unto thee,
Who pardoneth iniquity,
And passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage ?
He retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.
- 19 He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us ;
He will subdue our iniquities ;
And thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.
- 20 Thou wilt perform the truth to Jacob,
And the mercy to Abraham,
Which thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the days of old.

NAHUM.

1 THE PROPHECY CONCERNING NINEVEH. THE BOOK OF THE VISION OF NAHUM THE ELKOSHITE.

- 2 The LORD is jealous, an avenging God ;
The LORD revengeth, having fury ;
The LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries,
And he reserveth wrath for his enemies.
- 3 The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power,

- And will not altogether destroy :
 The LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm,
 And the clouds are the dust of his feet.
- 4 He restraineth the sea, and maketh it dry,
 And drieth up all the rivers :
 Bashan languisheth, and Carmel,
 And the flower of Lebanon languisheth.
- 5 The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt,
 And the earth heaves at his presence,
 Yea, the world, and all who dwell therein.
- 6 Who can stand before his indignation ?
 And who can abide in the fierceness of his anger,
 When his fury is poured out like fire,
 And the rocks are thrown down by him ?
- 7 The LORD is good for a strong hold in the day of trouble ;
 And he knoweth those who trust in him.
- 8 But with an overflowing flood
 He will make an utter end of the place thereof,
 And darkness shall pursue his enemies.
- 9 What do ye imagine against the LORD ?
 He will make an utter end :
 Affliction shall not rise up the second time.
- 10 For while they are entangled as thorns,
 And while they are drunken as drunkards,
 They shall be consumed as stubble fully dry.
- 11 There is one come out of thee, a wicked counsellor,
 Who imagineth evil against the LORD.
- 12 Thus saith the LORD ;
 Though they be prosperous, and likewise many,
 Yet thus shall they be cut down, when he shall pass through.
 Though I have afflicted thee,
 I will afflict thee no more.
- 13 And now will I break his yoke from off thee,
 And will burst thy bonds in sunder.
- 14 And the LORD hath given a commandment concerning thee,
 That thy name be no more scattered abroad :
 Out of the house of thy gods will I cut off
 The graven image and the molten image :
 I will also make thy grave—for thou art vile.
- 15 Behold upon the mountains
 The feet of him who bringeth good tidings, who publisheth peace !
 O Judah, celebrate thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows :
 For the wicked shall no more pass through thee—he is utterly cut off.
- 2 HE who dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face :
 Keep the fenced place, watch the way,
 Make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily.
- 2 For the LORD hath restored the excellency of Jacob,
 As the excellency of Israel :
 For the emptiers have emptied them out,
 And their vine branches have they utterly spoiled.
- 3 The shield of his mighty men is made red,
 The valiant men are in scarlet :
 The chariots shall be with flaming torches in the day of his preparation,
 And the weapons shall be made poisonous.
- 4 The horsemen shall rage in the streets,
 They shall jostle one against another in the broad ways :
 They shall seem like flames, they shall run like the lightnings.
- 5 He shall recount his mighty men : they shall stumble in their goings ;
 They shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the defence shall be prepared.
- 6 The gates of the rivers shall be opened,
 And the palace shall be dissolved.
- 7 And Huzzab the queen shall be led away captive,
 She shall be brought up,

- And her maids shall mourn as with the voice of doves, Smiting upon their breasts.
- 8 But Nineveh is of old like a troubled pool of water—yet they shall flee away.
Stand! stand! shall they cry, but none shall look back.
- 9 Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold:
For there is no end of the glorious store
Of all kinds of desirable vessels.
- 10 Now she is empty, and void, and waste:
And the heart melteth, and the knees smite together,
And much pain is in all loins,
And the faces of them all gather blackness.
- 11 Where is the dwelling of the lions,
And the feedingplace of the young lions,
Where the lion, even the old lion, walked,
Also the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid?
- 12 The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps,
And strangled for his lionesses,
And filled his holes with prey,
And his dens with torn animals.
- 13 Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts,
And I will burn her chariots in the smoke,
And the sword shall devour thy young lions:
And I will cut off thy prey from the earth,
And the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

3 Woe to the city of blood!

- It is all full of lies and robbery; the prey departeth not;
2 The noise of the whip, and the noise of the rattling wheels,
And of the prancing horses, and of the bounding chariots.
- 3 The horseman lifteth up both the bright sword and the glittering spear:
And there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carcases;
And there is no end of their corpses—they stumble upon their corpses.
- 4 Because of the multitude of the idolatries of the wellfavoured harlot,
The mistress of witchcrafts,
Who selleth nations through her idolatries,
And families through her witchcrafts.
- 5 Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts;
And I will discover thy skirts upon thy face,
And I will show the nations thy nakedness, and kingdoms thy shame.
- 6 And I will cast out the abominations with thee, and make thee vile,
And will set thee as a gazingstock.
- 7 And all those who look upon thee shall flee from thee,
And say, Nineveh is laid waste! who will bemoan her?
Whence shall I seek comforters for thee?
- 8 Art thou better than populous No-Amon,
That was situated among the rivers, that had the waters round about it,
Whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was from the sea?
- 9 Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength, and it was great;
Put and Lubim were her helpers.
- 10 Yet was she carried away, she went into captivity:
Her young children also were dashed in pieces at the top of all the streets:
And they cast lots for her honourable men,
And all her great men were bound in chains.
- 11 Thou also shalt be drunken:
Thou shalt be hid,
Thou also shalt seek defence from an enemy.
- 12 All thy strong holds shall be like fig trees with the first ripe figs:
If they be shaken, they shall even fall into the mouth of the eater.
- 13 Behold, thy people in the midst of thee are women:
The gates of thy land shall be set wide open unto thine enemies:
The fire shall devour thy bars.
- 14 Draw thee waters for the siege, fortify thy strong holds:
Go into clay, and tread the mortar,
Strengthen thyself to make bricks.

- 15 There shall the fire devour thee ;
 The sword shall cut thee off,
 It shall eat thee up like the cankerworm :
 Make thyself many as the cankerworm,
 Make thyself many as the locusts.
- 16 Thou hast multiplied thy merchants above the stars of the heavens :
 As locusts, they spread themselves, and flee away.
- 17 Thy crowned are as the locusts,
 And thy captains as the great grasshoppers,
 Which camp in the hedges in the cold day,
 But when the sun ariseth they flee away,
 And the place where they are is not known.
- 18 Thy shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria :
 Thy nobles shall dwell in sloth :
 Thy people are scattered upon the mountains, and there is no man to gather them together.
- 19 There is no healing of thy bruise, thy wound is grievous :
 All who hear the report of thee shall clap their hands over thee :
 For whom hath not the knowledge of thy continual wickedness reached ?

H A B A K K U K.

- I THE VISION WHICH HABAKKUK THE PROPHET DID SEE.
- 2 O LORD, how long shall I cry—and thou wilt not hear !
 Even cry out unto thee of violence—and thou wilt not save !
- 3 Why dost thou show me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance ?
 For spoiling and violence are before me :
 And there are who raise up strife and contention.
- 4 Therefore the law is neglected,
 And just judgment doth never go forth :
 For the wicked compass about the righteous ;
 Therefore wrong judgment proceedeth.
- 5 Behold, ye despisers among the nations, and regard,
 And wonder exceedingly :
 For I will work a work in your days,
 Which ye will not believe, though it be told you.
- 6 For, lo, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and swift nation,
 Who shall march through the breadth of the land,
 To possess the dwellingplaces that are not their own.
- 7 They are terrible and dreadful :
 Their judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves.
- 8 Their horses also are swifter than the leopards,
 And are more fierce than the evening wolves :
 And their horsemen shall spread themselves,
 And their horsemen shall come from far ;
 They shall fly as the eagle that hasteneth to eat.
- 9 All of them shall come for violence :
 Their faces shall be fierce as the burning east wind,
 And they shall gather captives as the sand.
- 10 And they shall scoff at kings,
 And princes shall be a scorn unto them :
 They shall deride every strong hold ;
 For they shall heap up earth, and take it.
- 11 Then shall their minds change,
 And they shall pass over, and offend,
 Imputing this their power to their gods.

HABAKKUK II.

- 12 Art thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, my Holy One?
We shall not die.
O LORD, thou hast ordained them for judgment;
And, O mighty God, thou hast established them for our correction.
- 13 Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil,
And canst not look on iniquity:
Wherefore lookest thou upon those who deal treacherously,
And holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man who is more righteous than himself?
- 14 And makest men as the fishes of the sea,
As the creeping things, that have no ruler over them?
- 15 They take up all of them with the hook,
They catch them in their net,
And gather them in their drag:
Therefore they rejoice and are glad.
- 16 Therefore they sacrifice unto their net,
And burn incense unto their drag;
Because by them their portion is fat,
And their food plenteous.
- 17 How then shall their net be empty,
When they continually slay, and have no pity on the nations?

- 2 I stood upon my watch-tower,
And placed myself on my fortress;
And watched to see what he would say unto me,
And what he would reply to my arguing.
- 2 And the LORD answered me, and said,
Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables,
That he may run who readeth it.
- 3 Though the vision be yet for an appointed time,
Yet at the end it shall speak, and not lie:
Though it tarry, wait for it;
Because it will surely come, it will not tarry.
- 4 Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him:
But the just shall live by his faith.
- 5 Yea also, he who transgresseth by wine
Is a proud man, and one who is never quiet;
Who enlargeth his desire as death,
And as the grave, and cannot be satisfied,
But gathereth unto him all nations,
And heapeth unto him all people:
- 6 Shall not all these take up a parable,
And a taunting proverb against him, and say,
Woe to him who increaseth that which is not his!
How long will he burden himself with thick clay?
- 7 Shall they not rise up suddenly who shall bite thee,
And awake who shall vex thee,
And thou shalt be for booties unto them?
- 8 Because thou hast spoiled many nations,
All the remnant of the people shall spoil thee;
Because of men's blood, and for the violence
Of the land, of the city, and of all who dwell therein.
- 9 Woe to him who coveteth an evil covetousness to his house,
That he may set his nest on high,
That he may be delivered from the power of evil!
- 10 Thou hast devised shame to thy house by cutting off many people,
And hast sinned against thy soul.
- 11 For the stone shall cry out of the wall,
And the beam out of the timber shall answer it.
- 12 Woe to him who buildeth a town with blood,
And establisheth a city by injustice!
- 13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts
That the people shall labour in the very fire,
And the people shall weary themselves for very vanity?

- 14 For the earth shall be filled
With the knowledge of the glory of the LORD,
As the waters cover the depths of the sea.
- 15 Woe unto him who giveth his neighbour drink,
Who putteth thy bottle to him, and maketh him drunken also,
That he may look on their nakedness !
- 16 Thou art filled with shame for glory :
Drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered :
The cup of the LORD'S right hand shall be turned unto thee,
And shameful vomiting shall be on thy glory.
- 17 For the violence of Lebanon shall cover thee,
And the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid,
Because of men's blood, and for the violence
Of the land, of the city, and of all who dwell therein.
- 18 What profiteth the graven image that the maker thereof hath graven it :
The molten image, and a teacher of lies,
That the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols ?
- 19 Woe unto him who saith to the wood, Awake !
To the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach !
Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver,
And there is no breath at all in the midst of it.
- 20 But the LORD is in his holy temple :
Let all the earth keep silence before him.

3 A PRAYER of Habakkuk the prophet upon Shigionoth.

- 2 O LORD, I have heard of thy fame, and was afraid :
O LORD, revive thy work in the midst of the years,
In the midst of the years make thyself known ;
In wrath remember mercy.
- 3 God came from Teman,
And the Holy One from mount Paran.
His glory covered the heavens,
And the earth was full of his praise.
And his brightness was as the light ;
He had bright beams coming out of his hand :
And there was the hiding of his power.
- 5 Before him went the pestilence,
And flashes of fire went forth at his feet.
- 6 He stood, and measured the earth :
He beheld, and drove asunder the nations ;
And the everlasting mountains were scattered,
The perpetual hills did bow :
His ways are everlasting.
- 7 I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction :
And the curtains of the land of Midian did tremble.
- 8 Was the LORD displeased against the rivers ?
Was thine anger against the rivers ?
Was thy wrath against the sea,
That thou didst ride upon thy horses
And thy chariots of salvation ?
- 9 Thy bow was made quite bare ;
The oath concerning the tribes is an everlasting word.
Thou didst cleave the earth into rivers.
- 10 The mountains saw thee, and they trembled :
The overflowing of the water passed by :
The deep uttered its voice,
And lifted up its hands on high.
- 11 The sun and moon stood still in their habitation :
By their light thine arrows went abroad,
And by their shining, thy glittering spear.
- 12 Thou didst thin the land in indignation,
Thou didst thresh the nations in anger.
- 13 Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people,
Even for salvation of thine anointed ;

ZEPHANIAH I.

- Thou woundedst the head of the house of the wicked,
By discovering the foundation to the rock.
- 14 Thou didst strike through with thy rod the head of his villages;
They came out as a whirlwind to scatter us:
Their rejoicing was as to devour the poor secretly.
- 15 Thou didst walk through the sea with thy horses,
Through the heap of great waters.
- 16 When I heard, my belly trembled;
My lips quivered at the voice:
Rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself,
If so be that I might rest in the day of trouble:
When he cometh up unto the people, he will invade them with his troops.
- 17 Although the fig tree shall not blossom,
Neither shall fruit be on the vines;
The labour of the olive shall fail,
And the fields shall yield no meat;
The flock shall be cut off from the fold,
And there shall be no herd in the stalls:
- 18 Yet I will rejoice in the LORD,
I will joy in the God of my salvation.
- 19 The LORD God is my strength,
And he will make my feet like hinds' feet,
And he will make me to walk upon my high places.
To the chief singer on my stringed instruments.

ZEPHANIAH.

- 1 THE word of the LORD which came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hizkiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.
- 2 I will utterly consume all things from off the land,
Saith the LORD.
- 3 I will consume man and beast;
I will consume the birds of the air, and the fishes of the sea,
And the stumblingblocks with the wicked;
And I will cut off man from off the land, saith the LORD.
- 4 I will also stretch out my hand upon Judah,
And upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem;
And I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place,
And the name of the sacrificers with the priests;
- 5 And those who worship the host of the heavens upon the housetops;
And those who worship and who swear by the LORD,
And who swear by Moloch;
- 6 And those who are turned back from the LORD;
And those who have not sought the LORD, nor inquired for him.
- 7 Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord God:
For the day of the LORD is at hand:
For the LORD hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath bidden his guests.
- 8 And in the day of the LORD'S sacrifice,
I will punish the princes, and the king's children,
And all such as are clothed with strange apparel.
- 9 In the same day also will I punish all those who leap over the threshold,
Who fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit.
- 10 And in that day, saith the LORD,
There shall be the noise of a cry from the fish gate,
And a howling from the second gate,
And a great crashing from the hills.
- 11 Howl, ye inhabitants of Maktesh,

ZEPHANIAH II.

- For all the merchant people,
All those who bear silver, are cut off.
- 12 And at that time
I will search Jerusalem with torches,
And punish the men who are settled on their lees :
Who say in their hearts,
The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil.
- 13 Therefore their goods shall become a booty,
And their houses a desolation :
They shall also build houses—but not inhabit them ;
And they shall plant vineyards—but not drink the wine thereof.
- 14 The great day of the LORD is near,
It is near, and hasteneth greatly,
Even the voice of the day of the LORD :
The mighty man shall cry there bitterly.
- 15 That day is a day of wrath,
A day of trouble and distress,
A day of wasting and desolation,
A day of darkness and gloominess,
A day of clouds and thick darkness,
- 16 A day of the trumpet and shouting
Against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.
- 17 And I will bring distress upon men,
That they shall walk like blind men,
Because they have sinned against the LORD :
And their blood shall be poured out as dust,
And their flesh as abominable things.
- 18 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them
In the day of the LORD'S wrath ;
But the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy :
For he shall make even a frightful destruction
Of all those who dwell in the land.
- 2 Gather yourselves together,
Yea, gather together, O nation not esteemed ;
- 2 Before the decree bring forth,
Before the day pass as the chaff,
Before the fierce anger of the LORD come upon you,
Before the day of the LORD'S anger come upon you.
- 3 Seek ye earnestly the LORD, all ye meek of the earth,
Who have wrought his judgment ;
Seek earnestly righteousness, seek earnestly meekness :
It may be ye shall be hid in the day of the LORD'S anger.
- 4 For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation :
They shall drive out Ashdod at the noonday,
And Ekron shall be rooted up.
- 5 Woe unto the inhabitants of the sea coasts, the nation of the Cherethites !
The word of the LORD is against you ; O Canaan, the land of the Philistines,
I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.
- 6 And the sea coast shall be dwellings and cottages for shepherds,
And folds for flocks.
- 7 And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Judah ;
They shall feed thereon :
In the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening :
For the LORD their God shall visit them, and turn away their captivity.
- 8 I have heard the reproach of Moab,
And the revilings of the children of Ammon,
Whereby they have reproached my people,
And magnified themselves upon their border.
- 9 Therefore as I live, saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel,
Surely Moab shall be as Sodom,
And the children of Ammon as Gomorrah,
Even the possession of nettles, and saltpits, and a perpetual desolation :
The residue of my people shall spoil them,

ZEPHANIAH III.

- And the remnant of my people shall dispossess them.
- 10 This shall they have for their pride,
Because they have reproached and magnified themselves
Against the people of the LORD of hosts.
- 11 The LORD will be terrible unto them :
For he will famish all the gods of the earth ;
And men shall worship him, every one from his place,
Even all the isles of the nations.
- 12 Ye Ethiopians also,
Ye shall be slain by my sword.
- 13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north,
And destroy Assyria ;
And will make Nineveh a desolation,
And waste like a wilderness.
- 14 And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her,
All the beasts of the nations :
Both the cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the upper lintels of it ;
Their cry shall resound in the windows ;
Desolations shall be in the thresholds :
For he shall lay bare the cedar work.
- 15 This is the rejoicing city that dwelt carelessly,
That said in her heart, I am, and there is none besides me :
How is she become a desolation,
A place for beasts to lie down in !
Every one who passeth by her shall hiss, and wave his hand.
- 3 Woe to her that is rebellious and polluted,
To the oppressing city !
- 2 She obeyed not the voice of his servants the prophets ;
She received not instruction ;
She trusted not in the LORD ;
She drew not near to her God.
- 3 Her princes within her are roaring lions ;
Her judges are evening wolves ;
They reserve not for the morrow.
- 4 Her prophets are light and treacherous persons :
Her priests have polluted the sanctuary,
And violated the law.
- 5 The LORD is just in the midst thereof ;
He will not do iniquity :
Every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, it faileth not ;
But the unjust knoweth not shame.
- 6 I have cut off the nations : their towers are desolate ;
I have made their streets waste, that none passeth by :
Their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man,
It is even without an inhabitant.
- 7 I said, If thou wilt only fear me, and wilt receive instruction ;
Then shall their dwelling not be cut off, neither will I punish them :
But they rose up early, and corrupted all their doings.
- 8 Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the LORD,
Until the day that I rise up to the prey :
For my determination is to gather the nations,
That I may assemble the kingdoms,
To pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger :
For all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy.
- 9 Surely I will then pour out on the people a pure language,
That they may all call upon the name of the LORD,
To serve him with one consent.
- 10 From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia shall they bring my suppliants,
Even the daughter of my dispersed,
As an offering.
- 11 In that day shalt thou not be ashamed for all thy doings,
Wherein thou hast transgressed against me ?
For then I will take away out of the midst of thee

ZEPHANIAH III.

- Those who rejoice in thy pride,
And thou shalt no more be haughty because of my holy mountain.
- 12 I will also leave in the midst of thee
An afflicted and poor people,
And they shall trust in the name of the LORD.
- 13 The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies;
Neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth:
For they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid.
- 14 Sing, O daughter of Zion;
Shout, O Israel;
Be glad and rejoice with all the heart,
O daughter of Jerusalem.
- 15 The LORD hath taken away thy judgments,
He hath cast out thine enemy:
The king of Israel, even the LORD, is in the midst of thee:
Thou shalt not see evil any more.
- 16 In that day it shall be said to Jerusalem, Fear thou not:
And to Zion, Let not thy hands be slack.
- 17 The LORD thy God in the midst of thee is mighty;
He will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy;
He will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing.
- 18 I will gather those of thee who are sorrowful for the solemn assembly, Whose reproach is their burden.
- 19 Behold, at that time I will put down all who afflict thee:
And I will save her who halteth, and gather her who was driven out;
And I will get them praise and fame
In every land where they have been put to shame.
- 20 At that time will I bring you again,
Even in the time that I gather you:
For I will make you a name and a praise
Among all people of the earth,
When I turn back your captivity before your eyes, saith the LORD.

H A G G A I.

- 1 IN the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet unto Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORD'S house should be built. Then came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying,
- 4 Is this the time for you
To dwell in your ceiled houses, and this house lie waste?
- 5 Now therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts;
Consider your ways.
- 6 Ye have sown much, and bring in little;
Ye eat, but ye are not satisfied;
Ye drink, but ye are not filled;
Ye clothe you, but ye are not warm;
And he who earneth wages, earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes.
- 7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts;
Consider your ways.
- 8 Go up to the mountain, and bring wood,
And build the house; and I will take pleasure in it,
And I will be glorified, saith the LORD.
- 9 Ye looked for much, and, lo, it came to little;
And when ye brought it home, I blew upon it.

HAGGAI II.

Why? saith the LORD of hosts.

Because of my house that is waste,

And ye are running every man unto his own house.

10 Therefore the heavens over you are stayed from yielding dew,

And the earth is stayed from yielding her fruit.

11 And I called for a drought

Upon the land, and upon the mountains,

And upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil,

And upon that which the ground bringeth forth,

And upon men, and upon cattle,

And upon all the labour of the hands.

Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Josedech, the high 12 priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him, and the people did fear before the LORD.

Then spoke Haggai the LORD'S messenger in the LORD'S message unto the 13 people, saying, I am with you, saith the LORD. And the LORD stirred up the 14 spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and did work in the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, on the 15 four and twentieth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

IN the seventh month, on the one and twentieth day of the month, came the 2 word of the LORD by the prophet Haggai, saying, Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and to the residue of the people, saying,

3 Who is left among you

Who saw this house

In her first glory?

And how do ye see it now?

Is it not in your eyes in comparison of it as nothing?

4 Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, saith the LORD;

And be strong, O Joshua, son of Josedech, the high priest;

And be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the LORD, and work:

For I am with you, saith the LORD of hosts:

5 According to the word that I covenanted with you

When ye came out of Egypt,

So my spirit remaineth among you:

Fear ye not.

6 For thus saith the LORD of hosts;

Yet once more, in a short time,

And I will shake the heavens, and the earth,

And the sea, and the dry land;

7 And I will shake all nations, and He shall come,

Even the desire of all nations shall come:

And I will fill this house with glory, saith the LORD of hosts.

8 The silver is mine, and the gold is mine,

Saith the LORD of hosts.

9 The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former,

Saith the LORD of hosts:

And in this place will I give peace,

Saith the LORD of hosts.

ON the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, 10 came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD 11 of hosts; Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying, If one bear holy flesh in 12 the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any fruit, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, No. Then said 13 Haggai, If one who is unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean. Then answered 14 Haggai, and said,

So is this people, and so is this nation

Before me, saith the LORD;

And so is every work of their hands;

HAGGAI II.

- And that which they offer there is unclean.
- 15 And now, I pray you, consider
From this day and forwards,
From before a stone was laid upon a stone
In the temple of the LORD :
- 16 Since those days were,
When one came to a heap of twenty measures,
There were but ten :
When one came to the pressvat for to draw out fifty vessels out of the press,
There were but twenty.
- 17 I smote you with blasting and with mildew
And with hail in all the labours of your hands ;
Yet ye turned not to me, saith the LORD.
- 18 Consider now
From this day and forwards,
From the four and twentieth day of the ninth month,
Even from the day that the foundation of the LORD'S temple was laid,
Consider it.
- 19 Is the seed yet in the barn ?
Yea, as yet the vine, and the fig tree,
And the pomegranate, and the olive tree, have not borne fruit :
From this day will I bless you.
- 20 AND again the word of the LORD came unto Haggai on the four and twentieth 21 day of the month, saying, Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying,
I will shake the very heavens and the earth ;
- 22 And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms,
And I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations ;
And I will overthrow the chariots, and those who ride in them ;
And the horses and their riders shall come down,
Every one by the sword of his brother.
- 23 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts,
Will I take thee, O Zerubbabel, my servant,
The son of Shealtiel, saith the LORD,
And will make thee as a signet :
For I have chosen thee, saith the LORD of hosts.

Z E C H A R I A H.

- 1 IN the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, (the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo,) the prophet, saying.
- 2 The LORD hath been sore displeased with your fathers.
- 3 Therefore say thou unto them,
Thus saith the LORD of hosts ;
Turn ye unto me,
And I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.
- 4 Be ye not as your fathers,
Unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying,
Thus saith the LORD of hosts ;
Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings :
But they did not hear,
Nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD.
- 5 Your fathers, where are they ?
And the prophets, do they live for ever ?
- 6 But my words and my statutes,
Which I commanded my servants the prophets,
Did they not overtake your fathers ?

ZECHARIAH II.

And they returned and said,
Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us,
According to our ways, and according to our doings,
So hath he dealt with us.

UPON the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, (which is the month Sebat,) in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, (the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo,) the prophet, saying,

I saw by night, and behold a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in the deep shades; and behind him were there red horses, speckled ones, and white ones. Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And the angel who talked with me said unto me, I will show thee what these are. And the man who stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, These are those whom the LORD hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth. And they answered the angel of the LORD who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, all the earth resteth, and is quiet.

Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these threescore and ten years? And the LORD answered the angel who talked with me with good words; yea, comfortable words. So the angel who communed with me said unto me, Proclaim thou, saying,

Thus saith the LORD of hosts;

I am jealous for Jerusalem

And for Zion with a great jealousy.

15 And I am very sore displeased with the nations that are at ease:

For I was but a little displeased,
And they helped forwards the affliction.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD;

I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies:

My house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts,

And a line shall be stretched forth over Jerusalem.

17 Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts;

My cities through prosperity shall again be spread abroad;

And the LORD shall again comfort Zion,

And shall again choose Jerusalem.

Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, four horns. And I said unto the angel who talked with me, What are these? And he answered me, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem. And the LORD showed me four workmen. Then said I, What come these to do? And he spoke, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to frighten them, to cast out the horns of the Gentiles, who lifted up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it.

I lifted up mine eyes again, and looked, and, behold, a man with a measuring line in his hand. Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof. And, behold, the angel who talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him, and said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying,

Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls

For the multitude of men and cattle therein:

5 For verily, saith the LORD,

I will be unto her a wall of fire round about,

And will be the glory in the midst of her.

6 Ho! ho! come forth,

And flee from the land of the north, saith the LORD:

For I have spread you abroad

As the four winds of the heavens, saith the LORD.

7 Deliver thyself, O Zion,

That dwellest with the daughter of Babylon.

8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts;

After promising glory to you, he hath sent me

Unto the nations which spoiled you:

For he who toucheth you

Toucheth the apple of his eye.

- 9 For, behold, I will shake my hand upon them,
And they shall be a spoil to their servants:
And ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.
- 10 Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion:
For, lo, I come,
And I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD.
- 11 And many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day,
And shall be my people:
And I will dwell in the midst of thee,
And thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee.
- 12 And the LORD shall cause Judah to inherit his portion
In the holy land,
And shall choose Jerusalem again.
- 13 Be silent, O all flesh, before the LORD:
For he is risen up out of his holy habitation.
- 3 And he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him. And the angel of the LORD said unto Satan,
The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan;
Even the LORD who hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee:
Is not this a brand plucked out of the fire?
- 3 4 Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the angel. And he answered and spoke unto those who stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment. And I said, Let them set a beautiful mitre upon his head. So they set a beautiful mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the LORD stood by.
- 6 7 And the angel of the LORD testified unto Joshua, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts:
If thou wilt walk in my ways,
And if thou wilt keep my charge,
Then thou shalt also judge my house,
And shalt also keep my courts,
And I will give thee places to walk among these who stand by.
- 8 Hear now, O Joshua the high priest,
Thou, and thy companions who sit before thee:
For they are men wondered at:
For, behold, I will bring forth my servant the BRANCH.
- 9 For, behold, the stone that I have laid before Joshua;
Upon one stone shall be seven eyes:
Behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts,
And I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.
- 10 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts,
Shall ye call every man his neighbour
Under the vine and under the fig tree.
- 4 And the angel who communed with me came again, and waked me, as a man who is wakened out of his sleep, and said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and, behold, a lampbearer all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and its seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof: and two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof.
- 4 So I answered and spoke to the angel who talked with me, saying, What are these.
5 my lord? Then the angel who talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest 6 thou not what these are? And I said, No, my lord. Then he answered and spoke unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying,
Not by might, nor by power,
But by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.
- 7 Who art thou, O great mountain?
Before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain:
And he shall bring forth the headstone thereof
With shoutings of Grace! grace unto it!

Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The hands of Zerubbabel 8 9 have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also finish it; and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you. For whosoever hath despised 10 the day of small things, even they shall rejoice, when they see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel. Those seven pipes and lamps are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth.

Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive trees upon the 11 right side of the lampbearer and upon the left side thereof? And I answered again, 12 and said unto him, What are these two olive branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves? And he answered me and said, 13 Knowest thou not what these are? And I said, No, my lord. Then said he, These 14 are the two anointed ones, who stand by the Lord of the whole earth.

Then I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, a flying roll. 5 And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits by measure. Then said he unto me, 3

This is the curse that goeth forth

Over the face of the whole earth:

For every one who stealeth shall be cut off

According to this side of it;

And every one who sweareth shall be cut off

According to that side of it.

- 4 I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts,
And it shall enter into the house of the thief,
And into the house of him who sweareth falsely by my name :
And it shall remain in the midst of his house,
And it shall be consumed
With the timber and the stones thereof.

Then the angel who talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine 5 eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth. And I said, What is it? And he said, 6 This is an ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth. And, behold, there was lifted up a talent of lead: and this is 7 a woman who sitteth in the midst of the ephah. And he said, This is the wicked- 8 ness. And he cast it into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof. Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, 9 there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heavens. Then said I to the angel who talked with me, Whither are these carrying 10 the ephah? And he said unto me, To build for it a house in the land of Shinar: 11 and it shall be established, and set there upon its own foundation.

And I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came four 6 chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of copper. In the first chariot were red horses; and in the second chariot black 2 horses; and in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot speckled 3 and bay horses. Then I answered and said unto the angel who talked with me, 4 What are these, my lord?

And the angel answered and said unto me, These are the four spirits of the hea- 5 vens, which go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth. The black 6 horses which are therein go forth into the north country; and the white go forth after them; and the speckled go forth towards the south country. And the bay 7 went forth, and sought to go that they might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth.

Then cried he unto me, and spoke unto me, saying, Behold, these that go towards 8 the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Take of them of the captivity, 9 10 even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah, who are come from Babylon, and come thou the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah; then take 11 silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them upon the head of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest; and speak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of 12 hosts, saying,

- Behold the man whose name is The BRANCH;
 And he shall grow up out of his place,
 And he shall build the temple of the LORD;
 13 Even he shall build the temple of the LORD;
 And he shall bear the glory,
 And shall sit and rule upon his throne;
 And he shall be a priest upon his throne:
 And the counsel of peace shall be between them both.
- 14 And the crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the 15 son of Zephaniah, even for a memorial in the temple of the LORD. And those who are far off shall come and build in the temple of the LORD, and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God.
- 7 AND in the fourth year of king Darius, the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, even in Chisleu; when they had sent unto the house of God Sherezer and Regem-melech, and their men, to pray before the 3 LORD, and to speak unto the priests who were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?
- 4 5 Then came the word of the LORD of hosts unto me, saying, Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh month, even those seventy years, did ye at all fast unto me, even to 6 me? And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, did not ye eat for yourselves, 7 and drink for yourselves? Are not these the words which the LORD hath cried by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, when men inhabited the south and the plain?
- 8 9 And the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying,
 Execute true judgment,
 And show mercy and compassions every man to his brother:
 10 And oppress not the widow,
 Nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor;
 And let none imagine evil against his brother in your heart.
 11 But they refused to hearken,
 And pulled away the shoulder,
 And stopped their ears, that they should not hear.
 12 Yea, they made their hearts as adamant,
 Lest they should hear the law,
 And the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent
 In his spirit by the former prophets:
 Therefore came a great wrath from the LORD of hosts.
 13 Therefore it is come to pass, that as he cried,
 And they would not hear;
 So they cried,
 And I would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts:
 14 But I scattered them with a whirlwind
 Among all the nations whom they knew not.
 Thus the land was desolate after them,
 That no man passed through nor returned:
 For they made the pleasant land a desolate one.
- 8 AGAIN the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,
 Thus saith the LORD of hosts;
 I was jealous for Zion with great jealousy,
 And I was jealous for her with great fury.
 3 Thus saith the LORD;
 I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem:
 And Jerusalem shall be called the city of truth;
 And the mountain of the LORD of hosts the holy mountain.
 4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts;
 There shall yet sit old men and old women in the streets of Jerusalem,
 And every man with his staff in his hand on account of the multitude of his days.
 5 And the streets of the city shall be full
 Of boys and girls playing in them.

- 6 Thus saith the LORD of hosts ;
If it be marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days,
Should it also be marvellous in mine eyes ? saith the LORD of hosts.
- 7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts ;
Behold, I will save my people from the land of the rising,
And from the land of the going down of the sun.
- 8 Yea, I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem :
And they shall be my people, and I will be their God,
In truth and in righteousness.
- 9 Thus saith the LORD of hosts ;
Let your hands be strong,
Ye who hear in these days
These words by the mouths of the prophets,
Who were in the day
When the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid,
That the temple might be built.
- 10 For before these days
There was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast ;
Neither was there any peace to him who went out or came in
Because of the enemy ;
For I set all men each one against his neighbour.
- 11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people
As in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts.
- 12 For the seed shall be prosperous ;
The vine shall give her fruit,
And the ground shall give her increase,
And the heavens shall give their dew ;
And I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.
- 13 And as ye were a curse among the nations,
O house of Judah, and house of Israel ;
So will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing :
Therefore fear not ; let your hands be strong.
- 14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts ;
As I thought to punish you,
When your fathers provoked me to wrath,
Saith the LORD of hosts, and I repented not :
- 15 So again have I thought in these days
To do well unto Jerusalem and to the house of Judah :
Fear ye not.
- 16 These are the things that ye shall do ;
Speak ye every man truth to his neighbour :
Judge ye truth and righteous judgment in your gates :
- 17 And let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour ;
And love no false oath :
For all these are things that I hate, saith the LORD.
- And the word of the LORD of hosts came unto me, saying, 18
Thus saith the LORD of hosts ; The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the 19 fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts ; therefore love ye truth and peace.
Thus saith the LORD of hosts ; Yet there shall come people, and the inhabitants of 20 many cities : and the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go 21 speedily to pray before the LORD, and to seek earnestly the LORD of hosts : I will go also. Yea, many people and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of 22 hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the LORD. Thus saith the LORD of hosts ; 23
In those days ten men shall take hold out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him who is a Jew, saying, We will go with you : for we have heard that God is with you.

- 9 THE prophecy of the word of the LORD : on the land of Hadraen
And Damascus shall it rest ;
When the eyes of men, even of all the tribes of Israel,
Shall be towards the LORD.
- 2 And against Hamath also which bordereth on her ;
And against Tyre, and Zidon, though they are very wise.

ZECHARIAH X.

- 3 And Tyre built herself a strong hold,
And heaped up silver as the dust,
And fine gold as the mire of the streets.
- 4 Behold, the LORD will make her poor,
And he will smite her power in the sea ;
And she shall be devoured with fire.
- 5 Ashkelon shall see it, and fear ;
Gaza also, and she shall be very sorrowful,
And Ekron also ; for her expectation shall be ashamed ;
And the king shall perish from Gaza,
And Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.
- 6 And a stranger shall dwell in Ashdod,
And I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.
- 7 And I will take away his blood out of his mouth,
And his abominations from between his teeth :
But he who remaineth, even he, shall be for our God,
And he shall be as a governor in Judah,
An Ekronite as a Jebusite.
- 8 And I will encamp about my house with an army,
Because of him who passeth by,
And because of him who returneth :
And no oppressor shall pass through them any more :
For now have I seen with mine eyes.
- 9 Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion ;
Shout, O daughter of Jerusalem : behold, thy King cometh unto thee :
He is just, and having salvation ;
Lowly, and riding upon an ass,
Even upon a colt the foal of an ass.
- 10 And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim,
And the horse from Jerusalem,
And the battle-bow shall be cut off :
And he shall speak peace unto the nations :
And his dominion shall be from sea even to sea,
And from the river even to the uttermost parts of the earth.
- 11 As for thee also, by the blood of thy covenant
I have set thy prisoners free out of the pit
Wherein is no water.
- 12 Turn you to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope :
Even to-day do I declare that I will render double unto thee ;
- 13 When I have bent Judah for myself,
And filled the bow with Ephraim ;
Then will I raise up thy sons, O Zion,
Against thy sons, O Greece,
And make thee as the sword of a mighty man.
- 14 And the LORD shall be seen over them,
And his arrow shall go forth as the lightning :
And the Lord God shall blow the trumpet,
And shall go with whirlwinds of the south.
- 15 The LORD of hosts shall defend them ;
And they shall subdue the slingers of stones ;
And they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine ;
And they shall be filled like bowls,
And as the corners of the altar.
- 16 And the LORD their God in that day
Shall save his people as a flock :
For stones of separation
Shall be set up as an ensign upon his land.
- 17 Oh how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty !
Corn shall make the young men cheerful,
And new wine the maids.

10 Ask ye of the LORD rain in its season ;
So the LORD shall make lightning,
And give them showers of rain,

- To every one herbs in his field.
- 2 For the idols have spoken vanity,
And the diviners have seen a lie,
And have told false dreams ; they comfort in vain :
Therefore they went their way as a flock,
They were troubled, because there was no shepherd.
- 3 Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds,
And I punished the goats :
For the LORD of hosts hath visited his flock the house of Judah,
And hath made them as his glorious horse in the battle.
- 4 From him shall be the cornerstone,
From him the nail,
From him the battle-bow ;
Yea, from him every conqueror together.
- 5 And they shall be as mighty men,
Who tread down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle :
And they shall fight, because the LORD is with them,
And they shall confound the riders on horses.
- 6 And I will strengthen the house of Judah,
And I will save the house of Joseph,
And I will cause them to return again ;
For I have mercy upon them :
And they shall be as though I had not cast them off :
For I am the LORD their God, and will answer them.
- 7 And they of Ephraim shall be like mighty men,
And their hearts shall rejoice as through wine :
Yea, their children shall see it, and be glad ;
Their hearts shall rejoice in the LORD.
- 8 I will call for them, and gather them ;
For I have redeemed them :
And they shall increase as they have increased.
- 9 And I will sow them among the people :
And they shall remember me in far countries ;
And they shall live with their children, and return again.
- 10 I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt,
And gather them out of Assyria ;
And I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon ;
And room shall not be found for them.
- 11 And he shall pass through the sea with affliction,
And shall smite the waves in the sea,
And all the deeps of the river shall dry up :
And the pride of Assyria shall be brought down,
And the sceptre of Egypt shall depart away.
- 12 And I will strengthen them in the LORD ;
And they shall walk up and down in his name, saith the LORD.
- 11 OPEN thy doors, O Lebanon,
That the fire may devour thy cedars.
- 2 Howl, fir tree ; for the cedar is fallen :
Because the mighty are spoiled.
Howl, O ye oaks of Bashan ;
Because the forest for the defence is felled.
- 3 There is a voice of the howling of the shepherds ;
For their glory is spoiled :
A voice of the roaring of young lions ;
For the pride of the Jordan is spoiled.
- 4 Thus saith the LORD my God ;
Feed the flock for the slaughter ;
5 Whose possessors slay them,
And hold themselves not guilty :
And those who sell them say,
Blessed be the LORD ; for I am rich :
And their own shepherds pity them not.
- 6 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD :

But, lo, I will deliver the men every one
 Into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king :
 And they shall smite the land,
 And out of their hand I will not deliver them.

- 7 And I will feed the flock for slaughter, even you, truly, an afflicted flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands;
 8 and I fed the flock. Three shepherds also I cut off in one month; and my soul
 9 loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me. Then said I,

I will not feed you :
 That which dieth, let it die;
 And that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off;
 And let the rest eat every one the flesh of his companion.

- 10 And I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my 11 covenant which I had made with all the people. And it was broken in that day :
 and so the poor of the flock who waited upon me knew that it was the word of the 12 LORD. And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, for-13 bear. So they weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver. And the LORD said unto me, Cast it unto the potter: a goodly price that I was prized at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD.
 14 Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.
 15 And the LORD said unto me, Take unto thee yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd.

- 16 For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land,
 Who shall not visit those that are cut off,
 Neither shall seek the young one,
 Nor heal that which is broken,
 Nor feed that which standeth still :
 But he shall eat the flesh of the fat,
 And tear their claws in pieces.

- 17 Woe to the idol shepherd who leaveth the flock !
 The sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye :
 His arm shall be clean dried up,
 And his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

12 THE prophecy of the word of the LORD concerning Israel,
 Saith the LORD, who stretcheth forth the heavens,
 And layeth the foundation of the earth,
 And formeth the spirit of man within him.

- 2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of poison
 Unto all the nations round about,
 When they shall be in the siege
 Both against Judah and against Jerusalem.
 3 And in that day will I make Jerusalem
 A burdensome stone for all nations :
 All who burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces,
 Though all the nations of the earth be gathered together against it.
 4 In that day, saith the LORD,
 I will smite every horse with astonishment,
 And his rider with madness :
 And I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah,
 And will smite every horse of the people with blindness.
 5 And the governors of Judah shall say in their hearts,
 There is strength to me and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem
 In the LORD of hosts their God.
 6 In that day will I make the governors of Judah
 Like a hearth of fire among the wood,
 And like a torch of fire in a sheaf;
 And they shall devour all the nations round about,
 On the right hand and on the left :
 And Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place,
 Even in Jerusalem.

- 7 The LORD shall save the tents of Judah first,
That the glory of the house of David
And the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem
May not magnify themselves against Judah.
- 9 In that day shall the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem;
And he who is feeble among them at that day shall be as David;
And the house of David
As the angel of the LORD God before them.
- 9 And in that day,
I will seek to destroy all the nations
That come against Jerusalem.
- 10 And I will pour upon the house of David,
And upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem,
The spirit of grace and of supplications:
And they shall look upon him whom they have pierced,
And they shall mourn for him,
As one mourneth for his only son,
And shall be in bitterness for him,
As one who is in bitterness for his firstborn.
- 11 In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem,
As the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon.
- 12 And the land shall mourn, every family apart;
The family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart;
The family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart;
- 13 The family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart;
The family of Shimei apart, and their wives apart;
- 14 All the families that remain,
Every family apart, and their wives apart.

- 13 In that day there shall be a fountain opened
To the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem
For sin and for the purification of uncleanness.
- 2 And in that day, saith the LORD of hosts,
I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land,
And they shall no more be remembered:
And also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit
To pass out of the land.
- 3 And when any shall yet prophesy,
Then his father and his mother who begat him
Shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live;
For thou speakest lies in the name of the LORD:
And his father and his mother who begat him
Shall thrust him through whilst prophesying.
- 4 And in that day,
The prophets shall be ashamed
Every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied;
Neither shall they wear a rough garment to deceive:
- 5 But he shall say, I am no prophet, I am a husbandman;
For he who had the care of me made me a husbandman from my youth.
- 6 And should one say unto him,
What are these wounds in thy hands?
Then he shall answer,
Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.
- 7 AWAKE, O sword, against my shepherd,
And against the man who is mine equal, saith the LORD of hosts:
Smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered:
And I will turn my hand against the little ones.
- 8 And in all the land, saith the LORD,
Two parts therein shall be cut off and die;
But the third shall be left therein.
- 9 And I will bring the third part through the fire,
And will refine them as silver is refined,
And will try them as gold is tried:
They shall call on my name, and I will hear them:

- I will say, They are my people :
 And they shall say, The LORD is my God.
- 14 Behold, the day of the LORD cometh,
 And thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.
- 2 For I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem to battle ;
 And the city shall be taken,
 And the houses rifled, and the women ravished ;
 And half of the city shall go forth into captivity,
 And the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.
- 3 Then shall the LORD go forth,
 And fight against those nations,
 As when he fought in the day of battle.
- 4 And his feet shall stand in that day
 Upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east,
 And the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof
 Towards the east and towards the west,
 And there shall be a very great valley ;
 And half of the mount shall remove towards the north,
 And half of it towards the south.
- 5 And ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains ;
 For the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal :
 Yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the earthquake
 In the days of Uzziah king of Judah :
 And the LORD my God shall come,
 And all the saints with him.
- 6 And in that day,
 The light shall not be clear, nor dark :
- 7 But it shall be one day
 Which shall be known to the LORD,
 Not day, nor night :
 But at evening time there shall be light.
- 8 And in that day,
 Living waters shall go out from Jerusalem ;
 Half of them towards the former sea,
 And half of them towards the hinder sea :
 In the summer and in the winter shall it be.
- 9 And the LORD shall be king over all the earth :
 In that day shall there be one LORD, and his name one.
- 10 The whole land shall be turned into a plain
 From Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem :
 And it shall be lifted up, and inhabited in its place,
 From Benjamin's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate,
 And from the tower of Hananeel unto the king's winepresses.
- 11 And men shall dwell in it,
 And there shall be no more utter destruction ;
 But Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited.
- 12 And this shall be the plague
 Wherewith the LORD will smite all the people
 Who have fought against Jerusalem ;
 Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet,
 And their eyes shall consume away in their holes,
 And their tongues shall consume away in their mouths.
- 13 And in that day,
 A great tumult from the LORD shall be among them ;
 And they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour,
 And his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.
- 14 And Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem ;
 And the wealth of all the nations round about shall be gathered together,
 Gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance.
- 15 And so shall be the plague of the horse,
 Of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass,
 And of all the beasts that shall be in these tents,
 As this plague.
- 16 And every one who is left of all the nations

- Which came against Jerusalem
 Shall even go up from year to year
 To worship the King, the LORD of hosts,
 And to keep the feast of tabernacles.
- 17 And whoso will not come up
 Of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem
 To worship the King, the LORD of hosts,
 Even upon them shall be no rain.
- 18 And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not,
 There shall be the plague,
 Wherewith the LORD will smite the nations
 That come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.
- 19 This shall be the punishment of Egypt,
 And the punishment of all nations
 That come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.
- 20 In that day shall there be upon the trappings of the horses,
HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD ;
 So it shall be on the pots in the LORD'S house
 As well as upon the bowls before the altar.
- 21 Yea, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah
 Shall be holy unto the LORD of hosts :
 And all those who sacrifice
 Shall come and take of them, and seethe therein :
 And in that day there shall be no more the merchant
 In the house of the LORD of hosts.

M A L A C H I.

1 THE PROPHECY OF THE WORD OF THE LORD TO ISRAEL BY MALACHI.

- 2 I have loved you, saith the LORD.
 Yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us ?
 Was not Esau Jacob's brother ? saith the LORD :
 Yet I loved Jacob,
 3 And I rejected Esau,
 And laid his mountains and his heritage waste
 For the dragons of the wilderness.
- 4 Whereas Edom saith, We are impoverished,
 But we will return and build again the desolate places ;
 Thus saith the LORD of hosts,
 They shall build, but I will throw down ;
 And they shall call them, The border of wickedness,
 And, The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever.
- 5 And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say,
 The LORD will be magnified from the border of Israel.
- 6 A SON honoureth his father,
 And a servant his master :
 If then I be a father, where is mine honour ?
 And if I be a master, where is my fear ?
 Saith the LORD of hosts unto you,
 O priests, who despise my name.
 And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name ?
- 7 Ye offer polluted bread upon mine altar ;
 And ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee ?
 In that ye say, The table of the LORD is contemptible.
- 8 And if ye offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil ?
 And if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil ?

- Offer it now unto thy governor ;
 Will he be pleased with thee,
 Or accept thy person ? saith the LORD of hosts.
- 9 And now, I pray you,
 Beseech God that he will be gracious unto us :
 This hath been by your means :
 Will he regard your persons ? saith the LORD of hosts.
- 10 Who is there even among you who would shut the doors for nought ?
 Neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought.
 I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts,
 Neither will I accept an offering at your hand.
- 11 For from the rising of the sun
 Even unto the going down of the same
 My name shall be great among the Gentiles ;
 And in every place incense shall be offered unto my name,
 And a pure offering :
 For my name shall be great among the nations, saith the LORD of hosts.
- 12 But ye have profaned it, in that ye say,
 The table of the LORD is polluted ;
 And the food which is offered thereon is contemptible.
- 13 Ye said also, Behold, what a weariness is it !
 And ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts ;
 And ye brought that which was stolen, and the lame, and the sick ;
 Thus ye brought an offering :
 Should I accept this of your hand ? saith the LORD.
- 14 But cursed be the deceiver, who hath in his flock a male,
 And voweth, and sacrificeth unto the LORD a worthless thing :
 For I am a great King, saith the LORD of hosts,
 And my name shall be had in reverence among the nations.
- 2 And now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you.
 If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart,
 To give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts,
 I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings :
 Yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.
- 3 Behold, I will corrupt your seed,
 And spread dung upon your faces,
 Even the dung of your solemn feasts ;
 And one shall take you away with it.
- 4 And ye shall know
 That I have sent this commandment unto you,
 That my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.
- 5 My covenant was with him of life and peace ;
 And I gave them to him
 To be feared, and so he feared me,
 And was dismayed on account of my name.
- 6 The law of truth was in his mouth,
 And iniquity was not found in his lips :
 He walked with me in peace and equity,
 And did turn many away from iniquity.
- 7 For the priest's lips should keep knowledge,
 And they should seek the law at his mouth :
 For he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.
- 8 But ye are departed out of the way ;
 Ye have caused many to stumble at the law ;
 Ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.
- 9 Therefore have I also made you contemptible
 And base before all the people,
 According as ye have not kept my ways,
 But have been partial in the law.
- 10 HAVE we not all one father ?
 Hath not one God created us ?
 Why do we deal treacherously each man with his brother,
 By profaning the covenant of our fathers ?

- 11 Judah hath dealt treacherously,
And an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem ;
For Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD,
In that he hath loved and married the daughter of a strange god.
- 12 The LORD will cut off the man who doeth this,
The proposer and the approver,
Out of the tabernacles of Jacob,
And him who offereth a meat offering unto the LORD of hosts.
- 13 And this have ye done also,
Covering the altar of the LORD with tears,
With weeping, and with crying out,
Insomuch that he regardeth not your meat offering any more,
Or receiveth it with good will at your hand.
- 14 Yet ye say, Wherefore ?
Because the LORD hath been witness
Between thee and the wife of thy youth,
Against whom thou hast dealt treacherously :
Yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.
- 15 And did not he make one flesh ?
Yet had he the residue of the spirit.
And wherefore one flesh ?
That he might seek a godly seed.
Therefore take heed to your spirit,
And let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.
- 16 For the LORD, the God of Israel, saith,
I hate putting away :
For one covereth what he hath taken by violence under his garment, saith the LORD of hosts :
Therefore take heed to your spirit,
That ye deal not treacherously.
- 17 YE have wearied the LORD with your words.
Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him ?
When ye say, Every one who doeth evil
Is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them ;
Or, Where is the God of judgment ?
- 3 Behold, I will send my messenger,
And he shall prepare the way before me :
And the LORD, whom ye seek,
Shall suddenly come to his temple,
Even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in :
Behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.
- 2 But who may abide the day of his coming ?
And who shall stand when he appeareth ?
For he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap :
- 3 And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver :
And he shall purify the sons of Levi,
And cleanse them as gold and silver,
That they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness.
- 4 Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem
Be pleasant unto the LORD,
As in the days of old,
And as in the former years.
- 5 And I will come near to you to judgment ;
And I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers,
And against the adulterers, and against false swearers,
And against those who defraud the hireling of his wages,
The widow, and the fatherless,
And who turn aside the stranger from his right,
And fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts.
- 6 For I am the LORD, I change not ;
Therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.
- 7 EVEN from the days of your fathers
Ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them.

- Return unto me, and I will return unto you,
Saith the LORD of hosts.
- But ye said, Wherein shall we return ?
- 8 Will a man rob God ? Yet ye have robbed me.
But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee ?
In tithes and heave offerings.
- 9 Ye are cursed with a curse :
For ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.
- 10 Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse,
That there may be food in my house,
And prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts,
If I will not open you the windows of the heavens,
And pour you out a blessing,
That there shall not be room enough to receive it.
- 11 And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes,
And he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground ;
Neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field,
Saith the LORD of hosts.
- 12 And all nations shall call you blessed :
For ye shall be a delightsome land, saith the LORD of hosts.
- 13 YOUR words have been stout against me, saith the LORD.
Yet ye say, What have we spoken against thee ?
- 14 Ye have said,
It is vain to serve God :
And what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance,
And that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hosts ?
- 15 And now we call the proud happy ;
Yea, those who work wickedness are set up ;
Yea, those who tempt God are even delivered.
- 16 Then those who feared the LORD spoke often one to another :
And the LORD hearkened, and heard it,
And a book of remembrance was written before him
For those who feared the LORD,
And who thought upon his name.
- 17 And they shall be to me a peculiar treasure, saith the LORD of hosts.
In that day when I make up my jewels ;
And I will spare them, as a man spareth
His own son who serveth him.
- 18 Then shall ye return, and discern
Between the righteous and the wicked,
Between him who serveth God
And him who serveth him not.
- 4 FOR, behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as a furnace ;
And all the proud, yea, and all who do wickedly, shall be stubble :
And the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts,
That it shall leave them neither root nor branch.
- 2 But unto you who fear my name
Shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings ;
And ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.
- 3 And ye shall tread down the wicked ;
For they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet
In the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts.
- 4 But remember ye the law of Moses my servant,
Which I commanded him in Horeb for all Israel,
With the statutes and judgments.
- 5 Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet
Before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD :
- 6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers together with the children,
And the heart of the children together with the fathers,
Lest I come and smite the land with utter destruction.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

M A T T H E W.

THE record of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the Son of David, the son of Abraham. 1

Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judah and his brethren; and Judah begat Pharez and Zara by Thamar; and Pharez begat Ezrom; 3 and Ezrom begat Aram; and Aram begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat Nashon; 4 and Nashon begat Salmon; and Salmon begat Booz by Rachab; and Booz begat 5
Obed by Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse; and Jesse begat David the king; 6

And David the king begat Solomon by her who had been the wife of Uriah; and 7
Solomon begat Rehoboam; and Rehoboam begat Abijah; and Abijah begat Asa; 8 and Asa begat Jehosaphat; and Jehosaphat begat Jehoram; and Jehoram begat 9 Uzziah; and Uzziah begat Jotham; and Jotham begat Ahaz; and Ahaz begat Hezekiah; and Hezekiah begat Manasseh; and Manasseh begat Amon; and Amon be- 10 gat Josiah; and Josiah begat Jehoiakim; and Jehoiakim begat Jechoniah and his 11 brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon:

And after they were hrought to Babylon, Jechoniah begat Shealtiel; and Shealtiel 12 begat Zerubbabel; and Zerubbabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and 13 Eliakim begat Azor; and Azor begat Zadoc; and Zadoc begat Achim; and Achim 14
begat Eliud; and Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan 15 begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was horn Jesus, 16 who is the Christ. So all the generations from Abraham to David were fourteen 17 generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon were fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon until the Christ were fourteen generations.

NOW the birth of Jesus Christ was in this manner: When his mother Mary was 18 espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found to have conceived by the Holy Spirit. Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to 19 make her a public example, was minded to put her away privately. But while he 20 thought on these things, behold, an angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife:
for that which is begotten in her is by the Holy Spirit. And she shall bring forth a 21 son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS [SAVIOUR]: for he shall save his people from their sins. Now all this was done, so that it was fulfilled which was spoken of 22 the LORD by the prophet, saying, Behold, the virgin shall conceive, and shall bring 23 forth a son, and his name shall be called Emmanuel, (which being interpreted is, God with us.) Then Joseph when he arose from sleep did as the angel of the LORD 24 had bidden him, and took unto him his wife till she had brought forth her firstborn 25 son: but knew her not: and he called his name JESUS.

NOW when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the 2 king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, saying, Where is he who is born King of the Jews? for we while in the east have seen his star, and are come to worship him. When Herod the king heard these things, he was troubled, 3 and all Jerusalem with him. And when he had gathered all the Chief Priests and 4 Scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where the Christ was to be born. And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judea: for thus it is written by the 5 prophet, And thou, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, art by no means the least among 6 the chief cities of Judah: for out of thee shall come a Governor, who shall feed my people Israel. Then Herod, when he had privately called the wise men, and obtained 7 accurate information from them concerning the time of the appearing of the star, sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the child; and when 8 ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.
When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they had 9 seen in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over the place where the 10 11 child was. And when they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy; and going into the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto 12 him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh. And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country by another way.

13 And when they were gone, behold, an angel of the LORD appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and abide there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the child to destroy him.
14 And he arose, and took with him the child and his mother by night, and departed
15 into Egypt; and abode there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which the LORD had spoken by the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my son.

16 Then Herod, when he saw that he had been deceived by the wise men, was exceedingly wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the male children who were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the 17 time of which he had obtained accurate information from the wise men. Then was 18 fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, In Rama a voice was heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning; Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 But when Herod was dead, behold! an angel of the LORD appeareth in a dream
20 to Joseph in Egypt, saying, Arise, and take the child and his mother, and go into the 21 land of Israel: for they are dead who sought the child's life. And he arose, and 22 took the child and his mother, and went into the land of Israel. But when he heard that Archelaus reigned in Judea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: but being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the 23 district of Galilee; and he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: so that it was fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

3 IN those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judea, and saying, Repent ye! for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. For this is he who was spoken of by the prophet Isaiah, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for our 4 God. And the same John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his food was locusts and wild honey.

5 Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region round about 6 7 the Jordan, and were baptized by him in the Jordan, confessing their sins. But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O offspring of vipers! who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to 8 9 come? Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance: and think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham for our father: for I say unto you, that God is able
10 of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. And already the axe is laid unto the root of the trees; therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit
11 is hewn down, and cast into the fire. I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he who cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not 12 worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit, and with fire: whose winnowing shovel is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his grain, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

13 Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to the Jordan unto John, to be baptized by him.
14 But John forbade him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to 15 me? And Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil every ordinance. Then he suffered him. And Jesus, after he was 16 baptized, immediately went up from the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon 17 him: and lo, a voice from the heavens, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I delight.

4 THEN was Jesus led by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil.
And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterwards hungry.
3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command
4 that these stones be made loaves of bread. But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every thing that God hath appointed shall man live.

5 Then the devil taketh him into the holy city, and setteth him on the pinnacle of 6 the temple, and saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone. Jesus said 7 unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the LORD thy God.

Again, the devil taketh him to the top of an exceedingly high mountain, and 8 showeth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; and saith unto 9 him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. Then 10 saith Jesus unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan! for it is written, Thou shalt worship 11 the LORD thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. Then the devil leaveth 11 him, and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him.

NOW when Jesus had heard that John was cast into prison, he departed into Ga- 12
lilee; and leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea 13 coast, in the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali: so that it was fulfilled which was 14 spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, The land of Zebulun, and the land of Naphtali, 15 on the Jordan, near the sea in Galilee of the Gentiles; the people who sat in dark- 16 ness have seen a great light; and to those who sat in the region and shadow of death 17 light is sprung up. From that time Jesus began to preach, and say, Repent! for the 17 kingdom of heaven is at hand.

AND Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, 18 and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: (for they were fishermen.) And 19 he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men. And immedi- 20
ately they left their nets, and followed him. And going on from thence, he saw 21 other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the vessel 22 with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them. And they also 22 immediately left the vessel and their father, and followed him.

AND Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching 23
the Gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of 24 disease among the people. And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they 24 brought unto him all sick people who were taken with divers diseases and torments, 25 and those who were possessed with evil spirits, and those who were epileptic, and 25 those who had the palsy; and he healed them. And there followed him great mul- 25 titudes of people from Galilee, and Decapolis, and Jerusalem, and Judea, and from 26
the country beyond the Jordan.

AND seeing the multitudes, he went up to a mountain: and when he had sat down, 5 his disciples came unto him: and he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they 3 4 who mourn: for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek: for they shall in- 5 herit the land. Blessed are they who hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they 6 shall be filled. Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are 7 8 the pure in heart: for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers: for they 9 shall be called the children of God. Blessed are they who are persecuted for their 10 righteousness: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye, when men shall 11 revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, 11 for my sake: rejoice, and be exceedingly glad: for great is your reward in heaven: 12 for so persecuted they the prophets who were before you.

Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost its savour, how shall its salt- 13
ness be restored? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trod- 14 den under foot by men. Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill 14 cannot be hidden. Neither do men light a lamp, and put it under a corn measure, 15 but on a lampstand; and it giveth light unto all who are in the house. So let your 16 light shine before men; that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father 16 who is in heaven.

Think not that I am come to destroy the Law, or the Prophets: I am not come to 17 destroy, but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you, Till the heavens and the earth pass 18 away, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. Who- 19 soever therefore shall break one of the least of these commandments, and shall teach 19 men so to do, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever 20 shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. 20
For I say unto you, That unless your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness 20 of the Scribes and Pharisees, ye shall by no means enter into the kingdom of 21 heaven.

Ye have heard that it was said to those of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and who- 21
soever shall kill shall be in danger of the judges: but I say unto you, That whoso- 22 ever is angry with his brother, without a cause, shall be in danger of the judges; and 22 whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca [WORTHLESS FELLOW]! shall be in danger 23 of the council; but whosoever shall say, Moreh, [APOSTATE WRETCH]! shall be in 23

- 23 danger of the Gehenna of fire.* Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and 24 there rememberest that thy brother hath any complaint against thee; leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then 25 come and offer thy gift. Agree with thine adversary quickly, whilst thou art on the way with him; lest thine adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver 26 thee to the officer, and thou be east into prison. Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.
- 27 Ye have heard that it was said to those of old time, Thou shalt not commit adul-28 tery: but I say unto you, That whosoever gazeth on a woman to lust after her hath 29 committed adultery with her already in his heart. And if thy right eye cause thee to offend, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is better for thee that one of thy 30 members should perish, than that thy whole body should be cast into hell. And if thy right hand cause thee to offend, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is better for thee that one of thy members should perish, than that thy whole body should be cast into hell.
- 31 It hath been said, Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing 32 of divorcement: but I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her who is so divorced committeth adultery.
- 33 Again, ye have heard that it was said to those of old time, Thou shalt not swear 34 falsely, but shalt perform unto the LORD thy vows: but I say unto you, Swear not 35 at all; neither by heaven; for it is God's throne: nor by the earth; for it is his 36 footstool: nor by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great King. Neither shalt 37 thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black. But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of the wicked one.
- 38 39 Ye have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth: but I say unto you, That ye resist not the injurious person: but whosoever shall smite thee 40 on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also. And if any one would sue thee at 41 law, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloak also. And whosoever shall com-42 pel thee to go a mile, go with him two. Give to him who asketh thee, and from him who would borrow of thee turn not thou away.
- 43 Ye have heard that it was said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine 44 enemy: but I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who despitefully use you, and persecute 45 you; that ye may be the children of your Father who is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the 46 unjust. For if ye love those who love you, what reward have ye? do not even the 47 taxgatherers the same? And if ye salute your friends only, what do ye more than 48 others? do not even the heathen the same? Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father who is in heaven is perfect.
- 6 Take heed that ye do not your good deeds before men, to be seen by them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father who is in heaven. Therefore when thou givest alms, do not cause a trumpet to be sounded before thee, as the hypocrites do, in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say 3 unto you, They have received the reward they seek. But when thou givest alms, let 4 not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth; that thine alms may be in secret:
 and thy Father who seeth in secret, himself shall reward thee openly.
- 5 And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues, and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen 6 by men. Verily I say unto you, They have received the reward they seek. But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father who is in secret; and thy Father, who seeth in secret, shall re-7 ward thee openly. But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do:
 8 for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before 9 ye ask him. After this manner, therefore, pray ye: Our Father who art in heaven, 10 hallowed be thy name: thy kingdom come: thy will be done on earth as it is in 11 12 heaven: give us each day food sufficient for us: forgive us our trespasses as we for-13 give those who trespass against us: and leave us not in temptation, but deliver us from the evil one: for thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever:
 14 amen. For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive

* See "Gehenna," General Index.

you: but if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your 15 trespasses.

Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they 16
disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast: verily I say unto you,
They have received the reward they seek. But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thy 17 head, and wash thy face; that thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father 18 who is in secret: and thy Father, who seeth in secret, shall reward thee.

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust consume, and 19 where thieves break through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in hea- 20 ven, where neither moth nor rust consume, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. The lamp of 21 22 the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be clear, thy whole body will be full of light. But if thine eye be dim, thy whole body will be full of darkness. If then 23 the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness! No man can serve 24 two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and Mammon [RICHES].
Therefore I say unto you, Take no anxious thought for your life, what ye shall eat, 25 or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on: is not the life more than food, and the body than raiment? Behold the birds of the air: for they 26 sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them: are ye not much better than they? Which of you by taking anxious 27 thought can prolong his life one hour? And why take ye anxious thought for rai- 28 ment? Consider the lilies of the field, how do they grow? they toil not, neither do they spin: and yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed 29 like one of these. Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, 30 and to-morrow is cast into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? Therefore take no anxious thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What 31 shall we drink? or, With what shall we be clothed? (for after all these things do 32 the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye also have need of all these things. But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these 33 things shall be added unto you. Take therefore no anxious thought for the morrow: 34 for the morrow will take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient for each day is the evil thereof.

Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be 7 judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. And why observest thou the splinter that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the 7 beam that is in thine own eye? Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me take 4 the splinter out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye? Thou hypo- 5 crite, first take the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to take the splinter out of thy brother's eye.

Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, lest they turn again and rend you; nei- 6 ther cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet.

Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be 7 opened unto you: for every one who asketh receiveth; and he who seeketh findeth; 8 and to him who knocketh it shall be opened. What man is there among you, who, 9 if his son ask bread, will give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will give him a serpent? If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how 11 much more shall your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him!

Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even 12
so to them: for this is the Law and the Prophets.

Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that 13 leadeth to destruction, and many there be who go in thereat. How strait is the gate, 14 and narrow the way, which leadeth unto life! and few there be who find it.

But beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly 15 they are ravenous wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather 16 grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth 17 good fruit; but a bad tree bringeth forth bad fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth 18 bad fruit, neither can a bad tree bring forth good fruit: (every tree that bringeth 19 not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire:) wherefore by their fruits 20 ye shall know them.

Not every one who saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of 21 heaven; but he who doeth the will of my Father who is in heaven. Many will say 22 to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy 23 name have cast out evil spirits? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I declare unto them, I never approved of you : depart from me, ye who practise iniquity.

24 Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, who built his house upon a rock : and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house ; and it fell not : for it was founded upon a rock. And whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, who built his house upon the sand : and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house ; and it fell : and great was the fall of it.

25 And when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his teaching : for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the Scribes.

8 NOW when he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him. And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will ; be thou clean ! And immediately his leprosy was cleansed. And Jesus saith unto him, See thou tell no man ; but go thy way, show thyself to the Priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

5 AND when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him, and saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously afflicted. And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him. The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof : but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed. For I am a man in authority, having soldiers under me : and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth ; and to another, Come, and he cometh ; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it. When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to those who followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven : but the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness : there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way ; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in that very hour.

14 AND when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother lying sick of a fever : and he touched her hand, and the fever left her ; and she arose, and ministered unto him.

16 When the evening was come, they brought unto him many who were possessed with evil spirits : and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all who were sick. Thus it was fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bore our sicknesses.

18 NOW when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side. And a certain Scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests ; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. And another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. But Jesus said unto him, Follow me ; and leave the dead to bury their dead.

23 24 And when he was entered into a vessel, his disciples followed him ; and, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the vessel was covered with the waves : but he was asleep. And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us : we perish ! And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith ? Then he arose, and restrained the winds and the sea ; and there was a great calm. And the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him !

28 AND when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with evil spirits, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that no man could pass by that way. And, behold, they cried out, saying, What hast thou to do with us, Jesus, thou Son of God ? art thou come hither to torment us before the time ? Now there was a good way off from them a herd of many swine feeding. And the evil spirits besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine. And he said unto them, Go. And when they were cast out, they went into the herd of swine : and, behold, the whole herd rushed violently down the precipice into the sea, and perished in the waters. 33 And they who had kept them fled, and went their way into the city, and told every thing, and what had befallen those who had been possessed of the evil spirits. And, behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus : and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart from their coasts.

And he entered into the vessel, and passed over, and came to his own city. And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed : and Jesus seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy ; Son, be of good cheer ; thy sins are forgiven thee. And, behold, certain of the Scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth. But Jesus knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore do ye think evil in your hearts ? For which is easier, to say, Thy sins are forgiven thee ; or to say, Arise, and walk ? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thy house. And he arose, and departed to his house. But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, who had given such power unto men.

AND as Jesus passed on from thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom : and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him. And as Jesus sat at table in his house, behold, many taxgatherers and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples : and when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with taxgatherers and sinners ? But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They who are whole need not a physician, but they who are sick. But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I desire mercy rather than sacrifice : for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but thy disciples fast not ? And Jesus said unto them, Can the companions of the bridegroom mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them ? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast. No man putteth a piece of new cloth into an old garment, for that which is put in to fill up the rent taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse. Neither do men put new wine into old leathern bottles : else the bottles burst, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish : but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

WHILE he spoke these things unto them, behold, there came a ruler of the synagogue, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is by this time dead : but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live. And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.

And, behold, a woman, who had been afflicted with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the fringe of his garment : for she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be healed. But Jesus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort ; thy faith hath made thee whole : and the woman was healed from that hour.

And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the minstrels and the people making lamentation, he said unto them, Give place : for the maiden is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed at him. But when the people were sent out, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maiden arose. And the fame thereof went abroad into all that country.

AND when Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying out, and saying, Pity us, thou Son of David ! And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him : and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this ? They said unto him, Yea, Lord ! Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you : and their eyes were opened ; and Jesus strictly charged them, saying, See that no man know it. But they went out and spread abroad his fame in all that country.

AFTER they had gone out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with an evil spirit. And when the evil spirit was cast out, the dumb man spoke : and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never thus seen in Israel ! But the Pharisees said, He casteth out evil spirits through the prince of the evil spirits.

AND Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the glad tidings of the kingdom, and healing every infirmity and every disease. But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion for them, because they were exposed, and scattered abroad, like sheep having no shepherd. Then saith he to his disciples, The harvest truly is plentiful, but the labourers are few ; pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

AND when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of infirmity and disease.

MATTHEW XI.

- 2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; First, Simon, who is called Peter, 3 and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the taxgatherer; James the son of Al-4 phæus, and Lebbæus, whose surname was Thaddæus; Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him.
- 5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way
6 of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not: but go rather to 7 the lost sheep of the house of Israel. And as ye go, proclaim that the kingdom of 8 heaven is at hand. Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out evil 9 spirits. Freely ye have received, freely give. Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor 10 brass in your girdles, nor bag for your journey, nor two coats, nor shoes, nor yet a 11 staff: for the workman is worthy of his support. And into whatsoever city or town 12 ye shall enter, inquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence. And 13 when ye enter into a house, salute it: and if the house be worthy, let your peace 14 come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you. And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, 15 shake off the dust of your feet. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city.
- 16 Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as 17 serpents, and harmless as doves. But beware of men: for they will deliver you up 18 to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues; and ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and 19 the Gentiles. But when they deliver you up, be not anxious how or what ye shall 20 speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak. For it is 21 not ye who speak, but the Spirit of your Father who speaketh in you. And the brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child: and the children 22 will rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death. And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he who endureth to the end shall be saved.
- 23 But when they persecute you in one city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.
- 24 25 The disciple is not above his teacher, nor the servant above his master. It is enough for the disciple that he be as his teacher, and the servant as his master. If men have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call those 26 of his household! Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall 27 not be made manifest; and hidden, that shall not be known. What I tell you privately, that speak ye publicly: and what ye hear in the ear, that proclaim ye upon 28 the house-tops. And fear not those who can kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. Are 29 not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and yet not one of them falleth to the ground
30 31 without your Father. But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear ye 32 not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows. Whosoever therefore shall acknowledge me before men, him will I also acknowledge before my Father 33 who is in heaven. But whosoever shall disown me before men, him will I also dis-
34 own before my Father who is in heaven. Think not that I am come to bring peace 35 on earth: I came not to bring peace, but a sword: for I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter-36 in-law against her mother-in-law: and a man's foes shall be they of his own house-37 hold. He who loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he 38 who loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And he who taketh 39 not up his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me. He who seeketh to 40 find his life shall lose it: and he who loseth his life for my sake shall find it. He who receiveth you receiveth me, and he who receiveth me receiveth him who sent 41 me. He who receiveth a prophet from respect to the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he who receiveth a righteous man from respect to 42 the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward. And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only from respect to the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.
- 11 AND when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.
- 2 NOW when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples, and said unto him, Art thou he who should come, or do we look for an-4 other? Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and show John again those things
5 which ye do hear and see: the blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the glad tidings of the Gospel preached to them. And blessed is he, whose faith in me shall 6 not be shaken.

And when they had departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning 7 John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? What then went ye out to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they who 8 wear soft raiment are in king's houses. What then went ye out to see? A prophet? 9 yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet. For this is he, of whom it is 10 written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, who shall prepare thy way before thee. Verily I say unto you, Among those who are born of women there 11 hath not arisen a greater than John the Baptist: yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. From the days of John the Baptist until now the king- 12 dom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force. For all the 13 Prophets and the Law prophesied until John: and if ye will receive it, this is 14 Elijah, who was to come. He who hath ears to hear, let him hear! But to what 15 shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their companions, saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not 17 danced; we have sung mournful songs unto you, and ye have not lamented. For 18 John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath an evil spirit. The 19 Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, a friend of taxgatherers and sinners! But wisdom is justified by her children.

Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works had 20 been done, because they repented not: Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, 21 Bethsaida! for if the mighty works, which have been done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. But I 22 say unto you, It will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you. And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto the heavens, shalt be 23 thrust down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. But I say unto you, 24 That it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee.

At that time Jesus spoke and said, I adore thee, O Father, Lord of the heavens 25 and the earth, that having hidden these things from the wise and learned, thou hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight. 26 All things are delivered unto me by my Father: and no man perfectly knoweth the 27 Son, but the Father; neither perfectly knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whom the Son doth reveal him. Come unto me, all ye who labour and 28 are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; 29 for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls; for my 30 yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

AT that time Jesus went on the sabbath day through the corn fields; and his dis- 12 ciples were hungry, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat. But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath day. But he said unto them, Have ye not read what 3 David did, when he and they who were with him were hungry; how he went into 4 the house of God, and ate the showbread, which it was not lawful for him to eat, neither for those who were with him, but only for the Priests? Or have ye not read 5 in the law, how that on the sabbath days the Priests in the temple violate the rest to be observed on the sabbath, and yet are guiltless? But I say unto you, That in 6 this place is one greater than the temple. But if ye had known what this meaneth, 7 I desire mercy rather than sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless: 8 for the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath day.

AND passing on thence, he went into their synagogue: and, behold, there was a 9 10 man who had a withered hand. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath days? that they might accuse him. And he said unto them, What man 11 is there among you, who hath one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will not lay hold on it, and lift it out? How much then is a man better than a 12 sheep! Wherefore it is lawful to do good on the sabbath days. Then saith he to 13 the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other. Then the Pharisees went out, and held a council against 14 him, how they might destroy him: but Jesus knowing it, withdrew himself from 15 thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed their sick; and charged 16 them that they should not make him known. Thus was fulfilled that which was 17

18 spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, Behold my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul delighteth: I will put my spirit upon him, and he shall give laws to the Gentiles. He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets. A bruised reed he will not break, and smoking flax he will not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory. And in his name shall the Gentiles trust.

22 Then was brought unto him one blind and dumb, possessed with an evil spirit: and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spoke and saw. And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the Son of David? But when the Pharisees heard of it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out evil spirits, but by Beelzebub the prince of the evil spirits. And Jesus knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand: and if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how then can his kingdom stand? And if I by Beelzebub cast out evil spirits, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges. But if I cast out evil spirits by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you. Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and plunder his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will plunder his house. He who is not with me is against me; and he who gathereth not with me scattereth abroad. Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy may be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit shall not be forgiven unto men. And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it may be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, nor in the world to come. Either make the tree good, and its fruit will be good; or else make the tree corrupt, and its fruit will be corrupt: for the tree is known by its fruit. O offspring of vipers! how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. A good man out of his good treasure bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of his evil treasure bringeth forth evil things. But I say unto you, That every injurious word that men shall speak, they shall give an account of in the day of judgment: for by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 Then certain of the Scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee. But he answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; but no sign shall be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonah: for as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of a great fish; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment against this generation, and shall condemn it: because they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and, behold, a greater than Jonah is here. The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment against this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from a far country to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

43 But when the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, it walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none. Then it saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when it is come, it findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. Then goeth it, and taketh along with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also with this wicked generation.

46 And while he yet talked to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him. Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee. But he answered and said unto him who told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren? And he stretched forth his hand towards his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren! for whosoever shall do the will of my Father who is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

13 THE same day Jesus went out of the house, and sat down by the sea side: and great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that he went into the vessel and sat down; and the whole multitude stood on the shore. And he spoke many things unto them in parables, saying,

4 Behold, a sower went forth to sow; and as he was sowing, some seeds fell by the way side, and the birds came and devoured them: others fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprang up, because they had no depth of earth: and when the sun arose, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. And others fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up, and choked them : but others fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some 8 a hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold. He who hath ears to hear, let him 9 hear.

And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in 10 parables? He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the 11 mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given : for whosoever 12 hath, to him more shall be given, and he shall have a greater abundance : but whosoever hath little, from him shall be taken away even that which he hath. Therefore 13 speak I to them in parables : because seeing they see not ; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand : and in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, 14 which saith, Hearing ye shall hear, but ye will not understand ; and seeing ye shall see, but ye will not perceive : for this people's heart is become gross, and their ears 15 are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed ; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and turn to the LORD, and I should heal them. But blessed are your eyes, 16 for they see : and your ears, for they hear : for verily I say unto you, That many pro- 17 phets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them ; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower. When any one heareth the word of 18 19 the kingdom, and regardeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart : this is he who received seed by the way side.
But he who received the seed upon stony places is he who heareth the word, and 20 quickly with joy receiveth it ; yet hath he not root in himself, but endureth only for 21 a while : for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, immediately he falleth away. And he who received seed among the thorns is he who 22 heareth the word ; and the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. But he who received seed into the good 23 ground is he who heareth the word, and regardeth it ; who also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened 24 unto a man who sowed good seed in his field : but while men slept, his enemy came 25 and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way. But when the blade was sprung 26 up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. So the servants of the 27 householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field ?
whence then are the tares ? He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The 28 servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them out ? But he 29 said, Nay ; lest while ye gather out the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.
Let both grow together until the harvest : and in the time of harvest I will say to the 30 reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them :
but gather the wheat into my barn.

Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to 31 a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field : which indeed is 32 the least of all seeds : but when it is grown, it is greater than other herbs, and be-cometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in its branches.

Another parable spake he unto them ; The kingdom of heaven is like unto 33 leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

All these things spake Jesus to the multitude in parables ; and without a parable 34 spoke he not unto them : so that it was fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, 35 saying, I will open my mouth in parables ; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house : and his disciples 36 came unto him, saying, Explain to us the parable of the tares of the field. He an- 37 swered and said unto them. He who soweth the good seed is the Son of man ; the 38 field is the world ; the good seed are the children of the kingdom ; but the tares are the children of the wicked one ; the enemy who sowed them is the devil ; the 39 harvest is the end of the world ; and the reapers are the angels. As therefore the 40 tares are gathered and burnt in the fire ; so shall it be in the end of this world. The 41
Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and those who do iniquity ; and shall cast them into the furnace 42 of fire : there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who hath ears to hear, let him 43 hear.

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hidden in a field ; which when 44

a man hath found, he keepeth it secret, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

45 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly 46 pearls: who, having found one pearl of great value, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and 48 gathered fish of every kind: which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat 49 down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away. So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from 50 among the just, and shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

51 Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, 52 Yea, Lord. Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe who is instructed with respect to the kingdom of heaven is like a householder, who bringeth forth out of his treasure things both new and old.

53 54 AND when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence. And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty 55 powers? Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his 56 brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judah? and his sisters, are they not 57 all with us? Whence then hath he all these things? Yet they believed not in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own 58 country, and in his own house. And he did not do many miracles there because of their unbelief.

14 AT that time Herod the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus; and said unto his servants, This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works are wrought by him.

3 For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for He-4 rodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife. For John said unto him, It is not lawful for 5 thee to have her. And when he would have put him to death, he feared the mul-
6 titude, because they accounted him as a prophet. But when Herod's birthday was 7 kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod. Where-8 upon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she should ask. And she, being beforehand instructed by her mother, said, Give me here John the Baptist's 9 head in a dish. And the king was sorry: nevertheless for the sake of his oath, and 10 of those who sat with him at the table, he commanded it to be given her: and he 11 sent, and beheaded John in the prison: and his head was brought in a dish, and 12 given to the damsel; and she brought it to her mother. And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus.

13 When Jesus heard of it, he privately departed thence by a vessel into a desert place: and when the people heard thereof, they followed him by land out of the cities.

14 AND Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion towards them, and he healed their sick.

15 And towards evening his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the day is now far gone; send the multitude away, that they may go into the vil-16 lages, and buy themselves food. But Jesus said unto them, They need not go away;
17 give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two 18 19 fishes. He said, Bring them hither to me. And having commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, he took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he gave thanks, and broke the loaves, and gave to his disciples, and the 20 disciples to the multitude: and they did all eat, and were filled; and they took up 21 of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full. And they who had eaten were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

22 And immediately Jesus constrained his disciples to get into the vessel, and to go 23 before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away. And when he had sent the multitudes away, he privately went up to a mountain to pray: and when 24 the evening was come, he was there alone. But the vessel was now in the midst of 25 the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary. And in the fourth watch 26 of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea. And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, It is an apparition; and they 27 cried out for fear. But Jesus immediately spoke unto them, saying, Be of good 28 cheer; it is I; be not afraid! And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, 29 bid me come unto thee on the water. And he said, Come! And when Peter was come down out of the vessel, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus. But when he 30 saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, Lord, save me! And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, 31 and said unto him, O thou of little faith! wherefore didst thou doubt? And when 32 they were come into the vessel, the wind ceased. Then they who were in the vessel 33 came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God.

And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gennesaret. And 34 35 when the men of that place found out who he was, they sent out into all the country round about, and brought unto him all who were diseased; and besought him that 36 they might only touch the fringe of his garment: and as many as touched it were perfectly healed.

THEN came to Jesus Scribes and Pharisees, from Jerusalem, saying, Why do thy 15 disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread. But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the 3 commandment of God by your tradition? For God commanded, saying, Honour thy 4 father and mother: and, He who curseth father or mother shall surely be put to death. But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, An offering hath 5 been made of every thing whereby thou mightest be profited by me; he need not 6 afterwards honour his father or his mother. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition. Ye hypocrites! well did Isaiah prophesy of 7 you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me 8 with their lips; but their heart is far from me: but in vain do they worship me, 9 teaching for doctrines the commands of men.

And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand: It is not 10 11 that which goeth into the mouth that defileth the man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth the man.

Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were 12 offended, when they heard thy saying? But he answered and said, Every plant, 13 which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up. Let them alone: 14 they are blind leaders of the blind. And if a blind man lead a blind man, both shall fall into the ditch. Then answered Peter and said unto him, Explain to us this 15 parable. And Jesus said, Are ye also yet without understanding? Do not ye yet 16 17 understand, that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the drain? But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth 18 from the heart; and they defile the man. For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, 19 murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies: these are the 20 things which defile the man: but to eat with unwashed hands defileth not the man.

THEN Jesus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon. And, 21 22 behold! a Cananite woman came out of those coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Pity me, O Lord, thou Son of David! my daughter is grievously vexed with an evil spirit. But he answered her not a word: and his disciples came and besought him, 23 saying, Send her away; for she crieth out after us. But he answered and said, I am 24 not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Then she came and wor- 25 shipped him, saying, Lord, help me! But he answered and said, It is not meet to 26 take the children's bread, and to cast it to the dogs. And she said, True, Lord! yet 27 the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table. Then Jesus answer- 28 ed and said unto her, O woman! great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt! And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

AND Jesus departed from thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Galilee; and 29 went up to a mountain, and sat down there. And great multitudes came unto him, 30 having with them those who were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and laid them down at the feet of Jesus; and he healed them: insomuch that the mul- 31 titude wondered, when they saw that the dumb spoke, the maimed were made whole, the lame walked, and the blind saw: and they glorified the God of Israel.

Then Jesus called his disciples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the mul- 32 titude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest their strength fail. And his disciples say 33 unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to satisfy so great a multitude? And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And 34 they said, Seven, and a few little fishes. And he commanded the multitude to sit 35 down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and having given 36 thanks, he broke them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude: and they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken food that was 37

38 left seven baskets full. Now they who did eat were four thousand men, besides women and children.

39 And he sent away the multitude, and went into the vessel, and came into the coasts of Magdala.

16 THEN the Pharisees and the Sadducees came, and tempting him, desired him that he would show them a sign from the heavens. He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the sky is red. And in the morning, It will be foul weather to-day: for the sky is red and lowring. O ye hypocrites! ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times? A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonah. And he left them, and departed.

5 AND when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread: then Jesus said unto them, Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees. And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have brought no bread. Which when Jesus perceived, he said, O ye of little faith! why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread? Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets full ye took up? Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets full ye took up? How is it that ye do not understand that it was not concerning bread, that I told you to beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees? Then understood they that he bade them beware, not of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

13 WHEN Jesus came into the coasts of Cæsarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Who do men say that I am? the Son of man? And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, Elijah; and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets. He saith unto them, But who say ye that I am? And Simon Peter answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father who is in heaven. And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter [A STONE OR ROCK], and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Then charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ.

21 FROM that time forth began Jesus to show unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and Chief Priests and Scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day. Then Peter took him aside, and began to reprove him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee. But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, thou adversary: thou art an offence to me: for thou regardest not the things of God, but the things of men. Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall save it. For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his life? or what shall a man give in exchange for his life? For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works. Verily I say unto you, There are some standing here, who shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingly power.

17 AND after six days Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart; and he was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light. And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elijah talking with him. Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. While he yet spoke, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I delight; hear ye him. And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid. And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid. And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus only.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no one, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead. And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the Scribes that Elijah must first come? And

Jesus answered and said unto them, Elijah truly doth first come, and restore all things. But I say unto you, That Elijah hath come already, and they acknowledged him 12 not, but did unto him whatsoever they chose. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them. Then the disciples understood that he spoke unto them of John the 13 Baptist.

And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a man, kneeling 14 down to him, and saying, Lord, pity my son: for he is epileptic, and greatly afflicted: for oftentimes he falleth into the fire, and often into the water. And I brought 16 him to thy disciples, but they could not cure him. Then Jesus answered and said, O 17 faithless and perverse generation! how long shall I be with you! how long shall I endure you! bring him hither to me. And Jesus rebuked the evil spirit; and it came 18 out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour. Then came the disciples 19 to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out? And Jesus said unto 20 them, Because of your want of faith: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place: and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you. But this 21 kind is not cast out but by prayer and fasting.

AND while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be 22 betrayed into the hands of men: and they shall kill him, and the third day he shall 23 be raised again. And they were exceedingly sorry.

And when they were come to Capernaum, they who received the tribute money 24 came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute? He saith, Yes. And 25 when he was come into the house, before he spoke, Jesus said unto him, What thinkest thou, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take tribute? of their own children, or of strangers? Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto 26 him. Then are the children free. Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go 27 thou to the sea, and cast a hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened its mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in 18 the kingdom of heaven? And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them. and said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and be- 3 come as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever 4 therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth 5 me. But whoso shall cause one of these little ones who believe in me to fall away, 6 it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; 7 but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh! Wherefore if thy hand or thy 8 foot cause thee to offend, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire. And if thine eye cause thee to offend, pluck it out, and 9 cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.

Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in 10 heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father who is in heaven. For 11 the Son of man is come to save that which was lost. What think ye? if a man have 12 a hundred sheep, and one of them have gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and go upon the mountains, and seek that which is gone astray? And if 13 so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray. Even so it is not the will of your Father 14 who is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

Moreover if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother: but if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. And if he shall refuse to hear 17 them, tell it unto the church: but if he also refuse to hear the church, let him be unto thee as a heathen and a taxgatherer.

Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: 18 and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again I 19 say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth, as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them by my Father who is in heaven: for where 20 two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

21 Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me,
 22 and I forgive him? until seven times? Jesus saith unto him, I say unto thee,
 23 until seven times: but, until seventy times seven. Therefore is the kingdom of hea-24 ven likened unto a certain king, who would settle accounts with his servants. And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, who owed him ten thou-25 sand talents: but forasmuch as he had not to pay, his master commanded him to be 26 sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. The servant therefore fell down, and entreated him, saying, Master, have patience with 27 me, and I will pay thee all. Then the master of that servant was moved with com-28 passion, and released him, and forgave him the debt. But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellowservants, who owed him a hundred pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me what thou owest.
 29 And his fellowservant falling down, besought him, saying, Have patience with me, 30 and I will pay thee all: and he would not: but went and east him into prison, till 31 he should pay the debt. So when his fellowservants saw what was done, they were 32 very sorry, and came and told unto their master all that was done. Then his master, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant! I forgave thee 33 all that debt, because thou desiredst me: shouldst not thou also have had compas-34 sion on thy fellowservant, even as I had compassion on thee? And his master was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto 35 him. So likewise will my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother.

19 AND when Jesus had finished these sayings, he departed from Galilee, and came into the coasts of Judea beyond the Jordan; and great multitudes followed him; and he healed them there.

3 Then certain Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, 4 Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he who made them at the beginning made 5 them a male and a female, and said, For this cause shall a man leave father and 6 mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they two shall be as one flesh? Wherefore they are no more two, but as one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

7 They say unto him, Why did Moses then suffer a writing of divorcement to be 8 given, and to put her away? He saith unto them, Moses because of the perverseness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was 9 not so: and I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her who is put away doth commit adultery.

10 His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not 11 good to marry. He said unto them, All cannot receive this saying, but they only 12 to whom it is given: for there are some eunuchs, who were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, who were made eunuchs by men:
 and there are eunuchs, who have made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. He who is able to receive these things, let him receive them.

13 Then were there brought unto him little children, that he might put his hands on 14 them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked those who brought them: but Jesus said, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for to such 15 belongeth the kingdom of God. And having laid his hands on them, he departed thence.

16 AND, behold, one came and said unto him, Good Master, what good thing shall I 17 do, that I may obtain everlasting life? And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but God only: but if thou wouldest enter into life, 18 keep the commandments. He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, Thou shalt do no murder; Thou shalt not commit adultery; Thou shalt not steal; Thou shalt not 19 bear false witness; Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Thou shalt love thy 20 neighbour as thyself. The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept 21 from my youth up: what lack I yet? Jesus said unto him, If thou wouldest be perfect, go and sell what thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have trea-22 sure in heaven: and come, and follow me. But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

23 Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man shall 24 hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven. And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into 25 the kingdom of God. When the disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, What rich man then can be saved? But Jesus beheld them, and said unto 26 them, Though with men this is impossible, with God all things are possible.

Then answered Peter and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and fol- 27 lowed thee; what shall we have therefore? And Jesus said unto them, Verily I 28 say unto you, That at the time of the completion of all things, when the Son of man shall sit on the throne of his glory, ye who have followed me shall also sit upon 29 twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And every one who hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive a hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life. But many who are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.— 30 For the kingdom of heaven is like unto a householder, who went out early in the 20 morning to hire labourers into his vineyard. And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And he went out about 3 the third hour, and saw others standing in the marketplace doing nothing, and said 4 unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went. Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise. 5 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing, and saith unto 6 them, Why stand ye here all the day doing nothing? They say unto him, Because 7 no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard: and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive. So when evening was come, the master of the 8 vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first. And when they came who were hired about the 9 eleventh hour, they received every man a penny. But when the first came, they 10 supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny. And when they had received it, they murmured against the house- 11 holder, saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them 12 equal unto us, who have borne the burden and heat of the day. But he answered 13 one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny? Take what is thine, and go thy way: it is my will to give unto this 14 last, even as much as to thee. Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine 15 own? Is thine eye evil, because I am good? So the last shall be first, and the first 16 last: for many are called, but few are chosen.

AND Jesus going up to Jerusalem took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and 17 said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the Chief Priests and unto the Scribes, and they will condemn him to death, and will deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify 19 him: and the third day he shall rise again.

Then came to him the mother of Zebedee's children with her sons, worshipping 20 him, and desiring a certain thing of him. And he said unto her, What wilt thou? 21 She saith unto him, Command that these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left, in thy kingdom. But Jesus answered and said, 22 Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able. And he saith unto them, Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be bap- 23 tized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give; except to those for whom it hath been prepared by my Father.

And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two 24 brethren: but Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the 25 Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they who are great exercise authority upon them. But it must not be so among you: but whosoever would be great among 26 you, let him be your minister; and whosoever would be chief among you, let him be 27 your servant: even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. 28

And as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him: and, be- 29 30 hold, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cried out, saying, Pity us, O Lord, thou Son of David! And the multitude 31 charged them that they should hold their peace: but they cried the more, saying, Pity us, O Lord, thou Son of David! And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, 32 What will ye that I shall do unto you? They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes 33 may be opened! So Jesus had compassion on them, and touched their eyes: and 34 immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

AND when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto 21 the mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, saying unto them, Go into the vil- lage over against you, and immediately ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her :

 3 loose them, and bring them unto me. And if any one say anything to you, ye shall 4 say, The Lord hath need of them ; and immediately he will send them. (This was 5 done, so that it was fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, Tell ye the 6 daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass,
 7 even upon a colt the foal of an ass.) And the disciples went, and did as Jesus com-
 8 manded them, and brought the ass, even the colt, and put on it their clothes, and 9 they set him thereon. And a very great multitude spread their garments in the 10 way ; others cut down branches from the trees, and strewed them in the way. And 11 the multitudes who went before, and who followed, cried out, saying, Hosanna to the 12 Son of David ! Blessed be he who cometh in the name of the Lord ! Hosanna in the 13 highest heavens !
- 10 AND when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is 11 this ? And the multitude said, This is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.
- 12 AND Jesus went into the temple of God, and drove out all those who sold and 13 bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats
 14 of those who sold doves, and said unto them, It is written, My house shall be a 15 house of prayer for all nations ; but ye have made it a den of thieves. And the blind
 16 and the lame came to him in the temple ; and he healed them. And when the Chief
 17 Priests and Scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying
 18 out in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the Son of David ! they were greatly 19 displeased, and said unto him, Hearest thou what these say ? And Jesus saith unto 20 them, Yea ; have ye never read, Out of the mouths of very babes and sucklings thou 21 hast perfected praise ? And he left them, and went out of the city into Bethany ;
 22 and he lodged there.
- 18 19 Now in the morning as he returned into the city, he was hungry : and seeing a fig 20 tree by the way side, he went to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves, and 21 said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever ! And presently the 22 fig tree withered away. And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How 23 soon is the fig tree withered away ! Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say 24 unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which has been 25 done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed,
 26 and be thou cast into the sea ! it shall be done ; and all things, whatsoever ye shall 27 ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.
- 23 AND when he was come into the temple, the Chief Priests and the elders of the 24 people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou
 25 these things ? and who gave thee this authority ? And Jesus answered and said 26 unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I also will tell you by 27 what authority I do these things. The baptism of John, whence was it ? from 28 heaven, or from men ? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, 29 From heaven ; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him ? but if we 30 shall say, From men ; we fear the people ; for all hold John as a prophet. And they 31 answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I 32 you by what authority I do these things.
- 28 But what think ye ? A man had two sons ; and he came to the first, and said, 29 Son, go work to-day in my vineyard. He answered and said, I will not : but after-30 wards he repented, and went. And he came to the second, and said likewise. And 31 he answered and said, I go, sir : but went not. Which of the two did the will of his 32 father ? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto 33 you, That they who have been taxgatherers and harlots shall go into the kingdom
 34 of God before you : for John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye be-35 lieved him not ; but the taxgatherers and the harlots believed him : and ye, when 36 ye had seen it, repented not afterwards, so as to believe him.
- 33 Hear another parable : There was a certain householder, who planted a vineyard, 34 and hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and he 35 let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country : and when the time of the 36 fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the 37 fruits of it. And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed an-38 other, and drove away another with stones. Again, he sent other servants of higher 39 rank than the first : and they did the same unto them. But last of all he sent unto 40 them his son, saying, They will reverence my son. But when the husbandmen saw 41 the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir ; come, let us kill him, and let 42 us seize on his inheritance. So they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and 43 slew him. When the master therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen? They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked 41 men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, who will render him the fruits in their seasons. Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the Scriptures, 42 The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the LORD'S doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes? Therefore say I unto 43 you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof. And whosoever shall fall against this stone shall be bruised 44 by it: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will crush him to pieces.

And when the Chief Priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived 45 that he spoke of them. But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the 46 multitude, because they accounted him a prophet.

Then Jesus spoke again unto them by parables, and said, The kingdom of heaven 22 is like unto a certain king, who made a marriage feast for his son, and sent forth his servants to call those who were invited to the wedding: and they would not come. Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell those who are invited, Behold, I 4 have prepared my dinner: my oxen and fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage feast. But they made light of it, and went their ways, one 5 to his farm, another to his merchandise: and the rest took his servants, and treated 6 them spitefully, and slew them. But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: 7 and he sent forth his soldiers, and destroyed those murderers, and burnt up their city. Then saith he to his servants, The wedding feast is ready, but they who were 8 invited were not worthy: go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall 9 find, bid to the feast. So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered 10 together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding feast was furnished with guests. But when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there 11 a man who had not on a wedding garment: and he saith unto him, Friend, how 12 camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment on? And he was speechless. Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and 13 cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth! For 14 many are the called, but few the chosen.

Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his 15 discourse. And they sent out unto him their own disciples with the Herodians, 16 saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any one: for thou regardest not the person of men. Tell us 17 therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cæsar, or not? But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites? 18 Show me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny. And he saith 19 20 unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? They say unto him, Cæsar's. 21 Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Cæsar the things which are Cæsar's; and unto God the things that are God's. When they had heard these words, they 22 marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

The same day came to him the Sadducees, who say that there is no resurrection 23 and future state, and asked him, saying, Master, Moses said, If a man die, having no 24 children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up children unto his brother. Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, after having married a wife, 25 died, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother: likewise the second also 26 died, and the third, unto the seventh. And last of all the woman died also. There- 27 28 fore in the future state whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her. Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the 29 power of God: for in the future state they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, 30 but are as the angels of God in heaven. But as touching the future state of the 31 dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, I am the 32 God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living. And when the multitude heard this, they were 33 astonished at his doctrine.

But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they 34 gathered about him. Then one of them, who was a teacher of the law, asked him a 35 question, tempting him, and saying, Master, which is the great commandment in the 36 law? Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thy heart, 37 and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great command- 38 ment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. 39 On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets. 40

While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, saying, What 41 42 think ye of the Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, David's. He saith 43 unto them, How then doth David by the Holy Spirit call him his Lord, saying, 44 JEHOVAH said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine ene-45 46 mies thy footstool? If David then call him his Lord, how is he his son? And no man was able to answer him a word, neither durst any one from that day forth question him any more.

23 THEN spoke Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples, saying, The Scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat : all therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do ; but do not ye after their works : for they say, and do not.
 4 For they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's 5 shoulders ; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers. But all their works they do to be seen by men : they make their phylacteries broad, and 6 the borders of their garments large, and love the uppermost places at feasts, and 7 the chief seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets, and to be called 8 of men, Rabbi, Rabbi! But be not ye called Rabbi : for one is your Master, even 9 the Christ ; and all ye are brethren. And call no one your father upon the earth :
 10 for one is your Father, who is in the heavens. Neither be ye called leaders : for 11 one is your Leader, even the Christ. But the greatest among you shall be your 12 servant : and whosoever will exalt himself shall be abased ; and he who will humble himself shall be exalted.

13 But woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites ! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men : for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye those who 14 are entering to go in. Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites ! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer : therefore ye shall re-15 ceive the greater condemnation. Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites !
 for ye traverse sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make 16 him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves. Woe unto you, ye blind guides !
 who say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing ; but whosoever shall 17 swear by the gold of the temple, he is bound by his oath. Ye fools and blind !
 18 which is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold ? And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing ; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is 19 upon it, he is bound by his oath. Ye fools and blind ! for whether is greater, the 20 gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift ? Whoso therefore sweareth by the altar, 21 sweareth by it, and by all things thereon. And whoso sweareth by the temple, 22 sweareth by it, and by him who dwelleth therein. And he who sweareth by the heavens, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him who sitteth thereon.

23 Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites ! for ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, but omit the weightier matters of the law, justice, mercy, and 24 faithfulness : these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. Ye 25 blind guides ! who strain out a gnat, and swallow a camel. Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites ! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the plat-26 ter, but within they are full of extortion and injustice. Thou blind Pharisee !
 cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.

27 Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites ! for ye are like unto whitened sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outwardly, but within are full of dead 28 men's bones, and of all uncleanness. Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous 29 unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity. Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites ! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish 30 the sepulchres of the righteous, and say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, 31 we would not have been accomplices with them in the blood of the prophets. So that ye are witnesses against yourselves, that ye are the children of those who killed 32 33 the prophets ; and ye fill up the measure of your fathers. Ye serpents, ye offspring 34 of vipers ! how can ye escape the punishment of hell ? Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes : and some of them ye will kill and crucify ; and some of them ye will scourge in your synagogues, and persecute from 35 city to city : so that upon you may be charged all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zachariah son of Bara-36 chiah, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar. Verily I say unto you, All 37 these things shall come upon this generation. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem ! thou that killest the prophets, and stonest those who are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her 38 wings, and ye would not ! Behold, your temple shall soon be left by you desolate.
 39 For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he who cometh in the name of the LORD.

AND Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him to show him the buildings of the temple. And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. 24

And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when will these things be? and what will be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of this age? And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you. For many will come in my name, saying, I am the Christ; and will deceive many. And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there will be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places. All these are the beginning of sorrows. Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake. And then many will fall away, and betray one another, and hate one another. And many false prophets will rise, who will deceive many. And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many will become cold. But he who shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. And this Gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a testimony unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

When ye therefore shall see the desolating abomination, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:) then let those who are in Judea flee into the mountains: let him who is on the house-top not come down to take any thing out of his house: neither let him who is in the field return back to take his clothes. And woe be to those who are with child, and to those who give suck in those days! But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, nor on the sabbath day: for then will be great tribulation, such as has not been since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever after shall be. And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened. Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is the Christ! or there! believe it not. For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, who shall show great signs and wonders; so that, if it were possible, they would deceive the very elect. Behold, I have foretold you these things. Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert! go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers! believe it not: for as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. For wheresoever the carcass is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from the heavens, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken: and then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in the heavens, and then shall all the tribes of the land mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of the heavens with power and great glory. And he shall send his angels with a loud sounding trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other.

Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When its branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh: so likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that the Son of man is near, even at the doors. Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled. The heavens and the earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

But of that day and hour knoweth no one, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only. But as the days of Noah were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and understood not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. Then shall two men be together in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left. Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Master cometh. But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken into. Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh. Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom his master hath made ruler over his household, to give them food in due season? Blessed is that servant, whom his master when he cometh shall find so doing. Verily I say unto 48 you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods. But if that evil servant shall 49 say in his heart, My master delayeth his coming; and shall begin to smite his fel-50 lowservants, and to eat and drink with the drunken; the master of that servant shall 51 come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of, and shall cut him off, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

25 Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, who took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom. And five of them were wise, and 3 five were foolish. Those who were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with 4 them: but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. While the bride-
5 groom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. And at midnight there arose a cry.
6 Behold, the bridegroom cometh! go ye out to meet him! Then all those virgins arose,
7 and trimmed their lamps: and the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil;
8 for our lamps are going out. But the wise answered, saying, Go ye rather to those 9 who sell, and buy for yourselves, lest there be not enough for us and you. And 10 while they went to buy, the bridegroom came, and they who were ready went in 11 with him to the marriage feast: and the door was shut. Afterwards came also the 12 other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us. But he answered and said, Verily I 13 say unto you, I acknowledge you not. Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

14 For the kingdom of heaven is as a man going into a far country, who called his 15 own servants, and delivered unto them his goods. And unto one he gave five talents, 16 to another two, and to another one; to each man according to his several ability; and 17 immediately took his journey. Then he who had received the five talents went and 18 traded with the same, and made other five talents. And likewise he who had received 19 the two, he also gained other two. But he who had received one went and dug in 20 the earth, and hid his master's money. After a long time the master of those servants 21 cometh, and reckoneth with them. Then he who had received five talents came and 22 brought other five talents, saying, Master, thou deliverdest unto me five talents: be-23 hold, I have gained besides them five talents more. His master said unto him, 24 Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, 25 I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord. He 26 also who had received two talents came and said, Master, thou deliverdest unto me
27 two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents besides them. His master
28 said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a 29 few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of 30 thy lord. Then he who had received the one talent came and said, Master, I knew
31 thee that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering 32 where thou hast not scattered: and I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the 33 earth: lo, there thou hast that which is thine own. His master answered and said
34 unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I 35 sowed not, and gather where I have not scattered: thou oughtest therefore to have 36 put my money to the exchangers, and then on my return I should have received mine 37 own with interest. Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him who 38 hath ten talents. For unto every one who hath improved his talents, shall more be 39 given, and he shall have abundance: but from him who hath not, shall be taken 40 away even that which he hath. And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

41 And so when the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, he shall sit upon the throne of his glory, and before him shall be gathered all nations; and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd separateth the sheep from the goats: and he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

42 Then shall the King say unto those on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my 43 Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world! for 44 I was hungry, and ye gave me food: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a 45 stranger, and ye took me in: naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited 46 me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me. Then will the righteous answer him, 47 saying, Lord, when saw we thee hungry, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee
48 drink? When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?
49 Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee? And the King will 50 answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

51 Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into the everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels: for I was hungry, and ye gave me no food: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not. Then will they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee hungry, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee? Then will he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me. And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into everlasting life.

AND when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples, Ye know that after two days is the feast of the Passover, and the Son of man will be betrayed to be crucified. 26

Then the Chief Priests, and the Scribes, and the elders of the people, assembled together in the palace of the High Priest, who was called Caiaphas, and consulted how they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him. But they said, Not during the feast, lest there be an uproar among the people.

NOW when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, there came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he sat at table. But one of his disciples who saw it, had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste? For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor. When Jesus heard it, he said, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me. For ye have the poor always with you; but me ye have not always. For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my embalming. Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this Gospel shall be preached in the whole world, shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her.

THEN one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went to the Chief Priests, and said, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they weighed to him thirty pieces of silver. And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

NOW the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we make ready for thee to eat the Passover? And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the Passover at thy house with my disciples. And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the Passover.

Now when the evening was come, he sat down with the twelve. And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you will betray me. And they were exceedingly sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I? And he answered and said, He who dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same will betray me. The Son of man goeth as it is written of him: but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been good for that man if he had not been born! Then Judas, who betrayed him, answered and said, Rabbi, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and gave thanks, and broke it, and gave to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; for this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of the fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it anew with you in my Father's kingdom.

AND when they had sung a hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives. Then saith Jesus unto them, All ye shall forsake me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad. But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee. Peter answered and said unto him, Though all should forsake thee, yet will I never forsake thee. Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt disown me thrice. Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not disown thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

THEN cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder. And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and overwhelmed with grief. Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me. And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt. And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What! could ye not watch with me one hour? Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but 42 the flesh is weak. He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be not possible that this cup may pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done! And he came and found them asleep again: (for their eyes were heavy.) And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, using the same words. Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Do ye sleep now, and take your rest? behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Arise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand who betrayeth me.

47 And while he yet spoke, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and clubs, from the Chief Priests and elders of the people. Now he who betrayed him had given them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: lay hold of him. And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, Rabbi! and kissed him. And Jesus said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him. And, behold, one of those who were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the High Priest's, and smote off his ear. Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into its place: for all they who take the sword shall perish by the sword. Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he should presently give me more than twelve legions of angels? But how then should the Scriptures be fulfilled, which say that thus it must be?

55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and clubs to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me. But all this was done, so that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

57 AND they who had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the High Priest, where the Scribes and the elders were assembled. But Peter followed him afar off unto the High Priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end. Now the Chief Priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false testimony against Jesus, that they might put him to death; but they found none: though many false witnesses came. At last came two false witnesses, who said, This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it up after three days. And the High Priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these testify against thee? But Jesus held his peace: and the High Priest answered and said unto him, I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God. Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast truly said: moreover I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of the heavens. Then the High Priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy. What think ye? They answered and said, He is guilty of death. Then they spat in his face, and buffeted him; and others smote him with the palms of their hands, saying, Tell us, thou Christ, Who is he that smote thee?

69 Now Peter sat without in the hall: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee. But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest. And as he went out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto those who were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth. And again he denied it with an oath, I do not know the man. And after a while came unto him they who stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech betrayeth thee. Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew. And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, who said unto him, Before the cock crew, thou shalt disown me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

27 NOW when the morning was come, all the Chief Priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death: and when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor.

3 Then Judas, who had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the Chief Priests and elders, saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that. And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and falling on his face he burst asunder. And the Chief Priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful to put them into the sacred treasury, because it is the price of blood. And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in. Wherefore that field is called to this day, The field of blood. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

And I took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him who was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value; and gave them for the potter's field, as the LORD 10 commanded me.

And Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art 11 thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest truly. And 12 when he was accused of the Chief Priests and elders, he made no answer. Then said 13 Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they testify against thee? And 14 he answered him not a word; insomuch that the governor wondered greatly.

Now at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, 15 whom they would: and they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas. There- 16 17 fore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus who is called the Christ? For he knew 18 that through envy they had delivered him.

But the Chief Priests and elders persuaded the people that they should ask Ba- 20 rabbas, and destroy Jesus. Then the governor spoke and said unto them, Which of 21 the two will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas. Pilate saith unto 22 them, What shall I do then with Jesus who is called the Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified! And the governor said, Why? what evil hath he done? 23 But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified! When Pilate saw that 24 he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the people, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this right- 25 eous man: see ye to it. Then answered all the people and said, His blood be on us, 25 and on our children! Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had 26 scourged Jesus, he delivered him up to be crucified.

Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the judgment hall, and gathered 27 unto him their whole band. And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe: 28 and when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed 29 in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, king of the Jews! And they spat upon him, and took the reed, and smote him, 30 on the head. And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from 31 him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify him.

And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they 32 compelled to bear his cross. And when they were come unto a place called Golgo- 33 tha, the place of skulls, they gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall; which he 34 tasted, but would not drink. And they crucified him, and parted his garments, cast- 35 ing lots: so that it was fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and for my vesture did they cast lots. And sitting down 36 they watched him there; and set up over his head his accusation in writing, THIS 37 IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS. At the same time two thieves were cru- 38 cified with him, one on his right hand, and another on his left.

And those who passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, and saying, Thou 39 40 who destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself! If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross. Likewise also the Chief Priests mock- 41 ing him, with the Scribes and elders, said, He saved others; cannot he save him- 42 self? If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him. He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he delighted in 43 him: for he said, I am the Son of God. One of the thieves also, who were crucified 44 with him, cast the same in his teeth.

Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the earth unto the ninth 45 hour: and about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli! Eli! lama 46 sabachthani? that is to say, My God! my God! unto what hast thou forsaken me? Some of those who stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Eli- 47 jah. And immediately one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vine- 48 gar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink. The rest said, Let him alone, let 49 us see whether Elijah will come to save him.

Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up his spirit. 50

And, behold, the vail of the temple was rent in two from the top to the bottom; 51 and the earth did quake, and the rocks were rent; and the graves were opened; and 52 many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep arose, and came out of the graves 53 after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

Now when the centurion, and those who were with him, watching Jesus, saw the 54 earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.

55 And many women were there looking on from afar off, who had followed Jesus 56 from Galilee, to minister unto him: among whom were Mary the Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's children.

57 WHEN the evening was come, there came a rich man of Arimathæa, named Jo-
58 seph, who also himself was a disciple of Jesus: and he went to Pilate, and begged 59 the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered to him. And 60 when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in clean linen, and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to 61 the door of the sepulchre, and departed. And Mary the Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 NOW the next day, (that followed the day of the preparation,) the Chief Priests
63 and Pharisees went together unto Pilate, saying, Sir, we remember that that de-64 ceiver said, while he was yet alive, Within three days I will rise again. Command therefore that the sepulchre be made secure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the 65 dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first. Pilate said unto them, Take 66 ye a guard: go your way, make it as secure as ye can. So they went, and made the sepulchre secure, sealing the stone, and setting a guard.

28 THE sabbath being over, and the first day of the week beginning to dawn, Mary the Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the sepulchre. And, behold, there had been a great earthquake: for an angel of the LORD had descended from heaven, and came and rolled away the stone from the door, and was sitting upon it.

3 4 His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow: and for fear of 5 him the guards did shake, and became as dead men. But the angel spoke and said unto the women, Fear not ye! for I know that ye seek Jesus, who was crucified.
6 He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay!
7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, 8 he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you. And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy; and did run to carry his disciples word.

9 And as they were going to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All 10 hail! And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him. Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

11 Now when they were going, behold, some of the guard came into the city, and 12 showed unto the Chief Priests all the things that were done. And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave a large sum of money 13 unto the soldiers, saying, Tell ye the people, His disciples came by night, and stole 14 him away while we slept. And if this come to the governor's ears, we will appease 15 him, and secure you. So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews to this day.

16 Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had 17 appointed them to go. And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some 18 doubted. And Jesus came and spoke unto them, saying, All power is given unto 19 me in heaven and on earth. Go ye therefore, and disciple all nations, baptizing 20 them into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

M A R K.

1 THE beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God; as it is written by the prophet Isaiah, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, who shall prepare 3 thy way. The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make his paths straight. John came baptizing in the wilderness, and preaching the baptism of repentance unto the remission of sins. And all the land of Judea, and they of Jerusalem, went out unto him, and were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a leathern girdle about his loins; and he fed on locusts and wild honey; and proclaimed, saying, There cometh one mightier than I, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose. I indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit.

And Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized by John in the Jordan. And immediately on coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him: and there came a voice from the heavens, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I delight.

And immediately the spirit led him away into the wilderness. And he was in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan; and was with the wild beasts; and angels ministered unto him.

NOW after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the glad tidings of the Gospel of the kingdom of God, and saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the Gospel.

Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishermen: and Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men. And immediately they left their nets, and followed him. And when he had gone a little farther thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the vessel mending their nets. And immediately he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the vessel with the hired servants, and went after him.

And they went into Capernaum; and immediately on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught. And they were astonished at his teaching: for he taught them as one who had authority, and not as the Scribes. And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, saying, Let us alone; what hast thou to do with us, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God. And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the unclean spirit had convulsed him, and cried with a loud voice, it came out of him. And they were all amazed, inasmuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What meaneth this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they obey him. And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

And as soon as they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. Now Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and immediately they tell him of her: and he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

And at evening, when the sun was set, they brought unto him all who were diseased, and those who were possessed with evil spirits. And all the city was gathered together at the door. And he healed many who were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many evil spirits; and suffered not the evil spirits to say that they knew him.

And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed. And Simon and they who were with him followed after him. And when they had found him, they said unto him, All seek for thee. And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for therefore came I forth. And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out evil spirits.

And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And Jesus, moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean: and as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed. And he strictly charged him, and forthwith sent him away; and saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

AND again he entered into Capernaum after some days; and it was noised that he was in the house. And immediately many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door: and he preached the word unto them. And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, who was borne by four men. And when they could not come nigh unto him for the crowd, they uncovered the roof where he was: and through the opening they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay. When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins are forgiven thee. But there were certain of the Scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only? And immediately Jesus knowing in himself that they so reasoned within themselves, said unto them, Why reason ye thus in your hearts? Which is easier, to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins are forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thy house. And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw any thing like this.

AND he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them. And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphæus sitting at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me! And he arose and followed him. And as Jesus was at table in his house, many taxgatherers and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him. And when the Scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with taxgatherers and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with taxgatherers and sinners? When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They who are whole have no need of the physician, but they who are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners.

And the disciples of John and of the Pharisees used to fast: and they come and say unto him, Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not? And Jesus said unto them, Can the companions of the bridegroom fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast: but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days. No man also seweth a piece of new cloth into an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse. And no man putteth new wine into old leathern bottles: else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will perish: but new wine must be put into new bottles.

AND he went through the corn fields on the sabbath day; and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn. And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful? And he said unto them, Have ye never read what David did, when he and they who were with him were hungry? how he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the High Priest, and ate the showbread, which it is not lawful to eat but for the Priests, and gave also to those who were with him? And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath: therefore the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath.

AND he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there who had his hand withered. And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse him. And he saith unto the man who had his hand withered, Stand forth. And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? But they held their peace. And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other. And the Pharisees went forth, and immediately took counsel with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him: but Jesus withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea; and a great multitude from Galilee, and from Judea, and from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and from beyond the Jordan, followed him; and they about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him. And he spoke to his disciples, that a small vessel should wait on him because of the multitude, lest they should throng him. For he had healed many; insomuch that they pressed upon him to touch him, as many as had diseases. And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God. And he strictly charged them that they should not make him known.

THEN he goeth up to a mountain, and calleth unto him those whom he would : 13 and they came unto him. And he appointed twelve, that they should be with 14 him, and that he might send them forth to preach, and to have power to heal sick- 15 nesses, and to cast out evil spirits : and Simon (whom he surnamed Peter) ; and 16 17
James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James ; (these he surnamed Boanerges, which is, The sons of thunder :) and Andrew, and Philip, and Bar- 18 tholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphæus, and Thaddæus, and Simon the Cananite, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him. 19

AND they went into a house. And the multitude cometh together again, so that 20 they could not so much as eat bread. And when his friends heard of it, they went 21 out to lay hold on him : for they said, He is beside himself. And the Scribes who 22 came down from Jerusalem said, He hath Beelzebub, and by the prince of the evil spirits casteth he out evil spirits. And he called them unto him, and said unto them 23 in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan ? And if a kingdom be divided against 24 itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house be divided against itself, that house 25 cannot stand.

And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but must 26 have an end. No man can enter into a strong man's house, and plunder his goods, 27 except he will first bind the strong man ; and then he will plunder his house. Verily 28
I say unto you, All other sins may be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphem-ies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme : but whosoever shall blaspheme against 29 the Holy Spirit hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of everlasting condemnation :
because they said, He hath an unclean spirit. 30

Then came his brethren and his mother, and, standing without, sent unto him, 31 calling for him. And the multitude sitting about him, said unto him, Behold, thy 32 mother and thy brethren stand without seeking for thee. And he answered them, 33 saying, Who is my mother, or my brethren ? and he looked round about on those 34 who sat about him, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren ! For whosoever 35 shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

AND he began again to teach by the sea side : and there was gathered unto him a 4 great multitude, so that he entered into a vessel, and sat in the sea ; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land. And he taught them many things by para- 2 bles, and said unto them in his teaching, Hearken ; Behold, there went out a sower 3 to sow : and as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the birds of the air came 4 and devoured it up. And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth ; 5 and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth : but when the sun 6 was up, it was scorched ; and because it had no root, it withered away. And some 7 fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.
And other fell on good ground, and yielded fruit that sprang up and increased ; 8 and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some a hundred. And he said, 9
He who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

And when he was alone, they who were about him with the twelve asked of him 10 the parable. And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of 11 the kingdom of God : but unto those who are without, all these things are done in parables : that seeing they may see, and not perceive ; and hearing they may hear, 12 and not understand ; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them. And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable ? and how 13 then will ye know all parables ? The sower soweth the word. And these are they 14 15 by the way side, where the word is sown ; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts. And these 16 are they likewise which are sown on stony ground ; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness ; and have no root in themselves, and 17 so endure but for a time : afterwards, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they fall away. And these are they which are sown among 18 thorns ; such as hear the word, and the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the desires of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh 19 unfruitful. And these are they which are sown on good ground ; such as hear the 20 word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some a hundred.

And he said unto them, Is a lamp brought to be put under a corn measure, or un- 21 der a bed ? and not to be set on a lampstand ? For there is nothing hid, which shall 22 not be manifested ; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.
If any man have ears to hear, let him hear. And he saith unto them, Take heed what 23 24 ye hear. With what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you. For he who 25 hath, to him more shall be given : and he who hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

26 And he said also, The kingdom of God is as if a man should cast seed into the 27 ground ; and should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and 28 grow up, he knoweth not how. For the earth bringeth forth fruit of itself ; first 29 the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear. But when the fruit is ripe, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 And he said also, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God ? or with what 31 comparison shall we compare it ? It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it 32 is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that are in the earth : but when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all other herbs, and shooteth out great branches ; so that the birds of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

33 And with many such parables spoke he the word unto them, as they were able to 34 hear it. But without a parable spoke he not unto them : and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

35 NOW on the same day, when the evening was come, he saith unto them, Let us 36 pass over unto the other side. And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him with them in the vessel : (and there were also with it other little vessels.)
37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the vessel, so that it 38 was now filling. And he was in the hinder part of the vessel, asleep on a pillow :
and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish ?
39 And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the waves, Peace, be still ! And 40 the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. And he said unto them, Why are 41 ye so fearful ? how is it that ye have not faith ? and they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the waves obey him ?

5 AND they came over to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gada-renes. And when he was come out of the vessel, immediately there met him out of 3 the tombs a man with an unclean spirit, who had his dwelling among the tombs ;
4 and no man could bind him, not even with chains : for he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been forced asunder by him, and the fetters 5 broken in pieces : and no one could tame him : and always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying out, and cutting himself with stones.

6 7 But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped him, and cried out with a loud voice, and said, What hast thou to do with me, Jesus, thou Son of the most high God ?

8 I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not. For Jesus had said unto him, 9 Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit. And he asked him, What is thy name ?

10 And he answered, saying, My name is Legion : for we are many. And he besought

11 Jesus much that he would not send them away out of the country. Now there was 12 on the mountain a great herd of swine feeding. And all the evil spirits besought

13 him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them. And forthwith

Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the 14 swine : and the herd ran violently down the steep place into the sea, (they being 14 about two thousand ;) and were choked in the sea. And they who fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it

15 was that was done. And they come to Jesus, and see him who was possessed with the evil spirit, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind : and 16 they were afraid. And they who saw it told them how it befell to him who was

17 possessed with the evil spirit, and also concerning the swine : and they began to pray

18 him to depart out of their coasts. And when he was come into the vessel, he who had been possessed with the evil spirit prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Yet Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on 20 thee. And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him : and all men marvelled.

21 NOW when Jesus was passed over again by vessel unto the other side, much peo-

22 ple gathered unto him : and he was nigh unto the sea. And, behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name ; and when he saw him, he fell

23 at his feet, and besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death : I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed ; and 24 she shall live. And Jesus went with him ; and much people followed him, and thronged him.

25 26 And a certain woman, who had an issue of blood twelve years, and had suffered much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing better, but rather grew worse, when she had heard of Jesus, came in the crowd behind, 27 and touched his garment. For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be 28 whole. And immediately the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her 29 body that she was healed of her disease. And Jesus, immediately knowing in him- 30 self that virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the crowd, and said, Who touched my clothes? And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude 31 thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? And he looked round about 32 to see her who had done this thing. But the woman fearing and trembling, know- 33 ing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth: and he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and 34 be healed of thy disease.

While he yet spoke, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house messen- 35 gers who said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further? As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he said unto the ruler of the 36 synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe. And he suffered no man to follow him, except 37 Peter, and James, and John the brother of James. And he cometh to the house of 38 the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and people weeping and wailing greatly. And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, 39 and weep? the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed at him. But 40 when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the maiden, and those who were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was. And he took 41 the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi; (which is, being interpreted, Maiden, arise!) And immediately the maiden arose, and walked; for she was of 42 the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment. And 43 he charged them strictly that no man should know it; and commanded that some- thing should be given her to eat.

AND he went out from thence, and came into his own country; and his disciples 6 follow him. And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the syna- gogue: and many who heard him were astonished, saying, Whence hath he these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that such mighty works are wrought by his hands? Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother 3 of James, and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they believed not on him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without 4 honour, but in his own country, and among his own kindred, and in his own house. And he would not do any mighty work there, except that he laid his hands upon a 5 few sick, and healed them. And he marvelled because of their unbelief. And he 6 went round about the villages, teaching.

And he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; 7 and gave them power over unclean spirits; and commanded them that they should 8 take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no money in their girdles: but be shod with sandals; and not put on two coats. And he said 10 unto them, In what place soever ye enter into a house, there abide till ye depart from that place: and whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart 11 thence, shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city. And they went out, and preached that men should re- 12 pent. And they cast out many evil spirits, and anointed with oil many who were 13 sick, and healed them.

AND king Herod heard of Jesus; (for his name was spread abroad:) and he said, 14 John the Baptist is risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do show forth themselves in him. Others said, It is Elijah. And others said, It is a prophet, or 15 like one of the prophets. But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John, whom I 16 beheaded: he is risen from the dead. For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold 17 upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married her. For John had said unto Herod, It is not lawful for thee 18 to have thy brother's wife. Therefore Herodias was greatly incensed against him, 19 and would have put him to death; but she could not: for Herod feared John, know- 20 ing that he was a just and holy man, and he protected him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly. And a convenient day being come, when 21 Herod on his birthday gave a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief men of Galilee, and when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, and 22 pleased Herod and those who sat with him, the king said unto the maiden, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee. And he swore unto her, Whatso- 23 ever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom. And she 24 went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist. And she came in immediately with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a dish the head of John the Baptist. And the king was exceedingly sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes who sat with him, he would not refuse her. And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison, and brought his head in a dish, and gave it to the maiden: and the maiden gave it to her mother. And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

AND the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught. And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: (for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.) And they departed into a desert place by the vessel privately.

And many who saw them departing, knew whither they were going, and ran on thither out of all the cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him. And Jesus, when he came out of the vessel, saw much people, and was moved with compassion towards them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things.

And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and the day is far spent: send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat. He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat? He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes. And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass. And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties. And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and gave thanks, and broke the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all. And they did all eat, and were filled. And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes. And they who did eat of the loaves were five thousand men.

AND immediately he constrained his disciples to get into the vessel, and to go before him to the other side over against Bethsaida, while he sent away the people. And when he had sent them away, he withdrew to a mountain to pray.

And when the evening was come, the vessel was in the midst of the sea, and he was alone on the land. And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and seeming determined to come up to them. But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been an apparition, and cried out: for they all saw him, and were terrified. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid. And he went up into the vessel unto them; and the wind ceased: and they were exceedingly amazed in themselves, and astonished beyond measure, and wondered. For they considered not the miracle of the loaves: their hearts being hardened.

And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore. And when they were come out of the vessel, immediately they knew him, and ran through all that region round about, and began to carry about in beds those who were sick, where they heard he was: and whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the fringe of his garment: and as many as touched him were healed.

THEN the Pharisees, and certain of the Scribes, who came from Jerusalem, came together to him. And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled, that is to say, with unwashed, hands, they found fault. (For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, holding the tradition of the elders, eat not except they wash their hands often. And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And there are many other things which they have received and hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, brazen vessels, and of beds.) Then the Pharisees and Scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands? He answered and said unto them, Truly hath Isaiah prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me. But in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commands of men. For laying aside the commandment of God, ye 8 hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do. And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandments 9 of God, that ye may keep your own tradition. For Moses said, Honour thy father 10 and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother shall surely be put to death:

but ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, (that is to say, 11 an offering hath been made of every thing whereby thou mightest be profited by me;) he shall be free. And ye suffer him no more to do any thing for his father or 12 his mother; making the word of God of no effect through your tradition, which ye 13 have delivered: and many such like things do ye.

And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken 14 unto me every one of you, and understand: there is nothing from without a man, 15 that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man. If any man have ears to hear, let him hear. 16

And when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him 17 concerning the parable. And he saith unto them, Are ye also without understanding? 18
Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing entereth into the man from without, it cannot defile him; because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, where all 19 food is cleansed, and the impurities go out into the drain. And he said, That which 20 cometh out of the man, that defileth the man. For from within, out of the heart of 21 men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, thefts, covetousness, 22 malevolence, deceit, lasciviousness, envy, blasphemy, pride, foolishness: all these evil 23 things come from within, and they defile the man.

AND he arose, and went thence into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered 24 into a house, and would have no one know it: but he could not be concealed. For 25 a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet: (the woman, who spoke Greek, was a Syrophenician by 26 nation;) and she besought him that he would cast forth the evil spirit out of her daughter. But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not 27 meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs. And she answered 28 and said unto him, True, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs. And he said unto her, For that saying go thy way; the evil spirit is gone 29 out of thy daughter. And when she was come to her house, she found the evil spirit 30 gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

AND, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came again unto the sea of 31
Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis. And they bring unto him one 32 who was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him: and he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers 33 into his ears, and he spat, and touched his tongue; and looking up to heaven, he 34 sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, (that is, Be opened.) And immediately his 35 ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spoke plain. And 36 he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it; and were beyond measure astonished, 37 saying, He doeth all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

IN those days the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus 8 called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them, I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:
and if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for 3 many of them came from afar. And his disciples answered him, From whence can 4 any one satisfy these people with bread here in the wilderness? And he asked 5 them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven. And he commanded the 6 people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and broke, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people. And they had a few small fishes: and he gave thanks, and com- 7 manded to set them also before them. So they did eat, and were filled: and they 8 took up of the broken food that was left seven baskets. And they who had eaten 9 were about four thousand; and he sent them away.

AND immediately he entered into the vessel with his disciples, and came into the 10 parts of Dalmanutha. And the Pharisees came forth, and began to dispute with 11 him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him. And he sighed deeply 12 in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation. And he left them, and 13 entering into the vessel again departed to the other side.

14 Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the vessel with 15 them more than one loaf. And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the 16 leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod. And they reasoned among 17 themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread. And when Jesus knew it, he 18 saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, 19 neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened? having eyes, see ye not? and 20 having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember? When I broke the five loaves 21 among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say 22 unto him, Twelve. And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets 23 full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven. And he said unto them, How 24 is it that ye do not understand?

22 AND he cometh to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought 23 him to touch him. And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the 24 town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him
25 if he saw any thing. And he looked up, and said, I see men whom I distinguish 26 from trees only by their walking. Then Jesus put his hands again upon his eyes, 27 and made him look up; and he was restored, and saw every man clearly. And he 28 sent him away to his house, saying, Go not into the town, nor tell it to any one in 29 the town.

27 AND Jesus and his disciples went out into the towns of Cæsarea Philippi: and 28 by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?
29 And they answered, John the Baptist: but some say, Elijah; and others, One of the 30 prophets. And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter an-31 swereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ. And he charged them that they 32 should tell no man of him.

31 And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and 32 be rejected by the elders, and by the Chief Priests, and Scribes, and be put to death, 33 and after three days rise again. And he spoke this openly. And Peter took him,
34 and began to rebuke him. But when he had turned about and looked on his disci-
35 ples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, thou adversary: for thou sav-
36 ourest not the things of God, but the things of men.

34 And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto 35 them, Whosoever is willing to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his 36 cross, and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever 37 shall lose his life for my sake and the Gospel's, shall save it. For what shall it 38 profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his life? Or what shall a 39 man give in exchange for his life? Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me 40 and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him shall the Son of 41 man also be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with his holy an-42 gels. And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That there are some of those 43 who stand here, who shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of 44 God come with power.

2 AND after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and lead-3 eth them up to a high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured be-4 fore them. And his raiment became shining, exceedingly white as snow; so as no
5 fuller on earth can whiten. And there appeared unto them Elijah with Moses: and 6 they were talking with Jesus. And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Rabbi, it is 7 good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for 8 Moses, and one for Elijah: for he knew not what to say; for they were greatly 9 afraid. And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the 10 cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear ye him. And suddenly, when they had 11 looked round about, they saw no longer any one except Jesus only with themselves.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell
10 no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.
11 And they kept that saying to themselves, questioning one with another what the 12 rising from the dead should mean. And they asked him, saying, Why say the Scribes
13 that Elijah must first come? And he answered and told them, Elijah verily doth 14 first come, and restoreth all things; and (as it is written of the Son of man,) he 15 must likewise suffer many things, and be despised. But I say unto you, That Elijah 16 is already come, (as was predicted,) and they have done unto him whatsoever they 17 pleased.

14 AND when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and 15 the Scribes reasoning with them. And immediately all the people, when they beheld 16 him, were struck with awe, and running to him saluted him. And he asked them,

About what are ye reasoning with them? And one of the multitude answered and said, Rabbi, I have brought unto thee my son, who hath a dumb spirit; and whosoever it taketh him, it teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spoke to thy disciples to cast it out; and they could not. He answereth him, and saith, O unbelieving generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you? bring him unto me. And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, immediately the spirit threw him down; and he fell on the ground, and rolled about foaming. And he asked his father, How long is it since this came upon him? And he said, From a child. And oftentimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us. Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him who believeth. And immediately the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief. When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto it, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him. And the spirit cried, and severely convulsed him, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead. But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose.

And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast it out? And he said unto them, This kind of faith can be only by prayer and fasting.

AND they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it. For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is about to be delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise again on the third day. But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

AND he came to Capernaum: and being in the house he asked them, About what was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way? But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, which of them was the greatest. And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, let him be last of all, and servant of all. And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them, Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me only, but him who sent me.

And John spoke to him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out evil spirits in thy name: and we forbade him, because he followeth not with us. But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for no man who shall do a miracle in my name, can lightly speak evil of me. For he who is not against us is with us. For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.

And whosoever shall cause one of these little ones who believe in me to fall away, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were cast into the sea. And if thy hand cause thee to offend, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched: where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. And if thy foot cause thee to offend, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched: where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. And if thine eye cause thee to offend, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire: where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. For every one shall be salted with fire, as every sacrifice is salted with salt.

Salt is good: but if the salt have lost its saltiness, how shall it be restored? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace one with another.

AND he arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Judea by the further side of the Jordan: and the people resort unto him again; and he taught them again, as he was wont.

And Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? tempting him. And he answered and said unto them, What did Moses command you? And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorce, and to put her away. And Jesus answered and said unto them, For the perverseness of your hearts he wrote you this precept. But at the beginning of the creation God made them a male and a female. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife; and they two shall be one flesh: so then they are no

- 9 more two, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.
- 10 11 And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter. And he saith unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her. And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.
- 12 13 THEN they brought little children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those who brought them: but when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for to such belongeth the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever will not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. And he took them up in his arms, and put his hands upon them, and blessed them.
- 17 AND as he was going forth by the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit everlasting life? And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God. Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother. And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth. Then Jesus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me.
- 22 And he was grieved at that saying, and went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.
- 23 And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, With what difficulty shall those who have riches enter into the kingdom of God! And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how difficult is it for those who trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, What rich man then can be saved? And Jesus looking upon them saith, With men it may be impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.
- 28 29 Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee. And Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no one who hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the Gospel's, but he shall receive a hundredfold; now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come everlasting life. But many shall be first who are last; and last who are first.
- 32 AND they were in the way going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them: and they were astonished and afraid as they followed him. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should befall him, saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the Chief Priests, and unto the Scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him up to the Gentiles: and they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again.
- 35 AND James and John, the sons of Zebedee, come unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall desire. And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you? They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory. But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I am to drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am to be baptized with? And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I am to drink of; and with the baptism that I am to be baptized with shall ye be baptized: but to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; except to those for whom it hath been prepared.
- 41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John. 42 But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that those who rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them. But let it not be so among you: but whosoever would be great among you, let him be your minister: and whosoever of you would be the chief, let him be servant of all. For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

AND they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimæus, (the son of Timæus,) sat by the high-way side begging. And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Pity me, Jesus, thou Son of David! And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Pity me, thou Son of David! And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good courage, arise; he calleth thee. And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus. And Jesus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I may receive my sight. And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

AND when they drew nigh to Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he sendeth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go into the village over against you: and as soon as ye enter into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose it, and bring it hither. And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of it; and immediately he will send it hither. And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose it. And certain of those who stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt? And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded: and they let them go. And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on it; and he sat upon it. And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and scattered them in the way. And those who went before, and those who followed, cried, saying, Hosanna! Blessed be he who cometh in the name of the LORD! Blessed be the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the name of the LORD! Hosanna in the highest heavens!

And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, the eventide being come, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.

AND on the morrow, when they were come out from Bethany, he was hungry: and seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he went to it, if haply he might find any thing thereon: but when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of the gathering of figs was not yet. And Jesus said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

And they came to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out those who sold and bought in the temple; and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of those who sold doves; and would not suffer that any one should carry any vessel through the temple. And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be the house of prayer for all nations? but ye have made it a den of thieves. And the Scribes and Chief Priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: but they feared him, because all the people were astonished at his teaching. And when the evening was come, he went out of the city.

AND in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots. And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Rabbi, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away. And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God. For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that what he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith. Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye will receive them, and ye shall have them. And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have any complaint against any one: that your Father also who is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses. But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

AND they come again to Jerusalem: and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the Chief Priests, and the Scribes, and the elders, and say unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do them? And Jesus answered and said unto them, I will also ask of you one question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. Was the baptism of John from heaven, or from men? answer me. And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him? But if we shall say, From men; we fear the people: for all men accounted John to have been a prophet indeed. And they answered and said unto Jesus, We cannot tell. And Jesus answering saith unto them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

12 And he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and dug a place for the winepress, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country. And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard. And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty. And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled. And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some. Having yet therefore one son, his wellbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son. But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 9 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard. What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others. And have ye not read this Scripture; The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner: this was the LORD'S doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

12 And they sought to lay hold on him, (but feared the people:) for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

13 AND they send unto him certain of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, to catch him in his words. And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar, or not? 15 Should we give, or should we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a penny, that I may see it. And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose are the image and superscription? And they said unto him, Caesar's. And Jesus answering said unto them, Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

18 THEN come unto him the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection and future state; and they asked him, saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up children unto his brother. Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no children. And the second took her, and died, neither left he any children: and the third likewise. And the seven had her, and left no children: last of all the woman died also. In the resurrection and future state therefore, when they shall rise again, whose wife shall she be of these? 24 for the seven had her to wife. And Jesus answering said unto them, Ye err, because ye know not the Scriptures, neither the power of God. For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels which are in heaven. And as touching the future state of the dead; have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spoke unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? He is not the God of the dead, but of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

28 And one of the Scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all? And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The LORD our God is one: and thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all my mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment. And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is no other commandment greater than these. 32 And the Scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; and there is none other but he: and to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices. 34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 And Jesus spoke and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the Scribes that the Christ is the Son of David? For David himself said by the Holy Spirit, JEHOVAH said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool. David therefore himself calleth him his Lord; and whence is he then his son?

38 And the common people heard him gladly. And he said unto them in his teaching, Beware of the Scribes, who love to go in long clothing, and love salutations in the marketplaces, and the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost places at 39 feasts: who devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall 40 receive greater condemnation.

AND Jesus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast money 41 into the treasury: and many who were rich cast in much. And there came a certain 42 poor widow, and she threw in two mites, which make a farthing. And he called unto 43 him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they who have cast into the treasury: for all they have 44 cast in of their superfluity; but she of her penury hath cast in all that she had, even all her living.

AND as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see 13 what stones and what buildings are here! And Jesus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

And as he sat upon the mount of Olives over against the temple, Peter and James 3 and John and Andrew asked him privately, Tell us, when shall these things be? and 4 what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled? And Jesus answer- 5 ing them began to say, Take heed lest any man deceive you: for many shall come in 6 my name, saying, I am the Christ; and shall deceive many. And when ye shall 7 hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the end shall not be yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and king- 8 dom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles.

These are the beginnings of sorrows. But take heed to yourselves: for they shall 9 deliver you up to councils, and to synagogues; and ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them. And the Gospel must first be published among all nations. But when they shall 10 lead you, and deliver you up, be not anxious beforehand what ye shall speak, neither premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you at the time, that speak ye: for it is not ye who speak, but the Holy Spirit. Now brother shall deliver up brother to 12 death, and the father his son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death. And ye shall be hated by all for my name's 13 sake: but he who shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

But when ye shall see the desolating abomination, spoken of by Daniel the pro- 14 phet, standing where it ought not, (let him who readeth understand,) then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains: and let him who is on the housetop not go 15 down into his house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house: and 16 let him who is in the field not turn back again to take up his garment. But woe to 17 those who are with child, and to those who give suck in those days! And pray ye 18 that your flight be not in the winter: for in those days shall be affliction, such as was 19 not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither shall ever after be. And unless the LORD had shortened those days, no flesh could 20 be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days. And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is the Christ! or, lo, there! believe 21 him not: for false Christs and false prophets shall arise, and shall show signs and 22 wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect. But take ye heed: behold, I 23 have foretold you all things.

But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon 24 shall not give its light, and the stars of the heavens shall fall, and the powers that are 25 in the heavens shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in 26 the clouds with great power and glory: and then shall he send his angels, and 27 shall gather together his elect from the four winds, and from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of the heavens.

Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When its branch is yet tender, and putteth 28 forth its leaves, ye know that summer is near: so likewise, when ye shall see these 29 things come to pass, know that the Son of man is nigh, even at the doors. Verily 30 I say unto you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done. The heavens and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away. 31

But of that day or hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, 32 nor the Son, but the Father only.

Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is. For the Son 33 34 of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch. Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even- 35

- 36 ing. or at midnight, or at the cockcrow, or in the morning : lest coming suddenly 37 he find you sleeping. And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.
- 14 AFTER two days was the feast of the Passover, and of unleavened bread : and the Chief Priests and the Scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him 2 to death. But they said, Not during the feast, lest there be an uproar of the people.
- 3 And being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at table, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard very precious ; and 4 she broke open the box, and poured it on his head. And there was one of the twelve who had indignation within himself, and said, Why was this waste of the 5 ointment made ? For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence,
 6 and have been given to the poor. And he murmured against her. And Jesus said, 7 Let her alone ; why trouble ye her ? she hath wrought a good work on me. For ye have the poor with you always, and whosoever ye will ye may do them good : but 8 me ye have not always. She hath done what she could : she is come beforehand to 9 anoint my body for the embalming. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever this Gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also, that she hath done, shall be spoken of, for a memorial of her.
- 10 THEN Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the Chief Priests, to betray 11 him unto them. And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money : and he sought how he might conveniently betray him.
- 12 AND on the first day of unleavened bread, (when they killed the Passover,) his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest 13 eat the Passover ? And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water : fol-14 low him. And whosoever he shall go in, say ye to the owner of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guest-chamber, where I may eat the Passover with my 15 disciples ? And he will show you a large upper room furnished : there make ready 16 for us. And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them : and they made ready the Passover.
- 17 18 And in the evening he cometh with the twelve. And as they sat and ate, Jesus 19 said, Verily I say unto you, One of you who eateth with me shall betray me. And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I ? and another 20 said, Is it I ? And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve who 21 dippeth with me in the dish. The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him :
 but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed ! it had been well for that man, if he had never been born.
- 22 And as they ate, Jesus took bread, and gave thanks, and broke it, and gave it to 23 them, and said, Take, eat : this is my body. And he took the cup, and when he had 24 given thanks, he gave it to them : and they all drank of it. And he said unto them, 25 This is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for many. Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it anew in the kingdom of God.
- 26 27 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives. And Jesus saith unto them, All ye will forsake me this night : for it is written, I will 28 smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered. But after that I am risen, I
 29 will go before you into Galilee. But Peter said unto him, Although all shall forsake 30 thee, yet will not I. And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That to-day, 31 even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt disown me thrice. But he spoke the more vehemently, If compelled to die with thee, I will not disown thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.
- 32 And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane : and he saith to his 33 disciples, Sit ye here, while I pray. And he taketh with him Peter and James and 34 John, and began to be greatly troubled, and overwhelmed with grief ; and saith unto 35 them, My soul is exceedingly sorrowful unto death : tarry ye here, and watch. And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were pos-36 sible, the hour might pass from him. And he said, Abba [FATHER], all things are possible unto thee ; take away this cup from me : nevertheless not what I will, 37 but what thou wilt. And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto 38 Peter, Simon, sleepest thou ? couldest not thou watch one hour ? Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is willing, but the flesh is weak.
- 39 40 And again he went away, and prayed, and spoke the same words. And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither knew they 41 what to answer him. And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Do ye sleep now, and take your rest ? it is enough, the hour is come ; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Rise up, let us be going; lo, he who be- 42 traveth me is at hand.

And immediately, while he yet spoke, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with 43 him a great multitude with swords and clubs, from the Chief Priests and the Scribes and the elders. And he who betrayed him had given them a token, saying, 44 Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely. And 45 as soon as he was come, he goeth immediately to him, and saith, Rabbi, rabbi; and kissed him. And they laid their hands on him, and took him. 46

And one of those who stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the High 47
Priest, and cut off his ear. And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come 48 out, as against a thief, with swords and with clubs to take me? I was daily with you 49 in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but this is done that the Scriptures may be fulfilled. And they all forsook him, and fled. And there followed him a cer- 50 51 tain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the soldiers laid hold on him: and he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked. 52

And they led Jesus away to the High Priest: with whom were assembled all the 53
Chief Priests and the elders and the Scribes. And Peter followed him afar off, even 54 into the hall of the High Priest's palace: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire. And the Chief Priests and all the council sought for testimony 55 against Jesus to put him to death; and found none. For many bore false testimony 56 against him, but their testimony agreed not together. And some rose up, and bore 57 false testimony against him, saying, We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that 58 is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.
But not even did their testimony agree together. And the High Priest stood up 59 60 in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these testify against thee? But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again 61 the High Priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One? And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the 62 right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of the heavens. Then the High 63 Priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses? Ye have 64 heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to 65 say unto him, Prophesy! and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

And as Peter was below in the hall of the palace, there cometh one of the maid- 66 servants of the High Priest: and when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked 67 upon him, and said, Thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth: but he denied, saying, 68
I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch; and the cock crew. And the same maidservant saw him again, and began to 69 say to those who stood by, This is one of them. And he denied it again. And a 70 little after, they who stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art a Galilean, and thy speech agreeth thereto. But he began to curse and to 71 swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak: and the second time the cock 72 crew. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt disown me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he went out, and wept bitterly.

AND early in the morning the Chief Priests held a consultation, with the elders 15 and Scribes and with the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate. And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? 2
And he answering said unto him, Thou sayest truly. And the Chief Priests accused 3 him of many things: but he answered nothing. And Pilate asked him again, say- 4 ing, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they testify against thee.
But Jesus yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marvelled. 5

Now at that feast he used to release unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they de- 6 sired: and there was a man named Barabbas, who lay bound with those who had 7 made insurrection with him, and who had committed murder in the insurrection.
And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had always done for 8 them. But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King 9 of the Jews? (For he knew that through envy the Chief Priests had delivered him 10 up.) But the Chief Priests moved the people, that he should rather release Ba- 11 rabbas unto them. And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye 12 then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews? And they cried 13 out again, Crucify him! Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? 14

- 15 And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him! So Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.
- 16 And the soldiers led him away into the inner hall, (called Prætorium;) and they called together the whole band. And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head, and began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews! And they smote him on the head with a reed, and spat upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him: and when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.
- 21 And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, (the father of Alexander and Rufus,) to bear his cross. And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of skulls. And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not. And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots for them, what each man should take. And it was the third hour, and they crucified him. And the superscription of his accusation was written over him, THE KING OF THE JEWS.
- 27 And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left. Thus the Scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors. And they who passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah! thou who destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself, and come down from the cross. Likewise also the Chief Priests mocking said among themselves with the Scribes, He saved others; cannot he save himself? Let the Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they who were crucified with him reviled him.
- 33 And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole earth unto the ninth hour. And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi! Eloi! lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God! my God! unto what hast thou forsaken me? And some of those who stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elijah. And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let him alone; let us see whether Elijah will come to take him down.
- 37 38 And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up his spirit. And the vail of the temple was rent in two from the top to the bottom. And when the centurion, who stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up his spirit, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God. There were also women looking on afar off: among whom were Mary the Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome; (who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered unto him;) and many other women who came up with him unto Jerusalem.
- 42 And now when the evening was come, because it was the preparation, (that is, the day before the sabbath,) Joseph of Arimathæa, an honourable counsellor, who himself also was waiting for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus. And Pilate wondered that he was already dead: and calling the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead. And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph. And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.
- 47 And Mary the Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where he was laid.
- 16 AND when the sabbath was past, Mary the Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought sweet spices, that they might come and embalm him. And very early in the morning the first day of the week at sunrise, they came unto the sepulchre. And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre? for it was very great. But when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away. And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted. And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him. But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you. And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: neither said they any thing to any one; for they were afraid.
- 9 Now Jesus having risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary the Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven unclean spirits. And she went and told those who had been with him, as they mourned and wept. And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed it not.

LUKE I.

After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and 12 were going into the country. And they went and told it unto the other disciples: 13 but they believed not even them.

Afterwards he appeared unto the eleven themselves as they sat at table, and up- 14 braided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not those who had seen him after he was risen.

And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and proclaim the Gospel to 15 every creature. He who believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he who be- 16 lieveth not shall be condemned. And these signs shall follow those who believe; In 17 my name shall they cast out evil spirits; they shall speak with new tongues; they 18 shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly poison, it shall not hurt them;
they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

So then after the LORD had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and 19 sat on the right hand of God. And they went forth, and preached every where, 20 the LORD working with them, and confirming the word with signs following.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

L U K E.

FORASMUCH as many have undertaken to prepare a narrative of those things which 1 are fully believed among us, even as they were delivered unto us, by those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses, and ministers of the word; it seemed good to me 3 also, having accurately traced all things from the very first, to write unto thee a particular account, most noble Theophilus, that thou mightest know the certainty of 4 those things, wherein thou hast been instructed.

THERE was in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest named Za- 5 chariah, of the course of Abijah: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth. And they were both righteous before God, walking in all 6 the commandments and ordinances of the LORD blameless: and they had no child, 7 because Elisabeth was barren, and they were both far advanced in years.

And while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course, 8
according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to burn incense when he 9 went into the temple of the LORD. And the whole multitude of the people were 10 praying without at the time of incense. And there appeared unto him an angel of 11 the LORD standing on the right side of the altar of incense. And when Zachariah 12 saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him: but the angel said unto him, 13 Fear not, Zachariah: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John. And thou shalt have joy and glad- 14 ness; and many shall rejoice at his birth. For he shall be great in the sight of the 15
LORD, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. And many of the children of Israel 16 shall be turned to the LORD their God. And he shall go before him in the spirit and 17 power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers with the children, and by the wisdom of the just to render the disobedient a people prepared for the LORD.
And Zachariah said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old 18 man, and my wife is far advanced in years. And the angel answering said unto 19 him, I am Gabriel, who stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to show thee these glad tidings. And, behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season. And the people 21 waited for Zachariah, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple. And 22 when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple; for he made signs unto them, and remained speechless.

And as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his 23 own house. And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and concealed her 24

25 state five months, saying, Thus hath the LORD dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.
 26 AND in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of 27 Galilee, named Nazareth, to a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joscpli, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.
 28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail! thou who art highly favoured!
 29 the LORD be with thee! blessed art thou among women! But she was troubled at his saying, and reasoned in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.
 30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with 31 God: and, behold, thou shalt conceive, and shalt bring forth a son, and thou shalt 32 shalt call his name JESUS. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Most High: and the LORD God shall give unto him the throne of his father David:
 33 and he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall 34 be no end. Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not 35 a man? And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Spirit shall come upon thee, and the power of the Most High shall overshadow thee: therefore also 36 that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and 37 this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren. For with God nothing 38 shall be impossible. And Mary said, Behold the handmaiden of the LORD; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.
 39 And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, into a 40 city of Judah; and entered into the house of Zachariah, and saluted Elisabeth.
 41 And when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb;
 42 and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit: and she spoke out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb!
 43 44 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my LORD should come to me? For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in 45 my womb for joy. And blessed is she who hath believed that there would be a per-46 formance of those things which were told her from the LORD. And Mary said,

My soul doth magnify the LORD,
 47 And my spirit doth rejoice in God my Saviour.
 48 For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden.
 For, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed;
 49 For he who is the Mighty One hath done for me great things;
 And holy is his name.
 50 And his mercy is on those who fear him
 From generation to generation.
 51 He showeth strength with his arm;
 He scattereth the proud in the imagination of their hearts,
 52 He putteth down the mighty from their thrones,
 And exalteth those of low degree.
 53 He filleth the hungry with good things;
 And the rich he sendeth empty away.
 54 He hath come to the help of Israel, his servant,
 In remembrance of his mercy,
 55 (As he spoke to our fathers,)
 To Abraham, and to his seed for ever.

56 And Mary abode with Elisabeth about three months, and then returned to her own house.
 57 Now Elisabeth's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought 58 forth a son. And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the LORD had showed great mercy towards her; and they rejoiced with her.
 59 And on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they were calling 60 him Zachariah, after the name of his father. And his mother answered and said, 61 Not so; but he shall be called John. And they said unto her, There is no one of 62 thy kindred who is called by this name. And they made signs to his father, asking 63 how he would have him called. And he asked for a tablet, and wrote, saying, His 64 name is John. And they all marvelled. And his mouth was opened immediately, 65 and his tongue loosed, and he spoke, and praised God. And fear came on all who dwelt round about them: and all these things were noised abroad throughout all 66 the hill country of Judea. And all they who heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be! And the hand of the LORD was with him.

And his father Zachariah was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying, 67

- 68 Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel;
 For he hath visited and wrought redemption for his people,
 69 And hath raised up a horn of salvation for us
 In the house of his servant David;
 70 (As he promised by the mouth of his holy prophets,
 From the beginning of time :)
 71 That we should be saved from our enemies,
 And from the hand of all who hate us;
 72 To perform the mercy promised to our fathers,
 And to remember his holy covenant;
 73 The oath which he swore to our father Abraham,
 74 That he would grant unto us,
 That we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies
 Might serve him without fear,
 75 In holiness and righteousness before him,
 All the days of our life.
 76 And thou, child,
 Shalt be called the prophet of the Most High :
 For thou shalt go before the face of the LORD to prepare his ways;
 77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people
 By the remission of their sins,
 78 Through the tender mercy of our God,
 Whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us;
 79 To give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death,
 And to guide our feet into the way of peace.

And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day 80 of his manifestation unto Israel.

AND in those days there went out a decree from Cæsar Augustus, that all the 2 empire should be enrolled. (And this enrolment was made before Cyrenius was governor of Syria.) And all went to be enrolled, every one into his own city. And 3 4 Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and family of David :) to be enrolled with Mary his espoused wife, who was great with child. 5

And while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be de- 6 livered. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling 7 clothes, and laid him in the manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch 8 over their flock by night. And, lo, an angel of the LORD came unto them, and 9 the glory of the LORD shone round about them : and they were greatly afraid.
 And the angel said unto them, Fear not! for, behold, I bring you good tidings of 10 great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city 11 of David a Saviour, who is the Christ the Lord. And this shall be the sign unto you; 12 Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. And sud- 13 denly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest heavens, peace on earth, and good will amongst 14 men. And when the angels were gone away from them into the heavens, the shep- 15 herds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which the LORD hath made known unto us. So they went with haste, and found 16 Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. And when they had seen it, 17 they made known abroad the saying which had been told them concerning this child. And all who heard it wondered at those things which were told them by 18 the shepherds. But Mary treasured up all these things, and pondered them in her 19 heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things 20 that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

AND when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his 21 name was called JESUS, the name given him by the angel before he was conceived.

And when the days of their purification according to the law of Moses were accom- 22 plished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the LORD; (as it is 23 written in the law of the LORD, Every firstborn male that openeth the womb shall 24 be called holy to the LORD;) and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said 25 in the law of the LORD, A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons. And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Spirit was upon 26 him. And it had been revealed unto him by the Holy Spirit, that he should not 27 see death, before he had seen the LORD'S Christ. And he came by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after 28 the custom of the law, he took him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said,

29 LORD, now lettest thou thy servant depart

In peace, according to thy word:

30 For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;

32 A light to enlighten the Gentiles,

And to be the glory of thy people Israel.

33 And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.
 34 And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken 35 against; (yea, a sword shall pierce through thine own soul also,) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

36 And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher: she was of great age, and had lived with a husband seven years from her vir-
 37 ginity; and she was now a widow of about fourscore and four years, who departed 38 not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day. And she standing near that instant gave thanks likewise unto the LORD, and spoke of him to all those in Jerusalem who looked for redemption.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the law of the LORD, they 40 returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth. And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, being filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

41 NOW his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the Passover.
 42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of 43 the feast. And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus 44 tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not of it: but they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought 45 him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance. And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.

46 And after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the 47 teachers, both hearing them, and asking them questions. And all who heard him, 48 were astonished at his understanding and answers. And when his parents saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt 49 with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing. And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? supposed ye not that I must be in my Father's 50 house? But they understood not the saying which he spoke unto them. And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but his mother treasured up all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and men.

3 NOW in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cæsar, (Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Ituræa and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the tetrarch of 2 Abilene, Annas and Caiaphas being the High Priests,) the word of God came unto John the son of Zachariah in the wilderness.

3 And he went into all the country about the Jordan, preaching the baptism of re-
 4 pentance for the remission of sins; as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, saying, The voice of one crying out in the wilderness, Prepare ye the 5 way of the LORD, make his paths straight. Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, 6 7 and the rough ways smooth; and all flesh shall see the salvation of God. Then said he to the multitude who came forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers!
 8 who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, Abraham is our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children 9 unto Abraham. And already the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then? He answered and said unto them, He who hath two coats, let him impart to him who hath none; and let him who hath food do likewise. Then came also taxgatherers to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do? And he said unto them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you. And some of the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no one, neither accuse falsely; and be content with your wages.

And as the people were in suspense concerning John, and every one debated whether he were the Christ, or not; John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but he who is mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire: whose winnowing shovel is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his grain, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire. And he preached the glad tidings of the Gospel unto the people.

But Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias his brother's wife, and for all the evil things which Herod had done, added this also to them all, that he shut up John in prison.

Now when all the people were baptized, Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heavens were opened, and the Holy Spirit descended in a bodily appearance like a dove upon him, and a voice came from the heavens, which said, Thou art my beloved Son: in thee I delight.

AND Jesus himself was about thirty years of age, being (as was supposed) the son of Joseph, who was the son-in-law of Heli, who was the son of Matthat, who was the son of Levi, who was the son of Melchi, who was the son of Janna, who was the son of Joseph, who was the son of Mattathias, who was the son of Amos, who was the son of Naum, who was the son of Esli, who was the son of Nagge, who was the son of Maath, who was the son of Mattathias, who was the son of Semei, who was the son of Joseph, who was the son of Judah, who was the son of Joanna, who was the son of Rhesa, who was the son of Zerubbabel, who was the son of Shealtiel, who was the son-in-law of Neri, who was the son of Melchi, who was the son of Addi, who was the son of Cosam, who was the son of Elmodam, who was the son of Er, who was the son of Jose, who was the son of Eliezer, who was the son of Jorim, who was the son of Matthat, who was the son of Levi, who was the son of Simeon, who was the son of Judah, who was the son of Joseph, who was the son of Jonan, who was the son of Eliakim, who was the son of Melea, who was the son of Menan, who was the son of Mattathias, who was the son of Nathan, who was the son of David, who was the son of Jesse, who was the son of Obed, who was the son of Booz, who was the son of Salmon, who was the son of Nashon, who was the son of Aminadab, who was the son of Aram, who was the son of Ezrom, who was the son of Pharez, who was the son of Judah, who was the son of Jacob, who was the son of Isaac, who was the son of Abraham, who was the son of Terah, who was the son of Nahor, who was the son of Serug, who was the son of Reu, who was the son of Peleg, who was the son of Eber, who was the son of Sala, who was the son of Cainan, who was the son of Arphaxad, who was the son of Shem, who was the son of Noah, who was the son of Lamech, who was the son of Methuselah, who was the son of Enoch, who was the son of Jared, who was the son of Mahalaleel, who was the son of Cainan, who was the son of Enos, who was the son of Seth, who was the son of Adam, who was the son of God.

AND Jesus being full of the Holy Spirit returned from the Jordan, and was led away by the Spirit into the wilderness, being tempted by the devil forty days. And in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he was hungry. And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread. And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every thing that God hath appointed shall man live.—And the devil, taking him to the top of a high mountain, showed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of these: for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it: if thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine. And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the LORD thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.—And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone. And Jesus answering said unto him, It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the LORD thy 13 God. And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season.

14 AND Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee : and there went out the fame of him through all the region round about : and he taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all.

15 And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up : and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up to read. And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Isaiah. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written, The Spirit of the LORD is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor ; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD. And he closed the book, and gave it again to the attendant, and sat down : and the eyes of all who were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

21 22 And he began to say unto them, This day is this Scripture fulfilled in your ears. And all bore testimony to him, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Joseph's son ? And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself : the things which we have heard thou hast done in Capernaum, do also here in thy country. And he said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet is accepted in his own country. But I tell you of a truth, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heavens were shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land ; but unto none of them was Elijah sent, but unto a woman who was a widow at Sarepta, a city of Sidon. And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet ; and none of them was cleansed, but Naaman a Syrian.

28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath ; and rose up, and thrust him out of the city ; and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong : but he passing through the midst of them went his way, and went down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath days. And they were astonished at his teaching : for his word was with power. And in the synagogue there was a man, who had a spirit of an unclean demon, and cried out with a loud voice, saying, Let us alone ; what hast thou to do with us, thou Jesus of Nazareth ? art thou come to destroy us ? I know thee who thou art ; the Holy One of God. And Jesus rebuked it, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the unclean spirit had thrown him in the midst, it came out of him, and hurt him not. And they were all amazed, and spoke among themselves, saying, What is this word ! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

38 And he arose and went out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever ; and they besought him for her. And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever ; and it left her : and immediately she arose and ministered unto him.

40 Now when the sun was setting, all they who had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him ; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them. And evil spirits also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art the Christ the Son of God. And he rebuking them suffered them not to speak : for they knew that he was the Christ.

42 And when it was day, he departed and went into a desert place : and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them. And he said unto them, I must preach the glad tidings of the kingdom of God to other cities also : for therefore am I sent. And he continued preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.

5 AND as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret, and saw two vessels lying by the side of the lake : but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets. And he entered into one of the vessels, which was Simon's, and besought him that he would thrust out a little from the land : and he sat down, and taught the people out of the vessel.

4 Now when he had left off speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep water, and let down your nets for a draught. And Simon answering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing : nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net. And when they had this done, they enclosed a great multitude of fishes : and their net began to break. And they beckoned unto their partners, who were in the other vessel, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the vessels, so that they began to sink. When Simon 8

Peter saw it, he fell down at the knees of Jesus, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord! For he was astonished, and all who were with him, at the 9 draught of fishes which they had taken: and so were also James and John, the sons 10 of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men. And when they had brought their vessels to 11 land, they forsook all, and followed him.

AND when he was in a certain city, behold, there came a man full of leprosy: 12 who seeing Jesus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I 13 will: be thou clean! and immediately the leprosy departed from him. And Jesus 14 charged him to tell no man: but go, and show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. But so much 15 the more went his fame abroad: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities. And he withdrew himself into solitary places, 16 and prayed.

AND on a certain day, as he was teaching, there were Pharisees and teachers of 17
the law sitting by, who were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judea, and Jerusalem: and the power of the LORD was present to heal them. And, behold, men 18 brought on a bed a man who was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him. And when they could not find by what 19 way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the house-top, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jesus.
And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee. 20
And the Scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this who speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone? But Jesus knowing their 22 thoughts, answered and said unto them, Why reason ye thus in your hearts? Which 23 is easier, to say, Thy sins are forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk? But that 24 ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go unto thy house. And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon 25 he had been lying, and departed to his own house, glorifying God. And they were 26 all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to-day.

AND after these things he went forth, and saw a taxgatherer, named Levi, sitting 27 at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me. And he left all, rose 28 up, and followed him. And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and 29 there was a great company of taxgatherers and of others who sat down with them.
But the Scribes and Pharisees among them murmured against his disciples, saying, 30
Why do ye eat and drink with taxgatherers and sinners? And Jesus answering said 31 unto them, Those who are whole need not a physician; but those who are sick. I 32 came not to call the righteous, but sinners.

And they said unto him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make pray- 33
ers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink? And he 34 said unto them, Can ye make the companions of the bridegroom fast, while the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken 35 away from them, and then shall they fast in those days. And he spoke also a para- 36 ble unto them; No man putteth a piece of a new garment into an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was put in agreeth not with the old. And no man putteth new wine into old leathern bottles; else the new wine 37 will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish. But new wine 38 must be put into new bottles; and then both are preserved. No man also having 39 drunk old wine immediately desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

AND on the first sabbath after the second day of unleavened bread, he went 6 through the corn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands. And certain of the Pharisees said unto them, Why do 2 ye that which it is not lawful to do on the sabbath days? And Jesus answering them 3 said, Have ye not read what David did, when he himself, and those who were with him, were hungry; how he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the 4 showbread, and gave also to those who were with him; which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone? And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord 5 even of the sabbath.

And also on another sabbath he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there 6 was a man whose right hand was withered. And the Scribes and Pharisees watched 7 him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation 8 against him. But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man who had the with-thered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath
10 days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it? And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so:
11 and his hand was restored whole as the other. And they were filled with madness;
and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.
12 AND he went up to a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to 13 God. And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: and of them he chose 14 twelve, whom he named also apostles; Simon, (whom he also named Peter,) and 15 Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, Matthew and Tho-
16 mas, James the son of Alphæus, and Simon called Zelotes, and Judas the brother 17 of James, and Judas Iscariot, who was the traitor. And he came down with them, and stood in the plain; and there was the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre 18 and Sidon, who came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases; and those who 19 were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed. And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all.
20 And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed are ye poor: for 21 yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are ye who hunger now: for ye shall be filled.
22 Blessed are ye who weep now: for ye shall laugh. Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach 23 you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake. Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like 24 manner did their fathers unto the prophets. But woe unto you who are rich! for ye 25 have received your consolation. Woe unto you who are full! for ye shall hunger.
26 Woe unto you who laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep. Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets.
27 But I say unto you who hear, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, 28 bless those who curse you, and pray for those who despitefully use you. And unto him who smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; and him who taketh 30 away thy cloak forbid not to take thy coat also. Give to every man who asketh of 31 thee; and of him who taketh away thy goods ask them not again. And as ye would 32 that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise. For if ye love those who love you, what thanks are due to you? for sinners also love those who love them.
33 And if ye do good to those who do good to you, what thanks are due to you? for 34 sinners also do even the same. And if ye give to those of whom ye hope to receive, what thanks are due to you? for sinners also give to sinners, to receive as much again.
35 But love ye your enemies, and do good, and give, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Most High: for he 36 is kind unto the unthankful and to the wicked. Be ye therefore merciful, as your 37 Father also is merciful. Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and 38 ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven: give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall be given into your bosom. For with the same measure wherewith ye mete it shall be measured to you again.
39 And he spoke a parable unto them, If a blind man lead the blind, they shall both 40 fall into the ditch. The disciple is not above his teacher: but every one who is perfected shall be as his teacher.
41 And why beholdest thou the splinter that is in thy brother's eye; but perceivest
42 not the beam that is in thine own eye? Or how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me take out the splinter that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, first take out the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to take out the splinter that is 43 in thy brother's eye. A good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth 44 a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. For every tree is known by its own fruit; for from thorns men do not gather figs, nor from a bramble bush do they gather grapes.
45 A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good;
and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil:
for from the overflowing of the heart his mouth speaketh.
46 47 And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say? Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will show you to whom 48 he is like: he is like a man who built a house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock : and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it : for it was founded upon a rock. But he who heareth, 49 and doeth not, is like a man who without a foundation built a house upon the earth ; against which the stream rushed vehemently, and immediately it fell ; and the ruin of that house was great.

NOW when Jesus had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Capernaum. And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die : but when he heard of Jesus, the centurion sent unto him 3 elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant. And 4 when they came to Jesus, they besought him earnestly, saying, He is worthy for whom thou shouldest do this : for he loveth our nation, and it was he who built our 5 synagogue. Then Jesus went with them. 6

And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself : for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof : wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee : 7 but say the word, and my servant shall be healed. For I also am a man set under 8 authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth ; and to another, Come, and he cometh ; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it. When 9 Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned himself about, and said unto the people who followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. And those who were sent, returning to the house, found the serv- 10 ant whole who had been sick.

AND the day after he went into a city called Nain ; and many of his disciples 11 went with him, and much people. Now, as he came nigh to the gate of the city, 12 behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow : and much people of the city was with her. And when the Lord saw her, 13 he was moved with compassion, and said unto her, Weep not. And he came and 14 touched the bier : and those who bore him stood still : and he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise. And he who had been dead sat up, and began to speak. And he 15 delivered him to his mother. And there came a fear on all : and they glorified God, 16 saying, A great prophet is risen up among us ; and, God hath visited his people. And this report of him went forth throughout all Judea, and throughout all the 17 region round about.

AND the disciples of John told him of all these things. And John calling unto 18 19 him two of his disciples sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he who should come ? or look we for another ? And when the men were come unto him, they said, John 20 the Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he who should come ? or look we for another ? And in the same hour he cured many of their infirmities and 21 plagues, and of evil spirits ; and unto many who were blind he gave sight. Then 22 Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard ; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have the Gospel preached unto them. And 23 blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the 24 people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see ? A reed shaken by the wind ? What then went ye out to see ? A man clothed in soft rai- 25 ment ? Behold, they who are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in king's courts. But what went ye out to see ? A prophet ? Yea, I say unto you, and much 26 more than a prophet. This is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messen- 27 ger before thy face, who shall prepare thy way before thee. For I say unto you, 28 Among those who are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist : but he who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

And all the people who heard him, and the taxgatherers, acknowledged the mercy 29 of God, and were baptized with the baptism of John. But the Pharisees and the 30 teachers of the law rejected the counsel of God against themselves, not being baptized by him.

To what then shall I liken the men of this generation ? and to what are they 31 like ? They are like children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to an- 32 other, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced ; we have sung mournful songs to you, and ye have not wept. For John the Baptist came neither 33 eating bread nor drinking wine ; and ye say, He hath an evil spirit. The Son of 34 man hath come eating and drinking ; and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of taxgatherers and sinners ! But wisdom is justified by all her 35 children.

36 AND one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down at table.

37 And, behold, a woman in the city, who had been a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at table in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment, and stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to bathe his feet with her tears, and did wipe them with the hair of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment. Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw it, he spoke within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is who toucheth him : for she is a sinner.

40 And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say it. There was a certain creditor who had two debtors : the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty. And when they had nothing wherewith to pay, he freely forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most ? Simon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most : and he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged. And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman ? I entered into thy house, thou gavest me no water for my feet : but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head. Thou gavest me no kiss : but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet. My head with oil thou didst not anoint : but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment. Wherefore I say unto thee, Because her sins, which are many, are forgiven ; therefore she hath loved much : but to whom little is forgiven the same loveth little. And he said unto her, Thy sins are forgiven. And they who sat at table with him began to say within themselves, Who is this who even forgiveth sins ? And he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee ; go in peace.

8 AND afterwards he went throughout every city and village, preaching and publishing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God : and the twelve were with him, and certain women, who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called the Magdalene, out of whom went seven unclean spirits, and Joanna, the wife of Chuza Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, who ministered unto him of their substance.

4 And when a great multitude were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spoke by a parable : A sower went out to sow his seed : and as he sowed, some fell by the way side ; and it was trodden down, and the birds of the air devoured it. And some fell upon a rock ; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture. And some fell among thorns ; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it. But other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bore fruit a hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He who hath ears to hear, let him hear !

9 10 And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be ? And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God : but to others in parables ; yet so as seeing they see, and might not perceive, and hearing they hear, and might not understand. Now the parable is this : The seed is the word of God : those by the way side are they who hear ; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved. Those on the rock are they, who, when they hear, receive the word with joy ; and these have no root, but for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. And that which fell among thorns are they, who, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked by the cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. But that on the good ground are they, who in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with perseverance.

16 No man, when he hath lighted a lamp, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed ; but setteth it on a lampstand, that those who enter in may see the light. 17 For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest ; neither any thing hidden, that shall not be known and come abroad. Take heed therefore how ye hear : for whosoever hath much, to him shall more be given ; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he thinketh that he hath.

19 Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the crowd. And it was told him by certain who said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee. And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are those who hear the word of God, and do it.

22 NOW on a certain day he went into a vessel with his disciples : and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth. 23 But as they sailed he fell asleep : and there came down a storm of wind on the lake ;

and they were filling with water, and were in jeopardy. And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish! Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm. And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they being afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee. And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, who had unclean spirits for a long time, and wore no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What hast thou to do with me, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment me not. (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had seized him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he broke the bands, and was driven of the spirit into the wilderness.) And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many spirits had entered into him. And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep.

And there was there a herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them. Then went the unclean spirits out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked. When they who had been keeping them saw what was done, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country. Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whom the unclean spirits were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid. They also who saw it told them by what means he who was possessed of the unclean spirits was healed.

Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the vessel, and returned back again. Now the man out of whom the unclean spirits had departed besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying, Return to thine own house, and show how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.

And when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him. And, behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at the feet of Jesus, and besought him that he would come into his house: for he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay dying. But as he went the people thronged him.

And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, who had spent all her living upon physicians, and could not be healed by any, came behind him, and touched the fringe of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stopped. And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter and those who were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me. And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately. And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace.

While he yet spoke, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master. But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: only believe, and she shall be made whole. And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, except Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden. And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not: she is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed at him, knowing that she was dead. And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maiden, arise! And her spirit came again, and she arose immediately: and he commanded to give her food. And her parents were astonished: but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

THEN he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all evil spirits, and to cure diseases. And he sent them to proclaim the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick. And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staff, nor scrip, nor food, nor money; neither have two coats apiece. And into whatsoever house ye enter, there abide, and thence depart. And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your 6 feet for a testimony against them. And they departed, and went through the towns, proclaiming the Gospel, and healing every where.

7 NOW Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said by some, that John was risen from the dead; and by some, that Elijah had appeared; and by others, that one of the old prophets was risen again. And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him.

10 AND the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done: and he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bethsaida. And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spoke unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed those who had need of healing.

12 And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place. But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more than five loaves and 14 two fishes; except we should go and buy food for all this people: (for they were about five thousand men.) And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by 15 16 fifties in a company: and they did so, and made them all sit down. Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he gave thanks, and 17 broke, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude. And they all ate, and were filled: and there were taken up twelve baskets of fragments that remained.

18 And as he was alone praying with his disciples, he asked them, saying, Whom 19 say the people that I am? They answering said, John the Baptist; but some say, 20 Elijah: and others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again. He said unto 21 them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answering said, The Christ of God. And 22 he strictly charged them, and commanded them to tell that to no one; saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and Chief Priests and Scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

23 And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and 24 take up his cross daily, and follow me: for whosoever will save his life shall lose it: 25 but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it. For what is a man 26 advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away? For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy 27 angels. But I tell you of a truth, there are some standing here, who shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 AND about eight days after these sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up to a mountain to pray. And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistening. And, behold, there 31 talked with him two men, who were Moses and Elijah: who appeared in glory, and 32 spoke of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem. But Peter and those who were with him were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they 33 saw his glory, and the two men who stood with him. And as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah: not knowing what 34 he said. While he thus spoke, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and 35 they feared as they entered into the cloud. And there came a voice out of the cloud, 36 saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him. And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 AND on the next day, when they were come down from the mountain, much people met him. And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son: for he is mine only child. And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him so that he foameth again, and 40 bruising him hardly departeth from him: and I besought thy disciples to cast it out; and they could not. And Jesus, answering said, O unbelieving and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither. 42 And as he was yet coming, the evil spirit threw him down, and convulsed him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to 43 his father. And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God.

But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his 44 disciples, Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man is about to 45 be delivered into the hands of men. But they understood not this saying, and it was hidden from them, so that they comprehended it not: and they feared to ask him concerning it.

Then there arose a debate among them, which of them should be greatest. And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him, and said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him who sent me: for he who is least among you all, the same is the greatest.

And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out evil spirits in thy name: and we forbade him, because he followeth not with us. And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he who is not against us is for us.

AND when the time was come that he should be received up into heaven, he steadfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, and sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him. But they would not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem. And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we call for fire to come down from the heavens, and consume them, even as Elijah did? But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them: and they went on to another village.

And as they were going in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. And Jesus said unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.—And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.—And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go and bid them farewell, who are at home at my house. And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is rightly disposed for the kingdom of God.

AFTER these things the Lord appointed seventy others also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come. And he said unto them,

The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest. Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves. Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and salute no man by the way. And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house. And if a son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again. And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house. And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you: and heal the sick who are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you. But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say, Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God draweth nigh unto you. But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable in the last day for Sodom, than for that city. Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which have been done in you, they had long ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment, than for you. And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted to the heavens, shalt be thrust down to hell. He who heareth me, and he who despiseth me despiseth him who sent me.

AND the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the evil spirits are subject unto us through thy name. And he said unto them, I beheld Satan falling as lightning from the heavens. Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you. Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I adore thee, O Father, Lord of the heavens and the earth, that, having hid these things from the wise and learned, thou hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight. And turning to his disciples, he said, All things are delivered to me by my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.

- 23 24 Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see: for I tell you, that many prophets and kings desired to see those things which ye see, and did not see them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and did not hear them.
- 25 And, behold, a certain teacher of the law stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit everlasting life? He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou? And he answering said, Thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself. And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live. But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour?
- 30 And Jesus answering said, A certain man of Jerusalem going down to Jericho, fell among thieves, who stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead. And by chance a certain Priest went down that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. And likewise a Levite, being at the place, came and looked on him, but passed by on the other side. But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him, and went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and having set him on his own beast, he brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee. Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him who fell among the thieves? And he said, He who took compassion on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.
- 38 Now as they went, he entered into a certain village: and a woman named Martha received him into her house. And she had a sister called Mary, who also sat at the feet of Jesus, and listened to his word. But Martha was encumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me. And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art anxious and troubled about many things: but there is yet need of one thing: and Mary hath chosen that better part, which shall not be taken away from her.
- 11 AND as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples. And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name: thy kingdom come: thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth: give us each day food sufficient for us: and forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one who is indebted to us. And leave us not in temptation; but deliver us from the evil one.
- 5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves; for a friend of mine on his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him? And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, I and my children are in bed; I cannot rise and give thee. I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many loaves as he needeth. And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. For every one who asketh receiveth; and he who seeketh findeth; and to him who knocketh it shall be opened.
- 11 If a son shall ask bread of any of you who is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he instead of a fish give him a serpent? or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion? If ye then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?
- 14 And he was casting out an evil spirit, and it was dumb: and when the spirit was gone out, the dumb man spoke; and the people wondered. But some of them said, He casteth out evil spirits through Beelzebub the chief of the evil spirits. And others, tempting him, sought of him a sign from the heavens. But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth. If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out evil spirits through Beelzebub. And if I by Beelzebub cast out evil spirits, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges. But if I with the finger of God cast out evil spirits, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.
- 21 22 When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace: but when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils. He who is not with me is 23 against me: and he who gathereth not with me scattereth.

When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, it walketh through dry places, seek- 24
ing rest; and finding none, it saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.
And when it cometh, it findeth it swept and garnished. Then goeth it, and taketh 25 26 to itself seven other spirits more wicked than itself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first.

And as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, 27 and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bore thee, and the breasts which thou hast suckled. But he said, Nay, rather, blessed are they who hear the word of God, 28 and keep it.

And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an 29 evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonah the prophet. For as Jonah was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the 30 Son of man be to this generation. The queen of the south shall rise up in the 31 judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here. The men of Nineveh shall rise up in the judgment with 32 this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah;
and, behold, a greater than Jonah is here.

No man, when he hath lighted a lamp, putteth it in a secret place, neither under 33 a corn measure, but on a lampstand, that they who come in may see the light. The 34 lamp of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is clear, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is dim, thy body also is full of darkness.
Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness. If thy whole, 35 36 body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a lamp doth give thee light.

And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went 37 in, and sat down at table. And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that Jesus 38 had not first washed before dinner. And the Lord said unto him, Now, ye Pharisees 39 make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of rapacity and wickedness. Ye fools, did not he who made that which is without 40 make that which is within also? But rather give alms of such things as ye have; 41 and, behold, all things are clean unto you. But woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye tithe 42 mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over justice and the love of God:
these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. Woe unto you, 43 Pharisees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets. Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are as graves 44 which appear not, and the men who walk over them are not aware of them.

Then answered one of the teachers of the law, and said unto him, Master, thus 45 saying thou reproachest us also. And he said, Woe unto you also, ye teachers of 46 the law! for ye lade men with hurdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers. Woe unto you! for ye build the 47 sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. Truly ye bear witness 48 that ye approve of the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build up their sepulchres. Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them 49 prophets and apostles, and they shall slay some of them, and persecute others; that 50 the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; from the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zachariah, 51 who perished between the altar and the sanctuary: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation. Woe unto you, teachers of the law! for ye have taken 52 away the key of knowledge: ye enter not in yourselves, and those who were entering in ye hindered.

And as he said these things unto them, the Scribes and the Pharisees began to be 53 greatly incensed, and to provoke him to speak of many things: laying wait for him, 54 and seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

In the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude 12 of people, inasmuch that they trod one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples; Above all things, beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.
For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hidden, that shall 2 not be known. Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken privately shall be heard pub- 3 licly; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of those who kill the body, and after 4

- 5 that have no more that they can do : but I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear :
 6 Fear him, who after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell : yea, I say unto you,
 7 is forgotten before God : but even the very hairs of your head are all numbered.
 8 Fear not therefore : ye are of more value than many sparrows.
- 8 Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall acknowledge me before men, him shall the 9 Son of man also acknowledge before the angels of God : but he who disowneth me
 10 before men shall be disowned before the angels of God. And whosoever shall speak 11 phemeth against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven. And when they bring 12 thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say : for the Holy Spirit shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.
- 13 And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he di-14 vide the inheritance with me. And he said unto him, Man ! who made me a judge 15 or a divider over you ? And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness : for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.
- 16 And he spoke a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man
 17 brought forth plentifully : and he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, 18 because I have no room where to stow away my fruits ? And he said, This will I do : I will pull down my barns, and build greater ; and there will I store up all my 19 fruits and my goods. And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast an abundance of 20 good things laid up for many years ; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry. But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee : then 21 whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided ? So is he who layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich towards God.
- 22 And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take no anxious thought 23 for your life, what ye shall eat ; neither for the body, what ye shall put on. The 24 life is more than food, and the body is more than raiment. Consider the ravens :
 for they neither sow nor reap ; which neither have storehouse nor barn ; and God 25 feedeth them : how much more are ye better than the birds ? And which of you 26 with taking thought can add one hour to his life ? If ye then be not able to do that 27 thing which is least, why take ye anxious thought for the rest ? Consider the lilies how they grow : they toil not, they spin not ; and yet I say unto you, that even Solo-28 mon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. If then God so clothe the grass, which is to-day in the field, and to-morrow is cast into the oven ; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith ?
- 29 And seek not anxiously what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye 30 of distrustful mind. For all these things do the nations of the world seek after : and 31 your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things : but rather seek ye the king-32 dom of God ; and all these things shall be added unto you. Fear not, little flock ; for 33 it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell that ye have, and give alms ; provide yourselves bags which wear not out, a treasure in the heavens that 34 faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.
- 35 36 Let your loins be girded about, and your lamps burning : and ye yourselves like unto men who wait for their master, when he shall return from the wedding ; that 37 when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately. Blessed are those servants, whom the master when he cometh shall find watching : verily I say unto you, that he will gird himself, and make them to sit down at table, and will 38 come forth and serve them. And whether he shall come in the second watch, or 39 come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants. And this know, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would 40 have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken into. Be ye therefore ready also : for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.
- 41 Then Peter said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to 42 all ? And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his master shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of food in due 43 season ? Blessed is that servant, whom his master when he cometh shall find so 44 doing. Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath.
 45 But and if that servant say in his heart, My master delayeth his coming ; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be 46 drunken ; the master of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him off, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers. And that servant, who knew his master's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes: but he who knew not, and committed things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will require the more.

I am come to send fire on the earth; and what would I, if it were already kindled? But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished! Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division: for from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three: the father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

And he said also to the people, When ye see a cloud rising out of the west, immediately ye say, There cometh a shower; and so it is. And when the south wind bloweth, ye say, There will be heat; and so it cometh to pass. Ye hypocrites! ye can discern the face of the sky and of the earth; but how is it that ye do not discern this time?

Yea, and why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right? When thou goest with thine adversary to the magistrate, as thou art in the way, give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him; lest he take thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison. I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast paid the very last mite.

THERE were present at that season some who told him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, do think ye that they were sinners above all men who dwell in Jerusalem? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

He spake also this parable; A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, but found none. Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why encumbereth it the ground? And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it: and if it bear fruit, well: but if not, after that thou shalt cut it down.

AND he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And, behold, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years; and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself. And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity. And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she became straight, and glorified God.

And the ruler of the synagogue being moved with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day. The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite! doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering? And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day? And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I liken it? It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and east into his garden; and it grew, and became a great tree; and the birds of the air lodged in the branches of it.

And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God? It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

AND he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying towards Jerusalem.

Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few who are saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the narrow gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able. When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know not whence ye are: then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets. But he shall say, I tell you, I know not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and yourselves thrust out: and they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God: for, behold, there are last who shall be first, and there are first who shall be last.

The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart hence: for Herod will kill thee. And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out evil spirits, and I do cures to-day and to-morrow, and the third day I shall be perfected. Nevertheless I must continue my course to-day, and to-morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem! that killest the prophets, and stonest those who are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen gathereth her brood under her wings, but ye would not! Behold, soon shall your temple be left by you desolate: and verily I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, Blessed be he who cometh in the name of the LORD.

14 AND as he went into the house of one of the rulers, who was a Pharisee, to eat bread on the sabbath day, they watched him. And, behold, a certain man who had the dropsy stood before him. And Jesus spoke unto the teachers of the law and to the Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day? and they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go; and said to them, Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not immediately pull him out on the sabbath day? And they could not answer him again to these things.

And he put forth a parable to those who were invited, when he marked how they chose out the chief places; saying unto them, When thou art invited by any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest place; lest a more honourable man than thou be invited by him; and he who invited thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest place. But when thou art invited, go and sit down in the lowest place; that when he who invited thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have honour in the presence of those who sit at table with thee. For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he who humbleth himself shall be exalted.

Then said he also to him who invited him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also invite thee again, and a recompence be made thee. But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind: and thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just.

And when one of those who sat at table with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he who shall eat bread in the kingdom of God. Then said Jesus unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and invited many: and sent his servant at supper time to say to those who were invited, Come; for all things are now ready. And they all with one consent began to make excuses. The first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused. And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused. And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come. So that servant came, and showed his master these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind. And the servant said, Master, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room. And the master said unto his servant, Go out into the highways and by the hedges, and urge them to come in, that my house may be filled. For I say unto you, That none of those men who were invited shall taste of my supper.

And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them, If any man come to me, and love not me more than his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple: and whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it? Lest perhaps, after 29 he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all who behold it begin to mock him, saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish. Or what 30 31 king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him who cometh against him with twenty thousand? Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an 32 embassy, and desireth conditions of peace. So likewise, whosoever he be of you who 33 forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.

Salt is good: but if the salt have lost its savour, how shall its saltness be restored? 34
It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill; but men cast it out. He 35 who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

THEN drew near unto him all the taxgatherers and sinners to hear him: and 15
the Pharisees and Scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eat-eth with them. And he spoke this parable unto them, saying, 3

What man of you, having a hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave 4 the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?
And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing. And when he 5 6 cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost. I say unto you, that 7 likewise there shall be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repenteth, than over ninety and nine righteous persons, who need no repentance.

Or what woman, having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a 8 lamp, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it? And when she hath 9 found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost. Likewise, I say unto you, there 10 is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repenteth.

And he said, A certain man had two sons: and the younger of them said to his 11 12 father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them a living. And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and 13 took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living. And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and 14 he began to be in want: and he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; 15 and he sent him into his fields to keep swine: and he was glad to fill his belly with 16 the husks that the swine did eat; for no man gave him food. And when he came 17 to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and will say 18 unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, and am no more 19 worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants. And he arose, 20 and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. And the son said 21 unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best 22 robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: and bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry: for this my son was 24 dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.
Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he 25 heard music and dancing. And he called one of the servants, and asked what these 26 things meant: and the servant said unto him, Thy brother is come: and thy father 27 hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound. And he 28 was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and entreated him:
and he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither 29 transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends: but as soon as this thy son was come, 30 who hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.
And his father said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine: 31 but it was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was 32 dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

AND Jesus said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, who had a 16 steward; who was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods. And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou canst no longer be steward. Then the steward said within 3 himself, What shall I do? for my master taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed. I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put 4 out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his master's debtors unto him, and said unto the first,
6 How much owest thou unto my master? And he said, A hundred measures of oil.
7 And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty. Then
8 said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, A hundred measures 9 of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore. And his 10 master commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children 11 of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

12 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends by the mammon of unrighteous-13 ness; that, when ye fail, ye may be received into everlasting habitations. He who 14 is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he who is unjust in the 15 least is unjust also in much. If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unright-
16 eous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? And if ye have not 17 been faithful in that which is another's, who shall give you that which is your own?
18 No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other;
19 or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and 20 Mammon [RICHES].

21 And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they de-22 rided him. And he said unto them, Ye are those who justify yourselves before men;
23 but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is an 24 abomination in the sight of God. The Law and the Prophets were until John:
25 since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every one who entereth into it, 26 entereth by force. And it is easier for the heavens and the earth to pass away than 27 one tittle of the Law to fail. Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth an-28 other, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her who is put away from her 29 husband committeth adultery.

30 There was a certain rich man, who was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared 31 sumptuously every day: and there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, who was 32 laid at his gate, full of sores, and desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from 33 the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. And the beggar 34 died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died,
35 and was buried; and in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abra-
36 ham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, Pity me, father
37 Abraham, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool
38 my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame. But Abraham said, Son, remember
39 that thou in thy lifetime receivdest thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil 40 things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. And besides all this, be-41 tween us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that those who would pass from 42 hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, who would come from thence.
43 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's 44 house: for I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come 45 into this place of torment. Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the pro-
46 phets; let them hear them. And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went 47 unto them from the dead, they would repent. And he said unto him, If they hear 48 not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from 49 the dead.

17 THEN said he unto the disciples, It is impossible but that offences will come: but
1 woe unto him, through whom they come! It were better for him that a millstone
2 were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should cause one
3 of these little ones to fall away. Take heed to yourselves: if thy brother trespass
4 against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him. And if he trespass against 5 thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I re-6 pent; thou shalt forgive him.

7 And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith. And the Lord said, If ye
8 had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamore tree, Be thou 9 plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

10 But which of you, having a servant ploughing or feeding cattle, will say unto him
11 by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat? And will not 12 rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve 13 me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterwards thou shalt eat and drink? Doth 14 he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I should 15 think not. So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are com-
16 manded you, say, We as servants are without merit: for we have done only that 17 which it was our duty to do.

18 AND as he went to Jerusalem, he passed through the borders of Samaria and Galilee. And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men who were 12 lepers, who stood afar off: and they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, 13 pity us. And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go show yourselves unto the 14 priests. And as they were going they were cleansed. And one of them, when he saw 15 that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God, and fell down 16 on his face at the feet of Jesus, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan. And 17

 Jesus answering said, Were not the ten cleansed? but where are the nine? have 18 none returned to give glory to God, save this stranger? And he said unto him, 19
 Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.

AND when the Pharisees asked when the kingdom of God should come, he 20 answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with outward show: neither shall men say, Lo here! or, Lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is 21 among you.

And he said unto the disciples, The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one 22 of the days of the Son of man, but ye shall not see it. And if men say to you, Lo 23 here! or, Lo there! go not after them, nor follow them. For as the lightning, that 24 lighteneth out of the one part under the heavens, shineth unto the other part under 25 the heavens; so will the Son of man be in his day: but he must first suffer many 26 things, and be rejected by this generation. And as it was in the days of Noah, so shall 27 it be also in the days of the Son of man. They ate, they drank, they married wives, 28 they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the 29 flood came, and destroyed them all. Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they 30 ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built; but the same day 31 that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from the heavens, and de- 32 stroyed them all. Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed. 33
 In that day, let not him who shall be upon the housetop, and his stuff in the house, 34 come down to take it away: and he who is in the field, let him likewise not return 35 back. Remember Lot's wife. Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; 36 and whosoever shall be willing to lose his life shall preserve it. I tell you, in that 37 night there shall be two men in one bed: one shall be taken, and the other shall be 38 left. Two women shall be grinding together; one shall be taken, and the other left. 39
 Two men shall be together in the field; one shall be taken, and the other left. 40
 They answered and said unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Where- 41 soever the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together.

Then Jesus spoke a parable unto them to this end, that they ought always to pray, 18 and not to faint; saying, There was in a city a judge, who feared not God, neither 42 regarded man: and there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, 43
 Avenge me of mine adversary: and he would not for a while: but afterwards he said 44 within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man; yet because this widow 45 troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me. And the 46
 Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith. And shall not God avenge his own 47 elect, who cry day and night unto him, though he delay their cause so long? I tell 48 you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, 49 will he find faith in the land?

And he spoke this parable unto certain who trusted in themselves that they were 9 righteous, and despised others: Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one 10 a Pharisee, and the other a taxgatherer. The Pharisee, standing by himself, prayed 11 thus, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adul- 12 terers, or even as this taxgatherer. I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that 13
 I possess. And the taxgatherer, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his 14 eyes unto the heavens, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a 15 sinner! I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: 16 for every one who exalteth himself shall be abased; and he who humbleth himself 17 shall be exalted.

And they brought unto him also infants, that he might touch them: but when his 15 disciples saw it, they rebuked them. But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suf- 16 fer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom 17 of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as 18 a little child shall in no wise enter therein.

And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit 18 everlasting life? And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, 19 but God only. Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not 20 kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother.
 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up. Now when Jesus heard 21 22

- these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, 23 follow me. But when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.
- 24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How difficult is it for 25 those who have riches to enter into the kingdom of God! For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the king- 26 27 dom of God. And those who heard it said, Who then can be saved? And he said, The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.
- 28 29 Then Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee. And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man who hath left house, or parents, or brethren, 30 or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.
- 31 THEN he took the twelve aside, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jeru- salem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man 32 shall be accomplished. For he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be 33 mocked, and spitefully treated, and spit upon: and they shall scourge him, and put 34 him to death: and the third day he shall rise again. And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hidden from them, neither comprehended they the things which were spoken.
- 35 And as he was yet nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way side beg- 36 37 ging: and hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant. And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by. And he cried, saying, Pity me, Jesus, thou 39 Son of David! And those who went before rebuked him, that he should hold his 40 peace: but he cried so much the more, Pity me, thou Son of David! And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, 41 he asked him, saying, What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? And he said, Lord, 42 that I may receive my sight. And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: thy faith 43 hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God: and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.
- 19 AND Jesus entered into and passed through Jericho. And, behold, there was a man named Zacchæus, who was a chief among the taxgatherers, and he was rich. 3 And he sought to see what manner of person Jesus was; but could not for the crowd, 4 because he was little of stature. And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycamore 5 tree to see him: for he was to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zacchæus, make haste, and come 6 down; for to-day I must abide at thy house. And he made haste, and came down, 7 and received him joyfully. And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That 8 he was gone to be guest with a man who is a sinner. And Zacchæus stood up, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I 9 have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold. And Jesus said concerning him, This day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as 10 this man also is a son of Abraham: for the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.
- 11 And as they listened to these things, he further spoke a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should imme- 12 diately appear. He said therefore,
- A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself kingly author- 13 ity, and to return. And he called ten of his servants, and delivered them ten pounds, 14 and said unto them, Trade with these till I return. But his citizens hated him, and 15 sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us. And when he was returned, having received regal authority, he commanded these serv- ants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know 16 how much every man had gained by trading. Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy 17 pound hath gained ten pounds. And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.
- 18 19 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds. And he said 20 likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities. And another came, saying, Lord, be- 21 hold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin: for I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou laydest not down, and 22 reapest that thou didst not sow. And he saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, 23 taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow: wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine 24 own with interest? And he said unto those who stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him who hath ten pounds. (And they said unto him, Lord, he 25 hath already ten pounds.) For I say unto you, That unto every one who hath much 26 shall be given more; and from him who hath little, even that he hath shall be taken away from him. But those mine enemies, who would not that I should reign over 27 them, bring hither, and slay them before me.—And when he had thus spoken, he 28 went before, ascending up to Jerusalem.

AND when he was come nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called 29
the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, saying, Go ye into the village over 30 against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose it, and bring it hither. And if any one ask you, Why do ye 31 loose it? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of it.

And those who were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto 32 them. And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why 33 loose ye the colt? And they said, The Lord hath need of it. And they brought it 34 35 to Jesus: and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon. And 36 as they went, they spread their clothes in the way. And when he was come nigh to 37 the city, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen; saying, Blessed be the King who cometh in the name of the 38
LORD: peace in the heavens, and glory in the highest heavens. And some of the 39
Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.
And he answered and said unto them, I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, 40 the stones would immediately cry out.

And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and wept over it, saying, Oh that 41 42 thou hadst known, even in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace!
but now they are hidden from thine eyes. For the days shall come upon thee, that 43 thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, and shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within 44 thee: and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

And he went into the temple, and began to drive out those who sold therein, and 45 those who bought; saying unto them, It is written, My house is a house of prayer: 46 but ye have made it a den of thieves.

AND he taught daily in the temple. But the Chief Priests and the Scribes and the 47 chiefs of the people sought to destroy him, and could not find how to do it: for all 48 the people hung upon him to hear him.

AND on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the 20 Gospel, the Chief Priests and the Scribes came up to him with the elders, and spoke unto him, saying, Tell us, by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority? And he answered and said unto them, I will also 3 ask you one thing; and answer me: The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or 4 from men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not? But and if we say, From men; all 6 the people will stone us: for they are persuaded that John was a prophet. And they 7 answered, that they could not tell whence it was. And Jesus said unto them, Nei- 8 ther tell I you by what authority I do these things.

Then began he to speak to the people this parable; A certain man planted a vine- 9 yard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.
And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of 10 the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.
And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and treated him shame- 11 fully, and sent him away empty. And again he sent a third: and they wounded 12 him also, and cast him out. Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? 13
I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.
But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This 14 is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours. So they cast 15 him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them? He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give 16 the vineyard to others.

And when they heard it, they said, Be this far from us! And he beheld them, 17 and said, What is this then that is written, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner? Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall 18 be broken by it; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will crush him to pieces. And 19 the Chief Priests and the Scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; (but they feared the people :) for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 AND they watched him, and sent forth spies, who should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto 21 the power and authority of the governor. And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any,
22 but teachest the way of God truly: Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Cæsar, or not? But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?
24 Show me a penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered
25 and said, Cæsar's. And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Cæsar the things
26 which are Cæsar's, and unto God the things which are God's. And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 Then came to him certain of the Sadducees, who deny that there is any resurrection or future state; and they asked him, saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother
29 should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children. And the second
31 took her to wife, and he died childless. And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died. Last of all the woman died 33 also. Therefore in the resurrection and future state whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are 35 given in marriage: but those who shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from, and the future state of, the dead, neither marry, nor are given
36 in marriage: neither can they die any more: for they are like the angels, and 37 are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection. Now that the dead are raised, even Moses showed, when, at the bush, he calleth the LORD the God of 38 Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. For he is not a God of the dead only, but of the living: for all live unto him. Then certain of the Scribes
40 answering said, Master, thou hast well said. And after that they durst not question him any more.

41 42 And he said unto them, How say they that the Christ is David's son? And David himself saith in the book of Psalms, JEHOVAH said unto my Lord, Sit thou on 43 44 my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool. David therefore calleth him his Lord, how is he then his son?

45 46 Then in the hearing of all the people he said unto his disciples, Beware of the Scribes, who desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the 47 highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief places at feasts; who devour widows' houses, and for a show make long prayers: the same shall receive greater condemnation.

21 AND he looked up, and saw the rich casting their gifts into the treasury. And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites. And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all: for all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.

5 AND as some spoke of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said, As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in which
7 there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will
8 there be when these things shall come to pass? And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am the Christ; and the 9 time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them. But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but 10 the end is not yet. Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, 11 and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from the heavens.

12 But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, and you shall be brought before
13 kings and rulers for my name's sake. And this will befall you for a testimony.
14 15 Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer: for I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to 16 gainsay nor resist. And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and 17 kinsfolks, and friends; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death. And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake. But there shall not a hair of your head perish. In your patience possess ye your souls.

And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh. Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains; and let those who are in the midst of the city depart out; and let not those who are in the country enter into it. For these are the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. But woe unto those who are with child, and to those who give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people. And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; as the roaring of the sea and the waves; men's hearts failing for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the land: for the powers of the heavens shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.

And he spoke to them a parable; Behold the fig tree, and all the trees; when they are now shooting forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is nigh: so likewise ye, when ye see these things coming to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand. Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and the cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares. For as a fowler's snare shall it come on all those who dwell on the face of the whole earth. Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

And in the day time he was teaching in the temple; and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olives. And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, to hear him.

NOW the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover: and the Chief Priests and Scribes sought how they might kill him: but they feared the people. Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, who was of the number 3 of the twelve.

And he went, and conferred with the Chief Priests and officers, how he might betray him unto them. And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money: and he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude.

THEN came the day of the feast of unleavened bread, when the Passover must be killed: and Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the Passover, that we may eat it. And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare? And he said unto them, Behold, when ye have entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in. And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guest-chamber, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples? And he shall show you a large upper room prepared: there make ready. And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the Passover.

And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him: and he said unto them, I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer: for I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves: for I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God be come.

And he took bread, and gave thanks, and broke it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. Likewise also took the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is shed for you.

But, behold, the hand of him who betrayeth me is with me on the table. And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed! And they began to inquire among themselves, which of them it was who should do this thing.

- 24 And there had been also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted 25 the greatest. And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship 26 over them; and those who exercise authority upon them are called benefactors. But 27 ye shall not be so: but he who is greatest among you, let him be as the least; and he 28 who is chief, as he who serveth. For whether is greater, he who sitteth at table, or 29 he who serveth? is not he who sitteth at table? but I am among you as he who 30 serveth. Ye are those who have continued with me in my trials. And I appoint 31 unto you a kingdom, even as my Father hath appointed unto me a kingdom, by 32 covenant; that ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones
33 judging the twelve tribes of Israel.
- 34 And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that 35 he may sift you as wheat: but I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and 36 when thou art restored, strengthen thy brethren. And he said unto him, Lord, I 37 am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death. And Jesus said, I tell 38 thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before thou shalt have thrice denied 39 that thou knowest me.
- 40 And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and bag, and shoes, 41 lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing. Then said he unto them, But now, 42 he who hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his bag: and he who hath no 43 sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one. For I say unto you, that this that is 44 written is yet to be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the trans-45 gressors: for the things concerning me must be fulfilled. And they said, Lord, be-46 hold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.
- 47 AND he came out of the city, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives;
48 and his disciples also followed him. And when he was at the place, he said unto 49 them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation. And he was withdrawn from them 50 about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed, saying, Father, if thou be will-51 ing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done. (And 52 there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.) And being in 53 an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of 54 blood falling down to the ground. And when he rose up from prayer, and was come 55 to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, and said unto them, What! are 56 ye asleep? rise and pray, that ye enter not into temptation.
- 57 And while he yet spoke, behold a multitude, and he who was called Judas, one 58 of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him. But Jesus 59 said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss? When those who 60 were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite
61 with the sword? And one of them smote the servant of the High Priest, and cut 62 off his right ear. And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched 63 his ear, and healed him. Then Jesus said unto the Chief Priests, and officers of the 64 temple guard, and the elders, who were come to him, Are ye come out, as against a 65 thief, with swords and clubs? When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched 66 forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness. Then 67 took they him, and led him, and brought him into the High Priest's house.
- 68 And Peter followed afar off. And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of 69 the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them. But a certain 70 maidservant beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and 71 said, This man was also with him. And he denied it, saying, Woman, I know him 72 not. And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also one of them.
73 And Peter said, Man, I am not. And about the space of one hour after another
74 confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a 75 Galilean. And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, 76 while he was yet speaking, the cock crew. And the Lord turned, and looked upon 77 Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, 78 Before the cock crow, thou shalt disown me thrice. And Peter went out, and wept 79 bitterly.
- 80 And the men who had Jesus in charge mocked him, and smote him. And when 81 they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Tell 82 us, who is it who smote thee? And many other things blasphemously spoke they 83 against him.
- 84 AND as soon as it was day, the elders of the people and the Chief Priests and the 85 Scribes came together, and led him into their council, asking, Art thou the Christ?
86 tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe: and if I also ask 87 you questions, ye will not answer me, nor let me go. Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the powerful right hand of God. Then said they all, Art thou then the 70 Son of God? And he said unto them, Ye say truly, for I am. And they said, What 71 need we any further testimony? for we ourselves have heard it from his own mouth.

And the whole body of them arose, and led him unto Pilate. And they began to 23 accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cæsar, saying that he himself is the Christ, a King. And Pilate ask- 3 ed him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou savest it. Then said Pilate to the Chief Priests and to the people, I find no 4 fault in this man. And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, 5 teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee even to this place. When 6 Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilean. And as soon as 7 he knew that he belonged unto Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time.

And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceedingly glad: for he had been a long time 8 desirous to see him, because he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him. Then he put many questions to him; but he an- 9 swered him nothing. And the Chief Priests and Scribes stood up and vehemently 10 accused him. And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, 11 and having arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, sent him again to Pilate. And the same 12 day Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

And Pilate, when he had called together the Chief Priests and the rulers and the 13 people, said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one who perverteth 14 the people: and, behold, I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him: no, nor yet hath Herod: for 15
I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death hath been done by him. I will 16 therefore chastise him, and release him. (For from custom he must release one 17 prisoner unto them at the feast.) And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with 18 this man! and release unto us Barabbas: (who for a certain sedition made in the 19 city, and for murder, was cast into prison.) Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, 20 spoke again to them: but they cried out, saying, Crucify him. crucify him! And he 21 22 said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go. But they were urgent 23 with loud voices, requiring that he should be crucified: and their voices and those of the Chief Priests prevailed. And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they 24 required. And he released unto them him who for sedition and murder was cast into 25 prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered up Jesus to their will.

AND as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming 26 out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus.
And there followed him a great company of people, and of women also, who bewailed 27 and lamented him. But Jesus turning unto them, said, Daughters of Jerusalem, 28 weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children. For, behold, the 29 days are coming, in which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts which never gave suck. Then shall they begin to say to 30 the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us. For if they do these things 31 in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

And there were also two others, who were malefactors, led away to be put to death 32 with him. And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there 33 they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left. Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And 34 they parted his raiment among them, casting lots. And the people stood behold- 35
ing: and the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be the Christ, the chosen of God. And the soldiers also mocked 36 him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar, and saying, If thou be the King of 37 the Jews, save thyself. And a superscription also was written over him in letters of 38 Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

And one of the malefactors who were crucified railed on him, saying, If thou art 39 the Christ, save thyself and us. But the other answering reuked him, saying, Dost 40 not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation? And we indeed 41 justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss. And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy 42 kingdom. And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To-day shalt thou be 43 with me in paradise.

Now it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth un- 44

- 45 til the ninth hour: and the sun was darkened, and the vail of the temple was rent
 46 in the midst. And Jesus cried out with a loud voice, and said, Father, into thy hands
 I commit my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up his spirit.
- 47 Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly 48 this was a righteous man. And all the people who had come together to that sight, 49 beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned: but all his acquaintance, and the women who followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.
- 50 And, behold, a man named Joseph, a counsellor of Arimathæa, a city of the 51 Jews, a good and a just man; (who had not consented to the counsel and deed of 52 the rest; who also himself waited for the kingdom of God;) went unto Pilate, and 53 begged the body of Jesus. And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid 54 it in a sepulchre hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid. And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath began to dawn.
- 55 And the women also, who came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld 56 the sepulchre, and how his body was laid. And they returned, and prepared spices and balsams; but rested the sabbath day according to the commandment.
- 24 NOW upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain other 2 3 women with them. And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre: and 4 they entered in, but found not the body of the Lord Jesus. And as they were much 5 perplexed concerning it, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments: and as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, 6 Why seek ye him who liveth, among the dead? He is not here, but is risen: re-
 7 member how he spoke unto you when he was yet in Galilee, saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.
- 8 9 And they remembered his words, and returned from the sepulchre, and told all 10 these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest: (it was Mary the Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and the other women who were with them, 11 who told these things unto the apostles:) but their words seemed to them as idle 12 tales, and they believed them not. Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes lying by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which had come to pass.
- 13 And, behold, two of the disciples went that same day to a village called Emmaus, 14 which is from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs: and they were talking together 15 of all these things which had happened. And while they communed together and 16 reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went on with them. But their eyes were 17 holden that they should not know him. And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one with another, as ye walk, and are sad?
 18 And the one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answering said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and yet hast not known the things which are come to pass 19 there in these days? And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Those concerning Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and 20 word before God and all the people: and how the Chief Priests and our rulers de-21 livered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him. But we trusted that it had been he who should have redeemed Israel: and besides all this, to-day is the 22 third day since these things were done. Yea, and certain women also of our com-23 pany have astonished us, who were early at the sepulchre; and not finding his body, came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive.
- 24 And certain of those who were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even 25 so as the women had said: but him they saw not. Then he said unto them, O dull of understanding, and slow of heart to believe, notwithstanding all that the prophets 26 have spoken: ought not the Christ to have suffered these things, and then to enter
 27 into his glory? And he began to expound to them from Moses and all the prophets 28 in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself. And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they were going: and he made as though he would have gone 29 further: but they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is towards evening,
 30 and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them. And as he sat at table 31 with them, he took bread, and gave thanks, and broke it, and gave to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.
- 32 And they said one to another, Did not our hearts burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the Scriptures?
- 33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and those who were with them, saying, The Lord is risen indeed, 34 and hath appeared to Simon. And they told what things had occurred in the way, 35 and how he was known by them in the breaking of bread.

And as they thus spoke, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto 36 them, Peace be unto you. But they were amazed and terrified, and supposed that 37 they beheld a spirit. And he said unto them, Why are ye alarmed? and why do 38 doubts arise in your hearts? Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: 39 handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have: and 40 when he had thus spoken, he showed them his hands and his feet. And while they 41 yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any food?
And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of a honeycomb: and he took it, 42 43 and did eat before them.

And he said unto them, These are the words which I spoke unto you, while I was 44 yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which are written in the Law of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalms, concerning me. Then opened he their un- 45 derstanding, that they might understand the Scriptures, and said unto them, Thus it 46 is written, and thus it behoved the Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day: and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name 47 among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. And ye are witnesses of these things: 48 and, behold, I will send the gift promised by my Father upon you: but tarry ye in 49 the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high.

AND he led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed 50 them. And while he was blessing them, he was parted from them, and carried up 51 into the heavens. And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great 52 joy: and were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. 53

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

J O H N.

IN the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was 1 God: the same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life; and the life 4 was the light of men: and the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness compre- 5 hended it not.

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. The same came for a wit- 6 7 ness, to bear testimony of the Light, that all men through him might believe. He 8 was not that Light, but was sent to bear testimony of that Light: the true Light 9 was he who, coming into the world, enlighteneth every man. He was in the world, 10 and the world was made by him, yet the world knew him not. He came unto his 11 own land, and his own people received him not. But to as many as received him, to 12 them gave he right to become children of God, even to those who believe in his name: who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of 13 man, but of God. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we 14 beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. And of his fulness we have all received, grace upon grace: for the Law was 16 17 given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. No one hath seen God 18 at any time; the only begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

John bore testimony of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I said, He 15 who cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me.

AND this is the testimony of John, when the Jews sent Priests and Levites from 19
Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou? And he confessed, and denied not; but con- 20 fessed, I am not the Christ. And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elijah? 21
And he saith, I am not. Art thou the prophet? And he answered, No. Then 22 said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to those who sent us. What sayest thou of thyself? He said, I am the voice of one crying in the 23 wilderness, Make straight the way of the LORD, as said the prophet Isaiah. And 24

- 25 those who were sent were of the Pharisees: and they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not the Christ, nor Elijah, neither the prophet? 26 John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth one among 27 you, whom ye know not; he it is, who is coming after me, but is preferred before 28 me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose. These things were done in Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.
- 29 The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of 30 God, who taketh away the sin of the world! This is he of whom I said, After me 31 cometh a man who is preferred before me: for he was before me. And I knew him not: but to the end that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come 32 baptizing with water. And John bore testimony, saying, I saw the Spirit descending 33 from the heavens like a dove, and it abode upon him. And I should not have known him: but he who sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom 34 thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he who baptizeth with the Holy Spirit. And I saw, and bore testimony that this is the Son of God.
- 35 36 The next day John was standing there with two of his disciples; and looking upon 37 Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God! And the two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus.
- 38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where 39 dwellest thou? He saith unto them, Come and see. They went and saw where he 40 dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour. One of the two who heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. 41 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the 42 Messiah, (which is, being interpreted, the Christ.) And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, (which is by interpretation, A stone.)
- 43 The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith 44 unto him, Follow me. Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. 45 Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Moses 46 in the Law, and the Prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph. And Nathanael said unto him, Can any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith 47 unto him, Come and see. Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, 48 Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile! Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before Philip called thee, 49 when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee. Nathanael answered and saith unto 50 him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel. Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest 51 thou? thou shalt see greater things than these. And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see the heavens open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.
- 2 AND on the third day there was a marriage feast in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there: and both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the 3 marriage feast. And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, 4 They have no wine. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what hast thou to do with me? 5 mine hour is not yet come. His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he 6 saith unto you, do it. Now there were six vessels of stone; set there for the purpose of purification, after the manner of the Jews, containing two or three baths apiece. 7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the vessels with water. And they filled them up to the 8 brim. And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the 9 feast. And they bore it. When the governor of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was; (but the servants who drew the water 10 knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom, and saith unto him, Every man setteth on good wine at the beginning; and when men have drunk freely, then 11 that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now. This beginning of his miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed in him.
- 12 After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: but they continued there not many days.
- 13 14 AND the Jews' Passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem, and found 15 sitting: and when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, both the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and JOHN III.

overthrew the tables; and said unto those who sold doves, Take these things hence; 16 make not my Father's house a house of merchandise. And his disciples remembered 17 that it was written, The zeal of thy house hath eaten me up.

Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shonest thou unto us, 18 seeing that thou doest these things? Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye shall 19 destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. Then said the Jews, 20
Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days? But he spake of the temple of his body. When therefore he was risen from 21 22 the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the Scripture, and the word which Jesus had spoken.

Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passover, many during the feast believed 23 in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did. But Jesus did not commit 24 himself unto them, because he knew all men, and needed not that any should testify 25 of man: for he knew what was in man.

THERE was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: 3 the same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.

Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man 3 be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter 4 the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water 5 and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of 6 the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I 7 said unto thee, Ye must be born again. The wind bloweth where it chooseth, and 8 thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one who is born of the Spirit.

Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be? 9

Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a teacher of Israel, and knowest not 10 these things? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that which we know, and 11 testify that which we have seen; and ye receive not our testimony. If I have told 12 you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things? And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he who came down from 13 heaven, even the Son of man, whose abode is in heaven. And as Moses lifted up the 14 serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God so loved 15 the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life: for God sent not his Son into the world 17 to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He who 18 believeth on him is not condemned: but he who believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God: and 19 this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For every one who doeth evil hateth 20 the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. But he who 21
doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

AFTER these things Jesus and his disciples came into the land of Judea; and 22
there he tarried with them, and baptized: and John also was baptizing at Aenon 23 near to Salim, because there was much water there: and the people came, and were baptized: for John was not yet cast into prison. 24

Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and a Jew about 25 purifying. And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he who was with 26 thee beyond the Jordan, to whom thou barest testimony, behold, the same baptizeth, and all resort to him.

John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from 27 heaven. Ye yourselves hear me testimony, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that 28
I am sent before him. He who hath the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of 29 the bridegroom, who standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled. He must increase, but I must 30 decrease. He who cometh from above is over all: he who is of the earth is earthly, 31 and speaketh of the earth: he who cometh from heaven is over all, and testifieth 32 what he hath seen and heard; but no man receiveth his testimony. He who hath 33 received his testimony hath set his seal to this, that God is true. For he whom God 34 hath sent speaketh the words of God : for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him. The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand. He who believeth on the Son hath everlasting life : and he who believeth not the Son shall not see life ; but the wrath of God abideth on him.

4 WHEN therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John, (though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,) he left Judea, and departed again into Galilee. And he must needs go through Samaria : and he cometh to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well : and it was about the sixth hour.

7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water : Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink. (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy food.)—Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, who am a woman of Samaria ? for the Jews have no intercourse with the Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou hadst known the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink ; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.—The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep : from whence then hast thou that living water ? Art thou greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle ?

13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again : but whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst ; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a fountain of water springing up into everlasting life.—The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

16 17 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.—The woman answered and said, I have no husband.

18 Jesus said unto her, Thou hast truly said, I have no husband : for thou hast had five husbands ; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband : thou hast spoken truly.—The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet. Our fathers worshipped in this mountain ; but ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father. Ye worship ye know not what : we know what we worship : for salvation is of the Jews : but the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth : for the Father seeketh such to worship him. God is a Spirit : and those who worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.—The woman saith unto him, I know that the Messiah cometh, who is called the Christ : when he is come, he will tell us all things.

26 27 Jesus saith unto her, I who speak unto thee am he.—And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with a woman : yet no one said, What seekest thou ? or, Why talkest thou with her ? The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men, Come, see a man, who told me all things that ever I did : is not this the Christ ? Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

31 32 In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat. But he said unto them, I have food to eat that ye know not of. Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat ? Jesus saith unto them, My food is to do the will of him who sent me, and to finish his work. Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh the harvest ? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields ; for they are white already for harvest. And he who reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life everlasting : that both he who soweth and he who reapeth may rejoice together. And herein is exemplified that true saying, One soweth, and another reapeth. I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour : others have laboured, and ye have entered into their labours.

39 And many of the Samaritans of that city believed in him for the saying of the woman, who testified, saying, He told me all that ever I did. So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them : and he abode there two days. And many more believed because of his own word ; and said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying : for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.

NOW after two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee : for Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country. Then when he came into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast : for they also went unto the feast. So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine.

And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum. When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son : for he was at the point of death. Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe. The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die. Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way ; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way. And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth. Then inquired he of them the hour when he began to amend : and they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth : and he himself believed, and his whole household. This second miracle Jesus did, when he was come out of Judea into Galilee.

AFTER this there was a feast of the Jews ; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.— Now there is in Jerusalem by the sheep gate a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda [HOUSE OF MERCY], having five porches. In these lay a great multitude of infirm people, blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water. (For an angel of the LORD went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water : whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.) And a certain man was there, who had an infirmity thirty and eight years. When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that state, he saith unto him, Wouldest thou be made whole ? The infirm man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool : but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me. Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk. And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked : now that day was the sabbath : the Jews therefore said unto him who was cured, It is the sabbath day : it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed. He answered them, He who made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk. Then asked they him, What man is that who said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk ? And he who was healed knew not who it was : for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place. Afterwards Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole : sin no more, lest a worse thing come upon thee. The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, who had made him whole. And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh until now, and now I work. Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his own Father, making himself equal with God.

Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do : for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise. For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth : and he will show him greater works than these, that ye may marvel. For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and giveth them life ; even so the Son giveth life to whom he will. For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judging unto the Son : that all may honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He who honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father who hath sent him. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He who heareth my word, and believeth on him who sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation ; but is passed from death unto life. Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God : and those who hear shall live : for as the Father hath life in himself ; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself ; and hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man. Marvel not at this : for the hour is coming, in which all who are in the graves shall hear his voice, and shall come forth ; those who have done good, unto the resurrection of life ; and those who have done evil, unto the resurrection of condemnation. I can of mine own self do nothing :

as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but 31 the will of the Father who hath sent me. If I bear testimony of myself, my testi-32 mony is not true. There is another who beareth testimony of me; and I know that the testimony which he testifieth of me is true.
 33 34 Ye sent unto John, and he bore testimony unto the truth: therefore I need not 35 testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved. He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice only in his 36 light. But I have greater testimony than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear testimony of me, that 37 the Father hath sent me. And the Father himself, who hath sent me, hath borne 38 testimony of me. Have ye not heard his voice at any time, nor seen his form? And have ye not his word abiding in you? that ye have believed not on him whom he 39 hath sent. Ye search the Scriptures; for in them ye think ye have everlasting life:
 40 and they are they which testify of me. And yet ye will not come to me, that ye 41 42 might have life. I receive not honour from men: but I know you, that ye have not 43 the love of God in you. I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if 44 another shall come in his own name, him ye would receive. How can ye believe, who receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God 45 only? Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one already who 46 accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust: for had ye believed Moses, ye would 47 have believed me: for he wrote of me: but if ye believed not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

6 AFTER these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.
 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw the miracles which he did
 3 on those who were diseased. And Jesus went up to a mountain, and there he sat
 4 5 with his disciples. And the Passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh. Then Jesus lifted up his eyes, and seeing a great company coming unto him, he saith unto 6 Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat? (And this he said to prove 7 him: for he himself knew what he would do.) Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a 8 9 little. One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, There is a lad here, who hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among 10 so many? And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in 11 the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and to 12 those who were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would. When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that 13 nothing be lost. Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained after the people had eaten.
 14 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a 15 truth that prophet who should come into the world. When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again to a mountain by himself alone.
 16 17 And when the evening was come, his disciples went down unto the sea, and entered into a vessel, and went over the sea towards Capernaum. And it was now dark, 18 and Jesus was not come to them: and the waves arose by reason of a great wind that 19 blew. So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the vessel: and they were afraid.
 20 21 But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid. Then they willingly received him into the vessel: and immediately the vessel was at the land whither they went.
 22 The day following, when the people who stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other vessel there, except that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the vessel, but that his disciples were 23 gone away alone; (however there came other vessels from Tiberias nigh unto the 24 place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks;) when the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took 25 shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus. And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?
 26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.
 27 Labour not so much for the food which perisheth, as for that food which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for God the Father 28 hath set his seal on him. Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might 29 work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe in him whom he hath sent. They said therefore unto him, What 30 sign shonest thou then, that we may see it, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them bread from 31 the heavens to eat.

Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not the 32 bread of heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread of heaven. For the 33 bread of God is that which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.
Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread. And Jesus said unto 34 35 them, I am the bread of life: he who cometh to me shall never hunger; and he who believeth on me shall never thirst. But I said unto you, Even though ye have seen 36 me, ye believe not. All whom the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him 37 who cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. For I came down from heaven, not 38 to do mine own will, but the will of him who sent me. And this is the Father's will 39 who hath sent me, that of all whom he hath given me I should lose none, but should raise up the whole again at the last day. And this is the will of him who sent me, 40 that every one who looketh to the Son, and believeth in him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

The Jews then murmured among themselves concerning him, because he said, I 41 am the bread which came down from heaven. And they said, Is not this Jesus, the 42 son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven? Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur 43 not among yourselves. No man can come to me, except the Father who hath sent 44 me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day. It is written in the Prophets, 45
And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore who hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me. Not that any man hath seen the Father, 46 except he who is of God, he hath seen the Father. Verily, verily, I say unto you, 47
He who believeth on me hath everlasting life. I am that bread of life. Your fathers 48 49 did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead: the bread which cometh down from heaven is that which, if any one eat thereof, he shall not die. I am the living bread 51 which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever:
and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

The Jews therefore debated among themselves, saying, How can this man give us 52 his flesh to eat? Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except 53 ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.
Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath everlasting life; and I will 54 raise him up at the last day: for my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink in- 55 deed. He who eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in 56 him. As the Father liveth who hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he who 57 eateth me shall live by me. This is that bread which came down from heaven: not 58 as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he who eateth of this bread shall live for ever.—These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum. 59

Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is a hard 60 saying: who can hear it? When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples mur- 61 mured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you? What then if ye shall see the 62 Son of man ascend up where he was before? It is the spirit that quickeneth; the 63 flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life. But there are some of you who believe not. (For Jesus knew from the 64 beginning who they were who believed not, and who should betray him.) And he 65 said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father. From that time many of his disciples went back, and 66 walked no more with him. Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away? 67
Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou only hast the words of 68 everlasting life. And we believe and are sure that thou art the Christ, the Son of 69 the living God. Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of 70 you is a betrayer? He spoke of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for he it was who 71 should betray him, being one of the twelve.

After these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Judea, be- 7 cause the Jews sought to kill him.

NOW the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand: his brethren therefore said unto 2 3 him, Depart hence, and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest. For no man doeth any thing in secret, if he himself seeketh to be known 4 openly. Since thou doest these things, show thyself to the world. (For neither did 5 his brethren believe in him.) Then Jesus said unto them, My time is not yet come: 6 but your time is always ready. The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, be- 7

- 8 cause I testify of it, that its works are evil. Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up 9 yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet fully come. When he had said these 10 words unto them, he abode still in Galilee. But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.
- 11 12 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he? And there was much discussion among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good 13 man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people. Howbeit no man spoke openly of him for fear of the Jews.
- 14 15 Now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught. And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?
- 16 17 Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his who sent me. If any man be willing to do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, 18 or whether I speak from myself. He who speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory:
 but he who seeketh his glory who sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteous-19 ness is in him. Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law?
 20 Why go ye about to kill me? The people answered and said, Thou hast an evil spi-
 21 rit: who goeth about to kill thee? Jesus answered and said unto them, I have done
 22 one work, and ye all marvel at it. Moses gave unto you circumcision; (not that it 23 is from Moses, but from the fathers;) and ye circumcise on the sabbath day. If then a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry with me, because I have made a man altogether 24 whole on the sabbath? Judge not according to appearance, but judge righteous judgment.
- 25 Then said some of those who dwelt in Jerusalem, Is not this he, whom they seek 26 to kill? But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing to him. Do the rulers 27 know indeed that this is the very Christ? Yet we know whence this man is: but when the Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.
- 28 Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, Do ye both know who and whence I am? yet I am not come of myself, but he who sent me is true, whom ye 29 30 know not: but I know him: for I am from him, and he hath sent me. Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet 31 come. And many of the people believed on him, and said, When the Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?
- 32 The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and 33 the Pharisees and the Chief Priests sent officers to take him. Then said Jesus, Yet 34 a little while longer am I with you, and then I go unto him who sent me. Ye shall 35 seek me, and shall not find me: and where I shall be, thither ye cannot come. Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will 36 he go unto the Jews dispersed among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? What words are these that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I shall be, thither ye cannot come?
- 37 On the last day, the great day of the feast, Jesus stood up and cried out, saying, 38 If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. He who believeth in me, as 39 the Scripture hath said, from within him shall flow rivers of living water. (But this spoke he of the Spirit, which those who believe in him should receive: for the Holy 40 Spirit was not yet come upon them; because Jesus was not yet glorified.) Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Pro-41 phet. Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, What! shall the Christ come 42 out of Galilee? Hath not the Scripture said, That the Christ cometh of the seed 43 of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, whence David was? So there was a 44 division among the people because of him: and some of them would have taken him; but no one laid hands on him.
- 45 Then came the officers back to the Chief Priests and Pharisees; and they said unto 46 them, Why have ye not brought him? The officers answered, Never man spoke 47 48 like this man. Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived? Have 49 any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him? But this people who know 50 not the law are cursed. Nicodemus (he who came to Jesus by night, being one of 51 them,) saith unto them, Doth our law judge any man, before it heareth him, and 52 knoweth what he doeth? They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Ga-53 lilee? Search, and look: that out of Galilee ariseth not the prophet. And every 8 man went unto his own house, but Jesus went unto the mount of Olives: and early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him;
 3 and he sat down, and taught them. And the Scribes and Pharisees brought unto 4 him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst, they say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. Now Moses 5 in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned : but what sayest thou ? This 6 they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground. So when they continued asking 7 him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He who is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her. And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground. 8

And those who heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by 9 one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last : and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst. When Jesus had lifted himself up, and saw no one 10 but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers ? hath no one condemned thee ? She said, No one, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither 11 do I pass sentence on thee : go, and sin no more.

Then spoke Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world : he who 12 followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. The Phari- 13 sees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest testimony of thyself ; thy testimony is not true. Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear testimony of myself, yet 14 my testimony is true : for I know whence I came, and whither I go ; but ye cannot tell whence I come, or whither I go. Ye judge after the flesh ; I judge no one. 15
And yet if I judge, my judgment is true : for I am not alone, but I and the Father 16 who sent me. It is written even in your law, that the testimony of two men is true. 17
I am one who beareth testimony of myself, and the Father who sent me beareth 18 testimony of me also. Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father ? Jesus an- 19 swered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father : if ye had known me, ye would have known my Father also.

These words he spoke in the treasury, as he taught in the temple : and no man 20 laid hands on him ; for his hour was not yet come.

Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall 21 die in your sin : whither I go, ye cannot come. Then said the Jews, Will he kill 22 himself ? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come. And he said unto them, 23
Ye are from beneath ; I am from above : ye are of this world ; I am not of this world.
I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins : for if ye believe not that I 24 am he, ye shall die in your sins. Then said they unto him, Who art thou ? And 25 Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I told you from the beginning. I have 26 many things to say and to reprove in you : but he who sent me is true ; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard from him. They understood not that 27 he spoke to them of the Father.

Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall 28 ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself ; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things : and he who sent me is with me : the Father hath 29 not left me alone ; for I do always those things that please him.

As he spoke these words, many believed on him. Then said Jesus to those Jews 30 31 who believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed ; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.—They answered 32 33 him, We are Abraham's children, and were never in bondage to any man : how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free ?

Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin 34 is the slave of sin : and the slave abideth not in the house for ever : but the Son 35 abideth there for ever. If the Son therefore make you free, ye shall be free indeed. 36
I know that ye are Abraham's children ; but ye seek to kill me, because my word 37 hath no place in you. I speak that which I have seen with my Father : and ye do 38 that which ye have seen with your father.—They answered and said unto him, Abra- 39 ham is our father.

Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham. But now ye seek to kill me, a man who hath told you the truth, which I 40 have heard from God : this did not Abraham. Ye do the deeds of your father.— 41
Then said they to him, We are not born of fornication ; we have one Father, even God.

Jesus saith unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me : for I pro- 42 ceeded forth and came from God ; neither came I of myself, but he sent me. Why 43 do ye not understand my speech ? even because ye cannot bear my word. Ye are 44 of your father the devil, and the evil deeds of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When any one speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own : for his father is a liar also. And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not. Which of you con- 45 46 victeth me of sin ? And if I speak the truth, why do ye not believe me ? He who 47

- is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of 48 God.—Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not truly that thou art a Samaritan, and hast an evil spirit?
- 49 Jesus answered, I have not an evil spirit; but I honour my Father, and ye dis-
 50 honour me. And I seek not mine own glory: there is one who seeketh and judgeth.
 51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.
 52 —Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast an evil spirit. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall 53 never taste of death. Art thou greater than our father Abraham, who is dead? and the prophets, who are dead? whom makest thou thyself?
- 54 Jesus answered, If I only honour myself, my honour is nothing: it is my Father 55 who honoureth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God: yet ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I should speak falsely 56 like you: but I know him, and keep his saying. Your father Abraham earnestly 57 desired to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad.—Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham?
- 58 Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was born, I 59 am. Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus was hidden from them, and 9 went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and passing by he saw a man who was blind from his birth. And his disciples asked him, saying, Rabbi, 3 who sinned, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind? Jesus answered, It was not because this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should 4 be made manifest in him. I must work the works of him who sent me, while it is 5 day: the night cometh, when no man can work. As long as I am in the world, I 6 am the light of the world. When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay, 7 and said unto him, Go, wash thine eyes in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation [SENT].) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came back seeing.
- 8 Then the neighbours, and those who had seen him before, (for he had been a beg-9 gar,) said, Is not this he who sat and begged? Some said, This is he: others said, 10 He is like him: but he said, I am he. Therefore said they unto him, How were 11 thine eyes opened? He answered and said, A man who is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and 12 I went and washed, and I received sight. Then said they unto him, Where is he?
 He said, I know not.
- 13 14 Then they brought to the Pharisees him who aforetime was blind. And it was the 15 sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes. Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put 16 clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and see. Wherefore said some of the Pharisees,
 This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said,
 How can a man who is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among 17 them. They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, seeing he hath 18 opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet. But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the 19 parents of him who had received his sight, and they asked them, saying, Is this your 20 son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see? His parents answered 21 them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind: but by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not:
 22 he is of age; ask him: he will speak for himself. These words spoke his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did 23 confess that Jesus was the Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue. Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.
- 24 Then again called they the man who had been blind, and said unto him, Give God 25 the praise: we know that this man is a sinner. He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, I now see.
- 26 27 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes? He answered them, I have told you already, and did ye not hear? wherefore would ye 28 hear it again? will ye also be his disciples? Then they reviled him, and said, Thou 29 art his disciple; but we are disciples of Moses. We know that God spoke unto 30 Moses: as for this fellow, we know not whence he is. The man answered and said unto them, Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not whence he is, and 31 yet he hath opened mine eyes. Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if 32 any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth. Since the world began never was it heard before that any man gave sight to one who was born blind. If this man were not from God, he could do nothing. They answered 33 34 and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out of the synagogue.

Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto 35 him, Dost thou believe in the Son of God? He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, 36 that I may believe in him? And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, 37 and it is he who talketh with thee. And he said, Lord, I believe. And he wor- 38 shipped him. And Jesus said, To suffer judgment I am come into this world, that 39 those who see not might see; and that those who see might be made blind.

And those of the Pharisees who were with him heard these words, and said unto 40 him, Are we blind also? Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye would not have 41 sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth. Verily, verily, I say 10 unto you, He who entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber: but he who entereth in by the door 2 is the shepherd of the sheep. To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hearken to 3 his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out: and when 4 he bringeth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice: and a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from 5 him: for they know not the voice of strangers.—This parable spoke Jesus unto 6 them: but they understood not what it was that he spoke unto them.

Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of 7 the sheepfold. All who ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep 8 did not hearken to them. I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be 9 saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. The thief cometh only to steal, 10 and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd layeth 11 down his life for the sheep: but he who is a hireling, and not the shepherd, whose 12 own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep. The hireling fleeth, because 13 he is a hireling, and careth not for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and know 14 my sheep, and am known by them. (Even as the Father knoweth me, so know I the 15 Father;) and I lay down my life for the sheep. And other sheep I have, which are 16 not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hearken to my voice; and there shall be one flock, and one shepherd. Therefore doth my Father love me, be- 17 cause I lay down my life, that I may take it again. No man taketh it from me, but 18 I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This promise have I received of my Father.

Then there was a division again among the Jews because of these sayings: and 19 20 many of them said, He hath an evil spirit, and is mad; why hear ye him? Others 21 said, These are not the words of him who hath an evil spirit. Can an evil spirit open the eyes of the blind?

NOW it was the feast of the dedication at Jerusalem, and it was winter. And 22 23 Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch.

Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou 24 make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly. Jesus answered them, I 25 have told you, and ye believe not: the works that I do in my Father's name, they testify of me: but ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep. As I said unto you, 26 My sheep hearken to my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: and I give 27 28 unto them everlasting life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any wrest them out of my hand. My Father, who gave them me, is greater than all; and no one 29 is able to wrest them out of my Father's hand. I and my Father are one. 30

Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him. Jesus answered them, Many 31 32 good works have I showed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me? The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; 33 but for blasphemy; and because thou, being a man, makest thyself God. Jesus 34 answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods? If he called them 35 gods, unto whom the word of God came, (and the Scripture cannot be made void;) say ye of him, whom the Father hath set apart, and sent into the world, Thou 36 blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God? If I do not the works of my 37 Father, believe me not. But if I do them, though ye believe not me, believe the 38 works: that ye may know, and believe, that the Father is in me, and I in him.

Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand, 39 and went away again beyond the Jordan into the place where John at first bap- 40 tized; and there he abode. And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no 41 42 miracle: but all things that John spoke of this man were true. And many believed on him there.

11 NOW a certain man named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha, was sick. (It was that Mary who afterwards anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.) Therefore his sisters sent unto Jesus, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4 When Jesus heard it, he said, This sickness is unto death, only for the glory of 5 God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby. (Now Jesus loved Martha, 6 and her sister, and Lazarus.) When then he heard that he was sick, he abode two 7 days still in the same place where he was: and after that he saith to his disciples, 8 Let us go into Judea again. His disciples say unto him, Rabbi, the Jews of late 9 sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again? Jesus answered, Are there not 10 twelve hours in the day? If a man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he 11 seeth the light of this world: but if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because 12 there is no light in it. These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our 13 friend Lazarus hath fallen asleep; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

14 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well. (Now Jesus spoke of his 15 death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.) Then said 16 Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead: and I am glad for your sakes that I was 17 not there, in order that ye may believe; but let us go unto him. Then said Thomas, (who is called Didymus,) unto his fellow disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

18 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already. 19 Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off: and many of the 20 Jews had come to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother. 21 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but 22 Mary remained in the house. Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst 23 been here, my brother had not died. But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou 24 wilt ask of God, God will give it thee. Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise 25 again. Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection 26 at the last day. Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he who 27 believeth in me, though he die, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth 28 in me shall never die. Believest thou this? She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I be- 29 lieve that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, who should come into the world.

30 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, 31 saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee. As soon as she heard that, she 32 arose quickly, and came unto him. (Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but 33 was in that place where Martha met him.) The Jews then who were with her in the 34 house, and comforted her, when they saw that Mary rose up hastily and went out, 35 followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there. Then when Mary 36 was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, 37 Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. When Jesus therefore saw 38 her weeping, and the Jews also weeping who came with her, he groaned in spirit, 39 and was troubled, and said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, 40 he is dead. Jesus wept. Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him! And 41 some of them said, Could not this man, who opened the eyes of the blind, have 42 caused that even this man should not have died? Jesus therefore again groaning in 43 himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it. Jesus said, 44 Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him who was dead, saith unto him, 45 Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been buried four days. Jesus saith unto 46 her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory 47 of God? Then they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, 48 Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me. I knew indeed that thou hearest me 49 always: but because of the people who stand by I said it, that they may believe that 50 thou hast sent me. And when he had thus spoken, he cried with a loud voice, 51 Lazarus, come forth! And he who had been dead came forth, bound hand and foot 52 with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto 53 them, Loose him, and let him go.

54 Then many of the Jews who came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus 55 did, believed in him: but some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told 56 them what things Jesus had done.

57 Then gathered the Chief Priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, What shall 58 we do? for this man doeth many miracles. If we let him thus alone, all men will 59 believe on him: and the Romans will come and take away both our place and nation. And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the High Priest that year, said unto 49 them, Ye know nothing at all, nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man 50 should die for the people, and not that the whole nation should perish. (And this 51 spoke he not of himself: but being High Priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for the nation; and not for that nation only, but that also he should 52 gather together in one the children of God who were scattered abroad.)

Then from that day forth they took counsel together to put him to death. Jesus 53 54 therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

AND the Passover of the Jews was nigh at hand: and many went out of the coun- 55 try up to Jerusalem before the Passover, to purify themselves. Then sought they 56 for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, Do ye think that he will come up to the feast? Now both the Chief Priests and the Pharisees 57 had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should show it, that they might take him.

THEN Jesus, six days before the Passover, came to Bethany, where Lazarus was 12 who had been dead, whom he raised from the dead. There they made him a supper; and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with him.

Then took Mary a pound of very costly ointment of spikenard, and anointed the 3 feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment. Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, (Simon's son,) 4 who afterwards betrayed him, Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred 5 pence, and given to the poor? (This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but 6 because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bore what was put therein.) Then said 7 Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my embalming hath she kept this. For 8 the poor ye have always with you; but me ye have not always.

Now many of the Jews knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake 9 only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead. But the Chief Priests determined to put Lazarus also to death; because by reason of 10 11 him many of the Jews went away, and believed in Jesus.

On the next day a great multitude who had come to the feast, when they heard 12 that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, took branches of palm trees, and went forth to 13 meet him, and cried, Hosanna! Blessed be the King of Israel who cometh in the name of the LORD! And Jesus, having procured a young ass, sat thereon; as it is 14 written, Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's 15 colt. These things understood not his disciples at first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had 16 done these things unto him.

The people therefore who were with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, 17 and raised him from the dead, bore testimony. For this cause the people also met 18 him, because they heard that he had done this miracle. The Pharisees therefore 19 said among themselves, Ye see that ye prevail nothing: behold, the world is gone after him.

And there were certain Greeks among those who came up to worship at the feast: 20 the same came therefore to Philip, who was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and besought 21 him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus. Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and 22 again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus: and Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ex- 23 cept a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it remaineth a single grain: but 24 if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit. He who loveth his life shall lose it; and he 25 who regardeth not his life in this world shall keep it unto life everlasting. If any 26 one would serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: 27 no! for this cause came I unto this hour. Father, glorify thy name. Then came 28 there a voice from the heavens, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again. The people therefore, who stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: 29 others said, An angel spoke to him. Jesus answered and said, This voice came not 30 on my account, but for your sakes. Now is the judgment of this world: now shall 31 the prince of this world be cast out. And I, when I shall be lifted up from the earth, 32 will draw all men unto me. (This he said, signifying what death he should die.) 33

The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that the Christ abideth 34 for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son

35 of man? Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while longer will the light be with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he who walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth. While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spoke Jesus, and departed, and privately withdrew himself from them.

37 But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not in him: so that the saying of Isaiah the prophet was fulfilled, which he spoke, LORD, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the LORD been revealed? Therefore they would not believe, because, as Isaiah said again, Their eyes are blinded, and their hearts hardened; that they could not see with their eyes, nor understand with their hearts, and be converted, and I should heal them. These things said Isaiah, when he saw his glory, and spoke of him. Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed in him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: for they loved the approbation of men more than the approbation of God.

44 Jesus cried out and said, He who believeth on me, believeth not on me only, but on him who sent me. And he who seeth me seeth him who sent me. I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth in me should not abide in darkness. And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I condemn him not: for I came not to condemn the world, but to save the world. He who rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath that which condemneth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall condemn him in the last day. For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father who sent me, he gave me in commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak: and I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

13 NOW before the feast of the Passover, Jesus knowing that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, continued to show his love for them unto the end. And while they were at supper, (the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him,) Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God; riseth from supper, and layeth aside his upper garments; and taking a towel, girded it around him. After that he poureth water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet? Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter. Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. Jesus saith to him, He who hath been washed needeth not to wash but his feet, but is altogether clean: and ye are clean, but not all of you: for he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his upper garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you? Ye call me Master, and Lord: and ye say truly; for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet: for I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you. Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he who is sent greater than he who sent him. Since ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them. I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the Scripture may be fulfilled, He who eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me. Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He who receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he who receiveth me receiveth him who sent me.

21 When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you will betray me. Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spoke. Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved. Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spoke. He then lying on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it? Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. And after he had taken the sop Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, What thou doest, do quickly. Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spoke this unto him: for some thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor. He then having received the sop immediately went out: and it was night.

When he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him. If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and will immediately glorify him. My dear children, but a little while longer I shall be with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you. A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but thou shalt follow me afterwards. Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake. Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast disowned me thrice.

LET not your heart be troubled: as ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And although I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no one cometh unto the Father, but by me. If ye have known me, ye have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

Philip saith unto him, Lord, show us the Father, and it sufficeth us. Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long a time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he who hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Show us the Father? Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not from myself: but the Father who dwelleth in me, he doeth the works. Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me on account of the works themselves. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He who believeth in me, the works that I do shall he do also; and even greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father: and whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

If ye love me, keep my commandments: and I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; even the Spirit of truth: whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye shall know him; for he shall dwell with you, and shall be in you. I will not leave you orphans: I will come to you. Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more: but ye shall see me: because I live, ye shall live also. At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you. He who hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is who loveth me: and he who loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

Judas (not Iscariot) saith unto him, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world? Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. He who loveth me not, keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's who sent me.

These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you. But the Comforter, who is the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you. Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I. And now I have told you this before it cometh to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe.

Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, but hath no power over me. But that the world may know that I love the Father; and that as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do.—Arise, let us go hence.

I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. Every branch that beareth not fruit in me he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he pruneth it, that it may bring forth more fruit. Now ye are clean through the word which I have

- 4 spoken unto you. Abide in me, and I will abide in you : as the branch cannot bear
 5 fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine ; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. I
 6 am the vine, ye are the branches : He who abideth in me, and I in him, the same 6 bringeth forth much fruit : for without me ye can do nothing. If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and withereth ; and men gather them, and cast them
 7 into the fire, and they are burnt. If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you,
 8 ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done for you. Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit ; so shall ye prove yourselves to be my disciples.
- 9 10 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you : abide ye in my love. If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love ; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.
- 11 These things have I spoken unto you, that I may continue to have joy in you, 12 and that your joy might be complete. This is my commandment, That ye love one 13 another, as I have loved you. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay 14 down his life for his friends. Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.
- 15 Henceforth I call you not servants ; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth :
 but I have addressed you as friends ; for all things that I have heard of my Father 16 I have made known unto you. Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and appointed you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain : so that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it 17 you. These things I command you, that ye love one another.
- 18 19 If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you. If ye were of the world, the world would love its own : but because ye are not of the world, but 20 I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you : if they have kept my words, they will 21 keep yours also : but all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, be-
 22 cause they know not him who sent me. If I had not come and spoken unto you, ye 23 would have had no sin : but now they have no excuse for their sin. He who hateth 24 me hateth my Father also. If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin : but now have they seen them, and yet hated 25 both me and my Father. But this cometh to pass, so that the word may be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause.
- 26 But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even 27 the Spirit of truth, who proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me : and ye also shall bear testimony, because ye have been with me from the beginning.
- 16 These things have I spoken unto you, that your faith should not be shaken. They shall put you out of the synagogues : yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth 3 you will think that he doeth God service. And these things will they do unto you, 4 because they have not known the Father, nor me. But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And 5 these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you : but now
 I go my way to him who sent me ; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou ?
 6 But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your hearts.
- 7 Nevertheless, (I tell you the truth,) it is expedient for you that I go away : for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you ; but if I depart, I will send 8 him unto you. And when he is come, he will convict the world of sin, and of 9 righteousness, and of judgment : of sin, because they believe not on me ; of right-11 eousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more ; of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged.
- 12 13 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now : but when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all the truth : for he shall not speak from himself ; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak : and he 14 will show you the things about to come to pass. He shall glorify me : for he shall 15 receive of mine, and shall show it unto you. All things that the Father hath are mine :
 16 therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall show it unto you. A little while, and ye shall not behold me : and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father.
- 17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not behold me : and again, a little while, and ye shall 18 see me : and, Because I go to the Father ? They said therefore, What is this that he 19 saith, A little while ? we cannot tell what he saith. Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to question him, and said unto them, Do ye inquire among yourselves of what I said, A little while, and ye shall not behold me : and again, a little while, and ye shall see me? Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye will weep and lament, but 20 the world will rejoice: and ye will be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: 21 but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she no longer remembereth the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world. And ye now therefore have sorrow: but 22

I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy shall no man take from you; and in that day ye shall not question me concerning any thing. Verily, 23 verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give you. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that 24 your joy may be complete.

These things have I spoken unto you in parables: but the time cometh when I 25 shall no more speak unto you in parables, but I shall show you plainly of the Father.
At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the 26
Father for you: for the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and 27 have believed that I came out from God. I came forth from the Father, and am 28 come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no 29 parable. Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and speakest so plainly 30 that no one need question thee: by this we believe that thou earnest forth from God.
Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe? Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now 31 32 come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone:
and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. These things I have spoken 33 unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation:
but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

These words spoke Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the 17 hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee: as thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give everlasting life to all that thou hast given him. And this is life everlasting, that they may know thee the only 3 true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. I have glorified thee on the 4 earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do. And now, O Father, 5 glorify thou me with thyself with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

I have manifested thy name unto those whom thou gavest me out of the world: 6 thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word. Now 7 they know that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee; for I have 8 given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me. I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for those whom thou 9 hast given me; for they are thine: and all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and 10
I am glorified in them. And now I shall be no longer in the world, but these will 11 be in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep in thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are. While I was with them 12 in the world, I kept them in thy name: those whom thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the Scripture might be fulfilled. And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that their 13 joy in me may be complete.

I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are 14 not of the world, even as I am not of the world. I pray not that thou shouldest 15 take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil one.
They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world: sanctify them by the 16 17 truth: thy word is truth. As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also 18 sent them into the world: and for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might 19 be sanctified through the truth.

And I pray not for these alone, but for those also who shall believe on me through 20 their word; that they all may be one; that as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, 21 they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me, and 22 that I have given them the glory which thou hast given me; that they may be one, even as we are one: I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in 23 one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.

Father, I desire that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I 24 am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world. O righteous Father, the world hath not known 25 thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me. And 26

I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it : that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.

WHEN Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into which he entered, and his disciples : and Judas also, who betrayed him, knew the place : for Jesus oftentimes resorted thither with his disciples. Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the Chief Priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.

Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye ? They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. (Now Judas also, who betrayed him, stood with them.) As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backwards, and fell to the ground. Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye ? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he : if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way : that the saying might be fulfilled, which he spoke, Of those whom thou gavest me have I lost none.

Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the High Priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. (The servant's name was Malchus.) Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up the sword into the sheath : the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it ?

Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him, and led him away to Annas first ; for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was the High Priest that same year : and Annas sent him bound to Caiaphas. (Now Caiaphas was he who gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.)

And Simon Peter and the other disciple followed Jesus. Now that disciple being known unto the High Priest, went in with Jesus into the palace of the High Priest. But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, who was known unto the High Priest, and spoke unto her who kept the door, and brought in Peter. Then saith the maidservant who kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples ? He saith, I am not. And the servants and officers stood near a fire which they had made ; for it was cold : and they warmed themselves : and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

The High Priest then asked Jesus concerning his disciples, and his doctrine. Jesus answered him, I spoke openly to the world ; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort ; and in secret have I said nothing : why askest thou me ? ask those who heard me, what I have said unto them : behold, they know what I said. And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers who stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the High Priest so ? Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear testimony of the evil : but if well, why smitest thou me ?

And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples ? He denied it, and said, I am not. One of the servants of the High Priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him ? Peter then denied it again : and immediately the cock crew.

THEN led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment : and it was early ; but they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled, and prevented from eating the Passover. Pilate therefore went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man ? They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee. Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death : (that the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spoke, signifying what death he should die.)

Then Pilate went back again into the judgment hall, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews ? Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me ? Pilate answered, Am I a Jew ? Thine own nation and the Chief Priests have delivered thee unto me : what hast thou done ? Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world ; if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews : but now is my kingdom not from hence. Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then ? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear testimony unto the truth. Every one who is of the truth heareth my voice. Pilate saith unto him, What is truth ?

And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault: but ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one 39 prisoner at the Passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews? Then all cried out, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was 40 a robber.

Then Pilate thereupon took Jesus, and scourged him. And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe, and 19 said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands. Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him. Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown 5 of thorns, and the purple robe, and saith unto them, Behold the man! When the 6 Chief Priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him! Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him. The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, 7 because he made himself the Son of God.

When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid; and went again 8 9 into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer. Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou 10 not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee? Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee 11 from above: therefore he who delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.

And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou release this man, thou art not Cæsar's friend: whosoever maketh himself 12 a king speaketh against Cæsar. When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought 13 Jesus forth, and sat down on the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha. (And it was the preparation day of the Pass- 14 over, and about the third hour:) and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King! But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him! Pilate saith unto 15 them, Shall I crucify your King? The Chief Priests answered, We have no king 16 but Cæsar. Then delivered he him up unto them to be crucified.

And they took Jesus, and led him away: and he, bearing his cross, went forth into 17 a place called The place of skulls, which is called in the Hebrew, Golgotha; where 18 they crucified him, and two others with him, on each side one, and Jesus in the midst.

And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS 19 OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS. This title then read many of 20 the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin. Then said the Chief Priests of the Jews 21 to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews. Pilate answered, What I have written, I have written. 22

Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made 23 four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. They said therefore among themselves, Let us not 24 rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the 25 wife of Cleophas, and Mary the Magdalene. When Jesus therefore saw his mother, 26 and the disciple whom he loved standing by, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son! Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that 27 hour that disciple took her unto his own home.

After this, (Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the Scrip- 28 ture might be fulfilled,) saith, I thirst. Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: 29 and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth. When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed 30 his head, and gave up his spirit.

The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation day, that the bodies should not 31 remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was a high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. Then came the soldiers, and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who was 32 crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, 33 they broke not his legs: but one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and 34 forthwith there came out blood and water.

And he who saw it bore this testimony, and his testimony is true: and he knoweth 35 that he saith what is true, that ye might believe. For these things were done, that 36

37 the Scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken. And again another Scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.
 38 AND after this Joseph of Arimathæa, (being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews,) besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and 39 Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus. And there came also Nicodemus, (who at the first came to Jesus by night,) and brought a 40 mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pound weight. Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of 41 the Jews is to embalm. Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid. There
 42 laid they Jesus therefore, because of the Jews' preparation day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

20 THE first day of the week cometh Mary the Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth that the stone had been taken away from the
 2 sepulchre. Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the 3 sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him. Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre: and so they ran both together:
 5 and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre: and he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in.
 6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and he went into the sepulchre, and seeth
 7 the linen clothes lying; and the napkin, that had been about his head, not lying
 8 with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself. Then that other disciple, who came first to the sepulchre, went in also, and he saw, and believed.
 9 10 For as yet they knew not the Scripture, that he must rise again from the dead. Then the disciples went away again unto their brethren.

11 But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped 12 down, and looked into the sepulchre, and seeth two angels in white garments sitting,
 13 the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they 14 have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him. And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, but knew not 15 that it was Jesus. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have 16 borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away. Jesus saith unto her, Mary! She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni! (which 17 is in the Hebrew tongue, Master!) Jesus saith unto her, Detain me not; for I have not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend 18 unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God. Mary the Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

19 Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, Jesus came where the disciples were assembled, (the doors being shut, for fear of the Jews,) and stood
 20 in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you! and when he had so said, he showed them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw 21 the Lord. Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and 22 saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Spirit: whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them: and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

24 But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus 25 came. The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto 27 you! Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not incredulous, 28 but believing. And Thomas answered and said unto him, My LORD and my God.
 29 Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are those who have not seen, and yet have believed.

30 And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are 31 not written in this book: but these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

AFTER these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples at the sea of 21
Tiberias; and in this manner showed he himself. There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples. Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fish- 3
ing. They say unto him, We also will go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a vessel immediately; and that night they caught nothing.

But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the dis- 4 ciples knew not that it was Jesus. Then Jesus saith unto them, My children, have 5 ye any food? They answered him, No. And he said unto them, Cast the net on 6 the right side of the vessel, and ye shall find some. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes. Therefore that disciple 7 whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt on his fisher's coat, (for he was stripped,) and did cast 8 himself into the sea. And the other disciples came in a little vessel; (for they 8 were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes. As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and 9 fish laid thereon, and bread. Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye 10 have now caught. Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, 11 a hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet the net was not broken.

Jesus saith unto them, Come and cat. And none of the disciples ventured to ask 12 him. Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord. Jesus then cometh, and taketh 13 bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise. (This is now the third time that Jesus 14 showed himself to his disciples, after he had risen from the dead.)

So when they had eaten, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest 15 thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love 16 thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs. He saith to him again the second time, 16 Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep. He saith unto him the third 17 time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all 18 things: thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep. Verrily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and 18
walkedst whither thou wouldst: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldst not.
This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when he had 19 spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

Then Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved, following; (who 20 also leaned on his breast at the supper, and said, Lord, which is he who betrayeth thee?) Peter seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall become of this man? 21
Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? follow 22 thou me. Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple 23 should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

THIS is the disciple who testifieth of these things, and wrote these things: and 24
we know that his testimony is true. And there are also many other things which 25
Jesus did, which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not receive the books that should be written.

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES.

THE former narrative I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus both did and taught, 1 until the day on which he was taken up, after he, through the Holy Spirit, had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen: to whom also he 3 showed himself alive after his sufferings by many infallible proofs, being seen of them

THE ACTS II.

- 4 forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God. And, assembling them together, he commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but should wait for the gift promised by the Father, which, saith he, ye have 5 heard of me. For John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days hence.
- 6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt 7 thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel? And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath reserved at 8 his own disposal. But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Spirit is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.
- 9 And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and 10 a cloud received him out of their sight. And while they looked steadfastly towards 11 the heavens as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel; who also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up towards the heavens? this same 12 Jesus, who is taken up from you into the heavens, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go towards the heavens.
- 12 Then they returned unto Jerusalem from the mountain called the mount of Olives, 13 which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey. And when they were come into the city, they went up into an upper room, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son 14 of Alphæus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James. These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.
- 15 AND in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the 16 number of the names together being about a hundred and twenty,) Men and brethren, this Scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit by the 17 mouth of David spoke before concerning Judas, who was guide to those who took 18 Jesus. For he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry. Now a field was purchased with the reward of his iniquity; and he falling headlong, burst
19 asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out. And it was known to all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Acel-
20 dama, that is to say, The field of blood. For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and his office let 21 another take. Wherefore of these men who have accompanied us all the time that 22 the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, who began from the baptism of John, unto the day that he was taken up from us, must one be appointed to be a witness with us of his resurrection.
- 23 And they set apart two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and 24 Matthias: and they prayed, saying, Thou, LORD, who knowest the hearts of all
25 men, show which of these two thou hast chosen, that he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go 26 to his own place. And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.
- 2 AND when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from the heavens as of a rushing 3 mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting: and there appeared
4 unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.
- 5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation un-
6 der the heavens. Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because every man heard them speak in his own language.
7 And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these who speak Galileans? And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein 8 we were born? Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopota-
9 mia, and in Judea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia, Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and 11 proselytes, Cretes and Arabians, we hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful 12 works of God. And they were all amazed, and perplexed, saying one to another, 13 What meaneth this? Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.
- 14 But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judea, and all ye who dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and

THE ACTS III.

hearken to my words: for these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the 15 third hour of the day. But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel; And 16 17 in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams: and on my servants and on my handmaidens I 18 will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy: and I will show 19 wonders in the heavens above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke: the sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, 20 before that great and notable day of the LORD come: and whosoever shall call on 21 the name of the LORD shall be saved.

Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God 22
among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know: him, being taken, who by the predeterminate 23 counsel and foreknowledge of God was given to you, by the hands of the wicked ye have crucified and slain: whom God hath raised up, having loosed the bands of 24 death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it. For David speak- 25 eth concerning him, I have regarded the LORD as always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved: therefore did my heart rejoice, and 26 my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope: because thou wilt 27 not leave my soul in the grave, neither wilt thou suffer thy Holy One to see corruption. Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of 28 joy with thy countenance.

Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, that he 29 is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day: but being a 30 prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne; he seeing this before spoke 31 of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul should not be left in the grave, neither should his flesh see corruption. This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are 32 witnesses. Therefore being exalted to the right hand of God, and having received 33 of the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear. For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, 34
Jehovah said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, until I make thy foes 35 thy footstool. Let all the house of Israel therefore assuredly know, that God hath 36 made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both LORD and Christ.

Now when they heard this, they were pierced to the heart, and said unto Peter 37 and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?

Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you for the 38 name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all who 39 are afar off, even as many as the LORD our God shall call. And with many other 40 words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this perverse generation.

Then those who gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there 41 were added unto them about three thousand souls. And they continued steadfastly 42 in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.
And fear came upon every one: and many wonders and signs were done by the apos- 43 tles. And all who believed were together, and had all things common; and sold 44 45 their possessions and goods, and parted them among all men, as every one had need.
And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from 46 house to house, did eat their food with gladness and singleness of heart, praising 47 God, and having favour with all the people. And the LORD added to the church daily such as were saved.

NOW Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, 3 being the ninth hour. And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried thither, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of those who entered into the temple; who seeing Peter and John about to 3 go into the temple asked alms. And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, 4 said, Look on us. And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something 5 from them. Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give 6
I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk. And Peter took 7 him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ancle bones received strength. And leaping up he stood, and walked, and entered with them 8 into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God. And all the people saw 9 him walking and praising God: and they knew that it was he who sat for alms at 10

the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And as the lame man who was healed detained Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.
 12 And when Peter saw it, he said to the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man walk? The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and disowned in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go. But ye disowned the Holy and the Just One, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you; and killed the Author of life, whom God hath raised from the dead: whose witnesses we are. And through faith in his name hath he made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, his name and the faith which is in him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 And now, brethren, I know that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers. But God hath thus fulfilled those things which he had before declared by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer. Repent ye therefore, and return to him, that your sins may be blotted out, and that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the LORD; and that he may send Jesus Christ, who was before appointed for you: whom heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of his holy prophets since the world began.

22 For Moses truly said unto the fathers, A Prophet shall the LORD your God raise up unto you of your brethren, as he raised up me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you. And every soul who will not hear that Prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people. Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel and those who follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days. Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him unto you to bless you, first by turning away every one from his iniquities.

4 And as Peter and John spoke unto the people, the Priests, and the captain of the temple guard, and the Sadducees, came upon them, being grieved that they taught the people, and preached that through Jesus is the resurrection from the dead. And they laid hands on them, and put them in prison until the next day: for it was now eventide. Nevertheless many of those who heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.

5 6 And on the morrow, their rulers, and elders, and Scribes, and Annas the High Priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the High Priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem. And when they had set the apostles in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name, have ye done this? Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel, if we this day be examined of the good deed done to the infirm man, by whom he is made whole; be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, but whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole. This is the stone which was set at nought by you builders, but which is become the head of the corner: nor is there salvation in any other: for there is no other name under the heavens given among men, whereby we can be saved.

13 Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and obscure men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. And beholding the man who was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all those who dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it. But that it spread no further among the people, let us strictly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name. And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.

19 But Peter and John answered, and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you rather than unto God, judge ye. For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard. So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no means of punishing them, because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done. For the man was 22 above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was showed.

And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief 23 priests and elders had said unto them. And when they heard that, they lifted up 24 their voice to God with one accord, and said, LORD, thou art God, who hast made the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and all that in them is: who by the mouth 25 of thy servant David hast said, Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things? The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together 26 against the LORD, and against his Christ. For of a truth both Herod and Pontius 27 Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were gathered together, against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, to do whatsoever thy hand and thy 28 counsel had before determined to be done. And now, LORD, behold their threat- 29 enings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word, by stretching forth thy hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by 30 the name of thy holy child Jesus.

And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled to- 31 gether; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness.

AND the multitude of those who believed were of one heart and of one soul: nei- 32 ther said any of them that aught of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common. And with great power the apostles gave testimony 33 concerning the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all.
Neither was there any among them who lacked: for as many as were possessors of 34 lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, and 35 laid them down at the apostles' feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

Now Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being inter- 36 preted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus, having land, 37 sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet. But a certain man 5 named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, and kept back part of the price, (his wife also being privy to it,) and brought a certain part, and laid it at 6 the apostles' feet. But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thy heart to lie to 3 the Holy Spirit, and to keep back part of the price of the land? While it remained, 4 was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thy heart? thou hast not lied unto men only, but unto 5
God. And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and expired: and great fear 5 came on all who heard these things. And the young men arose, wound him up, and 6 carried him out, and buried him.

And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what 7 was done, came in. And Peter said unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land 8 for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much. Then Peter said unto her, How is 9 it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the LORD? behold, the feet 10 of those who have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out. Then she immediately fell down at his feet, and expired: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband. And great fear 11 came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among 12
the people; insomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid 15 them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them. There came also a multitude out of the cities round 16 about to Jerusalem, bringing sick people, and those who were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were every one healed. And they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch. And of the rest durst no man join himself to them; but the people 13 magnified them: and believers were the more added to the LORD, multitudes both 14 of men and women.

Then the High Priest rose up, and all who were with him, (being of the sect of 17 the Sadducees,) and were filled with indignation, and laid their hands on the apos- 18 tles, and put them in the common prison. But the angel of the LORD by night open- 19
ed the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, Go, stand and speak in the 20 temple to the people all the words of this life. And when they heard that, they en- 21 tered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the High Priest came, and those who were with him, and called the council together, and all the 22 senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing 24 before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within. Now when the High Priest and the captain of the temple and the Chief Priests heard these 25 things, they doubted concerning them what this would come to. Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for 27 they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned. And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the High Priest asked them, 28 saying, Did not we strictly command you that ye should not teach in this name?
 and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.

29 Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God
 30 rather than men. The God of our fathers hath raised up Jesus, whom ye slew, 31 hanging him on a tree. Him hath God exalted to his right hand a Prince and a 32 Saviour, to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Spirit, whom God hath given to those who obey him.

33 When they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.
 34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, held in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles 35 out for a little while; and said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves 36 what ye intend to do as touching these men. For not long ago rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, 37 and brought to nought. After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the enrolling, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as 38 many as obeyed him, were dispersed. And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone; lest perhaps ye be found even to fight against God: for if 39 this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought: but if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it.

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.
 41 And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted 42 worthy to suffer shame for his name. And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach that Jesus was the Christ.

6 AND in those days, when the number of the disciples had multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neg-2 lected in the daily distribution. Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reasonable that we should leave the word of God, and 3 serve tables. Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business:
 4 but we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.
 5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, 6 and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch: whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.

7 And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests became obedient to the faith.
 8 AND Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the 9 people. Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Freedmen, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of those of Cilicia and of 10 Asia, disputing with Stephen: but they were not able to resist the wisdom and the 11 spirit by which he spoke. Then they suborned men, who said, We have heard him 12 speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God. And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the Scribes, and came upon him, and seized him, and 13 brought him to the council, and set up false witnesses, who said, This man ceaseth 14 not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law: for we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change 15 the customs which Moses delivered us. And all who sat in the council, looking steadfastly on him, saw his face as if it had been the face of an angel.

7 Then said the High Priest, Are these things so? And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken! The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when 3 he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Haran, and said unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall show thee. Then came he out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Haran: and from 4 thence, when his father was dead, God removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell: but he gave him no inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: 5 yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child. And God spoke on this wise, That his seed should 6 sojourn in a strange land; and that they should be brought into bondage, and be oppressed four hundred years. But the nation to whom they shall be in bondage 7 will I punish, said God: and after that, shall they come forth, and serve me in this place. And God gave Abraham the covenant of circumcision: and he begat Isaac, 8 and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs.

And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with 9 him, and delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in 10 the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his household. Now there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, 11 and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance. But when Jacob heard 12 that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers the first time. And at the second time Joseph made himself known to his brethren; and Joseph's kindred were 13 made known unto Pharaoh. Then sent Joseph, and fetched his father Jacob to him, 14 and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls. So Jacob went down into Egypt, 15 and died, he, and our fathers, and were carried over into Sychem, and laid by the 16 sons of Hamor the father of Sychem, in the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money.

But when the time of the promise, which God had sworn to Abraham, drew nigh, 17 the people had grown and multiplied in Egypt, till another king arose, who knew 18 not Joseph. The same dealt subtly with our kindred, and afflicted our fathers, and 19 caused their young children to be cast out, that they might not live.

At which time Moses was born, and was exceedingly beautiful, and nourished up 20 in his father's house three months: and when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter 21 took him up, and nourished him for her own son. And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in his words and in deeds. And when he 22 was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel: and seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him who 24 was oppressed, and slew the Egyptian: and he supposed his brethren would have 25 understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not. And the next day he showed himself unto two of them as they strove, and would 26 have reconciled them, saying, Ye are brethren: why do ye wrong one to another? But he who did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a 27 ruler and a judge over us? wilt thou kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian yester- 28 day? Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Midian, 29 where he begat two sons.

And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of 30 mount Sinai an angel of the LORD in a flame of fire in a bush: and when Moses 31 saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the LORD came unto him, saying, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, 32 and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not look up. Then said the LORD to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the 33 place where thou standest is holy ground. I have seen, I have seen the affliction of 34 my people who are in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt.

This Moses whom they had rejected, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? 35 the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush. He brought them out, after showing wonders and 36 signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red Sea, and in the wilderness forty years. This is that Moses, who said unto the children of Israel, A Prophet shall the LORD 37 your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear. This 38 is he, who was in the church in the wilderness with the angel who spoke to him in the mount Sinai, and with our fathers: who received the lively oracles to give unto us: whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts 39 turned back again into Egypt, saying unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: 40 for as for this Moses, who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we know not what is become of him. And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the 41 idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands. Then God turned, and gave 42 them up to worship the host of the heavens; as it is written in the book of the Prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices during 43 forty years in the wilderness? Yea, ye raised up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, images which ye made to worship: therefore I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of testimony in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion
 45 that he had seen: which tabernacle also our fathers having received brought in with Joshua into the possession of the Gentiles, whom God drove out before the 46 face of our fathers; unto the days of David, who found favour before God, and 47 desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob: but Solomon built him a house. Nevertheless the Most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the 48 prophet, Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build 49 me? saith the LORD: or what is the place of my rest? Hath not my hand made 50 all these things?

51 Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the 52 Holy Spirit: as your fathers did, so do ye. Which of the prophets did not your fathers persecute? and they slew those who showed before of the coming of the 53 Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers: ye who have received the law by the ministration of angels, but kept it not.

54 When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed
 55 on him with their teeth. But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked up steadfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand
 56 of God, and said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing
 57 on the right hand of God. Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped 58 their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, and cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose 59 name was Saul. And they stoned Stephen while he prayed, saying, Lord Jesus, 60 receive my spirit! And he kneeled down, and cried out with a loud voice, LORD,
 8 lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep. And Saul was consenting unto his death.

And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea
 2 and Samaria, except the apostles. And devout men carried off Stephen, and made
 3 great lamentation over him. But Saul made havoc of the church, entering into every house, and dragging forth men and women, he committed them to prison.

4 Therefore those who were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word.
 5 THEN Philip went down to a city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them:
 6 and the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spoke,
 7 hearing and seeing the miracles which he did: for unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many who were possessed with them: and many taken with 8 palsies, and who were lame, were healed. And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, called Simon, who beforetime in the same city used sorcery, and astonished the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some 10 great one: to whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This 11 man is the great power of God. And to him they had regard, because that of long 12 time he had astonished them with sorceries. But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, 13 they were baptized, both men and women. Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done.

14 Now when the apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received
 15 the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John: who, when they were come 16 down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit: (for as yet he had not fallen upon any of them: only they had been baptized into the name of the 17 Lord Jesus.) Then the apostles laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostle's hands the Holy 19 Spirit was given, he offered them money, saying, Give me also this power, that on 20 whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit. But Peter said unto him, 21 Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be 22 purchased with money. Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy 23 heart is not right in the sight of God. Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thy heart may be forgiven thee: for I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity. Then answered 24 Simon, and said, Pray ye to the LORD for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the LORD, set out 25 on their return to Jerusalem, and preached the Gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

AND the angel of the LORD spoke unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go towards the 26 south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, (which is the way through the desert.) And he arose and went: and, behold, a man of Ethiopia, a 27 eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem to worship, was returning, 28 and sitting in his chariot read Isaiah the prophet. Then the Spirit said unto Philip, 29 Go near, and join thyself to that chariot. And Philip ran thither to him, and heard 30 him read the prophet Isaiah, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest? And 31 he said, How can I, except some one should guide me? And he besought Philip to come up and sit with him. The place of the Scripture which he was reading was 32 this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and as a lamb is dumb before her shearers, so he opened not his mouth. He was taken away from affliction and from 33 judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth. And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the pro- 34 phet this? of himself, or of some other man? Then Philip opened his mouth, and 35 began at the same Scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.

And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch 36 said, See, here is water; what doth hinder my being baptized? And Philip said, If 37 thou believest with all thy heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. And he commanded the chariot to stand still: 38 and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the LORD 39 caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing. But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached in all 40 the cities, till he came to Cæsarea.

AND Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of 9 the LORD, went unto the High Priest, and desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that, if he found any of that way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. And as he journeyed, he came near Da- 3 mascus: and suddenly there shone round about him a light from the heavens: and 4 he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? And he said, Who art thou, LORD? And the LORD said, I am Jesus 5 whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks. And he trem- 6 bling and astonished said, LORD, what wilt thou have me to do? And the LORD said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must 7 do. And the men who journeyed with him were speechless, hearing the voice, but 8 seeing no man. And Saul arose from the earth; and though his eyes were opened, 9 he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus: and he was three days without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and the LORD 10 said to him in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, LORD. And the 11 LORD said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth, and hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on 12 him, that he might receive his sight. Then Ananias answered, LORD, I have heard 13 by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem: and 14 here he hath authority from the Chief Priests to bind all who call on thy name. But 15 the LORD said unto him, Go: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to hear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel: for I will show him how 16 great things he must suffer for my name's sake.

And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on 17 him said, Brother Saul, the LORD, even Jesus, who appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Spirit. And immediately there fell from his eyes as it were scales: and 18 he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized: and when he had received 19 food, he was strengthened.

Then was Saul some days with the disciples who were at Damascus: and imme- 20 diately he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he was the Son of God. But 21

all who heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this he who destroyed those who called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might 22 bring them bound unto the Chief Priests? But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews who dwelt at Damascus, proving that this was the very 23 Christ. And after that many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him :
 24 but their laying in wait was known to Saul. And they watched the gates day and 25 night to kill him. Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples :
 27 but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple. But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared to them how he had seen the LORD in the way, and that he had spoken to him ; and how he had preached 28 boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus. And he was with them coming in and 29 going out at Jerusalem. And he spoke boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and 30 disputed against the Grecians : but they went about to slay him. Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cæsarea, and sent him on to Tarsus.—
 31 Then had the churches rest throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria, being edified, and walking in the fear of the LORD ; and were replenished with the comfort of the Holy Spirit.

32 AND as Peter passed throughout all parts, he came also to the saints who dwelt at 33 Lydda : and there he found a certain man named Æneas, who had kept his bed
 34 eight years, and was sick of the palsy. And Peter said unto him, Æneas, Jesus Christ
 35 maketh thee whole : arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately. And all who dwelt at Lydda and Saron, and turned to the LORD, saw him.

36 Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, (which by interpretation 37 is called Dorcas :) this woman was full of good works and of alms which she did. And in those days she was sick, and died : and when they had washed her, they laid her 38 in an upper chamber. And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.

39 Then Peter arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber : and all the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas made in great number, while she was with them.
 40 But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed ; and turning him to the body said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes : and when she saw Peter, she 41 sat up : and he gave her his hand, and helped her to rise, and when he had called the 42 saints and widows, he presented her alive. And it was known throughout all Joppa ;
 43 and many believed in the LORD. And Peter tarried many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.

10 THERE was a certain man in Cæsarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band, a devout man, and one who feared God with all his house,
 3 who gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God always. He saw in a vision evidently, about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming in to him, and
 4 saying unto him, Cornelius ! And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, LORD ? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up
 5 for a memorial of thee before God. And now send men to Joppa, and call for one
 6 Simon, whose surname is Peter : he lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is 7 by the sea side : he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do. And when the angel who spoke unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and 8 a devout soldier of those who waited on him continually ; and when he had told them all these things, he sent them to Joppa.

9 On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter
 10 went up upon the housetop to pray about the sixth hour : and he became very hungry, and would have eaten : but while they made ready, he fell into a trance, and saw the heavens opened, and something descending to him, like a great sheet bound
 12 together at the four corners, and let down to the earth : wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and birds of the 13 14 air. And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter ; kill, and eat. But Peter said, 15 Not so, LORD ; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean. And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call 16 not thou common. This was done thrice : and the sheet was taken up again into the heavens.

17 Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen could mean, behold, the men who were sent from Cornelius had made inquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate, and they called, and asked whether Simon, who was 18 surnamed Peter, were lodged there. While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit 19 said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee. Arise therefore, and get thee down, 20 and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them. Then Peter went down 21 to the men, and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause for which ye are come? And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one who feareth 22

 God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by a holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee. Then Peter 23 called them in, and lodged them.

And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa 24 accompanied him: and on the morrow after, they entered into Cæsarea. And Cornelius was waiting for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends. 25
 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him. But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man. 26
 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many assembled together.

And he said unto them, Ye know that it is an unlawful thing for a man who is a 27 Jew to keep company, or come near to one of another nation; but God hath showed me that I should not call any man common or unclean. Therefore came I unto you 29 without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me? And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; 30 and at the ninth hour I was praying in my house, and, behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, and said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are 31 had in remembrance in the sight of God. Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither 32
 Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner by the sea side: who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee. Immediately there- 33 fore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no re- 34 specter of persons: but in every nation he who feareth him, and worketh righteous- 35 ness, is accepted by him. Ye know the word which God sent unto the children of 36
 Israel, preaching peace through Jesus Christ: (he is LORD of all:) even that word 37 which was published throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee, after the haptism which John preached; concerning Jesus of Nazareth, how God anointed him 38 with the Holy Spirit and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all who were oppressed by the devil; for God was with him. And we are witnesses of 39 all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew by hanging him on a tree: him God raised up the third day, and showed him 40 openly, (not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, 41 who did eat and drink with him,) after he rose from the dead. And he commanded 42 us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he who was ordained of God to be the Judge of the living and the dead. To him bear all the prophets testimony, 43 that whosoever believeth in him shall through his name receive remission of sins.

While Peter was yet speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all those who 44 heard the word. And they of the circumcision who believed, as many as came with 45 Peter, were astonished, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Spirit: for they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then 46 said Peter, Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, who have 47 received the Holy Spirit as well as we? And he commanded them to be baptized 48 into the name of the LORD. Then prayed they him to tarry there some days.

AND the apostles and brethren who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had 11 also received the word of God. And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, those who were of the circumcision contended with him, saying, Thou wentest in to men 3 uncircumcised, and didst eat with them. But Peter rehearsed the matter from the 4 beginning, and related it by order unto them, saying,

I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw in a vision something 5 descend, like a great sheet, let down from the heavens by four corners; and it came even to me: upon which when I had fastened mine eyes, I saw fourfooted beasts of 6 the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and birds of the air: and I heard 7 a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter; slay, and eat. But I said, not so, LORD: for 8 nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth. But the voice 9 answered me again from the heavens, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common. And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into the 10 heavens. And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the 11

- 12 house where I was, sent from Cæsarea unto me. And the spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house : and he told us how he had seen an angel in his house, who stood and said unto him, Send to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter ; who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.
- 15 And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, as on us at the beginning.
- 16 Then remembered I the word of the LORD, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water ; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit. Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us also, when we believed on the Lord Jesus Christ ; what was I, that I could withstand God ? When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, God then hath also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life.
- 19 NOW those who were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phenicia, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only. And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they were come to Antioch, spoke unto the Grecians, preaching the Gospel of the Lord Jesus. And the hand of the LORD was with them : and a great number believed, and turned unto the LORD. Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem : and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch : who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the LORD. For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith : and much people was added unto the LORD.
- 25 26 Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus, to seek Saul : and when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. And during a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.
- 27 28 And in these days came down prophets from Jerusalem to Antioch. And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the land : which came to pass in the days of Claudius.
- 29 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren who dwelt in Judea : which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.
- 12 NOW about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to persecute certain of the church. And he killed James the brother of John with the sword : and because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.) And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four parties of soldiers each to keep him ; intending after the Passover to bring him forth to the people. Peter therefore was kept in prison : but earnest prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.
- 6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains : and the keepers before the door kept the prison. And, behold, the angel of the LORD came upon him, and a light shone in the prison : and the angel smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands. And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me. And Peter went out, and followed him ; and knew not that it was true which was done by the angel ; but thought he saw a vision. When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth into the city ; which opened to them of its own accord : and they went out, and passed on through one street ; and forthwith the angel departed from him. Then Peter coming to himself, said, Now I know of a surety, that the LORD hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.
- 12 And when he had considered the thing, he went to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark ; where many were gathered together praying.
- 13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel named Rhoda went to hearken. And knowing Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told them that Peter was standing before the gate. And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she steadily affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his angel. But Peter continued knocking : and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished. But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the LORD had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go tell these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, as to what had become of Peter. And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judea to Cæsarea, and there abode.

And Herod was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and (having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend) desired peace: because their country was supported by the king's country. And upon a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them. And the people shouted, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man. And immediately the angel of the LORD smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and died.

But the word of God grew and multiplied. And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministry, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

NOW there were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simeon who was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. As they ministered to the LORD, and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, Separate now for me Barnabas and Saul for the work unto which I have called them. And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

So they, being sent forth by the Holy Spirit, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus. And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John as their attendant. And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-jesus: who was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God. But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith. Then Saul, (who also is called Paul,) filled with the Holy Spirit, set his eyes on him, and said, O full of all subtlety and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the LORD? And now, behold, the hand of the LORD is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand. Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the LORD.

Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departing from them returned to Jerusalem.

BUT they departing from Perga, came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down. And after the reading of the Law and the Prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand, said, Men of Israel, and ye who fear God, hearken. The God of this people chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with a high arm brought he them out of it. And for about the time of forty years he bore with their manners in the wilderness. And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he divided their land to them by lot. And after that, in about four hundred and fifty years, he gave them judges, until Samuel the prophet. And afterwards they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, during forty years. And when he had removed him, he raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after mine own heart, who shall perform all my will. Of this man's seed hath God according to his promise raised unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus: John having first preached before his coming, the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But, behold, there cometh one after me, the shoes of whose feet I am not worthy to unloose. Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent. For those who dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, have in condemning him fulfilled the words of the prophets which are read every sabbath day: and though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should

29 be slain : and when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him 30 down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre. But God raised him from the 31 dead : and he was seen many days of those who came up with him from Galilee to 32 Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people. And we declare unto you glad 33 tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers, God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, by raising up Jesus again ; as it is also written in 34 the second Psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee. And concerning God's raising him up from the dead, no more to return to corruption, he saith, I 35 will give you the sure mercies of David. Wherefore he saith also in another Psalm, 36 Thou shalt not suffer thy Holy One to see corruption. For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell asleep, and was gathered to his 37 fathers, and saw corruption : but he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.
 38 Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is 39 preached unto you the forgiveness of sins : and by him all who believe are justified
 40 from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. Beware 41 therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the prophets ; Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish : for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

42 And as they were going out of the synagogue of the Jews, the people besought 43 that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath. Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul 44 and Barnabas : who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God. And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the 45 word of God. But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spoke against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blas-46 pheming. Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you : but seeing ye put it from you, and adjudge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles.
 47 For so hath the LORD commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light to the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the 49 LORD : and as many as were ordained to everlasting life believed : and the word of 50 the LORD was published throughout all the region. But the Jews stirred up the devout honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution 51 against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts. But they shook 52 off the dust of their feet against them, and went to Iconium. And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the Holy Spirit.

14 AND in Iconium Paul and Barnabas went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spoke, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the 2 Greeks believed : but the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made 3 their minds evil affected against the brethren. Long time therefore abode they there speaking boldly in the LORD, who gave testimony unto the word of his grace, 4 and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands. But the multitude of the 5 city was divided : and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles : and when there was an attempt made both by the Gentiles, and also by the Jews with their 6 rulers, to use them spitefully, and to stone them, they considered of it, and fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about :
 7 and there they preached the Gospel.

8 And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, a cripple from his 9 mother's womb, and never had walked : the same heard Paul speak : who steadfastly 10 beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed, said with a loud voice, I say unto thee in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, Stand upright on thy feet. And 11 he leaped and walked. And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in 12 the likeness of men. And they called Barnabas, Jupiter ; and Paul, Mercury, 13 because he was the chief speaker. Then the priests of Jupiter's temple, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and with the people 14 would have offered sacrifices to them. Which when the apostles, Barnabas and 15 Paul, heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out, and saying, Sirs, why do ye these things ? We also are men of like passions with yourselves, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, who made the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and all things that are there-16 17 in : who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways. Nevertheless he left not himself without testimony, in that he did good, and gave you rain from the heavens, and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with food and gladness.—And 18 with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not offered sacrifices unto them.

And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded 19 the people, and, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead. Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came 20 into the city.

AND the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe: and when they had 21 preached the Gospel to that city, and had made many disciples, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch, confirming the souls of the disciples, and 22 exhorting them to continue in the faith, saying that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God. And when they had ordained them elders in 23 every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the LORD, on whom they believed. And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to 24 Pamphylia: and when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia: and thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to 25 the grace of God for the work which they had performed. 26

And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed 27 all that God had done by them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles: and they abode a long time with the disciples. 28

AND certain men who came down from Judea taught the brethren, and said, Ex- 15 cept ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved. When there- fore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question. And being brought on 3 their way by the church, they passed through Phenicia and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren. And 4 when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received by the church, and by the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done by them. But 5 there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees who believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise the Gentiles, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.

And the apostles and elders came together to consider of this matter. And when 6 7 there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God who is among us made choice, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the Gospel, and believe. And 8 God, who knoweth the hearts, bore testimony on their behalf, giving them the Holy Spirit, even as he did unto us; and made no difference between us and them, puri- 9 fying their hearts by faith. Now therefore why tempt ye God, by putting a yoke 10 upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, 11 in like manner as they.

Then all the multitude kept silence, and hearkened to Barnabas and Paul, as they 12 declared what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them.

And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, 13 hearken unto me: Simon Peter hath declared how God first visited the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name. And to this agree the words of the pro- 14 phets: as it is written, After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will 15 set it up: that men, even the Gentiles who are called by my name, may seek after 16 the LORD, saith JEHOVAH, who doeth all these things; which were known unto 17 him from the beginning of the world. Wherefore my judgment is, that we trouble 18 not those, who from among the Gentiles are turned to God: but that we write unto 19 them, that they abstain from polluted offerings to idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood. For from old time Moses hath in every city 20 those who preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day. 21

Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, having chosen men 22 from among themselves to send to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren: and they wrote letters by them 23 after this manner:—The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren who are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia: forasmuch as 24 we have heard, that certain persons who went out from us have troubled you with words, unsettling your minds, by saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the 25 law: to whom we gave no such commandment: it seemed good to us, being assem- bled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and

- 26 Paul, men who have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.
 27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who will also tell you the same things by 28 mouth : for it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay upon you no greater 29 burden than these necessary things ; that ye abstain from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication : from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.
- 30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch : and when they had gathered 31 the multitude together, they delivered the epistle : which when they had read, they 32 rejoiced for the consolation. And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, 33 exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them. And after they had laboured there for a time, they were let go in peace from the brethren unto the apos-34 35 tles. Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still. Paul and Barnabas also continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the LORD, with many others also.
- 36 AND some days after Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the LORD, and see how 37 they are. And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was 38 Mark. But Paul thought it not good to take him with them, who had departed 39 from them in Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work. And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder from each other : and so 40 Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus ; and Paul chose Silas, and departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.
- 16 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the churches. Then came Paul to Derbe and Lystra : and, behold, a disciple was there, named Timothy, (the son 2 of a woman, who was a Jewess, and a believer ; but his father was a Greek :) who 3 was well reported of by the brethren who were at Lystra and Iconium. Him would Paul have to go forth with him ; and he took and circumcised him because of the 4 Jews who were in those quarters : for they all knew that his father was a Greek. And as they went through the cities, they delivered to them, for their observance, the ordinances that had been appointed by the apostles and elders who were at Jerusalem.
 5 And so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.
- 6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia and the region of Galatia, and 7 (being forbidden by the Holy Spirit to preach the word in Asia,) after they came to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia : but the Spirit of Jesus suffered them not.
- 8 9 So passing by Mysia they came to Troas. And a vision appeared to Paul in the night ; There stood a man of Macedonia, who besought him, saying, Come over into 10 Macedonia, and help us. And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go to Philippi, a city of Macedonia, being assured that the LORD had called us to preach the Gospel unto them.
- 11 Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and 12 the next day to Neapolis ; and from thence to Philippi, which is a chief city of that 13 part of Macedonia, and a colony. And we abode in that city some days. And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made ; 14 and we sat down, and spoke unto the women who resorted thither. And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, who worshipped God, heard us : whose heart the LORD opened, that she attended unto the things which 15 were spoken by Paul. And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the LORD, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.
- 16 And as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination 17 met us, who brought her masters much gain by soothsaying : the same followed Paul and us, and cried out, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, 18 who show unto us the way of salvation. And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And it came out the same hour.
- 19 And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught 20 Paul and Silas, and drew them into the marketplace, unto the rulers, and having brought them to the magistrates, they said, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly 21 trouble our city, and teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither 22 to observe, being Romans. And the multitude rose up together against them : and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded them to be beaten with rods.
 23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging 24 the jailor to keep them safely : who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.

And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God : and the prisoners heard them : and suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken : and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one's hands were loosed. And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had fled. But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm : for we are all here. Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, and brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved ? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy household. And they spoke unto him the word of the LORD, and to all who were in his house. And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes ; and was immediately baptized, he, and all his. And when he had brought them into his house, he set food before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his household.

And when it was day, the magistrates sent the officers, saying, Let those men go. And the keeper of the prison told Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go : now therefore depart, and go in peace. But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Romans, and have cast us into prison ; and now do they thrust us out privately ? nay verily ; but let them come themselves and fetch us out. And the officers told these words unto the magistrates : and they feared, when they heard that they were Romans. And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city. And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia : and when they had seen the brethren, they exhorted them, and departed.

NOW when Paul and Silas had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews : and Paul, as his custom was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the Scriptures, explaining them, and showing that the Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead ; and that this Jesus, whom (said he) I preach unto you, is the Christ. And some of them believed, and associated with Paul and Silas ; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

But the Jews who believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain wicked men of the baser sort, and gathered a crowd, and set all the city in an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring out Paul and Silas to the people : but when they found them not, they dragged Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying out, These men who have turned the world upside down are come hither also ; whom Jason hath received : and all these do contrary to the decrees of Cæsar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus. And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things. And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the others, they let them go.

And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea : who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews. Now these Bereans were more noble-minded than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, searching the Scriptures daily, whether those things were so. Wherefore many of them believed ; also of honourable women and men, who were Greeks, not a few. But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached by Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people. Wherefore the brethren immediately sent away Paul towards the sea : but Silas and Timothy abode there still. And those who conducted Paul brought him unto Athens : and having received a commandment unto Silas and Timothy to come to him with all speed, they departed.

Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry. Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with those who met with him. Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoics, encountered him : and some said, What will this babbler say ? and others, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods : because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection and a future state. And they took him, and brought him to the court of the Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is ? For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears : we would know therefore what these things mean. (For all the Athenians and the strangers who were there spent their time in nothing else, but either in telling or hearing some new thing.)

- 22 Then Paul stood up in the midst of the court of the Areopagus, and said, Ye men 23 of Athens, I perceive that ye are too superstitious. For as I passed by, and beheld the objects of your worship, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UN-KNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.
 24 God who made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is LORD of the 25 heavens and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; neither is ministered unto with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, 26 and breath, and all things; and hath made of one blood all nations of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and 27 the bounds of their habitations; that they should seek the LORD, if haply they 28 might feel after him, and find him, though he is not far from every one of us: for by him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have 29 said, For we his offspring are. Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by 30 art and man's device. And the times of this ignorance God overlooked; but now 31 commandeth all men every where to repent: because he hath appointed a day, in which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath appointed; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, by raising him from the dead.
- 32 And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others
 33 said, We will hear thee again of this matter. So Paul departed from among them.
 34 But certain men clave unto him, and believed: among whom was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.
- 18 AFTER these things Paul departed from Athens, and went to Corinth; and found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; (because Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome:) and 3 came unto them. And because he was of the same trade, he abode with them, and 4 wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers. And he reasoned in the 5 synagogue every sabbath, and strove to persuade both Jews and Greeks. And when Silas and Timothy were come from Macedonia, Paul was constrained by the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ.
- 6 And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean of it: from hence-7 forth I will go unto the Gentiles. And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one who worshipped God, whose house joined close 8 to the synagogue. And Crispus, a chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the LORD with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were 9 baptized. Then spake the LORD to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid,
 10 but speak, and hold not thy peace: for I am with thee, and no man shall lay hands 11 on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city. And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.
- 12 And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one 13 accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat, saying, This fellow per-14 suadeth men to worship God contrary to the law. And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong, or a 15 wicked deed, O ye Jews, it would be reasonable that I should bear with you: but since it is a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will 16 be no judge of such matters. And he drove them from the judgment seat. Then all 17 the Greeks took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gallio cared for none of those things.
- 18 AND Paul, after this, tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having 19 shorn his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow. And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the 20 Jews: and though they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented 21 not; but bade them farewell, saying, I must by all means keep the approaching feast in Jerusalem: but I will return again unto you, if God will. And he sailed from 22 Ephesus: and after he had landed at Cæsarea, and gone up, and saluted the church, 23 he went down to Antioch. And having laboured some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples.
- 24 AND a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and 25 mighty in the Scriptures, came to Ephesus. This man was instructed in the way of the LORD; and being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught diligently the things of 26 the LORD, though he knew only the baptism of John. And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly. And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, helped those much who had believed through grace: for he mightily confuted the Jews, and that publicly, showing by the Scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

AND while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples there, he said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Spirit since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether the Holy Spirit be yet given. And he said unto them, Into what then were ye baptized? And they said, Into John's baptism. Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him who should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus. When they heard this, they were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came on them; and they spoke with different tongues, and prophesied. And in all, the men were about twelve.

And he went into the synagogue, and spoke boldly for about three months, reasoning and persuading concerning the kingdom of God. But when some were hardened, and believed not, but spoke evil of the way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, discoursing daily in the school of one Tyrannus. And this continued during two years; so that all those who dwell in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks. And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul: so that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

Then certain of the Jewish exorcists, who went about from place to place, took upon them to call the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth. And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the Priests, who did so. And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I acknowledge, and Paul I know; but who are ye? And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks dwelling at Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. And many who believed came, and confessed, declaring their deeds. Many of them also who used curious arts brought their books together, and burnt them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver. So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.

AFTER these things were ended, Paul firmly purposed in spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome. So he sent into Macedonia two of those who ministered unto him, Timothy and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

And the same time there arose no small stir about the way. For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen; whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this employment we have our wealth. Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they are no gods, which are made with hands: so that not only this our employment is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshippeth.

And when they heard this, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians. And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre. And when Paul would have gone in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not. And certain of the chief of Asia, who were his friends, sent unto him, entreating him not to adventure himself into the theatre. Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the greater part knew not wherefore they were come together. And they drew Alexander out of the crowd, the Jews putting him forwards. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people. But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the town clerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there who knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a wor-36 shipper of the great Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter? Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do 37 nothing rashly. For ye have brought hither these men, who are neither robbers of 38 temples, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess. Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen who are with him, have a complaint against any man, the law is open, and 39 there are deputies: let them accuse one another. But if ye inquire any thing con-40 cerning other matters, it shall be determined in the regular assembly. For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause in 41 reference to which we shall be able to give an account of this concourse. And when 20 he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly. And after the uproar had ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed to go into 2 Macedonia. And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much 3 exhortation, he came into Greece, and having laboured there three months, he resolved to return through Macedonia, the Jews having laid wait for him, as he was 4 about to sail into Syria. And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius and Timothy of 5 Derbe; and of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus. These going before tarried for us 6 at Troas. And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five days; where we abode seven days.
 7 And on the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread,
 Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his dis-8 course until midnight. And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where 9 they were gathered together. And there sat at an open window a certain young man named Eutychus, who had fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell from the third loft, and was taken up for dead.
 10 And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him said, Trouble not your-
 11 selves; for his life is in him. And when he had come up again, and had broken 12 bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, he departed. And they brought in the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.
 13 And we went forwards to the ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take 14 in Paul: for so he had appointed, intending himself to go by land. And when he 15 met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene. And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and 16 tarried at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus: for Paul had determined to sail past Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he hastened, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost.
 17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called together the elders of the 18 church. And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons, 19 serving the LORD with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and trials, which 20 befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews: and that I have kept back nothing that was profitable, but have declared it to you, and have taught you both publicly, and 21 from house to house, testifying both to the Jews and Greeks repentance towards God, 22 and faith towards our Lord Jesus Christ. And now, behold, I go bound in spirit 23 unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there: except that the 24 Holy Spirit testifieth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions await me. But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I may finish my course with joy, and the ministry which I have received of the Lord Je-25 sus, by testifying the Gospel of the grace of God. And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face 26 no more. Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am clear from the blood 27 28 of all. For I have not shunned to declare unto you the whole counsel of God. Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over which the Holy Spirit hath made you overseers, to feed the church of the LORD God, which he hath purchased 29 with his own blood. For I know this, that after my departing grievous wolves will 30 enter in among you, not sparing the flock. Also from among your own selves men 31 will arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them. Therefore watch, and remember, that during three years I ceased not to warn every one night 32 and day with tears. And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, who is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among 33 all those who are sanctified. I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.
 34 Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to those who were with me. I have shown you in all things, that by so labouring ye 35 ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, who said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all. And 36 37 they all wept sorely, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, sorrowing most of all 38 for the words which he had spoken, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

And after we had parted from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course 21 to Coos, and the day following to Rhodes, and from thence to Patara: and finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set sail. And when we discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed to Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden. And having found out the disciples, 4 we tarried there seven days: who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem. And when we had completed those days, we departed and 5 went our way; and they all, with their wives and children, brought us on our way, till we were out of the city: and we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed. And 6 when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned home again.

And we, finishing our voyage, went from Tyre to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day. And the next day we departed, and came to 7 Cæsarea; and entering into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven deacons, we abode with him. And the same man had four daughters, virgins, 9 who prophesied. And as we tarried there several days, there came down from Judea 10 a certain prophet, named Agabus. And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's 11 girdle, and binding his own hands and feet, said, Thus saith the Holy Spirit, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man who owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles. And when we heard these things, both we, and they 12 of that place, besought Paul not to go up to Jerusalem. Then Paul answered, What 13 mean ye weeping and breaking my heart? for I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. And when he would not 14 be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the LORD be done!

And after those days we put up our baggage, and went up to Jerusalem. There 15 16 went with us also certain of the disciples of Cæsarea, and brought us to one Mnason a Cyprian, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

AND when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly. And the 17 18 day following Paul went in with us unto James; and all the elders were present: and when he had saluted them, he related particularly what things God had wrought 19 among the Gentiles by his ministry. And when they heard it, they glorified the 20 LORD, and said unto Paul,

Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are who believe; and they are all zealous for the law: and they have been informed concerning thee, that thou 21 teachest all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs. What 22 is to be done therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come. Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men who 23 have a vow on them; them take, and purify thyself with them, and bear the charges 24 for them. that they may shave their heads: and so all will know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law. But concerning the Gentiles who believe, 25 we have already written and concluded that they observe no such thing, only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from all kinds of impurity.

Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered 26 into the temple, announcing the period of the days of purification, and that an offering would be offered for every one of them.

And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews who were of Asia, when 27 they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him, crying out, Men of Israel, help: this is the man, who teacheth all men every where against this people, and the law, and this place: and further hath brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place. (For they had before seen with him 29 in the city Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.) And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and seizing 30 hold of Paul, they drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.

And as they were about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the 31

32 band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar; who immediately took soldiers and centu-33 rions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left off beating Paul. Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and com-34 manded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done. And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be car-35 ried into the castle. And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne 36 by the soldiers on account of the violence of the people: for the multitude of the people followed, crying out, Away with him!

37 And as Paul was about to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, 38 May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek? Art thou not then that Egyptian, who before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness 39 four thousand men who were murderers? But Paul said, I am a Jew of Tarsus, in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the 40 people. And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with his hand to the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spoke unto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

22 Men, brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence which I now make unto you. (And when they heard that he spoke in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the greater 3 silence: and he saith,) I am verily a Jew, born in Tarsus, in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city, and taught at the feet of Gamaliel, according to the perfect manner of 4 the law of our fathers, and was as zealous towards God as ye all are this day. And I persecuted this way unto death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and 5 women; as also even the High Priest and the whole body of the elders can bear testimony: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, 6 to bring those who were there bound unto Jerusalem, to be punished. And as I was on my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there 7 shone from the heavens a great light round about me: and I fell to the ground, 8 and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? And I answered, Who art thou, LORD? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, 9 whom thou persecutest. And those who were with me saw indeed the light, and 10 were afraid; but they understood not the voice of him who spoke to me. And I said, What shall I do, LORD? And the LORD said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee 11 to do. And as I could not see for the glory of that light, I was led by the hand of 12 those who were with me, and came into Damascus. And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good report among all the Jews who dwelt 13 there, came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight.
 14 And the same hour I looked upon him. And he said, The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldst know his will, and see that Just One, and hear 15 the voice of his mouth: for thou shalt be his witness unto all men of what thou hast
 16 seen and heard. And now why delayest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash 17 away thy sins, calling on the name of the LORD. And when I was come again to 18 Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance; and beheld him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not 19 receive thy testimony concerning me. And I said, LORD, they know that I im-20 prisoned and beat in every synagogue those who believed on thee: and when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by consenting, and kept the 21 raiment of those who slew him. And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.

22 And they gave audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, 23 Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live. And 24 as they cried out, and threw up their clothes, and threw dust into the air, the chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried out 25 so against him. And as they were binding him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion who stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman, 26 and uncondemned? When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief 27 captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman. Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.
 28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And 29 Paul said, But I was born free. Then immediately those who should have examined him departed: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

On the morrow, desiring to know for a certainty why he was accused of the Jews, 30 he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the Chief Priests and all the council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

Then Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, I have lived 23 in all good conscience before God until this day. And the High Priest Ananias commanded those who stood by him to smite him on the mouth. Then said Paul 3 unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me according to the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law? And 4 those who stood by said, Revilest thou God's High Priest? Then said Paul, I knew 5 not, brethren, that he was the High Priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Phari- 6 sees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: concerning the hope of the resurrection and future state of the dead I am now judged. And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pha- 7 risees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided. For the Sadducees say 8 that there is no resurrection or future state, nor angel, nor spirit: but the Phari- sees confess both. And there arose a great cry: and the Scribes who were of the 9 Pharisees' party arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: but it may be that a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him; let us not fight against God. And 10 when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.—And the night follow- 11 ing the LORD stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul! for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear testimony also at Rome.

And when it was day, certain of the Jews combined together, and bound them- 12 selves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. And they were more than forty who had entered into this conspiracy. And 13 14 they went to the Chief Priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul. Now therefore ye 15 with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you, as though ye would inquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, before he can come near, will be ready to kill him.

And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered 16 into the castle, and told Paul. Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, 17 and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him. So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul 18 the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee. Then the chief captain took him by the 19 hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is it that thou hast to tell me? And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest 20 bring down Paul to-morrow into the council, as though they would inquire some- what of him more perfectly. But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait 21 for him more than forty men, who have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee. So the chief captain let the young man depart, and 22 charged him, Tell no man that thou hast showed these things to me.

And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers, 23 and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, to go to Cæsarea, at the third hour of the night; and let them provide beasts, that they may set Paul on, 24 and bring him safe unto Felix the governor.—And he wrote a letter after this man- 25 ner: Claudius Lysias unto the most noble governor Felix sendeth greeting. This 26 27 man was taken of the Jews, and would have been killed by them: but I came with a band of soldiers, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman. And 28 when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council: and found him to be accused about questions of their law, 29 but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds. And when it 30 was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent him immediately to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by 31 night to Antipatris; and on the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, (and 32 returned to the castle:) who, when they came to Cæsarea, and delivered the epistle 33 to the governor, presented Paul also before him. And when the governor had read 34 the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was 35 of Cilicia; I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's judgment hall.

24 AND after five days Ananias the High Priest came down to Cæsarea, with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who appeared before the governor 2 against Paul. And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that through thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are 3 done unto this nation through thy prudent administration, we acknowledge it always,
 4 and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness. But, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee of thy clemency that thou wouldest hear us a few 5 words. For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Naza-6 renes: who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would 7 have judged according to our law; but the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and 8 with great violence took him away out of our hands, commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest obtain knowledge of all 9 these things, whereof we accuse him.—And the Jews also assented, saying, That these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Knowing that thou hast been for many years a judge unto this nation, I do the 11 more cheerfully answer for myself: because it is in my power to show, that there are 12 yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem to worship; and they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in 13 the synagogues, nor in the city: neither can they prove the things whereof they 14 now accuse me. But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written 15 in the Law and in the Prophets: and have hope towards God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection and future state of the dead, both of 16 the just and unjust. And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience
 17 void of offence towards God and men. Now after many years I came to bring alms
 18 to my nation, and to make offerings. Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found 19 me purified in the temple, but not with any multitude, nor with tumult. Who ought to have been here before thee to accuse me, if they had any charge against me:
 20 or else let these who are here say, if they found any evil in me, when I stood before 21 the council, except it be for this one declaration, which I made standing among them, Touching the resurrection and future state of the dead I am judged by you this day.

22 And when Felix heard these things, desiring to have more perfect knowledge of the way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, 23 I will judge of the matters between you. And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, but to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

24 And after some days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, (who was a Jewess,) 25 he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ. And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will send for 26 thee. At the same time he hoped also that money would have been given him by Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed 27 with him. But after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix's room: and Felix, willing to show the Jews a favour, left Paul bound.

25 NOW when Festus was come into the province, after three days he went up from Cæsarea to Jerusalem. Then the High Priest and the chief of the Jews informed 3 him against Paul, and besought him, and desired as a favour, that he would send 4 for him to Jerusalem, intending to lie in wait in the way to kill him. But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cæsarea, and that he himself would depart 5 shortly thither. Let those therefore, said he, who among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Cæsarea; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be 7 brought before him. And when he was come, the Jews who came down from Jerusalem, stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, 8 which they could not prove; while he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor yet against Cæsar, have I offended any 9 thing at all. But Festus, willing to do the Jews a favour, answered Paul, and said,

Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me? Then said Paul, I stand at Cæsar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to 10 the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou thyself very well knowest. For if I be an 11 offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be nothing in these matters whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me up unto them. I appeal unto Cæsar. Then Festus, when he had conferred with 12 the council, answered, Thou hast appealed unto Cæsar; unto Cæsar shalt thou go.

And after certain days king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Casarea to salute 13 Festus. And when they had been there many days, Festus made known Paul's cause 14 unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix: about whom, 15 when I was at Jerusalem, the Chief Priests and the elders of the Jews appeared before me, desiring to have judgment against him. To whom I answered, It is not the 16 manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he who is accused have the accusers face to face, and have an opportunity to answer for himself concerning the crime laid to his charge. Therefore, when they were come hither, without any 17 delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought before me: against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought no ac- 18 cusation of such things as I expected: but had certain questions against him of their 19 own religion, and of one Jesus, who had died, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. And 20 because I doubted how to determine such questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters. But as Paul had appealed 21 to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cæsar.—Then Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the 22 man myself. To-morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and 23 had entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth. Then Festus said, King 24 Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have applied to me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying out that he ought not to live any longer. But when I found that he had 25 committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself had appealed to Augustus, I determined to send him: of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. 26 Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and especially before thee, O king Agrippa, that, after examination, I might have somewhat to write. For it seemeth 27 to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not also to signify the charges laid against him.

Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul 26 stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself:

I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day 2 before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews; especially 3 because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.—My manner of life from my 4 youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews; who have known me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the 5 strictest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. And now I stand and am judged 6 for the hope of the promise made by God unto our fathers: unto the fulfilment of 7 which promise our twelve tribes, earnestly serving God day and night, hope to attain: on account of which hope, king Agrippa, I am accused by the Jews. Why should it 8 be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?—I verily 9 thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth. Which thing I indeed did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did 10 I shut up in prison, having received authority from the Chief Priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them. And I punished them often 11 in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto foreign cities. In doing which as I went 12 to Damascus with authority and commission from the Chief Priests, at mid-day, O 13 king, I saw in the way a light from the heavens, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and those who journeyed with me. And when we were all 14 fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks. And I said, Who art thou, LORD? And he said, I am Jesus whom 15 thou persecutest. But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee 16 for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in which I will appear unto thee; delivering 17

18 thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, to open their eyes, that by faith in me they may turn from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and an inheritance among those who are sanctified.—Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision: but showed first unto those of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance. For these causes the Jews seized me in the temple, and went about to kill me. Having however obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, testifying both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come: that Christ should suffer, and that he first, by his resurrection from the dead, should show light unto this people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spoke for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad. But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness. For the king knoweth of these things, before whom therefore I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing hath not been done in a corner. King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest them. Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian. And Paul said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all who hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 Then the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and those who sat with them: and when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, 32 This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds. Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Cæsar.

27 AND when it was determined that we should sail to Italy, Paul and certain other prisoners were delivered unto a centurion of Augustus' band, named Julius. And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we put to sea, meaning to sail by the coasts of 3 Asia; Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us. And the next day we touched at Sidon; and Julius courteously treated Paul, and gave him liberty 4 to go unto his friends to partake of their kindness. And when we had loosed from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia; 6 and there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein. And when we had sailed slowly many days, and were scarcely come off 7 Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under Crete, over against Salmone; 8 and, passing it with difficulty, came unto a place which is called The Fair Havens; near which was the city of Lasea.

9 Now as much time had been spent, and sailing had become dangerous, (because 10 the fast was now already past,) Paul admonished them, saying, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with damage and much danger, not only of the lading and ship, 11 but also of our lives. Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the 12 owner of the ship, rather than those things which were spoken by Paul: and because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the greater part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, (which is a haven of 13 Crete, and looking towards the south-west and north-west,) and there to winter.

14 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete. But not long after there arose 15 a tempestuous contrary wind, called Euroclydon. And when the ship was borne away, and could not bear up against the wind, we let her drive; and running under a certain island which is called Claudia, we had much work to secure the boat: 17 which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, they struck sail, and so were driven. 18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship; and the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship. 20 And when neither sun nor stars had appeared for many days, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and so have 22 avoided this harm and loss. Yet now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship only. For there stood 24 by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve, saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cæsar: and, lo, God hath given thee all those who sail with thee. Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, 25 that it shall be even as it was told me. Howbeit we must be cast upon a certain 26 island.

But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in the 27 Adriatic, about midnight the shipmen thought that they drew near to land; and 28 sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms. Then fearing lest we should have 29 fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and longed for the day.

And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down 30 the boat into the sea, under pretence of casting anchors out of the foreship, Paul 31 said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved. Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off. 32

And while the daylight was coming on, Paul besought them all to take food, say- 33 ing, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing: wherefore I pray you to take some food: for this is for your 34 health: for there shall not a hair fall from the head of any of you. And when he 35 had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat. Then were they all of good cheer, 36 and they also took some food. Now we were in all in the ship two hundred three- 37 score and sixteen souls. And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, 38 and cast out the wheat into the sea.

And when it was day, they knew not what the land was: but they discovered a 39 certain creek with a shore, into which they determined, if it were possible, to run the ship. And when they had cut the anchors, they let them go into the sea, and 40 loosed the rudder bands, and hoisted up the mainsail to the wind, and made towards shore. And falling into a place where the sea was divided by a headland, they 41 ran the ship aground: and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves. And the soldiers' counsel 42 was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape. But the 43 centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that those who could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land: and the rest, some on boards, and others on some of the things from the ship. And 44 so they all escaped safe to land.

AND when they were escaped, then they knew that the island was called Melita. 28 And the barbarous people showed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and brought us all to it, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there 3 came a viper out in consequence of the heat, and fastened on his hand. And when 4 the barbarians saw the venomous creature hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live. And he shook off the creature into the fire, 5 and felt no harm: but they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down 6 dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

In the same parts were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name 7 was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously. And the father 8 of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him. So when this was done, 9 others also, who had diseases in the island, came, and were healed: who also bestowed upon us many honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things 10 as were necessary.

And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered 11 in the isle, whose sign was Castor and Pollux. And landing at Syracuse, we tarried 12 there three days. And from thence we coasted round, and came to Rhegium: and 13 after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli: where 14 we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and then we went towards Rome. And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came 15 to meet us as far as Appii Forum, and The Three Taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

AND when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier who kept him.—And after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they 17 were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against our people, or the customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered

- 18 prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans. Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me. But when the Jews spoke against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Cæsar; not that I had any thing to accuse my nation of. For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because, for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.—And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Judea concerning thee, nor have any of the brethren who came shown or spoken any harm of thee: but we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against.
- 23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him at his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the Law of Moses, and out of the Prophets, from morning till evening. And some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not. So not agreeing among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Spirit by Isaiah the prophet unto our fathers, saying, Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive: for the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them. Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it. And when he had said these things, the Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.
- 30 And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all who came to him, preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the LORD Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO THE

ROMANS.

- 1 PAUL, a servant of Jesus Christ, a chosen apostle, set apart unto the Gospel of God, (which he had promised before by his prophets in the holy Scriptures,) concerning his Son Jesus Christ our LORD, who was born of the seed of David according to the flesh; but according to the spirit of holiness, proved to be the Son of God with power, by his resurrection from the dead: by whom we have received grace and apostleship, unto obedience of faith among all nations, for his name's sake: among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ: to all who are in Rome, beloved of God, called saints: Grace and peace to you from God our Father, and the LORD Jesus Christ.
- 8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world. For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the Gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers; making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God, to come unto you. For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end that ye may be established; that is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me.
- 13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but have been hindered hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles. I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise. So that, as much as in me lieth, I am ready to preach the Gospel to you who are at Rome also.
- 16 For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one who believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. For therein is the righteousness of God revealed, that we may have faith in it: as it is written, The just by faith shall live.

FOR the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hinder the truth through unrighteousness. Because that which may be known of God is manifest among them; for God hath manifested it unto them. For his invisible things, even his eternal power and Godhead, are clearly seen from the creation of the world, being understood by the things that are made; so that they are without excuse: because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their reasonings, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, and changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves: who changed the true God into false ones, and worshipped and served the creature in opposition to the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen. For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: and likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one towards another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not becoming; being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malignity; whisperers, backbiters, haters of God, despightful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful: who knowing the judgment of God, that those who commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in those who commit them.

THEREFORE thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou who judgest doest the same things. But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who commit such things. And thinkest thou this, O man, who judgest those who do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God? Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and long-suffering; not knowing that the goodness of God should lead thee to repentance? But through thy obdurate and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and manifestation of the righteous judgment of God; who will render to every one according to his deeds: to those who by persevering continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, everlasting life: but unto those who are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath. Tribulation and anguish shall come upon every soul of man who doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile; but glory, honour, and peace, to every man who worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile: (for there is no respect of persons with God:) as many as have sinned without the law shall also perish without the law: and as many as have sinned under the law shall be judged by the law; (for not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified: for when the Gentiles, who have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, though they have no law, are a law unto themselves: who show that the works required by the law are written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their reasonings among themselves accusing or else excusing one another;) in the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to the Gospel.

Behold, thou art called a Jew, and retest in the law, and makest thy boast of God, and knowest his will, and triest the things that differ, being instructed out of the law; and art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of those who are in darkness, an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, possessing the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law. Thou therefore who teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou who preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal? thou who sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou who abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege? thou who makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God? For as it is written, The name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you.

For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision becometh as uncircumcision. Therefore if one uncircumcised keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision? And shall not one uncircumcised, if in his natural state he fulfil the law, judge thee, who being under the letter of the law, and being circumcised, dost transgress the law? For he is not a Jew, who is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: but he is a Jew, who is one inwardly; and circumcision is of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not from men, but from God.

3 What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?—Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of God. For what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make void the faithfulness of God? By no means: yea, let God be acknowledged true, though every man be a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest be clear when thou judgest.

But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man) By no means: for then how shall God judge the world? For if the faithfulness of God hath more abounded through my unfaithfulness unto his glory; why yet am I still judged as a sinner? and shall we then say, (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose condemnation is just.

What then? are we Jews better than they Gentiles? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles to be all under sin; as it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one: there is none who understandeth, there is none who seeketh after God. They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none who doeth good, no, not one: their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips: their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: their feet are swift to shed blood: 16 17 destruction and misery are in their ways: and the way of peace have they not known: there is no fear of God before their eyes.

Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to those who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may stand convicted before God. Therefore by the works of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for through the law is the knowledge of sin.

BUT now the righteousness of God without the works of the law is manifested, being attested by the Law and the Prophets; even the righteousness of God which is by faith in Jesus Christ unto all and upon all those who believe: (for there is no difference: for all have sinned, and fallen short of the glory of God;) being justified freely by his grace through the redemption which is by Christ Jesus: whom God hath foreappointed to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to show forth his mercy in the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; to show forth at this time his justice: that he is just, even in justifying him who believeth in Jesus.

Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? by the law of works? Nay: but by the law of faith. Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the works of the law.—Is God the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also: so that it is one and the same God, who shall justify those of the circumcision by faith, and those of the uncircumcision through faith.—Do we then make void the law through faith? By no means: yea, we establish the law.

4 WHAT advantage then shall we say that Abraham our father obtained by the flesh?

For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God. For what saith the Scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was imputed to him for righteousness. Now to him who worketh is the reward imputed not of grace, but of debt: but to him who worketh not, but believeth on him who justifieth the ungodly, his faith is imputed to him for righteousness.

Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. Blessed is the man to whom the LORD will not impute sin.

Doth this blessedness come then upon those of the circumcision only, or upon those of the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was imputed to Abraham for righteousness.

How was it then imputed? when he was circumcised, or uncircumcised? Not when circumcised, but when uncircumcised. And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all those who believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also : and that he was to be the 12 father of circumcision to those who are not of the circumcision only, but to those also who walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or 13 to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. For if those 14 who are under the law be heirs, faith is useless, and the promise made of no effect :
because the law worketh wrath : for where no law is, there is no transgression. The 15 16 promise therefore is of faith, that it might be by grace ; to the end that the promise might be sure to all the seed ; not to those only who are under the law, but to those also who are of the faith of Abraham ; who is the father of us all, (as it is written, I 17 have made thee a father of many nations,) in the sight of him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and seeth the end from the beginning.

Who contrary to hope believed with hope, that he should become the father of 18 many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be. And being 19 not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about a hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb : he staggered not at 20 the promise of God through unbelief ; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God ; and was fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to per- 21 form. And therefore his faith was imputed to him for righteousness. 22

Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was so imputed to him ; but for 23 24 us also, to whom it shall be imputed, who believe in him who raised up Jesus our LORD from the dead ; who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for 25 our justification.

THEREFORE being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our 5
LORD Jesus Christ : by whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

And not only so, but we rejoice in tribulations also : knowing that tribulation 3 worketh patience ; and patience, experience ; and experience, hope : and hope maketh 4 5 not ashamed ; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Spirit which is given unto us.

For when we were yet without strength, at the time appointed Christ died for the 6 ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die : (though perhaps for a 7 good man one would even dare to die.) But God commendeth his love towards us 8 in this, that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being 9 now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. For if, when 10 we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son : much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his being raised from the dead.

And not only so, but we also rejoice in God through our LORD Jesus Christ, by 11 whom we have now received this reconciliation.

Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin ; and so 12 death passed upon all men, inasmuch as all have sinned : (for before the law sin was 13 in the world : but sin is not imputed when there is no law. Nevertheless death 14 reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him who was to come. But the 15 free gift is not as was the transgression. For if through the transgression of one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many. Neither is the gift as by one who 16 sinned : for the judgment was by one transgression to condemnation, but the free gift is of many transgressions unto justification. For if by one man's transgression 17 death reigned because of that one ; much more will those who receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through one, Jesus Christ.) There- 18 fore as by the transgression of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation ;
even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life. For as by one man's disobedience all were adjudged sinners, so by the 19 obedience of one shall all be adjudged righteous.

Moreover the law entered, to show that transgression abounded. But where sin 20 abounded, grace did much more abound : that as sin had reigned unto death, even 21 so might grace reign through righteousness unto everlasting life through Jesus Christ our LORD.

WHAT shall we say then ? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound ? 6
By no means ; for how can we, who have died to sin, live any longer therein ? Know ye not, that so many of us as have been baptized into Jesus Christ have been baptized into his death ? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into his 4

- death: that as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glorious power of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection: knowing this, that our old man hath been crucified as he was, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. For he who hath died is freed from sin. Now if we have so died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him; knowing that Christ having been raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him. For in that he died, he died a sacrifice for sin once for ever: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.
- 11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to have died indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ.
- 12 Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it. Neither yield ye up your members to sin as instruments of unrighteousness: but yield yourselves up unto God, as those who are alive from the dead, and your members to God, as instruments of righteousness unto God. For sin shall not have dominion over you: since ye are not under the law, but under grace.
- 13 What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? By no means. Know ye not, that to whomsoever ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are whom ye obey: whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness? But God be thanked, that though ye were the servants of sin, yet ye have now obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered to you; and having been made free from sin, ye have become the servants of righteousness. (I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh:) for as ye yielded your members as servants to uncleanness and iniquity; even so now yield your members to holiness as servants to righteousness. For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness. What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death. But now having been set free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life: for the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is everlasting life through Jesus Christ our LORD.
- 7 Know ye not, brethren, (for I speak to those who know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man only so long as it liveth? For the woman who hath a husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband die, she is loosed from the law of her husband. If therefore, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband die, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.
- 4 Thus, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who hath been raised from the dead, that ye should bring forth fruit unto God. For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death. But now we, having died, are delivered from the law, by which we were held in bondage; so that we ought to serve God in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.
- 7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? By no means. Nay, I had not known what sin was, but by the law: for I had not known covetousness to be sin, had not the law said, Thou shalt not covet. But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of evil desire. For without the law sin was dead. For I was alive without the knowledge of the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died. And the commandment, which was appointed to give life to me, I found to be death to me. For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me. Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.
- 13 Has then that which is good become death unto me? By no means. But sin hath, that it might appear to be sin, working death in me through that which is good; so that sin (through the commandment) might appear exceedingly sinful.
- 14 We know indeed that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin: for that which I do I approve not: and what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I. If then I do that which I would not, I assent unto the law that it is good. Now then it is no more I who do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing. To will indeed is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not. For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do. Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I who do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. I find then this law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me. For I delight in the law of God after the inward man : but I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. O wretched man that I am ! who shall deliver me from this body of death ? I thank God, who hath delivered me through Jesus Christ our LORD. So then with my mind I serve the law of God ; but with my flesh the law of sin.

There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who walk not according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit : for the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death. For what the law could not do, because it was weak through the flesh, God hath done, who, by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, as a sacrifice for sin, condemned sin in the flesh : that the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled by us, who walk not according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh do mind the things of the flesh ; but those who live according to the Spirit the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally minded is death ; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace ; because the carnal mind is enmity against God : for it is not subject to the law of God, nor indeed can be. So then those who walk according to the flesh cannot please God.

But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwelleth in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his : but if Christ be in you, the body indeed is dead as to sin ; but the Spirit is life as to righteousness. And if the Spirit of him who raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he who raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your dead bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

Therefore, brethren, we are not debtors to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if ye live according to the flesh, ye shall die : but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God : for ye have not received a spirit of bondage, that ye should again be in fear ; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba [FATHER]. The Spirit itself beareth testimony with our spirits, that we are the children of God : and if children, then heirs : heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ ; so that if we suffer with him, we shall be also glorified together.

For I reckon the sufferings of this present time not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed to us. For the earnest expectation of the creation waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God, (for the creation was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but on account of him who hath subjected it,) in hope that the creation itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together even until now. And not only it, but ourselves also, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, that is, the redemption of our body. For we are saved by hope : but hope that is attained is not hope : for what a man attaineth, how can he yet hope for it ? But if we hope for that we have not attained, then do we with patience wait for it.

Likewise the Spirit also helpeth us under our infirmities : for we know not what we should pray for as we ought : but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us together with our groanings which cannot be uttered. And he who searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, that maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

And we are sure that all things work together for the best to those who love God, to those who are the called according to his purpose : for whom he foreknew, he also predestinated to be conformed to the image of his Son, the most glorious among many brethren. Moreover whom he predestinated, them he hath also called : and whom he hath called, them he hath also justified : and whom he hath justified, them he hath also glorified.

What shall we then say concerning these things ? If God be for us, who can be against us ? He who spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things ? Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect ? Will God who justifieth ? Who is he that condemneth ? Is it Christ who died, yea rather, who is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us ? Who can separate us from the love of Christ ? can tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword ? (As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long ; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.) Nay, in all these things we are more than 38 conquerors through him who hath loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor 39 things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, is able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our LORD.

9 I SPEAK the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing testimony to me in the Holy Spirit, that I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart, (for I myself was once, and even gloried in being accursed from Christ,) for 4 my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh: who are Israelites; whose is the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises; whose are the fathers, and from whom according to the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

6 But it cannot be that the word of God hath taken no effect. For they are not all Israel, who are of Israel: neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they
8 all his children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called. That is, Those who are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the 9 promise are counted for the seed. For this is the word of promise, At this time
10 will I come, and Sarah shall have a son. And not she only; but when Rebecca 11 also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac; when the children were not yet born, and had done neither good or evil, that the purpose of God according 12 to election might stand, not of works, but of him who calleth; it was said unto 13 her, The elder shall serve the younger. As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I rejected.

14 15 What shall we say then? Is there injustice with God? By no means. For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion. So then it is not of him who willeth, nor 17 of him who runneth, but of God who showeth mercy. For the Scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this purpose have I raised thee up, that in thee I might show
18 my power, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth. So then he hath mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he suffereth to be hardened.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For who hath resisted his will? Nay but, O man, who art thou that disputest with God? Shall the thing
21 formed say to him who formed it, Why hast thou made me thus? Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and
22 another unto dishonour? And if God, willing to show his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction? And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of 24 mercy, which he had before prepared unto glory, showed mercy even on us, whom he hath called, not from the Jews only, but also from the Gentiles?

25 As he saith also in Hosea, I will call them my people, who were not my people; and her beloved, who was not beloved. And in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living
27 God. Isaiah also crieth out concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant only shall be saved: for he will finish the work which he hath decreed in righteousness: because a short work will the LORD
29 make upon the earth. And as Isaiah said before, Except the LORD of hosts had left us a seed, we had been as Sodom, and been made like unto Gomorrah.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, who did not seek after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is by faith. But Israel, who followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of 32 righteousness. Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumblingstone; as it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offence: but whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

10 BRETHREN, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they may be saved. For I bear them record that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the 4 righteousness of God: for Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one who believeth.

5 For Moses describeth the righteousness which is by the law, That the man who doeth those things shall live by them. But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh thus, Say not in thy heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring 7 Christ down from above:) or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.) But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in 8 thy mouth, and in thy heart: (that is, the word of faith, which we preach;) that if 9 thou shalt confess with thy mouth the LORD Jesus, and shalt believe in thy heart 10 that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved: for with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto sal- 11 vation. For the Scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

For there is no difference between the Jew and the Gentile: for the same LORD 12 of all is rich unto all who call upon him. For whosoever shall call upon the name 13 of the LORD shall be saved.

How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall 14 they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? and how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, 15
How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the Gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things! But they have not all obeyed the Gospel. For Isaiah saith, 16 LORD, who hath believed our report? So then faith cometh by hearing, and hear- 17 ing by the word of God. But I say, Have they not heard it? Yes verily, their 18 sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world. But I 19 say, Hath not Israel known this? First Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by those who are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you. But Isaiah is 20 very bold, and saith, I was found by those who sought me not; I was made manifest unto those who asked not after me. But concerning Israel he saith, All day long I 21 have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

I ask then, Hath God cast off his people? By no means. For I also am an Israel- 11
ite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. God hath not cast off his people whom he once acknowledged as his. Know ye not what the Scripture saith by Elijah? how he bringeth a charge to God against Israel, saying, LORD, they 3 have killed thy prophets, and thrown down thine altars; and I only am left, and they seek my life. But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved 4 to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Baal. Even so then 5 at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. And 6 if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace.

What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election 7 hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded unto this day (according as it is written, 8 God hath given them up to a spirit of slumber, to eyes that see not, and to ears that hear not.) And David saith, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a 9 stumblingblock, and a recompence unto them: let their eyes be darkened, that they 10 may not see, and their back be always bowed down.

I ask then, Have they stumbled that they should fall for ever? By no means: 11 but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, to provoke Israel to emulation. Now if their fall be the riches of the world, and the loss of them the 12 riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness! For I speak to you Gentiles, 13 inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office: if by any means 14
I may provoke to emulation those who are my flesh, and may save some of them.
For if the casting off of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving 15 of them again be, but life from the dead?

For if the firstfruit be holy, so shall the lump be: and if the root be holy, so shall 16 the branches be. And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild 17 olive tree, wert ingrafted instead of them, and became a joint partaker of the root and fatness of the olive tree; boast not over the natural branches. But if thou boast, 18 remember, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee. Thou wilt say then, The 19 branches were broken off, that I might be ingrafted in. Well; because of unbelief 20 they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear: for 21 if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

Behold therefore not only the goodness, but the severity of God: on those who 22 fell, severity; but towards thee, goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off. And they also, if they abide not in unbelief, shall be 23 ingrafted in: for God is able to ingraft them in again. For if thou wert cut out of 24 the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert ingrafted contrary to thy nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which were the natural branches, be ingrafted into their own olive tree!

For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should 25 be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in. And then all Israel shall be saved: as it is writ- 26 ten, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness

27 from Jacob : for this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away the punish-28 ment of their sins. As concerning the Gospel, they are aliens for your sakes : but as 29 touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes. For the gifts and call-30 ing of God are without change of purpose in him. For as ye in times past have not 31 believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief : even so have 32 these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy, 33 through the mercy shown to you. For God hath included all in unbelief, that he may have mercy upon all.

33 Oh the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God ! how un-
 34 searchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out ! For who hath known 35 the mind of the LORD ? or who hath been his counsellor ? or who hath first given to 36 him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again ? For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things : to whom be glory for ever. Amen.

12 I BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the tender mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your rational 2 service. And be not conformed to this world : but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may experimentally know what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

3 For, through the grace given unto me, I charge every one among you, not to think 4 of himself more highly than he ought to think ; but to think soberly, according as 4 God hath dealt to each one his measure of faith. For as we have many members in 5 one body, and all members have not the same office : so we, though many, are one 6 body in Christ, and every one members one of another. Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy accord-7 ing to our proportion of faith ; or ministry, let us wait on our ministering ; or he 8 who teacheth, on teaching ; or he who exhorteth, on exhortation ; he who giveth, let him do it with liberality ; he who ruleth, with diligence ; he who showeth mercy, with cheerfulness.

9 Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil ; cleave to that which 10 is good. Be kindly affectioned with brotherly love one towards another ; in honour
 11 preferring one another ; not slothful in care for one another ; fervent in spirit ; serving 12 the LORD ; rejoicing in hope ; patient in tribulation ; continuing perseveringly in 13 prayer ; distributing to the necessity of saints ; given to hospitality. Bless those 15 who persecute you : bless, and curse not. Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep 16 with those who weep. Be united in affection to one another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

17 18 Return to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men. If 19 it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men. Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath : for it is written, Vengeance 20 is mine ; I will repay, saith the LORD. Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him ; if he thirst, give him drink : for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

21 Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

13 LET every one be in subjection to the powers in authority. For there is no power but of God : the powers that be are appointed by him : whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the appointment of God : and those who resist shall receive con-3 demnation. For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power ? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the 4 same : for he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid ; for he beareth not the sword in vain : for he is the minister of God, 5 an avenger to execute wrath upon him who doeth evil. Wherefore ye must needs
 6 be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience' sake. For this reason pay ye tribute also : for they are God's ministers, attending continually to this very thing.
 7 Render therefore to all their dues : tribute to whom tribute is due ; custom to whom custom ; reverence to whom reverence ; honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another : for he who loveth another hath 9 fulfilled the law. For this is the law, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet :
 and whatsoever other commandment there is, it is briefly comprehended in this say-10 ing, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Love worketh no ill to one's neighbour : therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

11 And do this the rather, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out 12 of sleep : for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed. The night is far spent, the day is at hand : let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light. Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and 13 drunkenness, not in debauchery and wantonness, not in strife and envying. But 14 put ye on the LORD Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil its evil desires.

HIM who is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to judge his doubtful thoughts. 14
For one believeth that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs only. Let not him who eateth despise him who eateth not; and let not him who 3 eateth not judge him who eateth: for God hath received him. Who art thou who 4 judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be established: for God is able to establish him.

One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike: 5 let every one be fully persuaded in his own mind. He who regardeth the day, re- 6 gardeth it unto the LORD; and he who regardeth not the day, to the LORD he doth not regard it. He who eateth, eateth to the LORD, for he giveth God thanks; and he who eateth not, to the LORD he eateth not, and giveth God thanks. For 7 none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself: for whether we live, we 8 live unto the LORD: and whether we die, we die unto the LORD: therefore, whether we live or die, we are the LORD'S. For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and 9 lived again, that he might be LORD both of the dead and living.

But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy bro- 10 ther? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. For it is written, 11
As I live, saith the LORD, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God. So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God. 12

Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but resolve rather, that no man 13 put a stumblingblock or an occasion of falling in a brother's way. I know, and am 14 persuaded by the LORD Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him who esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean. But if thy brother be 15 grieved by thy food, thou walkest not according to love. Separate not from thee, by thy food, him, for whom Christ died. Let not then your good be evil spoken of: for 16 17 the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit.

For he who in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved by 18 men. Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things 19 wherewith we may edify one another. For food destroy not the work of God. All 20 things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth so as to give offence.
It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother 21 stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak. Hast thou faith? have it to thyself be- 22 fore God. Happy is he who condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.
And he who doubteth is condemned by his own conscience if he eat, because he eat- 23 eth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

We then who are strong ought to bear with the infirmities of the weak, and not 15 to please ourselves. Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification: for even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of 3 those who reproached thee are fallen upon me. For whatsoever things were written 4 aforetime were written for our instruction, that we through patience and the consolation of the Scriptures might have hope.—Now the God of patience and consolation 5 grant you to be likeminded one towards another after the example of Christ Jesus:
that ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our LORD 6
Jesus Christ.

Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God. 7
Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, 8 to confirm the promises made unto the fathers: and that the Gentiles might glorify 9
God for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will give thanks to thee among the Gentiles, and sing praises unto thy name. And again he saith, Rejoice, O ye 10 Gentiles, with his people. And again, Praise the LORD, all ye Gentiles; and cele- 11 brate him, all ye people. And again, Isaiah saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, 12 which shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; and in it shall the Gentiles trust.—Now the God of this hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Spirit.

AND I myself also am persuaded concerning you, my brethren, that ye also are 14 full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another. Never- 15 theless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some degree, as putting you in mind of these things, because of the grace which God hath bestowed on me; that I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, so ministering the Gospel 16

- of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by 17 the Holy Spirit. I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ in those 18 things which pertain to God; for I would not dare to speak of any things, except of those which Christ hath wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word 19 and deed, through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God;
 so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the 20 Gospel of Christ. Yea, I have striven so to preach the Gospel, not where Christ was 21 already named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation: but as it is written, Him of whom they had not been told, they shall see: and him of whom they have not heard, they shall consider.
- 22 23 For which cause also I have been long hindered from coming to you. But now having no more place for labour in these parts, and having had for many years a great 24 desire to come unto you; whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you as I pass, and to be brought on my way thitherwards by 25 you, when I shall have been somewhat refreshed by you. But now I go unto Jeru-26 salem to minister unto the saints. For it hath pleased those of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor among the saints at Jerusalem.
 27 It hath pleased them; and verily their debtors they are: for if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto 28 them in temporal things. When therefore I have performed this, and have secured 29 to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain. And I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the Gospel of Christ.
- 30 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the LORD Jesus Christ, and by the love of the 31 Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me; that I may be delivered from those who do not believe in Judea; and that my ministry for Jerusa-32 lem may be acceptable to the saints; that I may come unto you with joy by the 33 will of God, and may with you be refreshed. Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.
- 16 I COMMEND unto you Phebe our sister, who is a deaconess of the church which is at Cenchrea: that ye receive her in the LORD, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also.
- 3 4 Salute Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus: who have for my life endangered their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the 5 churches of the Gentiles. Likewise salute the church that is in their house. Salute
 6 my wellbeloved Epenetus, who is the firstfruits of Asia unto Christ. Salute Mary, 7 who bestowed much labour on us. Salute Andronicus and Junia, my kinsmen, and my fellowprisoners, who are distinguished by the apostles, who also were in Christ
 8 9 before me. Salute Amplias my beloved in the LORD. Salute Urbanus, our helper 10 in Christ, and Stachys my beloved. Salute Apelles approved in Christ. Salute those 11 who are of the household of Aristobulus. Salute Herodion my kinsman. Salute 12 those who are of the household of Narcissus, who are in the LORD. Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labour in the LORD. Salute the beloved Persis, who laboured 13 much in the LORD. Salute Rufus chosen in the LORD, and his mother and mine.
 14 Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren who are 15 with them. Salute Philologus, and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and 16 all the saints who are with them. Salute one another with a holy kiss. The churches of Christ salute you.
- 17 Now I beseech you, brethren, mark those who cause divisions and offences contrary 18 to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them: for those who are such serve not our LORD Jesus Christ, but their own advantage; and by good words and plausi-19 ble speeches deceive the hearts of the simple. For the report of your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would 20 have you wise unto that which is good, and harmless concerning evil. And may the God of peace bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our LORD Jesus Christ be with you.
- 21 Timothy my workfellow, and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater, my kinsmen, sa-22 23 lute you. I Tertius, the scribe who wrote this epistle, salute you in the LORD. Gaius my host, and of the whole church, saluteth you. Erastus the chamberlain of the city 24 saluteth you, and Quartus the brother. The grace of our LORD Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
- 25 Now to him who is able to establish you according to the Gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret in former times, but now is made manifest, and by the Scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith: to the only wise God, be glory through Jesus Christ for ever. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO THE

CORINTHIANS.

PAUL, a chosen apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all who in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our LORD, both their LORD and ours: Grace and peace be unto you, 3 from God our Father, and from the LORD Jesus Christ.

I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which hath been given 4 you in Jesus Christ; that in every thing ye are enriched in him, in all utterance, 5 and in all knowledge; even as the testimony concerning Christ was confirmed among 6 you: so that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming of our LORD Jesus 7 Christ: who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the 8 day of our LORD Jesus Christ. God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto 9 fellowship with his Son Jesus Christ our LORD.

NOW I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our LORD Jesus Christ, that ye all 10 speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. For it hath 11 been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by those who are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you: inasmuch as each one of you saith, I 12 am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ.

Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of 13 Paul? I thank God that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius; lest any 14 one should say that I had baptized in mine own name. And I baptized also the 15 household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of 17 words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of no effect: for the preaching of 18 the cross is to those who perish foolishness; but unto us who are saved it is the power of God. For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will 19 bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. Where is the wise? where is 20 the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? For after that in the wisdom of God the world by its own wisdom 21 knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of what is preached to save those who believe. For the Jews require signs, and the Greeks seek after wisdom: 22 but we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the 23 Greeks foolishness: but unto those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ 24 the power of God, and the wisdom of God. Because the foolishness of God is wiser 25 than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not 26 many mighty, not many noble, call you: but God hath chosen the foolish things of 27 the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; and base things of the world, and things 28 which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are: that no flesh should glory in his presence. But of him are 29 ye in Christ Jesus, whom God hath made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption: that it may be, according as it is written, He who 31 glorieth, let him glory in the LORD.

And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of 2 wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God. For I determined not to make known any thing among you, except Jesus Christ, and him who was crucified: and I 3

I. CORINTHIANS III. IV.

4 was with you in weakness, and in much fear and trembling: and my speech and my preaching are not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of 5 the Spirit and of power: that your faith might not be founded on the wisdom of men, but on the power of God.

6 But we speak wisdom among those who are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this 7 world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought: but we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the 8 world, to be a glory to us: which none of the princes of this world knew: (for had 9 they known it, they would not have crucified the LORD of glory.) But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of 10 man, the things which God hath prepared for those who love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the 11 deep things of God. For who knoweth the things of a man, except the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of 12 God. Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of 13 God: that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God: which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy 14 Spirit teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual. But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. But he who is 15 spiritual discerneth all things, yet he himself is judged by no man: for who hath known the mind of the LORD, that he may instruct the spiritual man? But we have the mind of Christ.

3 And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal men, even as unto babes in Christ. I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: 3 for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither are ye yet able. For ye are yet carnal: for whilst there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not 4 carnal, and walk after the manner of men? For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the LORD gave to each of us? I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave 7 the increase. So then neither is he who planteth any thing, neither he who watereth; but God who giveth the increase. Now he who planteth and he who watereth 8 are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour. 9 For we are fellowlabourers in the service of God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building.

10 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take 11 heed how he buildeth thereupon. For other foundation can no man lay than that 12 which is laid, which is Jesus the Christ. But if any man build upon this foundation 13 gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; each man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the 14 fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. If any man's work abide which he 15 hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward: if any man's work shall be burnt, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet as out of the fire.

16 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth 17 in you? If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are. Let no man deceive himself. If any man 18 among you thinketh himself to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he 19 may be wise: for the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God: for it is written, 20 He taketh the wise in their own craftiness. And again, The LORD knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 22 Therefore let no man glory in men: for all things are yours; whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to 23 come; all are yours; and ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

4 Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. 3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by man's 4 judgment: yea, I do not even judge mine own self. For though I am not conscious of any unfaithfulness, yet am I not hereby justified; but he who judgeth me is the 5 LORD. Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the LORD come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every one have praise from God.

6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure applied to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that ye might learn in us not to esteem any one above that which is written, that no one of you may be puffed up for one against another. For who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I wish ye did reign, that we also might reign with you: for I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men. We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised: even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace; and labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless: being persecuted, we suffer it: being defamed, we entreat: we are made as the vilest of the earth, and as the offscouring of all things unto this day.

I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you. For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the Gospel. Wherefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me.

For this cause have I sent unto you Timothy, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the LORD, who will bring you into remembrance of my ways which are in Christ, as I teach every where in every church. Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you. But I will come to you shortly, if the LORD will, and I will then know, not the speech, but the power of those who are puffed up. For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power. What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

It is reported commonly that there is incest among you, and such incest as is not known even among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife. And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he who hath done this deed might be taken away from among you. For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him who hath so done this deed, (being gathered together in the name of our LORD Jesus Christ, and of my spirit, with the power of our LORD Jesus Christ,) ye do deliver such a one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the LORD Jesus.

Your boasting is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? Cleanse out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, according as ye ought to be unleavened: for even Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us: therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

I wrote unto you in my epistle not to keep company with the impure: yet not altogether with the impure, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters, of this world; for then must ye needs go out of the world. But now I write unto you not to keep company with any man who is called a brother if he be impure, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a one no not even to eat. For what have I to do to judge those also who are without the church? judge ye those who are within: but those who are without God will judge. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

DARE any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unrighteous, and not before the saints? Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters? Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life! If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, do ye set those to judge who are least esteemed in the church? I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one who is able to judge between his brethren? But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers. Now therefore there is altogether a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded? Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that too your brethren. Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God?

Be not deceived: neither the impure, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. And such were some of you : but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the LORD Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

I. CORINTHIANS VII.

- 12 All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are
- 13 lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any. Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the
- 14 body is not for fornication, but for the LORD; and the LORD for the body: and as God hath raised up the LORD, so will he also raise us up by his own power.
- 15 Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the
- 16 members of Christ, and make them the members of a harlot? By no means. What! know ye not that he who is joined to a harlot is one body with her? for the two,
- 17 saith he, shall be one flesh. But he who is joined unto the LORD is one spirit with
- 18 him. Flee fornication. Every other sin that a man doeth is without the body; but
- 19 he who committeth fornication sinneth against his own body. What! know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit which is in you, which ye have from
- 20 God, and ye are not your own? for ye have been bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

7 NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to take a wife. Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband. Let the husband render unto the wife what is due: and likewise also the wife unto the husband. The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife. Deprive ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency. But I speak this by way of permission, and not of commandment. For I would that all men were even as I am myself. But every man hath his proper gift from God, one after this manner, and another after that. I say therefore to the unmarried and widowed, It is good for them if they abide even as I. But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn. And unto the married I command, (yet not I, but the LORD,) Let not the wife separate herself from her husband: (but even if she has been separated, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband:) and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I, not the LORD: If any brother hath a wife who believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away. And if a woman hath a husband who believeth not, and he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him. For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by his believing wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by her believing husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy. But if the unbelieving chooseth to depart, let such depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us to peace. For how knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife? But as God hath distributed to every man, as the LORD hath called every one, so let him walk. And so ordain I in all the churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised. Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God. Let each remain in the same condition wherein he was called. Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather. For he who is called in the LORD, being a servant, is the LORD'S freeman: likewise also he who is called, being free, is Christ's servant. Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men. Brethren, let every man remain with God in that condition wherein he is called.

25 Now concerning the unmarried, I have no commandment of the LORD: yet I give my judgment, as one who hath obtained mercy of the LORD to be faithful. I suppose therefore that this is good because of the present distress, I say, that it is good for a man so to remain as he is. Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife. But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 But this I say, brethren, the time being short, it remaineth, that both those who have wives be as though they had none; and those who weep, as though they wept not; and those who rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and those who buy, as though they possessed not; and those who use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away. But I would have you without anxious care.

He who is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the LORD, how he may please the LORD: but he who is married careth for the things that are of the world, 33 how he may please his wife. There is the same difference also between a wife and 34 the unmarried. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the LORD, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she who is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband. And this I speak for your own 35 profit; not that I may cast a bond upon you, but for that which is becoming, and that ye may attend upon the LORD without distraction.

But if any man think that he behaveth himself unbecomingly towards his virgin 36 daughter, if she pass the flower of her age, and need require that she marry, let him do what she wisheth, he sinneth not: let them marry. Nevertheless he who stand- 37 eth steadfast in his purpose, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin daughter unmarried, doeth well. So then he who giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he who giveth 38 her not in marriage doeth better.

The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband 39 be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the LORD. But 40 she is happier if she remain as she is, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

NOW as touching things offered unto idols, (we know that we all have this know- 8 ledge; yet let us not be vain, for knowledge puffeth up, but love edifieth. And if any man be confident that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know. But if any man love God, the same is approved of by him.) As con- 3 4 cerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol hath no power in the world, and that there is none other God but one. For though indeed there be that are called gods, whether in the heavens or in 5 the earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,) but to us there is but one God, 6 the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one LORD Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him. However there is not in all men that know- 7 ledge: for some with consciousness of the idol unto this hour eat food as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.

But food commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; 8 neither, if we eat not, are we the worse. But take heed lest by any means this 9 liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to those who are weak. For if any man 10 see thee who hast knowledge sitting at table in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him who is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols; and thus through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom 11 Christ died? But when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak con- 12 science, ye sin against Christ. Wherefore, if food be an occasion of offence to my brother, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to stumble.

AM I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus Christ our LORD? 9 are not ye my work in the LORD? If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for ye are the seal of mine apostleship in the LORD. Mine answer to 3 those who question me is this, Have we not power to eat and to drink? Have we 4 5 not power to take about with us a wife, being a sister, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the LORD, and Cephas? Or have I and Barnabas only not the 6 power to forbear working?

Who goeth to war at any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and 7 eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock? Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also? For 8 9 it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen only? Or saith he it especially 10 for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he who plougheth should plough in hope; and that he who thresheth in hope should do so in hope of partaking. If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great matter if we shall 11 reap your carnal things? If others be partakers of this power over you, ought not 12 we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the Gospel of Christ.

Do ye not know that those who minister about holy things live of the things of the 13 temple? and those who wait at the altar are partakers with the altar? Even so hath 14 the LORD ordained that those who preach the Gospel should live by the Gospel.

But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that 15 it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void. For though I preach the Gospel, I have nothing to 16 glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the Gospel! For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, still I have a stewardship committed unto me. What is my reward then? Verily that, whilst I preach the Gospel, I may make the ministry of the Gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the Gospel.

For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more. To the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to those who are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain those who are under the law; to those who are without the law, as without the law, (not as being without the law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain those who are without the law. To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some. And this I do for the Gospel's sake, that I might be a joint communicator thereof with you.

Know ye not that those who run in a race, all indeed run, but one only receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain the prize. And every man who contendeth in the games is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible. I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one who beatech the air: but I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest by any means, after having preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.

10 MOREOVER, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; and were all baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea; and did all eat of the same spiritual food; and did all drink of the same spiritual drink: for they drank of the water of that spiritual Rock which followed them: and that Rock was Christ. But with many of them God was not well pleased: and they were overthrown in the wilderness.

Now these things were for examples to us, to the intent we should not long after evil things, as they also longed. Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play. Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day four and twenty thousand. Neither let us tempt Christ the LORD, as some of them also tempted him, and were destroyed by serpents. Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed by the destroyer. Now all these things happened unto them as examples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the last days are come. Wherefore let him who thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

14 15 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry. I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say. The cup of blessing for which we give thanks, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? For we, though many, are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread. Consider Israel after the flesh: are not those who eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar? What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing? No, but I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to evil spirits, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with evil spirits. Ye cannot drink the cup of the LORD, and the cup of evil spirits: ye cannot be partakers of the LORD'S table, and of the table of evil spirits. Do we provoke the LORD to jealousy? are we stronger than he?

All things are lawful, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful, but all things do not edify. Let no man seek his own, but every man another's welfare.

25 26 Eat whatsoever is sold in the shambles, asking no question for conscience' sake: for the earth is the LORD'S, and the fulness thereof. If any of those who believe not invite you to their table, and ye be disposed to go; eat whatsoever is set before you, asking no question for conscience' sake. But if any one say unto you, This has been offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not of it for his sake who showed it, and for conscience' sake: for the earth is the LORD'S, and the fulness thereof: conscience, I say, not thine own, but that of the other: for why is my liberty judged by another's conscience? For if I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks? Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. Give no cause of offence, either to the Jews, or to the Gentiles, or to the church of God: even as I strive to please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved. Be ye imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ.

NOW I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and keep the traditions, as I delivered them to you. But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God. Every man praying or prophesying, having a vail on his head, dishonour-eth his head: but every woman who prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaven. For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn; but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered. For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man. For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man. Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man. For this cause ought the woman to have a covering on her head because of observers. Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the LORD. For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but all things are of God.

Judge in yourselves, if it be becoming that a woman pray unto God uncovered. Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him? But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering.

But if any man seem to be contentious about it, we have no such custom, neither have the churches of God.

NOW I praise you not when I declare this, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse. For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there are divisions among you; and as to a part I believe it: for there must be even heresies among you, that those who are approved may be made manifest among you.

When ye come together therefore into one place, it is not to eat the LORD'S supper: for in eating every one taketh before another his own supper: and one is hungry, and another drinketh to excess. What! have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame those who have them not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

For I received of the LORD, that which also I delivered unto you, That the LORD Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread: and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new covenant by my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do show the LORD'S death till he come.

Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, or drink this cup of the LORD, irreverently, shall be guilty of profaning the body and blood of the LORD. But let a man examine himself, and then so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. For he who eateth and drinketh irreverently, eateth and drinketh condemnation to himself, not discerning the LORD'S body. For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep. For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged. But when we are judged, we are chastened of the LORD, that we should not be condemned with the world. Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat the LORD'S supper, tarry one for another. And if any man be hungry, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

NOW concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant. Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto dumb idols, even as ye were led. Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man who speaketh by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the LORD, but by the Holy Spirit.

Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit: and there are differences of services, but the same LORD: and there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God who worketh all things in all. But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every one therewith to profit. For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; to another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; to another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues: but it is one and the selfsame Spirit that worketh all these things, dividing to every one severally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, although it hath many members, and all the members of 13 that one body, being many, are but one body: so also is Christ. For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 15 For the body is not one member, but many. If the foot should say, Because I 16 am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body? And if the 17 ear should say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not 18 of the body? If the whole body were an eye, where would be the hearing? If the 19 whole were hearing, where would be the smelling? But now hath God set the 20 members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him. And if they were all 21 one member, where would be the body? But now there are many members, yet 22 but one body: and the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor 23 again the head to the feet, I have no need of you. Nay, those members of the body, 24 which seem to be the more feeble, are much more necessary: and those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and thus our uncomely members receive more abundant comeliness. For our comely parts have no such need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked: that there should be no schism in the body; but that all the members should have the same care one for another: so that if one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or if one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it. Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular: and so God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of 29 healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues. Are all apostles? are all pro-30 phets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles? have all the gifts of healing?
do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But covet ye earnestly the best gifts: and now I show unto you a more excellent 13 way: for though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not love,
I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have 3 all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not love, I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burnt, and have not love, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Love suffereth long, and is kind; love envieth not; love vaunteth not itself, is 5 not puffed up, doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not its own, is not easily
6 provoked, thinketh no evil; rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;
7 beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Love never faileth: but whether there be prophesying, they shall end; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall pass away.
9 10 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part: but when that which is perfect is 11 come, then that which is but in part shall be done away. When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I reasoned as a child: but when I became 12 a man, I put away childish things. For now we see through a glass, obscurely; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

14 FOLLOW after love, and desire spiritual gifts, but chiefly that ye may prophesy.—
For he who speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God:
3 for no man understandeth him; however in the spirit he speaketh mysteries. But he who prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and consolati-4 tion. He who speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself only; but he who 5 prophesieth edifieth the church. I would that ye all spoke with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he who prophesieth than he who speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edification.

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesy-7 ing, or by doctrine? Just so when things without life give a sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is 8 piped or harped? For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who will prepare 9 himself to the battle? So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye will be speaking to 10 the air. There are, it may be, so many kinds of languages in the world, and none 11 of them is without signification. Therefore if I know not the meaning of the language, I shall be unto him who speaketh a barbarian, and he who speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

I. CORINTHIANS XV.

Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel 12 for the edification of the church. Wherefore let him who speaketh in an unknown 13 tongue pray that he may be able to interpret what he says. For if I pray in an un- 14 known tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding giveth no understanding to others. What then is to be done? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with 15 the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he who occu- 16 pieth the place of the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he under-standeth not what thou sayest? For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is 17 not edified. I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all: yet in the 18 19 church I would rather speak five words with my understanding, so that I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

Brethren, be not children in understanding: in malice, indeed, be ye children, but 20 in understanding be men. In the Old Testament it is written, With other tongues 21 and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the LORD. Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe, 22 but to those who believe not: but prophesying serveth not for those who believe not, but for those who believe.

If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with 23 tongues, and there come in those who are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad? But if all prophesy, and there come in one who believeth 24 not, or one unlearned, he is convinced by all, he is judged by all: and thus are the 25 secrets of his heart made manifest: and so falling down on his face he will worship
God, and report that God is among you of a truth.

How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, each one of you hath a psalm, 26 hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying. If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be 27 by two, or at the most by three sentences; and let one also interpret, part by part.
But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak 28 to himself, and to God. Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the others 29 judge between truth and error. If any thing be revealed to another who sitteth by, let the first hold his peace. For ye may all prophesy one by one, yet so that all may 30 learn, and all may be comforted. Now the spiritual gifts of the prophets are subject 32 to the prophets. For God is not the God of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches 33 of the saints.

Let your wives keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to 34 speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law. And 35 if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for wives to speak in the church.—What! came the word of God out from you? or 36 came it unto you only?

If any man is accounted a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the 37 things that I write unto you are the commandments of the LORD. But if any man 38 be ignorant, let him be ignorant. Wherefore, brethren, covet the gift of prophesying, and forbid not to speak with tongues: but let all things be done decently and in 39 order.

MOREOVER, brethren, I declare unto you the Gospel which I preached unto 15 you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; by which also ye are saved, 3 if ye hold fast what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed lightly. For I delivered unto you among the first things which I also received, how that Christ died 4 for our sins according to the Scriptures; and that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the Scriptures: and that he was seen by Cephas, 5 then by the twelve: after that, he was seen by above five hundred brethren at once; 6 of whom the greater part remain unto this present time, but some have fallen asleep.
After that, he was seen by James; then by all the apostles. And last of all he was 7 8 seen by me also, as of one born out of due time. For I am the least of the apostles, who am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God:
but by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon 10 me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. Therefore whether it be I or they, so we 11 preach, and so ye believed.

Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you 12 that there is no resurrection and future existence of the dead? But if there be no 13

- 14 resurrection and future existence of the dead, then is Christ not risen: and if Christ 15 be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain. Yea, and we 16 are found false witnesses concerning God; because we have testified that he raised 17 up Christ: whom he hath not raised up, if so be that the dead rise not. For if the 18 dead rise not, then is not Christ raised: and if Christ be not raised, your faith is 19 vain; ye are yet in your sins: and then those also who are fallen asleep in Christ 20 have perished. If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most to be pitied.
- 21 But now is Christ risen from the dead, the firstfruits of those who slept. For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection and future existence of 22 the dead: for as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterwards those who are Christ's 23 at his coming. Then cometh the end, when he shall deliver up the kingdom to 24 God the Father; when he shall have put down all dominion and all authority and 25 power: for he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. Death, 26 the last enemy, shall then be destroyed: for he hath put all things under his feet.
 But when he saith, All things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, 27 who put all things under him. And when all things shall be subjected unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subjected unto him who put all things under him, 28 that God may be all in all.
- 29 Else what shall they do who are baptized in the place of the dead, if the dead rise 30 not at all? why are they then baptized in the place of the dead? And why stand we 31 in jeopardy every hour? I protest by the rejoicing over you which I have in Christ 32 Jesus our LORD, I die daily. If with men I have fought as with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for to-morrow 33 we die. Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners. Awake to 34 righteousness, and sin not; for some of you have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame.
- 35 But some one will ask, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they 36 come? Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not made alive, except it die: and as for that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, 37 it may chance of wheat, or of some other seeds: but God giveth it a body as it hath 38 pleased him, and to every seed its own body. All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and an-39 other of birds. There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory
 40 of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. There is one glory 41 of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.
- 42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in in-43 corruption: it is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it
 44 is raised in power: it is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There
 45 is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. And so it is written, The first man 46 Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was a life-giving spirit. However that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterwards that which 47 is spiritual. The first man, from the earth, was earthy: the second man, the LORD
 48 from heaven, is heavenly. As was the earthy, such are those also who are earthy:
 49 and as is the heavenly, such also will be the heavenly: and as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.
- 50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God;
 51 neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. Behold, I show you a mystery; We 52 shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised 53 incorruptible, and we shall be changed: for this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.
- 54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death 55 is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy vic-56 tory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law: but thanks be 57 to God, who giveth us the victory through our LORD Jesus Christ! Therefore, my 58 beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the LORD, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the LORD.
- 16 NOW concerning the collection for the saints, as I gave order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye. Upon the first day of every week let each one of you lay somewhat by itself, according as God hath prospered him, putting it into the treasury,

I. CORINTHIANS XVI.

that there be no gatherings when I come. And when I come, whomsoever ye shall 3 approve, them will I send with letters to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem. And 4 if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

Now I will come unto you, when I shall have passed through Macedonia: (for I 5 intend to pass through Macedonia.) And it may be that I will abide, yea, and win- 6 ter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey whithersoever I may go. For I 7 will not see you in a passing way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the LORD permit. But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost: for a great and effectual door 8 9 is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.

Now if Timothy come, see that he may be among you without fear: for he work- 10 eth the work of the LORD, as I also do. Let no one therefore despise him: but 11 conduct him forwards in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren. As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto 12 you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong. Let all your 13 14 things be done with love.

I beseech you, brethren, (for ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first- 15 fruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,) that ye submit yourselves unto such, and to every one who helpeth with us, and 16 laboureth. I am glad of the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus: 17 for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied; for they have refreshed 18 my spirit, and will yours: therefore acknowledge ye those who are such.

The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the 19 LORD, with the church that is in their house. All the brethren salute you. Salute 20 ye one another with a holy kiss.

The salutation of me Paul written with mine own hand. If any man love not the 21 22 LORD Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema Maran-atha [ACCURSED WHEN THE LORD SHALL COME]. The grace of our LORD Jesus Christ be with you. My love 23 24 be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO THE

CORINTHIANS.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto 1 the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints who are in all Achaia: Grace and peace be to you from God our Father, and from the LORD Jesus Christ. 2

Blessed be the God and Father of our LORD Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, 3 and the God of all consolation; who consoleth us in all our tribulation, that we may 4 be able to console those who are in any trouble by the consolation, wherewith we ourselves are consoled by God. For as the sufferings for Christ abound towards us, 5 so our consolation also aboundeth through Christ. And whether we be afflicted, it 6 is for your consolation and salvation, which is inwardly effected by the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be consoled, it is for your consolation and salvation. And our hope of you is steadfast, knowing, that 7 as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of the trouble which befell us in 8 Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life: yea, we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust 9 in ourselves, but in God who raiseth the dead: who delivered us from so terrible a 10 death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us; ye also working together by prayer for us, that for the favour obtained for us by the prayers of many, thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and 12 godly sincerity, (not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God,) we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly towards you. For we write no 13

II. CORINTHIANS II. III.

- other things to you, than what ye know or acknowledge; (and I trust ye shall ac-14 knowledge even to the end; as also ye have acknowledged us in part;) that we are your rejoicing, even as ye also are ours in the day of the LORD Jesus.
- 15 And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have 16 a second benefit; and to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of 17 Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way towards Judea. When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do
 I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay?
- 18 19 But as God is true, our preaching was not both yea and nay. For the Son of God,
 Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silas and Ti-20 mothy, was not both yea and nay; but in him was yea. For all the promises of God 21 in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us. Now he who 22 establisheth us with you in Christ, and he who hath anointed us, is God; who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.
- 23 Moreover I call God for a witness upon my soul, that to spare you I reproof I came 24 not as yet unto Corinth: for we not only do not exercise dominion over your faith, 2 but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand. But I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you to bring grief. For if I grieve you, who is 3 he then who maketh me glad, but the same who is grieved by me? And for this reason I wrote unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from those on whose account I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy will be the 4 joy of you all. For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the abundant love which I have for you.
- 5 But if any one have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but on his own part: that 6 I may not charge you all. Sufficient to such a man is the rebuke which was in-7 flicted by the church: so that on the contrary ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.
- 8 9 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love towards him. For to this end also did I write, that I might prove you, whether ye be obedient in all things.
 10 To whom ye forgive anything, I forgive also: for if I have forgiven any thing, I 11 have forgiven it for your sakes, in the person of Christ; lest Satan should get an advantage of us; for we are not ignorant of his devices.
- 12 FURTHERMORE, when I came to Troas to preach the Gospel of Christ, and a door
 13 was opened unto me by the LORD, I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of those who were there, I went from thence into Macedonia.
- 14 Now thanks be unto God, who always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and mak-15 eth manifest the savour of the knowledge of himself by us in every place. For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in those who are saved, and in those who 16 perish: to the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the 17 savour of life unto life: and who is sufficient for these things? For we are not as many, who deal deceitfully with the word of God: but in sincerity, as of God, in the sight of God speak we of Christ.
- 3 Must we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or of commendation from you? Ye are our epistle 3 written in our hearts, known and read by all men: forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not on tables of stone, but on the fleshy tables of the heart.
- 4 5 And such trust have we through Christ towards God: not that we are sufficient to 6 reckon upon any thing as from ourselves; but our sufficiency is from God; who also hath fitted us to be ministers of the new covenant; not of the letter, but of the spirit:
 7 for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. Now if the ministry of death by the letter, written and engraven on stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses because of the glory of his countenance;
 8 (which glory was to be done away:) shall not the ministry of the spirit be still more
 9 glorious? For if the ministry of condemnation be glory, much more doth the mi-
 10 nistry of righteousness excel in glory. For even that which was then made glorious 11 had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth: for if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.
- 12 13 Seeing then that we have such a hope, we use great plainness of speech: and not as Moses, who put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not steadfastly 14 look to the end of that which is abolished. But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old covenant; which vail is done away in Christ; but even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart. Nevertheless when it shall turn to the LORD, the vail shall be taken away. Now the LORD is the Spirit: and where the Spirit of the LORD is, there is liberty. And we all, with unvaild face reflecting like a mirror the glory of the LORD, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the LORD the Spirit.

Wherefore having this ministry, according as we have obtained mercy, we faint not; but have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

But if our Gospel be hidden, it is hidden to those who believe not: whose minds the god of this world hath blinded, so that there hath not shined upon them the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, who is the image of God. For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the LORD; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake. For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give us the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the person of Jesus Christ.

But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us. We are pressed on every side, yet not crushed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed: always bearing about with us the dying of the LORD Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body. For we while we live are continually delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh: so then death worketh in us, but life in you. But having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak; knowing that he who raised up the LORD Jesus will raise up us also by Jesus, and will present us with you. For all our sufferings are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

Wherefore we faint not; for though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day: for our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and everlasting weight of glory; while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal. For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were destroyed, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, everlasting in the heavens. For in this tabernacle we groan, earnestly desiring to enter our house which is in heaven: (assured that if we enter into it we shall not be found destitute.) For we who are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not that we would go out from it, but that mortality may be swallowed up of life. Now he who hath wrought us for the self-same thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit. Wherefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are present in the body, we are absent from the LORD: (for we walk by faith, not by sight: we are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the LORD.) Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him: for we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive for the things done in his body, according to what he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

Knowing therefore the terror of the LORD, we would persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust are made manifest in your consciences also. For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer those who glory in appearance, and not in heart. For whether we be beside ourselves, it is for God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause: for the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then all died: and he died for all, that those who live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him who died, and rose again for them. Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him so no more. Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new. And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation; namely, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

II. CORINTHIANS VI. VII. VIII.

20 Therefore we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us : we 21 pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God. For he hath made him who knew no sin to be a sin offering for us ; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

6 We then, as fellowlabourers, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain : (for he saith, I have heard thee in an accepted time, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee : behold, now is the accepted time ; behold, now is the day of salvation.) Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed : but in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses, in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings ; by pureness, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by a holy spirit, by love unfeigned, by the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, through honour and dishonour, through evil report and good report : as deceivers, and yet true ; as unknown, and yet well known ; as dying, and, behold, we live : as chastened, and not killed ; as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing ; as poor, yet making many rich ; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 12 O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged : ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own affections. Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.

14 Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers : for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness ? And what communion hath light with darkness ? and what concord hath Christ with Belial [WICKEDNESS] ? or what part hath he who believeth with an infidel ? and what agreement hath the temple of God with idols ? for ye are the temple of the living God ; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them ; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.
 17 Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the LORD, and touch not the unclean thing ; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the LORD Almighty.

7 Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all pollution of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 RECEIVE us ; we have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have defrauded no one. I speak not this to condemn you : for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you. Great is my boldness of speech towards you, great is my glorying of you : I am filled with comfort, I exceedingly abound in joy under all our tribulation.

5 For, when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side ; without was opposition, within were fears. Nevertheless God, who consoleth those who are cast down, consoled us by the coming of Titus ; and not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was consoled in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind towards me ; so that I rejoiced the more. For though I grieved you by my letter, I do not repent, though I did repent : for I perceive that the same epistle grieved you but for a season. Now I rejoice, not that ye were grieved, but that ye sorrowed to repentance : for ye were grieved after a godly manner, so that ye have received no damage by us. For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of : but the sorrow of the world worketh death. For behold this very circumstance, of your having sorrowed after a godly manner, what carefulness it wrought in you ! yea, what clearing of yourselves ! yea, what indignation ! yea, what fear ! yea, what vehement desire ! yea, what zeal ! yea, what revenge ! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in the matter. Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not only for his cause who had done the wrong, nor for his cause who suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were consoled on account of your consolation ; yea, and exceedingly the more we rejoiced on account of the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all. For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed ; but as we spoke all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found to be a truth. And his inward affection is more abundant towards you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him. I rejoice therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

8 MOREOVER, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia ; how that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their liberality. For I bear them testimony, that to their power, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves: beseeching us with much entreaty that we would receive the gift, 4 and take part in ministering to the saints. And this they did, not only as we hoped, 5 but far beyond, for they first gave their own selves to the LORD, and unto us by the will of God; insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would 6 also finish among you this work of liberality also.

Therefore, as ye abound in every gift, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and 7 in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also. I speak 8 not by commandment, but to prove the sincerity of your love also by the diligence of others. (For ye know the grace of our LORD Jesus Christ, that, though he was 9 rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.)
And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, 10 not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago. Now therefore fully perform the 11 doing of it: that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have. For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted 12 according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not. For I mean not 13 that other men be eased, and ye burdened: but by an equality, that now at this time 14 your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality: as it is written, He who had 15 gathered much had nothing over; and he who had gathered little had no lack.

But thanks be to God, who put the same earnest concern into the heart of Titus 16 for you. For indeed he not only accepted the exhortation; but being more earnest, 17 of his own accord he went unto you. And we have sent with him the brother, whose 18 praise is by the Gospel throughout all the churches; and not only so, but who was 19 also chosen of the churches to manage with us this gift, which is administered by us to the glory of the same LORD, and as a declaration of your ready mind: we avoid- 20 ing this, that no man should blame us for our administration of this abundance:
studying to act honourably, not only in the sight of the LORD, but also in the sight 21 of men. And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved 22 diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which he hath in you. If any inquire concerning Titus, he is my partner and fellow- 23 helper concerning you: or concerning our brethren, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ. Wherefore show ye to them, and before the 24 churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your account.

But concerning the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to 9 you: for I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath stirred up very 3 many. Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you in this matter should be in vain; that ye may be ready, as I said ye were: lest if they of Macedonia come 4 with me, and find you unprepared, we (not to say ye) should be ashamed by this confidence. Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would 5 go before unto you, and make up beforehand your gift, which hath been so much spoken of before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of exaction.

But this I say, He who soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he who 6 soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. Let every man give according as he 7 purposeth in his heart; not grudgingly, or by constraint: for God loveth a cheerful giver. And God is able to make every blessing abound towards you; that ye, always 8 having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work: (as it is writ- 9 ten, He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness endureth for ever. Now may he who supplieth seed to the sower both supply bread for 10 your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;) being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us 11 thanksgiving to God. For the administration of this service not only supplieth the 12 wants of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God; while by 13 the experience of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection unto the Gospel of Christ, and for your liberal contribution unto them, and unto all 14 men; earnestly longing after you in their prayer for you, on account of the exceeding grace of God in you. Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift. 15

NOW I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who 10 when present am base among you, but being absent am bold towards you: yea, I beseech you, that I may not be forced to be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, who think of us as if we walked according to the flesh. For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according 3 to the flesh: (for the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God 4

5 to the pulling down of strong holds;) overturning reasonings, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every 6 thought to the obedience of Christ; and are prepared to avenge all disobedience, since your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Do ye look on things according to the outward appearance? If any man trust in himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's, and therefore though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the LORD hath given us for your edification, and not for your 9 destruction, I should not be ashamed: but I forbear, that I may not seem as if I would 10 terrify you by my letters: For his letters, say some, are weighty and powerful; but 11 his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible. Let such a one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in 12 deed when we are present. For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some who commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.
13 But we will not boast of things beyond our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.
14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto 15 you: for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the Gospel of Christ: not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according 16 to our rule abundantly, to preach the Gospel in the regions beyond you, and not 17 to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand. But let him
18 who glorieth glory in the LORD: for not he who commendeth himself is approved, but he whom the LORD commendeth.

11 I WISH ye could bear with me a little in my folly: yea, indeed bear with me. For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: because I have espoused you to
3 one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtlety, so your minds should 4 be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if one come and preach another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another Gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with me.

5 6 For I suppose I am in nothing behind the very chief apostles. But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been thoroughly made manifest
7 among you in all things. Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that ye
8 might be exalted, because I have preached to you the Gospel of God freely? I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service. And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man; for that which was lacking to me the brethren who came from Macedonia supplied my wants: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep 10 myself. As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in 11 the regions of Achaia. Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth that I 12 love you. But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off all occasion from those who desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the 14 apostles of Christ: and no wonder; for Satan transformeth himself into an angel
15 of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also transform themselves as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool bear with me, 17 that I may boast myself a little. That which I speak, I speak it not after the 18 LORD, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting. Seeing that many 19 glory after the flesh, I will glory also. For ye suffer fools readily, seeing ye yourselves
20 are wise: ye bear it, if any one bring you into bondage, if any one devour you, if any one take of your goods, if any one exalt himself, if any one smite you on the face.
21 I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. Yet whereinsoever 22 any one is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also. Are they Hebrews? so am I.
23 Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I. Are they 24 ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more so; in labours more abundant, 25 in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths often. Of the Jews
26 five times received I forty stripes except one, thrice was I beaten with rods, once
I was stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I was in the deep; in journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; in labour and travail, in watch- 27

ings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. Besides 28 those things that are without, there are those which come upon me daily, in the care of all the churches.

Who is weak, and I am not weak? who stumbleth, and I burn not? If I must 29 30 needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities. The God and 31
Father of our LORD Jesus Christ, who is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not. In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damas- 32 cenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me: and through a window in a basket 33 was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

Doubtless it is not expedient for me to glory; yet I will come to visions and reve- 12 lations of the LORD.

I know a man in Christ who above fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I can- 2 not tell: or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth) was caught up to the third heavens. And I know such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the 3 body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) how that he was caught up into paradise, and 4 heard unspeakable words, which it is not possible for a man to utter.

Of such a one will I glory: yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities. 5
For though I would desire to glory, I should not be a fool; for I should speak the 6 truth: but I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of these reve- 7 lations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure. Concerning this thing I besought the 8 LORD thrice, that it might depart from me. And he said unto me, My grace is 9 sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in perse- 10 cutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

Have I become a fool in glorying? ye have compelled me to it: for I ought to 11 have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behind the very chief apostles, though I be nothing in myself. Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among 12 you perseveringly in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds. For 13 what is there wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome 14 to you: for I seek not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children. And I will very gladly spend and be 15 spent for your souls; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

But be it that though I did not burden you: nevertheless, (some say,) being crafty, 16
I caught you with guile. Did I make a gain of you by any of those whom I sent 17 unto you? I desired Titus to go to you, and with him I sent a brother. Did Titus 18 make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? nay, in the same steps?

Think ye that we are again excusing ourselves unto you? we speak before God in 19
Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edification. For I fear, lest, 20 when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, back-bitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults: and lest, when I come again, my God will 21 humble me among you, and that I may have to bewail many who have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three wit- 13 nesses shall every word be established. I told you before, and now forewarn you the second time, as if I were present; and being absent now I write to those who heretofore have sinned, and to all others, that, if I come again, I will not spare: since 3 ye seek a proof of Christ speaking by me, which towards you is not weak, but is mighty in you. For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by 4 the power of God; so we also are weak with him, but we shall live with him by the power of God towards you. Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove 5 your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be without proof? But I trust that ye shall know that we are not without 6 proof. Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we may appear as having proof, 7 but that ye may do that which is good, though we be as without proof. For we 8 can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. For we are glad, when we are 9

- 10 weak, and ye are strong : and this also we wish, even your perfection. Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the LORD hath given me for edification, and not for destruction.
- 11 FINALLY, brethren, farewell. Be perfect ; be of good comfort ; be of one mind ;
- 12 live in peace ; and the God of love and peace shall be with you. Salute one another
- 13 14 with a holy kiss. All the saints salute you. The grace of the LORD Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO THE

GALATIANS.

1 PAUL, an apostle, (not from men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead ;) and all the brethren who are with me, unto the churches of Galatia : Grace and peace be to you from God the Father, and from our LORD Jesus Christ, who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father : to whom he glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I MARVEL that ye are so soon removing from him who called you into the grace of Christ unto another Gospel : which is not another ; but there are some who trouble you, and would pervert the Gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other Gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other Gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

10 For do I now seek to approve myself to men, or to God ? or do I seek to please men ? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

11 But I would remind you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached by me is not after man. For I neither received it from man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ. For ye have heard of my behaviour in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it : and made proficiency in the Jews' religion above many mine equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, who set me apart from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace, to reveal his Son to me, that I might preach him among the heathen ; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood : neither went I up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me ; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus. Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days : but I saw no other of the apostles, except James the LORD'S brother. Now of the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I affirm nothing falsely. Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia ; and was unknown by face unto the churches of Judea which were in Christ : but they had heard only, That he who persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed. And they glorified God on account of me.

2 Then, within fourteen years, I went up to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also. And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them the Gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to those who were high in reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain. But neither was Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, under any necessity to be circumcised ; but only because of the false brethren who were insidiously brought in, who came in privately to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage : to whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour ; but that the truth of the Gospel might continue with you. But of those who were esteemed to be somewhat, whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me : God accepteth no man's person : for those who were esteemed to be somewhat in conference communicated nothing new to me : but on the contrary, when James, and Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, saw that the Gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the Gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter ; (for he who wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me towards the Gentiles:) and when they perceived the grace that was given unto 9 me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the Gentiles, and they unto the circumcision. Only they desired that we should 10 remember the poor; which very thing I also was forward to do.

But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to his face, because he was 11 to be blamed. For before that certain persons came from James, he did eat with 12 the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing those who were of the circumcision. And the other Jews dissembled likewise 13 with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation. But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the Gos- 14 pel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

We who are sinners of the Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles, know- 15 ing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. But if, while we seek to be justified through Christ, we ourselves also 17 are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? By no means. For if I 18 build up again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor. For I 19 through renouncing the law have died to the law, that I might live unto God. I am 20 crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet no longer I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live through faith in the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. I do not make void the grace of God: for if 21 righteousness come by the law, then Christ hath died in vain.

O FOOLISH Galatians, who hath deceived you, that ye should not obey the 3 truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth among you as crucified? This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of 2 the law, or by the hearing of faith? Are ye so foolish, that having begun in the 3 Spirit, ye would now perfect yourselves by the flesh? Have ye suffered so many 4 things in vain? if it be in vain. He therefore who ministereth to you the 5 Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Even as Abraham believed God, and it was imputed to 6 him for righteousness.

Know ye therefore that those who are of faith, the same are the children of Abra- 7 ham: and the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles through 8 faith, preached before the Gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. So then those who are of faith are blessed with believing Abraham: for 9 10 as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one who continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is 11 evident: for, The just by faith shall live. And the law is not of faith: but, The man 12 who doeth them shall live by them. Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the 13 law, having become a curse for us: (for it is written, Cursed is every one who is hanged on a tree:) that the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles 14 through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith.

Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, 15 yet if it be confirmed, no man either disannulleth it, or addeth thereto. Now to 16 Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as to many: but as to one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. And this I say, that the covenant, which was confirmed before by God in reference to Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect: for if the inheritance were by the law, it would be no more 18 of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

WHEREFORE then was the law? It was established because of transgressions, 19 till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; having been ministered by angels in the hand of a mediator. Now a mediator is not a mediator of one 20 party, but God is one.

Is the law then against the promises of God? By no means: for if there had been 21 a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law: but the Scripture hath included all under sin, that the promise might be 22 given to those who believe by faith in Jesus Christ. But before faith came, we were 23 kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed: so 24 that the law was our schoolmaster until Christ came, that we might be justified by faith.

25 26 But now that faith hath come, we are no longer under the schoolmaster. For ye 27 are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus: for as many of you as have 28 been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. In him there is neither Jew nor 29 Greek, bond nor free, male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

4 Now I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be master of all; but is under tutors and governors until the time appointed by his father. Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world: but when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba 7 [FATHER]. Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

8 HOWEVER at that time, when ye knew not God, ye did service unto those who by their nature are no gods. But now, after that ye have known God, and more, being known by God, how turn ye again to weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage? Ye observe days, and months, and 11 times, and years. I fear for you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I was as ye are: ye have not injured me at all. Ye know how in weakness of the flesh I preached the Gospel unto you 14 at first. And my trial which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus. How great, then, was the blessedness ye spoke of! for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye 16 would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me. Am I then become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 Some show a zeal for you, but not for your good; yea, they would exclude us, that ye might show zeal for them. But it is good to be zealously affected always in 19 a good thing, and not only when I am present with you. My dear children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you, I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I stand in doubt concerning you.

21 22 Tell me, ye who desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law? For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by the bondmaid, the other by the 23 freewoman. But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh: but he 24 of the freewoman was by promise. Which things are an allegory: for these women are as the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Hagar. (For this Hagar denotes mount Sinai in Arabia, and answer- 26 eth to the Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.) But the 27 Jerusalem which is above is the freewoman, who is the mother of us all. For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren who bearest not; break forth and cry, thou who travailest not: for the desolated hath many more children than she who had a husband. Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise. But even as then he who was born after the flesh persecuted him who was born after the Spirit, 30 even so it is now. Nevertheless what saith the Scripture? Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman.—So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.

5 STAND fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with a yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you 3 nothing. For I testify again to every man who is circumcised, that he is a debtor to 4 do the whole law. Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace. For we through the Spirit wait for the 6 hope of righteousness by faith. For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth 7 any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love. Ye did run well; 8 who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth? This persuasion cometh 9 10 not from him who calleth you: a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump. Yet I have confidence in you through the LORD, that ye will be none otherwise minded: 11 but he who troubleth you shall receive his just punishment, whosoever he be. And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? for then 12 would the offence of the cross cease. I would they would even cut off themselves who unsettle you.

For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not this liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another. For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed by one another.

This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the evil desires of the flesh. For the flesh hath desires contrary to the Spirit, and the Spirit contrary to the flesh: and these are opposed the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of which I forewarn you, as I have also told you in time past, that those who do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faithfulness, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law: and those who are Christ's have crucified the flesh with its passions and evil desires. If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. Let us not be vainglorious, provoking one another, envying one another.

Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye who are spiritual, restore such a one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ. For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another: for every man shall bear his own burden.

Let him who is taught in the word communicate unto him who teacheth in all good things. Be not deceived; God is not to be deceived: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he who soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he who soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all, but especially unto those who are of the household of faith.

YE see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand. As many as desire to make a fair show in the flesh, would constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ: for they themselves who have been circumcised do not keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh. But far be it from me, that I should glory, except in the cross of our LORD Jesus Christ, by which the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation. And as many of you as walk according to this rule, peace and mercy be on you, even upon the Israel of God.

From henceforth let no man trouble me: for I bear in my body the marks of the LORD Jesus. Brethren, the grace of our LORD Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO THE

EPHESIANS.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints and to the faithful in Christ Jesus who are at Ephesus: Grace and peace be to you, from God our Father, and from the LORD Jesus Christ.

Blessed be the God and Father of our LORD Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings among heavenly beings in Christ: according as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him: having predestinated us in love unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath accepted us in the beloved. By whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the

8 riches of his grace; wherein he hath abounded towards us in all wisdom and 9 prudence; having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his 10 good pleasure which he purposed beforehand in himself: that in the dispensation of the fulness of times he would unite all things in Christ, both things which are 11 in heaven, and things which are on earth; even in him in whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who 12 worketh all things after the counsel of his own will: that we should be to the 13 praise of his glory, having first trusted in Christ. In whom ye also, having heard the word of truth, the Gospel of your salvation, and believed on him, were sealed 14 with the holy Spirit of promise; who is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

15 Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the LORD Jesus, and love unto all 16 the saints, cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;
 17 that the God of our LORD Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the 18 spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of him: so that the eyes of your understanding being enlightened, ye may know what is the hope of his calling, 19 and what the glorious riches of his inheritance in the saints, and what the exceeding greatness of his power towards us who believe, according to the working of his 20 mighty power, which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and 21 seated him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this 22 world, but also in that which is to come: and hath put all things in subjection under 23 his feet, and hath given him to be the head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fulness of him who filleth all in all.

2 And you hath he made alive, who were dead in trespasses and sins; wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience:
 3 among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the evil desires of our flesh, fulfilling the inclinations of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature 4 the children of wrath, even as others. But God, (who is rich in mercy,) for his great
 5 love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together
 6 with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) and hath raised us up together, and 7 made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: that in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness towards us through 8 Christ Jesus. For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves:
 9 10 it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast: for we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, in which God hath before provided that we should walk.

11 WHEREFORE remember, that ye were in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by 12 hands; that at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of the promise, having no hope, and 13 without God in the world: but that now in Christ Jesus ye who at one time were 14 afar off are brought nigh by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, who hath made us both to be one, and hath broken down the middle wall of separation between us; 15 (having in his flesh abolished the cause of enmity, even the law of commandments consisting of ordinances; that he might make in himself of the two one new man, 16 so making peace; and might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, 17 having slain the enmity thereby:) and came and proclaimed the glad tidings of 18 peace to you who were afar off, and to those who were nigh. For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the 20 saints, and of the household of God; and are built upon the foundation of the apos-
 21 tles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; by whom all 22 the building fitly framed together groweth unto a holy temple to the LORD: in whom ye also are builded together for a habitation of God through the Spirit.

3 For this cause I Paul am the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles, seeing ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me towards you:
 3 how that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote before in 4 few words, whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery
 5 of Christ) which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it hath 6 been now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit; that the Gentiles should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in 7 Christ by the Gospel: whereof I have been made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power. Unto me, 8 who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, to preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ; and to enlighten all men, that they may 9 see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which for ages was hidden with God, who created all things by Jesus Christ: to the intent that the manifold wisdom of God 10 might be known through the church, unto the principalities and powers in the heavenly places, according to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus 11 our LORD: by whom we have freedom and access with confidence by faith in him. 12

 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which are your glory. 13

For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our LORD Jesus Christ, from 14 15 whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, that he would grant you, ac- 16
 cording to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the 17 inner man; that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being firmly rooted 18 and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, 19 and length, and depth, and height; and to know the love of Christ, (which indeed 20 surpasseth knowledge,) that ye may be filled with all the fulness of God.

Now unto him who is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or 20 think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto him be glory in the church 21 by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

I THEREFORE, the prisoner of the LORD, beseech you that ye walk worthy of 4 the vocation wherewith ye are called, with all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love; endeavouring to keep the unity of the 3 Spirit in the bond of peace; that there may be one body, and one Spirit, even as 4 ye are called in one hope of your calling; as there is one LORD, one faith, one bap- 5
 tism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and with us all. 6

But unto each one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of 7
 Christ. Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led the captives 8 captive, and received gifts for men. (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he 9 also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? He who descended is the same 10 also who ascended up far above the heavens, that he might fill all things.) And he 11 gave some to apostles; and some to prophets; and some to evangelists; and some to pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints for the work of the ministry, 12 for the edifying of the body of Christ: till we all come into the unity of the faith, and 13 of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: so that we henceforth be no more children, tossed to 14 and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the artifice and cunning craftiness of men, whereby they lie in wait to deceive; but holding the truth in love, 15 may grow up into him in all things, who is the head, even Christ: in whom the 16 whole body fitly joined together and compacted through every joint, according to the effectual working of the nourishment supplied by every part, maketh increase of the body unto the building up of itself in love.

This I say therefore, and charge you in the LORD, that ye henceforth walk not as 17 other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind, having the understanding darkened, 18 being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardness of their heart: who being past feeling have given themselves over 19 unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness. But ye have not so 20 learned Christ; if so be that ye have indeed heard him, and have been taught by 21 him, as the truth is in Jesus: to put off concerning the former conversation the old 22 man, which was corrupted by deceitful desires; and be renewed in the spirit of your 23 mind; and to put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and 24 in the holiness of truth.

Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we 25 are members one of another.

If ye be angry, sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath: neither give 26 27 place to the devil.

Let him who stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his 28 hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him who needeth.

Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good 29 for the use of edifying, that it may minister benefit unto the hearers: and grieve 30 not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put 31 away from you, with all malice: and be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, for- 32 giving one another, even as God in Christ hath freely forgiven you. Be ye therefore 5 followers of God, as beloved children; and walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savour.

3 But let not fornication, nor any kind of uncleanness, nor covetousness, be once
4 named among you, (as becometh saints;) neither filthy nor foolish talking, nor jest-
5 ing, which are not becoming: but rather giving of thanks. For, be ye sure of this,
6 that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath 7 any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no man deceive you with 8 vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the chil-9 dren of disobedience. Be not ye therefore partakers with them. Ye were former-10 ly darkness, but now that ye are light in the LORD walk as children of light:
11 (for the fruit of the light is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;) approving 12 what is acceptable unto the LORD. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful 13 works of darkness, but rather reprove them. For it is a shame even to speak of 14 those things which are done by them in secret. But all these things are reprov'd 15 and made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Where-16 fore the Scripture saith, Awake thou who sleepest, and arise from the dead, and 17 Christ shall give thee light.

18 See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, redeeming the time, 19 because the days are evil. Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the 20 will of the LORD is. And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled 21 with the Spirit; speaking to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, 22 singing and making melody in your hearts to the LORD; giving thanks always for 23 all things unto our God and Father in the name of our LORD Jesus Christ; sub-24 mitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

25 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the LORD: for the 26 husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he 27 is the saviour of the body. Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let 28 the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

29 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself
30 for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by his word, 31 that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle,
32 or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. So ought hus-
33 bands to love their wives as their own bodies. He who loveth his wife loveth 34 himself: for no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, 35 even as the LORD doth the church: for we are members of his body, of his flesh, 36 and of his bones. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be 37 joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. This is the great mystery: but I
38 speak concerning Christ and the church. Nevertheless let each one of you in particu-
39 lar so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

6 Children, obey your parents in the LORD: for this is right. Honour thy father and mother, (which is the first commandment with promise,) that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

4 And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the LORD.

5 Servants, be obedient to those who are your masters according to the flesh, with 6 fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ: not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the 7 heart; with good will doing service, as to the LORD, and not to men: knowing that 8 whatsoever good thing any one doeth, the same shall he receive of the LORD, whe-9 ther he be bond or free.

9 And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that both your and their Master also is in heaven; and that there is no respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the LORD, and in the power of his might.
11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of 12 the devil. For we wrestle not only with flesh and blood, but with principalities, 13 with powers, with the rulers of the darkness of this world, with the spiritual powers 14 of wickedness in the air. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that 15 ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having overcome all, to stand.
16 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breast-17 plate of righteousness; and your feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel of 18 peace; over all these, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench 19 all the fiery darts of the wicked one. And take the helmet of salvation, and the 20 sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints; and for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may 19 open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the Gospel, (for which I am 20 an ambassador in chains :) that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

BUT that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the LORD, shall make known to you every thing: 21 whom I have sent unto you for the very purpose, that ye may know our affairs, and 22 that he may comfort your hearts.

Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the LORD 23 Jesus Christ. Grace be with all those who love our LORD Jesus Christ in sincerity. 24

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO THE

PHILIPPIANS.

PAUL and Timothy, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus 1 who are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons: Grace and peace be unto you, from God our Father, and from the LORD Jesus Christ.

I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, always in every prayer of mine 3 4 making request for you all with joy, for your fellowship in the Gospel from the 5 first day until now; being confident of this, that he who hath begun a good work in 6 you will complete it against the day of Jesus Christ: even as it is meet for me to 7 think this of you all, because you have me in your hearts; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the Gospel, ye all are partakers with me of grace. For God is my witness, how greatly I long after you all with 8 the tender affection of Jesus Christ. And this I pray, that your love may abound 9 yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment; that ye may try things that 10 differ: that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ; being 11 filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened 12 unto me have tended rather unto the furtherance of the Gospel; so that my bonds 13 are well known in all the palace, and in all other places, to be on account of Christ; and many of the brethren in the LORD, waxing confident by my bonds, are much 14 more bold to speak the word without fear. Some indeed preach Christ even from 15 envy and strife; and some also from good will: some preach Christ from contention, 16 not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds: but others from love, know- 17 ing that I am set for the defence of the Gospel. What then? notwithstanding, 18 in every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice. For I know that this shall turn to my deliverance 19 through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, according to my 20 earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by my life, or by my death.

For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. But whether this living in the flesh 21 22 be profitable for me; or which I should choose I know not. For I am in a strait 23 betwixt the two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better: nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for your sakes. And being con- 24 25 fident of this, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy in the faith; that your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ 26 for me through my coming to you again.

Only let your conduct be as becometh the Gospel of Christ: that whether I come 27 and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the Gospel; (and in nothing 28 terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that from God. For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, 29 not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;) having the same conflict 30 which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

2 If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any tender affections and mercies, fulfil ye my joy, that ye be
3 likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, minding the one thing; doing nothing through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind esteeming others
4 better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 6 Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: who, being in the form
7 of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: yet he made himself of no reputation, but took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness
8 of men: and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became 9 obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Wherefore God also hath highly 10 exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: that in the name of 11 Jesus every knee should bow, of things in the heavens, and things on earth, and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is LORD, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, diligently work out your own salvation with fear
13 and trembling; for it is God who worketh in you both to will and to do of his good
14 15 pleasure. Do all things without murmurings and disputings: that ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of an untoward and perverse generation, among whom shine ye as lights in the world, holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

17 Yea, and even if I be offered for the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and 18 rejoice with you all: and in like manner also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

19 But I trust in the LORD Jesus to send Timothy shortly unto you, that I also may 20 be of good comfort, when I know your state. For I have no man equally affectionate, who will sincerely care for your state: for all seek their own, not the things
21 which are Jesus Christ's. But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with a father,
22 he hath served with me in the Gospel. Him therefore I hope to send forthwith, so
23 soon as I shall see how it will go with me. But I trust in the LORD that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 Yet I thought it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labour, and fellowsoldier, but your messenger, and one who ministered to my 26 wants. For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because ye had heard 27 that he had been sick. For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had pity on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.
28 I sent him therefore the more speedily, that, when ye see him again, ye may 29 rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful. Receive him therefore in the LORD
30 with all gladness; and hold such in reputation: because through the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service towards me.

3 FINALLY, my brethren, rejoice in the LORD. To write the same things to you, is not indeed irksome to me, and for you it is safe.

2 3 Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision. For we are the circumcision, who worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have
4 no confidence in the flesh. Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:
5 circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of the Hebrews; concerning the law, a Pharisee; concerning zeal, persecuting
6 the church; concerning the righteousness which is in the law, blameless. But what
7 things were gain to me, those I have counted loss for Christ. Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my LORD: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but
8 refuse, that I may win Christ, and be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is by the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness
9 which is of God by faith: that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death; if by any means I might attain unto the resurrection and future state of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already attained the prize, or were already perfected: but I follow after it, if that I may but lay hold of that for which also I am apprehended of 13 Christ Jesus. Brethren, I count not myself to have laid hold of the prize: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto 14 those things which are before, I press towards the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

Let us therefore, as many as would be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you. Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing. Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark those who walk so as ye have us for an example. (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.) For our citizenship is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the LORD Jesus Christ: who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself. Therefore, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and my crown, so stand fast in the LORD, my dearly beloved. 4

I beseech Euodia, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the LORD. And I entreat thee also, true companion, help those women who laboured with me in the Gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellowlabourers, whose names are in the book of life. 2 3

Rejoice in the LORD always: and again I say, Rejoice. Let your moderation be known unto all men. The LORD is at hand. Be anxious for nothing; but in every thing, by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God: and the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. 4 5 6 7

Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honourable, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; whatever virtue there be, whatever praise there be, think on these things. Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you. 8 9

But I have rejoiced in the LORD greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath revived again; which indeed was in your mind, but ye lacked opportunity. Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content. I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: always and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both how to abound and to suffer need. I can bear all things through Christ who strengtheneth me. 10 11 12 13

Notwithstanding ye have well done, that ye did contribute to relieve my affliction. And yourselves also, O Philippians, know, that in the beginning of the Gospel, when I was departing from Macedonia, no church communicated with me concerning giving and receiving, but ye only: and even when I was in Thessalonica ye sent once and again to relieve my necessity. Not that I desire the gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account. I myself have every thing, and abound: I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent by you, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, wellpleasing to God. But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus. Now unto God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen. 14 15 16 17 18 19 20

Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren who are with me salute you. All the saints salute you, chiefly those of Cæsar's household. The grace of our LORD Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen. 21 22 23

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO THE

COLOSSIANS.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the saints and faithful brethren in Christ who are at Colosse: Grace and peace be unto you, from God our Father and the LORD Jesus Christ. 1

We give thanks to the God and Father of our LORD Jesus Christ, (praying always for you, since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints,) for the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof 5

6 ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel ; which is come unto you, as it is in all the world, and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye
7 heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth : as ye also learned of Epaphras our
8 dear fellow-servant, who is a faithful minister of Christ towards you ; who also declared unto us your love in the bonds of that one Spirit, who unites all our hearts.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard these things, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye may be filled with the knowledge of the will of God in
10 all wisdom and spiritual understanding ; that ye may walk worthy of the LORD so as to please him in all things, being fruitful in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God ; being strengthened with all might, according to his glorious
11 power, unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness ; giving thanks unto the Father, who hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in 12 light : who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son : by whom we have redemption through his blood,
13 even the forgiveness of sins : who is the image of the invisible God, the LORD of 14 all creation : for by him were all things created, that are in the heavens, and that are on the earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or 15 principalities, or powers : all things were created by him, and for him : and he is before all things, and by him all things subsist. And he is the head of his body, the church : he is the beginning, the firstfruits from the dead ; that in all things he might have the pre-eminence.

19 20 For it seemed good, that in him all fulness should dwell : and, having made peace through the blood of his cross, through him to reconcile all things unto himself ; through him, alike, whether they be things on the earth, or things in the heavens.

21 And you, who were at one time aliens and enemies by a mind intent on wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled in the body of his flesh through his death, to present you holy and unblameable and unproveable in his sight : if ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the Gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached in all the creation under the heavens ; whereof I Paul am made a minister.

24 Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and go on to fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake which is the church : of which I am become a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is
25 given to me for you, fully to preach the word of God ; even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints : to whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among 26 the Gentiles ; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory : whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom ; that we may present every man
27 perfect in Christ : whereunto I also labour, striving according to the effectual working of him, who worketh in me mightily.

2 FOR I would that ye knew what great concern I have for you, and for those at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh ; that their hearts may be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto the richest and most assured understanding ; unto a knowledge of the mystery of God the Father, and of

3 4 Christ ; in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words. For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ. As ye have therefore received Jesus as 7 Christ the LORD, so walk ye in him : rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

8 Beware lest any man ensnare you through philosophy and vain deceit, according to the tradition of men, according to the principles of the world, and not according
9 10 to Christ. For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily : and ye are complete in him, who is the head of all principality and power : in whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ : ye, having been buried together with him in baptism, in which also ye have been raised up together with him through
11 the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead : and you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he made alive
12 together with him, having freely forgiven you all trespasses ; blotting out the handwriting in ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross ; and having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in himself.

16 Let no one therefore judge you in meats, or in drinks, or in respect of a holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath : which are a shadow of things to come ; but 17 the body is of Christ. Let no man defraud you of your reward by an affected hu- 18 mility and the worship of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his carnal mind, and not holding the Head, from which all the 19 body, nourished and connected by joints and ligaments, increaseth with the increase of God.

Wherefore if ye have died with Christ to the principles of the world, why, as if ye 20 were still living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances, (Touch not; taste not; 21 handle not; all which tend to corruption by the abuse of them;) after the commands 22 and doctrines of men? all which things have indeed a show of wisdom in will wor- 23 ship, and humility, and not sparing of the body; yet are not of any value against the glatification of the flesh.

If then ye have been raised together with Christ, seek those things which are 3 above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye have died, and your life is hid with Christ 3 in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with 4 him in glory.

Mortify therefore your members as to things which are upon the earth; fornication, 5 uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil desires, and covetousness, which is idol- 6 atry : on account of which things the wrath of God cometh on the children of dis- 6 obedience : in which ye also walked at one time, when ye lived in them. But now 7 8 ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, evil speaking, filthy communication out of your mouth. Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man 9 with his deeds; and have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after 10 the image of him who created him : in whom there is neither Greek nor Jew, cir- 11 cumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free : but Christ is all,
and in all.

Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, tender mercies, kindness, 12
humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering; forbearing one another, and forgiving 13 one another, if any man have cause of complaint against another : even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. And over all these things put on love, which is the bond 14 of perfection. And let the peace of God, to which also ye are called in one body, 15 rule in your hearts; and be ye thankful.

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; in all wisdom teaching and admonish- 16 ing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to your LORD. And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name 17 of the LORD Jesus, giving thanks to God, even the Father, by him.

Wives, submit yourselves unto your husbands, as it is fit in the LORD. Husbands, 18 19 love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

Children, obey your parents in all things : for this is wellpleasing unto the LORD. 20
Fathers, provoke not your children, lest they be discouraged. 21

Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eyeser- 22 vice, as menpleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God : and whatsoever ye do, 23 do it heartily, as to the LORD, and not unto men; knowing that of the LORD ye 24 shall receive the reward of the inheritance : for ye serve the LORD Christ. But he 25 who doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done : and there is no respect of persons.

Masters, give unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye 4 also have a Master in heaven.

Continue in prayer, watching therein with thanksgiving; at the same time praying 2 3 also for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, (for which I am also in bonds :) that I may make it manifest, speaking as 4
I ought to speak.

Walk in wisdom towards those who are without, redeeming the time. Let your 5 6 speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every one.

ALL things concerning me shall Tychicus, who is a beloved brother, and a faith- 7 ful minister and fellowservant in the LORD, make known unto you : whom I 8 have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your state, and comfort your hearts; together with Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is 9 one of you. They will make known unto you all things which are done here.

Aristarchus my fellowprisoner saluteth you, and Mark, sister's son to Barnabas, 10
(touching whom ye received instructions : if he come unto you, receive him;) and 11
Jesus, who is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These have been my only

- 12 fellowworkers unto the kingdom of God, who have been a comfort unto me. Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always wrestling fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God.
- 13 For I bear him record, that he hath a great concern for you, and those in Laodicea, and those in Hierapolis. Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas, salute you.
- 15 Salute the brethren who are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the church which is in his house. And when this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that ye likewise read the epistle sent from Laodicea. And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the LORD, that thou fulfil it.
- 18 The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO THE

THESSALONIANS.

- 1 PAUL, and Silas, and Timothy, unto the church of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father and in the LORD Jesus Christ: Grace and peace be unto you, from God our Father, and the LORD Jesus Christ.
- 2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers; remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our LORD Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father: knowing, brethren beloved of God, your election by him. For the Gospel preached by us came not unto you in word only, but also with power, and with the Holy Spirit, and with much assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake. And ye became followers of us, and of the LORD, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit: so that ye were examples to all who believe in Macedonia and Achaia. For from you sounded out the word of the LORD not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith towards God is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing concerning it. For they themselves declare of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God; and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, who delivereth us from the wrath to come.
- 2 For ye yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain: but even after we had suffered before, and were shamefully treated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the Gospel of God amidst much opposition. For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile: but as we were approved of God to be put in trust with the Gospel, even so we speak it; not as pleasing men, but God, who trieth our hearts. For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak for covetousness; God is witness: nor of men sought we honour, neither of you, nor yet of others, though we might have used authority, as the apostles of Christ. But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children: so being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the Gospel of God only, but also our own lives, because ye were dear unto us. For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: how labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the Gospel of God. Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you who believe: as ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children, that ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.
- 13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you who believe.
- 14 For ye, brethren, are become followers of the churches of God which in Judea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews: who both killed the LORD Jesus, and the prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are against all men: forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles so that they might be saved: thus always filling up the measure of their sins: but wrath is coming upon them to the uttermost.

BUT we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, have endeavoured earnestly with great desire to see your face. Wherefore we (even I Paul) would have come unto you once and again; but Satan hindered us. For what will be our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Will not even ye be in the presence of our LORD Jesus Christ at his coming? For verily ye are our glory and joy.

Wherefore when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone; and sent Timothy, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellow-labourer in the Gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith: that no one should be moved by these my afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto. For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, as ye know. For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter might have tempted you, and our labour have been in vain.

But now when Timothy came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you: therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith: for now we live, if ye stand fast in the LORD. For what thanks can we render to God for you, for the exceeding great joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God; night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

Now God himself, even our Father, and our LORD Jesus Christ, direct our way unto you. And may the LORD make you to increase and abound in love towards one another, and towards all men, even as we do towards you: to the end that he may establish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our LORD Jesus Christ with all his saints.

FURTHERMORE then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the LORD Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more. For ye know what commandments we gave you by the LORD Jesus. For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from impurity: that every one of you should know how to keep his body in sanctification and honour; not given up to lustful passions, even as the Gentiles who know not God: that no man transgress and defraud his brother in the matter: because that the LORD is the avenger of all such things, as we also have forewarned you and testified. For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. He therefore who despiseth us, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

But concerning brotherly love ye need not that I write unto you: for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another: and indeed ye do it towards all the brethren who are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase therein more and more; and that ye study to live quietly, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you; that ye may walk honestly towards those who are without, and that ye may have need of nothing.

BUT I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning those who are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so those also who sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the LORD, that we who are alive and remain unto the coming of the LORD shall not rise before those who are asleep. For the LORD himself shall descend from the heavens with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the LORD in the air: and so shall we ever be with the LORD. Wherefore exhort and comfort one another with these words.

But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you. For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the LORD will come as a thief in the night. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a

I. THESSALONIANS V.

- 5 thief. Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day : we are not children of the night, nor of darkness. Therefore let us not sleep, as do others ; but let us watch and be sober. For those who sleep sleep in the night ; and those who are drunken are drunken in the night. But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love ; and for a helmet, the hope of salvation. For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation through our LORD Jesus Christ, who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him. Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.
- 12 NOW we beseech you, brethren, to know those who labour among you, and are over you in the LORD, and admonish you ; and to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves.
- 14 Now we exhort you, brethren, warn those who are unruly, comfort the feeble-minded, support the weak, be longsuffering towards all.
- 15 See that none render evil for evil unto any one ; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and towards all.
- 16-18 Rejoice evermore. Pray without ceasing. In every thing give thanks : for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.
- 19-21 Quench not the Spirit. Despise not prophesyings. Prove all things ; hold fast that which is good. Abstain from every kind of evil.
- 23 And the God of peace himself sanctify you wholly ; and may your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved unblameably unto the coming of our LORD Jesus Christ. Faithful is he who calleth you, who also will do this.
- 25-27 Brethren, pray for us. Salute all the brethren with a holy kiss. I charge you by the LORD that this epistle be read unto all the holy brethren.
- 28 The grace of our LORD Jesus Christ be with you.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO THE

THESSALONIANS.

- 1 PAUL, and Silas, and Timothy, unto the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the LORD Jesus Christ : Grace and peace unto you, from God our Father and the LORD Jesus Christ.
- 3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because your faith groweth exceedingly, and the love of every one of you all towards each other aboundeth ; so that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God on account of your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure : which is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be accounted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer. Seeing that it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to those who trouble you ; but to you who are troubled rest with us, when the LORD Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on those who know not God, and who obey not the Gospel of our LORD Jesus Christ : who shall be punished with everlasting destruction by the anger of the LORD, and by the glory of his power ; when he shall come in that day to be glorified by his saints, and to be admired by all those who believe, even as our testimony among you was believed.
- 11 Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would account you worthy of his calling, and fulfil in you all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power : that the name of our LORD Jesus Christ may be glorified by you, and ye by him, according to the grace of Jesus Christ our God and LORD.
- 2 NOW we beseech you, brethren, concerning the coming of our LORD Jesus Christ, and our gathering together unto him, that ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, either by spirit, or by word, or by letter as from us, as if the day of Christ were at hand. Let no man deceive you by any means : for that day shall not come, except there first come the falling away, and there be revealed the man of sin, the son of perdition, who opposeth and exalteth himself against all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself forth as a god.

Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things? And ye know what withholdeth him now that he may be revealed in his own time. For the mystery of unrighteousness doth already work: only there is one who hindereth it, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall the unrighteous one be revealed, whom the LORD shall consume with the breath of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all false miracles and signs and lying wonders, and with all deceitfulness of unrighteousness among those who perish: because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God will send them strong delusion, so that they shall believe the lie: that they all may be condemned who believe not the truth, but have pleasure in unrighteousness.

But we are bound to give thanks always to God for you, brethren beloved of the LORD, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth: whereunto he called you by our Gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our LORD Jesus Christ.

Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by our word, or epistle. Now our LORD Jesus Christ himself, and our God and Father, who hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts, and establish you in every good word and work.

FINALLY, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the LORD may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is among you: and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men, who hold not the faith. But the LORD is faithful, who shall establish you, and keep you from the evil one. And we have confidence in the LORD concerning you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you. And may the LORD direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patience of Christ.

Now we command you, brethren, by the name of our LORD Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother who walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which ye received of us. For yourselves know how ye ought to imitate us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you; neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and toil night and day, that we might not be burdensome to any of you: not because we have not right, but that we might make ourselves an example unto you to imitate us. For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat. For we hear that there are some who walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies. Now those who are such we command and exhort by our LORD Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread. But ye, brethren, be not weary in well doing. And if any man obey not our word by our epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed: yet regard him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother. Now the LORD of peace himself give you peace always in every condition. The LORD be with you all.

The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write. The grace of our LORD Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO

TIMOTHY.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the appointment of God our Saviour, and LORD Jesus Christ, our hope; unto Timothy, mine own son by faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our LORD.

According as I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine, neither 4

I. TIMOTHY II. III.

give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which promote disputes, rather than godly edifying which is through faith: so do.

5 Now the end of the commandment is love out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned: from which some having swerved have been turned
7 aside unto vain jangling; desiring to be teachers of the law; yet understanding
8 neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm. But we know that the law is good,
9 if a man use it lawfully; knowing this, that the law is not made against a righteous man, but against the lawless and disobedient, against the ungodly and against sinners, against unholy and profane, against murderers of fathers and murderers of 10 mothers, against manslayers, against whoremongers, against those who defile themselves with mankind, against menstealers, against liars, against perjured persons,
11 and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine; according to the 12 glorious Gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. And I thank Christ Jesus our LORD, who hath strengthened me, because he accounted 13 me faithful, having put me into the ministry, who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious, because I acted ignorantly in unbelief. But I obtained
14 mercy, and the grace of our LORD was exceedingly abundant with faith and love
15 which is in Christ Jesus. This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance, 16 that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief. However for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me, a chief sinner, Jesus Christ might 17 show forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to those who should hereafter believe on him to everlasting life. Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only 18 wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.
19 This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which 20 went before concerning thee, that thou by them may war the good warfare; holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away have made shipwreck of 21 faith: of whom are Hymenæus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

2 I EXHORT therefore, first of all, that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; for kings, and for all who are in authority;
3 that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. For this
4 is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour; who commandeth all men
5 to be saved, and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, and 6 one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; who gave himself a
7 ransom for all: for a testimony to which, in due time, I have been ordained a
8 preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth, and lie not;) a teacher of the Gentiles
9 in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath
9 and doubting. In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with plaited hair, or gold, or pearls, or 10 costly garments; but (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.
11 12 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. But I suffer not a woman to 13 teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence. For Adam was 14 first formed, then Eve: and Adam was not first deceived, but the woman being de-15 ceived was in the transgression. Notwithstanding she shall be saved through child-16 bearing, if she continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

3 THIS is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth an honourable work. A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant,
3 prudent, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach; not given to wine, not quarrelsome, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not contentious, not covet-
4 ous; one who ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all
5 gravity; (for if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care
6 of the church of God?) not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the 7 condemnation of the devil. Moreover he must have a good report of those who 8 are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must the deacons be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, 9 not greedy of filthy lucre; holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.
10 And let these also first be proved; and then, if they be found blameless, let them
11 use the office of a deacon. Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, prudent, faithful in all things. Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling 13 their children and their own houses well: for those who have performed the office of 14 a deacon well purchase to themselves an honourable rank, and great boldness in the 15 faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 15 These things write I unto thee, (hoping to come unto thee shortly: but if I tarry long,) that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and support of the truth, and without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God manifested in the flesh, justified by the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, and received up into glory.

Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines concerning evil spirits; speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron; forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be enjoyed with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth: for every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving: for it is sanctified by the word of God and by prayer.

If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of that good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained. But reject profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness; for bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance: for therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the preserver of all men, especially of those who believe. These things command and teach.

Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example to the believers, in word, in conversation, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity. Till I come, give attention to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the elders. Exercise thyself in these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear in all things. Take heed unto thyself, and unto thy teaching; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and those who hear thee.

REBUKE not an elder, but entreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren; the elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

Honour widows who are widows indeed. But if any widow have children or descendants, let such learn first to show piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God. Now she who is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day: but she who liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth. And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless. But if any one provide not for his own, and especially for those of his own household, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

Let not a widow be taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one husband, well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work. But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to grow weary of the restraint of Christ, they will desire to marry; exposing themselves to condemnation, because they have cast off their first faith. And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not. I will therefore that the younger widows marry, bear children, guide their household, and give no occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. For some are already turned aside after Satan. If any man or woman who believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be burdened; that it may relieve those who are widows indeed and desolate.

Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially those who labour in the word and in teaching. For the Scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, The labourer is worthy of his reward.

Against an elder receive not an accusation, but on the testimony of two or three witnesses. Those who sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear. I charge thee in the presence of our God and LORD Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.

Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure. Drink no longer water only, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities.

Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before them to judgment; and some

I. TIMOTHY VI.

25 men they follow after: so also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and those that are otherwise cannot be hidden.

6 LET those servants who are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed. And let none who have believing masters despise them, because they are brethren; but rather serve them the more willingly, because they are faithful and beloved, being partakers of the same benefit. These things teach and exhort.

3 If any one teach otherwise, and consent not to the sound words of our LORD Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness; he is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, from which come envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, who suppose godliness to be gain: (from such withdraw thyself.)

6 7 But godliness with contentment is great gain: for we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. Having then food and covering let us be therewith content. But those who will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful gratifications, which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is a root of all evil: which while some eagerly coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on everlasting life, whereunto thou hast been called, and hast confessed a good confession before many witnesses. I give thee charge in the sight of God, who giveth life to all, and of Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed the good confession; that thou keep this, my commandment, without spot, unrebukeable, until the appearing of our LORD Jesus Christ: which in his times he shall show, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and LORD of lords; who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen.

17 Charge those who are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust to the uncertainty of riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; that they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate; laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on everlasting life.

20 O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called: which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO

TIMOTHY.

1 PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus, to Timothy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our LORD.

3 I give thanks to God, (whom I serve as did my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day; greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;) when I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands. For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of courage, and of love, and of a sound mind.

8 Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our LORD, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the Gospel according to the power of God; who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and the grace which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began; but hath now been made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath vanquished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the Gospel: whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles. For which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know in whom I have trusted, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

II. TIMOTHY II. III.

Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Spirit who dwelleth in us.

This thou knowest, that all those who are in Asia have turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes. The LORD show mercy unto the household of Onesiphorus; for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain: but, when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me. The LORD grant unto him that he may find mercy of the LORD in that day: and in how many things he ministered unto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

THOU therefore, my son, be strengthened by the grace that is in Christ Jesus. And the things that thou hast heard from me, and which have been attested by many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also. Endure thou hardship, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No man who warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier. And if a man also contend for victory in the games, yet is he not crowned, except he contend lawfully. The husbandman must first labour before he be partaker of the fruits. Consider what I say; and the LORD give thee understanding in all things.

Remember that Jesus is the Christ of the seed of David who was raised from the dead according to the Gospel which I preach: for which I suffer trouble, as an evildoer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound. Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. It is a faithful saying: That if we die with him, we shall also live with him: if we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we disown him, he also will disown us: if we be unfaithful, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.

Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the LORD that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers. Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman who needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. But shun profane and vain babblings: for they will further increase ungodliness. And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymenæus and Philetus; who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The LORD knoweth those who are his. And, Let every one who nameth the name of the LORD depart from iniquity. But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour. If a man therefore cleanse himself from these things, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, prepared unto every good work.

Flee also youthful desires: but follow righteousness, faith, love, peace, with those who call on the LORD out of a pure heart. But foolish and unprofitable questions avoid, knowing that they engender contention. And the servant of the LORD must not be contentious; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient, in meekness instructing those who oppose themselves; if at some time God peradventure may give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; so that they who have been taken captive by the devil, may awake out of the snare, to do the will of God.

This know also, that in the latter days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those who are good, traitors, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; having a form of godliness, but denying its power: from such turn away. For of this sort are those who creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers passions, ever learning, yet never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. And as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of cor-

II. TIMOTHY IV.

- 9 rupt minds, unsound in faith. But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as theirs also was.
- 10 But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, love, patience, persecutions, afflictions, such as befell me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra, what persecutions I endured; but out of them all the LORD delivered
- 12 13 me. Yea, and all who will live godlily in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. But evil men and seducers will wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.
- 14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them; and that from a child thou hast known the holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for conviction, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.
- 4 I charge thee therefore before God, and the LORD Jesus Christ, who shall judge the living and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom; preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own evil desires will they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they will turn away their ears from the truth, and be turned aside unto fables. But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, fulfil thy ministry.
- 6 7 For I am now ready to be offered up, and the time of my departure is at hand: I have fought the good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the LORD, the righteous judge, will give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all those also who love his appearing.
- 9 10 DO thy diligence to come shortly unto me: for Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia. Luke only is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry. And Tychicus have I sent to Ephesus.
- 13 The bag that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the books, but especially the parchments.
- 14 Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: the LORD reward him according to his works: of whom be thou aware also; for he hath greatly withstood our words.
- 16 At my first answer no man stood with me, but all forsook me: may it not be laid to their charge! But the LORD stood by me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching of the Gospel might be fully and boldly declared, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. And the LORD will deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.
- 19 20 Salute Priscilla and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus. Erastus abode at Corinth: but Trophimus have I left at Miletus sick. Do thy diligence to come before winter.
- Eubulus, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren salute thee.
- 22 The LORD Jesus Christ be with thy spirit. Grace be with you.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL

TO

TITUS.

- 1 PAUL, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is according to godliness; in hope of everlasting life, which God, who cannot lie, promised before the world began; but hath in due time manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me according to the commandment of God our Saviour; to Titus, mine own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the LORD Jesus Christ our Saviour.

For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that 5 were left undone, and ordain elders in every city, as I directed thee : if any be 6 blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children, not accused of excess, or unruly. For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God ; not selfwilled, not 7 soon angry, not given to wine, not contentious, not given to filthy lucre ; but hos- 8 pitable, a lover of good men, prudent, just, holy, temperate ; holding fast the faith- 9 ful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort men, and to convince the gainsayers.

For there are many unruly persons, vain talkers and deceivers, especially those of 10
the circumcision : whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole households, 11 teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. One of themselves, even 12 a poet of their own, hath said, The Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, slothful glut-tons. This testimony is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be- 13 come sound in the faith ; not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of 14 men, who turn from the truth. Unto the pure all things are pure : but unto those 15 who are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure ; but even their mind and conscience are defiled. They profess that they know God ; but in works they deny 16 him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work without discernment.

But speak thou the things which become sound doctrine : that the aged men 2 be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in love, in patience. The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh saints, not slanderers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things ; that they may teach the young women to be 4 prudent, to love their husbands, to love their children, to be discreet, chaste, keep- 5 ers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed. The young men likewise exhort to be sober minded. In all things 6 7 show thyself a pattern of good works : in doctrine show uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity, sound speech, that cannot be condemned ; that he who is opposed to it may 8 be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well 9 in all things ; not answering again ; not purloining, but showing all good fidelity ; 10 that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching 11 12 us that, denying ungodliness and worldly desires, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world ; looking for the blessed hope, and the 13 glorious appearing of our great God and Saviour Jesus Christ ; who gave himself 14 for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. These things teach, and exhort, and rebuke with all 15 authority. Let no man despise thee.

Put them in mind to be subject to governments and authorities, to obey magis- 3 trates, to be ready to every good work, to speak evil of no man, not to be contentious, but gentle, showing all meekness unto all men. For we ourselves also were 3 at one time foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers evil passions and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

But after that the pity of God our Saviour, and his love towards man, appeared, 4 not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he 5 saved us, through the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Spirit ; which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour ; that being justi- 6 7 fied through his grace, we should become heirs according to the hope of everlasting life.

It is a faithful saying, and concerning these things I will that thou affirm con- 8 stantly, that those who have believed in God should be careful to excel in good works.
These are things which are good and profitable unto men : but avoid foolish ques- 9 tions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law ; for they are unprofitable and vain. A man who is a heretic, after a first and second admonition 10 reject ; knowing that he who is such is turned aside, and sinneth, being self-con- 11 demned.

WHEN I shall send Artemas unto thee, or Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me 12 to Nicopolis : for I have determined there to winter. Bring Zenas the teacher of 13 the law and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.
And let all learn to excel in honest trades for necessary purposes, that they be not 14 unfruitful. All who are with me salute thee. Salute those who love us in the 15 faith. Grace be with you all.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL

TO

PHILEMON.

- 1 PAUL, a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, unto Philemon our 2 dearly beloved, and fellowlabourer, and to our beloved Apphia, and Archippus our 3 fellowsoldier, and to the church in thy house : Grace and peace to you, from God
4 our Father and the LORD Jesus Christ.
- 5 I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers, (hearing of the 6 faith which thou hast towards the LORD Jesus, and of thy love towards all saints ;)
7 that the communication of thy faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of 8 every good thing which is in you towards Christ Jesus. For we have great joy and 9 consolation in thy love, because the spirits of the saints are refreshed by thee, brother.
- 10 Wherefore, though I might be very bold in Christ to enjoin thee that which is 11 proper, yet for love's sake I rather beseech thee, as Paul the aged, and now also a 12 prisoner of Jesus Christ. I beseech thee for my son Onesimus, whom I have begotten
13 in my bonds : who in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now is profitable to thee
14 and to me : whom I have sent back : thou therefore receive him, who is as part of 15 myself : whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might have 16 ministered unto me in the bonds of the Gospel : but without thy mind I would do 17 nothing ; that thy good deed should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly.
- 18 For perhaps he departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever ; not 19 now as a servant, but above a servant, as a brother ; beloved very much by me, but 20 how much more by thee, both in the flesh, and in the LORD ? If thou count me
21 therefore as a partner, receive him as myself. If he hath wronged thee, or oweth
22 thee ought, put that to mine account. I Paul have written it with mine own hand, 23 I will repay it : although I do not say to thee that thou owest unto me even thine 24 own self besides. Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the LORD : refresh my 25 spirits in the LORD. Having confidence in thy obedience I have thus written unto 26 thee, knowing that thou wilt also do even more than I say. But moreover prepare 27 me also a lodging : for I trust that through your prayers I shall be given unto you.
- 28 Epaphras, my fellowprisoner in Christ Jesus, saluteth thee, and also Mark, Aris-29 tarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellowlabourers. The grace of our LORD Jesus 30 Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO THE

HEBREWS.

- 1 GOD, who at sundry times and in divers manners spoke in time past unto the fa-
2 thers by the prophets, hath in these latter days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he 3 hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds ; who, (being the 4 brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all
5 things by the word of his power,) when he had by the sacrifice of himself made an 6 atonement for our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high ; being 7 exalted so much above the angels, as he hath by right of inheritance obtained a 8 more excellent name than they.
- 9 For unto which of the angels said God at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have 10 I begotten thee ? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son ?
11 And when he bringeth again the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, Worship
12 him, all ye his angels. And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, 13 and his ministers a flame of fire. But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever : a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom. Thou hast 9 loved righteousness, and hated iniquity ; therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows. And, Thou, LORD, in the beginning 10 hast laid the foundation of the earth ; and the heavens are the works of thy hands :

they shall perish ; but thou remainest ; and they all shall wax old as doth a gar- 11
ment ; and as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed : but thou 12 art the same, and thy years shall have no end.

But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make 13 thine enemies thy footstool ? Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to min- 14 ister to those who are heirs of salvation ?

(Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have 2 heard, lest at any time we should let them escape. For if the word which was spoken by angels was steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward ; how shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation ; 3 which at the first began to be spoken by the LORD, and was confirmed unto us by those who heard him ; God also bearing testimony, both with signs and wonders, 4 and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to his own will ?)

For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we 5 speak. But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mind- 6 ful of him ? or the son of man, that thou visitest him ? Thou madest him for a little 7 while inferior to the angels ; thou crowndest him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands : thou hast put all things in subjection under 8 his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him. But we see 9
Jesus, who was made for a little while inferior to the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour ; that he by the grace of God should taste death for all. For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, 10 in bringing many sons to glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

For both he who sanctifieth and those who are sanctified are all of one : for which 11 cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, saying, I will declare thy name unto 12 my brethren, in the midst of the congregation will I sing praise unto thee. And 13 again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold I and the children whom God hath given me. Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, 14 he also himself likewise took part of the same ; that through death he might vanquish him who holdeth the dominion of death, that is, the devil ; and deliver those 15 who through fear of death were all their life time subject to bondage. For verily he 16 took not on him the nature of angels ; but he took hold of the seed of Abraham.
Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he 17 might be a merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people. For in that he himself hath suffered being 18 tempted, he is able to succour those who are tempted.

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the 3 Apostle and High Priest of our confession, Christ Jesus ; who was faithful to him who appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house.

For he was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath 3 built the house hath more honour than the house. For every house is built by 4 some one ; but he who built all things, he is God.

And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony to 5 those things which were to be spoken after ; but Christ as a son over his own house ; 6 whose house we are, if we hold fast our confidence and joyful hope firm unto the end.

Wherefore (as the Holy Spirit saith, To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden not 7 8 your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness : when 9 your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works. Forty years long was I 10 grieved with that generation, and said, They do always err in their hearts ; and they have not known my ways. Therefore I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter 11 into my rest.) Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. But exhort one another daily, while it is 13 called To-day ; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. (For 14 we are partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast un-
to the end.)

Since it is said, To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the 15 provocation. For some, when they had heard, did provoke : but not all who came 16 out of Egypt by Moses. But with whom was he grieved forty years ? was it not with 17

18 those who had sinned, whose carcases fell in the wilderness? And to whom swore 19 he that they should not enter into his rest, but to those who believed not? So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

4 Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise having been left of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. For unto us is the Gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed 3 with faith in those who heard it. For we who have believed do enter into rest, as he said, Therefore I swore in my wrath, that they should not enter into my rest:
4 although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. For he spoke in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did cease the seventh 5 day from all his works. And in this place again, They shall not enter into my rest.
6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief.

7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To-day, after so long a time;
8 as it is said, To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts. For if Joshua had given them that rest, then would he not afterwards have spoken of another day.
9 10 There remaineth therefore a rest for the people of God. For he who is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

11 Let us therefore earnestly strive to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the 12 same example of unbelief. For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and he is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of 13 the heart. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him to whom we must give an account.

14 SEEING moreover that we have a great High Priest, who hath passed into the 15 heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. For we have not a High Priest who cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but one who 16 was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

5 For every High Priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins: who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on those who are out of the way; for that he him-3 self also is compassed with infirmity: and by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

4 And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he who is called of God, as was 5 Aaron. So also Christ glorified not himself to become a High Priest; but he who 6 said unto him, Thou art my Son, to-day have I begotten thee. As he saith also in another place, Thou art a Priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him who was able to save him from death, and 8 was delivered from his fear; though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the 9 things which he suffered; and being made perfect, he became the author of ever-10 lasting salvation unto all those who obey him; called of God a High Priest after the order of Melchizedek.

11 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be understood, seeing ye are 12 dull of understanding. For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which are the first principles of the oracles of God; and 13 are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong food. For every one who 14 useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe. But strong food belongeth to those who are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

6 Therefore leaving the first principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of 2 faith towards God, of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of the 3 resurrection and future state of the dead, and of everlasting judgment. And this 4 will we do, if God permit. For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Spirit, 5 6 and have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come, and yet have fallen away, to be renewed again unto repentance; seeing they have crucified to themselves the Son of God afresh, and have openly exposed him to shame.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth 8 forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God: but that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burnt.

But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany 9 salvation, though we thus speak. For God is not unfaithful to forget your work and 10 love, which ye have showed towards his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

And we desire that every one of you do show the same diligence unto the end to 11 the full assurance of hope: that ye be not slothful, but followers of those who through 12 faith and patience inherit the promises. For when God made promise to Abraham, 13 because he could swear by no greater, he swore by himself, saying, Surely blessing I 14 will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee. And so, after he had patiently 15 waited, he obtained the promised blessing. For men verily swear by a greater than 16 themselves: and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife. Wherefore 17 God, willing more abundantly to show unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath: that by two immutable things, in which it was 18 impossible for God to lie, we who have fled for refuge might have strong consolation, by laying hold upon the hope set before us: which hope we have as an anchor of 19 the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which entereth within the vail; whither Jesus 20 is entered as a forerunner for us, made a High Priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

NOW this Melchizedek, king of Salem, Priest of the most high God, (who met 7 Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him; to whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all the spoils;) being first by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace; without 3 recorded father or mother; without descent, having neither predecessor or successor in office; but was made like unto the Son of God; who abideth a priest continually.

Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham 4 gave the tenth of the spoils. And verily those of the sons of Levi, who receive the 5 office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law. that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham: but he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and 6 blessed him to whom the promises were made. And without all contradiction the 7 less is blessed by the greater.

And here men who die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of whom it is 8 witnessed that he liveth. And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, pay- 9 ed tithes in Abraham. For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchizedek 10 met him.

If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people 11 received the law,) what further need was there that another Priest should rise after the order of Melchizedek, not to be called after the order of Aaron? For the priest- 12 hood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law. For he of 13 whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar. For it is evident that our LORD sprang from Judah; of 14 which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood. And it is yet far more 15 evident, that after the similitude of Melchizedek there ariseth a different Priest, who 16 should be made such, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life. For the Scripture testifieth, Thou art a Priest for ever 17 after the order of Melchizedek.

For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before because of its 18 weakness and unprofitableness: for the law made nothing perfect; but it was the 19 bringing in of a better hope; by which we draw nigh unto God.

And inasmuch as he did not become a Priest without an oath; (for those other 20 21 Priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him who said unto him, The LORD swore and will not repent, Thou art a Priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek:) by so much was Jesus made the surety of a better covenant. 22

And they truly were many Priests, because they were not suffered to continue by 23 reason of death: but he, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priest- 24 hood. Wherefore he is able also to save to the uttermost, those who come unto God 25 by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

For such a High Priest was needful for us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, 26 separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; who needeth not daily, 27 as those High Priests, to offer up sacrifices, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself. For the law maketh men 28

High Priests who have infirmity ; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore.

8 Now of the things which we have spoken this is the sum : We have such a High Priest as was needful for us, who is seated on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens ; a minister of the Most Holy Place of the true tabernacle, which the LORD pitched, and not man.

3 For every High Priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices : wherefore it is of necessity that this High Priest have somewhat also to offer. For if he were on earth, he could not be a Priest, seeing there are Priests who offer gifts according to the law : who serve the pattern and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle : for, See, (saith he,) that thou make all things according to the pattern showed to thee in the mount. But our High Priest hath attained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the Mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then could no place have been sought for the second. For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah : not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt ; because they continued not in my covenant, and I rejected them. For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the LORD ; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts : and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people : and they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD : for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest : for I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 By the saying, A new covenant, he declareth the first to be old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

9 Now verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and holy furniture. For the outward tabernacle which is called Holy, was set in order, wherein was the lampholder, and the table, and the shewbread. And behind the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holy of Holies ; containing the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant ; and above it the cherubims of glory overshadowing the mercy seat ; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus prepared, the Priests went at all times into the first tabernacle, accomplishing their services : but into the second went the High Priest alone once every year, but not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the sins of the people : the Holy Spirit by this signifying, that the way into the Holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while the first tabernacle was yet standing : which was a figure for the time, during which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, but such as could not make him who did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience ; only with meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come a High Priest of good things which are to be, hath entered in once into the Holiest of all, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building ; neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood, having obtained everlasting redemption for us. For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctify to the purification of the flesh : how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purify your conscience from dead works to serve the living God ?

15 And for this end he is the Mediator of the new covenant, that his death having taken place, for the redemption of the transgressions that were committed under the first covenant, those who are called might receive the promise of the everlasting inheritance. For where a covenant is, there must also of necessity be the death of the mediating sacrifice. For a covenant is of force over dead sacrifices : whereas it is of no force at all while the mediating sacrifice liveth.

18 Hence not even the first covenant was confirmed without blood. For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people, saying, This is the blood of the covenant which God hath enjoined unto you. Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry. And according to the law almost all things are purified 22 with blood; and without shedding of blood there is no remission.

It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be 23 purified with these sacrifices; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. For Christ is not entered into the Holiest of all made with 24 hands, which was but a figure of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us: nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the High 25 Priest entereth into the Holiest of all every year with blood of others; (for then must 26 he often have suffered since the foundation of the world :) but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. And as 27 it is appointed unto men once to die, but after that the judgment: so Christ was 28 once offered up to bear away the sins of many; and unto those who look for him will he appear the second time without a sin offering for their salvation.

For the law having only a shadow of good things to come, and not the very 10 image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect. For then they would have ceased 2 to be offered; because that the worshippers once purified would have had no more consciousness of sins. But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made 3 of sins every year.

Besides it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away 4 sins. Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering 5 thou didst not delight in, but a body hast thou prepared for me: burnt offerings and 6 sin offerings thou hast not required. Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the 7 book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God! yea, thy law is within my heart. When he said before, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and sin offerings 8 which are offered by the law thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; then saith he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he 9 may establish the second; by which will we are sanctified through the offering of 10 the body of Jesus Christ once.

And every Priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same 11 sacrifices, which can never take away sins: but this Priest, after he had offered one 12 sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God; waiting thenceforth 13 until his enemies be made his footstool. For by one offering he hath perfected for 14 ever those who are sanctified.

Whereof the Holy Spirit also beareth testimony to us: for after that he had said 15 before, This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the 16 LORD, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them; then he saith, And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more. Now where 17 18 remission of these is, there is no more any offering for sin.

HAVING therefore, brethren, freedom to enter into the Holiest of all by the 19 blood of Jesus, by a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through 20 the vail, that is, his flesh; and having a High Priest over the house of God; let us 21 22 draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts purified by sprinkling from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering; (for he is faithful 23 who promised;) and let us consider one another that we may stir up unto love 24 and to good works: not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, (as the 25 manner of some is;) but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

For if we sin wilfully after having received the knowledge of the truth, there 26 remaineth no other sacrifice for sins, but a certain fearful looking for of judgment 27 and a fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries. He who despised 28 Moses' law died without mercy under the testimony of two or three witnesses: of 29 how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath accounted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, a common thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace? For we know him who hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I 30 will recompense, saith the LORD. And again, The LORD shall judge his people. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. 31

But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye 32 endured a great fight of afflictions; partly, whilst ye were made a gazingstock both 33 by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, whilst ye became companions of those who were so used. For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully 34 the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better

- 35 and an enduring substance. Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward.
- 36 For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promised blessing. For yet a very little while, and he who is to come will come, and will not tarry. Now the just by faith shall live: but if he draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who draw back unto perdition; but of those who believe to the saving of the soul.
- 11 Now faith is the confidence of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. For by it they of old time obtained a good report.
- 3 By faith we understand that the world was framed by the command of God, so that the things which are seen were not made of things which appear.
- 4 By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, on account of which he obtained testimony that he was justified, God testifying of his gifts: and through it, he being dead is yet spoken of.
- 5 By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he so walked, that he pleased God. But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he who cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of those who diligently seek him.
- 7 By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his household; by which faith he condemned the world, and obtained the justification which is by faith.
- 8 By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he was going. By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a foreign land, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise: for he looked for that city which hath foundations, whose builder and ruler is God.
- 11 By faith also Sarah herself received strength to conceive, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.
- 12 Therefore sprang there from one, and him as good as dead, as many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand by the sea shore, innumerable.
- 13 These all died in faith, not having received the promised blessings, but seeing them afar off, they embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. For those who say such things declare plainly that they are seeking a country. And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned. But they desired a better country, that is, a heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.
- 17 By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: yea, he who had received the promises offered up his only begotten son, of whom it was said, In Isaac shall thy seed be called: accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he in a manner received him.
- 20 21 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come. By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff. By faith Joseph, when he was dying, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones.
- 23 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden three months by his parents, because they saw he was a beautiful child; and they feared not the king's commandment. By faith Moses, when he had become great, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward. By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible. Through faith he kept the Passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he who destroyed the firstborn should touch them.
- 29 By faith they passed through the Red Sea as on dry land: which the Egyptians attempting to do were drowned.
- 30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were encompassed about seven days.
- 31 By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with those who believed not, because she had received the spies in peace.
- 32 And what shall I say more? for the time would fail me to tell of Gideon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthah; of David also, and Samuel, and of the prophets: who through faith subdued kingdoms, executed justice, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge 34 of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in war, turned to fight the armies of the aliens. Women received their dead raised to life again. 35

Others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection, and future state. Others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, 36 yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment: they were stoned, they were sawn asun- 37 der, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented; (of whom the world was not worthy:) 38 they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

And these all, though they obtained a good report through faith, yet received not 39 the promised blessing: God having provided some better thing for us, that they 40 should not be made perfect without us.

WHEREFORE seeing we also are encompassed with so great a cloud of wit- 12
nesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus the 2 author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and hath sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

For consider him who endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest 3 ye be wearied and faint in your minds. Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving 4 against sin. And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as 5 unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the LORD, nor faint when thou art rebuked by him: for whom the LORD loveth he chasteneth, and he 6 scourgeth every son whom he receiveth. If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with 7 you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not? But if ye be 8 without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh who corrected us, and we gave them 9 reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of our spirits, and live? For they verily for a few days chastened us as seemed good to them; 10 but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness. Now no chasten- 11
ing for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterwards it yieldeth the peaceful fruit of righteousness unto those who are exercised thereby.

Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the enfeebled knees; and 12 13 make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of its place; but let it rather be healed. Follow after peace with all, and holiness, without which 14
no man shall see the LORD: looking diligently lest any one fail of the grace of 15
God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and many be defiled thereby; lest there be any impure or profane person, like Esau, who for one meal 16 sold his birthright. For ye know that afterwards, when he would have inherited 17 the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no way of obtaining it, although he sought it earnestly with tears.

For ye are not come unto the mountain that could be touched, and that burnt 18 with fire; nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest, and the sound of a trum- 19 pet, and the voice of words; which voice those who heard entreated that the word might no longer be spoken to them: (for they could not endure that which was 20 commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it was to be stoned, or thrust through with a dart: and so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceed- 21 ingly fear and tremble:) but ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the 22 living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, to 23 the general assembly and church of the sons of God, who are enrolled in heaven, and to the Judge who is God of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, and to 24
Jesus the Mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.

See that ye turn not away from him who speaketh. For if they escaped not, who 25 turned away from him who spoke on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him who speaketh from heaven: whose voice then shook the earth: 26 but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also the heavens. And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those 27 things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain. Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be 28 shaken, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear: for our God is a consuming fire. 29

LET brotherly love continue. Be not forgetful of hospitality: for thereby some have 13 entertained angels unawares. Remember those who are in bonds, as bound with them; and those who suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body. Let 4

- marriage be honoured by all, and the bed be undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will not, I will not leave thee: I will never, no, never forsake thee. So that we may boldly say, The LORD is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.
- Remember those who have presided over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, and to-day, and for ever: therefore be not tossed about with divers and strange doctrines: for it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited those who have been occupied therein. We have a sacrifice, whereof they have no right to eat who serve the tabernacle.
- For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the High Priest for a sin offering, were burnt without the camp. Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate. Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach. For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come. Through him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips confessing his name.
- But to do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased. Obey those who preside over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as those who must give an account of them, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that would be unprofitable for you. Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live consistently: and I beseech you the more especially to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.
- Now may God, the author of peace, who raised from the dead our LORD Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.
- And I beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation: for I have written a letter unto you in few words.
- Know ye that our brother Timothy is set at liberty; with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you. Salute all those who preside over you, and all the saints. They of Italy salute you. Grace be with you all. Amen.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE

OF

JAMES.

- 1 JAMES, a servant of our God and LORD Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.
- My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers trials; knowing that the trying of your faith worketh patience: and let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.
- If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, who giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. But let him ask in faith, nothing doubting. For he who doubteth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.
- And let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the LORD. A doubtful minded man is unstable in all his ways.
- Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted: but the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away. For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the beauty of its form perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his days.
- Blessed is the man who endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the LORD hath promised to those who love him. Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man: but every man is tempted, when he is allured and insnared by his own evil desires. Then when evil desire hath conceived, 15 it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

Be not deceived, my beloved brethren: every good gift and every perfect gift is 16 17 from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variable-ness, neither shadow of turning. Of his own will begat he us with the word of 18 truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, 19 slow to wrath: for the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God. Where- 20 21 fore lay apart all filthiness and overflowing of malice, and receive with meekness the ingrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

BUT be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. 22
For if any one be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man be- 23 holding his natural face in a glass: for he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and 24 immediately forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whoso looketh into the 25 perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

If any one among you thinketh himself to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, 26 but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain. Pure religion and undefiled 27 before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their afflic-tion, and to keep oneself unspotted from the world.

My brethren, hold not the faith of our LORD Jesus Christ, the LORD of glory, 2 with respect to persons. For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold 3 ring, in gay clothing, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment; and ye 3 have respect to him who weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in an honourable place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool: are ye not then partial among yourselves, and are become judges whose 4 thoughts are evil? Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor 5 of this world to be rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to those who love him? But ye have despised the poor. Do not the rich oppress you, 6 and draw you before the judgment seats? Do not they blaspheme that worthy 7 name by which ye are called? If indeed ye fulfil the royal law according to that 8
Scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well: but if ye have re- 9 spect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convicted by the law as transgressors.

For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty 10 as of all. For that law which said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. 11
Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

So speak ye, and so do, as those who shall be judged by the law of liberty. For he 12 13 shall have judgment without mercy, who hath showed no mercy; for mercy triumphs over judgment, to him who sheweth mercy.

What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not 14 works? can such faith save him? If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of 15 daily food, and one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and be ye 16 filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body;
what doth it profit? Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. Yea, 17 18 a man may say, Hast thou faith? I have works also! show me thy faith without thy works, and I will show thee my faith by my works. Thou believest that there is one 19
God; thou doest well: the demons also believe, and tremble. But wilt thou know, 20
O vain man, that faith without works is dead? Was not Abraham our father jus- 21 tified by works in offering Isaac his son upon the altar? Seest thou how faith 22 wrought with his works, and how his faith was made perfect by his works? And 23 thus that Scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God. Ye see 24 then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only. Likewise also was 25 not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way? For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith 26 without works is dead also.

MY brethren, be not many of you teachers, knowing that we shall receive the 3 greater condemnation. For in many things we all offend. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle his whole body. Behold, 3 we put the horses' bits into their mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body. Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are 4 driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whitherso-ever the steersman chooseth. Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth 5

6 great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth! and the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity. The tongue is so set among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of 7 hell. For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the 8 sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed by man: but the tongue of man can no one 9 tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison. With it we bless our God and 10 Father; and with it we curse men, who are made after the likeness of God. Out 11 of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things
 12 ought not so to be. Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet and bitter 13 water? Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? or a vine, figs? so can 14 no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

13 Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him show by 14 a consistent conduct his works with meekness of wisdom. But if ye have bitter en-
 15 vying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and belie not the truth. This wisdom 16 descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish. For where envying and 17 strife are, there is confusion and every evil work. But the wisdom that is from 18 above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy
 19 and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. And the fruit of right-20 eousness is sown in peace for those who make peace.

4 From whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your evil passions that war in your members? Ye covet, and have not: ye envy, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, 3 because ye ask not. Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your evil desires.

4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that friendship with the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy 5 of God. Do ye think that the Scripture speaketh in vain? Doth the spirit that 6 dwelleth in us excite to envy? Nay, he giveth more grace: wherefore he saith,
 7 God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble. Submit yourselves 8 therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, 9 ye doubtful minded. Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be 10 turned into mourning, and your joy into heaviness. Humble yourselves in the sight of the LORD, and he shall lift you up.

11 Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He who speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou 12 judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge. There is one lawgiver and judge, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou who judgest another?

13 COME now, ye who say, To-day or to-morrow we will go into such a city, and 14 continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain: whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth 15 for a little time, and then vanisheth away. Whereas ye ought to say, If the LORD
 16 will, we shall live, and do this, or that. But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all 17 such rejoicing is evil. Therefore to him who knoweth to do what is right, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

5 COME now, ye rich men, weep and howl for the miseries that shall come upon you.
 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are motheaten. Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall 4 eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped up treasure for the last days. Behold, the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is unjustly kept back by you, crieth out against you: and the cries of those who have reaped 5 have entered into the ears of the LORD of hosts. Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of feasting.
 6 Ye have condemned and killed the just One; and he did not resist you.

7 Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the LORD. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, 8 until it receive the early and latter rain. Be ye also patient; establish your hearts:
 for the coming of the LORD draweth nigh.

9 Murmur not against one another, brethren, lest ye be judged: behold, the judge
 10 standeth before the door. Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in 11 the name of the LORD, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience. Behold, we count those happy who patiently endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen what the LORD did at his end; for the LORD is full of pity, and of tender mercy.

I. PETER I.

But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by the heavens, nor by the earth, nor by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall under condemnation.

Is any one among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any one merry? let him sing psalms. Is any one sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the LORD: and the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the LORD shall raise him up; and though he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him. Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. Elijah was a man subject to like infirmities as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the land during three years and six months. And he prayed again, and the heavens gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

Brethren, if any of you err from the truth, and one convert him; let him know, that he who converteth a sinner from the error of his way saveth his soul from death, and covereth a multitude of sins.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL

PETER.

PETER, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the elect sojourners scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia. According to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through the sanctification of the Spirit unto obedience and cleansing by the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace and peace be multiplied unto you.

Blessed be the God and Father of our LORD Jesus Christ, who according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for us, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In which salvation ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season (since it is needful) ye are in heaviness through manifold trials: that the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, may be found unto praise and honour and glory at the revelation of Jesus Christ: whom though ye have not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

Of which salvation the prophets have inquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you: searching diligently, of what people, or of what period, the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow. Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by those who have preached the Gospel unto you with the Holy Spirit sent down from heaven; which things the angels delight to look into.

Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is brought to you by the revelation of Jesus Christ; as obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former evil desires in your ignorance: but as he who hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in your entire conduct; because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy.

And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear: knowing that ye were not redeemed with perishable things, such as silver and gold, from your vain manner of life received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: who was foreordained indeed before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you, who through him believe in God, who raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto 23 unfeigned love of the brethren, love one another with a pure heart fervently : having been born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of 24 the living God, who abideth for ever. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth off :
 25 but the word of the LORD endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the Gospel is preached unto you.

2 Wherefore laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings, as newborn babes, earnestly desire the pure and unadulterated
 3 milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby : if so be ye have tasted that the LORD
 4 is gracious. To whom coming, as unto a living stone, rejected indeed by men, but 5 chosen by God, and precious in his sight, ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God 6 through Jesus Christ. Wherefore also it is contained in the Scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious : and he who believeth on him shall not 7 be confounded. Unto you therefore who believe he is precious : but unto those who are disbelieving, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head 8 of the corner, a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence : they being disbelievers, 9 stumble at the word offered to them : to which verily they were appointed. But ye are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a purchased people ; that ye should show forth the perfections of him who hath called you out of darkness into 10 his marvellous light : who in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God : who had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 DEARLY beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly 12 desires, which war against the soul ; having your whole conduct consistent among the Gentiles : that, whilst they speak against you as evildoers, they may because of your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.

13 Submit yourselves therefore to every appointment of man for the LORD'S sake :
 14 whether it be to the king, as supreme ; or unto governors, as unto those who are sent 15 by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of those who do well. For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of 16 foolish men : as free, and not using your liberty for a cloak of wickedness, but as 17 the servants of God. Esteem all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.

18 Ye who are servants, be subject to your masters with all fear ; not only to the good
 19 and gentle, but also to the froward. For this is acceptable, if a man for conscience 20 towards God endure grief, suffering wrongfully. For what merit is there, if, when ye be beaten for your faults, ye shall take it patiently ? but if, when ye do well, and 21 suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God. For even hereunto were ye called : because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, that 22 ye should follow his steps : who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth :
 23 who, when he was reviled, reviled not again ; when he suffered, threatened not ; but 24 committed his cause to him who judgeth righteously : who himself bore our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness :
 25 by whose stripes ye were healed. For ye were as sheep going astray ; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

3 Likewise, ye who are wives, be in subjection to your own husbands ; that, if any
 2 obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the behaviour of the 3 wives ; while they behold your chaste behaviour united with fear. Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, 4 or of heaping on of apparel ; but rather let it be that which is hidden in the heart, the incorruptible ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of 5 great price. For thus in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorn-
 6 ed themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands : even as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord : whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid of any terror.

7 Likewise, ye who are husbands, dwell with your wives according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life ; that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, be ye all of one mind, be compassionate to one another, be loving to the 9 brethren, be full of pity, be humbleminded : not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing : but on the contrary, blessing ; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that 10 ye should inherit a blessing. For he who would enjoy life, and see good days, let 11 him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips from speaking guile : let him avoid evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and pursue it. For the eyes of the LORD are 12 over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the LORD is against those who do evil. And who is he who will harm you, if ye be fol- 13 lowers of him who is good? But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are 14 ye: and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled; but sanctify the LORD 15 Christ in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer with meekness and reverence to every man who asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you: holding 16 fast a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed who falsely accuse your good behaviour in Christ. For it is better, 17

if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.

For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might 18 bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but made alive by the Spirit: by 19 which also he went and warned the spirits in prison; which formerly were disobedi- 20 ent, when the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was preparing, wherein few (that is, eight) souls were saved through the water: which 21 was a type of the baptism which now saveth us also, (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience towards God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ: who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; 22 angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves like- 4 wise with the same mind: for he who hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin; that he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh according to the 2 evil desires of men, but according to the will of God. For the time past of our life 3 should suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, evil passions, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries: wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same ex- 4 cess of riot, speaking evil of you: who shall give account to him who is ready to 5 judge the living and the dead. For to this end was the Gospel preached also to 6 those who are dead in sins, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer. 7
And above all things have fervent love among yourselves: for love will cover a mul- 8 titude of sins. Be hospitable to one another without grudging. Let every one ac- 9 10 cording as he hath received a spiritual gift, minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. If any man speak, let him speak ac- 11
cording to the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

BELoved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as 12 though some strange thing happened unto you: but rejoice, inasmuch as ye are par- 13 takers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may rejoice also with exceeding joy. If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; 14 for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified. But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as 15 a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters. Yet if any man 16 suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God as suffering for Christ's sake. For the time is come that judgment must begin with the house- 17 hold of God: and if it first begin with us, what shall the end be of those who obey not the Gospel of God? And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the 18 ungodly and the sinner appear? Wherefore let those who suffer according to the 19 will of God commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

THE elders who are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of 5
the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed: feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but with a ready mind; neither as being lords 3 over God's heritage, but being examples to the flock. And when the chief Shepherd 4 shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all of you be sub- 5 ject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace to the humble. Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand 6 of God, that he may exalt you in due time: casting all your anxious care upon him; 7 for he careth for you.

Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh 8

II. PETER I. II.

- 9 about, seeking whom he may devour: whom resist steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren who are in the world.
- 10 And may the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, establish, strengthen, settle you. To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.
- 12 By Silas, a faithful brother unto you, as I judge, I have written briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God wherein ye stand. The church at Babylon, elected together with you, saluteth you; and so doth Mark my son. Salute ye one another with a kiss of love. Peace be with you all who are in Christ Jesus.

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL

OF

P E T E R.

- 1 SIMON PETER, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have obtained like precious faith with us in the righteousness of our God and Saviour Jesus Christ: Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our LORD.
- 3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who hath called us to glory and virtue: whereby he hath given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of a divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through evil desire. And for this very reason, using all diligence, add to your faith fortitude; and to fortitude knowledge; and to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; and to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness love. For if these things be in you, and abound, they show you to be neither slothful nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our LORD Jesus Christ: but he who lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was cleansed from his old sins.
- 10 Wherefore, brethren, the more earnestly give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall: for so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our LORD and Saviour Jesus Christ.
- 12 Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and are established in the present truth. Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance; knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our LORD Jesus Christ hath showed me. Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.
- 16 For we did not follow cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our LORD Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty: for he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I delight. And this voice which came from the heavens we heard, when we were with him on the holy mount.
- 19 We have also the word of prophecy now confirmed; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the morning star arise in your hearts: knowing this first, that no prophecy of the Scripture is of any private interpretation. For prophecy came not at any time by the will of man: but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit.
- 2 BUT there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in destructive heresies, even denying the LORD who bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. And through covetousness they will make a gain of you, by their deceitful words: whose punishment threatened of old lingereth not, and their condemnation slumbereth not.

II. PETER III.

For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment; and spared not the old world, but saved Noah, (with seven others,) a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly; and condemned to destruction, reducing to ashes, the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, making them an example unto those who after should live ungodlily; and delivered righteous Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked: (for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, had his righteous soul vexed from day to day with their unlawful deeds;) the LORD knoweth how to deliver the godly out of trials, and to reserve the unrighteous unto the day of judgment to be punished: and especially those who walk after the flesh in impure desires, and despise government.

Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities. Whereas angels, who are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the LORD. But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; shall utterly perish in their own corruption; and shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as those who count it pleasure to riot in the day time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they feast with you; having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: hearts they have exercised with covetous practices; children of the curse: who have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness, but was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet. These are as wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the blackness of darkness is reserved for ever.

For by speaking great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the desires of the flesh, and by wantonness, those who were almost escaped from those who live in error. While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the slaves of corruption: for by whom a man is overcome, by him he is enslaved. For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through a knowledge of the LORD and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning. For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them. But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog returneth to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance: that ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the LORD and Saviour: knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own evil desires, and saying, Where is his promised coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as from the beginning of the creation.

For of this they willingly are ignorant, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water: whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished: but the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved for fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

But, beloved, be not unmindful of this one thing, that one day is with the LORD as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. The LORD is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering towards us, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. But the day of the LORD will come as a thief in the night; in which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burnt up.

Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conduct and godliness, looking for and earnestly desiring the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat? Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found by him in peace, without spot, and blameless. And account the longsuffering of our LORD to be for salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you; as also in all his epistles les, speaking in them of these things; in which things are some matters hard to be understood, which those who are unteachable and unstable wrest, as they do also the other Scriptures, unto their own destruction.

- 17 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things beforehand, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness.
 18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our LORD and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

JOHN.

1 THAT which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life; (for the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear testimony, and show unto you that life which is everlasting, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us :) that which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us : and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ. And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be complete.

5 Now this is the message which we have received from him, and make known unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and conform not to the truth : but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with each other, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2 My dear children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. But if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous One : and he is a propitiation for our sins : and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 4 And hereby we know that we know him, if we keep his commandments. He who saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected : hereby we know that we are in him. He who saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

7 Beloved, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning. Again, a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true concerning him and you : because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth. He who saith he is in the light, and yet hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now. He who loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him. But he who hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, dear children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake. (I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him who is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, my children, because ye have known the Father.) I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him who is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 Love not the world, nor the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the desires of the flesh, and the desires of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the desires thereof: but he 17 who doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

My children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, 18 even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.
They went out from us, but none of them were of us; for if they had been of us, they 19 would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not of us. But ye have an unction from the Holy 20
One, and ye know all things. I have not written unto you because ye know not the 21 truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth. Who is a liar, if he be 22 not who denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, who denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son hath not the Father: but he who ac- 23 knowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that 24 which ye have heard from the beginning shall abide in you, ye also shall abide in the Son, and in the Father. And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even 25 everlasting life. These things have I written unto you concerning those who would 26 seduce you. But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and 27 ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him.

AND now, my dear children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may 28 have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming. If ye know that 29 he is righteous, ye know that every one who doeth righteousness is born of him.
Behold, what great love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called 3 the children of God: therefore the world doth not acknowledge us, because it acknowledged him not. Beloved, now are we the children of God, and it doth not 2 yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.

And every one who hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure. 3
Whosoever committeth sin violateth also the law: for sin is the violation of the law. 4
And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin. 5
Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not; whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, 6 neither known him.

My dear children, let no man deceive you: he who doeth righteousness is right- 7 eous, even as he is righteous. He who committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil 8 sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil. Whosoever is born of God doth not com- 9 mit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God. In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil. 10

Whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he who loveth not his brother. For this is the commandment that ye heard from the beginning, that we 11 should love one another. Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his 12 brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous. Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you. We know 13 14 that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He who loveth not his brother abideth in death. Whosoever hateth his brother is a mur- 15 derer: and ye know that no murderer hath everlasting life abiding in him.

Hereby perceive we the love of Christ, because he laid down his life for us: there- 16 fore we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. But whoso hath the good things 17 of this world, and seeth his brother have need, and yet shutteth up his tender mercy from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? My dear children, let us not love 18 in word, neither in tongue only; but in deed and in truth.

And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him. 19
For if our hearts condemn us, God is greater than our hearts, and knoweth all things. 20 Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence towards God. And 21 22 whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight. And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment. And he who keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, 24 and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

BELOVED, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: 4 because many false prophets are gone out into the world. Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth Jesus Christ who is come in the flesh is of God.

I. JOHN V.

- 3 And every spirit that confesseth not Jesus Christ who is come in the flesh is not of God : and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come ; and even now already is in the world.
- 4 Ye are of God, my dear children, and have overcome them : because greater is he who is in you, than he who is in the world. They are of the world : therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them. We are of God : he who knoweth God heareth us ; he who is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.
- 7 Beloved, let us love one another : for love is of God ; and every one who loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He who loveth not knoweth not God ; for God is love. In this was manifested the love of God towards us, in that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be a propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another. No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us. Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.
- 14 And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God. And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love ; and he who dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him. Herein is the perfection of love, that we may have confidence in the day of judgment : in that as he is, so are we in this world. There is no fear in love ; but perfect love casteth out fear : because fear hath torment. He who feareth is not made perfect in love.
- 19 We love him, because he first loved us. If a man say, I love God, and yet hate his brother, he is a liar : for he who loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen ? Moreover this commandment we have from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.
- 5 WHOSOEVER believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God : and every one who loveth him who begat loveth him also who is begotten by him. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.
- 3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments : and his commandments are not grievous. For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world : and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. Who is he who overcometh the world, but he who believeth that Jesus is the Son of God ?
- 6 This is he who came by water and blood, even Jesus the Christ ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth testimony, because the Spirit is truth. For there are three that bear testimony [in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit : and these three are one. And there are three that bear testimony on earth], the spirit, and the water, and the blood : and these three agree in one.
- 9 If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater : for this is the testimony of God which he hath testified of his Son. He who believeth on the Son of God hath the testimony in himself : he who believeth not God hath made him a liar ; because he believeth not the testimony that God gave of his Son. And this is the testimony, that God hath given to us everlasting life, and this life is in his Son. He who acknowledgeth the Son hath this life ; and he who acknowledgeth not the Son of God hath not this life.
- 13 THESE things I write unto you, that ye who believe on the name of the Son of God may know that ye have everlasting life. And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us : and if we know that he heareth us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we shall have the petitions that we have desired of him.
- 16 If any man see his brother sinning a sin which is not unto death, let him ask God, and he will give him life, even to those who sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death : I do not say that he should pray for it. All unrighteousness is sin : but there is a sin not unto death.
- 18 We know that whatsoever is born of God sinneth not ; but he who is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one layeth not hold on him. And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth under the wicked one. And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him who is true, and we are in him who is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and everlasting life.
- 21 My dear children, keep yourselves from idols.

THE SECOND EPISTLE

OF

JOHN.

THE elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth; and not 1
I only, but also all those who have known the truth; for the truth's sake, which 2 dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever. Grace, mercy, and peace be with you, 3 from God the Father, and from the LORD Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children walking in the truth, as we have 4 received a commandment from the Father. And now I beseech thee, lady, not as 5 though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another. And this is love, that we walk after his com- 6 mandments. This is the commandment, That, as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

For many deceivers have gone forth into the world, who confess not Jesus Christ 7 who is come in the flesh. This is the deceiver and antichrist. Look to yourselves, 8 that ye lose not those things which ye have gained, but that ye receive a full reward.
Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. 9
He who abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son. If 10 there come any one unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither wish him success: for he who wisheth him success is partaker of 11 his evil deeds.

Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink: but 12
I trust to come unto you, and speak face to face, that our joy may be full.

The children of thy elect sister salute thee. 13

THE THIRD EPISTLE

OF

JOHN.

THE elder unto the wellbeloved Gaius, whom I love in the truth. 1

Beloved, I pray that in all things thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as 2 thy soul prospereth. For I rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and testified 3 of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth. I have no greater 4 joy than to hear that my children walk in the truth. Beloved, thou doest believingly 5 whatsoever thou doest for the brethren, and for strangers; who have borne testi- 6 mony of thy love before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey worthy of God, thou shalt do well: because, for his name's sake they went forth, 7 taking nothing of the Gentiles. We therefore ought to receive such, that we may 8 be fellowhelpers to the truth.

I wrote unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the pre-eminence 9 among them, receiveth us not. Wherefore, if I come, I will bring to remem- 10 brance his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, he receiveth not the brethren himself, and forbiddeth those who would, and casteth them out of the church. Beloved, follow not him who is evil, 11 but him who is good. He who doeth good is of God: but he who doeth evil hath not seen God.

Demetrius hath good report from all men, and from the truth itself: yea, and we 12 also bear testimony; and ye know that our testimony is true.

I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee: but 13 14
I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be to thee.
Our friends salute thee. Salute the friends by name.

OF

J U D E.

- 1 JUDE, a servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to those who are sanctified
2 by God the Father, and preserved by Jesus Christ, being called: Mercy, and peace, and love, be multiplied unto you.
- 3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it 4 was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly con-
5 tend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. For certain men have 6 crept in unawares, who were long ago ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, 7 turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying God the only Sovereign, and our LORD Jesus Christ.
- 8 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how the 9 LORD, having saved his people out of the land of Egypt, afterwards destroyed those 10 who believed not. And the angels who kept not their first state, but left their own 11 station, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of 12 the great day. Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them in like 13 manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set 14 forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of everlasting fire.
- 15 Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak 16 evil of dignities. Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he 17 disputed about the body of Moses, did not presume to bring against him a railing
18 accusation, but said, The LORD rebuke thee. But these speak evil of those things 19 which they understand not: and what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those 20 things they corrupt themselves. Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way 21 of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the 22 gainsaying of Korah.
- 23 These men are spots in your feasts of love, when they feast with you, feeding them-24 selves without fear: they are as clouds without water, carried about of winds; as 25 trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; as raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; as wandering planets, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.
- 26 And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the 27 LORD cometh with ten thousand of his saints, to pass judgment upon all, and to 28 convince all who are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they 29 have impiously committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have 30 spoken against him. These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own 31 evil desires; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons 32 in admiration because of advantage.
- 33 But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before by the apostles
34 of our LORD Jesus Christ; how they told you there should be scoffers in the last 35 time, who would walk after their own ungodly passions. These are those who 36 separate themselves, sensual, not having the Spirit.
- 37 But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the 38 Holy Spirit, keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our LORD
39 Jesus Christ unto everlasting life. And of some have compassion, making a differ-40 ence: and others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the gar-41 ment spotted by the flesh.
- 42 Now unto him who is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless
43 before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Sa-44 viour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now, and throughout all ages.
45 Amen.

THE REVELATION

JOHN.

THE Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to show unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John: who hath testified of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw. Blessed is he who readeth, and those who hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand. 1

JOHN to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace and peace be unto you, from him who is, and who was, and who is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne; and from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the firstborn from the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him who loved us, and hath washed us from our sins in his own blood, and hath made us kings and priests unto his God and Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. 5

Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and those also who pierced him: and all the tribes of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, saith the LORD God, who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty. 8

I John, your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for my testimony to Jesus Christ. I was in the Spirit on the LORD'S day, and heard behind me a loud voice, as of a trumpet, saying, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea. 11

And I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden lamps; and in the midst of the seven lamps one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the breasts with a golden girdle. His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire; and his feet like unto fine brass, as it were burning in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters. And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength. And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying, Fear not; I am the first and the last, and he who liveth: and I was dead, but, behold, I am alive for evermore, and have the keys of death and of the grave. Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter. This is the mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden lamps. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven lamps which thou sawest are the seven churches. 18

Unto the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith he who holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden lamps; I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear those who are evil: and thou hast tried those who say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars: and hast patience, and hast borne much for my name's sake, and hast not fainted. Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love. Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do thy first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy lamp out of its place, except thou repent. But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitanes, which I also hate. 2

He who hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him who overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of my God. 7

And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith the first and the last, who was dead, and is alive; I know thy works, and tribulation, and 9

REVELATION III.

- poverty, (but thou art rich,) and I know the blasphemy of those who say they are 10 Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan. Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days. Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee the crown of life.
- 11 He who hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He who overcometh shall not be hurt by the second death.
- 12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith he who 13 hath the sharp sword with two edges; I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's throne is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain
14 among you, where Satan dwelleth. But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there those who hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and 15 to commit fornication. So hast thou also those who hold the doctrine of the Nico-
16 litanes, which thing I hate. Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.
- 17 He who hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him who overcometh will I give of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth but he who receiveth it.
- 18 And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;
19 I know thy works, and love, and service, and faith, thy patience, and thy last works;
20 and which are more than the first. Notwithstanding I have somewhat against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, who calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto 21 idols. And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not.
22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed of affliction, and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds. And I will slay her
23 children with pestilence; and all the churches shall know that I am he who searcheth the inward thoughts and dispositions: and I will give unto every one of you accord-
24 ing to your works. But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, (and who have not known the depths of Satan, as they 25 speak;) I will put upon you no other burden. But that which ye have already hold fast till I come.
- 26 And he who overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give 27 power over the nations: and he shall rule them as with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received power from my Father.
- 28 And I will give him the morning star. He who hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.
- 3 And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he who hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a 2 name that thou livest, and yet art dead. Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before
3 God. Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast those things, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief,
4 and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee. Yet thou hast a few names even in Sardis who have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.
- 5 He who overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my 6 Father, and before his angels. He who hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.
- 7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith the Holy One, he who is true, he who hath the key of David, he who openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth; I know thy works: behold, I have set 8 before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and
9 yet hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name. Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have 10 loved thee. Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try those who
11 dwell upon the earth. I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

Him who overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of the heavens from my God: and I will write upon him my new name. He who hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

And unto the angel of the church in Laodicea write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the chief of the creation of God; I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will cast thee out of my mouth. Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked; I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see. As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent. Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

To him who overcometh will I grant to sit with me on my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father on his throne. He who hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

AFTER this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in the heavens: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will show thee things which must be hereafter.

And immediately I was in the spirit: and, behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne. And he who sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in appearance like an emerald. And round about the throne were four and twenty thrones: and upon these thrones four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold. And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunders and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. And before the throne there was a sea clear as glass like unto crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four living creatures full of eyes before and behind. And the first living creature was like a lion, and the second like a calf, and the third had a face as a man, and the fourth was like a flying eagle. And the four living creatures had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes around and within:

And they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, LORD God Almighty, who was, and is, and is to come. And when those living creatures give glory and honour and thanks to him who sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever, the four and twenty elders fall down before him who sat on the throne, and worship him who liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying, Thou art worthy, O LORD, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and by thy will they are and were created.

AND I saw in the right hand of him who sat on the throne a book written within and on the outside, sealed with seven seals. And I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof? And no one in heaven, nor on earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look therein. And I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look therein. And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent forth into all the earth. And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him who sat upon the throne.

And when he had taken the book, the four living creatures and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden censers full of incense, which are the prayers of saints. And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every tribe, and language, and people, and nation; and hast made us kings and priests unto our God: and we shall reign on the earth. And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the living creatures and the elders: and the number of 12 them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, 13 and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. And every creature that is in the heavens, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him who sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever 14 and ever. And the four living creatures said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him who liveth for ever and ever.

6 And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four living creatures, saying, Come and see! And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he who sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, 4 Come and see! And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him who sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that men should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, Come and see! And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he who sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand. And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living 8 creature say, Come and see! And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name who sat on him was Death, and the Grave followed with him. And power was given him over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with the sword, and with hunger, and with pestilence, and with the wild beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those 10 who were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: and they cried out with a loud voice, saying, How long, O LORD, holy and true, dost thou 11 not judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth. And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet a little while, until the number of their fellowservants also and their brethren, who should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as 13 blood; and the stars of the heavens fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth its 14 untimely figs, when it is shaken of a mighty wind. And the heavens departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of 15 their places. And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every freeman, hid 16 themselves in the caverns and in the rocks of the mountains; and said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him who sitteth on 17 the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: for the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?

7 And after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the 3 earth and the sea, saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads.

4 And I heard the number of those who were sealed: and there were sealed a hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel. Of the 5 tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe 6 of Asher were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Naphtali were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasseh were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of 7 Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Zebulun 8 were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before 10 the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palm branches in their hands; and they cried out with a loud voice, saying, This salvation be ascribed to our God who sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb. And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four living creatures, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God through-out all ages! Amen.

And one of the elders spoke, saying unto me, Who are these who are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they? And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they who came out of the great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he who sitteth on the throne will dwell among them. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun smite them, nor any heat. For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall be their shepherd, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

And when the Lamb had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets. And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all the saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne. And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand. And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire from the altar, and cast it upon the earth: and there were voices, and thund-erings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound. The first angel sounded his trumpet, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of the earth was burnt up, and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

And the second angel sounded his trumpet, and as it were a great mountain burn-ing with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood; and the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

And the third angel sounded his trumpet, and there fell a great star from the heavens, burning like a lamp, and it fell upon a third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters; and the name of the star was called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, be-cause they were made bitter.

And the fourth angel sounded his trumpet, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so that the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of the heavens, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!

And the fifth angel sounded his trumpet, and I saw a star fall from the heavens unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit. And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit. And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power. And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men who have not the seal of God on their foreheads. And to them it was given in charge that they should not kill those men, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man. And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them. And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were like golden crowns, and their faces were as the faces of men. And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions. And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots and as of many horses rushing to battle. And they had tails like scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months. And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon [THE DESTROYER].

12 One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded his trumpet, and I heard a voice from the four horns of 14 the golden altar which is before God, saying to the sixth angel which had the trum-15 pet, Loose the four angels which are bound at the great river Euphrates. And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, 16 and a year, for to slay the third part of men. And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of 17 them. And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and those who sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of smoke, and of brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brim-18 stone. By these three scourges was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and 19 by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths. For the power of the horses is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, 20 having heads, and with them they hurt. And the rest of the men who were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship evil spirits, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and 21 of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk: neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

10 And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud:
and a rainbow was over his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as 2 pillars of fire: and he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot
3 upon the sea, and his left foot on the land, and cried out with a loud voice, as when a 4 lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices. And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, 5 and write them not. And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the 6 land lifted up his right hand to the heavens, and swore by him who liveth for ever and ever, who created the heavens, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that 7 there should be delay no longer: but in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And the voice which I heard from the heavens spoke unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon 9 the sea and upon the land. And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make 10 thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey. And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as 11 honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter. And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many people, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

11 And there was given me a reed like unto a measuring rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and those who worship 2 therein. But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months.

3 And I will give unto my two witnesses, that they may prophesy a thousand 4 two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth. These are the two olive 5 trees, and the two lampholders standing before the LORD of the earth. And if any man will seek to hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will seek to hurt them, he must in this manner be 6 slain. These have power to shut the heavens, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill 8 them. And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also their LORD was crucified.

9 And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and a half; and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.
10 And those who dwell upon the earth will rejoice over them, and make merry, and will send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented those who dwelt on the earth.

REVELATION XII. XIII.

And after three days and a half the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon those who saw them. And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them. And the hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

The second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in the heavens, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our LORD, and of his Christ; and he shall reign throughout all ages.

And the four and twenty elders, who sat before God on their thrones, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God, saying, We give thee thanks, O LORD God Almighty, who art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned. And the nations were enraged, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldst give a reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and those who fear thy name, small and great; and shouldst destroy those who destroy the earth.

AND the temple of God was opened in the heavens, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail.

And there appeared a great wonder in the heavens; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars: and she being with child cried out, travailing in birth, and in agony to be delivered.

And there appeared another wonder in the heavens; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads. And his tail drew the third part of the stars of the heavens, and cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman who was ready to be delivered, to devour her child as soon as it was born. And she brought forth a man-child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne. And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

And there was war in the heavens: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, and prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in the heavens. And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, who deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. And I heard a loud voice saying in the heavens, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, who accused them before our God day and night. And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto death. Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye who dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman who brought forth the man-child. And to the woman were given two wings of the great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. And the serpent cast out of his mouth water like a river after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood. But the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth. And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, who keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus.

AND I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. And the beast which I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his own power, and his throne, and great authority. And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondering followed after the beast. And they worshipped the dragon because he had given power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him? And there

REVELATION XIV.

- was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power 6 was given unto him to make war forty and two months. And the beast opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, 7 and those who dwell in the heavens. And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and 8 tongues, and nations. And all who dwell upon the earth, whose names were not enrolled from the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb that 9 10 was slain, shall worship him. If any man have an ear, let him hear. He who lead-eth into captivity shall go into captivity: he who killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.
- 11 And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns 12 like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon. And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and those who dwell therein to wor-13 ship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from the heavens on the earth in the sight of 14 men, and he deceiveth those who dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to those who dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a 15 sword, and did live. And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not wor-16 ship the image of the beast should be killed. And he caused all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark on their right hand, or on 17 their foreheads: and that no man might buy or sell, except he who had the mark, 18 or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. Here is wisdom. Let him who hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.
- 14 And I looked, and, lo, the Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him a hundred forty and four thousand, having his own name and his Father's name written 2 on their foreheads. And I heard a voice from the heavens, loud as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers 3 harping with their harps: and they sang a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the 4 hundred and forty and four thousand, who were redeemed from the earth. These are those who were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are those who follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, 6 as the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb. And in their mouth was found no guile:
for they are without fault.
- 6 And I saw another angel fly in the midst of the heavens, having the everlasting gospel to proclaim unto those who dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kin-7 dred, and tongue, and people, saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him who made the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.
- 8 And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.
- 9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship 10 the beast and his image, and receive his mark on his forehead, or on his hand, he shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the 11 presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: and the smoke of their torment shall ascend up for ever and ever: and they shall have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.
- 12 Here is the patience of the saints, who keep the commandments of God, and faith 13 in Jesus. And I heard a voice from the heavens saying, Write, Blessed are the dead who die in the LORD from thenceforth! Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works follow with them.
- 14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto the 15 Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. And another angel came out of the temple, crying out with a loud voice to him who sat on the cloud, Put forth thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; 16 for the harvest of the earth is ripe. And he who sat on the cloud put forth his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.
- 17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in the heavens, he also having a 18 sharp sickle. And another angel came out from the altar, who had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, Put forth thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vines of the earth; for their grapes are fully ripe. And the angel put forth his sickle into the earth, and gathered the clusters of the vines of the earth, and cast them into the great winepress of the wrath of God. And the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horses' bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

AND I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of God. 15

And I saw as it were a sea clear as glass mingled with fire: and those who had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over the number of his name, stand by the sea clear as glass, having the harps of God. And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, LORD God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints. Who shall not fear thee, O LORD, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

And after that I looked, and the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened: and the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles. And one of the four living creatures gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever. And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth. 16

And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men who had the mark of the beast, and upon those who worshipped his image.

And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living creature that was in the sea died.

And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of water; and they became blood. And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O LORD, who art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast executed judgment. For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy. And I heard a voice from the altar say, Even so, LORD God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments.

And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire. And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, who hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory.

And the fifth angel poured his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain, and blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared. And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. For they are the spirits of demons, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he who watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. And the Spirit gathered them together unto a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon [THE MOUNTAIN OF MEGIDDON].

And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, even from the throne, saying, It is done. And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great. And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. And there fell upon men a great hail out of the heavens, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceedingly great.

THEN one of the seven angels who had the seven vials came and talked with me, saying, Come hither; I will show unto thee the judgment of the great harlot who 17

REVELATION XVIII.

2 sitteth upon many waters ; with whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her
3 fornication. So he carried me away in the spirit into the desert : and I saw a woman sitting upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads
4 and ten horns. And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and gilded with gold, and decked with precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in
5 her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication : and upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTIC BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER
6 OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus : and when I saw her, I wondered with great amazement.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou wonder ? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not ; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition : and those who dwell on the earth, (whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world,) will wonder when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is to come.

9 Here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on 10 which the woman sitteth. And they are also seven kings : five are fallen, one is, the other is not yet come ; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.
11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is as one of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12 And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, who have received no kingdom as yet ; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have one mind, and will give their power and strength unto the beast.
14 These will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them : for he is LORD of lords, and King of kings : and those who are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And the angel saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the harlot sitteth, are people, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues. And the ten horns
16 which thou sawest upon the beast, these will hate the harlot, and make her desolate and naked, and will devour her flesh, and burn her with fire. For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman whom thou sawest is that great city, which hath dominion over the kings of the earth.

18 And after these things I saw another angel come down from the heavens, having great power ; and the earth was lightened with his glory. And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of demons, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean
3 and hateful bird. For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her luxuries.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that
5 ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. For her sins
6 have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her unrighteous deeds. Render to her even as she hath rendered to you, and repay her double according to her
7 works : in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double. How much she hath glorified herself, and lived in luxury, so much torment and sorrow give her : for she
8 saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow. Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine ; and she shall be utterly burnt with fire : for strong is the LORD God who judgeth her.

9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived luxuriously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning, standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas ! alas that 10 great city Babylon, that mighty city ! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her ; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more : the merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious
12 stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all sweet-scented wood, and all manner of vessels of ivory, and all manner of vessels of most 13 precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble, and cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep ; and the merchandise of horses, and chariots, and of bodies and souls of men. And the fruits that thy soul longed after are departed from thee, and 14 all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.—The merchants of these things who were made rich by her, 15 shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing, and saying, 16 Alas! alas that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones, and pearls! for in one hour so great riches are come to nought.

And every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, and cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, 18 What city was like unto this great city! And they cast dust on their heads, and 19 cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas! alas that great city, wherein were made rich all who had ships in the sea by reason of her cosliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

Rejoice over her, thou heavens, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath 20 avenged you on her.

And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the 21 sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all. And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of 22 pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee; and the light of a lamp shall shine no 23 more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived. And in her was found the blood of pro- 24 phets, and of saints, and of all who were slain upon the earth.

After these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Hallelujah! Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the LORD our God: for 19 true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great harlot, who did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand. And again they said, Hallelujah! And her smoke rose up for ever and 3 ever. And the four and twenty elders and the four living creatures fell down and 4 worshipped God who sat on the throne, saying, Amen, Hallelujah! And a voice 5 came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye who fear him, both small and great.

And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many 6 waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Hallelujah! for the LORD God omnipotent reigneth. Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for 7 the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. And to 8 her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, pure and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of the saints. And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed 9 are those who are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God. And I fell at his feet to worship him. And 10 he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and the fellowservant of thy brethren who bear testimony concerning Jesus: worship God: for the spirit of prophecy is the testimony concerning Jesus.

And I saw the heavens opened, and behold a white horse; and he who sat upon 11 him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he judgeth and maketh war. His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had 12 a name written, that no man knew, but he himself. And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God. And the armies 13 which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and pure. And out of his mouth goeth a sharp two-edged sword, that with it he 15 should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a sceptre of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. And he hath 16 on his vesture and on his thigh his name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to 17 all the birds that fly in the midst of the heavens, Come and gather yourselves together unto the great supper of God; that ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the 18 flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered to- 19 gether to make war against him who sat on the horse, and against his army. And the 20 beast was taken, and with him the false prophet who wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast, and those who worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning 21 with brimstone. And the remnant were slain with the sword of him who sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the birds were filled with their flesh.

20 And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent,
3 which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years, and cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw thrones, and those who sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their testimony concerning Jesus, and for the word of God, and who had not worshipped the beast, or his image, nor had received his mark upon their foreheads, or on their hands; and
5 they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. (But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished.) This is the first resurrection.
6 Blessed and holy is he who hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,
8 and shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the 9 sand of the sea. And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of 10 the heavens, and devoured them. And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet were, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

11 AND I saw a great white throne, and him who sat on it, from whose face the 12 earth and the heavens fled away; and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before the throne; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged
13 out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead who were in it; and death and the grave delivered up the 14 dead who were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.
15 And death and the grave were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

21 And I saw new heavens and a new earth: for the first heavens and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. And I John saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down from God out of the heavens, prepared as a bride adorned 3 for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of the heavens saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his 4 people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. And he will wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.
5 And he who sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he
6 said unto me, Write for these words are true and faithful. And he said unto me, It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give 7 unto him who is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely. He who overcometh shall inherit all these things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.
8 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

9 And there came one of the seven angels who had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will show thee the 10 bride, the Lamb's wife. And he carried me away in the spirit to a high mountain, and showed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of the heavens
11 from God, having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a most precious
12 stone, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal; having a wall great and high, and having twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon,
13 which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel: on the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west
14 three gates. And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them the 15 names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.—And he who talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof. And 16 the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as much as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal. And he measured the wall thereof, a hun- 17 dred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of an angel.—And the foundation of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure 18 gold, like clear glass. And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished 19 with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald; the fifth, sardonyx; the 20 sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst. And the 21 twelve gates were twelve pearls; each gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.—And I saw no temple therein: 22 for the LORD God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it. And the city 23 had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.—And the nations of those who are 24 saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth shall bring their glory and honour into it. And its gates shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall 25 be no night there. And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into 26

it. And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatso- 27 ever worketh abomination, or uttereth a lie: but those only who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of 22 the throne of God and of the Lamb. In the midst of the street of it, and on each side of the river, was there a tree of life, which bore twelve manner of fruits, and yielded its fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the 3
Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall worship him: and they shall see his face; 4 and his name shall be on their foreheads. And there shall be no night there; and 5 they need no lamp, neither light of the sun; for the LORD God giveth them light:
and they shall reign for ever and ever.

AND he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the LORD God of 6
the holy prophets sent his angel to show unto his servants the things which must shortly be done. Behold, I come quickly: blessed is he who keepeth the sayings 7 of the prophecy of this book.

And I John saw and heard these things. And when I had heard and seen, I fell 8 down to worship before the feet of the angel who showed me these things. Then 9 saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of those who keep the sayings of this book: worship God!

And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the 10 time is at hand. He who is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he who is filthy, let 11 him be filthy still: and he who is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he who is holy, let him be holy still. Lo! I come quickly; and my reward is with me, 12 to give every man according as his work shall be. I am the Alpha and the Omega, 13 the beginning and the end, the first and the last. Blessed are those who wash their garments in the blood of the Lamb, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. For without are dogs, and sores, 14 and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie. I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. 15
I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star. 16

And the Spirit and the bride say, Come! And let him who heareth say, Come! And 17 let him who is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

For I testify unto every man who heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, 18
If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: and if any man shall take away from the words of the book 19 of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

He who testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, 20
LORD Jesus. The grace of our LORD Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen. 21

APPENDIX,

OR

GENERAL INDEX OF PLACES AND RIVERS.

ABARIM, a ridge of mountains between the rivers Arnon and Jordan, including Nebo and Pisgah. See Deut. xxxii. 49, 50; xxxiv. 1; compared with Numb. xxxiii. 47.

Abel signifies mourning, and is applied to several places remarkable for great lamentation; as Abel-mizraim, the mourning of the Egyptians, Gen. l. 11.

Abilene, the tetrarchy of Lysanias, of which Abila was the capital, Luke iii. 1.

Accho, a sea-port of Galilee: when rebuilt by Ptolemy Philadelphus, it was called Ptolemais, and is now called Acre, or St. John d'Acre.

Aceldama, the field of blood; a certain field without the south wall of Jerusalem. Compare Matt. xxvii. 7, 10; Acts i. 19.

Achaia Proper, was a province running westward along the Bay of Corinth; but the term Achaia is often used to include the whole of Greece.

Achor, a valley near Jericho. See Josh. vii. 1—26; xv. 7.

Adam, a city (or town) near Jericho, Josh. iii. 16.

Adamah and Adami, two towns in the tribe of Judah, Josh. xix. 33, 36.

Adria, a city of Italy, which gives its name to the Gulf of Venice, or Adriatic Sea. It was formerly given to the whole of the Mediterranean, Acts xxvii. 27.

Alexandria, a city of Egypt, built by Alexander the Great, and made the capital of the kingdom under the Ptolemies.

Amalekites, the children of Amalek, who dwelt in Arabia Petraea; but frequently wandering like the Arabs. See Gen. xxxvi. 12, 16; 1 Sam. xv. 5, 7; 1 Chron. i. 36.

Ammonites, a people like the preceding, who inhabited, in distinct tribes, probably, the mountains of Paran and Gilead. See Josh. xiii. 25; Judg. xi. 13—23.

Amorites, a race of giants who peopled the mountains west of the Dead Sea, and some parts of the east, Numb. xiii. 23; Josh. v. 1.

Anathoth, a city of the priests in the tribe of Benjamin, about three miles north from Jerusalem, 2 Kings ii. 16.

Antioch, a city on the banks of the Orontes, the metropolis of Syria, and, according to Josephus, the third city of the Roman empire. See Acts xi. 26.

Antioch, in Pisidia, Acts xiii. 14. There were several other cities of this name not mentioned in Scripture.

Antipatris, a city in the road from Jerusalem to Cæsarea, and seventeen miles from Joppa, according to Josephus, Acts xxiii. 31.

Appi-forum, a town about forty miles from Rome.

Ar, Areopolis, or Ariel of Moab, a chief city of the Moabites, on the south of the river Arnon, Numb. xxi. 28.

Arabia, an extensive country, reaching from the Euphrates to Egypt, and from the Red Sea to the Persian Gulf. It is usually divided into three parts:—1. Arabia Deserta, lying nearly to the east of Judea, and whose inhabitants dwell in tents. 2. Arabia Petraea, or the Rocky, including Mount Sinai. 3. Arabia Felix, or the Happy; so called from its fertility: this was the southern part of Arabia.

Ararat, the mount on which the ark rested, Gen. viii. 4.

Arimathea, a city between Lydda and Joppa, or, as others think, between Joppa and Jerusalem, Luke xxiii. 50.

Armenia, a province of Asia, in which are the sources of the Tigris and Euphrates; and, as many think, it included Eden. See Gen. ii. 10, &c.

Ashdod, or Azotus, a city of the Philistines, Josh. xi. 22; xv. 40; 1 Sam. v. 1.

Ashtaroeth, a city of Moab, where that idol was worshipped, allotted to the half tribe of Manasseh, Deut. i. 4; Josh. ix. 10.

Asia, one of the four quarters of the world, as they are usually called; but, in the New Testament, usually confined to Asia Minor, or the Proconsular Asia, comprising Phrygia, Mysia, Caria, and Lydia, in which were planted the seven churches mentioned in the Revelation of St. John.

Assyria, an ancient and immense empire, of which Nineveh was the capital. It was bounded on the north by Armenia, south by Susiana, (or Persia,) west by the Tigris, and east by Media.

Athens, a celebrated city of Greece, the capital of Attica, and the seat of learning, science, and the arts. Here Paul preached, Acts xvii. 16—22.

Baal-peor, a mountain to which Balak brought Balaam, that he might curse Israel, Numb. xxiii. 28. The name of this idol (Baal) is also prefixed to several other places where he was worshipped.

Babel, and Babylon: the former name describes a tower built soon after the flood, Gen. x. 1—9. It originally formed the centre of the great city of Babylon, Dan. iv. 30.

GENERAL INDEX.

Bashan, the country of Og, which lies between Gilead and the Jordan, Numb. xxxii. 33.

Beersheba, a city of Syria, in the south extremity of Canaan, about twenty miles from Hebron, where Abraham made a covenant with Abimelech, Gen. xxi. 22—34.

Berea, a city of Macedonia, in the neighbourhood of Athens, Acts xvii. 11.

Bethabara, a village beyond the Jordan, where John baptized, and whither Jesus sometimes withdrew, John i. 28; x. 39, 40.

Bethany, a village on Mount Olivet, where Lazarus dwelt, John xi. 28—44.

Beth-el, the place where Jacob was favoured with a heavenly vision, supposed to be on the north border of Benjamin, Gen. xxviii. 19.

Bethesda, a pool in the east of Jerusalem.

Bethlehem of Judah, the city of David and of Christ, formerly called Ephrath, or Ephratah, Micah v. 2; Matt. ii. 1, 6. It is about six miles south of Jerusalem. But there was another Bethlehem in the tribe of Zebulun; and the word Beth, which signifies a house or temple, is prefixed to many other names, as Beth-shemosh, or the City of the Sun; which answers to the Greek Heliopolis.

Bethsaida, the town of Peter, Andrew, and Philip, on the borders of the lake Gennesareth, where our LORD wrought many miracles, Luke x. 13.

Bochim, a place of weeping, Judg. ii. 1—5.

Bozrah, a principal city of Edom, or Idumea, and probably a contraction from Beth-ashtaroth, the temple of Ashtaroth, or Astarte.

Cæsarea, a city in Palestine, formerly called Strato's Tower, but rebuilt by Herod the Great, and thus named in honour of Cæsar. It became the residence of the Roman proconsul, and the metropolis of Judea.

Cæsarea-Philippi, was first called Leshem, and afterwards Dan, Josh. xix. 47; Judg. xviii. 29; and being afterwards rebuilt by Philip the tetrarch, he called it Cæsarea in honour of Cæsar, with his own name subjoined.

Calvary, the same as Golgotha, is supposed to have been a hill, just without the city walls, Matt. xxvii. 33; Luke xxiii. 33.

Cana, a town of Galilee, where Jesus wrought his first miracle, John ii. 1—11.

Canaan, in its more contracted sense, as divided by Joshua, is calculated to have been not above 160 miles long by 50 broad; but in its more enlarged sense, it extended south to the desert of Kadesh, north to Lebanon, east to the Euphrates, and west to the Mediterranean, Gen. xv. 18; Deut. xi. 24, &c.

Capernaum, a town on the sea of Galilee, and chiefly inhabited by fishermen, &c, Matt. iv. 15, 16.

Cappadocia, a kingdom famous for horses and flocks. It is mentioned in connexion with Pontus, Galatia, and Bithynia, to which it joined, Acts ii. 9; 1 Pet. i. 1.

Carmel, a mountain on the west side of the Holy Land, rendered famous in the history of Elijah, 1 Kings xviii. 19—46.

Chinnereth, Lake of, the same as Gennesareth, which see.

king afforded to David an asylum, 1 Sam. xxvii. 5, 6.

Gaza, another chief city of the Philistines, the scene of Samson's chief exploits, Judg. xvi.

Gehenna. The Gehenna of fire refers to the dreadful punishment of being burnt alive in the valley of Ben Hinnom; a valley on the south-east of Jerusalem, in which the idolatrous Jews sacrificed their children by fire to Moloch, Baal, and the sun. In one spot, called Tophet, was a fire stove, in which idolaters and other culprits were occasionally burnt. In it Josiah ordered all the offal, bones, carcasses of dead dogs and animals, and other filth, to be consumed: and to prevent the evils that might result from putrefaction and worms, the fire was never allowed to go out, but was kept incessantly burning, and thus it was a very fit and striking emblem of the everlasting fire of hell. See Lev. xx. 14: xxi. 9; 2 Kings xxiii. 10; 2 Chron. xxviii. 3; Isa. xxx. 33; Jer. vii. 30, 32; xix. 5, 6; xxxii. 35. This passage (Matt. v. 22) refers to three degrees of punishment among the Jews:—1. The city council, an inferior court consisting of twenty-three judges; 2. The Sanhedrin, or great council of the elders of the people, the Chief Priests, and the Scribes, consisting of seventy-two members; and, 3. To the Gehenna of fire: and by these allusions Jesus teaches that under his spiritual reign rash anger, anger contemptuously expressed, and anger with manifest malice, would subject men to such diversities of punishment, as the Jews themselves were accustomed to apportion to atrocious actions, according to their views of criminality.

Gennesareth, (called also Chinnereth;) the Lake of Galilee, about twenty miles long and six broad, surrounded by pleasant towns. See Luke v. 1, &c.

Gerar, the royal city of Abimelech, Gen. xx. 2.
